This policy would also be a serious injury to the farming community. Apart from its other aspects as effecting the farmers, the loss of the markets afforded by the towns and villages—by the manufacturing industries which build up the places—would be a serious loss. The value of a good market in indicated by the higher value of farms close to cities and towns, and with the depletion of the population in the centres, these markets would be injured and the farming community would suffer. It is to the interest of all classes to have the industrial prosperity of the country increase, and it is, therefore, the duty of all who wish themselves and their country well to uphold the present fiscal policy and to reject the schemes of the present Liberal party.

Looking at the matter from this point of view alone—and these considerations are of great importance, as they include the material welfare of the people—the policy of unrestricted reciprocity stands condemned as one that would be disastrous; and when the political effect of such an alliance with the Republic is also considered, and the evil effect it would have upon the Canadian shipping, mercantile and other interests are added, the condemnation cannot be too emphatic and complete.

MR. BLAKE'S RETIREMENT.

THE announcement that Mr. Blake will retire from politics appears to be authentic. Referring to the report that he will not be a candidate, the Montreal Witness, a Liberal paper, says: "All indications are in favor of this being a true forecast. The Liberals fervently hope, however, that he will retire in silence. They fear a farewell speech from him at this juncture." Why do the men who cheered Mr. Blake four years ago and lauded him as their honored leader, now fear to hear his voice? Has Mr. Blake fallen so low that, instead of shouting for him, they wish to see him retire silently into oblivion? No, that is not the trouble. Mr. Blake has not lost the good opinion of the party so much as the party has lost the good opinion of Mr. Blake. He, once so eloquent on behalf of his party, has not opened his mouth on the great question that is before the country now, and has said not one word in favor of the policy that Sir Richard Cartwright and Mr. Laurier are advocating. His silent disapproval of their policy is preferred by these men to his open denunciation, which would blast the party, but its defeat will be complete enough without that.

Don't Feel Well,

And yet you are not sick enough to consult a doctor, or you refrain from so doing for fear you will alarm yourself and friends—we will tell you just what you need. It is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which will lift you out of that uncertain, uncomfortable, dangerous condition, into a state of good health, confidence and cheerfulness. You've no idea how potent this peculiar medicine is in cases like yours.

NORTH MONAGHAN.

Inaugural Meeting of the Township Council—Officers Appointed—A Second Meeting.

COUNCIL MEETING.—The first meeting of the Council elect for 1891 was held in the Town Hall on the 19th of January. The members, Joseph Forster, Reeve, and Messrs. William Brownscombe, Robert Dunlop, Matthew J. Johnston and John McIntosh, Councillors, having taken the required declarations of qualification and office, took their seats, the Reeve in the chair. The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed. The following appointments were then made:—James B. Fowler and Robert Eastland, auditors; and John J. Bennett, assessor. A by-law confirming the appointments received its several readings and was passed. An account from the trustees of School Section No. 2 for the use of school house for holding the Provincial election was ordered to be paid. The Council adjourned till the 9th day of February.

ANOTHER MEETING.—The Council met on February 9th, according to adjournment, all the members being present and the Reeve presiding. Minutes of last meeting read and confirmed. A by-law appointing certain township officers was passed through its various stages, signed and sealed. On motion of Mr. Johnston, seconded by Mr. McIntosh, the taxes of the children of the late Hugh Cunningham were remitted. On motion of Mr. Dunlop, seconded by Mr. Johnston, the time for returning the collector's roll was extended to the first of March next. On motion of Mr. McIntosh, seconded by Mr. Brownscombe, the balance of Mr. Stratton's printing account for 1890 ($14 60) was ordered to be paid. The Council then adjourned till Monday, the 2nd day of March.

No Strikes Among the Wives and Mothers.

The dear wife and mother! Her devoted and loving nature knows no bounds. We do not hear of her organizing "strikes" for fewer hours of labor, and remuneration! She does not show a sullen disposition and parade the streets in order to right imaginary wrongs! God help the dear children and the community if this ever occurs. How many men ever take seriously into consideration the amount of labor that the wife and mother must daily perform? It is truly amazing and wonderful when the whole is summed up and looked at with care. Is it any wonder that we see so many used up, broken down, pale and hollow cheeked women. Many of these dear devoted mothers are nervous, just getting irritable, they are sleepless, and many of them suffering from dyspepsia and impaired digestion. The lives of these mothers are very precious to the dear children who cling daily to them in shadow and sunshine. Let these dear and devoted mothers know that Paine's Celery Compound will impart to their nervous system a strength, a vitality and a vigor that they sorely stand in need of. It will banish their dyspepsia, headaches, their mental and physical depression and their sleeplessness, and give them vivacity of spirits, refreshing sleep and good appetite, and fit them for the work and duties of life.

Something Worth Trying For! $300 in Gold.

This is what "THE LADIES' BAZAR" will give to the person sending them the largest number of sentences constructed from words contained in the quotation, "Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you do you even so to them."

Every week during the contest they will give a "Handsome Family Sewing Machine" valued at $50 to the person sending them the largest number of sentences that week. If preferred they will give the winner a Solid Gold Watch instead of the Sewing Machine. Special prizes for Boys and Girls.

They do not offer impossibilities. The above will be carried out to the letter. Everyone competing will have an equal chance. No dictionary required in this competition.

THE LADIES' BAZAR,
8d34-8w7 4 Adelaide-st. East, Toronto.

Some Foolish People

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediatey see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c and $1. Trial size free. At all druggists.

A PRICELESS WIFE.

Fiction Outdone by a Simple Tale Which Might have Been True.

"My dear, you look worried," said Mrs. Fosdick to her husband, when he came home on a recent evening.

"I do?"

"Yes; and you have hardly eaten anything. What has gone wrong?"

"I didn't intend to betray any anxiety, my dear;" and Mr. Fosdick tried to look cheerful.

"But I can tell from your manner that something has gone wrong. You must tell me all about it."

Mrs. Fosdick went over to her husband and entwined her arms about his neck coaxingly.

"O, it's nothing."

"You can't put me off like that, Harry. Tell me what is on your mind, love."

"Well, I have met with losses."

"Never mind, cheer up!"

"But I have lost all I possessed."

"Not all, dear," replied the sweet woman; "you have me yet."

"Yes, bless your loving little heart, I have."

"And you have your health."

"Yes."

"Then don't worry."

"But, my dear, we shall have to leave our home that you are so fond of. That slump in stocks took everything."

"Harry dear, come up stairs."

Mr. Fosdick followed his wife into her dainty boudoir, and watched her as she opened a drawer in her escritoire.

She took therefrom a large envelope and bade him open it.

He did so, and to his surprise found that it contained $500 in bank notes.

"Whose is this?" he managed to ask.

Instead of answering his question his wife handed him another envelope and told him to examine its contents.

He did so.

Like the first, it contained just $500 in large bills

"But whose money is this, love?" he asked again.

For reply, the little woman handed him a third envelope.

This too contained $500.

"Are you acting as banker for anybody?" Mr. Fosdick asked.

"Yes," replied his wife, smilingly, and she handed to her husband another envelope, similarly filled.

"Who is the depositor?"

Another envelope was handed to Mr. Fosdick, and it, too, held $500.

"That't all," said the happy little woman. "That is $2,500. And that's what you have to begin life again with, Harry."

Mr. Fosdick's eyes opened widely.

"Is it yours? Where did you get it?"

"It was mine, but I have given it to you to begin life with, love."

"But where did you get it?"

"Why, I have made my own bonnets for the last two years."

A Costly Question.

"Good-morning, children," said a suburban doctor, as he met three or four little children on their way to school; "and how are you this morning?"

"We durssn't tell you," replied the oldest, a boy of eight.

"Dare not tell me!" exclaimed the doctor. "And why not?"

"'Cause papa said that last year, it cost him over £30 to have you come in and ask us how we were."—Judy.

To Clean Ribbons.

The nicest way I have found to wash ribbons, is to lay them out smoothly on the table, take a clean brush (I use a nail brush), soap and water, or ammonia and water, and brush them on both sides until they are clean. Then clean the brush, and with clear cold water brush them until they are rinsed. Leave them to dry or hang up, but do not iron. This gives them a much newer, fresher look than the common method of rubbing in water.—The Household (Boston).

The Cow Tree.

The cow tree, the sap of which closely resembles milk, is a native of south and Central America. It is a specie of evergreen, and grows only in mountain regions. A hole bored in the wood, or even a wound made in the bark of this remarkable tree, is almost immediately filled with a lacteal like fluid. Alexander von Humboldt was the first traveller to describe this tree and bring it to the notice of Europeans.—Commercial Advertiser.

Soap from Corn.

A company has been organized for the manufacture of soap from corn. It will be controlled by Council Bluffs capital. From experiments made during the last week it has been ascertained that the new soap can be put on the market for less than 1 cent a pound. It is made wholly of corn and alkali, and one bushel of corn makes 400 pounds of first-class washing soap. It is claimed by the gentlemen embarking in the business that the finest toilet soaps can be made.—Chicago Tribune.

A Giant Stag Shot in Ireland.

The gigantic stag in Muckross Forest, near Killarney, which had come to be regarded as what Carlyle would have termed "an uncanny and quasi-infernal object," and which has been the mark of many rifles, was shot recently by Lord Mayo. The creature had a magnificent head of fourteen points, and its "clean" weight is said to have been nearly twenty-nine stone (406 pounds), in which case it must be about the heaviest stag that has [illegible] been killed either in Scotland or in [illegible]—London Truth.

Cranberries.

The cranberry is supposed to have been so named from the appearance of its bud. Just before expanding into the perfect flower the stem, calyx and petals resemble the neck, head and bill of the crane; hence the name "cranberry" or "craneberry." The cranberry is a native of North America, and is found from Virginia to Minnesota. Cranberry culture as now understood is comparatively recent in its origin, and is immense in its growth. One hundred and fifty bushels is a fair and average yield per acre, though a yield from 250 to 300 bushels is not uncommon.

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on a trial.

VOLTAIC BELT CO., Marshall, Mich.

I Will Give You

The best bargains in groceries in Peterborough. My stock is new and goods are all first-class. Just received a nice line of Japan Tea I am selling at 25c per lb. Special discounts to hotels, boarding houses and parties purchasing goods in large quantities. Alex. Elliott, 358 George-st. Peterborough. d30

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Sellers of Property.

Blank Deeds, Blank Mortgages, Blank Transfers, House and Land Leases, etc., on hand at the REVIEW Stationery.

GOUGHS
SUITS ARE RELIABLE

MONSTER
Stock Taking SALE!

The Most Gigantic Slaughter of Odds and Ends ever held in Canada.

In order to clear out stock we will sell at less than cost a Lot of Odd Garmemts. They are in every respect regular goods and splendid values.

To See is to Buy. Come and See.

GOUGH BROTHERS,
The Clothiers, 377 and 379 George-s

DOMINION ELECTIONS!

Grand Rally of Liberal Conservatives

TUESDAY EVENING, at 7.30 p.m.

at the Liberal-Conservative Rooms in Bradburn's Opera-House, old Council Chamber.

Every elector desirous of upholding the Liberal-Conservative Policy is particularly requested to be present to assist in organization for the contest.

W. H. MOORE, President Lib.-Con. Assn.
W. J. MINORS, Sec. Lib.-Con. Assn.
Peterborough Feb, 6, 1891.

V. R.

Dominion Elections.

WEST PETERBOROUGH.

A MASS MEETING

Of the Liberals of West Peterborough will be held in BRADBURN'S OPERA HOUSE, PETERBOROUGH, on WEDNESDAY, Feb. 11th

at Two o'clock p. m.

to Nominate a Candidate to contest the Riding in the coming Dominion Elections. A large attendance of the Liberals from all parts of the Riding is expected. There should be no delay. Prompt action is necessary.

GEO. E. ROGER, Secretary. H. SANDERSON, President.

N. B.—Nominations Feb 26th; Polling March 5th. 5d31

REMOVAL.

DR. CARMICHAEL

has removed to his new office and residence, corner of Water and Brock-sts., (opposite the Court House. d146-w48-3mo

TOOLS!
BUILDING HARDWARE!

NAILS, LOCKS, HINGES, and all Building Hardware

Edge Tools, Saws, Files, Planes and all Mechanics' Tools.

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc., etc. of the Best Quality and Lower in Price than Elsewhere

GEO. STETHEM.

"It is the Safest and Fairest Policy I Have Ever Seen,"

Was the remark made by a prominent representative of one of the largest and best American Life insurance Companies, when he had carefully examined

THE ORDINARY LIFE POLICY OF —THE—

TEMPERANCE and GENERAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y.

This is the only policy offered to the Canadian public that can neither lapse nor expire as to its paid-up value till death ensues, after three annual premiums have been paid on it.

Our Limited Payment Life Policy, or Instalment Bonds, Our Common Sense Renewable Term Policies, and our Survivors' Endowment Bonds are all possessed of new and excellent features and are all worthy of careful consideration.

Agents Wanted.

H. P. LINDSAY,
Gen. Agent for Peterborough, Northumberland and Durham. Office No. [illegible] George-st., opposite new market building.

Bell Telephone Co., OF CANADA.

Capital, - $1,500,000.00.

Head Office, MONTREAL.

AND. ROBERTSON, — President.
C. F. SISE, — Vice-Pres. and Man'g. Dir.
C. P. SCLATER, Secy.-Treas.
HUGH C. BAKER, Man., Ont. Dep., Hamilton.

300 EXCHANGES.

Long distance lines give unequalled facilities for talking between cities, towns and villages.

If you wish to speak to Kingston, Belleville Port Hope, Lindsay, Lakefield, Millbrook, Omemee, Toronto, Hamilton, etc., use the wires of the

BELL TELEPHONE Co,
H. W. KENT, Local Manager
44d-3mo

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

SELLING AT REDUCED PRICES

We are offering our Stock of Manufactured Furs at cost, previous to stock taking. The stock comprises a choice assortment of Ladies' and Gents fine Fur Collars, Cuffs, Capes, Caps, Gauntlets and Coats. Also a few Musk Ox, Bear, Oppossum and Goat Robes.

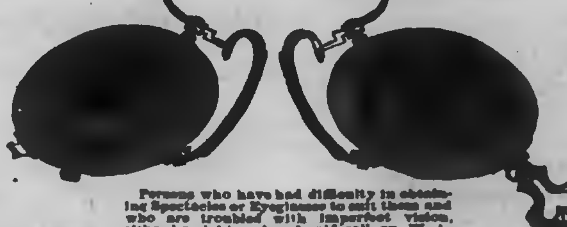
CALL AND BE CONVINCED.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.
Manufacturing Furriers.

EXTRAORDINARY VALUES!

10th, and continuing until February 1st. we will offer all WINTER CLOTHING, in our Men's, Youths' and Children's Departments, at a QUARTER OFF original prices. Everything in our Great Clothing Stock comes under the scalping Knife of a QUARTER OFF. Nothing reserved. If you want clothing of any description, don't fail to take advantage of the extraordinary values we will offer you before stock-taking--February 1st. We guarantee A BIGGER SAVING on EVERY purchase, no matter what inducements others may hold out.

H. LeBRUN & Co.
City Clothing Store, George-st.



Persons who have had difficulty in obtaining Spectacles or Eyeglasses to suit them and who are troubled with imperfect vision, either by night or day should call on W. A. SANDERSON and have a free examination of their eyes made. Oculists Prescriptions Carefully Filled.

W. A. SANDERSON, Jeweller and Optician, Peterborough, Ont.

EYESIGHT TESTED.

DO YOU LIKE
Biscuits?

Most likely you do.
There's a deal of difference
in Biscuits. Quality is an important item. A good
biscuit should be fresh,
crisp and of good flavor.
Here's what will suit you.
Try the English biscuit, made
by Huntley & Palmer the famous makers. Imported
by us and guaranteed genuine.
Ask for Huntley & Palmer's biscuits.

W. J. MASON
426 GEORGE STREET.
No trouble to show Goods.

Blank Books.
—AND—
Office Stationery

Call and get our prices
on Ledgers,
Journals,
Day Books,
Stephen's Inks,
Carter's Inks,
Underwood's Inks
Stafford's Inks,
Pens,
Foolscap,
Legal paper,
and all other
Office supplies.

See the quality of our Blank Books.

Our Prices are the Lowest.

H. THOMPSON & Co
Office and General Stationers, Booksellers
and Wall Paper Dealers,
406 George-st. — — Peterborough

The Daily Review.
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1891.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

RALLY TO-NIGHT.

In the old Council Chamber in the Opera House block to-night the Conservative meeting to organize for the election will be held. All Conservatives, and all who desire to uphold the material prosperity of the town and country and to resist the attempt being made to force the Dominion into a disastrous alliance with the United States, should endeavor to be present. Although the prospects of victory here are bright, as they are throughout the country, over-confidence is often as deadly an enemy as indifference, and organization, thorough and prompt, should be secured at once. The issues are of the first importance, and every man should be prepared to do his duty at this crisis in the history of our town and country. Turn out, and let the first rally be large that the work may be placed on a solid footing at the start.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. G. Gumpricht is in town Order may be left at Messrs. Taylor & McDonald's store. 1yd165

A Meeting for Saturday.

Mr. Lauder, of Toronto, the promoter of the proposed beet sugar industry for this district will be in town on Saturday next and will address a mass meeting of the farmers in the new market building. A large attendance of farmers is expected as the industry is of importance to the agricultural community of this district.

He was Given Six Months.

Fred C. McNamara, the dentist who worked here for a short time last summer and was arrested and convicted in Toronto shortly after leaving here on a charge of having induced a young girl to leave Peterborough and enter a house of ill-repute in Toronto, was sentenced yesterday by Judge McMahon to eight months in the Central. The fellow has already been in gaol for four months.

Services at St. Luke's

To-morrow being Ash-Wednesday, the following services will be held in St. Luke's church, Ashburnham:—Litany Commination Service and sermon at 10.30 a. m.; Evening Prayer and sermon at 7.30 p.m.

There will be a daily service throughout Lent, except on Wednesdays and Fridays, at 5 p.m. in the lecture room.

Every Wednesday Evening Prayer and sermon will be held in the church at 7.30.

On Friday the Bible Class will meet as usual at 7.30 p.m. in the lecture room.

Campaign Notes.

There will be a lively time in Norwood today. Both parties, the Conservatives and Reformers, hold their convention in that village to nominate candidates to represent East Hastings in the approaching political battle.

The Reformers of West Peterborough are to meet to-morrow in the opera house to consider the nomination of a candidate.

There will be a grand rally of the Conservatives this evening in the Old Council Chamber in opera house block to organize for the campaign. Let every supporter of Sir John and the Conservative party be present.

FLAVELLE TRIUMPHANT.

The Lindsay Skip Wins the International Trophy—How He is Treated in Winnipeg.

Skip Flavelle, of Lindsay, has succeeded in winning the international trophy in the great Winnipeg bonspiel, and loud and long will the plaudits and congratulations of Ontario curlers ring for the plucky, popular and successful skip of the Lindsay rink and the international champion. A news despatch from Winnipeg last evening says: "Flavelle, of Lindsay, won the international curling contest to-day with a score of 20 to 1, knocking out McKechner, the champion skip of the Thistle club of Winnipeg. Jack McMillan, who played on Flavelle's rink, made 25 in the points competition, taking fourth prize. Flavelle leaves for home on Wednesday and takes with him twelve gold medals and two cups, and the point prize, which will be exhibited at Toronto on Saturday."

Not only, therefore, do the Lindsay curlers bring back the International cup, but they have also succeeded in capturing several of the minor trophies and will return triumphant and jubilant.

In Winnipeg they have been enjoying a big time and Skip Flavelle has been the lion of the day. On Wednesday last the curlers were banquetted in right royal style and in its report the Free Press, of Winnipeg, says:—"Mr. Flavelle, of Lindsay, in rising to respond to the toast (The Ontario Branch of R.C.C.C.) received a reception that he will not soon forget. He regretted that a larger number of Ontario curlers were not in attendance and remarked that even if his men had not succeeded in taking any of the trophies away with them they would feel well satisfied with their trip to the Northwest. Mr. Flavelle, upon concluding his remarks, was given three cheers and a tiger."

The following from the Winnipeg Tribune in reference to one of the matches will give his friends here an idea of how Flavelle is lionized abroad:—"The curling match yesterday afternoon between J. D. Flavelle's rink and Dr. Clarke's on No. 3 sheet of the Thistle ice was pronounced one of the finest contests recorded in curling history. The rinks are among the best on the continent. The chief feature developed during the game was the bringing out of the pluck and perseverance which is and must be a part of curlers such as Flavelle and Clarke. The match began shortly after dinner, and the people were crowding to the curling resorts at about the same hour, all asking, "Where's Flavelle playing?" Before the fifth end there was an immense gathering of enthusiastic and deeply interested spectators. At the eighth end Flavelle led his opponent by five points, and a report went abroad among curlers that it was all up with Clarke, but not so, as at the end of the fourteenth end Dunbar, the third player in the Thistle rink, made two beautiful shots, the first one spilling two of Flavelle's winners lying near the button, and the second catching the "cheek" of another stone, laying in two winners for Clark. Dunbar's magnificent efforts were not in vain, for in this end the Thistles took the lead of Flavelle by a point. The excitement was intense, the galleries in the rink were crowded, and it was with difficulty that the crowd was kept off the ice. Here again Clark and his support played nobly, and added two more points to their credit. "I'm sorry for Flavelle," "It's too bad, isn't it," and all such remarks were heard from Flavelle's friends, as it seemed like a hopeless case. From the first stone in the 16th end to the last Flavelle played for the whole hog or none, and he succeeded in the former. Cheer after cheer rang through the rafters, as the popular Lindsay man was picked up by his warm admirers and carried off the ice."

Services at St. Peter's.

To-morrow will be Ash Wednesday and special services will be held at St. Peter's cathedral at seven, eight and nine o'clock in the morning. Services will also be held every Wednesday and Friday evenings during Lent.

Personal.

Mr. George Whitis, a former resident of this county, who has been visiting friends here for a month past, leaves for his home to-night in Winnipeg.

Messrs. I. W. Rea, of Reaboro, and R. N. Scott, of Smith have been appointed successors to Mr. Robert Fife, who has retired from the local agency of Massy Manufacturing Company. We wish Messrs. Rea and Scott success in their enterprise.

Mr. R. M. Roy at Bridgenorth.

A successful entertainment was given at Bridgenorth last night under the auspices of the Royal Templars of that village. Quite a number of the members of the local Council of Royal Templars drove out and with the large attendance from the village and neighborhood the hall was well filled. The entertainment was furnished by Mr. R. M. Roy who gave his lecture "From London to Rome," illustrating the journey with his unexcelled stereopticon views. The audience were delighted with the views and manifested their appreciation in a manner which was flattering to Mr. Roy. After the entertainment the village Royal Templars entertained their Peterborough friends most hospitably. The evening was decidedly pleasant.

St. John's Notes.

The regular fornightly meeting of the Men's Church Extension Union will be held this evening at a quarter to eight in the rooms on Hunter-st.

The Finance Committee will meet this evening.

The delegates from the local Chapter of St. Andrew's Brotherhood have returned from the Toronto convention, bringing with them a share of the great enthusiasm which permeated the proceedings.

To-morrow (Ash Wednesday) being the first day of Lent, there will be service in St. John's at 11 a. m. In the evening the service will be at 8 o'clock, and at 8.30 the first lecture of a very important course will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Sweeney, one of Toronto's eloquent divines. His subject will be "Our Example and Influence."

Entertained by His Lordship.

As it is customary each year, His Lord-Lordship Bishop O'Connor entertained the members of the choir, the ushers and collectors of St. Peter's Cathedral at the Presbytery last evening. As is usual, the event was marked by unmarred social enjoyment and pleasure. At 7.30 the guests sat down to an elaborate spread in the Presbytery, and happy pleasantries kept pace with the feast. After the edibles had been satisfactorily discussed, the guests adjourned to the palace where the evening was pleasantly spent with music, song and recreations Before the happy gathering dispersed the thanks of the guests were tendered His Lordship by Messrs. Cahill and Kelly on behalf of the collectors, Messrs. Coughlin and Ball for the choir, and Mr. J. J. Sheehy as representative of the ushers.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. d&w-6mo

ST. PAUL'S PROSPERITY.

REV. E. F. TORRANCE TELLS OF ITS STEADY GROWTH.

Reference to the Labors of the Late Rev. Mr. Roger—The Growth and Prosperity of One of Peterborough's Presbyterian Congregations.

On Sunday last at the morning service at St. Paul's church Rev. E. F. Torrance, the pastor, delivered a discourse which was of unusual interest to the members of his congregation, inasmuch as the rev. gentleman had gone into the records of the church and arranged an amount of historical reference in a very forcible and practical sermon. The deliverance was an important one, full of instructive information for the congregation, and will also interest the church generally, for in the prosperity of others all Christians can rejoice. An extract from the sermon delivered by the St. Paul's pastor will, therefore, be read with interest by more than the members of his own flock. He took for his text the words:—

"Save now, I beseech Thee, O Lord; O Lord I beseech Thee send now prosperity."—Psalm cxviii; 25.

The rev. gentleman said: The Christian minister must ever feel an earnest desire for the prosperity of his congregation. His relation to the members of his congregation is very much closer than that of an ordinary professional man to those whom he serves. The relation of a lawyer to his client or a physician to his patient or of a member of parliament to his constituency is a temporal relation merely, but the relation of a minister to the members of his congregation is one which extends beyond the present life to the life to come. It is by no means so easy for a minister to measure the prosperity of his congregation as it is for men to measure prosperity in earthly matters. In measuring the prosperity of his congregation a minister may apply a standard which is by no means correct. There is undoubtedly a danger in judging of the prosperity of a congregation by statistics. It is to be feared that statistics have led many a congregation to say as did the church at Laodicea, "I am rich and increased with goods and have need of nothing." Statistics will not have much to do with determining ministerial reward. The congregations which the world has regarded as most prosperous will not be pronounced to have been so at the last. While, then, the Christian minister ought not to set too high a value upon outward prosperity, he is by no means bound to disregard it altogether. It is not improper for him to pray for the outward prosperity of his congregation and to rejoice at seeing any marks of it. Let me mention some of the

MARKS OF OUTWARD PROSPERITY

in a church. One of the marks of outward prosperity in a church is accessions to the church membership. The Christian minister rejoices at seeing additions to the membership of the church. Have we had this mark of outward prosperity in St. Paul's during the past? Yes. Certainly during the long and faithful pastorate of Rev. Mr. Roger St. Paul's was a prosperous congregation in this respect. While I do not know the exact number of members admitted into the church during that pastorate of forty-two years, it must have been very large. By him the congregation was formed, and under his fostering care it grew until it ranked among the largest congregations of the whole church. Other congregations were connected with it and went out from it. Lakefield and Springville were part of his charge to which God's honored servant ministered, and the congregation at Lakevale was originally a part of St. Paul's. To him is due in great measure the position which the Presbyterian church occupies to-day in this town. The impress of his character has been left upon the congregation. The effect of that long pastorate is clearly seen in the peace and harmony which continues to characterize St. Paul's. He was one who labored, and into whose labors another has entered. In fourteen years and a half there have been 944 additions to the membership. 335 of these on certificate, 609 on profession of faith. There have been sixty communion seasons during these years, and at every one of those, except two, there have been additions to the membership. There are not more than two congregations in the whole church which have received more members in a similar time. Another of these marks of outward prosperity is in the number of families and in the membership from year to year. Have we had this mark of outward prosperity in St. Paul's during the past? Yes. In 1876 there were in the congregation 190 families and 368 members. To-day there are in this congregation 340 families and 706 members. The congregation has steadily increased both in families and membership from year to year. Another of these marks of outward prosperity is the increase of contributions from year to year. Have we had this mark of prosperity in St. Paul's in the past? Yes. To a certain extent we have. In 1876 the total contributions for strictly congregational purposes amounted to $2,376, and for the schemes of the church $676. In 1890 the total contributions for strictly congregational purposes amounted to $5,200 and for the schemes of the church $2,130. In 1876 the total contributions for all purposes were $3,679, in 1890 they were $7,750. The year 1890 has been a year of outward prosperity in St. Paul's in spite of the fact of a reported envelope arrearage of over $600. What does an arrearage of this kind imply? It implies that there are some in the congregation who have defective views as to their obligation to the church and that there are no strenuous efforts put forth to collect the amount due. Even with this arrearage there was a surplus of revenue over expenditure. Had this arrearage been collected the surplus of revenue would have been large. In 1884 when we entered upon the enlargement of the church, the contributions showed a marked increase the amount raised for all purposes having been $7,724 as against $6,306 for the previous year. From 1884 to 1889 while the contributions for the building fund were being paid the total amounts raised was in excess of what it had been doing during the past two years. In 1886 it reached the large amount of $15,026. The rebuilding of the church has certainly contributed very materially to the well being of the congregation. Without it the growth must have been greatly impeded during the past five years. There are several lines along which we cannot expect much further growth from year to year. We cannot expect that there will be much more net increase in the number of families or in the membership. If the town continues steadily to increase it may be necessary to build another church for the accommodation of new families. The congregation in St. Paul's is as large as any one man can well serve. The rev. gentleman then went on to point out the increase which might be made from year to year in the contributions for schemes of the church toward the mission funds, the colleges, the augmentation fund. He closed by making an appeal to those in comfortable circumstances to double or treble their contributions and those who were giving nothing to begin and give, no matter how small the amount might be.

THE NET INCREASE

THEIR TENTH ANNIVERSARY.

The Local Christian Endeavorers Commemorate their Anniversary.

Last evening a very interesting meeting was held by the local Christian Endeavor Union in the Sunday school room of St. Paul's church. It was ten years ago last Monday since the first Endeavor society was organized, and the tenth anniversary was commemorated by the Endeavor Societies wherever they are to be found. The programme for the meeting was arranged and printed, so that every anniversary service, no matter where it was held, had the same exercises. There was a large attendance at the meeting in St. Paul's church last evening, notwithstanding that the weather was very disagreeable.

Dr. Scott, President, was chairman, while Miss Dawson presided at the organ. After an opening hymn, Rev. E. F. Torrance led in prayer, followed by a responsive reading led by Mr. McCallum, the subject being "Christian Endeavor in the Bible." Rev. Mr. Torrance then gave a reading, "The Advancing Host," followed by a Bible reading on "The Endeavor Pledge," conducted by Mr. A. J. Johnston. Mr. Colville and Mr. McCallum then followed with short prayers, and, after another hymn, Stanley Matthews from, the Baptist Society, gave a recitation. Scripture verses were then given by members of the different Societies, and Mr. A. E. Scott led a responsive reading, setting forth ten reasons why young people should join the Society as active members. After another hymn sentence prayers were offered, and Mr. Albert Hamilton read an interesting paper on the history, growth and purpose of the Christian Endeavor Society. Another hymn was then sang and Mr. A. E. Scott recited "Hope's Whisper." The closing hymn was "God be with you till we meet again" and the members all united in the Christian Endeavor benediction.

Just before the meeting closed Mr. A. J. Johnston, of the St. Paul's Society, was appointed a representative on the Provincial Executive Board on motion of Mr. Colville.

The meeting, as the programme as outlined above would indicate, was an interesting one, and as profitable as it was interesting, those present taking an earnest part in the exercises.

ANOTHER INDUSTRY.

The Manufacturers' Committee Have Another New Industry Seeking Location

The Manufacturers' Committee of the Town Council met last night and discussed matters regarding our industrial interests, Mr. Wm. Hamilton and Mr. Munro, of the Wm. Hamilton Manfg. Co., were present and laid before the committee another new industry which is seeking location in Peterborough. This is a factory for the manufacture of shingle mill machinery. The machinery is at present manufactured by a company in the United States, where some 300 men are employed in the works. The company wish to establish a Canadian branch and will bring with them valuable patterns for which they hold the patents. Mr. Hamilton would like to see the establishment of the industry and wished to ascertain what assistance or inducement the town would be likely to offer. The matter was discussed, but nothing was decided. The industry would employ from 50 to 60 men at the start.

The Peterborough Branch of the C.E.T.S.

The Church of England Temperance Society at St. Luke's held its annual meeting last week. Provisional officers and committee were appointed for one month. The committee met at the rectory last night to arrange a good programme for the general meeting on Monday next at 8 p.m. As arranged for by the constitution this meeting will be open to visitors. The first Sunday in Lent (next Sunday) by the direction of the bishop of the diocese will be observed in the church, and a sermon putting the claims of the society before the congregation will be preached by the rector.

The Homeliest Man in Peterborough.

As well as the handsomest, and others are invited to call on any druggist and get free a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, a remedy that is selling entirely upon its merits and is guaranteed to relieve and cure all Chronic and Acute Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

Brevities.

—There was a blank at the police this morning.

—The Spring Assizes are to open here on Monday, April 6th, before McMahon, J.

—Two local rinks go to Port Hope to-morrow to meet the curlers of that town.

—The annual meeting of the Bible Society is to be held to-morrow evening in the George-st Methodist church.

—Gilbert Defoe, who lost the $25, for the alleged stealing of which Frank LeFevre is now in gaol, was brought here yesterday from Port Hope by Chief Roszel. The man was required as a witness.

—The Chief has a purse containing a small sum of money for which he wants an owner. It was found before Christmas.

To Rent.

Farms wanted to rent. Tenants supplied this year at half price. Call or write.

T. HURLEY,
d23tf 357 George-st.

Bible Society.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough Branch of the Upper Canada Bible Society will be held in the George-st. Methodist church at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening, the 11 inst. The meeting will be addressed by the Rev. G. M. Milligan, of Toronto, and others. All are invited to attend. 2d

EST HER Public inquiry about the Cantata will be gratified to know that the presentation will be made as perfect as possible. Constant practice is being had and on Wednesday night a dress rehearsal will take place. The programmes are out giving full particulars of the personations and movement of the Cantata. The plan of the hall is now open at Greatrex's drug store, prices being 25c. and 50c. 2d34

At It Again.

At what? Both political parties pegging away, getting ready for the fray. They say that a political contest wake's business up. That may or may not be the case, but which ever party wins there is the reflection that winners and losers also will go ahead drinking Hawley Bros. teas, the best, the purest, the cheapest that are sold. It may be convenient to forget some things in politics, but don't forget Hawley Bros teas. d31tf

The Coming Contest.

It is considered it will be of a very lively nature. Every man may have his friends in politics, but when it comes to Grit or Tory of course he must cast his vote for his party irrespective of social friendship. The same may be said in this case. Parties may have their friends, but when it comes to business and they wish to buy tea, Groceries, wines or liquors at sacrifice, W. J. Morrow's is the place they go to. d31w7

PASHA is the name of the popular P. S. Seven styles to suit all hands. Try them. Sold at the REVIEW Stationery.

MR. BURNHAM FOR THE EAST.

The Unanimous Choice of the Conservatives of the East Riding.

The Conservatives of East Peterborough held a convention at Norwood this afternoon, and a telegram received states that Mr. John Burnham, Q.C., was unanimously chosen to be the standard bearer for the party in the present campaign. Mr. Burnham accepted the nomination amid enthusiasm. There was a very large attendance.

TO ERASTUS WIMAN.

Mr. Wiman you're a sly man,
But you can't bamboozle us,
So stop your anti-British rant
And don't make such a fuss.

We were born beneath the Union Jack;
We'll die beneath its folds
We would not sell that "meteor flag"
For tons of Yankee gold.

No Stars and Stripes for us, my man,
No Presidential sway,
We'll fight, if need be, for our Queen
And for our own John A.

A. B.

Spring Goods.

Our stock will be found well assorted this week. New goods coming in constantly Cotton Goods bought before advances and will be sold cheap. H. S. GRIFFIN & Co. 2133

Make Your Plants Grow

and bloom by using Royal Plant Food. Sold only at Mason's Seed and Plant House, corner of Water and Brock-sts. d34

The Population of Peterborough

is about 10,000, and we would say at least one-half are troubled with some affection of the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all our readers not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Trial size free. Large bottle 50c and $1. Sold by all druggists.

Health by Good Living.

For your choicest beef, mutton, lamb, pork, ham, breakfast bacon, spiced beef sausage, etc, go to John J. Howden, 441 George-st. Bacon sold by actual weight. d14tf

Just So.

Anyone can strike a match, but you cannot always strike such bargains as are now being offered in groceries at Stapleton & Elcombe's. Nothing more thoroughly demoralizes the domestic machinery than impure teas or stale groceries. By purchasing your groceries from this firm you may depend upon having everything fresh and good. Call and be convinced. d31w7

TO RENT.

A DESIRABLE HOUSE on Simcoe-st. (Mr Dunsford's brick cottage). Possession immediately. Apply W. H. HILL, Insurance Agent. 2634

"PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE"
parties still hold the boards. We have a lot of good playing cards at 25c. a pack, or 5 for $1.00. These are worth 40c. each.
SAILSBURY BROS.

Dwelling House and 16 Acres of Land For Sale.

We are instructed by Mrs. Sheffield to offer for sale her consisting of lots number 7 and 8 as shown on plan No. 11 for the Township of North Monaghan, adjoining the western limits of the Town of Peterborough. The buildings consist of a modern and well built solid brick two story house 40x21½ with two story kitchen attached. The house contains nine rooms besides bathroom, linen closets, pantries, etc., and is heated by a wood hot air furnace with registers in every room. There are also coal grates and mantles in each room. There is a cellar under the whole house and a separate one under the kitchen.

RESIDENCE and GROUNDS

There is also a summer kitchen and wood shed leading into a brick driving shed and stable, with room for two horses, harness room, etc. A cow house, hen house, barn and small green house.

The house is well supplied with soft water from two large cisterns and by splendid spring water from a never failing spring which is carried into the house, and also to the grounds for watering purposes.

Ten acres of the land are under cultivation and well stocked with apple and pear trees grapes, small fruits, rhubarb and asparagus etc., etc. There is an orchard of 265 apple and pear trees and 1½ acres of grapes in full bearing and best varieties. The remaining six acres are in lawn and park about the house.

The house is built on high ground and commands a fine view. The land itself slopes to the east and south and can be advantageously sub-divided into building lots, and as it lies just west of the property on which the Edison Co. are building, will at once come into the market.

TENDERS

will be received by the undersigned up to the 15th of February next at 12 o'clock noon for the purchase of the whole en bloc or any part thereof. The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

Any part of the purchase money up to one-half can remain on mortgage at 6 per cent. interest.

Further particulars may be had from the undersigned

HALL & HAYES.
Vendor's Solicitors.

Peterborough, January 19th, 1891.

GEO. B. SPROULE,
ARTIST & PHOTOGRAPHER,
GROUND FLOOR,,
170 Charlotte-st. . . . . . Peterborough.
FRAMES & PICTURE MOULDINGS.

LIME!

First quality Lime, in any quantity, for sale and delivered to any part of the town. Builders, contractors, etc. supplied promptly at current prices. Lime house, at G.T.R. Station

A. RUTHERFORD.

CAKES!

For a Good Cake, leave your orders at

Long Bros.

Also home-made cakes iced and nicely Ornamented. Wedding Breakfasts and Evening Parties Catered for. Oyster Patties made to order. Our stock of Candies is pure and made by ourselves.

No. 286 and 414 George-st.

He Gorned in a Few Days.

PATERSON, N.J., Feb. 9.—The patrons of the Clifton race track are jubilant over the announcement that the race track at Dundee is to be put in condition for racing and that bookmaking will be allowed there. The Dundee track is in Bergen county and it is expected that it will be the resort of all the sporting men who have been compelled to abandon the Clifton track on account of the authorities stopping bookmaking there. A wealthy Paterson brewer named Graham is said to be at the head of the movement to purchase the Dundee track, which, according to Senator D. Winton, will be effected in a day or two, with a prospect of racing at Dundee within the next ten days.

Sporting men seem to be under the impression that there will be less chance for their conviction in Bergen county, although Judge Dixon's jurisdiction extends to that county.

Mr. Lionel Clarke of Toronto will be married to-day, and to-morrow he will accept the Conservative nomination in his native county, North Wellington. The bridal trip will consequently be short.

SAWS Filed and Gummed in First Class Style. Knives, Scissors, Tools, &c., ground and sharpened. S. W. ENGLISH, shop, 120 Charlotte-st. d13-w1y

—ONTARIO—
Planing Mills!

Planing, Matching, Mouldings, Band Sawing & Turning, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Storm Sash.

JAMES Z. ROGERS.

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. All druggists are authorised to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are placing a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have a Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup, or Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

A POLITICAL SCENE
On George-St.

A trio of anxious aspirants discussing the issues of the campaign.
One advocates "Free Trade."
Another wants "Reciprocity."
The third clamors for "Protection."

DOLAN THE CLOTHIER

Happens along and puts an end to the debate by remarking: "Gentlemen—judging from the general appearance of your wearing apparel," permit me to say that you all need clothes. The meeting broke up and adjourned to headquarters for clothing.
They were shown Suits from $5 to $25.
They looked at Overcoats from $4 to $24.
They saw Pantaloons from $1 to $10.
Finally they all bought a whole outfit. The white oak plank in our platform caught them solid, viz:—

One Price, a Low Price
AND SQUARE DEALING.

Let others be guided by the wisdom of the above gentlemen, and remember
That we don't want your votes,
But we do want your notes
—AT—DOLAN'S.

"Hello there, Brown, where are you going in such a hurry?"

"Why, I am going to J. J. Turner to get a pair of the fine Waterproof Horse Covers he makes. I tell you they are the finest I have seen. He also makes Wagon Covers, Lap Rugs, Clothing, &c.

"You want the address; all right,

J. J. TURNER,
The Tent and Awning Maker, corner of George and King-sts., Peterborough.
Telephone day or night.

MUNN & CO.
SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN AGENCY for PATENTS
A pamphlet of information and abstract of the laws, showing How to Obtain Patents, Caveats, Trade Marks, Copyrights, sent free.
Address MUNN & CO.
361 Broadway,
New York.

IN THE MARKET!

1.—I have sold out the City Hotel to Wm. Clancy, in 19 minutes.
2.—I have sold out Faren & Co. Billiard Room etc., to Faren & Co. in 13 minutes.
3.—The Dry Goods Stock is in the Market. If there is any new blood for this offer call and see me. Want to dispose of it inside of 10 days.

I am off for Australia early next month.

I mean business. If the stock is too large can be reduced to $1,000 in 30 days.

JAMES DOLAN,
George Street, Peterborough.

PACKING HOUSE STORE!

For a Choice Selection of Smoked Sugar Cured Meats and Bacon
LARD, guaranteed pure, in any quantity.
GEORGE MATTHEWS
356 George Street, Peterborough.

W.J.MORROW, GROCERIES, WINES AND LIQUORS

BIG TEA and COFFEE HOUSE

THE STANDARD LIFE Assurance Company,
ESTABLISHED . . . . 1832.

Subsisting Assurances ......$101,250,000.
Invested Funds .... 34,000,000.
Annual Income .... 4,800,000.
Bonuses Distributed .... 23,000,000.
The Funds Invested in Canada amount to nearly.... $5,000,000.
Deposited with Dominion Government at Ottawa.. 1,150,000

All plans of Assurance. Non Forfeitable Policies. Absolutely unconditional policie from date of issue without extra charge. Absolute security. Rates compare favourably with any first-class Company.

W. M. RAMSAY, [illegible]
A.V.R. YOUNG, General Agent, and Inspector for Midland District, 379 Water-st.
C. CAMERON,
MULLHOLLAND & ROPER, Special Agents.

SURPRISE
SURPRISE
EVERY WOMAN
St. Croix Soap M'f'g Co.
St. Stephen, N.B.
SOAP

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1891.

THE ENGLISH DERBY.

Betting Continues Slow—The Deemster Orion and Peter Flower Bunched.

LONDON, Feb. 9.—Betting on the English Derby continues to be slow. There is still no marked favorite. The best thought of are Gouverneur, The Deemster, Orion and Peter Flower, who are still bunched in the books. The recent declaration of forfeit shows that the runners will have to be drawn from the stables of no large number of trainers. Fifteen at least of them have only a single horse engaged, those candidates being Newcourt, Fife, Ben Hur, Bolam, Koorali, Husbandman, Benvenuto, Henry VIII., Lord Henry, The Deemster, St. David, Negotiator, Peter Flower, Martenhurst and Misraim. Four others are returned as being trained privately. A couple of Derby candidates are set down as being under F. Bates' care, three as being in the hands of Matthew Dawson and the same number in the care of Joseph Enoch, the last-mentioned lot being Cleator, King's Evil and Kirkstall. William Grey looks after Valauris and Hermence, and to young Tom Jennings are assigned the "crack" Gouverneur and Cordon Bleu. Richard Marsh can supply runners in Unicorn and Ammonite, while John Porter holds a hand numerically strong, at any rate, in Orion, Common (who has not yet appeared in public), Gone Coon, Ordinance and Adieu. Ryan will superintend the preparation of Orvieto and Patrician. The largest lot is that under the control of Robert Sherwood, consisting of Old Boots, Sir Frederick Roberts, Simonian, Penzance, Sheldrake, Colorado and Fitz Simon. Set down to Alec Taylor are Excalibur, a colt by Petrarch out of Doll Tearsheet, and another by Avontes from Canada. Wadlow has the dangerous Cuttlestone and Junius, and Percy Peck trains a couple about which little is known, namely Balmoral and Golden Garter. Material exists for a large field for the great race at Epsom, and it may be a more open affair than most people suppose.

Mitchell and Slavin will Box.

LONDON, Feb. 9.—Charley Mitchell and Frank P. Slavin left for Dublin to-day. They will box four rounds there on Monday night, and on Thursday they will appear in Belfast. Peter Maher, who defeated Gus Lambert, the American pugilist, announces his willingness to fight Jem Smith for £200 a side. Sportsmen here have lost faith in American fighters on account of the poor showing made by McAuliffe and [illegible]. Both of these men are looked upon as "duffers."

LINED WITH WEALTH.

$10,000 Found by a Porter Concealed in a Pullman Car Seat.

CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—Ten thousand dollars, half of which was in bills and half in Government bonds, was found last evening by Henry Prentice, an employe of the Pullman Company. The money was concealed beneath the cushions of a seat in the sleeping-car Atlanta. It is thought the funds were concealed by some one who came into possession of them in a criminal manner and was prevented from removing the package owing to fear of discovery.

Disappearance of a Wealthy Southerner.

HAMILTON, Feb. 9.—A couple of months ago Col. Rogers, a wealthy southern gentleman, spent several days in this city, boarding at the Royal Hotel. He was a typical southerner and spent his money freely. He made many friends here. When he left here he went to Tonawanda, intending to go from there to the south, where his daughter lives. He remained at Tonawanda a few days, and then departed for the south. Since then he has not been heard of, and his friends fear that he has met with foul play. The colonel carried a large amount of money with him, and was in the habit of displaying his roll of bills.

New Senators.

OTTAWA, Feb. 9.—Two of the Senate vacancies for the Province of Quebec have been filled. Mr Joseph Tasse, ex-M.P. for Ottawa, is appointed senator for the Mille Isles division in place of the late Hon. C. S. Rodier, and Mr. Hippolyte Montplaisir, the retiring M.P. for Champlain county, senator for the Shawinegan division, vice Hon. James Ferrier, deceased.

A Shocking Accident.

SCHAW, Feb. 9.—Augusta Koelle, postmistress at Carlisle and agent of the Northwestern Telegraph Company, had occasion to visit Schaw Station, and went to the head of her horse to quiet it when the horse reared and in coming down its hoof caught in the pocket of the young lady's jacket and threw her to the ground. The frantic animal continued to plunge and trampled the girl in a horrible manner. When rescued it was found that her nose was broken, her face badly cut, several ribs broken and numerous lesser injuries.

Prospects of Settlement Less Roseate.

LONDON, Feb. 9.—In a letter to the chairman of the Irish leadership committee of Dublin Mr. Parnell says: "I regret exceedingly to inform you that the prospects of a settlement are less promising than they appeared at the beginning of last week. I shall continue, however, to do everything in my power to reunite Ireland while safeguarding national interests. I trust your committee and similar bodies will not relax exertions in my behalf."

Appomattox Downs a Good Field.

GLOUCESTER, Feb. 9.—The track was in very poor condition and a downpour of rain made the racing uncomfortable for spectators, bookmakers and horses. The fourth race was a cracker. It was a 5-furlong dash, with Carnegie the favorite at 9 to 10 on. Appomattox carried lowest weight and this told in the struggle at the finish, where Chieftain, Carnegie and the Canadian entry were bunched up. Appomattox, however, showed the front and beat Carnegie out.

First race, 6 furlongs—Amalgam 1, Marigold 2, McGregor 3. Time 1.33¼.

Second race, 6 furlongs—Sir Rae 1, Coose 2, Glideaway 3. Time 1.26¼.

Third race, 6½ furlongs—Lithbert 1, Glenola 2, Benefit 3. Time 1.41¼.

Fourth race, 5 furlongs—Appomattox, 107 (Myers), 3 to 5, 1, Carnegie 2, Chieftain 3. Time 1.15¾. Five others ran.

WAYS OF WOMEN FAIR.

FADS, FASHIONS AND FANCIES OF THE GENTLER SEX.

Sleeves With Gauntlet Cuffs—The Covert Coat—Combinations of Blue and Violet—Fashions in Evening Gloves—Hemstitching and Drawn Work.

The woman who knows how to hold her tongue is a rarity.

Ladies who affect the tailor styles are wearing chain key rings.

Prune is one of the favorite colors for the street, with black braiding.

Sleeves are made with deep gauntlet cuffs opening on the outside of the arm, and panters are very surely making their way.

Married women nowadays use a larger visiting card than single women. Somehow married people seem to have all the luxuries.

Black silk gowns are economical as well as stylish made with a yoke and sleeves of some colored cloth, such as heliotrope or bottle green, or of a soft plaid combining white and heliotrope or green.

Little Johnnie had just returned from a star chamber meeting at which his mother had treated him to a laying on of slipper. Amidst tears he turned to his little sister and said: "Don't I wish grandpa hadn't thrown that slipper when ma got married. She just throws it at me ever since."

Mrs. Richard A. Proctor, the astronomer's widow, proposes to perpetuate her husband's name by building an observatory on Mission Heights, at San Diego, Cal. It is estimated that the building, with the telescope, will cost about $35,000, and the bulk of this sum Mrs. Proctor hopes to raise by lecturing.

"Holding a modern belle in your arms for a waltz," said an enthusiastic admirer of the fair sex, "is like embracing an accentuated bouquet. An intoxicating fragrance floats out from her laces, ribbons, fan, gloves, and even the prettily coiffured tresses and dainty skin have received a flower like baptism."

A brass candlestick or candelabra holding red wax candles is one of the new and pretty color effects for table and mantel decorations. For the now popular Colonial and Empire drawing-rooms everything must be white and gold, and white candles are burnt in white porcelain columns or branching stands of opaque glass.

The combinations of blue and violet and green and pink are now worn, and we may look forward certainly in the future to a return to the modes of the Stuart period, when the elbow sleeves were made with two large puffs, and the bodices had deep flounces of lace turning downward from the neck. Dress to be successful now must be above all things picturesque.

A young married couple lived very happily together. One morning, however, the young woman was very morose at the breakfast table and behaved in a most extraordinary way. The husband noticed the change in her manner, but on being questioned by him as to the cause of it, she would not give him satisfaction until he finally insisted on being told what was the matter. "Well," she said at last, "if I dream again that you have kissed another woman I will not speak to you again as long as I live."

Hemstitching and drawn-work are the approved trimmings for bed linen, pillow-cases, sheets and also for huckabuck towels. A two-inch hem simply hemstitched is a neat finish for sheets and pillow-slips that are in constant use, while, an inch-wide row of drawn work is chosen for the bed linen for guest chambers, women of taste preferring this substantial trimming to more elaborate embroideries and laces. For full-sized double beds the sheets are two and a quarter yards wide and three yards long.

The fashion in evening gloves remains the same, undressed kid in all the delicate shades and the white and the black for striking gowns, but for suiting gloves there is pre-eminently the useful, and at the same time pretty, "Russian leather" or "dogskin" gloves, of a rich dark red tint, which fit the hand gracefully, at the same time leaving it at perfect freedom to be withdrawn. These are very stylish, and after a three months' reign are as popular as ever. They just supply the want felt for a glove that should defy the wear and tear of constant use.

A Life-Saving Skirt.

"While my wife and I were on our last trip to Europe," said a gentleman the other day, "we met a middle-aged lady who was going over for her health, and my wife and she became great friends. One day, while sitting in the ladies' private cabin, the lady said: 'Let me show you my life-preserver,' and removing her outer skirt my wife beheld a skirt that was a curiosity if nothing more.

"Running up and down the skirt, at a distance of two or three inches, were soft, flexible rubber bands about two inches wide. They were sewed on at the side of each band and ran all the way around the skirt, and at the top they were all joined to a broad rubber band six inches wide. At the top of this band was a rubber tube about two feet long, and which ran up the waist in front and was left resting on the top of the corsets.

"Said the lady, 'You behold one of my own inventions for saving my life. In case of an accident all I have to do is to take the end of the rubber tube in my mouth, and in two minutes I can fill all of the rubber bands, which are hollow and air-tight, with air. Then tying the tube in a hard knot, I am ready for the waves. This skirt, when I strike the water, will spread out in the shape of a pond lily leaf, and I will rest on it in an upright position, as easy as though reclining upon a couch, and I can float around till picked up.'

"As our voyage was a pleasant one, we did not have an opportunity to see how it would work, but I have no doubt it would work well."—Detroit News.

Treat a Woman Well.

It is astonishing how great an improvement good treatment will make in a woman's looks. And more especially in the appearance of that new type of woman—the semi-professional working woman. Said a man recently:

"We have a right pretty girl in our office. And we have made her as good-looking as she is by treating her well. We were polite to her, and soon the scared look which she had when she came went out of her eyes. We were considerate in our conversation, and she soon lost an uncertain air that she had in her manner. We smiled upon her occasionally, and she grew to expect it and to smile naturally. We paid her promptly, so that she did not worry over little expenses, and now we have a bright, contented little woman and not a frightened hireling."

That was the [illegible] it all. The girl was happy, and she [illegible] growing plump and pretty and [illegible] for her employer as if for her Gou.

What He Said.

Briggs—Is it true that Robinson got up to make a speech the other night at the club and couldn't say a word?

Griggs—No. It's a base libel. I was there and heard him.

Briggs—What did he say?

Griggs—He said, "Whoop!"

A Royal Quilt.

A prize competition of especial interest to every lady who does fancy work, is just announced by THE CANADIAN QUEEN. The lady making by hand work, the handsomest block one foot square, (to be of silk, either in one piece or patchwork, and embroidered or hand-painted according to the taste of the maker) for the Royal Quilt, will be presented with a pony cart and harness, value $250.00. The Royal Quilt will contain forty-eight blocks, and to each of the next forty-seven ladies sending the handsomest block will be presented with either a solid gold watch or an elegant silver tea service, value $40.00. Send four 3c. stamps for the last number of THE QUEEN, containing full instructions of the competition, and particulars as to what will be done with the Royal Quilt. Address THE CANADIAN QUEEN, "Royal Quilt Competition," Toronto, Canada. 5d30-5w4

TURKISH DYES
EASY TO USE.
They are Fast.
They are Beautiful.
They are Brilliant.

SOAP WON'T FADE THEM.

Have YOU used them; if not, try and be convinced.

One Package equal to two of any other make.

Canada Branch: 481 St. Paul Street, Montreal.
Send postal for Sample Card and Book of Instructions.

FOR MEN ONLY!
VIGOR AND STRENGTH
For LOST or FAILING MANHOOD; General and NERVOUS DEBILITY; Weakness of Body and Mind, Effects of Errors or Excesses in Old or Young. Robust, Noble MANHOOD fully Restored. How to enlarge and Strengthen WEAK, UNDEVELOPED ORGANS & PARTS of BODY. Absolutely unfailing HOME TREATMENT—Benefits in a day. Men testify from 50 States and Foreign Countries. Write them. Descriptive Book, explanation and proofs mailed (sealed) free. Address ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N.Y.

CLARK & GIBSON
have now on view and for sale some
VERY FINE GOODS
—CONSISTING OF—
Gold and Silver Watches, Clocks and Fine Jewellery, etc.

Moderate in Price and Newest Patterns.

Ask to see their
English Oak Goods
AND
SCOTCH PEBBLE JEWELLERY
RARE, CHOICE AND BEAUTIFUL.

WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELLERY carefully repaired.
136 Hunter-st., 2 doors west of the Post Office.

SCOTT'S EMULSION
Of Pure Cod Liver Oil and HYPOPHOSPHITES of Lime and Soda
Scott's Emulsion is a perfect Emulsion. It is a wonderful Flesh Producer. It is the Best Remedy for CONSUMPTION, Scrofula, Bronchitis, Wasting Diseases, Chronic Coughs and Colds.
PALATABLE AS MILK.
Scott's Emulsion is only put up in salmon color wrapper. Avoid all imitations or substitutions. Sold by all Druggists at 50c. and $1.00.
SCOTT & BOWNE, Belleville.

BLYTHE MILLS,
PETERBOROUGH

The above Mills have now been thoroughly renewed upon the complete
Hungarian Roller Process
The latest improved Rolls and flour Dressing Machines from the best manufacturing firms have been put in and everything necessary added to enable her to turn out flour.
Second to None
in the Dominion. The facilities for receiving grain from farmers and for elevating and shipping are first-class. We have
A Large Feed Stone for Custom Chopping.
Chopping done satisfactorily and without delay.
Rolled Oats for Horses
Experienced horsemen are emphatic in asserting that there is nothing equal to rolled oats for horses, and to meet this demand we have had put in a machine specially adapted for this purpose.
Wheat Exchanges
Promptly attended to and
First-class Roller Flour Guaranteed.
Roller Flour, Bran, Shorts, and all kinds of Chopped Feed constantly on hand.
Highest Market Price Paid in Cash for any Quantity of Wheat.
Hilliard & Peplow.

WM. FITZGERALD,
Builder, Contractor and Jobber.
Contracts taken for all work connected with erection of new buildings, repairs or rebuilding. Twenty-five years experience. First-class work according to plans and specifications guaranteed. Estimates furnished for any description of work. Good dry material always on hand. Best of references given as to excellence of work and despatch.
Building Lots For Sale
in different localities. Most desirable sites for houses. This is the time to buy and build. Lots sold and houses built thereon on terms to suit buyers. Easy terms of payment. Several good houses and lots for sale. Every one looking for a bargain should see these. WM. FITZGERALD, 124, corner of Dublin and Water-sts.
P.O. Box 576, Peterborough. d38 w39-ly

"Harvard"
"Harvard" Bronchial Syrup has been used in my family with very great success and I have [illegible]

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

MR. SHELDRAKE'S
Private
PREPARATORY SCHOOL,
FOR BOYS,
LAKEFIELD, ONTARIO.

OPEN FOR INSPECTION!
A handsome and very useful line of
CASE GOODS
COMPRISING
Carver Sets,
Ladies' and Gentlemen's
COMPANIONS
These Goods are the Best English Make.
KINGAN & Co

JOHN NUGENT,
CHEMIST AND DRUGGIST.
Prescriptions Carefully Compounded.
Try Nugent's Remedies for Colds, Coughs and affections of the chest and throat.
J. NUGENT,
Drug Store, 179 Hunter-st. west.

Bookbinding!
Magazines,
Periodicals,
Illustrated Papers,
Law, Music,
and all kinds of Books Bound in the very best style of the art. First-class Material and Work. Close Prices.
REVIEW PT'G CO.
LIMITED.
BOOKBINDERS, STATIONERS & ACCOUNT BOOK MANUFACTURERS.
350 George-st.

Choicest Brands
—OF—
FLOUR!
BAKERS and PASTRY
—AT—
MELDRUM & DAVIDSON'S
Quality Guaranteed.
FEED:
All kinds always on hand. Orders left at Ormond & Walsh's or McDonald's drug stores will be promptly attended to.
Mill Telephone No. 196.
LOWEST PRICES FOR CASH.

MULHOLLAND & ROPER
BANKERS AND INSURANCE AGENTS!
Banking Department.
Deposit Accounts opened and Notes discounted at short dates or for twelve months if required. Special attention given to the purchase and collection of Farmers' Sale Notes. Drafts drawn on Merchants Bank of Canada payable in New York, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and at any of its Branches in the Dominion. Cheques on other Banks cashed.
Four to Five per cent. allowed on deposits repayable on demand.
BANKING HOURS.—9.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m.
Insurance Department.
MR. FELIX BROWNSCOMBE is a partner in and manager of this department.
Careful attention given to Fire, Accident and Plate Glass Insurance.
The following companies are represented:—
London and Lancashire, City of London, Phœnix of Brooklyn, Caledonian, Royal Canadian, Agricultural, Montreal Plate Glass, Mutual Accident and Plate Glass, and Norwich and London Accident.
OFFICE HOURS.—9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Big G is acknowledged the leading remedy for Gonorrhœa & Gleet. The only safe remedy for Leucorrhœa or Whites.
I prescribe it and feel safe in recommending it to all sufferers.
A. J. STONER, M. D., Decatur, Ill.
Sold by Druggists.
Cures in 1 to 5 DAYS. Guaranteed not to cause Stricture.
Toronto, Ont.
G. A. SCHOFIELD, Agt., Peterborough.

Travel.

INTERCOLONIAL
RAILWAY OF CANADA.

The direct route between the west and all points on the Lower St. Lawrence and Baie de Chaleur, Province of Quebec, also New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward, Cape Breton and the Magdalene Islands, Newfoundland and St. Pierre.

Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax daily (Sunday excepted) and run through without change between these points in 30 hours.

The through express train cars of the Intercolonial Railway are brilliantly lighted by electricity and heated by steam from the locomotive.

New and Elegant Buffet Sleeping and Day Cars are run on all through express trains.

The popular summer sea bathing and fishing resorts of Canada are along the Intercolonial or are reached by that route.

Canadian, European Mail and Passenger Route.

Passengers for Great Britain or the Continent leaving Montreal on Thursday morning will join outward mail steamer at Rimouski the same evening.

The attention of shippers is directed to the superior facilities offered by this route for the transport of flour and general merchandise intended for the Eastern Provinces and New Foundland, also for shipments of grain and produce intended for the European market.

Tickets may be obtained and all information about the route, also freight and passenger rates on application to

N. WEATHERSTON,
Western Freight and Passenger Agent, 93 Rossin House Block, York street, Toronto.
D. POTTINGER,
Chief Superintendent.
Railway Office, Moncton, N.B., 2nd July, 1890. ly

CANADIAN PACIFIC RY.
SETTLERS' TRAINS
WILL LEAVE ON FEBRUARY 24th, 1891
AT 9.00 P.M.
AND EVERY TUESDAY THEREAFTER
DURING MARCH AND APRIL
WITH COLONIST SLEEPER ATTACHED
FOR MANITOBA AND THE
CANADIAN NORTH-WEST
For patrons without Stock a Colonist Sleeper will be attached to Express Train leaving Toronto 11 p.m.
For full information see any C.P.R. agent.

HAGGART & KIDD
TOWN and COUNTY } Auctioneers,
COMMISSION and SHIPPING } Merchants,
REAL ESTATE and INSURANCE } Agents.
☞ Money to Loan.

PETERBOROUGH LOCK MANUFACT'G COMPANY.

NOTICE is hereby given that a general meeting of the Shareholders of the Peterborough Lock Manufacturing Co., (Ltd.) will be held in the Company's office, Simcoe-st., in the Town of Peterborough, on SATURDAY, the 14th DAY OF FEBRUARY, 1891, at the hour of three o'clock p.m., for the purpose of considering a By Law passed by the Directors increasing the Capital Stock of the Company to $200,000.

Dated this 2nd day of February, 1891.

GEORGE STEVENSON,
Secretary.
6d73

BANK of TORONTO
Capital $2,000,000 00
Reserve Fund 1,500,000 00
PETERBORO' BRANCH.
SAVINGS BANK
SPECIAL ADVANTAGES are derived by depositing money in our Savings Bank Department.
1. "ONE DOLLAR saved is one dollar earned."
2. DEPOSITS OF ONE DOLLAR and upwards are received and interest allowed thereon.
3. INTEREST is added to the principal on the 31st day of May and 30th day of November, in each year.
4. MONEY bears interest from the day it is deposited with the Bank until the day of withdrawal.
5. THE DEPOSITOR is subject to no delay whatever.
6. THE SECURITY offered by this Bank is undoubted, as will be seen by the large reserve held and the amount of surplus available for depositors and note holders.
BUSINESS WITH FARMERS.
FARMERS' NOTES discounted at lowest rates.
SPECIAL ATTENTION is given to the collection of Farmers' Sale Notes, and advances made thereon.
NOTE FORMS furnished free of charge on application.
DEPOSITS.
DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS opened subject to withdrawal by cheque on demand.
SPECIAL DEPOSITS.—Deposit Receipts issued bearing interest at current rates.
JOHN L. GOWER,
Manager.
d116-wf.

BLANK FORMS
Deeds,
Mortgages,
Home Leases,
Farm Leases,
Agreements,
Short form of Lease
Lease of Land,
Magistrates Blanks,
Division Court Blanks,
etc., etc.,
Printed enfaced paper and correct forms.
AT THE
REVIEW Stationery

D. BELLEGHEM,
Issuer of Mariage Licenses,
PETERBOROUGH.

Medical.

DR. SCOTT.

OFFICE—178 Brock-st. d180w24

P. D. GOLDSMITH, M. D.

L. R. C. S., L. S. A., L. R. C. P., London, Eng.,

HAS permanently located in Peterborough. Office and residence, 182 Brock-st., formerly occupied by Mr. J. H. McWilliams. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d47-w28-ly

D. N. CARMICHAEL, M. D.,

C. M., L. R. C. P. Ed.

GRADUATE OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY. Fellow of Trinity Medical School, Licentiate of Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh, L. M. of Simpson's Maternity Hospital, Edinburgh. Office in Mr. Alexander's new residence one door north of the late Dr. O'Sullivan's, George-st. d3m88-wyr88

DR. B. E. McKENZIE, B. A.

Lecturer on Orthopedic Surgery in the Women's Medical College, and in Toronto University; Consulting Orthopedic Surgeon to Victoria Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto.

Diseases of the Joints and Deformities Only

Bloor-st. W. (near Yonge-st.) Toronto, Consultation from 10 to 1. On Friday and Saturday by appointment only.

DR. HOMER,

HAS removed to 214 Hunter-st., opposite Marble Works. Office upstairs.

Legal.

HATTON & WOOD.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office, corner of George and Hunter-sts., over T. Dolan & Co's. store. MONEY TO LOAN.

E. B. WOOD, B. A. G. W. HATTON.

SAWERS & STONE.

BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyancers, &c. Office, Hunter-st., Peterborough.

☞ MONEY TO LOAN.

E. B. STONE, d118-w18 C. W. SAWERS.

POUSSETTE & JOHNSTON,

BARRISTERS and SOLICITORS, 373 Water-st.

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C. W. F. JOHNSTON.

EDWARD A. PECK,

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, etc., 352 George-st., Peterborough.

Private Funds to loan at 6 per cent.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter-st., Peterborough next English church. Money to loan at lowest rates of interest.

E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN O'MEARA.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, &c. Office 387 George-st. d-w

JOHN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office: No. 418 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont., next door north of new post office. MONEY TO LOAN. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter-sts., over McClelland's Jewellery store. d118w18

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water-st., Peterborough. d37w

DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES. Money to Loan. Office, 417 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont.

ARTHUR STEVENSON, B. A.
R. M. DENNISTOUN, M. A.

STRATTON & HALL.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, &c., Peterborough, Ont. Office:—Next door to Post Office on Hunter-St.

W. A. STRATTON, LL. B. E. B. HALL. d128

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block, Peterborough. wed29

J. E. BELCHER

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George-st. d&w46

Painting.

E. CARTON

HOUSE PAINTER AND DECORATOR. House painting done in the latest styles, calcimining, etc. Special attention given to graining and marbling. Residence, Water-st., near Smith-st. lyd

Builders and Contractors

E. WEBB,

BRICKLAYER AND CONTRACTOR. All work done substantially and expeditiously. Address E. WEBB, Peterborough. Residence, 198 Aylmer-st. lyd128

J. J. HARTLEY.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P. O. Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer-sts. lyd130

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 83. d130

W. E. WHITEHAIR.

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 388, Peterborough P. O. d41-lyr

JAS. R. DONELL.

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash, Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being a practical man, he trusts to be able to give patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.

7d33 JAS. R. DONELL.

DIARIES!
POCKET and OFFICE
Diaries
for 1891!
Twenty Sizes
to select from in CLOTH and LEATHER
BINDINGS
—AT THE—
REVIEW STATIONERY.

If YOU WISH
to Advertise
Anything
Anywhere
at Any time
WRITE TO
GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.
No. 10 Spruce Street,
NEW YORK.

SOCIETY,
COMMERCIAL
AND BOOK
PRINTING!
First-Class Work at Low Prices.
Review Office
350 GEORGE ST.

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE.

February 1st. 1891.

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
[illegible]	Montreal and East, via O. & Q. R.	[illegible]
11 20 a m	Toronto and West, via O. & Q. R.	5 15 p m
11 30 p m	Grand Trunk, East & West	9 00 p m
	do East.	1 15 p m 8 00 p m
12 00 a m 3 30 p m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west.	8 00 a m 4 30 p m
8 00 a m 5 15 p m	Millbrook and Port Hope. do do	11 15 a m 3 30 p m
8 25 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings.	1 00 p m
4 00 p m	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	11 15 a m
10 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clydale, Paudash and Cheddar, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 00 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Graystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays
	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes do do do	7 00 a m 4 00 p m
	British Mails per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	9 00 p m
	Via New York, Mondays.
12 noon	Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	4 30 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire, Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Australia, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria, (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings, Bank, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxemburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey. And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before. Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guiana, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Port Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books, &c., 4c for 4 oz. Other Registration fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Payment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 12 cents, papers 4 cents.

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents. H. C. ROGERS, Post-Master

UNION CREDIT & PROTECTION
ASSOCIATION.
FOR the Collection of Old and Worthless Accounts, in any part of the world, and no charges if not collected. This Association has local offices in Canada and United States. Head and general offices, 60 Adelaide-st. East, Toronto. Rooms, 10, 11, 12 and 13. O. R. COLLINS, General Manager; & H. E. ANDREWS, Sec. Address all communications to Toronto, Ont., office. Telephone No. 2488. This is the only Association that settles accounts and advances the money to the creditor if desired.
O. R. COLLINS,
Manager
DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON,
Solicitors for the Association at Peterborough.
August 20th, 1890. d51 w

WEDDING CARDS.
LATEST STYLES AT THE
Review Stationery Store

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XXV.—No. 35. PETERBOROUGH, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1891. TEN CENTS A WEEK

Probabilities.

■ Winds shifting to easterly; fair weather with lower temperature in northern and eastern parts of the province.

SWISS
Needle Work
EMBROIDERY.

We take pleasure in annoucing that we have just received Ex. SS. Sardinian) direct from the manufactory in St. Gall, Switzerland, our new Spring collection of Needle Work Embroidery for the season of 1891. We placed unusual large orders for these goods when the stitch prices were at the lowest point. The value is exceptionally good. The designs were selected with the greatest care and we think will merit your approval. Special discount allowed to customers purchasing in quantities of a dozen yards and upwards.

ROBERT FAIR,

Sign of the Golden Lion,
383 George Street, Peterborough.
Ontario (144) and Bell Telephone (145).

KID GLOVES!
KID GLOVES!

W. W. JOHNSTON
has just received a complete assortment of
Black and Colored
Kid Gloves
at 85c. per pair.
The Best in the Market at the Price.

SPECIAL VALUE IN
Bed Room Towels and Kitchen Towelling.
Call and see our
ART MUSLIN
at 15c. per yard.
CRYSTAL BLOCK
410 George-st.

Musical.

ORGAN, PIANOFORTE and SINGING
DR. DAVIES,
Organist of St. John's church, late of Christ Church Cathedral and of St. James's Cathedral, Toronto, receives pupils at his residence, 45 McDonnel-st. At home each day from 9 till 10 a. m. and from 2 till 3 p. m. to make engagements, etc. d65-1m

Wood and Coal.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.
W. R. FERGUSON,
Telephone Connection. Agent

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of
COAL AND WOOD,
which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
d&w JAMES STEVENSO

PETERBOROUGH WATER CO.
OFFICE - - 24 HUNTER-ST.
W. HENDERSON, Superintendent.
F. ADAMS, Collector.
All water rates and accounts must be paid at the office. Mr. Adams will be in the office from 2 to 5 p.m. every day

Awnings.
Tents.
AND Sails.

ALFRED KINGSCOTE has opened out in Dansford's Block, on Water-st. opposite the market, where he is prepared to do all kinds of Awning, Tent and Sail making.
Good Work and Low Prices. Remember the place
A. KINGSCOTE,
No. 344 Water-st.
d68-1yr

EDWIN ELCOME,
TAXIDERMIST
and Dealer in Eyes, Artificial Leave and Frostings.
BIRDS, ANIMALS, FISH and SNAKES Stuffed and Mounted in and out of cases in the best lifelike style at lowest prices. DEER'S HEADS a specialty. A stock of foreign and native birds always on hand for sale.
Residence, No. 176 Harvey-st., Peterborough
d14-w68-1y

STOVES.

We have a few New and Second Hand Coal Heaters left and are running them off cheap.

LAMPS.

Beautiful designs, all styles, reduced in price.

W. G. BAIN & CO.
George-st.

Wants.

WANTED.
A GOOD GENERAL SERVANT and Nursemaid. Apply REVIEW Office. d1f

For Sale or to Rent.

TO RENT.
A DESIRABLE HOUSE on Simcoe-st. (Mr. Dunsford's brick cottage). Possession immediately. Apply W. H. HILL, Insurance Agent. 2d34

FOR SALE,
A QUANTITY OF PAPER CUTTINGS and shavings. Apply at REVIEW Office.

TO LET.
Store and Dwelling
No. 281 George-st., now occupied by J.J. Turner. Good stand for grocery and boarding house. STORE and DWELLING No. 283 George-st. DWELLING HOUSES No. 33 Hunter-st., and 18 and 20 Queen-st. JOHN J. LUNDY. dtf

KNOW ALL MEN AND WOMEN
That I am instructed to sell a great variety of property in all parts of the town, in many cases much under value and that the addition of large Factories, Electric Street Railways and the opening of Spring are not likely causes for lower prices; consequently this is your golden opportunity. Come to-day, select to-day and seal the agreement of purchase to-day.
T. HURLEY,
JOHN L. HALL, Assistant. 287 George-st.

Carbon Gaslight
A RIVAL TO DAYLIGHT!
A new and Brilliant Illuminating Power—Clear, Steady and Mellow.
Specially suited for Stores and large Buildings, Machine Shops, &c.
A saving of 30 to 40 per cent. on gas can be effected by this new light
See it Burning at the Store of
J. E. NOBLE & Co.
287 George-st. South.
TELEPHONES.—Bell No. 181, Ontario No. 156.

D. BELLEGHEM,
Issuer of Mariage Licenses,
PETERBOROUGH.

MULHOLLAND & ROPER
BANKERS AND INSURANCE AGENTS
Banking Department.
Deposit Accounts opened and Notes discounted at short dates or for twelve months if required. Special attention given to the purchase and collection of Farmers' Sale Notes. Drafts drawn on Merchants Bank of Canada payable in New York, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and at any of its Branches in the Dominion. Cheques on other Banks cashed.
Four to Five per cent. allowed on deposits repayable on demand.
BANKING HOURS.—9 30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m
Insurance Department.
MR. FELIX BROWNSCOMBE is a partner in and manager of this department.
Careful attention given to Fire, Accident and Plate Glass Insurance.
The following companies are represented:—
London and Lancashire, City of London, Phoenix of Brooklyn, Caledonian, Royal Canadian, Agricultural, Montreal Plate Glass, Mutual Accident and Plate Glass, and Norwich and London Accident.
OFFICE HOURS.—9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Bill Heads,
Note Heads,
Letter Heads,
TAGS, ENVELOPES,
COUNTER HEADS
and every description of Business Printing executed at city prices at the
Review Office,
340 George Street.

AT
TURNBULL'S

Owing to so many covered shapes being worn this season we have a quantity of untrimmed Felt Hats and Bonnets left of all styles for Ladies and Children which we have put together in one lot and are clearing out at

25c. each.

This includes everything. Our friends may know what bargains await them as many of them have been sold during the season at from $1.00 to $1.50. Remember you get the choice of this lot for 25c.

We are showing in one of our windows Spring Prints, which are but an indication of the quantities of handsome patterns we have inside.

Our Spring Flanneletts have arrived. The patterns are new and darker, what so many people want. They are very pretty. Quantities of new goods opened every day. We show a handsome range of new shades in Dress Goods suitable for Wedding Outfits.

Further particulars of what we will offer this Spring as special inducements next week.

J. C. TURNBULL
George & Simcoe-sts., Peterborough.

A. CLEGG,
Funeral Director.
Ware rooms, - - 437 George-st.
Residence, - 18 Benson-st.
A. CLEGG, Residence, 286 Stewart street. Telephone.

For You!
Reduction in prices of all Cloths. Suits and Overcoats to order for less money than ever to clear out the balance of winter stock.
Order now.
D. CAMERON & Co.
Tailors and Clothiers, 434 George-st.

LADIES' JERSEYS
In all the Leading Styles at Lowest Prices at
PORT HOPE KNITTING WORKS
382 George-st.

MONEY TO LOAN.
A LARGE amount of private funds has been placed in my hands for loaning on farm security.
J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM,
d&w2 Solicitor, 136 Hunter-st.

HALL, INNES & Co.
GREAT REDUCTIONS
IN PRICES OF MANTLES
AND
TRIMMED MILLINERY
After a most successful season's trade in this department we will offer during January, the balance of our stock of Jackets, Mantles, Mantle Materials and Ulsters, also all Trimmed and Untrimmed Millinery, at Greatly Reduced Prices.
From all who have not already made their purchases in these lines, we respectfully solicit a call as we will make it to their advantage to do so.
Sweeping Reductions in
Dress Stuffs, Shawls, Wool Squares and every description of Winter Goods.
Hall, Innes & Co
130, 132, 134 SIMCOE-ST.

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1891.

FILLING UP THE GAPS.

A LARGE NUMBER OF CANDIDATES NOMINATED.

Many of the Old Members Chosen—A Close Fight Between Pacaud and McGregor in Essex—Mr. Laurier Declines a Nomination in Quebec County.

South Wellington—Innes (Lib.)

Welland—Dr. Ferguson (Con.)

Lincoln—William Gibson, contractor, of Beamsville (Lib.)

North York—W. W. Pegg of West Gwillimbury (Con.)

North Wentworth—At a large meeting of North Wentworth Conservatives yesterday Wardell secured the unanimous nomination. The old member, Thomas Bain, has been selected by the Liberals.

Brockville—D. Derbyshire, ex-mayor (Lib.)

East Peterboro—John Burnham, Q.C. (Con.), Thomas Rork, grain merchant, Norwood (Lib.)

East Northumberland—M. P. Ketchum, of Brighton.

East Hastings—W. B. Northrup of Belleville (Con.)

Prince Edward—Dr. Platt (Lib.)

Monck—A. Boyle, the late member, was re-nominated by the Liberals.

West Northumberland—John Hargraft (Lib.)

North Essex—William McGregor was nominated by the Liberal convention at Windsor, securing 81 votes to Pacaud's 74.

East Huron—J. H. Musgrove (Con.)

West Toronto—Col. Fred Denison (Con.)

East Bruce—Henry Cargill (Con.)

East Elgin—Dr. Wilson of St. Thomas was again nominated by a Liberal convention at Aylmer.

North Wellington—L. P. Clarke (Con.)

Cornwall and Stormont—J. G. Snetsinger (Lib.)

Queen's County, P.E.I.—Hon. L. H. Davies and W. Walsh (Lib.), Ferguson and Blake (Con.)

Addington—George W. Dawson (Lib.)

South Grey—John Blythe (Con.)

West Lambton—J. F. Lister (Lib.)

North Grey—James Masson was renominated by the Conservatives.

Westmoreland, N.B.—Joseph Wood (Con.)

Richmond and Wolfe, Que.—Hon. Wilfrid Laurier will oppose W. B. Ives.

Chambly, Que.—Ald. Prefontaine.

Carleton, N.B.—Dr. Colter (Lib.), D. McLeod Vince (Con.)

Charlotte, N.B.—George J. Clarke (Lib.)

Restigouche — McAlister (Ind.) will oppose Moffat.

Westmoreland, N.B.—Joshua Wood (Con.)

Winnipeg—Scarth declined and meeting adjourned until Saturday, when the Premier's son may be tendered the nomination.

Nova Scotia Candidates.

Shelburne—Thomas Robertson (Lib.)

Digby—E. C. Bowers (Lib.)

Queen's—F. G. Forbes, barrister of Halifax (Lib.)

Lunenburg—James Eisenhauer (Lib.)

Annapolis—William Chipman (Lib.)

Cape Breton—Hon G. H. Murray and J. McPherson (Lib.)

King's County—Dr. F. W. Borden (Lib.)

Attorney-General Longley refuses to be the unrestricted reciprocity candidate in Annapolis, and a Mr. Chipman has been nominated to oppose Mr. Mills. In Digby county Hon. W. B. Vail, who was Minister of Militia in the McKenzie Government, declines the nomination, and the Liberals agreed to support E. Bower of Westport. The Liberals of Shelburne have telegraphed to New York and asked Thomas Robertson, ex-M.P., to return to Canada and run as the unrestricted reciprocity candidate in that constituency. Halifax Liberals to-night nominated Hon. A. G. Jones and Dr. Farrell to contest Halifax county. In Charlottetown Liberal-Conservatives nominated Hon. Donald Ferguson and Patrick Blake, M.L.A. Mr. Ferguson was a member of the Government for 10 years and Mr. Blake is a leading Roman Catholic who has sat for Charlottetown in the Legislature for three parliaments. In King's county the Liberal-Conservatives nominated Hon. Austin C. McDonald, ex-M.P., and James T. McLean, M.P.

Echoes of the Fight.

Sir Charles Tupper is expected to arrive in Halifax to-day from Nova Scotia.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier was offered the nomination for Quebec county but declined and Mayor Farmer was chosen.

The Minister of Finance opened the campaign in King's county, N.B., last night by a speech at Sussex. At Grand Falls Hon. John Costigan, Minister of the Interior, was banqueted.

A great deal of pressure is being brought to bear on Mr. Blake to induce him to allow his name to go to the West Durham electors, and it just may happen, said one of his friends yesterday, that he will accept.

The Equal Rights Association of Hamilton held a meeting at the coffee tavern last night. The question of the association taking part in the coming local and Dominion elections was discussed at length. It was resolved that the association would take part and assert itself. Whether the idea is for the association to have the candidates declare themselves on the platform of the Equal Righters or bring out independent candidates, the members would not say.

What The Chronicle Says.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—The Chronicle declares that the American Government desires commercial and ultimately political union with Canada. On the authority of a personal friend of Mr. Blaine and who was a friend of General Garfield having been chiefly instrumental in securing the latter's nomination for the presidency, The Chronicle states that during the Garfield-Hancock contest in 1880 Mr. Blaine quietly made a tour of Quebec and the provinces, sounding representative men on the question of commercial and ultimately political union with America and that Mr. Blaine, satisfied with the results of the tour, entered Garfield's cabinet on the distinct understanding that this question would be pushed. It was only Garfield's death, says The Chronicle, that prevented the development of the policy which Mr. Blaine is now pursuing under President Harrison, Mr. Blaine having in each case the cordial approval of the President.

WERE RESCUED ALIVE.

THE THREE IMPRISONED MINERS AT NANTICOKE TAKEN OUT.

Thrilling Recitals of How the Men Faced Death Five Days—They Suffered Unimaginable Tortures from Hunger and Loss of Sleep, but Worse Than These Was Their Thirst.

NANTICOKE, Pa., Feb. 11.—The little villages of Grand Tunnel and West Nanticoke, which adjoin one another on the opposite side of the river from this place, and which were plunged into grief last Wednesday by the flooding of No. 3 slope of the Susquehanna Coal Company, imprisoning John Rineer, William Cragel and Michael Schilling, and who were believed to have perished in the overrushing tide of water which swept through the mine, are this evening filled with joy, for the men who were mourned in three homes as dead have been returned to them alive.

They were rescued shortly before 3 o'clock this morning' but their escape from death was by a margin so narrow that it can be regarded a little less than miraculous.

John Rineer, a very intelligent miner, speaking for himself and companions after being rescued, gave the following story of how the flood hemmed them in the mine: They were working off the main gangway, probably 100 yards from where Foreman Lewis and Miners Davis and Evans were, when the former set off the blast which opened up the underground reservoir. In the abandoned working they heard these men call to them to flee for their lives as they ran past the door which opened into Rineer's gangway. They dropped their tools and started to fly from the mine.

They prepared to meet the doom with which the furious water threatened them. One miner's lamp flickered and cast its dim light about them, and, looking down the heading, they could see the flood creeping towards them. On and on the water came slowly, it seemed, until it was almost within their reach. It came to within eight feet of them. Then it stopped, the water settled, the roar of the torrent ceased, the surging billow receded and the water stood about 10 feet below them.

The water was then coming in where they were, but when they got to the doorway the torrent was so strong they did not dare venture into the main gangway and so they turned about and then began a race for life up the gangway, which had a four degree pitch. Past the place where hung their coats and dinner-pails they rushed, with the water gaining upon them at every step. Ahead of them ninety feet was a cross-heading leading from Rineer's gangway to old workings. This heading was sixty feet long and pitched forty-five degrees, making it a hard place to enter and climb up. They climbed and climbed until the top was reached, the water following after them in vengeful haste. Then they stopped. They were at the old workings, which from this point pitched down in either direction and it was useless to proceed further.

Though hedged in by water on one side and no way of escape on the other, the men still cherished the hope that help would reach them from the outside, knowing that their fellow-workmen would leave nothing undone to rescue them. With this faith in their fellow-men they knelt down in prayer and lifted up their voices to God to keep them from further danger.

There was a little lagging built in platform shape close to the top of the heading and upon that the men crawled. It was their highest possible reach from the water. And there they awaited the signs which would tell them that the work of rescue was under way.

Soon the great mine pumps, 600 feet away, were heard throbbing and drawing upon the water. The moment was a thrilling one to them, for it gave them the encouragement that so long as there was life there was hope.

The solitary lamp which guided them in their flight from the flood now gave out and they were plunged into an inky darkness. They did not dare to move from the lagging which gave them rest for a single misstep upon the rough mass of broken rock that obstructed the heading would have plunged them down into the abysm below, which was filled 50 ft with water.

Sleep deserted them. In the first few hours of their imprisonment they began to feel the pangs of hunger, but the greater torture of thirst came over them. This they could only appease by wetting their faces against the rib of the heading, and taking the trickling water as it dropped from the roof and ran down the side of their prison walls.

Thus the men suffered from Wednesday until this morning, the time being spent in prayer and in keeping up each other's spirits by cheerful conversation, despite the grim reality of the fact that they were facing death.

TORONTO TOPICS.

TORONTO, Feb. 10.—Ex-Mayor J. E. Smith is seriously ill at No. 42 Wellesley-st. Mr. Smith had been visiting friends in Detroit, getting home Monday night. Yesterday morning, however, he was seized with a severe fainting fit and his condition became so alarming that Dr. Strange was called in. At a late hour last night Mr. Smith was resting easier and his general condition slightly improved.

The champion match for the Thorburn curling stones between Portage City, Wis., and Yonkers, N.Y., takes place in Toronto next Friday. These rinks will arrive to-day or to-morrow and are anxious to arrange friendly matches. President Pettle of the Grand National will umpire Friday's match.

The death occurred Monday of Mrs. Rebecca McGee of Oakham House, Gould and Church streets. She had been a resident of Toronto for nearly half a century and was the widow of the late John McGee, proprietor of the old Phoenix foundry, who died in 1868. His foundry was in Yonge street in the premises now occupied by Robinson's Theatre Museum. Mrs. McGee, who was a native of Kingston, was 67 years of age. She was a Roman Catholic and very charitable. She leaves four sons and one daughter.

The Local Executive Committee of the National Educational Association met in the Public Library building yesterday afternoon. There were present: James L. Hughes in the chair, J. J. Tilley, C. Blackett Robinson, R. W. Doan, F. G. Close, H. A. E. Kent, Principal Kirkland and Secretary J. H. Hill. A committee consisting of Messrs. McCabe, Doan, Hughes and Hill was appointed to provide a staff of assistants for the secretary. The hall committee was given authority to secure the necessary number of halls conveniently near the Pavilion. D. Boyle was appointed to take charge of the unpacking and re-shipping of the school supplies and apparatus which will be exhibited. Secretary Hill announced that the arrangements for the big convention are progressing rapidly and that the expenses would amount to only $8000, as compared with $17,000 expended in St. Paul, where the convention was held last year. The City Council is informed that the St. Paul city fathers granted $5000 towards defraying the expenses of the convention, and the citizens are reminded that the liberal residents of St. Paul subscribed $1000.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The House Committee on Commerce to-day reported a bill providing for safe transport and humane treatment of cattle exported from the United States. The committee's report states that the act for inspection of live cattle exported from the United States has brought about a gratifying increase in exports.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Man and Horses Precipitated Over a Bridge at Berlin.

BERLIN, Feb. 10.—A fatal accident occurred in the outskirts of this town about noon to-day. Two brothers, Adam and Jacob Zimmer, farmers, were driving across an overhead bridge of the Galt branch of the Grand Trunk Railway, when the horse fell on the railing of the bridge, which gave way, allowing the animal and the cutter with its occupants to fall to the track below, a distance of about 25 feet. Jacob Zimmer and the horse were almost instantly killed, while Adam Zimmer sustained serious injuries.

Interesting Legal Cases.

TORONTO, Feb. 10.—Before the master in chambers application was made in the libel action of Frank H. Sangster, barrister, of Stouffville, against The Empire for security for costs on the ground that the action is a frivolous one and the plaintiff not in a good financial position. The Empire some time ago published a report of certain proceedings before Magistrate Wingfield, in which Sangster was accused of obtaining certain notes by false pretences. The evidence was taken in the case and the magistrate dismissed the case against Sangster, holding he was not guilty of fraud. Sangster alleges that the report of the case published was incorrect and a libel on him, and sues for $10,000 damages. The learned master reserved judgment.

Mr. Justice Falconbridge yesterday made an order allowing Adam Rossworm, of the township of Carrick, in the county of Bruce, to convey land under R. S. O. chap. 133 without his wife joining to bar dower. Rossworm was married in 1876 to Emma Correll, and for some time resided on a farm in Carrick township and then removed to Walkerton, where he kept a hotel near the station. On Christmas day, 1889, Mrs. Rossworm left her husband and family of seven children and went to Chicago with one Gilbert Porteous, a married man, where she has since resided. Mr. Rossworm has given notice that he will at the next session of Parliament apply for a divorce from his wife.

A motion was made before Mr. Justice Rose in chambers yesterday by Mr. Aylesworth, Q.C., for an order allowing the plaintiff in the action of Howard v. City of St. Thomas to prosecute an appeal in forma pauperis. The action is a peculiar one and the motion one very seldom heard of in Ontario courts. One Oliver of St. Thomas was moving a house, by permission of the city, along one of the streets in St. Thomas when the corner of the house caught on a telephone wire and broke it. The wire struck a boy named Howard, who happened to be in the street, and severely injured him. The boy's father brought an action against Oliver, the city and the telephone company and at the trial recovered $800 damages. The defendants appealed to the Divisional Court, and the verdict was set aside against the defendants, the city and the telephone company. Neither the amount of the verdict nor the costs could be recovered from Oliver and the plaintiff served notice of appeal to the Court of Appeal. The time for perfecting security expired without the plaintiff being able to procure the required security. The motion is now made to allow the plaintiff to prosecute his appeal without giving security or paying any of the required fees on the ground that he is too poor otherwise to appeal. Mr. W. M. Douglas appeared for the city of St. Thomas and Mr. McDougall, Q.C., for the telephone company. The learned judge, in giving judgment, said he was very doubtful if the statute under which the motion was made was in force in Ontario, and even if it were, this was not a case within it, it being clearly shown from the plaintiff's examination that he had more property than a person to come within the statute should have. The motion was dismissed with costs.

In the action of Reck v. The Town of Penetanguishene a motion was made to the Chancellor for an injunction to restrain the defendant corporation from expending some $4000 in the purchase of a fire engine. Some time ago a $30,000 bylaw was passed authorizing the council to expend that amount in procuring a waterworks system for the town. Of this amount the council wished to expend $4000 for a fire engine. The Chancellor refused the application for an injunction.

Rhedy Pringle, the Favorite, Beaten by Howe at Gloucester.

GLOUCESTER, Feb. 10.—First race, ¾ mile—Ralph Black 1, Banker 2, Fustic 3. Time 1.17¾.

Second race, 6½ furlongs—Howe 1, Rhedy Pringle 2, Cocoa 3. Time 1.40¾.

Third race, 4½ furlongs—P. J. H. 1, Millerton 2, Silence 3. Time 1.03.

Fourth race, 1 1-16 miles—Crispin 1, Kyrle 2, Bargain 3. Time 2.11¾.

Fifth race, 7½ furlongs—Endurer 1, Tyrone 2, Edward F. 3. Time 1.36.

Taps From the Telegraph.

Abram Wright died at Stockbridge, Mass., yesterday, aged 109.

Negotiations for a new treaty between Spain and the United States are in progress.

The condition of General Sherman has so much improved that he has been pronounced out of danger.

Robbers badly wounded Capt. J. O. Greenwood of Napa, Cal., killed his wife and robbed the house.

Rev. Dr. Cochrane has received $1000 from the Free Church of Scotland in aid of home missions in Canada.

Rev. C. J. Dobson has been invited to retain the pastorate of the People's Methodist Church, King-street, for another year.

A passenger train ran into a freight at Elmira, N. Y., last night, and the engineer and fireman of the passenger were killed,

A sensation has been caused at Harrisburg, Pa., by the report of a deficiency of $80,000 in the adjutant general's office. McClelland denies the truth of the report.

Nineteen persons were injured, three fatally, in the wreck on the Decorah Division of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Northern Railroad at Maynard, Ia.

The police in Hamilton have charge of two young Toronto boys, John Schulkins, 108 Borden-street, and Gerald Lyman, 90 Sydenham-lane, who ran away on Saturday with cash enough to take them to Hamilton and no farther. They will be sent home.

Skip Flavelle, the great Lindsay curler, made a great record for his rink at the recent Winnipeg tournament, winning everything before him. His greatest triumph was his International victory Monday with a score of 20 to 1, knocking out McKechnie, the champion skip of the Thistle club of Winnipeg. Flavelle leaves for home to-day, and takes with him 12 gold medals and two cups, and the point prize, which will be exhibited here on Saturday.

The International match for the Gordon medal, set down for to-day in Montreal between two rinks each of Albany and Montreal curlers, has been indefinitely postponed owing to Albany's inability to visit Montreal.

William F. Wharton, first assistant-secretary of state, and Miss Susan C. Lay, daughter of Richard G. Lay, United States Consul-General to Canada, were married at Washington yesterday.

The acting secretary of the United States Treasury yesterday sent to the senate reports of special agents, stating that the seal rookeries are badly depleted and the natives on the seal islands are destitute. Agent Goff says there should be no killing of seals for their skins on the islands nor in the waters of Behring Sea for an indefinite number of years.

At St. George's Church, Guelph, yesterday, William Lionel Herbert Clarke, son of the late Dr. Clarke, was married to Miss Annie Gertrude Clara (Daisy) Small, stepdaughter of Mr. H. Lockwood of the Bank of Montreal. Ven. Archdeacon Dixon, assisted by the Rev. R. Seaborn, tied the silken knot. The groomsmen were: Mr. A. E. Osler, Toronto; Mr. W. C. R. Hewat, Orangeville, and Master Herbert Palmer, Toronto.

Suicide of a Smoker of Cigarets.

TRENTON, N.J., Feb. 10.—Peter Johnson, a young man of this city, killed himself to-day with a breech-loading gun. He placed the muzzle of the gun in his mouth and pulled the trigger by means of a rope. His head was blown off. Johnson was a victim of cigaret-smoking.

FLED WITH $20,000,000.

A PARIS BROKER'S GIGANTIC SWINDLING SCHEME.

He Leaves a Note Saying he Intended to Commit Suicide, but Nobody Believes Him—The Parnellite Crisis—The Czar and the Jews.

PARIS, Feb. 10.—A sensation has been caused in financial circles here by the disappearance of a well-known banker who is known to have left debts to the amount of 20,000,000 francs and who may have committed suicide. The banker is Victor Mace. He had a private bank in the Rue Cadet. Mace opened the bank five years ago and began business by offering to pay high interest for deposits, this interest in many cases averaging 10 per cent. monthly or 120 per cent. a year. He sent out piles of circulars all over the country and fitted up his offices in elegant style. Mace was a gentleman of the most pleasant address. His plausible offers, punctuality in fulfilling business engagements and the promptness with which he paid the high interest promised gradually drew the bank a numerous clientel. It is estimated he had the names of 20,000 depositors on his books. For some time, however, unfavorable rumors in regard to Mace have been circulated. Adverse criticisms of leading bankers were repeated to Mace, but he would shrug his shoulders, smile pityingly and intimate that the derogatory remarks were caused by business jealousy. This seemed to be the general opinion of his clients. Mace explained his ability to pay the high rate of interest by hinting that he had secret means of obtaining reliable "tips" as to what was going on in the financial world, especially as to future events. This, he claimed, enabled him to take advantage of many financial transactions and make large profits where his competitors not blessed with "tips" failed to act in time. On Friday numbers of Mace's clients, alarmed by fresh rumors, called at his bank and were put off by the clerks with stereotyped excuses. Saturday, however, the depositors besieged the bank in large numbers and were reinforced by crowds of other people. A strong force of police by vigorous measures saved the bank from being wrecked by the maddened depositors. To-day the police produced a letter from Mace, whose whereabouts seem to be unknown to even his most intimate friends. In this letter Mace announces he intends to commit suicide and says he has left his creditors all the money that remains to him, 1,600,000 francs, deposited in the Credit Lyonnais. A hasty examination of Mace's accounts shows he owes at least 20,000,000 francs to his dupes. Few people believe that Mace had any intention of committing suicide.

THE UNFORTUNATE JEWS.

Possible Result of the Return of the Guild Hall Memorial.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of The Daily Telegraph telegraphs from St. Petersburg important facts in connection with the possible result of the return by the Czar without comment of the Guild Hall Memorial in favor of the suffering Hebrews of Russia. The correspondent says: British sympathy has aggravated the Jews' hard lot, which was already so wretched that it seemed impossible for it to be worse. The provincial governors have redoubled the severity of the laws. Where the statutes were inapplicable the governors have issued circulars and ukases to replace them. The Jews bitterly regret the British well-meaning but injudicious zeal which has exasperated instead of soothed the Russian Bear. The daily severities practised against families of unoffending men, women and children are incredible and wanton. Russia's reply to the Lord Mayor's respectful petition consists of secret circulars, ordering her officials to rigorously administer the anti-semitic laws and to supply the legal deficiency by their own decisions, harmonious with the Government's intolerant spirit. The Poles after the rebellion of 1864 were less cruelly and less inhumanely treated than the Jews after the London indignation meeting. Gen. Gourko, Governor of Warsaw, has issued a circular regulating how Jewish recruits are to be bought for medical inspection. The Jews, through the wretched lives they are forced to lead, are physically degenerate and become a most striking embodiment life continuing in spite of gradual decay of the vital functions. The majority of the Jewish recruits are found to be unfit for service. In the event of Christians being found unfit to perform the duties of a soldier they are sent home and are finally released from military service, but the Jewish recruits are worried to death. They are sent home and are subject during three years to be recalled at any moment on the suspicion of malingering. The recruit returns to his home hundreds of miles away, resumes his occupation and a month later is suddenly ordered to reappear for medical examination. This process is repeated at intervals of a few months during three years.

Sawdust on the Free List.

OTTAWA, Feb. 10.—An order in council has been passed by the Dominion Government, placing sawdust upon the free list.

Ontario Candidates.

	Ministerialist.	Opposition.
Brant, South		Paterson
Bruce, North	McNeill
Elgin, East	Ingram	Wilson
Essex, South		Allan
Grey, North	Masson	Horsey
Huron, East	Musgrove	Macdonald
Kingston	Macdonald
Lennox	Wilson
London	Carling	Hyman
Lanark, North		Mohr
Leeds, North		Frost
Middlesex, West		McFarlane
Northumberland, E.	Cochrane	Ketcham
Oxford, South	[illegible]
Peel	McCulla	Featherstone
Perth, South	Sharp
Peterboro, West	Stevenson
Prince Edward	Miller	Platt
Victoria, North	Hughes
Wentworth, North	Wardell	Bain
Welland	Dr. Ferguson
Lincoln		Gibson
Wellington, S.		Innes
York, North	Pegg
Renfrew, North		Barr
Brockville		Derbyshire
Peterboro, East	Burnham	Rork
Hastings, East	Northrup
Monck		Boyle
Northumberland, W.		Hargraft
Essex, North		McGregor
Bruce, East	Cargill
Wellington, North	Clarke
Cornwall and Stormont		J. G. Snetsinger
Addington		Dawson
Grey, South	Blythe
Lambton, West		J. F. Lister
Toronto, West	Denison

The New Party in Lambton.

WYOMING, Ont., Feb. 10.—The New Party convention for East and West Lambton was held here to-day. The attendance was as good as could be expected under existing circumstances. No decided action was taken more than to select a candidate for each riding and the appointment of a committee to interview them as to their acceptance or rejection. The convention adjourned to meet next Monday.

$10,000 for a Boxing Match.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—The Ormonde Club offers a purse of £2000 for a boxing match of 10 rounds between [illegible], the meeting to take place in the club's [illegible].

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

That Tired Feeling

"I derived very much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took for general debility. It built me right up, and gave me an excellent appetite." Ed. Jenkins, Mt. Savage, Md.

Fagged Out

"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. Begole, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

Worn Out

"Hood's Sarsaparilla restored me to good health. Indeed, I might say truthfully it saved my life. To one feeling tired and worn out I would earnestly recommend a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla." Mrs. Phebe Mosher, 99 Brooks Street, East Boston, Mass.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy anything else instead. Insist upon having

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1891.

THE EAST RIDING.

The Conservatives of the East Riding are to be congratulated on again securing Mr. John Burnham, Q.C., as their candidate in this election. Mr. Burnham is a man of ability, and one who, at this time especially, would be of great service in Parliament, to the constituency and to the country. His very long experience in municipal affairs, as Reeve of his municipality and as Warden of the county, combined with his natural abilities, would alone qualify him for the important position of representative in the House of Commons; but when to this is added his experience in Parliament, where he formerly represented the constituency from 1878 to 1887, his qualifications for the position are of a high order. Mr. Burnham was an excellent representative in every way. He looked carefully after the interests of his constituency and was of great service to the Government and to the country. East Peterborough will consult its own interest and that of the country as a whole by returning him to Parliament. This is especially the case at the present time, when the present leaders of the Liberal party, by whom he is opposed, are striving to make the Dominion take up a position antagonistic to British interests and to the connection of Canada with the great empire upon which the sun never sets, and antagonistic to the material well-being and prosperity of our country. Mr. Rorke, whom the Liberals have placed in the field, is the representative of these leaders—of the party that has opposed the building of the Canadian Pacific Railway and the development of the country, that has opposed the fiscal policy that has been of inestimable benefit to every industry and interest in the Dominion, that has exhibited a reprehensible want of faith in Canada, and that has taken its present policy from foreigners who are unfriendly to this country. Ever since the New York speculator and millionaire, Mr. Wiman, induced Sir Richard Cartwright to take up his schemes, a crisis has been approaching in Canada and has now come, and East Peterborough, with the other parts of this Dominion, should at this time do its duty, and by electing Mr. Burnham on March 5th by a large majority, show that it has no sympathy with the Washington plotters, and that it is true to the policy of Canada for the Canadians.

The Handsomest Lady in Peterborough

Remarked to a friend the other day that she knew Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs was a superior remedy, as it stopped her cough instantly when other remedies had no effect whatever. So to prove this and convince you of its merit any druggist will give you a Sample bottle Free. Large size 50c and $1.

Hadn't Consulted Him.

"You should learn some trade, my son," said Mr. Manhattan Beach to his young hopeful. "Bricklayers are getting $3.50 a day, while lawyers can't afford to ride on the street cars."

"Pa, why didn't you learn a trade when you were a boy?"

"That's not only silly, but also an impertinent question. I didn't learn a trade when I was a boy out of regard for your feelings. I wanted to give you an opportunity to say that your father was a gentleman."

"It can't be helped now," replied the boy moodily, "but I wish you had consulted me, for if we had arranged for you to be a bricklayer, I could have been the gentleman myself."—Texas Siftings.

Rubbing the Shah to Rest.

Three masseuses specially charged with the task of sending the King of Persia to sleep, take him in hand, undress him partly, put his nightcap on, place him on two mattresses in the middle of the room and begin their task. They begin by rubbing his naked feet, his hands, and his head, in a gentle, scientific manner. Presently their caresses become more gentle till their hands hardly touch his skin * * then they cease * * the King of Kings is going to sleep * * he sleeps * * no, he moves, he wakes up * * and the masseuses begin softly to rub him once more. The care of the sleeping King is undertaken by a number of austere and elderly women.—Figaro Illustre.

Portraits on Cameos.

A very expensive fad is having your portrait cut as an onyx cameo. The work is very slow, difficult, and laborious. The image when done is permanent and will last for centuries. There are enough people in New York who enjoy this kind of extravagance to give constant employment to five cameo portrait carvers.—Chicago Herald.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. d16w4 6mo

Don't forget to arrange to attend the Cantata of Esther. It will be the finest local effort in years. The presentation will be as nearly perfect as possible. Prices as usual, 25c. and 50c. 1d35

THE ANNUAL MEETING

OF THE CENTRAL CANADA LOAN AND SAVINGS CO.

The Annual Report of the Directors—The Financial Statement—A Prosperous Year—The Officers Elected.

Another year has closed in the history of the Central Canada Loan and Savings Company and the seventh annual meeting was held in the Company's offices, George-st., this afternoon. The business of the year requires no introductory comment as the prosperity that has attended the Company in the year that has just closed can be seen by a reference to the reports submitted at the meeting. Mr. Geo. A. Cox, the President, presided at the meeting.

THE DIRECTORS' REPORT.

The Directors' annual report was submitted as follows:—

The Directors have pleasure in laying before the shareholders their seventh annual report.

The interest earnings for the year (with $2,894 44 at credit of profit and loss) amount to $167,346 92. After providing for payment of interest on deposits and debentures and all expenses of management, two half yearly dividends at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum, amounting to $48,000.00, have been paid, $12,000 00 transferred to the Reserve Fund, and $5,656.15 to the Contingent Fund.

The Reserve Fund now amounts to $192,000.00, and the Contingent Fund to $21,546.06.

The sterling debentures paid off during the year amounted to $340,325.90, while new debentures were issued to the amount of $559,713.82, showing an increase of $219,389.33. The Currency debentures paid off during the year amounted to $161,000.00, while new debentures were issued to the amount of $228,000 00, showing an increase of $67,000.00.

The invested funds of the Company now amount to $3,003,696 14, making, with the unpaid subscribed capital stock of $1,200,000.00, a total of $4,303,696.14, or $2,296,473.13 in excess of the total liability to the public.

The assets of the Company were increased during the year by $361,885.34.

The demand for money has continued good throughout the year, the funds of the Company were kept well invested, and the prevailing rates of interest have been very fair.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

FRED. G. COX, Manager. GEO. A. COX, President.

THE FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

Financial Statement, for the year ending 31st December, 1890.

ASSETS.

Cash Value of Securities	$2,962,213 98
Canadian Bank of Commerce	47,919 61
Bank of Montreal	446 00
Bank of Scotland, London	973 66
British Linen Company Bank, Glasgow	191 82
Cash on hand	738 73
Sundry Accounts due to Company	2,115 86
	$3,003,696 14

LIABILITIES.

To the Public:
Currency Debentures and Deposits, with Interest	$887,374 34
Sterling Debentures, with Interest	1,049,848 67	$1,937,223 01
Accounts retained to pay Encumbrances, and for Loans in Progress	57,024 66
Sundry accounts due by Company	1,902 41	58,927 07
To the Shareholders:
Capital Stock Subscribed $2,000,000
Upon which there is paid up	$ 800,000 00
Reserve Fund	192,000 00
Contingent Fund	21,546 06
Dividend Number 13, due 2nd Jan., 1891	24,000 00	1,007,546 06
		$3,003,696 14

PROFIT AND LOSS ACCOUNTS.

DR.

Interest on Debentures, Deposits and Bank Balances	$ 73,665 52
Expenses in connection with and Commission paid on Sale and Renewal of Sterling Debentures	12,653 84
Inspection Charges	2,561 27
General Expenses (including Costs of Management, Directors' and Auditors' Fees, Officers' Salaries Tax on Dividend, Rent, Postage, Advertising, &c.)	13,021 14
Dividends Nos. 12 and 13	48,000 00
Transferred to Reserve Fund	12,000 00
Transferred to Contigent Fund	5,656 15
	$167,346 92

CR.

Balance at credit, 1st January, 1890	$ 2,894 44
Interest on investments and Bank Balances	164,452 48
	$167,346 92

We hereby certify that we have carefully audited the Books and Accounts of the Central Canada Loan and Savings Co'y of Ontario, at Toronto and Peterborough respectively, for the year ending 31st December, 1890. The postings and balances of the Company's ledgers have been examined, and we find the whole correct, and in accordance with the above statements.

HENRY M. PELLATT,
WM. MANSON, } Auditors.

We hereby certify that we have made a careful examination of the Securities of the Central Canada Loan and Savings Co'y of Ontario, that we have checked the same with the Mortgage Register, and find them correct, and in accordance therewith.

J. M. FERRIS,
E. S. VINDIN, } Inspection Committee.
F.C. TAYLOR,

Peterborough, Jan 27th, 1891.

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Mr. Geo. A. Cox, President, in moving the adoption of the report, said:—

GENTLEMEN,—It is always a pleasant duty to move the adoption of an annual statement that so clearly indicates a year of marked progress and prosperity, as does the report that is now submitted for your approval. The business of the year has been very gratifying in every particular. We have had no difficulty whatever in procuring choice investments at fairly remunerative rates. The payment of matured loans and collections of interest have also been quite up to our expectations. I am glad to be able to state that currency debentures were issued during the year to the amount of $228,000.00, and sterling debentures to the amount of $559,715.32. These large amounts were obtained at lower rates of interest than was paid on maturing obligations. An increase during the year of no less than $361,885.34 in the assets of the company, making our total investments $3,003,696.14 at the close of our seventh year's business, will, I venture to hope, be highly satisfactory to our shareholders. We are much indebted to Messrs. Finlayson & Auld, our chief agents in Great Britain, for the gratifying increase in our Sterling debentures. Mr. Jaffray and myself had the pleasure of meeting them when in Scotland during the past summer and we have every reason to hope that the strong position the Company has now attained and the active interest they are taking in it, will lead to a still greater extension of our business during the year upon which we have entered. The average rate of interest earned upon our investments the past year is 6.35 per cent, showing a slight decrease as compared with the previous year. This is the natural result of the repayment of some of our older mortgages, because the rate that can now be obtained upon first class security in the Province of Ontario, to which our business is confined, is steadily declining. This we think is not to be regretted. Those who have money to lend can better afford to take the lower rate than those who are obliged to borrow can afford to pay the higher rate. While we borrow our money upon better terms, because we offer absolute security to our depositors and debenture holders, we must also be content to lend it at a lower rate to those who have absolute security to offer. No rate justifies the loan where the security is not adequate. The profit and loss account for the year, from which only $12,000 has been transferred to the reserve fund, may at first thought be somewhat disappointing; but that feeling will, I am sure, pass away when it is remembered that all the expenses incident to the issue and renewal of $787,715 of debentures have been charged against the profits of the year. There are no other items in the statement that occur to me as requiring explanation, and I will now move the adoption of the report.

Mr. Richard Hall, the Vice-President, in seconding the adoption, said: The annual statement that has been in your hands for some weeks is so satisfactory that I do not know that it is necessary to add anything to what has already been said. There is, however, one matter to which I called your special attention last year, and to which I again desire to refer. The large issue of sterling debentures during the year is certainly gratifying, but the rapid accumulation of Canadian capital, reserve deposits and debentures amounting at the close of our seventh year to no less than $1,870,920.40, is to my mind still more gratifying, as affording evidence not only of the increasing wealth and prosperity of this community, but affording evidence of the increasing confidence which the Company enjoys where its directors and officers are best known. I beg to second the adoption of the report.

The report was unanimously adopted.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS.

The following officers and Board of Directors was then elected:—

PRESIDENT.—Geo. A. Cox.

1ST VICE-PRESIDENT.—Richard Hall.

2ND VICE-PRESIDENT.—J. R. Dundas.

DIRECTORS.—W. Cluxton, D. W. Dumble, H. J. Lefevre, J. M. Ferris, Robert Jaffray, F. G. Taylor and G. S. Vinden.

MANAGER.—F. G. Cox.

AUDITORS.—Wm. Manson and H. M. Pellatt.

FADS, FANCIES AND FASHIONS OF THE GENTLER SEX.

Interesting Compilation of Women's Work in the World—Anecdotes of Their Cleverness in Various Departments—Latest Fashion Notes.

Mrs. Potter Palmer, of the World's Fair Committee, has a conservatory adjoining her dining-room from which her table is supplied with fresh fruits and vegetables, mint and mushrooms all Winter and her friends receive numerous bouquets.

Harriet Hosmer, the sculptor, is a little woman who has not a masculine trait about her. It is forty years since she began the lifework which has made her famous, but time has dealt kindly with her. Her round face beams with a constant smile, and her bright, black eyes sparkle with good humor. Her brown hair is brushed smoothly back from her broad forehead and a black silk net holds it in place.

A physician says that there is no need for a woman to catch cold if she will only follow two bits of advice he gives. The first is for her not to run from a warm, sunny room into one of much lower temperature without having first guarded against the change by throwing a light shawl over her shoulders, and the other is not to follow a guest outside for a last few minutes of gossip.

Cincinnati has a new terror in the "woman who drives." Of the thirty persons injured on the streets of that town last month, twenty-five were victims of the "woman who drives." An ordinance is talked of to prevent a woman from trying to drive a horse in that city, and in the mean time pedestrians can only take to the telegraph poles when she is abroad in her juggernaut.

The Empress of Germany has military tastes as well as her husband. At the late grand review on Tempelhoffeld she was in the saddle for two hours, riding superbly and leading her own regiment of cuirassiers past the Emperor. Her uniform as Colonel was a habit of white cloth, embroidered on shoulders and collar with the red and silver colors of the regiment and a three-cornered white felt hat, with many ostrich feathers, in which she looked remarkably pretty.

There is in New York a very aged lady—her exact age need not be here told—who is as fond of going to parties, dinners, balls, and plays as she was in the first half of the nineteenth century. She arrays herself in fashionable style; she is very gay in society; she is quick in repartee at the table; she plays merrily on the piano; she refrains from dancing, but enjoys the sight of it; she is dainty in her ways; her white tresses add to her dignity, and she has never been in the bonds of wedlock. She is always a welcome guest, and she is a favorite with the younger folks, feminine and masculine. She enjoys her old age, though advancing toward fourscore.

A foreign writer has been at pains to give a category of the points of difference between the typical women of the three leading nationalities. It is not recommended as an infallible one, but it certainly is interesting. "A French woman lives to the end of her honeymoon, the English woman her whole life, the German woman forever. The French woman brings her daughter to the ball, the English woman takes her to church, the German woman gives her employment in the kitchen. The French woman has spirit and imagination, the English woman has little taste, the German woman modesty. The French woman chats, the English woman speaks, the German woman renders decisions. The Spanish woman kills her lover in jealousy, the French woman her rival, the German woman simply renounces; but all at some time marry someone else.

Making Pencils.

The so-called lead of our pencils is a mixture of what is known as German clay and graphite. Graphite is often called black-lead, although it is in no way related to lead. It is a form of carbon, and of the same family as coal. It is, however, an older member of the family, being found in granite rocks. The name lead was given it because lead had formerly been used for marking on paper. The way in which these materials are made into pencils is described in the New York Sun.

Do you see this fine black powder? It is graphite. It costs twenty-five cents a pound. This white substance is German clay. It is brought as ballast in sailing vessels. We mix the clay with the powder, and grind them in a mill, adding moisture, till the mixture becomes a paste-like putty.

This paste is pressed into dies of the size of a pencil lead, but four times as long. Cut into proper lengths, the leads are baked at a high temperature. The degree of hardness is determined by the proportion of clay—the more clay the harder the lead.

The wood of the pencil is cedar. This is brought mostly from Florida, and is obtained from fallen trees. It is delivered in blocks sawed to pencil lengths. Half of these are thick to receive the lead, and half are thin to be glued upon the others when the lead has been inserted.

The blocks are wide enough for four pencils each. They are grooved for the leads by a saw. The leads are taken from hot glue and laid in the grooves. Then the thin piece is glued to the thick one. After the blocks are dry the four pencils of each block are cut apart. Another machine shapes them, making them eight-sided, three-sided, round, or flat, as may be desired. They are burnished by machinery, and are then ready to be tied up in bunches.

The higher grades of pencils are made by finer manipulation of the graphite and the use of better material. The average pencil costs about one-quarter of a cent to make. Of this grade of pencil an operator will turn out twenty-five hundred a day.

What He Was Worth.

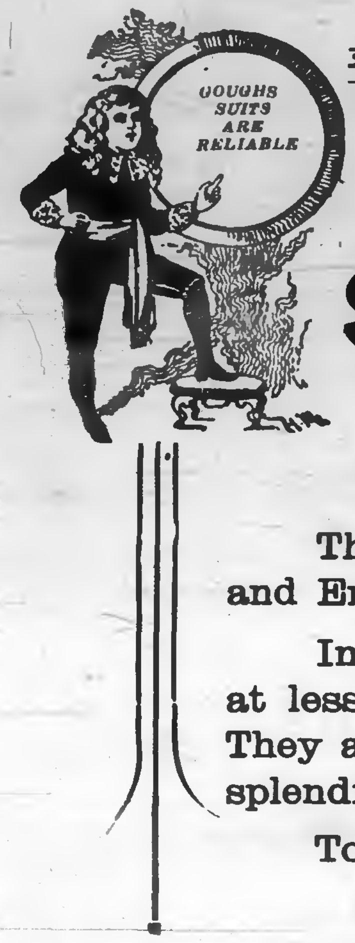
Absolute monarchs are given to teaching their subjects practical lessons in ways which are more salutary than amusing to the objects of such instruction. A traveller in Morocco tells, in "The Land of an African Sultan," the following story of a monarch's method of playing schoolmaster:

The Sultan, not long ago, discovered that one of his viziers was becoming too powerful. He therefore summoned him to tea, and complimented him on his great wealth. The vizier, becoming vain, boasted of the number of his houses, horses, wives and slaves, and the Sultan rebuked him, saying that he was too rich and thought too much of himself.

To show the man exactly what he was worth, his Majesty had him taken by soldiers to the slave-market, where he was put up for sale, and received only one bid, of eightpence. He was then taken back to the Sultan, who said to him, "Now you know your proper value—eightpence. Go home and ponder over it."

When the man reached home, however, he found that nearly all his property had been taken away by order of the Sultan. Only one small residence, one wife, one horse and one slave had been left him.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW



MONSTER Stock Taking SALE!

The Most Gigantic Slaughter of Odds and Ends ever held in Canada.

In order to clear out stock we will sell at less than cost a Lot of Odd Garmemts. They are in every respect regular goods and splendid values.

To See is to Buy. Come and See.

GOUCH BROTHERS,

The Clothiers, 377 and 379 George

WM. FITZGERALD,

Builder, Contractor and Builder.

Contracts taken for all work connected with erection of new buildings, repairs or rebuilding. Twenty-five years experience. First-class work according to plans and specifications guaranteed. Estimates furnished for any description of work. Good dry material always on hand. Best of references given as to excellence of work and despatch.

Building Lots For Sale

in different localities. Most desirable sites for houses. This is the time to buy and build. Lots sold and houses built thereon on terms to suit buyers. Easy terms of payment. Several good houses and lots for sale. Every one looking for a bargain should see these. WM. FITZGERALD, 124, corner of Dublin and Water-sts.

P.O. Box 676, Peterborough. d35 w32-1y

"HARVARD"

"In twenty years experience as a druggist, I have never handled a remedy giving such satisfaction as does Harvard Bronchial Syrup." J. J. Perry, Napanee, Ont. —"Have used it myself with the grandest results, and know many sufferers from Bronchial Trouble, who have been completely cured by it." J. C. Molson, Montreal.

HAGGART & KIDD

TOWN and COUNTY } Auctioneers;
COMMISSION and SHIPPING } Merchants,
REAL ESTATE and INSURANCE } Agents.

☞ Money to Loan.

SAWS Filed and Gummed in First Class Style. Knives, Scissors, Tools, &c., ground and sharpened. S. W. ENGLISH, shop 139 Charlotte-st. d13-w1y

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins, by grocers, labelled thus:

JAMES EPPS & CO., Homoeopathic Chemists, London, England. w49-d44-6m

"HARVARD"

Harvard Bronchial Syrup emanates from the Medical Faculty of Harvard University, the best medical skill in America, and has proved to be the most wonderful cure for all Throat Troubles and Coughs, resulting from sudden Colds. Pleasant to the taste. Absolutely free from injurious ingredients. Large bottle 50c, half the price of inferior remedies.

A. J. Laurance, Montreal, Prop. for Canada. By all dealers.

REMOVAL.

DR. CARMICHAEL

has removed to his new office and residence, corner of Water and Brock-sts., (opposite the Court House. d146-w48-6mo

TOOLS! BUILDING HARDWARE!

NAILS, LOCKS, HINGES,

and all Building Hardware

Edge Tools, Saws, Files, Planes

and all Mechanics' Tools.

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc., etc

of the Best Quality and Lower in Price than Elsewhere

GEO. STETHEM.

"Itis theSafest and Fairest Policy I Have Ever Seen,"

Was the remark made by a prominent representative of one of the largest and best American Life Insurance Companies, when he had carefully examined

THE ORDINARY LIFE POLICY OF

—THE—

TEMPERANCE and GENERAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y.

This is the only policy offered to the Canadian public that can neither lapse nor expire as to its paid-up value till death ensues, after three annual premiums have been paid on it.

Our Limited Payment Life Policy, or Instalment Bonds, Our Common Sense Renewable Term Policies, and our Survivors' Endowment Bonds are all possessed of new and excellent features and are all worthy of careful consideration.

Agents Wanted.

H. P. LINDSAY,

Gen. Agent for Peterborough, Northumberland and Durham. Office No. 335 George-st., opposite new market building.

Bell Telephone Co.,

OF CANADA.

Capital, - $1,500,000.00.

Head Office, MONTREAL.

AND. ROBERTSON, — President.
C. F. SISE, — Vice-Pres. and Man'g. Dir.
C. P. SCLATER, Secy.-Treas.
HUGH C. BAKER, Man., Ont. Dep., Hamilton.

300 EXCHANGES.

Long distance lines give unequalled facilities for talking between cities, towns and villages.

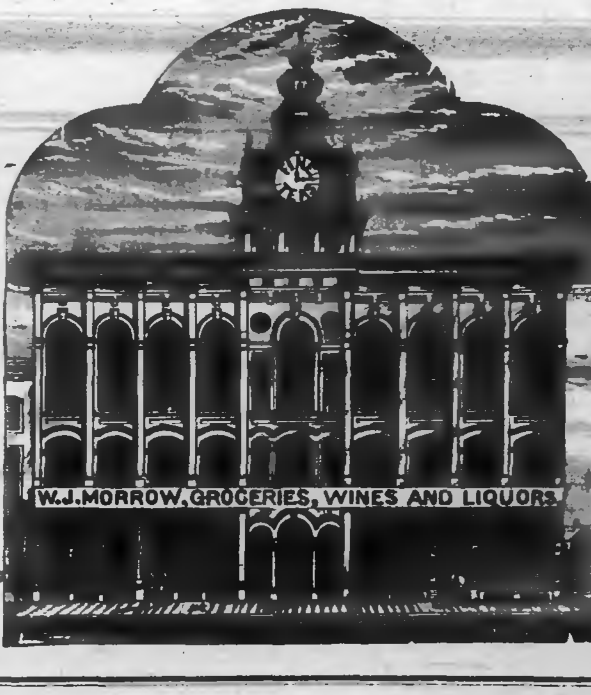
If you wish to speak to Kingston, Belleville Port Hope, Lindsay, Lakefield, Millbrook, Omemee, Toronto, Hamilton, etc., use the wires of the

BELL TELEPHONE Co.

H. W. KERT, Local Manager

d49-6mo

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW



W.J.MORROW, GROCERIES, WINES AND LIQUORS

BIG TEA and COFFEE HOUSE

IN THE MARKET !

1.—I have sold out the City Hotel to Wm. Clancy, in 19 minutes.

2.—I have sold out Faren & Co. Billiard Room etc., to Faren & Co. in 13 minutes.

3.—The Dry Goods Stock is in the Market. If there is any new blood for this offer call and see me. Want to dispose of it inside of 10 days.

I am off for Australia early next month.

I mean business. If the stock is too large can be reduced to $1,000 in 30 days.

JAMES DOLAN,

George Street, Peterborough.

SELLING AT REDUCED PRICES

We are offering our Stock of Manufactured Furs at cost, previous to stock taking. The stock comprises a choice assortment of Ladies' and Gents fine Fur Collars, Cuffs, Capes, Caps, Gauntlets and Coats. Also a few Musk Ox, Bear, Oppossum and Goat Robes.

CALL AND BE CONVINCED.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

Manufacturing Furriers.

DO YOU LIKE
Biscuits?

Most likely you do.
There's a deal of difference
in Biscuits. Quality is an important item. A good
biscuit should be fresh,
crisp and of good flavor.
Here's what will suit you.
Try the English biscuit, made
by Huntley & Palmer the famous makers. Imported
by us and guaranteed genuine.
Ask for Huntley & Palmer's biscuits.

W. J. MASON
426 GEORGE STREET.
☞ No trouble to show Goods.

Valentines!

14th FEBRUARY,
St. Valentine's Day

Don't Forget the Occasion and Don't Forget the Fact that you will find the CHOICEST SELECTION
—OF—VALENTINES
—AT—
H. Thompson
& Co's.,
406 George-st., Peterboro',
Stationers, Booksellers and Wall Paper Dealers.

The Daily Review.
WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1891.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

NO. 2 WARD.

A meeting of the supporters of Mr. Stevenson, the Conservative Candidate, in No. 2 Ward, will be held this evening at 7.30 in the committee rooms, opera house block.

GEORGE STEVENSON,
Chairman.

Curling Chit-Chat.

Two rinks, skipped by Geo. Brown and T. P. Attrill, went to Port Hope to-day to play two local rinks there.

Barnardo Home.

The Superintendent gratefully acknowledges the following gifts recently received:—"A Friend" a turkey, oranges and a bag of sugar; Mr. Alexander Scott, Warsaw, one carcase mutton.

The Liberal Convention.

At the Liberal convention held in the Opera House this afternoon Messrs. Peter Hamilton, Dr. Bell, Walter Paterson and Richard Hall were put in nomination. The first three declined, and Mr. Hall also declined. As we go to press a candidate has not been secured.

The Oil Find.

Mr. John McClure, on whose place in North Monaghan indications of coal oil were found last fall, has since visited oil fields in the States and is more than ever convinced that quantities of oil may be obtained by proper boring. Various experts have visited the place of the find and have taken away samples, and their reports are that the real article is there. Mr. McClure is anxious to have the question tested whether oil is present in paying quantities and is prepared to treat liberally with men who will take the matter up and make the test.

The First of the Series.

To-night opens the series of Wednesday lectures at St. John's. The lecturer, Dr. Sweeny, is a widely known man, being chairman of the Diocesan Sunday School Committee. He was formerly Rector of St. Martin's, Montreal, and is now Rector of St. Philip's, one of Toronto's large churches. Dr. Sweeny's subject is, "Our Example and Influence." There will be a short Service at 8 and the lecture will begin at 8 30 p.m. Every seat in the church is free and everybody is welcome. The lectures will be perfectly free and all those who are so disposed can contribute towards actual expenses through the collection.

East Peterborough Liberals.

The Liberal convention at Norwood yesterday, the date of which was announced some time ago in view of the proposed convention at Toronto, was very well attended. Mr. J. M. Drummond, President of the Association, presided. Officers were elected, Mr. J. M. Drummond being chosen President and Mr. W. E. Roxburgh Secretary. Mr. John Lang, the late member, Mr. T Rorke, of Norwood, Mr. Alex. Nevin, of Haliburton, and Mr. John Hall, of Lakefield, were nominated as the party candidate, but they all withdrew except Mr. Rorke, who received the nomination. Addresses, of the usual character, were given by Messrs. John Lang, J. R Stratton, M.P.P., T. Blezard, M.P.P., Thos. Rorke, H. O'Leary, of Lindsay, and A. Pattullo, of Woodstock.

ORGANIZED.

An Enthusiastic Rally of Town Conservatives.

There was a large attendance at the Conservative committee rooms in the Opera House block last night, when the first step was taken in the organization for the campaign, and the utmost confidence and enthusiasm prevailed.

Mr. W. H. Moore presided, and in opening made a neat speech. He then called upon Mr. A. F. Wood, M. P. P., of Madoc, who made a spirited speech, pointing out the importance of the issues to be decided and the work to be done.

Mr. R. Mulholland, ex-M. P. P., also addressed the meeting, and dwelt upon the services to the country of Sir John Macdonald and his colleagues, and the necessity, in the interests of the country, of returning them to office.

The speakers were warmly received and frequently cheered. Mr. Stevenson was received with loud cheers, and as he referred to different questions now to be decided was warmly applauded.

The work of organization was then taken up, and the following officers of the committee appointed:—

CHAIRMAN.—W. H. Moore,
VICE-CHAIRMAN.—T. E. Bradburn.
SECRETARIES.—W. J. Minore and G. H. Giroux.
WARD CHAIRMEN.—No. One, T. B. McGrath; Ward Two, Geo. Stevenson; Ward Three, T. Rutherford; Ward Four, James Kendry.

The meeting was an enthusiastic one, and the work of the campaign was taken up with vim.

A FAREWELL TOKEN.

Mr. Geo. H. Howson the Recipient of an Address and Presentation.

The Royal Templars hall on Hunter-st. was the scene of a happy gathering last night and an event in which pleasure and regret mingled—pleasure at being able to bear testimony to the sterling worth of a brother and regret that the occasion was his departure to a distant city.

There was a large attendance of Royal Templars while a few friends had also been invited. A pleasant programme of recitations and readings were given, Dr. Stevenson presiding as chairman. Miss Owens gave a vocal solo, Miss Patterson an instrumental selection, Miss Sanderson a reading and Mr. McCallum a reading. When this programme had been completed Bro. S. F. Hill came forward and read a farewell address to Bro. G. H. Howson, an energetic and enthusiastic member of the Peterborough Council of Royal Templars who leaves on Monday for Montana, where he intends to reside. The address read as follow:—

To Mr. Geo. H. Howson:

DEAR BROTHER,—In meeting together this evening we are conscious of mingled feelings. Glancing back over many hours spent in helpful intercourse, there is not one unpleasant memory to cast its shadows upon the finished picture. We turn from it with regret to face the fact that hereafter in our weekly gatherings we shall miss the familiar face as well as the dispassionate judgment and consistent courtesy which have characterized your association with our Council.

But here the comforting assurance presents itself that the power of influence never dies, and so, while the bodily presence may be removed, there must linger with us the subtle but more enduring intercourse of spirit.

This earthly home is not so very large after all, and while you merely move into another city and catch glorious glimpses from its western windows, taking up fresh work among new surroundings, our Immanuel shall abide with each of us and His conscious encircling presence be a never failing "refuge and strength."

We unite in earnest prayer that in temporal affairs you may be prospered, and above all that from the new home there shall go forth such a power of a Christian devotion and practical sympathy as shall restore in many straying ones a saving faith in the Fatherhood of God, and the Brotherhood of man.

We ask your acceptance of this badge as a memento of your membership, and a copy of that Word the unfailing resources of which have been so often proved in your own experience.

As we clasp your hand in parting we will not say good-bye, but just good night, and "God be with you till we meet again."

Mrs. Stevenson made the presentation. The badge was a very handsome one, gold plated and artistically designed, and was accompanied by a valuable Bible.

Mr. Howson made a suitable reply, after which refreshments were served and a very enjoyable social hour spent.

Personal.

Mr. John Bertram, of Toronto, is in town.

Mrs. John McCabe and daughter, of Grafton, are visiting friends in town.

Mr. Geo. Cochrane, License Inspector, has moved his family from Lakefield and taken up his residence in Peterborough.

Messrs. Robert Jaffray and Geo. A. Cox, of Toronto, are in town to-day attending the annual meeting of the Central Canada Loan Company.

The Beaverton correspondent of the Lindsay Post says:—"Mr. D. J. McDonald, late proprietor of the Ontario house here, left last week to take up his residence in Peterborough. In the departure from here of Mr. McDonald, Beaverton loses one of her most esteemed and useful citizens. During his stay here both himself and Mrs. McDonald made many warm friends, who regret his departure and wish him success in his new home."

The Separate School.

The following is the record of the monthly examinations of the boys' division of the Separate school, Murray-st.:—

SENIOR 4TH CLASS.

Patrick Kelly	448
Robert Conroy	387
Tim Dinneen	373
Edward Dillon	365
John Crowe	363
Edward Conroy	361
James O'Brien	342
Cornelius Gainey	337
Joseph Picard	324
Fred D'Russia	323
John O'Connell	320
Joseph Arsenault	314
Patrick Heffernan	293
Frank Quinlan	288
Joseph Levasseur	273
Frank Vinett	272
Lambert Henry	268
Michael Heenan	258
Joseph Lynch	250
Joseph Smith	248
James Butler	245
William Grady	202
William Crowley	182
Fred Lynch	168

JUNIOR 4TH CLASS.

Robert Thorne	294
Harry Burns	285
Edward Clancy	280
James Dillon	279
John Morrow	279
Louis Potvin	260
Thomas Clancy	259
Simon Clancy	234
John McCabe	225
John McMahon	200
Charles O'Brien	177
David Conroy	159
Adolphus Timbers	112
James D'Russia	90

EAST PETERBOROUGH.

MR. JOHN BURNHAM THE CONSERVATIVE STANDARD BEARER.

A Well Attended and Enthusiastic Meeting—The Conservative Administration Endorsed—Ready for the Fray and Determined to Win.

There was a large attendance at the Liberal-Conservative convention for the East Riding held at Norwood yesterday—an exceedingly good attendance considering the short notice of the meeting—Metcalfe's hall, where the meeting was held, being filled. The hall had been nicely decorated for the occasion, and on the walls were the mottoes, "God Save our Queen," and "The Old Flag, the Old Man and the Old Policy," while flags ornamented the walls and the platform. Mr. W. H. Stephenson, President of the East Peterborough Liberal-Conservative Association, presided. On the platform, besides the chairman, were Messrs. E. A. Peck, Secretary of the Association, George Read, of Keene, Walter Scott, of Asphodel, and F. Birdsall, of Asphodel; and among those present were John Burnham, Q. C., John A. McWilliams, H. Bridgewater, H. T. Strickland, H. Calcutt, Col. J. Z. Rogers, T. M. D. Croly, of Ashburnham, John O'Meara, of Peterborough, J. B. Pearce, F. W. Wilkins, R. J. Stewart, Robt. Scott, Powell, Dr. Moore, John Harper, H. Spence, Norwood; Capt. R. E. Birdsall, John Brackenridge, J. P., Jas. Andrews, Thos. Brackenridge, Jas. Harrison, T. Brown, Asphodel; J. P. Strickland, F. Lillicrap, P. W. Strickland, Dr. J. R. Fraser, D'E. Strickland, Lakefield; Jas. Fife, D. E. McIntyre, R. Weir, Otonabee; Wm. Campbell, W. Wedlock, Keene; D. Rose, E. McIlvena, S. Spence, R. Wigmore, Dummer; J. B. Peoples, G. Whitten, R. Russell, H. Holcomb, T. Ackerman, Belmont; S. Miller, Douro; W. Fowlds, Hastings, and many others. The meeting was a most enthusiastic one, and when Mr. Burnham, Q. C., Reeve of Ashburnham, was nominated and accepted, the enthusiasm was unbounded.

Mr. W. H. STEPHENSON, upon taking the chair, explained the object of the meeting. He was glad to see so many present, especially considering the necessarily very short notice given. And he believed they were all prepared to support the old flag, the old chieftain and the old policy. (Applause.) If anyone had a resolution to propose they would hear it now, and then proceed with the business to which they were especially called, the selection of a candidate.

THE POLICY ENDORSED.

Mr. F. BIRDSALL, of Asphodel, moved, seconded by Mr. F. LILLICRAP, of Lakefield, the following resolution:—

Resolved, that we, the Liberal-Conservatives of the East Riding of the County of Peterborough in convention assembled, desire to express our approval of the truly national policy pursued by Sir John Macdonald and his administration, which has been so successful in developing our country and in benefitting all classes of industries in the Dominion; and we heartily endorse the patriotic platform of the administration at this time, and will do all in our power to retain them at the head of affairs.

The resolution was carried with applause.

MR. BURNHAM NOMINATED.

The CHAIRMAN then asked for nominations.

Mr. GEO. READ, of Keene, said they were met to select a candidate who would carry the old flag and policy to victory, one worthy of their support and of the constituency, and he would nominate Mr. John Burnham. (Loud applause.) Mr. Burnham had been and would be a worthy representative. He possessed the qualities which were required in a representative, and had the interests of the country at heart. He was a man in whom they could place all confidence and would do the right thing so far as he was able. (Applause.)

Mr. WALTER SCOTT, of Asphodel, said he had much pleasure in seconding the nomination, and endorsed what Mr. Read had said. (Applause.)

The CHAIRMAN said he had no doubt that Mr. Burnham could carry the riding.

There being no other nominations, the nomination of Mr. Burnham was unanimously adopted by a standing vote and with loud cheers.

MR. BURNHAM'S ACCEPTANCE.

Mr. BURNHAM, upon stepping to the platform, was enthusiastically received. He said that, of course, the proper thing for him to have done was to have stated when his name was mentioned that he was not a candidate. That was his wish, at all events. When he came here he had not made up his mind to be a candidate. He had run three elections and would be pleased to have some one else come forward. If he had his own free choice he would not be a candidate, as he had no ambition; but as in calling upon him he would accept the nomination. (Loud and continued cheering.) This was not a riding that could be called safely Conservative, but he had taken the chances before and would do so again. (Cheers.) He referred to the large extent of the Riding, and said that the work of the contest could not devolve upon him alone, and if they thought he should represent them, they must get to work with him. If the different municipalities were organized, he did not anticipate defeat. (Cheers.) Mr. Read had kindly given him a high character. He had lived in the Riding all his life, and did not believe he had done anything to forfeit the confidence of the people. He attributed his defeat at the last election to the Mail newspaper, but events had shown that the Mail was endeavoring to defeat Sir John, and that influence could not hurt him now. It had been stated that the Government was not justified in having an election now as a redistribution was coming. When he first saw that the House had been dissolved he did not see the necessity for it, but upon looking into the matter he was convinced of the necessity. For some time there had going on in our own and in another country regarding our affairs. It originated in another country and those who were forwarding it here were not doing right by their country. (Cheers.) It was the fate of governments to be blamed for the times, but if there was any depression here there was depression in the States. Some people said the Dominion Government would not treat with the States, but its position was clear. There was no unfriendliness or hostility on its part, but it had shown a disposition to uphold the dignity of this country—(applause)—and that was the duty of the Government. When the United States terminated the fishery treaty, Canada continued it for some time to give the United States time to make a new arrangement. President Cleveland did agree to a treaty, but it was set aside. At that time the Government also offered to consider other matters, including trade, but this offer was rejected; and at the first session he was in Parliament an offer for reciprocity in a number of articles of produce was made but it was not accepted, and the only offer which came from the States was the McKinley bill—certainly not a very friendly offer. (Laughter and applause. The policy of the Liberal party was known by different names, which was confusing. It was hard to get a definition of this thing of many names. But the Globe of Saturday makes it clear. He read the extract from that paper, which outlined the unrestricted reciprocity that the Liberals wanted. If the Liberal leaders, he said, would vote for that, it was the duty of every loyal Canadian—every one who had an interest in his own country—to oppose it. (Cheers.) Under it they would have a joint tariff against all the world, and it would be the United States tariff. Was that the wish of this country. (No, no.) Why, he asked, should they

THEY WERE UNANIMOUS

BEEN AN AGITATION

FORGET THE MOTHER COUNTRY?

Why forget the large and profitable trade with England? (Cheers.) All the United States politicians who had spoken put the same construction on this policy and said that it means political union. They could not expect five million people to have the same voice in making the tariff with sixty-five millions, and the tariff would be made in Washington, which would mean nothing else than political union. Even if that were not the result, he believed the National Policy had been beneficial to this country, and if it was abandoned they would have the same condition as in 1878 and Canada would be the United States slaughter market. (Applause). He could point to industries in Peterborough, brought there by the National Policy, and the industries brought to Canada and fostered by the National Policy would be wiped out under the Liberal policy. It certainly would be of no benefit to farmers to have the industries killed and these centres destroyed where they secured their home market, instead of sending produce to Pittsburgh or Philadelphia. The National Policy was the policy for the country. (Applause.) When the Canadian Pacific Railway bill was brought into Parliament he gave it study, and it was so vast an undertaking that he hesitated, but he had confidence in Sir John and it had turned out that Sir John was right. (Cheers.) The railway was built in spite of opposition in and out of Parliament. The Liberals said it would not be built, or if built it would no pay, but they had it now at their doors. The railways had gone on developing the country to the benefit of all. His view was that judicious expenditure for the development of the country was wise, just as it paid a farmer to clear a stumpy field. If Sir Richard and these people had been in office there would have been no Canadian Pacific Railway. They might have had a branch from a United States railway, but not a Canadian one, for these people had and have not now the faith in this country they should have. (Cheers.) He was a Canadian and believed they could develop

A GREAT COUNTRY HERE.

He did not believe, even if there was a slight depression, that they should fly to another flag for refuge. They had had treaties with the States, and were euchred almost every time, except in 1871, and had lost Maine and Oregon by bluff; but the United States think they have not got enough, and now when they found the Canadian Pacific Railway was the shortest route and was taking their trade, they wanted to get what was left of this country. Would they get it? (Cries of "No!") He did not want to talk on the platform of the old flag; he was no more loyal than other men; but he believed that even from a dollars and cents point of view it was better to maintain the connection with Great Britain. (Cheers.) He had confidence in Canada. Canada was practically independent and negotiated its own treaties now, but with the British Empire at its back. England stood by Canada in the Behring Sea matter. (Cheers.) They could not deal with the United States as with other nations, for they were governed largely by mob rule and anti-British feeling, and imbued with a feeling of confidence in bluff. But England had got beyond being effected by their bluff. He pointed out the difference in the United States' contentions regarding the fisheries on the Pacific and Atlantic coasts. The Government had, he said, been accused of unfriendliness toward the Americans, but he would not like to see an instance of unfriendlines pointed out. He did not wish to make a campaign speech, but merely to state his position. He would do what he would to see the people, but it would be impossible to see all. He wanted them to support him on the platform of the Government. There were a number of good workers in the riding and if they acted together they would win. (Cheers.) If they went into the other convention (the Liberal meeting) they would find the work of organization being done by employees of the Ontario Government. He had all the influence of the Ontario Government against him and it was considerable in the riding, but they could overcome it. They must not waste time in talking, but get to work at once and organize for the campaign. If it was not for this great issue now before the country he would not be a candidate, but he felt it to be the duty of every loyal Canadian to do what they could to sustain the Government. (Loud applause.)

Short and spirited addresses were given by Messrs. J. B. Pearce, H. Calcutt and D. Rose, and the meeting then took up organization work for the campaign, going into it enthusiastically and to win.

An Untimely Death

Her friends will regret to read of the death this morning of Ellen Rodgers, wife of Mr. A. R. Lee. The deceased lady was only twenty-four years of age and her untimely demise will cause a feeling of sorrow among her friends. She had only been ill for about a month. Her husband will have the sympathy of his many friends in his sad bereavement. The funeral leaves the family residence, 36 Union-st., on Friday morning at nine o'clock.

Six Months for Stealing.

Frank Lefevre, the man who has been lying in gaol on a charge of stealing $35 from Gilbert Defoe, came before the magistrate for trial. The man pleaded not guilty He said he did not take the money from Defoe, but had picked it up from the floor of the bank. Defoe gave his evidence, saying that Lefevre went into the bank with him while he drew the $35. He thought he put the money into his pocket, but when he looked it was gone and so was Lefevre. The latter was seen later with money of which he could give no account. The magistrate found Lefevre guilty and sent him to gaol for six months.

Brevities.

—Chas. Beavis, a drunk, was fined $2 at the police court this morning. He was given time in which to raise the money.

—Peterborough Lodge, I. O. O. F. intend holding and "at home" in their lodge rooms to-morrow evening.

The Population of Peterborough

is about 10,000, and we would say at least one-half are troubled with some affection of the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all our readers not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Trial size free. Large bottle 50c and $1. Sold by all druggists.

To Rent.

Farms wanted to rent. Tenants supplied this year at half price. Call or write.

T. HURLEY,
d23tf 257 George-st.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. G. Gumpricht is in town Orders may be left at Messrs. Taylor & McDonald's store. 1yd165

Sellers of Property.

Blank Deeds, Blank Mortgages, Blank Transfers, House and Land Leases, etc., on hand at the REVIEW Stationery.

Spring Goods.

Our stock will be found well assorted this week. New goods coming in constantly Cotton Goods bought before advances and will be sold cheap. H. S. GRIFFIN & Co. 2183

Make Your Plants Grow

and bloom by using Royal Plant Food. Sold only at Mason's Seed and Plant House, corner of Water and Brock sts. d34

I Will Give You

The best bargains in groceries in Peterborough. My stock is new and goods ar all first-class. Just received a nice line of Japan Tea I am selling at 25c per lb. Special discounts to hotels, boarding houses and parties purchasing goods in large quantities. Alex. Elliott, 353 George-st. Peterborough. d30

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on a trial

VOLTAIC BELT CO., Marshall, Mich.

EST HER Public inquiry about the Cantata will be gratified to know that the presentation will be made as perfect as possible. Constant practice is being had and on Wednesday night a dress rehearsal will take place. The programmes are out giving full particulars of the personations and movement of the Cantata. The plan of the hall is now open at Greatrex's drug store, prices being 25c. and 50c. 2134

At it Again.

At what? Both political parties pegging away, getting ready for the fray. They say that a political contest wake's business up. That may or may not be the case, but which ever party wins there is the reflection that winners and losers also will go ahead drinking Hawley Bros. teas, the best, the purest, the cheapest that are sold. It may be convenient to forget some things in politics, but don't forget Hawley Bros teas. d31tf

The Coming Contest.

It is considered it will be of a very lively nature. Every man may have his friends in politics, but when it comes to Grit or Tory of course he must cast his vote for his party irrespective of social friendship. The same may be said in this case. Parties may have their friends, but when it comes to business and they wish to buy tea, Groceries, wines or liquors at sacrifice, W J Morrow's is the place they go to. d31w7

An Acrostic Excuse the Rhyme.

From Greenland's icy
And India's coral strand [mountains
The Folkesters' great carnival
Will draw a mighty band
Of divers sorts of people,
To this cold, country strange,
The black, the white from east from west,
And from the widest mountain range,—
You understand!

Come one! Come all!
Come short and tall,
And view the grand array,
Don't stay at home.
But give the sum—
A quarter will pave the way
There'll be thousands of skaters,
And millions of spectators,
(More or less.)

The date—Friday, Feb. 20th. 2d125

Just So.

Anyone can strike a match, but you cannot always strike such bargains as are now being offered in groceries at Stapleton & Elcombe's. Nothing more thoroughly demoralizes the domestic machinery than impure teas or stale groceries. By purchasing your groceries from this firm you may depend upon having everything fresh and good. Call and be convinced. d31w7

PASHA is the name of the popular pen. Seven styles to suit all hands. Try them. Sold at the REVIEW Stationery.

"PROGRESSIVE
EUCHRE"
parties still hold the boards. We have a lot of good playing cards at 25c. a pack, or 5 for $1.00. These are worth 40c. each.
SAILSBURY BROS.

GEO. B. SPROULE,
ARTIST & PHOTOGRAPHER,
GROUND FLOOR.,
170 Charlotte-st. . . . . . . Peterborough.
FRAMES & PICTURE MOULDINGS.

LIME!
First quality Lime, in any quantity, for sale and delivered to any part of the town. Builders, contractors, etc. supplied promptly at current prices. Lime house, at G.T.R. Station.
A. RUTHERFORD.

—ONTARIO—
Planing Mills!
Planing, Matching, Mouldings, Band Sawing & Turning, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Storm Sash.
JAMES Z. ROGERS.

DIED

LEE.—At Peterborough, on Wednesday, Feb. 11, ELLEN RODGERS, wife of Mr. Andrew R. Lee, aged 24 years.

Everybody knows

That at this season the blood is filled with impurities, the accumulation of months of close confinement in poorly ventilated stores, workshops and tenements. All these impurities and every trace of scrofula, salt rheum, or other diseases may be expelled by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier ever produced. It is the only medicine of which "100 doses one dollar" is true.

Health by Good Living.

For your choicest beef, mutton, lamb, pork, ham, breakfast bacon, spiced beef sausage, etc., go to John J. Howden, 441 George-st. Bacon sold by actual weight. d14tf

ESTHER! ESTHER!!

Get your tickets marked for seats for the Cantata. The plan is filling up rapidly. Some good seats left yet. Two presentations. Thursday and Friday evenings, Feb'y. 12 and 13. 163

A POLITICAL SCENE
On George-St.

A trio of anxious aspirants discussing the issues of the campaign.
One advocates "Free Trade."
Another wants "Reciprocity."
The third clamors for "Protection."

DOLAN THE CLOTHIER

Happens along and puts an end to the debate by remarking: "Gentlemen—judging from the general appearance of your wearing apparel," permit me to say that you all need clothes. The meeting broke up and adjourned to headquarters for clothing.
They were shown Suits from $5 to $25.
They looked at Overcoats from $4 to $24.
They saw Pantaloons from $1 to $10.
Finally they all bought a whole outfit. The white oak plank in our platform caught them solid, viz:—

One Price, a Low Price
AND SQUARE DEALING.

Let others be guided by the wisdom of the above gentlemen, and remember
That we don't want your votes.
But we do want your notes
—AT—DOLAN'S.

SHILOH'S
CONSUMPTION
CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. All druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are placing a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have a Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup, or Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

"Hello there, Brown, where are you going in such a hurry?"

"Why, I am going to J. J. Turner to get a pair of the fine Waterproof Horse Covers he makes. I tell you they are the finest I have seen. He also makes Wagon Covers, Lap Rugs, Clothing, &c.

"You want the address; all right,

J. J. TURNER,
The Tent and Awning Maker, corner of George and King-sts., Peterborough.
Telephone day or night.

CAKES!
For a Good Cake, leave your orders at
Long Bros.
Also home-made cakes Iced and nicely Ornamented. Wedding Breakfasts and Evening Parties Catered for. Oyster Patties made to order. Our stock of Candies is pure and made by ourselves.
No. 286 and 414 George-st.

—DO YOU KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE?
ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM.
NO BETTER REMEDY FOR COUGHS, COLDS, CROUP, CONSUMPTION, &C.

PLAYING "BARNUM."

The great showman flatters himself that he is styled the "Prince of Humbugs," and no person thinks of denying him that title. He poses as a humbug; is universally acknowledged to be one, and is consistent in his professions.

How much more annoying and deceitful is the kind of humbugging which seeks to palm off upon the public poor and adulterated soaps made in sickly imitation of "SUNLIGHT" Soap, and offered cheaper in order to entrap the gullible.

There is only one, one "SUNLIGHT" Soap, and it is because it is the best in the world that humbugs are trying to imitate it, and snare its success.

Take only the genuine "SUNLIGHT" Soap. You can't afford to be humbugged by other soaps which ruin your hands, shrink your flannels and rot your clothes.

EXTRAORDINARY VALUES!

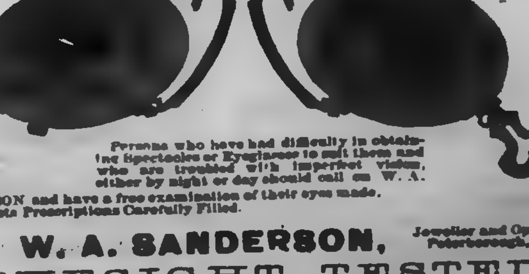
10th, and continuing until February 1st. we will offer all WINTER CLOTHING, in our Men's, Youths' and Children's Departments, at a QUARTER OFF original prices. Everything in our Great Clothing Stock comes under the scalping Knife of a QUARTER OFF. Nothing reserved. If you want clothing of any description, don't fail to take advantage of the extraordinary values we will offer you before stock-taking—February 1st. We guarantee A BIGGER SAVING on EVERY purchase, no matter what inducements others may hold out.

H. LeBRUN & Co.
City Clothing Store, George-st.



Persons who have had difficulty in obtaining Spectacles or Eyeglasses to suit them and who are troubled with imperfect vision, either by night or day should call on W. A. SANDERSON and have a free examination of their eyes made.
Oculists Prescriptions Carefully Filled.
W. A. SANDERSON, Jeweller and Optician, Peterborough, Ont.
EYESIGHT TESTED.

BABY'S FACE WAS RAW.

Distressing Itching Skin Disease Cured in One Month by the Cuticura Remedies.

When our boy was six weeks old he had a rash on his cheek. It spread on both cheeks and chin. His face was all raw. I doctored with various remedies, but it got no better. My mother advised me to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I used them faithfully, and in one week the boy looked better. In one month he was cured, and now he is three years old and no signs of it returning. The child was so bad I had to tie him in a pillow-case, and pin his hands down so that he could not scratch his face. I cannot speak too highly of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I recommend CUTICURA whenever I can; I would be pleased to see anyone and talk to them of the good it has done my boy. MRS. CYRUS PROSCH,
Coytesville, Fort Lee P.O., N.J.

N.B. My husband is president of the Prosch Manufacturing Company, proprietors of the "Duplex" and "Triplex" Photographic Shutters, 389 Broome Street, New York City. He dislikes undesirable notoriety, but is willing to make sacrifices to benefit others, and assents to this testimonial to encourage the use of CUTICURA, and thus bring relief to others.

Cuticura Resolvent

The new Blood and Skin Purifier, internally, and CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, and exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally, instantly relieve and speedily cure every disease and humor of the skin, scalp, and blood, with loss of hair, from infancy to age, from pimples to scrofula.

Sold everywhere. Price, CUTICURA, 75c.; SOAP, 35c; RESOLVENT, $1.50. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CORPORATION, Boston.

☞ Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases," 64 pages, 50 illustrations, and 100 testimonials.

BABY'S Skin and Scalp purified and beautified by CUTICURA SOAP. Absolutely pure.

RHEUMATIC PAINS. In one minute the Cuticura Anti-Pain Plaster relieves rheumatic, sciatic, hip, kidney, chest and muscular pains and weaknesses. Price 30c.

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1891

PECULIAR OPERATION.

Is Performed in Order to Reclaim a Child From Idiocy.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 10.—An unusual surgical operation was performed yesterday at the Cincinnati hospital, the object of which is to reclaim a child from idiocy. The patient was four years old. She cannot talk and has all the appearance of confirmed idiocy. A sister 16 years is an idiot. It was found that the skull was abnormally compressed and prematurely ossified. The physicians decided to remove a portion of the skull so as to allow the brain to develop. The operation was successfully performed, a strip half an inch wide and five inches long being removed, the scalp neatly pulled over the space. The child rallied and appears to be doing well.

Britain's Sons in Session.

HAMILTON, Feb. 10.—The Supreme Grand Lodge of the Sons of England opened this afternoon in the Royal Templars' Hall, James-street north. It is a very important and representative body, the delegates coming from British Columbia, Manitoba, Ontario and Quebec. About 80 delegates are expected and they have been arriving since yesterday afternoon.

The naval brigade is an important division of the Sons of England. In Toronto it is a very flourishing branch and the battalion numbers 700, of whom 153 are uniformed men. There are branches of the first battalion in various other places.

The opening of the supreme grand lodge took place at 2 o'clock, and it will remain in session three days. On Wednesday afternoon the naval brigade will have a banquet at James' hotel, and on Thursday the supreme grand lodge will be entertained at a banquet in the Arcade hall. This afternoon the convention opened in the Royal Templars of Temperance hall. The arrangements were admirable. Tables were placed throughout the hall for the convenience of the delegates with a card bearing the name of each member, indicating his place.

The supreme grand president occupied the chair, and an address of welcome was read on behalf of the Reception Committee.

Fatal Quarrel Over Five Cents.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 10.—Benjamin Steele, colored, was shot and instantly killed by H. P. Drake, colored, in Rosedale, a suburb of Kansas City, to-night. The men had quarreled a week ago over the loan of five cents. Steele attempted to renew the quarrel to-night, and upon his making a threatening gesture Drake drew his revolver and shot him.

Three Children Burned to Death.

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—Mrs. Hampton Shrout, living a few miles south of Martinsville, Ind., left her three children alone in the house last evening while she went on an errand. A 5-year-old girl began playing at the fireplace. Her dress ignited and she was burned to death. The other two children were fatally burned.

They Praised Canada.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—Before the London Chamber of Commerce to-day Sir George Baden-Powell described the new mail route from the East. To-night the Earl of Aberdeen gave an account of his trip to Canada before the Colonial Institute. The Marquis of Lorne presided.

A Dishonest Letter Carrier.

TORONTO, Feb. 11.—Robert Jamieson, a letter carrier, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective John Cuddy on a charge of stealing money from a registered letter. He lives at 230 Spadina-avenue. For some time money has been disappearing from letters. Yesterday a decoy letter was sent out with a marked $2 bill in it. On his return from his trip Jamieson was arrested and the money was found in his possession.

THE IRISH SITUATION.

Parnell Has No Intention of Retiring From the Leadership.

DUBLIN, Feb. 10.—Mr. Redmond, speaking at a league meeting to-day, said they had been told that only hillmen were on their side. He would rather have honest hillmen on their side than many of the Irishmen now in Parliament. Some of Parnell's opponents wanted to spit upon the memory of the men of 1867. Was the agitation for independence a movement implying that every one would be forgotten excepting Sir William Vernon Harcourt and the English Liberals. If so, it would be one from which men of spirit like Emmett and Fitzgerald would have shrunk.

Allusions made by other speakers to the effect that Parnell would maintain his position were loudly applauded. Mr Redmond announced that £[illegible] had been received from America since the last meeting. He declared it would be criminal to start a rival league if they failed to support evicted tenants.

Redmond and other leaguers soon started for Boulogne-sur-Mer this evening.

In spite of the hitch in the negotiations between the opposing sections of the Irish party the meeting called by Mr. McCarthy for Thursday next will be held.

Justin Huntley McCarthy, M.P., announces he will not seek a re-election as he is absorbed in literary pursuits.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—The News declares that since the deposition of Parnell neither Gladstone nor any leading Liberal has had any communication directly or indirectly with Parnell.

"A stitch in time saves nine," and if you take Hood's Sarsaparilla now it may save months of future possible sickness.

SCIENCE AND PROGRESS.

INTERESTING PARAGRAPHS CULLED FROM VARIOUS FIELDS.

A Parisian Carriage—A Noteworthy Book—A Death Warning—A Russian Work—Individuality in Thumbs—A Primitive Krupp—Jupiter's Rotation.

The problem of making a light steam-carriage has been attacked in a promising way by M. Serpollet, the French engineer whose instantaneous steam generator was brought to notice a year or two ago. This generator consists of a strong spiral tube from which a fine jet of water issues over a fire and instantly expands into steam, explosion being impossible, and steam being brought at once to full pressure. Such a boiler is especially adapted for light vehicles. M. Serpollet has been experimenting with it on tricycles, and in his latest effort he employs it on a large phaeton capable of carrying six persons on its two seats, with a seventh passenger on a stool in front. The carriage is elegant in appearance, and very comfortable. The boiler is under the rear seat, and the box receives fuel automatically from chests on each side, while the water reservoir and the engine are placed under the front seat. The normal-horse power is 4, which may be instantaneously increased to 6. A speed of 15 miles an hour is obtained, and grades of 1 in 12 are easily surmounted with a full load. Water may be carried for a trip of about 20 miles, and fuel for 35 miles, and with a full charge of fuel and water the total weight of the carriage is 2,750 pounds. Coke, of which about 30 pounds is consumed per horse-power hour, is preferred for fuel on city streets on account of its smokelessness. This novel vehicle is readily guided through crowded thoroughfares, and is permitted on the streets of Paris with no restriction except that the speed shall not exceed 10 miles an hour.

A Noteworthy Book.

If Emerson's rule, "Never read any book that is not a year old," were to be applied to scientific books, our Nineteenth Century progress would scarcely be as rapid as it is. Among the few popular scientific works of 1890 that will not be antiquated at the end of a twelve-month is "Electricity in Daily Life" (Chas. Scribner's Sons, New York), which is so comprehensive in character that a large portion of it, at least, must long retain its value. An account of the applications of electricity to every day uses is given by ten different writers—each a recognized authority by his special branch—and together these eminent specialists have produced a condensed volume, which satisfactorily answers the questions that are constantly being asked concerning the principles and methods of producing and measuring electricity, the electric motor, the electric railway, electric lighting, telegraphy, submarine cables, electricity in naval and land warfare, electricity in the household, and the effects of electricity on the body.

A Death Warning.

According to Dr. Chiappelli, an extraordinary opening of the eyelids, which gives the eyes the appearance of protruding from their orbits, is sometimes seen in patients who apparently have long to live, and this is an unfailing sign of death within 24 hours. In some cases only one eye is affected, but even then death is certain to take place within 72 hours. The effect is described to a diseased state of the sympathetic nerve, but why it should always be a death symptom is not known.

The annual births per 1,000 inhabitants are given by Prof. Leon Le Fort as 42 in Hungary, 39 in Germany, 35 in England, and 25 in France. The number in France was 38.4 in 1778. The present rate of increase would double the population of Saxony in 45 years, of England in 52 years, of Prussia in 54 years, and of France in 198 years.

Out of 26,254 food samples recently analyzed in England and Wales 3,076 or 11.7 per cent. were found to be adulterated. Only one year, 1888, has shown a smaller percentage.

A Russian Work.

One of the greatest and most commendable of modern engineering enterprises is being carried out by the government of Russia, which has had several thousand men employed since 1870 in the work of draining the Pinsk marshes. This immense uninhabitable district is situated about midway between the Baltic Sea and the Black Sea, and covers an area about equal to that of the State of Pennsylvania. The work performed includes the building of bridges and the digging of wells, in addition to the construction of canals, drains, and embankments. The latest report states that no less than 185 square miles have been drained on the banks of the Pripet, reclaiming more than 7,000,000 acres of meadow-land. Great forests have been made accessible, and are beginning to be profitable.

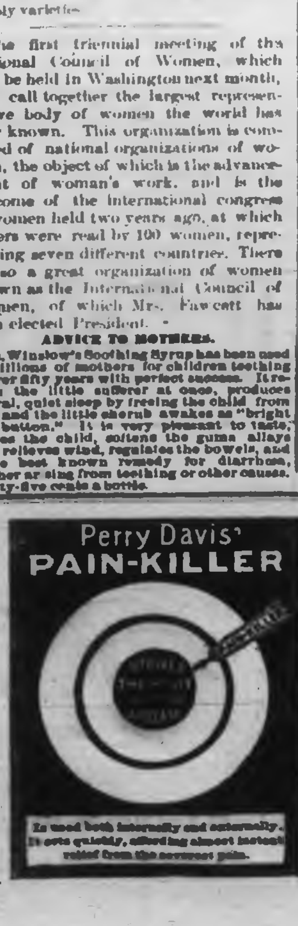
Individuality in Thumbs.

The Chinese are credited with many things, including the use for a long time of thumb impressions as proofs of identity. This, however, Mr. Francis Galton, the eminent British anthropologist, pronounces an egregious error, inasmuch as the Chinese have employed thumb impressions only as a kind of oath or signature. Such impressions, showing the curves in the ridges of the bulbs of the thumbs or forefingers, are now known to be an unfailing mark of identity, since they do not vary from youth to age, and are different in different persons. Mr. Galton has the impressions of the carefully inked thumbs of over 200 persons, and in them he traces typical forms, of which the individual forms are simply varieties.

The first triennial meeting of the National Council of Women, which will be held in Washington next month, will call together the largest representative body of women the world has ever known. This organization is composed of national organizations of women, the object of which is the advancement of woman's work, and is the outcome of the international congress of women held two years ago, at which papers were read by 100 women, representing seven different countries. There is also a great organization of women known as the International Council of Women, of which Mrs. Fawcett has been elected President.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.



Perry Davis'
PAIN-KILLER
Is used both internally and externally. It acts quickly, affording almost instant relief from the severest pain.

SURPRISE
SURPRISE
EVERY WOMAN
Can save half the hard wearing-out toil of wash day and be fresh and strong. Can have clothes sweet, snowy-white, sweet yellow. Flannels not to shrink, colors not run, her hands chap, but soft and white. Use the "Surprise" way. No boiling or scalding. Remarkable! Try it!
READ THE DIRECTIONS ON THE WRAPPER.
St. Croix Soap M'f'g. Co.
St. Stephen, N.B.
SOAP
Send us 25 SURPRISE wrappers and get one of our beautiful engravings.

"Harvard"

"Harvard Bronchial Syrup has been used in my family with very great success and I have pleasure in recommending it to those who suffer from coughs as one of the best and most efficacious remedies." Rev. Thos. Harris, Ormstown, Que.

FOR MEN ONLY!

VIGOR AND STRENGTH. For LOST or FAILING MANHOOD; General and NERVOUS DEBILITY; Weakness of Body and Mind, Effects of Errors or Excesses in Old or Young. Robust, Noble MANHOOD fully Restored. How to enlarge and strengthen WEAK, UNDEVELOPED ORGANS & PARTS OF BODY. Absolutely unfailing HOME TREATMENT—Benefits in a day. Men testify from 50 States and Foreign Countries. Write them. Descriptive Book, explanation and proofs mailed (sealed) free. Address ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N. Y.

Stop that CHRONIC COUGH NOW!

For if you do not it may become consumptive. For Consumption, Scrofula, General Debility and Wasting Diseases, there is nothing like

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Of Pure Cod Liver Oil and HYPOPHOSPHITES Of Lime and Soda.

It is almost as palatable as milk. Far better than other so-called Emulsions. A wonderful flesh producer.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

is put up in a salmon color wrapper. Be sure and get the genuine. Sold by all Dealers at 50c. and $1.00.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Belleville.

"HARVARD"

We have used Harvard Bronchial Syrup in our family and find it an excellent remedy." C. C. Colby, President of the Council, House of Commons, Ottawa.—"I have used it myself for Throat irritations and find it very efficacious." Rev. A. B Chambers, Napanee.

The D & L Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil AND THE Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda.

No other Emulsion is so easy to take.
It does not separate nor spoil.
It is always sweet as cream.
The most sensitive stomach can retain it.

CURES

Scrofulous and Wasting Diseases.
Chronic Cough.
Loss of Appetite.
Mental and Nervous Prostration.
General Debility, &c.

Beware of all imitations. Ask for "the D. & L." Emulsion, and refuse all others.

PRICE 50C. AND $1 PER BOTTLE.

TURKISH DYES

EASY TO USE.

They are Fast.
They are Beautiful.
They are Brilliant.

SOAP WON'T FADE THEM.

Have YOU used them; if not, try and be convinced.

One Package equal to two of any other make.

Canada Branch: 481 St. Paul Street, Montreal. Send postal for Sample Card and Book of Instructions.

HARVARD

"Harvard Bronchial Syrup has been much used in our family, and we conscientiously say it is the best Cough Remedy we have ever used." Rev. J. Tallman Pitcher, Montreal.—"It is the most satisfactory Cough Medicine I have ever tried." Ross Mackenzie, C.P.R. Offices, Montreal.

DIRECTLY TO THE SPOT.
INSTANTANEOUS IN ITS ACTION.

For CRAMPS, CHILLS, COLIC, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, CHOLERA MORBUS, and all BOWEL COMPLAINTS,

NO REMEDY EQUALS THE PAIN-KILLER.

In Canadian Cholera and Bowel Complaints its effect is magical. It cures in a very short time.

THE BEST FAMILY REMEDY FOR BURNS, BRUISES, SPRAINS, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA and TOOTHACHE.

SOLD EVERYWHERE AT 25C. A BOTTLE.

☞ Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations.

MR. SHELDRAKE'S Private PREPARATORY SCHOOL, FOR BOYS, LAKEFIELD, ONTARIO.

OPEN FOR INSPECTION!

A handsome and very useful line of

CASE GOODS

COMPRISING

Carver Sets,

Ladies' and Gentlemen's

COMPANIONS

These Goods are the Best English Make.

KINGAN & Co

JOHN NUGENT,

CHEMIST AND DRUGGIST.

Prescriptions Carefully Compounded.

Try Nugent's Remedies for Colds, Coughs and affections of the chest and throat.

J. NUGENT,

Drug Store, 179 Hunter-st. west.

Bookbinding!

Magazines,
Periodicals,
Illustrated Papers,
Law, Music,

and all kinds of Books Bound in the very best style of the art. First-class Material and Work. Close Prices.

REVIEW PT'G CO.

LIMITED,

BOOKBINDERS, STATIONERS & ACCOUNT BOOK MANUFACTURERS,

350 George-st.

Choicest Brands —OF— FLOUR!

BAKERS and PASTRY

—AT—

MELDRUM & DAVIDSON'S

Quality Guaranteed.

FEED:

All kinds always on hand. Orders left at Ormond & Walsh's or McDonald's drug stores will be promptly attended to.

Mill Telephone No. 196.

LOWEST PRICES FOR CASH.

BANK of TORONTO

Capital $2,000,000 00
Reserve Fund 1,500,000 00

PETERBORO' BRANCH.

SAVINGS BANK

SPECIAL ADVANTAGES are derived by depositing money in our Savings Bank Department.

1. "ONE DOLLAR saved is one dollar earned."
2. DEPOSITS of ONE DOLLAR and upwards are received and interest allowed thereon.
3. INTEREST is added to the principal on the 31st day of May and 30th day of November, in each year.
4. MONEY bears interest from the day it is deposited with the Bank until the day of withdrawal.
5. THE DEPOSITOR is subject to no delay whatever.
6. THE SECURITY offered by this Bank is undoubted, as will be seen by the large reserve held and the amount of surplus available for depositors and note holders.

BUSINESS WITH FARMERS.

FARMERS' NOTES discounted at lowest rates.
SPECIAL ATTENTION is given to the collection of Farmers' Sale Notes, and advances made thereon.
NOTE FORMS furnished free of charge on application.

DEPOSITS.

DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS opened subject to withdrawal by cheque on demand.
SPECIAL DEPOSITS.—Deposit Receipts issued bearing interest at current rates.

JOHN L. GOWER,
Manager.
d114 wc

Travel.

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY OF CANADA.

The direct route between the west and all points on the Lower St. Lawrence and Baie de Chaleur, Province of Quebec, also New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward, Cape Breton and the Magdalene Islands, Newfoundland and St. Pierre.

Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax daily (Sunday excepted) and run through without change between these points in 30 hours.

The through express train cars of the Intercolonial Railway are brilliantly lighted by electricity and heated by steam from the locomotive.

New and elegant Buffet Sleeping and Day Cars are run on all through express trains.

The popular summer sea bathing and fishing resorts of Canada are along the Intercolonial or are reached by that route.

Canadian European Mail and Passenger Route.

Passengers for Great Britain or the Continent leaving Montreal on Thursday morning will join outward mail steamer at Rimouski the same evening.

The attention of shippers is directed to the superior facilities offered by this route for the transport of flour and general merchandise intended for the Eastern Provinces and New Foundland, also for shipments of grain and produce intended for the European market.

Tickets may be obtained and all information about the route, also freight and passenger rates on application to

N. WEATHERSTON,
Western Freight and Passenger Agent, 93 Rossin House Block, York street, Toronto.
D. POTTINGER,
Chief Superintendent.
Railway Office, Moncton, N.B., 2nd July, 1889 1y

CANADIAN PACIFIC Ry

PEOPLE'S POPULAR ONE WAY PARTIES TO British Columbia WASHINGTON Oregon and California

Leave Toronto 11 p.m. on Fridays, as under:

1891 FEBRUARY 20 MARCH 6, 20 1891

RUNNING THROUGH TO VANCOUVER WITHOUT CHANGE

For Berths and all information, apply to nearest C.P.R. Agent.

CLARK & GIBSON

have now on view and for sale some

VERY FINE GOODS

—CONSISTING OF—

Gold and Silver Watches, Clocks and Fine Jewellery, etc.

Moderate in Price and Newest Patterns.

Ask to see their

English Oak Goods

AND

SCOTCH PEBBLE JEWELLERY

RARE, CHOICE AND BEAUTIFUL.

WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELLERY carefully repaired.

136 Hunter-st., 2 doors west of the PostOffice.

THE CENTRAL CANADA Loan and Savings Co,

Authorized Capital $5,000,000
Subscribed Capital 2,000,000
Paid-up Capital 600,000
Reserve Fund 150,000
Invested Funds 2,579,182.57

OFFICE.—No. 437, George-st., Peterborough.

DEPOSITS received at current rates of interest, paid or compounded half-yearly.

DEBENTURES issued in Currency or Sterling, with interest coupons attached, payable in Canada or in England. Executors and Trustees are authorized by law to invest in the Debentures of this Company.

MONEY ADVANCED on Real Estate security at current rates and on favorable conditions as to repayment.

Mortgages and Municipal Debentures purchased.

GEO. A. COX,
d4we Managing Director.

BLANK FORMS

Deeds,
Mortgages,
Home Leases,
Farm Leases,
Agreements,
Short form of Lease
Lease of Land,
Magistrates Blanks,
Division Court Blanks,
etc., etc.,

Printed on good paper and correct forms.

AT THE

REVIEW Stationery

MUNN & CO SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN AGENCY for PATENTS

A pamphlet of information and abstract of the laws, showing How to Obtain Patents, Caveats, Trade Marks, Copyrights, sent free. Address MUNN & CO., 361 Broadway, New York.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

Medical.

DR. SCOTT.

OFFICE—178 Brock-st. d18w26

F. D. GOLDSMITH, M. D.

L. R. C. S., L. S. A., L. R. C. P., London, Eng.,

HAS permanently located in Peterborough. Office and residence, 136 Brock-st., formerly occupied by Mr. J. H. McWilliams. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d47-w26-1y

D. N. CARMICHAEL, M. D.,

C. M., L. R. C. P. Ed.

GRADUATE OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY, Fellow of Trinity Medical School, Licentiate of Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh, L. M. of Simpson's Maternity Hospital, Edinburgh. Office in Mr. Alexander's new residence one door north of the late Dr. O'Sullivan's, George-st. d1m8t-wyr28

DR. B. E. McKENZIE, B. A.

Lecturer on Orthopedic Surgery in the Women's Medical College, and in Toronto University; Consulting Orthopedic Surgeon to Victoria Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto.

Diseases of the Joints and Deformities only

Bloor-st. W. (near Yonge-st.) Toronto, Consultation from 10 to 3. On Friday and Saturday by appointment only.

DR. MOHER,

HAS removed to 214 Hunter-st., opposite Marble Works. Office upstairs.

Legal.

HATTON & WOOD.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Offices, corner of George and Hunter-sts., over T. Dolan & Co's. store. MONEY TO LOAN.

E. E. WOOD, B. A. G. W. HATTON.

SAWERS & STONE.

BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyances, &c. Office, Hunter-st., Peterborough.

☞ MONEY TO LOAN.

E. B. STONE, d103-w43 C. W. SAWERS.

POUSSETTE & JOHNSTON,

BARRISTERS and SOLICITORS, 379 Water-st.

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C. W. F. JOHNSTON.

EDWARD A. PECK.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, etc., 352 George-st., Peterborough.

Private Funds to loan at 6 per cent.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter-st., Peterborough next English church. Money to loan at lowest rates of interest.

E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN O'MEARA.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, &c. Office 357 George-st. d-w

JOHN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office: No. 418 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont., next door north of new post office. MONEY TO LOAN. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter-sts., over McClelland's Jewellery store. d1lsw13

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water-st., Peterborough. d37w

DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES. Money to Loan. Office, 417 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont.

ARTHUR STEVENSON, B. A.
R. M. DENNISTOUN, B. A.

STRATTON & HALL.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, &c., Peterborough, Ont. Office:—Next door to Post Office on Hunter-St.

W. A. STRATTON, LL. B. R. R. HALL.
d150.

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS, Office Post Office Block, Peterborough. wd37

J. E. BELCHER

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George-st. d&w43

Builders and Contractors

E. WEBB,

BRICKLAYER AND CONTRACTOR. All work done substantially and expeditiously. Address E. WEBB, Peterborough. Residence, 336 Aylmer-st. 1yd128

J. J. HARTLEY.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P. O. Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer-sts. 1yd109

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 82. d109

W. E. WHITEHAIR.

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 886, Peterborough P. O. d83-1yr

JAS. R. DONELL.

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being a practical man, he trusts to be able to give patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.

ydl8 JAS. R. DONELL.

Big G is acknowledged the leading remedy for Gonorrhœa & Gleet. The only safe remedy for Leucorrhœa or Whites. I prescribe it and feel safe in recommending it to all sufferers.

A. J. STONER, M.D., Decatur, Ill.

Sold by Druggists. PRICE $1.00.

Cures in 1 TO 5 DAYS. Guaranteed not to cause Stricture. Mf'd only by The Evans Chemical Co. TORONTO, CAN.

G. A. SCHOFIELD, Agt., Peterborough d 50-1y

DIARIES!

POCKET and OFFICE

Diaries for 1891!

Twenty Sizes

to select from in

CLOTH and LEATHER BINDINGS

—AT THE—

REVIEW STATIONERY.

If YOU WISH to Advertise Anything Anywhere at Any time WRITE TO GEO. P. ROWELL & CO. No. 10 Spruce Street, NEW YORK.

SOCIETY, COMMERCIAL AND BOOK PRINTING!

First-Class Work at Low Prices.

Review Office

350 GEORGE ST.

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE.

February 1st, 1891.

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
8 00 am 6 00 pm	Montreal and East, via O. & Q. R.	11 00 am 8 00 pm
11 30 am 11 30 pm	Toronto and West, via O. & Q. R.	8 15 pm 1 45 pm
	Grand Trunk, East & West do East	[illegible]
12 00 am 8 00 pm	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west.	8 00 pm
8 30 am 8 15 pm	Millbrook and Port Hope. do do	11 15 am 8 00 pm
8 25 am 4 00 pm	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings. Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	1 00 pm 11 15 am
10 30 pm	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore	1 30 pm
6 00 pm previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clydale, Paudash and Cheddar, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.	7 30 am
11 00 am	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily.	1 30 pm
11 00 am	Graystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays. Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays.	1 30 pm
	Street Letter Boxes do do	7 00 am 6 30 pm
	British Mails per Canadian line, every Wednesday	6 00 pm
12 noon	Via New York, Mondays. Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	8 00 pm 4 30 pm

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire, Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Australia, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria, (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings' Bank, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxemburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey. And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before.) Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guiana, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books, &c., 4c for 4 oz. Other Registration fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Prepaid by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents.

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents. H. C. ROGERS, Post-Master.

UNION CREDIT & PROTECTION ASSOCIATION.

FOR the Collection of Old and Worthless Accounts, in any part of the world, and no charge if not collected. This Association has local offices in Canada and United States. Head and general office, 19 Adelaide-st. East, Toronto. Rooms, 10, 11, 12 and 13. C. R. COLLINS, General Manager; & R. E. ANDREWS, Sec. Address all communications to Toronto, Ont., office. Telephone No. 2498. This is the only Association that settles accounts and advances the money to the creditor if desired.

C. R. COLLINS,
DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON, Manager
Solicitors for the Association at Peterborough.
August 26th, 1890. d&-w

WEDDING CARDS.
LATEST STYLES AT THE
Review Stationery Store.

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XXV.—No. 36. PETERBOROUGH, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1891. TEN CENTS A WEEK

Probabilities.—Winds mostly south-easterly and easterly; fair to cloudy weather, followed by local rain or sleet.

SWISS Needle Work EMBROIDERY.

We take pleasure in annoucing that we have just received Ex. SS. Sardinian) direct from the manufactory in St. Gall, Switzerland, our new Spring collection of Needle Work Embroidery for the season of 1891. We placed unusual large orders for these goods when the stitch prices were at the lowest point. The value is exceptionally good. The designs were selected with the greatest care and we think will merit your approval. Special discount allowed to customers purchasing in quantities of a dozen yards and upwards.

ROBERT FAIR,

Sign of the Golden Lion,
383 George Street, Peterborough.
Ontario (144) and Bell Telephone (145).

KID GLOVES!
KID GLOVES!

W. W. JOHNSTON

has just received a complete assortment of

Black and Colored Kid Gloves

at 85c. per pair.
The Best in the Market at the Price.

SPECIAL VALUE IN
Bed Room Towels and Kitchen Towelling.
Call and see our

ART MUSLIN
at 15c. per yard.

CRYSTAL BLOCK
410 George st.

Musical.

ORGAN, PIANOFORTE and SINGING

DR. DAVIES,

Organist of St. John's church, late of Christ Church Cathedral and of St. James's Cathedral, Toronto, receives pupils at his residence, 46 McDonnel-st. At home each day from 9 till 10 a. m. and from 2 till 3 p. m. to make engagements, etc. d&w-1m

Wood and Coal.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.

W. B. FERGUSON,
Telephone Connection. Agent

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of

COAL AND WOOD,

which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
d&w JAMES STEVENSO

PETERBOROUGH WATER CO.

OFFICE - - 28 HUNTER-ST.

W. HENDERSON, Superintendent.

(F. ADAMS, Collector.

All water rates and accounts must be paid at the office. Mr. Adams will be in the office from 2 to 5 p.m. every day

Awnings. Tents. AND Sails.

ALFRED KINGSCOTE has opened out in Dunsford's Block, on Water-st., opposite the market, where he is prepared to do all kinds of Awning, Tent and Sail making.
Good Work and Low Prices. Remember the place

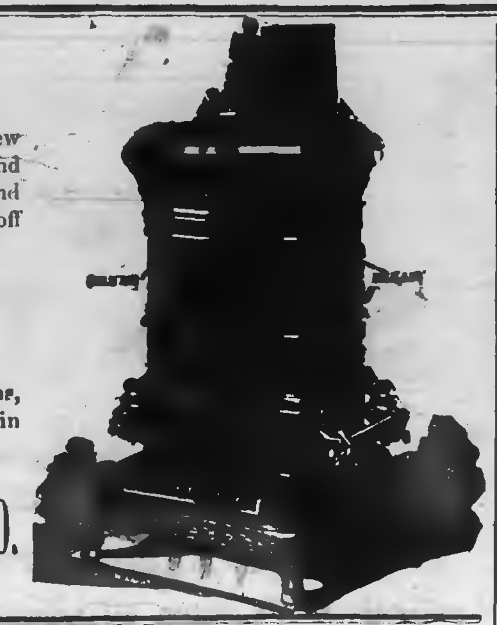
A. KINGSCOTE,
d88-1yr No. 344 Water-st.

EDWIN ELCOME,
TAXIDERMIST
and Dealer in Eyes, Artificial Leave and Frostings.

BIRDS, ANIMALS, FISH and SNAKES stuffed and Mounted in and out of cases in the best [illegible] style at lowest prices. DEER'S HEADS a specialty. A stock of foreign and native birds always on hand for sale.
Residence, No. 176 Harvey-st., Peterborough
41'4-w28-1y

STOVES.

We have a few New and Second Hand Coal Heaters left and are running them off cheap.



LAMPS.

Beautiful designs, all styles, reduced in price.

W. G. BAIN & CO.
George-st.

Wants.

WANTED.

A GOOD GENERAL SERVANT and Nursemaid. Apply Review Office. dtf

For Sale or to Rent.

TO RENT.

A DESIRABLE HOUSE on Simcoe-st. (Mr. Dunsford's brick cottage). Possession immediately. Apply W. H. HILL, Insurance Agent. 2d34

FOR SALE,

A QUANTITY OF PAPER CUTTINGS and shavings. Apply at REVIEW Office.

TO LET.

Store and Dwelling

No. 281 George-st., now occupied by J.J. Turner. Good stand for grocery and boarding house. STORE and DWELLING No. 283 George-st. DWELLING HOUSES No. 80 Hunter-st., and 18 and 20 Queen-st. JOHN J. LUNDY. dtf

KNOW ALL MEN AND WOMEN

That I am instructed to sell a great variety of property in all parts of the town, in many cases much under value and that the addition of large Factories, Electric Street Railways and the opening of Spring are not likely causes for lower prices; consequently this is your golden opportunity. Come to-day, select today and seal the agreement of purchase to-day.

T. HURLEY,
JOHN L. HALL, 357 George-st.
Assistant.

Carbon Gaslight

A RIVAL TO DAYLIGHT!

A new and Brilliant Illuminating Power—Clear, Steady and Mellow. Specially suited for Stores and Large Buildings, Machine Shops, &c. A saving of 30 to 40 per cent. on gas can be effected by this new light
See it Burning at the Store of

J. E. NOBLE & Co.
287 George-st, South.
TELEPHONE.—Bell No. 181, Ontario No. 156.

D. BELLEGHEM,
Issuer of Mariage Licenses,
PETERBOROUGH.

MULHOLLAND & ROPER
BANKERS AND INSURANCE AGENTS

Banking Department.

Deposit Accounts opened and Notes discounted at short dates or for twelve months if required. Special attention given to the purchase and collection of Farmers' Sale Notes. Drafts drawn on Merchants Bank of Canada payable in New York, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and at any of its Branches in the Dominion. Cheques on other Banks cashed.
Four to Five per cent. allowed on deposits repayable on demand.
BANKING HOURS.—9.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m

Insurance Department.

MR. FELIX BROWNSCOMBE is a partner in and manager of this department.
Careful attention given to Fire, Accident and Plate Glass Insurance.
The following companies are represented:—
London and Lancashire, City of London, Phoenix of Brooklyn, Caledonian, Royal Canadian, Agricultural, Montreal Plate Glass, Mutual Accident and Plate Glass, and Norwich and London Accident.
OFFICE HOURS.—9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Bill Heads,
Note Heads,
Letter Heads,
TAGS, ENVELOPES,
COUNTER HEADS
and every description of Business Printing executed at city prices at the
Review Office,
340 George Street.

AT

TURNBULL'S

Owing to so many covered shapes being worn this season we have a quantity of untrimmed Felt Hats and Bonnets left of all styles for Ladies and Children which we have put together in one lot and are clearing out at

25c. each.

This includes everything. Our friends may know what bargains await them as many of them have been sold during the season at from $1.00 to $1.50. Remember you get the choice of this lot for 25c.

We are showing in one of our windows Spring Prints, which are but an indication of the quantities of handsome patterns we have inside.

Our Spring Flanneletts have arrived. The patterns are new and darker, what so many people want. They are very pretty. Quantities of new goods opened every day. We show a handsome range of new shades in Dress Goods suitable for Wedding Outfits.

Further particulars of what we will offer this Spring as special inducements next week.

J. C. TURNBULL
George & Simcoe-sts., Peterborough.

A. CLEGG,
Funeral Director.
Ware rooms, - - 427 George-st.
Residence, - 16 Benson-st.
S. CLEGG, Residence, 295 Stewart street. Telephone.

For You!

Reduction in prices of all Cloths. Suits and Overcoats to order for less money than ever to clear out the balance of winter stock.
Order now.

D. CAMERON & Co.
Tailors and Clothiers, 434 George-st.

LADIES' JERSEYS

In all the Leading Styles at Lowest Prices at
PORT HOPE KNITTING WORKS
382 George-st.

MONEY TO LOAN.

A LARGE amount of private funds has been placed in my hands for loaning on farm security.

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM,
d&w2 Solicitor, 128 Hunter-st.

HALL, INNES & Co.

GREAT REDUCTIONS
IN PRICES OF MANTLES
AND
TRIMMED MILLINERY

After a most successful season's trade in this department we will offer during January, the balance of our stock of

Jackets, Mantles, Mantle Materials and Ulsters, also all Trimmed and Untrimmed Millinery,

at Greatly Reduced Prices.

From all who have not already made their purchases in these lines, we respectfully solicit a call as we will make it to their advantage to do so.

Sweeping Reductions in

Dress Stuffs, Shawls, Wool Squares and every description of Winter Goods.

Hall, Innes & Co

The Daily Review.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1891.

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE

OPENING OF THE ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

Mr. Ballantyne Elected Speaker—The Speech From the Throne—What the Lieutenant-Governor Had to Say.

TORONTO, Feb. 11.—At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Campbell proceeded to the Legislative Assembly Chamber, where the members of the new Legislature were in waiting to receive him. Being seated His Honor directed the members to choose a Speaker from among their number and after stating that he would come down again to-morrow and inform them why they had been called together, the Lieutenant-Governor took his departure. On motion of Attorney-General Mowat the House then elected Hon. Thomas Ballantyne, member for South Perth, as Speaker of the Legislature of Ontario, and adjourned until to-day.

The Speech From the Throne.

In the Speech from the Throne this afternoon the Lieutenant-Governor referred to proposed regulations relating to the sale of mining lands in the great nickel-bearing regions which have been temporarily withdrawn from sale.

He also referred to the agitation respecting compulsory education and free text books.

The speech further announces that considerable advance has been made towards a settlement of the financial and constitutional differences between the province and the Dominion; that at the recent conference between representatives of Canada, Ontario and Quebec arrangements were made for an arbitration to settle questions of account and for referring constitutional questions to the courts in friendly actions, and that a measure providing for the proposed arbitration will be submitted to the Legislature.

The land improvement fund was referred to and the suggestion made that the share chargeable against this province be paid over to the municipalities, without waiting longer for a settlement of the balance, which is claimed to be chargeable against Quebec.

The speech referred to the commission on prison reform and the commission on the fish and game laws issued during the recess, and promised legislation.

Reference to the state of public health wound up the short address.

IN EVERY CONSTITUENCY.

Yesterday Witnessed the Choice of Many Candidates in All Sections of the Province.

Centre Toronto—G. R. Cockburn.
West York—Clarke Wallace.
East Bruce—R. Truax, reeve of Walkerton (Ref.)
Kent—A. Campbell (Ref.)
North Victoria—J. A. Barron (Ref.)
South Norfolk—Col. T. S. Tisdale.
Lennox—D. W. Allison (Ref.)
North Renfrew—Peter White (Con.)
South Essex—Lewis Wigle of Leamington (Con.)
South Leeds—George Taylor (Con.) W. H. Fredenburg, who was nominated by the Reform convention, has retired from the contest.
Centre Wellington—W. H. Hunter of East Garafraxa (Con.)
North Ontario—Frank Madill (Con.)
South Huron—John McMillan (Ref.)
North Bruce—Dr. Bonnar of Chesley (Ref.).
North Lanark—J. Jamieson (Con.)
Frontenac — Thomas Clyde, farmer, of Kingston township (Ref.), will oppose G. A. Kirkpatrick.
Glengarry—The Reform convention declared its willingness to join with the Conservatives in the selection of John McLennan.
South Wellington—James Goldie (Con.)
West Ontario—J. D. Edgar (Ref.) was chosen on the first ballot, receiving two-thirds of the votes cast.
East Peterboro—The Equal Rights convention nominated A. R. Kidd, the latter accepting on the condition that his expenses were guaranteed by the convention.
North Perth—James Grieve of Mornington (Lib.)
South Waterloo—George Clare, reeve of Preston and furnace manufacturer (Con.)
Halton—John Waldie (Ref.)

Montreal—Edmund Guerin was chosen to oppose Mr. J. J. Curran in Montreal Centre. In the east end Mr. L. O. David will oppose Mr. A. T. Lepine, the labor candidate. In the west division an opponent to Sir Donald Smith has not been chosen, but the name of Sir Joseph Hickson is mentioned.

Hamilton—A meeting of the executive committee of the Liberal-Conservative Association was held in Germania Hall last evening. There was a large attendance of delegates. Three names were submitted as candidates, C. R. Smith, Ald. Blaicher and Ald. Ryckman. Mr. Smith was dropped after the first ballot, and the vote between Messrs. Blaicher and Ryckman ended in a tie. The convention then decided to adjourn until Friday night, when it will be decided which one will accompany Mr. McKay to the polls for the Conservative party.

West Durham—The Conservative convention at Bowmanville yesterday was very largely attended and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. Mr. George T. Blackstock of Toronto was the unanimous choice, no other nomination being made.

NO AGREEMENT REACHED.

O'BRIEN AND DILLON FAIL IN THEIR MISSION.

And Will Surrender Themselves to the English Police To-day—Circulars From O'Brien and Parnell—The Reasons Why the Negotiations Failed.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—The prospects of an amicable settlement of the Irish imbroglio grow darker as the time for the proposed final meeting draws near.

The Gladstonian assurances are not considered adequate by Parnell, and it is said he refuses to bind himself to retire for a period longer than the present session of Parliament.

He also insists upon remaining in control of the Irish party until the next general election. Some of the Healyites intend to demand at the meeting that negotiations be broken for the reason, as they assert, that too much deference is paid to Parnell's position and claims.

The McCarthyite members seen in the lobby of the House of Commons to-day say Parnell's refusal to come to amicable terms will stiffen their attitude and increase their resolve to resist his claims. It is not certain that all the points will be settled at to-morrow's meeting.

The Evening Telegraph says: Parnell will at the proper moment disclose matters upon which he is backed by his supporters. The Telegraph adds that Parnell insisted from the outset that he favored peace, unity and safety, but peace and unity without safety for Home Rule is something a responsible statesman and leader would be unable to ratify without an act of betrayal.

The Pall Mall Gazette says heavy responsibility rests upon O'Brien and Dillon, who, according to The Gazette, have shown strange vacillation in treating Parnell as coequal with the Irish representatives, and in negotiating on the lines of Committee Room 15 as if no deposition of Kilkenny election had occurred. The Gazette adds that when Parnell's defeat promised to become final it was incredible weakness to consent to a one-sided truce, leaving Parnell to prosecute his ends while O'Brien suppressed the only organ of Dublin opinion left to the Irish people. Parnell has haughtily ruptured the negotiations his opponents humbly initiated. The Gazette does not doubt that O'Brien and Dillon will repair the mischief done and revert to the anti-Parnellite position which they assumed in their December manifesto.

In an interview to-day Mr. Parnell declared he would not recede from his position, which he said was consistent. He would not submit, he said, to the dictation of Mr. Gladstone and the priests. He believed the general election would not be held for two years yet.

A CIRCULAR FROM O'BRIEN.

He Reviews the Situation at Length — His Suggestions.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—William O'Brien has issued a long statement on the Irish situation. He says: "In an otherwise difficult position the delegates to America had the advantage that they were free from heat of partisanship and could offer themselves as mediators. The experience of the past five weeks gathered from personal interviews, letters and newspapers of all sides completely confirms the conviction that only a hearty re-union can save the Irish cause. It is my duty to solemnly declare that no difficulty has existed which a little more sacrifice of personal feelings on both sides might not have surmounted."

Mr. O'Brien explains that the idea of a public truce was abandoned because both sides declared it was impossible and no useful purpose would follow the publishing of the details of the negotiations. Therefore it had been decided to regard the negotiations as confidential. Mr. O'Brien thinks, however, that none of the parties concerned will seriously question that upon the main points contended for on both sides a substantial agreement was established. "I cannot too strongly express," continues Mr. O'Brien, "with what feelings we found a settlement so vital shipwrecked at the last moment by mere contests of words and phrases—contests which with a little more magnanimity and less suspiciousness on both sides might easily have been arranged and which to my mind offer a shockingly inadequate excuse for committing the country to a struggle involving consequences so appalling. We are hampered at every step. Not merely by the malignant tittle-tattle and giddy mischief-making of a section of the English press but by the more serious impediments placed in our way by responsible persons, who under the influence of some extraordinary infatuation have seemed to grudge every hour devoted to peace-making and to resent every attempt to give a less barbarous character to the conflict."

In conclusion Mr. O'Brien says one of the saddest things in this tragic business is that circumstances have rendered it impossible to give organized effect to the overwhelming public longing for a reconciliation, while the field is held by heated partisans, who, impelled by motives which I do not question, but who are fatally deceived as to their own and their opponents' strength, and the consequences of continued discord, have done their worst by exasperating language and insulting suspicions scarcely veiled threats and rumors and intrigues to make the work of peacemaking impossible." Continuing, Mr. O'Brien said: "The irreconcilables of all sections have carried the day. Mr. Dillon and myself can no longer stand between them and their deplorable work. We should have been more sensitive to the obloquy we incur by refusing to participate in such a conflict had we ever shrunk from a conflict with Ireland's enemies. We can do nothing more till we have recovered freedom of action by getting through with the sentence standing against us. On the expiration of that term I shall be happy to submit myself to the judgment of my constituents, and if I cannot otherwise assist I can enable them to commit their interests to other hands." Mr. O'Brien expressed the hope that the inevitable conflict forced upon the country may be conducted without personal bitterness and degrading personalities, so that when the unhappy passions of the hour have exhausted themselves all may again co-operate in the nation's cause.

A Statement by Dillon.

Mr. Dillon in a shorter statement admits he had been largely influenced to mediate by the action of Parnell's most prominent opponents. Mr. Parnell, he says, had been assailed with shocking personal vindictiveness and brutality in utter disregard of what was due him in return for his splendid services. This personal element had in many minds hopelessly obscured the great public issues and driven thousands in Ireland and America into Parnell's camp who otherwise would have opposed his continued leadership.

Mr. Dillon continues: "I have resented unceasingly the whole of Mr. Parnell's proceedings. I was utterly unable to accept his leadership after the famous manifesto, yet had I been free from the sentence of imprisonment I should have found it difficult, if not impossible to throw myself heartily into a struggle conducted in a method utterly abhorrent to me. The Havre conference found myself in perfect accord with Mr. O'Brien on the facts submitted to me: that no alternative but the arrangement he suggested would free our cause from disaster. I therefore felt it to be my duty, cordially and loyally, to support him in the difficult task he had undertaken. Events have fully borne out Mr. O'Brien's views and proven that the arrangement he contemplated was perfectly possible, but from the beginning of the negotiations powerful influences were working on both sides against peace, and we are now compelled sorrowfully to announce failure. Those who either from ignorance or malice sneered at and misconstrued our efforts will before long realise the full extent of their responsibility. For my own part I cannot even now abandon the hope that the good sense of the Irish people will assert itself and insist upon an end to the insane conflict that can result only in her humiliation and ruin."

WHAT PARNELL SAYS.

The Uncrowned King to Continue as Leader of the Party.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—Mr. Parnell has written to Mr. O'Brien as follows: The last information Mr. Gill conveyed to me on our negotiations being of a final character I conclude that nothing is left to be done on my part but to bring our endeavors to a close. I regret that it has not been rendered possible for me to consider national interests so safeguarded that I could feel that there would be no danger to the cause in my now surrendering the responsibility which has been placed upon me, and which I have accepted from the hands of our nation and race. I have been ready to act up to the letter and spirit of our understanding to the last moment and I regret that no course is left but to withdraw from the negotiations. The seal of confidence which covers what has passed between us prevents inviting a public judgment, but if it is ever removed I am confident that it will be held that I have done everything in my power consistent with national interests to promote peace and re-union. Do not fear that the cause is lost. Although these negotiations have failed they have not been entirely unsuccessful in advancing it. On this at least you may congratulate yourself. The country has recovered considerably from its painful distraction and panic and the controversy is raised to a plane whereon unless it sinks again it can be conducted without national humiliation and discredit, although I regret to have perceived in the last few days the existence, in quarters where one might have least expected it, a spirit breathing the deadliest hostility to peace. But whatever side true Irishmen take they owe you thanks for your beneficent efforts. I am sure that the country will agree that you have acted throughout in the spirit of a true patriot.

O'Brien and Dillon Leave for England To-Day.

BOULOGNE-SUR-MER, Feb. 11.—William O'Brien left for Paris to-night. He will return here to-morrow. John Dillon says Mr. O'Brien and himself will go to England tomorrow but not with the intention of attending the McCarthyite meeting to be held in London Thursday.

The Reason.

LONDON, Feb. 12—The News says: We assume Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien have withdrawn from the negotiations with Mr. Parnell because the Liberal leaders declined to give any assurance in regard to the Home Rule bill.

MONTREAL'S BIG BLAZE.

The Bonaventure Station Buildings and Freight Sheds Totally Destroyed.

MONTREAL, Feb. 11.—Fire broke out this morning at 11 o'clock in the Grand Trunk Railway freight sheds at Bonaventure station, and by noon the whole building with all its contents was completely destroyed, the fire ending only when it had burned itself out with all the material within its reach. The flames were first noticed bursting from the windows of the customs department. The sheds, which extended parallel with the tracks from the station down to Mountain-street, being of wood soon caught fire all along their length and gave out so fierce a heat that the hose was burned even while filled with water. When the firemen entered the building they found two men, J. B. Flynn and C. T. Tough, who had become unconscious from the smoke. They were at once removed to the hospital. The only goods destroyed were those which arrived last night. The total loss will not exceed $50,000.

Postoffice Burned.

WINDSOR, Feb. 11.—Fire broke out at midnight last night at Sandwich, in rear part of Lesslline & Sons' furniture factory and storerooms, a two-story frame on the front street. The postoffice, which was separated from the furniture factory by a 20 foot alley, caught fire and was totally burned together with all its contents, except the mail matter, which was carried out. The furniture factory and contents were also burned to the ground. Proprietors estimate their loss at $4000; insurance, $3000.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

A G. T. R. Passenger Gashes His Jugular Near Brampton.

BRAMPTON, Feb. 11.—Michael Norton, a passenger on the Grand Trunk train going west this morning, attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat. Soon after the train had left Malton he was seen by some of the passengers and his hand stayed, but not till he had cut a deep gash in his throat. The conductor put him off here and telephoned for a doctor and the police officer, and after the wound was dressed he was lodged in jail. He says he lives near Orillia and is a farmer. He is thought to be mentally weak; $65 was found on his person. His friends have been wired for.

A Grand Trunk Express Narrowly Escapes Being Ditched.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—A dastardly attempt at train-wrecking has come to light. It appears that on Monday night two rails were placed across the track of the St. Thomas and Port Stanley road a short distance south of the Port Stanley bridge, between this city and St. Thomas, evidently intended for the M.C.R. passenger train passing about 9 p.m., but a heavy freight train went over just previously and forced the rails off the track. G.T.R. detectives are working on the affair.

To Blow Up a Brewery.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—A man named Gibson has been arrested here on a charge of conspiracy to blow up the brewery of the Shufeldt Company. An infernal machine, the materials to make it effective, etc., were found in Gibson's possession.

Died Drunk in a Ditch.

WINDSOR, Ont., Feb. 11.—A colored man was frozen to death near Edgar's Mills on Monday night. He, with a companion, started for home while drunk, and yesterday morning he was found in a railroad ditch with his head and shoulders out of the water frozen stiff.

6000 PRIESTS DEFRAUDED.

THE PARIS SWINDLING BANKER'S GREAT HEAD.

The Pope sent Him a Picture—A Curious Libel Suit Arising Out of a Canvass—Church and State in England—The Strikes in England and Wales.

PARIS, Feb. 11.—The real name of the banker known as Victor Mace, whose disappearance was announced yesterday, is Berneau. Among his clientele were about 6000 priests. The Pope recently sent to Berneau the papal benediction and a photograph of His Holiness bearing his autograph. This had the effect of increasing the banker's credit among the clergy. The money deposited with Berneau amounted to 1,000,000 francs monthly. The banker kept no books and made no record beyond the simple entry of deposits made. He gambled on the bourse, on the turf and at cards. His luck turned recently and he lost 250,000 francs monthly. As a last resort he went to Monte Carlo.

CURIOUS LIBEL SUIT.

How the Cobden Club Bought Advocates in Sweden.

LONDON, Feb. 11. A curious libel case has just been before the law courts in Sweden. It appears that a Swedish newspaper, Motala Posten, accused certain persons of high social position, one being the late General Director of Customs, and another the present Lord Lieutenant of the county of Stockholm, with having received subsidies from the Cobden Club amounting to £12,000 for carrying on a free trade agitation in their country.

The court dismissed the libel, the writer pleading that all the statements were true and claiming that Prince Bismarck had been able through the German Embassy in London to obtain a copy of the club's secret accounts, and that these accounts fully bore out the statements that had been made.

The writer of the article received his information in such a way that there could be no question about its authenticity, and he further alleged that these secret accounts would be very soon published in Berlin.

CHURCH AND STATE.

An Open Question About Catholics and Two British Offices.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—In the House of Commons Mr. R. K. Austen, Gladstonian, member for West Southwark, asked whether Catholics would be eligible to occupy the position of Lord Chancellor of England or Viceroy of Ireland. Sir Richard Everard Webster, the Attorney-General, declined to answer, on the ground that eminent lawyers differed on the question, which would become practical if any Government appointed a Catholic to either of those positions.

REVOLUTION IN BULGARIA.

An Alleged Treasonable Plot Unearthed at Sofia.

BUCHAREST, Feb. 11.—Many conflicting rumors are circulating here in regard to a treasonable plot alleged to have been discovered in Sofia, the capital of Bulgaria. The conspiracy is said to aim at the overthrow of Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria and his Cabinet. A Bulgarian, Servian and a Macedonian have been arrested at Sofia and judicial enquiry is in progress. Some think one of the prisoners concocted the story of the conspiracy in order to be revenged for some fancied injury upon his fellow-prisoners.

What Caused Prince Baudouin's Death.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—The sensational and unfounded rumors as to the death of Prince Baudouin, some of them of the wildest kind, have not subsided with the funeral. There seems, however, sound ground for believing that the immediate cause of death was, after all, suppressed smallpox. Every member of the royal household, from the grand marshal down to the brushers, has since been carefully vaccinated; and the example thus set has been widely followed in Brussels, where the increase of the smallpox epidemic occasions considerable alarm. Prince Albert is already at St. Raphael, and as soon as Princess Henrietta is strong enough to move the whole of the Count of Flanders' family will migrate to the Riviera. During their absence from home an attempt will be made to place their whole abode in thorough sanitary repair.

Strikes in Europe.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—The strike situation on the Albert docks is becoming critical. The striking laborers are only restrained from overt acts by the presence of a formidable body of police. Work on the steamers Lydian Monarch and Sorrento has ceased and the companies charge the laborers and stevedores who had been engaged on the vessels with having broken faith with their employers.

CARDIFF, Feb. 11.—The dock laborers' strike grows in bitterness although free labor is plentiful.

PARIS, Feb. 11.—A great strike at the glass works of Lyons and the vicinity is impending. A desire for an increase of wages is the cause of the agitation.

The U.S. Minister and the Premier Discuss Behring Sea.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—United States Minister Lincoln had his first interview today with Lord Salisbury since the former's return to this country. The interview lasted a long time and gave rise to the rumor that the main subjects discussed were those connected with the Behring Sea question.

Goschen on the McKinley Tariff.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—In the House of Commons to-day the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Goschen, in reply to questions on the subject, intimated that he would not promote the passage of a gold-coinage bill until he saw his way clear to proceed with other measures dealing with the currency.

Later on, replying to a question as to the effects of the McKinley bill upon British trade, Mr. Goschen said that the Government had no intention to start a policy of retaliation against the United States protective tariff, especially as it was hoped that the Americans themselves would perceive the mistake they had made of adopting the McKinley tariff.

Drew on the Reserve.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—The management of the Nottingham & Nottinghamshire Banking Company has found it necessary to withdraw $125,000 from the reserve fund in order to cover the defalcations of Robert James Beard, one of its managers, who disappeared some time ago and whose body was subsequently found in the River Trent.

The Koch Lymph Christened.

BERLIN, Feb. 11.—Medical men have finally dubbed the Koch lymph "Tuberculine."

Tecumseh's Condition.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—At 11.15 to-night Drs. Alexander and Janeway held a consultation, after which Dr. Alexander issued a bulletin stating there had been no change in Gen. Sherman's condition.

King of Medicines

A Cure "Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered had to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 6 years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well.

"Early in 1886 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Circus,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A. LEHR, 9 N. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.

HAVE NOT LOST A SINGLE DAY

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

The Daily Review.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1891.

THE ABORTIVE CONVENTION

THE Liberals of West Peterborough would have acted wisely had they adjourned their convention sine die and saved the constituency the trouble and expense of an election, instead of adjourning for a few days to endeavor to secure a candidate to oppose Mr. Stevenson.

The re-election of Mr. Stevenson is conceded, and after the strenuous efforts of the wire pullers, during the week before the convention was held, had not resulted in inducing anyone to take the field, they would have shown a manlier appreciation of the situation if they had given up the idea of factious opposition. However, the friends of Mr. Stevenson are ready. This town and county have no desire to kill the manufacturing industries that have been built up here. They have no wish to destroy the very large and profitable export trade with Great Britain in produce of the farms. They are not willing to hand over the powers of the Canadian Parliament to Washington, and will not head towards the "ready road to annexation." And if the adjourned convention does result in someone taking the field under Sir Richard Cartwright's banner it will only serve to show how emphatically this riding is opposed to the policy and schemes of the Liberal leaders.

SIR RICHARD'S ANSWER.

Ever since the Liberal party adopted unrestricted reciprocity as their platform, they have shirked a plain statement of what that policy really was. In no speech by a Liberal leader has a fair outline of it been given. At Oshawa on Monday night, however, Sir Richard Cartwright was forced by a question to acknowledge that it included discrimination against Great Britain and in favor of the United States. The question and reply are thus reported in the Globe of Tuesday:

> "At the close of his address Sir Richard was asked by a young man if the Liberal policy involved the admission free from the United States of classes of articles which, coming from England, might be taxed. Sir Richard replied promptly and decidedly in the affirmative."

This is a plain answer that the Liberals propose to admit goods from the United States free of duty, while maintaining the tariff on importations from Great Britain and other countries. This means that Canada would adopt the same tariff as the United States, because if there was any difference in the tariffs goods would be imported into one country and sent into the other to the loss of the one having the higher rates. Besides, the resolution proposed by Congressman Hitt some years ago, which has been revived, and upon which the Liberals base their argument that the United States would agree to their policy, provides for the "assimilation of the import duties and internal revenue taxes of the two countries and an equitable division of the receipts in a commercial union." The tariff making power would be taken from the Dominion Parliament—taken out of the hands of the Canadian people—and transferred to Washington. There is no use trying to hide or overlook this fact, for it is one of vast importance to the people of Canada. And when the United States makes the tariff for this country, and when it would have control of the "division of the receipts," the Dominion would indeed be helpless in the hands of the Republic. We could only raise such revenue as we were permitted by the larger country to raise, and be able to expend only such funds as they gave us. Would any self-respecting Canadian tolerate such a position? Dare any patriotic Canadian vote for placing his country in such a situation? Yet that is what a vote for a supporter of the Liberal leaders would mean.

THE CENTRAL CANADA.

The statements submitted at the annual meeting of the Central Canada Loan and Savings Company must have been gratifying to the shareholders of that company. Although there were extraordinary expenses during the year in connection with the redemption and re-issue of debentures, the usual dividends were paid and $12,000 was added to the Reserve Fund, bringing that fund up to $192,000, and $6,885 transferred to the Contingent Fund, augmenting it to $21,846. As the reissue of the debentures was an advantage to the company in lowering the interest, from which it will receive the benefit. The company, although it has only been doing business a few years, has been placed on a solid basis and built up a paying business that must be gratifying to all connected with it.

A VERBATIM report of all the speeches delivered at the West Riding Liberal convention would make funny reading.

Stick Your Ground.

When you make up your mind to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to buy some other preparation instead. Clerks claim that "ours is as good as Hood's" and all that, but the peculiar merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla cannot be equalled. Therefore have nothing to do with substitutes and insist upon having Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier and building-up medicine.

THE receipts of the Dominion for seven months of the present fiscal year amounted to $22,[illegible], and the expenditures to $19,[illegible], leaving a surplus of $3,162,979. Sir Richard Cartwright remembers his era of deficits and groans.

WANTED—A candidate who is willing to stand up on the unrestricted reciprocity platform to be knocked down. Apply to the Liberal bosses of West Peterborough.

AGED BUT CLEVER.

Demise of Mrs. Barnes, the Witch of Plum Hollow.

KINGSTON, Feb. 11.—Mrs. Barnes, the witch of Plum Hollow, is dead. She lived in a little log cabin four or five miles northwest of the village of Athens, and in the midst of a thickly populated farming community. Though upwards of 90 years of age and generally conceded to possess wonderful divining powers, she was a mild-mannered, pleasant-voiced, and exceedingly intelligent woman, who, when she had told your fortune from the cup, was not averse to a quiet chat on such commonplace topics as society or the state of the crops. She was also the possessor of a charitable disposition, and though actively engaged in fortune telling for upwards of 50 years, during which time she has earned thousands and thousands of dollars, it is currently reported that none of the wealth thus gained has been hoarded. She raised quite a large family, the eldest son, Mr. Samuel Barnes of Smith's Falls, being well known in that section.

LOVE RUNS ROUGHLY.

Many a Slip Between the Expectant Bride and the Silken Noose.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—Jesse Osborne, a barber, employed by Ed Carrier at No. 113 Blue Island-avenue, last night shot and fatally wounded Blanche Clement at the door of her home, then fired a bullet into his own breast, but did not strike a vital spot. Osborne will recover. Jealousy was the cause of his act.

$20,000 Breach of Promise Suit Settled.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 11.—The suit for $20,000 damages for breach of promise, brought against S. Obermeier of Cincinnati by Minnie Lamb of this city, has been settled. Obermeier is the wealthy Cincinnati merchant whose marriage to an ex-nun of Chicago a few months ago excited so much comment. The suit of Miss Lamb was filed immediately after that marriage.

An Ill-Assorted Elopement.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 11.—Hiram Kent, aged 70, and Rebecca Donnelly, handsome and only 23 years old, eloped from Greene county and were married by a Pittsburg alderman to-day. The groom has been a bachelor, and is the owner of many broad acres. The bride is the daughter of a neighbor, and Kent had fondled her on his knee when she was a baby. The girl's parents objected, and Kent, with the ardor of a youth, planned the elopement.

Suicide After a Runaway Marriage.

MARION, O., Feb. 11.—Dimmie, daughter of a wealthy farmer, Oliver Monnett, living nine miles north of Marion, eloped with Jud McClinton on last Thursday and married him in Covington, Ky., afterward returning home. She took a fatal dose of aconite last night.

Drugged on Her Wedding Day.

AUSTIN, Tex., Feb. 11.—Miss Millie Crayton, the daughter of well-known parents here, was drugged on the day appointed for her marriage to Charles Bardwell, and forced to marry a young man named Blakely, a rejected suitor. Her parents acquiesced.

TORONTO TOPICS.

TORONTO, Feb. 12.—The unemployed of the city, numbering 700, held a parade and demonstration yesterday at 9.30. They gathered in St. Andrew's Market and marched thence to the City Hall, preceded by a drummer and a man bearing a flag, with the motto, "Bread or Work." At the City Hall delegates were sent to the Mayor asking him to say what the city could do to relieve the distress. In a speech delivered from the City Hall steps, the Mayor said the collapse of the building boom was a principal cause of the trouble, and said that the City Engineer had under construction all the works sanctioned by the council.

Sons of England Grand Lodge.

HAMILTON, Feb. 11.—The sixteenth annual session of the Supreme Grand Lodge Sons of England is now in full session. Nearly 150 delegates are present, and they are about as jolly a crowd as have struck the city for some time.

The lodge was opened by the supreme grand president, assisted by Rev. W. C. Clarke, M.A., Toronto, who acted as chaplain.

These officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Richard Ivens, Toronto, supreme grand president.

Ald. W. Hancock, Hamilton, S.G.P.

J. W. Carter, Toronto, S.G.S. (re-elected).

B. Hinchcliffe, Toronto, S.V.T. (re-elected).

The reports of the secretary and treasurer showed the society to be prospering exceedingly. During the past year 28 new lodges were instituted, and the membership is now 8500. There are six juvenile lodges and the naval brigade branch is growing rapidly.

The treasurer's report was of the most satisfactory character. The receipts were $7288.95, expenditure $4285.58, an increase of $2791.83. In the grand lodge fund the receipts amounted to $6002.76, expenditure $6067.32, balance $15.44. Funeral fund: Receipts $10856.56, expenditure $5972, balance $4884.56, an increase of $2898.67. Benefit fund: Assessments $6867.87, balance on hand $1586.86.

THE BEHRING SEA.

He'll Talk Canadian Reciprocity After the Sealing Squabble is Ended.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The British Minister had a protracted conference with Secretary Blaine to-day. It is understood that it related to some very important matters, including the Sayward case, now before the Supreme Court, and the Behring Sea controversy. There was also some discussion concerning the proposed Canadian reciprocity schemes. The Secretary explained to the Minister what he meant by his letter to Representative Baker, in which he denied that any negotiations were pending looking to reciprocal trade with the Canadian provinces. It appears that at that time nothing had been done in that direction. The Secretary, however, is aware that some of the Canadian authorities are anxious to enter into trade relations, but from some cause or other the secretary is not disposed to entertain any propositions of that sort until some definite settlement is made of the Behring Sea dispute.

The proposed arbitration of Lord Salisbury, and the propositions mentioned in Mr. Blaine's letter, which are to be submitted for consideration, will, it is understood, not be taken up until the pending suit in the Supreme Court is out of the way.

The Jury Disagreed.

BUFFALO, Feb. 10.—In the suit of Mrs. Edith Brenton-Tupper against Martin Morin as Superintendent of Police for $10,000 damages for false imprisonment the jury this afternoon disagreed and were discharged. It is learned that they stood 11 to 1 in favor of Morin. The arrest was made in Toronto last summer on a telegram owing to a mistake made here in the number of a trunk check.

The Handsomest Man in Peterborough

As well as the handsomest, and others are invited to call on any druggist and get free a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, a remedy that is selling entirely upon its merits and is guaranteed to relieve and cure all Chronic and Acute Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

EFFIE'S FORTUNE

"I don't call it any better than cheating!" said old Mr. Pepperell, indignantly. "Ay, you may open your big eyes, Miss Effie, and look as red as you please—it don't alter the truth of things. You've no more right to live in my house and cheat me out of the rent of it, quarter after quarter, than you have to put your hand in my pocket and take out my purse. There! and that's what you may tell your fine gentleman papa. And say it's old Roger Pepperell's outspoken idea of things."

So Mr. Pepperell went away, slamming the door behind him in his wrath.

Effie Arden stood for a moment, silent and trembling in the passage, and then she ran back into the sitting-room, crying a sparkling shower of bright-dropping tears.

Juliet, her elder sister, looked up from the dress she was patiently darning, with eyes of mild surprise.

"Effie, darling! What is it?"

"Nothing, Julie, nothing. Only we are so miserably poor, and it is so hard. And papa will keep toiling away at that big book, that never will be finished, and that no publisher will never buy when it is finished. And—and—we have no money for anything. Oh, it is so cruel, so mortifying! I would have given anything in the world for ten pounds just now, to pay that horrid old Pepperell!"

Juliet smiled faintly.

"He is not horrid, my darling; only the idea that we are in debt."

"Don't fret, dear," said Juliet, soothingly: it will all come right. There is old Mrs. Dallas at the door: run and let her in."

"I don't want to see her," said Effie, sorrowfully. "She will only talk about the fashions, and her son's new wife, and her niece, Musadora Harcourt, and I've heard all that a score of times before."

"Always at work, Miss Juliet," she said, nodding her head at the elder one. "Well, I always did say you'd make a good wife—taking thought for the household, you know, and all that sort of thing. And Miss Effie—she's like a sunbeam—a butterfly."

Effie smiled.

"I wish I was a working bee instead, Mrs. Dallas, with plenty of honey to make."

"To be sure—to be sure," said the old lady; "a very laudable idea; but I don't see that the working classes are any better behaved than the rest of us. Now there's Musadora Harcourt, my niece"—Effie made a little lightning-swift grimace at her sister, as the venerable matron slipped lazily into the conversational channel. "Her companion has just given her warning, and only because she overheard some one call her a 'toady.' Did you ever! And its an easy place, too. Nothing to do but to make herself agreeable; and twelve guineas a month is good pay for that sort of thing, I'm sure. You don't happen to know of any one who would suit my niece Musadora, do you, girls?"

"No," said Juliet, with a little feint of thinking.

"I do," said Effie, flushed and eager.

Juliet looked at her in surprise.

Mrs. Dallas brightened up.

"A French girl?"

"No; an English girl!"

"That is good. What is her name?"

"Euphemia Arden."

Mrs. Dallas dropped her eyeglasses, with a click, to the floor.

"You're joking, my dear."

"No, I am not, Mrs. Dallas."

"But your papa——"

"He may think I have gone away on a visit—I do sometimes go—and he is too deeply engrossed in his writing even to miss me after the first day or two."

"It's the oddest thing I ever heard of," said Mrs. Dallas; "but I think Musadora would like you, my dear. You've a light, pleasant way with you that is very taking, and you are so agreeable. There's nothing like trying, anyhow."

And so, in spite of Juliet's faint remonstrances, Effie Arden went to be "companion" to Miss Musadora, the beauty and heiress.

Miss Harcourt was capricious, and liked everything new and out of the beaten track, and she made a pet of the slight, golden-haired girl, who fluttered like a tropical bird about her boudoir.

Mr. Pepperell's rent was promptly paid at the end of the month, and Effie's heart was as light as a feather.

"Now, dear, that you've tried the experiment and paid the rent, you will come home again, won't you?" coaxed Juliet.

But Effie gayly shook her head.

But for all that the red blood rushed like melted coral into Effie Arden's cheek, one morning, as, sitting at the piano, she heard Col. Bruce Mainwaring ask some question of Miss Harcourt, and the reply, spoken with a laugh:

"Who is she? Why, my 'companion,' to be sure! Haven't I as good right to keep a charming 'companion' as you have a yacht or a pet terrier? And she is the dearest little thing!"

After all, what should she care what Col. Mainwaring thought of her?

"You are growing thin, my dear," said Miss Musadora. "What's the matter? Your cheeks are not half so much like pink verbenas as they used to be. I shall take you to Eastbourne."

"I won't go," said Effie, resolutely.

"You are an obstinate little thing," said Miss Harcourt, "and I shall have to let you have your own way. But one thing you shall do. Lie down for an hour; I know your head aches."

And to this Effie consented.

The hour had not yet expired, when Miss Musadora came up to her room, breathless and eager.

"Darling, what do you think?"

"I don't think anything," sleepily murmured Effie, who had just begun to sink into the drowsy poppy-thicket of dream-land.

"Oh, but you will, when I tell you. Colonel Mainwaring is downstairs."

"Is he?" Effie sat up, pushing the bright hair back from her blue-veined temples. "Well, what is that to me?"

"A good deal. He has made a proposal!"

"To you?"

"After a sort of prosy fashion, yes. Only think, I had just made up my mouth to speak the sweetly faltering 'Yes,' when he had the audacity to tell me it wasn't me he wanted to marry at all, but you!"

"Me!"

"Yes me! And now you must jump up and go down to see him, for the horrid, determined fellow won't take 'No' for an answer! 'No; don't brush your hair; it looks exactly like a wreath of sunbeams about your head, and your eyes shine like blue stars; and if I were Col. Mainwaring I'd marry you too."

And Miss Musadora gave Effie a congratulatory hug and kiss.

"Well!" she cried, breathlessly, when Effie came up again, after what seemed the longest half hour she (Musadora) ever had existed through, "how is it? Did you say yes?"

"Of course I said 'Yes, Musadora'" whispered Effie, hiding her flushed face on the heiress's shoulders.

A Growl.

This old earth is ours,
  When it first left the shop
Where the planets and worlds are all made,
  May have been a "Jim Dandy"—
The best of the lot,
  That had left there in half a decade.

But the bloom of its youth,
  So the wise men all say,
Has long since been rubbed off its face,
  It's old and it's cranky,
And the deuce is to pay,
  While the weather is all out of place.

The rain and the snow,
  The sunshine and wind,
On life almost loosen our hold;
  For with doctors and drugs,
And things of that kind,
  There is no fun at home with a cold.

—Texas Siftings.

COUGHS SUITS ARE RELIABLE

MONSTER
Stock Taking SALE!

The Most Gigantic Slaughter of Odds and Ends ever held in Canada.

In order to clear out stock we will sell at less than cost a Lot of Odd Garmemts. They are in every respect regular goods and splendid values.

To See is to Buy. Come and See.

GOUGH BROTHERS,

The Clothiers, 377 [illegible] George

WM. FITZGERALD,

Builder, Contractor and Jobber.

Contracts taken for all work connected with erection of new buildings, repairs or rebuilding. Twenty-five years experience. First-class work according to plans and specifications guaranteed. Estimates furnished for any description of work. Good dry material always on hand. Best of references given as to excellence of work and despatch.

Building Lots For Sale

in different localities. Most desirable sites for houses. This is the time to buy and build. Lots sold and houses built thereon on terms to suit buyers. Easy terms of payment. Several good houses and lots for sale. Every one looking for a bargain should see these. WM. FITZGERALD, 124, corner of Dublin and Water-sts.
P.O. Box 676, Peterborough. d26 w22-1y

"HARVARD"

"In twenty years experience as a druggist, I have never handled a remedy giving such satisfaction as does Harvard Bronchial Syrup." J. J. Perry, Napanee, Ont.—"Have used it myself with the greatest results, and know many sufferers from Bronchial Trouble, who have been completely cured by it." J. C. McInnes, Montreal.

HAGGART & KIDD

TOWN and COUNTY } Auctioneers,
COMMISSION and SHIPPING } Merchants,
REAL ESTATE and INSURANCE } Agents.

☛ Money to Loan.

SAWS Filed and Gummed in First Class Style. Knives, Scissors, Tools, &c., ground and sharpened. S. W. ENGLISH, shop, 129 Charlotte-st. d13-w1y

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins, by grocers, labelled thus:

JAMES EPPS & CO., Homoeopathic Chemists, London, England. w22-d44-6m

"HARVARD"

Harvard Bronchial Syrup emanates from the Medical Faculty of Harvard University, the best medical skill in America, and has proved to be the most wonderful cure for all Throat Troubles and Coughs resulting from sudden Colds. Pleasant to the taste. A [illegible] free from injurious ingredients. Large bottles [illegible], half the price of inferior remedies.
A. J. Laurence, Montreal, Prop. for Canada.
By all dealers.

REMOVAL.

DR. CARMICHAEL

has removed to his new office and residence, corner of Water and Brock-sts. (opposite the Court House. d146-w22-3mo

TOOLS!
BUILDING HARDWARE!

NAILS, LOCKS, HINGES,
and all Building Hardware

Edge Tools, Saws, Files, Planes
and all Mechanics' Tools.

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc., etc.
of the Best Quality and
Lower in Price than Elsewhere

GEO. STETHEM.

BLANK FORMS

Deeds,
Mortgages,
Home Leases,
Farm Leases,
Agreements,
Short form ot Lease
Lease of Land,
Magistrates Blanks,
Division Court Blanks,
etc., etc.,

Printed on good paper and correct forms.
AT THE
REVIEW Stationery

Bell Telephone Co.,
OF CANADA.
Capital, - $1,500,000.00.

Head Office, MONTREAL.

AND. ROBERTSON, — President.
C. F. SISE, — Vice-Pres. and Man'g. Dir.
C. P. SCLATER, Secy.-Treas.
HUGH C. BAKER, Man., Ont. Dep., Hamilton.

300 EXCHANGES.

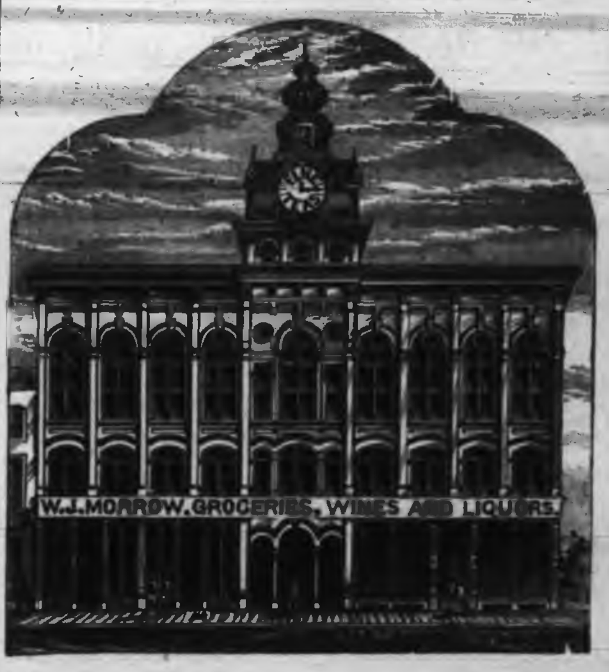
Long distance lines give unequalled facilities for talking between cities, towns and villages.

If you wish to speak to Kingston, Belleville Port Hope, Lindsay, Lakefield, Millbrook, Omemee, Toronto, Hamilton, etc., use the wires of the

BELL TELEPHONE Co.

H. W. KENT,
Local Manager
d46-6mo

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW



W.J.MORROW, GROCERIES, WINES AND LIQUORS

BIG TEA and COFFEE HOUSE

IN THE MARKET!

1.—I have sold out the City Hotel to Wm. Clancy, in 19 minutes.

2.—I have sold out Faren & Co, Billiard Room etc., to Faren & Co. in 13 minutes.

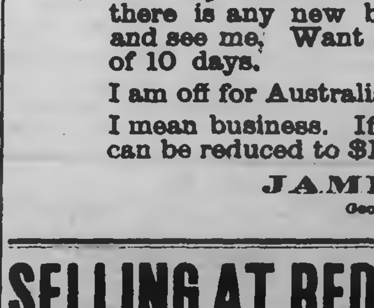
3.—The Dry Goods Stock is in the Market. If there is any new blood for this offer call and see me, Want to dispose of it inside of 10 days.

I am off for Australia early next month.

I mean business. If the stock is too large can be reduced to $1,000 in 30 days.

JAMES DOLAN,
George Street, Peterborough.

SELLING AT REDUCED PRICES



We are offering our Stock of Manufactured Furs at cost, previous to stock taking. The stock comprises a choice assortment of Ladies' and Gents fine Fur Collars, Cuffs, Capes, Caps, Gauntlets and Coats. Also a few Musk Ox, Bear, Oppossum and Goat Robes.

CALL AND BE CONVINCED.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.
Manufacturing Furriers.

DO YOU LIKE
Biscuits?

Most likely you do. There's a deal of difference in Biscuits. Quality is an important item. A good biscuit should be fresh, crisp and of good flavor. Here's what will suit you. Try the English biscuit, made by Huntley & Palmer the famous makers. Imported by us and guaranteed genuine.
Ask for Huntley & Palmer's biscuits.

W. J. MASON
426 GEORGE STREET.
☞No trouble to show Goods.

Valentines!

14th FEBRUARY,
St. Valentine's Day

Don't Forget the Occasion and Don't Forget the Fact that you will find the CHOICEST SELECTION
—OF—VALENTINES
—AT—
H. Thompson
& Co's.,
406 George-st., Peterboro',
Stationers, Booksellers and Wall Paper Dealers.

The Daily Review.
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1891.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

The Weather Report.

Mr. Thos. Telford reports:—The thermometer at sunrise this morning stood 1 degree below zero.

The East Equal Righters.

At a meeting of Equal Righters in Norwood on Wednesday Mr. A. E. Kidd was asked to stand and consented conditionally.

Winter Races.

Gentlemen interested in trotting in Peterborough have arranged for races to take place here on Feb. 25th and 26th. The arrangements are in good hands and everything will be done to make the sport a success.

The Campaign Opened.

Mr. Burnham and Mr. Stevenson addressed a meeting at Lakefield on Wednesday night. There was a good attendance Mr. Burnham spoke first, dwelling upon the issues of the campaign, and Mr. Stevenson followed. Both gentlemen were well received and Lakefield and vicinity will give a good account of itself on March 5th.

Entertaining the Trades.

On Tuesday evening the first of a series of receptions which the Y. M. C. A. intend giving to the different trades of the town, was held. The employees of the printing offices and book binding establishments were the first to enjoy the hospitality of the Association. Games were provided for the amusement of the newspaper employees who attended, while music and pleasant sociability made the evening pass pleasantly. The ladies of the Auxiliary provided refreshments. The mechanics and others of the town will appreciate such hospitality and generous entertainment.

Ready for To-night.

This evening the first presentation of the beautiful cantata, "Esther," will be given in the Opera House. Last evening a rehearsal in costume was given in the Opera House, and the successful presentation of the musical event of the season was assured. The brilliant costumes, the full chorusce and the beautifully rendered solos and duets were all delightedly eulogized by those who witnessed the rehearsal. There will undoubtedly be a crowded house to-night to witness the Cantata. Prof. Ketcham has labored most energetically to make the cantata a success, and the ladies and gentlemen who are taking part have aided him by close and attentive practice.

The Lenten Lectures at St. John's.

The first of the series of Wednesday evening lectures which has been arranged to be delivered at St. John's church during Lent was given last evening by Rev. Dr. Sweeny, rector of St. Philip's church, Toronto. There was a large attendance and the lecture was listened to with the greatest attention throughout. A short service was held first and the address began at 8.30. The subject was "Our Example and Influence," and for three-quarters an hour the rev. gentleman, who is an eloquent speaker, held the interest of audience. His remarks went to show that as in nature everything had a relation one to the other, so with man. The example of one had an influence on another.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your Cough. It never fails. d16w4-6mo

AN UNFRUITFUL CONVENTION.

The Liberals of West Peterborough Meet But do not Make a Choice.

The mass meeting of the Liberals of West Peterborough which was held in the Opera House Wednesday afternoon to select a candidate to carry the Liberal banner in the present Dominion election failed to result in a choice.

The meeting was attended by between two and three hundred electors, many of whom were attracted by curiosity. Mr. Michael Sanderson, President of the Liberal Association, was in the chair. The meeting opened with a number of speeches the object of which was evidently to prolong proceedings. Mr. J. R. Stratton, M. P.P., Dr. Bell, Mr. Peter Hamilton and Walter Paterson were the speakers. Then nominations were commenced and Messrs. Hamilton, Dr. Bell, Dr. Goldsmith, Dr. Caldwell, Walter Paterson, Michael Sanderson and Richard Hall were duly nominated in turn. All these, except Mr. Richard Hall, declined at once in favor of that gentleman, who was not present at the time. A deputation was appointed to wait upon Mr. Hall and left the hall upon their mission.

Then Messrs. Dr. Goldsmith, Wm. Graham, of Smith, and Wm. Cumming, of Ennismore, filled in the time during the wait with speeches which, to say the best for them, were highly amusing.

In due time the deputation, accompanied by Mr. Hall, returned and broke in upon Mr. Cumming's speech which was consequently cut short. Mr. Hall in a few words declined the nomination and Mr. Peter Hamilton was again pressed to accept it. Mr. Hamilton, however, again declined, as he said he had done from the first time the request had been made of him. He suggested Dr. Bell as a man who would make a good run.

Mr. T. G. Hazlitt then came to the relief of the meeting and suggested that under the circumstances the wisest course would be to adjourn. This was acted upon and a committee consisting of Messrs. Peter Hamilton, T. G. Hazlitt, F. Fairen and Michael Sanderson were appointed to wait upon the "eligible men" and report at an adjourned meeting of the convention to be held on Saturday.

The meeting then dispersed quietly, without a cheer.

CURLING CHIT-CHAT.

Two Rinks Defeated by One Shot—A Lindsay Banquet.

For the second time Port Hope curlers won a victory over Peterborough men. Wednesday the two rinks that played in Port Hope were defeated by 1 shot. It was a close result. The ice was in fair condition. The rinks and scores were as follows:—

PETERBOROUGH	PORT HOPE
Rink No. One.
J. McClelland	Capt. Henning
J. H. Burnham	Capt. Caldwell
W. H. Bedden	Capt. Nixon
T. P. Attrill, s'p..12	E. J. W. Barton, s'p..21
Rink No. Two.
C. McGill	Patterson, jr.
T. Rutherford	D. H. Philp
S. Ray	J. P. Clewes
Geo. Brown, s'p..26	A. Philp, skip....18
Total..........38	Total..........39

Majority for Port Hope 1 shot.

Another game in the Lindsay-Peterborough challenge cup series will be played on Tuesday next. That is the day upon which the new famous Skip Flavelle will return home and grand preparations are being made to give him a reception. Bands, cheering citizens with flaring torches, etc., will meet him at the station and escort him to a banquet which will be worthy of a king. The Peterborough curlers have received invitations to the banquet.

BRICKLAYERS ON STRIKE.

The Men Employed on the Edison Building Quit Work.

Yesterday the bricklayers who have been working on the walls of the Edison Company's buildings went out on strike. They made a demand of 32½ cents an hour and this the Company refused to consider. The men accordingly quit work and are walking round to-day. There are no indications of a settlement at present. Some four or five bricklayers are still working with a few laborers.

Personal.

Mrs. E. H. Brintnell, of New Lothrop, Mich., is in town visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Minore.

Miss Kittie Hurley, of Peterborough, says the Hastings Star, has organized a music class in town, with rooms in the Star block.

The Hastings Star says:—Mrs. W. J. Green, of Peterborough, has been visiting at Mrs. D. V. Waite's during the past week

Fruit Growers Association.

New members are constantly sending in their names and the Secretary does not intend to stop until he has the name of every fruit grower in the country. Owing to the elections the general meeting will be postponed until about the 19th of March. All those who are already subscribers to the "Horticulturist" may join without extra charge. It is expected that there will be a couple of able speakers on fruit culture at the meeting in march.

Brevities.

—There was a blank at the police court his morning.

—The convention of farmers is to be held at Harwood to-morrow to further discuss the sugar beet industry.

—A farmer's team, attached to a load of hay, took fright on Lock-st. yesterday afternoon and ran away, overturning the load but doing no serious damage.

APSLEY AFFAIRS.

Correspondence of the Review.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.—Good sleighing. Two new arrivals in the village last week. Warden Elmhirst has returned home from attending the County Council W. R. Kidd was in the village a few days ago with a large wolf hide and scalp that he killed in Anstruther. He received an order on the County Treasurer for the bounty. Mr. J. J. Crow, the new license inspector, was here on official business. D. M. Anderson left last week for Tilsonburg to take a position in the large dry goods house of Northway & Anderson. We wish him success. An effort was made to get telephone connection to Apsley, but the distance seems to be against us at present.

Some Foolish People

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c and $1. Trial size free. At all druggists.

Health by Good Living.

For your choicest beef, mutton, lamb, pork, ham, breakfast bacon, spiced roll of sausage, etc., go to John J. Howden, 461 George-st. Bacon sold by actual weight. d1stf

SPREADING THE LIGHT.

A SOCIETY WHOSE WORK IS OVERLOOKED.

The Annual Meeting of the Bible Society—A Gradual Decrease in Subscriptions—The Annual Reports and Officers for the Year—Addresses Delivered.

Only about once a year is the local branch of the Upper Canada Bible Society brought before the public and that is on the occasion of the annual meeting. This event took place on Wednesday evening in the George-st. church and the attendance was pronounced the largest that was remembered in several years of the history of the Society. The body of the church was filled. The unusual attendance was probably attracted by the announcement that Rev. Mr. Milligan, of Toronto, would address the meeting. In this they were doomed to disappointment, for a telegram was received shortly before the meeting stating that the Toronto divine had "missed the train." This was generally regretted when it was announced. The notable feature in the report was the falling off in the subscriptions, which, as Mr. Shorey showed, have been gradually growing less each year. This unfortunate fact was mentioned by the speakers and the hope was expressed that next year the reports would show better results.

Sheriff Hall presided as chairman and with him on the platform were Rev. E. F. Torrance, pastor of St. Paul's; Rev. M. J. Shorey, of the Charlotte-st. Methodist church; and Rev. J. H. Locke, the George-st. Methodist pastor. The choir of the church were present and rendered several excellent anthems during the service. The meeting opened with devotional exercises.

THE ANNUAL REPORT.

Rev. Mr. Shorey was called upon to read the annual report of the Secretary, Mr. J. D. Collins, who was unable to be present on account of illness. The rev. gentleman prefaced the report with a few remarks expressing his sympathy in the general disappointment felt at the absence of Rev. Mr. Milligan, but he said they had reason to rejoice, as he was told that the attendance was the largest seen at an annual meeting of the Society in years. He then read the report as follows:—

Annual Report of the Committee of the Peterborough Branch of the Upper Canada Bible Society for 1890:

Your Committee submit herewith the statement of the depository and of the treasurer, the first showing a balance of $118 30 carried forward on the present occasion, as compared with $126.90 brought forward from the preceding year, and the latter statement showing that the sum of $66 each has been presented to the Upper Canada and British and Foreign Bible Societies—the total collections for the year being only $116.53. This sum was augmented by the sum of $12.75, which was collected in the Hall settlement in 1889, and was not sent to the treasurer in time to be forwarded to Toronto for that year.

The treasurer's statements show a steady decrease to the Society for some years past, and it appears to your Committee that unless some extra means are used to lay the claims of the Society before the people of the town and county, and some improvement made in the manner of collecting for the Society, that the total subscriptions of the town and county will soon dwindle down to a very small sum.

Your Committee recommend the appointment of the following officers and committees for the year 1891:—

PRESIDENT—Sheriff Hall.
VICE-PRESIDENTS—All the ministers of the Gospel.
SECRETARY—J. D. Collins.
TREASURER—C. McGill.
DEPOSITORY—Peter Connal & Co.
COMMITTEE—John Wright, C. C. Rowse, Dr. Fife, Samuel Curtis and Dr. Bell.

THE DECREASE.

Mr. Shorey, referring to the decrease in the contribution, said that in 1884 the total subscriptions had amounted to $380, in 1886 to $217, in 1887 to $278, in 1888 and 1889 to $116. How, he asked was this decrease from $380 in 1884 to $116 in 1890? He could not explain the decrease in a time that was decreasing. The report was then adopted.

The following were the statements submitted:

ABSTRACT OF DEPOSITORY.
PETERBOROUGH, Feb. 9th, 1891.

1890.
Jan. 21.	To balance carried forward.....	$126 90
1891.
Feb. 9.	To books received during the year—63 Bibles and 50 Testaments—value..............	29 60
	By books on hand—60 Bibles and 55 Testaments—value..........	97 82
	Cash paid Toronto Society.......	29 60
	Freight..........................	50
	Grants, Y. M. C. A..............	5 10
	Grants, Ladies' Aid St. Paul's church............................	3 00
	Cash on hand.....................	20 48
		$156 50

There has been issued from the Depository 144 Bibles and 61 Testaments during the year.

Present value of the Depository:

In Books..............................	$ 97 82
" Cash................................	20 48
Total....................................	$118 30
Freight and Grant...................	8 60
	$126 90
Value of Depository last year........	$126 90
To Balance carried forward to next year's account..........................	$118 30

PETER CONNAL & Co.,
Depository.

THE FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

C. McGill, Treasurer, in account with the Peterborough Bible Society:—

DR.

To balance from last year..............	$ 7 28
Received from S. Curtis, town collector.	22 00
" " Auburn....................	3 25
" " Porter Settlement.........	8 25
" " Town Hall, Monaghan.......	13 00
" " Beck church, Douro........	3 00
" " Hall Settlement...........	17 00
" " " " 1889.............	12 75
" " 4th con. Smith, W. Graham, collector....................	3 00
" " I. Richardson, town collector........................	25 50
" " collection from annual meeting.........................	8 57
	$136 68

CR.

By W. H. Robertson, printing..........	$ 1 00
" T. Fitzgerald, livery to Bethany....	1 50
" John Porter, amount overpaid by him.....................................	50
" J. R. Stratton, printing.............	1 20
" REVIEW P. & P. Co., printing........	2 15
" Upper Canada Bible Society........	66 00
" British and Foreign Bible Society...	66 00
Balance on hand..........................	3 67
	$136 68

C. McGILL,
Treasurer.

THE WORK BEING DONE.

Rev. E. F. Torrance, after the choir had rendered another anthem, gave an interesting address taking the Bible as the basis of his remarks, pointing out its greatness and surpassing excellence over all other great works and referring to the honor men enjoyed of getting acquainted with God by studying His Word. They were in debt to those who had not the Bible and should pay the debt by sending it to them. He spoke of the commendable objects of the Bible Society which was undenominational and carried the Gospel to every land. The rev. gentleman closed by reading extracts from the annual report of the parent Society showing what great work for good was being done by the colporteurs of the Society in France, Spain and Germany. Truly, he said, they would admit that the Society was doing a good work and surely they would do all they could to help on the work. He regretted the decrease in the subscriptions and said the great drawback was in getting a few prominent laymen to take an interest in the Society and lend help and counsel. He suggested the division of the town into districts and having earnest men to take up the work. If this was done their subscriptions would soon be back to the old figures. He appealed to the leading laymen to come forward and help the workers.

After a collection had been taken up, the Chairman said one reason of the decrease of subscriptions to the Society in Peterborough was the lack of interest born of a lack of knowledge of the workings of the Society. He wanted to see more information regarding the work given at the meetings and in this way awaken interest in the Society. He asked for any suggestions as to the modes of collecting.

Mr. Dumble suggested that an interest be awakened by special sermons on the work in the different churches. It was also suggested that the town be divided into districts and twelve or fourteen collectors be appointed, one to take charge of a district.

The meeting closed, without any decisive action.

LAKEFIELD LOCALS.

A Meeting of the Village Council—Other Notes.

Correspondence of the Review.

VILLAGE COUNCIL.—The Town Council met in the Town Hall on Monday night. The Reeve in the chair; all the members present. Minutes of the last regular meeting and an adjourned meeting read and confirmed. A communication was read from the Auditors recommending that a ledger be kept by the Treasurer, and making other suggestions for the consideration of the Council.—Referred to the Finance Committee. Communications were also read from Mr. Isaac Watson, Jas. Campbell, Wm. Doidge and W. McDonald, stating that they were candidates for the office of Assessor, &c., in case the Council combined said offices.—Received. Considerable discussion took place on the advisability of amalgamating the offices, Councillors Hull and Richardson favoring the idea, while Councillors Moore and Lillicrap opposed. The matter then dropped, the Council proceeding to the appointment of an Assessor, the by-law receiving its several readings, passed and was sealed and signed. Mr. R. G. Cotton was appointed at a salary of $35.00. A by-law to appoint a Board of Health for 1891 received its several readings, passed and was sealed and signed, Messrs. C. J. Blomfield, Robert Graham and John Isbister being appointed. A by-law to fix the sum to be paid for tavern and shop licenses received its several readings, passed and was sealed and signed. Tavern licenses $140, shop licenses. Councillor Hull presented the Finance report recommending the payment of the following accounts:

Dr. Bell, election supplies..................	$1 50
Hart & Co..................................	3 50
G. A. Milne, printing.......................	3 00
J. L. Simpson, clearing snow...............	9 50
Isaac Watson, wages........................	8 50
Jas. Campbell, constable...................	3 75
	$32 13

The report was adopted. The council then adjourned to meet at the call of the Reeve.

HONOR ROLLS.—Following are the honor rolls of the Lakefield Public Schools for the month of January, W. J. Campbell, principal:—

Ward: Part II—Emmerson Moore, James Sullivan, Rollie Morrison. Part I—George Whatley, Olive Graham, Ida Robson.

Dept. IV: Part II Sr.—Lizzie Noyes, Willie Johnston, Walter Brown. Part II Jr.—Jimmie Quinn, Annie Wannamaker, Lillie Martin. Part I A.—Emma Smith, Ethel McIlmoyl, Ina Millage. Part I B.—George Moodie, Norman Bell, Louise Bell.

Dept. III: Second Sr.—Alma Stinson, Effie Wynne, Lizzie McCormack. Second Jr.—Robert Nicholas, Gordon Hendren, Bernard Dench.

Dept. II: Third Sr.—W. Sullivan, Beatty Ferguson, H. Montgomery and Evelyn Chestey, Third Int.—Phœbe McCormack, Bruce Garbutt, Ethel Blomfield and May Scrimger. Third Jr.—Willie Isbister, Willie O'Connel, Winnie Johnson.

Dept. I: Fifth Sr.—Wm. Wilson, Bella Graham, David M. Hunter. Fifth Jr.—Wm. Traill, Frank Jery, Herbert Graham. Fourth Sr.—Laura Brown, Harry Morrison, Zack McIlmoyl. Fourth Jr.—Fred Stubbs, George Brown, Harry Smith.

POLITICAL.—A large number of our local politicians were at Norwood attending the two conventions held there on Tuesday.

AT LOW PRICES.—R. Graham & Son have two fine organs which they will sell at low prices in order to close out that line.

SOUTH MONAGHAN NEWS.

A Newsy Budget From Centreville and Vicinity.

Correspondence of the Review.

ENTERTAINMENT.—An entertainment, "The Life of Christ," was given at Centreville on Thursday evening, Feb. 5th. A very large crowd was present, as it was the first entertainment of the kind for quite a long period. A large sum was taken in at the doors, $60 being the amount. It was very instructive as well as entertaining.

NEW STORE.—The new store is to be opened shortly by Mr. John Byers, of Bailieboro. We think Mr. Byers will make a successful merchant and we anticipate a pleasant future for him. Hurrah for Centreville, it will be noted place yet.

RUNAWAY.—We learn that Mr. Thomas Donaldson's horses lately run away, Mr. Donaldson having a narrow escape.

USING THE SLEIGHING.—There is splendid sleighing in this locality at present, farmers are cutting and drawing wood to different places, drawing logs to the saw mills and young fellows are driving their girls around.

AFFLICTED.—We are sorry to announce to the readers of the REVIEW that Mr. Thos. Bradshaw's family are all very ill with a severe attack of the measles. We hope they will soon be able to be out.

FRAZERVILLE FACTS.

A Successful Entertainment—An Accident and Other Notes.

Correspondence of the Review.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The members of the Methodist church held a social on Tuesday evening in aid of the Sunday School and, although the evening was very stormy, the people turned out in great force, especially the children. Refreshments were served from 6 to 8 o'clock by the young ladies and gentlemen of the congregation and judging by the amount of good things that were passed around, everyone enjoyed their share. The children especially enjoyed themselves immensely. After refreshments Mr. S. Might was called to the chair. The rest of the evening was spent in singing, recitations and speeches, all of which were given in a very excellent manner, the local talent being assisted by Miss E. Soden, of Bailieboro, Miss C. Fair, of Cavan, Miss Vance and Miss Laura Vance, Millbrook, and the Rev. Mr. Dewey, of Lindsay.

ACCIDENT.—On Monday evening Mr. W. Rogers was coming home with a load of hay from his farm, and on coming down a hill the hind bob slid round sideways, causing the load to upset. He jumped off, and it being dark he fell on a rough part of the road, causing some very bad bruises and a general shaking up. We are glad to hear that he is doing nicely and will soon be around again.

BUSINESS NOTES.—Mr. R. Stewart is still speculating in beef cattle. Anyone having cattle to sell or wanting beef, it will be to their interest to call on Mr. Stewart. Our blacksmith, Mr. W. Langton, says business is brisk, owing to the frequent thaws and freezes.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is on the flood tide of popularity, which position it has reached by its own intrinsic, undoubted merit.

Sellers of Property.

Blank Deeds, Blank Mortgages, Blank Transfers, House and Land Leases, etc., on hand at the REVIEW Stationery.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

A FEARFUL EXPLOSION.

A LARGE NUMBER IN THE RUINS OF A QUEBEC FACTORY.

Thirty Bodies Have Been Recovered and Not all Out—Caused by the Explosion of a Boiler in a Worsted Factory.

By Telegraph to the Review.

QUEBEC, Feb. 12.—At about 9.45 o'clock this morning the boiler in the Quebec Worsted Company's factory at Hare Point exploded, completely destroying the engine house, about half of the building. A large number of the employees were buried in the ruins. So far thirty bodies have been take out. The work of recovering the bodies is going on actively.

To Rent.

Farms wanted to rent. Tenants supplied this year at half price. Call or write.

T. HURLEY,
d23tf 357 George-st.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. G. Gumpricht is in town Order may be left at Messrs. Taylor & McDonald's store. 1yd165

Make Your Plants Grow

and bloom by using Royal Plant Food. Sold only at Mason's Seed and Plant House, corner of Water and Brock-sts. d34

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on a trial

VOLTAIC BELT CO., Marshall, Mich.]

At it Again.

At what? Both political parties pegging away, getting ready for the fray. They say that a political contest wake's business up. That may or may not be the case, but which ever party wins there is the reflection that winners and losers also will go ahead drinking Hawley Bros. teas, the best, the purest, the cheapest that are sold. It may be convenient to forget some things in politics, but don't forget Hawley Bros teas. d31tf

The Coming Contest.

It is considered it will be of a very lively nature. Every man may have his friends in politics, but when it comes to Grit or Tory of course he must cast his vote for his party irrespective of social friendship. The same may be said in this case. Parties may have their friends, but when it comes to business and they wish to buy tea, Groceries, wines or liquors at sacrifice, w j morrow's is the place they go to. d31w7

Just So.

Anyone can strike a match, but you cannot always strike such bargains as are now being offered in groceries at Stapleton & Elcombe's. Nothing more thoroughly demoralizes the domestic machinery than impure teas or stale groceries. By purchasing your groceries from this firm you may depend upon having everything fresh and good. Call and be convinced. d31a7

PASHA is the name of the popular pen. Seven styles to suit all hands. Try them. Sold at the REVIEW Stationery.

The Seals Not Dying Out

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 11.—According to officers of the Bear and well-informed gentlemen familiar with the subject, the statements of the Treasury agents on the Seal Islands presented to Congress to-day are biassed. The agents, Nettleton and Goff, left the islands in July and do not know anything about the seals after that time.

In September, October and November thousands of seals were on the rookeries, more than in June and July. The story that the natives are suffering is untrue.

The Lease had plenty of flour and all kinds of food. Before the cutter Bear left in November over 3,500 seals were killed on St. George and 3300 on St. Paul's Island for winter food.

An Army Killed by Snakes.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—The latest official statistics from India show that in 1888 22,979 people were killed by snakes and wild beasts, as well as 76,271 cattle. Of the former number 20,571 deaths were due to snake bites, 973 to tigers, 184 to leopards, 139 to wolves, 110 to bears, 57 to elephants, and the remainder to dogs, crocodiles and other animals.

HARVEY.

Correspondence of the Review.

SCHOOL REPORT.—The following is the report for the month of February of S.S. No. 5, Harvey, of which Miss Annie E. Cookson is teacher:

Fourth Book, Sr.—1 Lottie Purser, 2 Eliza Purser.
Fourth Book, Jr.—1 Eva McIlmoyle.
Second Book, Sr.—1 Amelia Montgomery, 2 Johnnie Purser, 3 Emma J. Copeland.
Second Book, Jr.—1 Ettie McIlmoyle, 2 Lucy Montgomery, 3 Maggie Eastwood.
Part Second Book.—1 Henry Montgomery 2 Rose Trennum, 3 Sarah J. Montgomery.
Part First Book.—1 Harry McIlmoyle, 2 Johnnie Eastwood, 3 Jessie Montgomery.

DOURO.

Correspondence of the Review.

SCHOOL REPORT.—The following is the standing of pupils of S. S. No. 7, Douro, during the month of January:

First Class.—1 John J Allen, 2 Annie Walsh, 3 Aggie O'Brien.
Third Class.—1 Mary Walsh, 2 Katie O'-Brien, 3 Joseph Leahy.
Sr. Second.—1 Minnie Towns, 2 Mary O'Brien, 3 Eddie Towns.
Jr. Second.—1 Lottie O'Brien, 2 Bat. Leahy, 3 John O'Brien.
Sr. Part Second.—1 Joseph O'Connor, 2 Joseph Allen, 3 Joseph Condon.
Jr-Part Second.—1 Paul Towns, 2 Thos. F. O'Brien.

Sleep.

What sleep is no one knows. The prevailing theory as to its nature is that of the physiologist, Preyer, who holds that refuse matter accumulates in the nervous centres in such quantities as to bring about insensibility, which continues until the brain has been relieved of the waste matter by its absorption into the circulation.

Whatever feats of endurance men may accomplish, they cannot live long without sleeping. Under every condition of bodily and mental suffering, men sleep. Those condemned to die, although they fear their fate, generally sleep the night before execution. Soldiers have been known to sleep when on a long and wearisome march while walking in the ranks, or lying on a bed of stones, or in the mud and water.

The question is often asked, "How long can a man live without sleep?" The victim of the Chinese "walking torture" seldom survives more than ten days. Those condemned to die by the waking torture are given all they wish to eat and drink, but sleep is denied them.

Whenever the poor victim closes his eyes he is jabbed with spears and sharp sticks until he is awake. There is no torture more horrible.

Remember the Cantata
To night,
First Performance.
A Grand Presentation.
Come To-night.

An Acrostic—Excuse the Rhyme.
From Greenland's icy
And India's coral strand [mountains
The Foresters' great carnival
Will draw a mighty band
Of divers sorts of people,
To this cold, country strange,
The black, the white from east from west,
And from the widest mountain range,—
You understand!

Come one! Come all!
Come short And tall,
And view the grand array.
Don't stay at home,
But give the sum—
A quarter will pave the way
There'll be thousands of skaters,
And millions of spectators,
(More or less.)
The date—Friday, Feb. 20th. 2d125

I Will Give You

The best bargains in groceries in Peterborough. My stock is new and goods ar all first-class. Just received a nice line of Japan Tea I am selling at 25c per lb. Special discounts to hotels, boarding houses and parties purchasing goods in large quantities. Alex. Elliott, 363 George-st. Peterborough. d30 parties still hold the boards.' We have a lot of good playing cards at 25c. a pack, or 5 for $1.00. These are worth 40c. each.

"PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE"

SAILSBURY BROS.

A POLITICAL SCENE
On George-St.

A trio of anxious aspirants discussing the issues of the campaign.
One advocates "Free Trade."
Another wants "Reciprocity."
The third clamors for "Protection."

DOLAN THE CLOTHIER

Happens along and puts an end to the debate by remarking: "Gentlemen—judging from the general appearance of your wearing apparel," permit me to say that you all need clothes. The meeting broke up and adjourned to headquarters for clothing.
They were shown Suits from $6 to $25.
They looked at Overcoats from $4 to $24.
They saw Pantaloons from $1 to $10.
Finally they all bought a whole outfit. The white oak plank in our platform caught them solid, viz:—

One Price, a Low Price
AND SQUARE DEALING.

Let others be guided by the wisdom of the above gentlemen, and remember
That we don't want your votes,
But we do want your notes
—AT—
DOLAN'S.

GEO. B. SPROULE,
ARTIST & PHOTOGRAPHER,
GROUND FLOOR,
170 Charlotte-st. - - - - - Peterborough.
FRAMES & PICTURE MOULDINGS.

—ONTARIO—
Planing Mills!

Planing, Matching, Mouldings, Band Sawing & Turning, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Storm Sash.

JAMES Z. ROGERS.

SHILOH'S
CONSUMPTION
CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. All druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are placing a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have a Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup, or Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

"Hello there, Brown, where are you going in such a hurry?"

"Why, I am going to J. J. Turner to get a pair of the fine Waterproof Horse Covers he makes. I tell you they are the finest I have seen. He also makes Wagon Covers, Lap Rugs, Clothing, &c.

"You want the address; all right,

J. J. TURNER,
The Tent and Awning Maker, corner of George and King-sts., Peterborough.
Telephone day or night.

CAKES!

For a Good Cake, leave your orders at

Long Bros.

Also home-made cakes iced and nicely Ornamented. Wedding Breakfasts and Evening Parties Catered for. Oyster Patties made to order. Our stock of Candies is pure and made by ourselves.

No. 286 and 414 George-st.

"It is the Safest and Fairest Policy I Have Ever Seen,"

Was the remark made by a prominent representative of one of the largest and best American Life Insurance Companies, when he had carefully examined

THE ORDINARY LIFE POLICY OF
—THE—
TEMPERANCE and GENERAL
LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y.

This is the only policy offered to the Canadian public that can neither lapse nor expire as to its paid-up value till death ensues, after three annual premiums have been paid on it.

Our Limited Payment Life Policy, or Instalment Bonds, Our Common Sense Renewable Term Policies, and our Survivors' Endowment Bonds are all possessed of new and excellent features and are all worthy of careful consideration.

Agents Wanted.

H. P. LINDSAY,
Gen. Agent for Peterborough, Northumberland and Durham, Office No. 328 George-st., opposite new market building.

LIME!

First quality Lime, in any quantity, for sale and delivered to any part of the town. Builders, contractors, etc. supplied promptly at current prices. Lime house, at G.T.R. Station.

A. RUTHERFORD.

PACKING HOUSE STORE!

For a Choice Selection of Smoked Sugar Cured Meats and Bacon
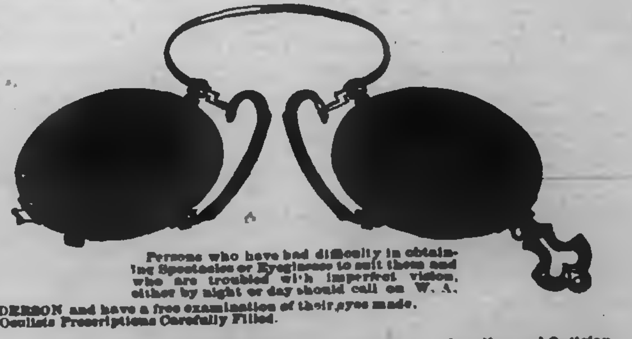
LARD, guaranteed pure, in any quantity.
GEORGE MATTHEWS
356 George Street, Peterborough.



Persons who have had difficulty in obtaining Spectacles or Eyeglasses to suit them and who are troubled with imperfect vision, either by night or day should call on W. A. SANDERSON and have a free examination of their eyes made.
Oculists Prescriptions Carefully Filled.

W. A. SANDERSON, Jeweller and Optician, Peterborough, Ont.
EYESIGHT TESTED.

THE STANDARD LIFE
Assurance Company,
ESTABLISHED 1832

Subsisting Assurances .... $102,250,000.
Invested Funds .... 34,000,000.
Annual Income .... 4,500,000.
Bonuses Distributed .... 22,000,000.
The Funds Invested in Canada amount to nearly .... $8,000,000.
Deposited with Dominion Government at Ottawa 1,100,000

All plans of Assurance. Non Forfeitable Policies. Absolutely unconditional policies from date of issue without extra charge. Absolute security. Rates compare favorably with any first-class Company)

W. M. RAMSAY, [illegible]
A.V.R. YOUNG, General Agent, and Inspector for Midland District, [illegible]
C. CAMERON,
MULLHOLLAND & ROPER, [illegible]

Choicest Brands
—OF—
FLOUR!
BAKERS and PASTRY
—AT—
MELDRUM & DAVIDSON'S
Quality Guaranteed.
FEED:
All kinds always on hand. Orders left at Ormond & Walsh's or McDonald's drug stores will be promptly attended to.
Mill Telephone No. 106.
LOWEST PRICES FOR CASH.

The Daily Review.
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1891.

A Boy's Mother.

My mother, she's so good to me,
Ef I was good as I could be,
I couldn't be as good—no, sir!
Can't any boy be good as her!

She loves me when I'm glad er mad;
She loves me when I'm good er bad;
An' what's a funniest thing, she says
She loves me when she punishes.
I don't like her to punish me;
That don't hurt, but it hurts to see
Her cryin'—nen I cry; an' nen
We both cry—an' be good again.

She loves me when she cuts and sews
My little cloak and Sunday clothes;
An' when my pa comes home to tea,
She loves him 'most as much as me.

She laughs an' tells him all I said,
An' grabs me up an' pats my head;
An' I hug her an' hug my pa,
An' love him purt' nigh much as ma.
—James Whitcomb Riley.

A LIFE'S TURNING POINT.

Wallace Arnold had reached middle age. He had a wife—one of the most faithful and loving of wives—and four children. These children, inheriting from both father and mother, good mental and physical points were remarkable for their excellent traits of character, and in the school, and in the social circle, they occupied positions of the highest rank. Wallace was a machinist by trade, and by the invention of several useful articles, upon which he had secured patents, he had managed to make considerable money without very hard work. Yet he worked hard enough sometimes. He was not afraid of work, though there were times when his work was sadly neglected.

In a word, Wallace Arnold was in the habit of yielding to the spirit of dissipation. When the evil spell was upon him his manhood was sunk, his noble character was clouded, his wife and children were forgotten, and the entreaties of friends were unheeded; and he seemed to be going on from bad to worse.

Wallace's family suffered more than tongue can tell. When his children had been younger—when too young to realize the degradation—the darkness at home had been less, but now that they were old enough to feel the shame, the suffering was intense; and this was not all. Wallace Arnold's mother suffered with an aching heart. He was her first born, and her favorite; and now that her head was tinged with the silver of age, it was hard to see her noble boy so fallen. On her bended knees she prayed—prayed daily—that God would save her son; and in the holy depths of her mother's soul she cherished the hope that all would yet be well.

It was in early spring, before the snow had gone from the New England hills, and Wallace Arnold's mother was visiting him. He went away to a neighboring town on business and came home drunk, and for nearly a week he continued the debauch. On Sunday morning the family met in sorrow and distress. Wallace was not able to be up, and breakfast was eaten sadly without him. After breakfast his wife and his mother went into the little sitting-room, leaving the children in the kitchen. The bedroom was close at hand, where Wallace lay apparently slumbering under the prostrating influence of his debauch. His mother crept to his bedside and imprinted a kiss upon his disfigured brow. A sigh escaped from her bosom, and a hot tear fell from her eye. She glided back to the sitting-room, where she sat down by the weeping wife.

"Ellen," she said, "let us hope for the best. Wallace will not always be so."

"Alas!" replied the wife, "I can hope no more. I see what the end must be. He will never reform; he cannot. As long as he lives he will have these spells."

"No, no," said the aged mother. "It cannot be. He is too good; he is too noble. O, it will not be so! Let us treat him kindly and lovingly; let us meet him, when he joins us, as though he had not shaken our confidence."

"I will do that mother; I will do that willingly; but your hope is not my hope. I fear he will never wholly reform. The habit is too firmly fixed; it is a part of his very nature."

"No, no," cried the mother. "It is not a part of his nature. His nature is above it. It is a perversion of his nature.; and the habit is in direct antagonism to his soul. As true as God lives our beloved will yet be a man!—Don't cry, Ellen."

"Oh, I can't help it. It is dreadful! dreadful!"

Wallace Arnold had not been wholly asleep. He knew his mother came and kissed him, and he heard the conversation which had taken place in the sitting-room. His mind was yet too dull to take much impression from the words which had been spoken, but they were not to be lost from his memory. When he finally came out he was met with warm affection, and not a word was said touching his sin. A few days afterwards his mother went away, and he was strong enough to resume his work.

The month of June came, and one lowery, sultry morning Wallace announced his intention of going back among the hills after some trout. Ellen trembled like an aspen when she heard this. For nearly three months her husband had been steady at his work, and now she believed another of the fiery ordeals was to come. He never went off a-fishing without coming home the worse for liquor. As he spoke of going away she could see that he was nervous and uneasy, and that the old appetite was upon him. She knew the signs—alas! she knew them too well; and when he had collected his trouting implements, and gone away, she went to her chamber and sat down and cried.

Wallace went to the tavern and hired a horse, and he also bought a pint of brandy, which he took in a glass flask. He could not go a-fishing without the brandy. In fact, if he had told himself the truth, he would have acknowledged that he was yearning more for the liquor than for the fish. And yet he promised himself that he would not get drunk. He fancied that he would control himself, and come out all right on the next morning.

Away he went, up among the hills, to the bank of a dashing, rocky river, where he knew that trout were plenty. He fixed his pole, attached his line, and adjusted the bait; and then he sat down upon a rock and drew forth his flask. The stopper was withdrawn, and the flask was half-way to his lips; but as the fumes of the brandy reached his nostrils his hand was stayed, as though by some invisible power.

What was it?

A Sabbath morning—a mother's kiss upon his burning brow—a mother's sighing prayer—a wife's despair, and yet a wife's undying love—a mother's hope—a mother's trust in the final triumph of her son's noble soul. And now he remembered the very words his mother had spoken. They came to him, as though whispered by some angel presence; and he repeated them aloud to himself.

"It is not a part of his nature. His nature is above it. It is a perversion of his nature; and the habit is in direct antagonism to his soul. As true as God lives our beloved will yet be a man!"

As Wallace Arnold repeated these words he placed the flask carefully upon the sand, and then arose to his feet. It was one of those moments when the whole future of life hangs upon a single flash of human will. And may it not be that sometimes, when the struggling soul thus trembles in the balance, a Power mightier than that upon earth lends the weight of its saving grace?

A moment Wallace stood thus, and then he stooped, and, with both his hands, picked up a large stone. His movements were calm and deliberate; and the firm set teeth, and the swelling muscle, told how much he meant by what he was doing. The stone was raised high above his head, and then hurled down as though to crush a dragon. Half its substance was buried in the soft sand, and beneath it was the shivered flask, its flood of death drunk up by the pitying earth!

At noon the stage stopped before Wallace Arnold's door, and his mother alighted therefrom and entered the house. She had not been expected, but she was none the less welcome for that. Her face was so glad and so cheerful, and the outgushing of her warm affection was so genial, that her coming was hailed with joy and blessing.

"But, Ellen, why are you so sad?" asked the old lady, after the first warm greetings had passed. "There is a cloud upon your brow. Where is Wallace?"

"He has gone a-fishing."

The mother needed to ask no more. She knew the wife's fear.

"But, she said," "there may be no danger."

"Ah," replied Ellen, pressing her hands upon her aching heart, "I have more than simple fear. I know that he bought brandy this morning, and that he carried it with him."

"Then Heaven help him!" ejaculated the mother, bowing her head upon her folded hands.

As she spoke, the sun, which had been hidden all day long behind dark, murky clouds, burst forth with golden splendor, and a bright-winged bird, that had been crouching in the linden tree by the door, burst forth into a cheerful song. Was it this sudden change in the face of nature, or was it some mystic whisper in the mother's soul, or was it both together, that brought the warm light to her face?

The afternoon wore away, and the sun was sinking towards the western hilltops.

Hark! He is coming. It is his step upon the door-stone—his tread in the porch. The door opens—a form erect—a face proud and happy—in one hand a disjointed rod, and in the other a magnificent string of speckled trout.

"What! My mother! Oh, God bless you—I am glad you are here!"

The rod and the trout were flung down, and the son wound his stout arms about his mother's neck and kissed her, and welcomed her again and again. Then he turned to his wife, and when he had kissed her, he went and picked up his trout.

"See!" he cried, "you have come just in season to have a rich treat; and while Ellen is making ready for the cooking, I will go and clean a few of these for supper."

As he spoke he went out into the shed, and when he had got ready for work he found his wife standing by his side.

"What is it?" he asked, as he noticed how eagerly she gazed upon him.

"My darling, what is it?" he repeated, drawing his arm about her.

She rested her head upon his bosom, and burst into tears.

"Speak, love. What is it?"

"O—Wallace—my husband—I don't know! I cannot speak. O—do you tell me—what is it?"

"Give me a clew to what you mean, darling."

"You will not blame me, Wallace. I know that you went away this morning under a cloud. You carried brandy with you. One of your friends told me so."

"And now you wish to know how I have come home in the sunshine, eh? I'll tell you, Ellen."

He drew her to his bosom, and when he had kissed her he said:

"I took a devil with me this morning, but upon the river-side two angels visited me. My mother and my wife came to me—came to me as I saw and heard them on a Sabbath morning not many months ago. The devil I crushed at my feet, resolved that his power over me was at an end. The angels I took to my heart of heart, with a firm determination that their love should find me true and faithful forevermore!"

From the open doorway the gray-haired mother glided forward and hung upon the neck of her first-born, mingling her tears with those of the enraptured wife; while the sun, seeming to rest for a moment on the distant hill-top ere it closed its daily course, poured a rich flood of golden light upon the blissful scene.

That was years ago. To-day Wallace Arnold is a noble, happy man, honored and respected by all who know him. His children are proud of their father; his wife clings to him with warmest devotion, and blesses him for his truth; and his mother, with head grown whiter in years, but with heart that can never grow old, thanks God every day that her first-born is spared to her in the bloom of true and virtuous manhood.

The Morning vs. The Evening Pipe.

It hath been ofttimes debated whether the morning pipe be the sweeter, or that first pipe of the evening which "Hesperus, who bringeth all good things," brings to the weary with home and rest.

The first is smoked on a clearer palate, and comes to unjaded senses like the kiss of one's first love, but lacks that feeling of perfect fruition, of merit recompensed, and the goal and the garland won, which clings to the vesper bowl. Whence it comes that the majority give the palm to the latter. To which I intend no slight when I find the incense that arises at matins sweeter even than that of evensong. For, although with most of us who are laborers in the vineyard, toilers and swinkers, the morning pipe is smoked in hurry and fear and a sense of alarms and excursions and fleeting trains, yet with all this there are certain halcyon periods sure to arrive—Sundays, holidays, and the like—the whole joy and peace of which are summed up in that one beatific pipe after breakfast, smoked in a careless majesty like that of the gods "when they lie beside their nectar, and the clouds are lightly curled." Then only can we be said really to smoke. And so this particular pipe of the day always carries with it festal reminiscences; memories of holidays past, hopes for holidays to come; a suggestion of sunny lawns and flannels, and the ungirt loin; a sense withal of something free and stately, as of "faint march-music in the air," or the old Roman cry of "Liberty freedom, and enfranchisement."—Scot's Observer.

The heat-conducting qualities of the metals range about as follows: Silver, 100; copper, 73.60; gold, 53.20; annealed aluminum, 38.87; unannealed aluminum, 37.96; tin, 14.50; iron, 11.90; steel, 11.60; lead, 8.50; platinum, 8.40; bismuth, 1.80.

After ten years of construction an elaborate telephone system connecting all the forts and military establishments of Belgium with the City of Antwerp has just been completed. The system was specially devised to prevent the tapping of the lines by an enemy in time of war.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

An Old Habit Gone, and a More Dangerous One Introduced.

The old days of blood-letting have gone by, as the habit was considered dangerous by advanced minds. Though now acknowledged by our modern physicians to be dangerous and every unnecessary, yet blood-letting is less to be dreaded than the modern practice of morphine injecting for the relief of pain. It is difficult to make people understand that pain is often a sanitary measure. Nature cries out when cold or over-feeding clogs the liver, and rheumatism or neuralgia is the result. These deadening drugs always weaken the debilitated system, and are fraught with great danger. The use of opiates and narcotics for the relief of pain, and as a means of inducing sleep, is fearfully prevalent in our midst, and in some quarters their use is creating disaster and consternation. Pains are really the monitors of disease, and seldom should be checked by the aid of opiates. During the past year that great remedy Paine's Celery Compound was the means of rescuing from death no less than three victims of narcotics in Montreal. They had become extremely nervous, weak, emaciated and pale, they were sleepless, unless when under the influence of drugs, and were morose and listless in disposition. Their friends induced them to faithfully use Paine's Celery Compound, and the result is that they are now changed mortals. They have lost their craving for their former poisons, and now thoroughly enjoy life and society.

Best on Earth
SURPRISE
Washday
SURPRISE
EVERY WOMAN
Can save half the hard wearing-out toil of wash day and be fresh and strong. Can have clothes sweet, snowy-white, never yellow. Flannels never shrink, never rot, nor hands chap, but soft and white. Use the "Surprise" way. No boiling or scalding. Remarkable! Try it!
READ THE DIRECTIONS ON THE WRAPPER.
St. Croix Soap M'f'g. Co., St. Stephen, N.B.
SOAP
Send us 25 SURPRISE wrappers and get one of our beautiful engravings.

"Harvard"
"Harvard Bronchial Syrup has been used in my family with very great success and I have pleasure in recommending it to those who suffer from coughs as one of the best and most efficacious remedies." Rev. Thos. Harris, Ormstown, Que.

MR. SHELDRAKE'S
Private
PREPARATORY SCHOOL,
FOR BOYS,
LAKEFIELD, ONTARIO.

JOHN NUGENT,
CHEMIST AND DRUGGIST.
Prescriptions Carefully Compounded.
Try Nugent's Remedies
for Colds, Coughs and affections of the chest and throat.
J. NUGENT,
Drug Store, 179 Hunter-st. west.

TURKISH DYES
EASY TO USE.
They are Fast.
They are Beautiful.
They are Brilliant.
SOAP WON'T FADE THEM.
Have YOU used them; if not, try and be convinced.
One Package equal to two of any other make.
Canada Branch: 481 St. Paul Street, Montreal.
Send postal for Sample Card and Book of Instructions.

HARVARD
"Harvard Bronchial Syrup has been much used in our family, and we conscientiously say it is the best Cough Medicine we have ever used." Rev. J. Tallman Pitcher, Montreal. "It is the best preparation for Cough Medicine I have ever tried." Ross Robinson, C.P.R. Office, Montreal.

PASHA
STEEL PENS!
Fine Grades!
THE FAVORITE PEN FOR Business,
Correspondence,
Book-keeping
and all Writing.
If used once no others will suit.
TRY THE "PASHA" PENS.
Review Statonery

OPEN FOR INSPECTION!
A handsome and very useful line of
CASE GOODS
COMPRISING
Carver Sets,
Ladies' and Gentlemen's
COMPANIONS
These Goods are the Best English Make.
KINGAN & Co

Bookbinding!
Magazines,
Periodicals,
Illustrated Papers,
Law, Music,
and all kinds of Books Bound in the very best style of the art. First-class Material and Work. Close Prices.
REVIEW PT'G. CO.
LIMITED,
BOOKBINDERS, STATIONERS & ACCOUNT BOOK MANUFACTURERS.
350 George-st.

BLYTHE MILLS,
PETERBOROUGH
The above Mills have now been thoroughly renewed upon the complete
Hungarian Roller Process
The latest improved Rolls and flour Dressing Machines from the best manufacturing firms have been put in and everything necessary added to enable her to turn out flour.
Second to None
in the Dominion. The facilities for receiving grain from farmers and for elevating and shipping are first-class. We have
A Large Feed Stone for Custom Chopping.
Chopping done satisfactorily and without delay.
Rolled Oats for Horses
Experienced horsemen are emphatic in asserting that there is nothing equal to roller oats for horses, and to meet this demand we have had put in a machine specially adapted for this purpose.
Wheat Exchanges
Promptly attended to and
First-class Roller Flour Guaranteed.
Roller Flour, Bran, Shorts, and all kinds of Chopped Feed constantly on hand.
Highest Market Price Paid in Cash for any Quantity of Wheat.
Hilliard & Peplow.

PETERBOROUGH LOCK MANUFACT'G COMPANY.

NOTICE is hereby given that a general meeting of the Shareholders of the Peterborough Lock Manufacturing Co., (Ltd.) will be held in the Company's office, Simcoe-st., in the Town of Peterborough, on SATURDAY, the 14th DAY OF FEBRUARY, 1891, at the hour of three o'clock p.m., for the purpose of considering a By Law passed by the Directors increasing the Capital Stock of the Company to $200,000.

Dated this 2nd day of February, 1891.

GEORGE STEVENSON,
Secretary.

4478

BANK of TORONTO
Capital $2,000,000 00
Reserve Fund 1,500,000 00
PETERBORO' BRANCH.
SAVINGS BANK
SPECIAL ADVANTAGES are derived by depositing money in our Savings Bank Department.
1. "ONE DOLLAR saved is one dollar earned."
2. DEPOSITS OF ONE DOLLAR and upwards are received and interest allowed thereon.
3. INTEREST is added to the principal on the 31st day of May and 30th day of November, in each year.
4. MONEY bears interest from the day it is deposited with the Bank until the day of withdrawal.
5. THE DEPOSITOR is subject to no delay whatever.
6. THE SECURITY offered by this Bank is undoubted, as will be seen by the large reserve held and the amount of surplus available for depositors and note holders.
BUSINESS WITH FARMERS.
FARMERS' NOTES discounted at lowest rates. SPECIAL ATTENTION is given to the collection of Farmers' Sale Notes, and advances made thereon.
NOTE FORMS furnished free of charge on application.
DEPOSITS.
DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS opened subject to withdrawal by cheque on demand.
SPECIAL DEPOSITS.—Deposit Receipts issued bearing interest at current rates.
JOHN L. GOWER,
Manager.
d116-w67

Travel.
INTERCOLONIAL
RAILWAY OF CANADA.
The direct route between the west and all points on the Lower St. Lawrence and Baie de Chaleur, Province of Quebec, also New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward, Cape Breton and the Magdalene Islands, Newfoundland and St. Pierre.
Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax daily (Sunday excepted) and run through without change between these points in 30 hours.
The through express train cars of the Intercolonial Railway are brilliantly lighted by electricity and heated by steam from the locomotive.
New and elegant Buffet Sleeping and Day Cars are run on all through express trains.
The popular summer sea bathing and fishing resorts of Canada are along the Intercolonial or are reached by that route.
Canadian, European Mail and Passenger Route.
Passengers for Great Britain or the Continent leaving Montreal on Thursday morning will join outward mail steamer at Rimouski the same evening.
The attention of shippers is directed to the superior facilities offered by this route for the transport of flour and general merchandise intended for the Eastern Provinces and New Foundland, also for shipments of grain and produce intended for the European market.
Tickets may be obtained and all information about the route, also freight and passenger rates on application to
N. WEATHERSTON,
Western Freight and Passenger Agent, 93 Rossin House Block, York street, Toronto.
D. POTTINGER,
Chief Superintendent.
Railway Office, Moncton, N.B., 2nd July, 1890
ly

CANADIAN PACIFIC RY.
SETTLERS' TRAINS
WILL LEAVE ON FEBRUARY 24th, 1891
AT 9.00 P.M.
AND EVERY TUESDAY THEREAFTER DURING MARCH AND APRIL
WITH COLONIST SLEEPER ATTACHED
FOR
MANITOBA AND THE CANADIAN NORTH-WEST
For full information see any C.P.R. agent.

CLARK & GIBSON
have now on view and for sale some
VERY FINE GOODS
—CONSISTING OF—
Gold and Silver Watches, Clocks and Fine Jewellery, etc.
Moderate in Price and Newest Patterns.
Ask to see their
English Oak Goods
AND
SCOTCH PEBBLE JEWELLERY
RARE, CHOICE AND BEAUTIFUL.
WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELLERY carefully repaired.
136 Hunter-st., 2 doors west of the Post-Office.

THE
CENTRAL CANADA
Loan and Savings Co.
Authorized Capital $5,000,000
Subscribed Capital 2,000,000
Paid-up Capital 600,000
Reserve Fund 180,000
Invested Funds 2,579,182.57
OFFICE—No. 437, George-st., Peterborough.
DEPOSITS received at current rates of interest, paid or compounded half-yearly.
DEBENTURES issued in Currency or Sterling, with interest coupons attached, payable in Canada or in England. Executors and Trustees are authorized by law to invest in the Debentures of this Company.
MONEY ADVANCED on Real Estate security at current rates and on favorable conditions as to repayment.
Mortgages and Municipal Debentures purchased.
GEO. A. COX,
Managing Director.
d8w42

BLANK FORMS
Deeds,
Mortgages,
Home Leases,
Farm Leases,
Agreements,
Short form of Lease
Lease of Land,
Magistrates Blanks,
Division Court Blanks,
etc., etc.,
Printed on good paper and correct forms.
AT THE
REVIEW Stationery

MUNN & CO
SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN AGENCY for PATENTS
A pamphlet of information and abstract of the laws, showing How to Obtain Patents, Caveats, Trade Marks, Copyrights, sent free. Address MUNN & CO. 361 Broadway, New York.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

Medical.
DR. SCOTT.
OFFICE—176 Brock-st. d13w21
F. D. GOLDSMITH, M. D.
L. M. S., L. S. A., L. R. C. P., London, Eng.,
HAS permanently located in Peterborough. Office and residence, 158 Brock-st., formerly occupied by Mr. J. H. McWilliams.
TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d8-w85-ly
D. H. CARMICHAEL, M. D.,
C. M., L. R. C. P. Ed.
GRADUATE OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY, Fellow of Trinity Medical School, Licentiate of Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh, L. M. of Simpson's Maternity Hospital, Edinburgh. Office in Mr. Alexander's new residence one door north of the late Dr. O'Sullivan's, George-st. d1w18-wyr33
DR. B. E. McKENZIE, B. A.
Lecturer on Orthopedic Surgery in the Women's Medical College, and in Toronto University; Consulting Orthopedic surgeon to Victoria Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto.
Diseases of the Joints and Deformities Only
Bloor-st. W. (near Yonge-st.) Toronto, Consultation from 10 to 3. On Friday and Saturday by appointment only.
DR. MOHER,
HAS removed to 214 Hunter-st., opposite Marble Works. Office upstairs.

Legal.
HATTON & WOOD.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office, corner of George and Hunter-sts., over T. Dolan & Co's. store. MONEY TO LOAN.
E. B. WOOD, B. A. G. W. HATTON.
SAWERS & STONE.
BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyances, &c. Office, Hunter-st., Peterborough.
MONEY TO LOAN.
E. B. STONE, d13-w13 C. W. SAWERS.
POUSSETTE & JOHNSTON,
BARRISTERS and SOLICITORS, 379 Water-st.
A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C. W. F. JOHNSTON.
EDWARD A. PECK,
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, etc., 352 George-st., Peterborough.
Private Funds to loan at 6 per cent.
HALL & HAYES.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter-st., Peterborough next English church. Money to loan at lowest rates of interest.
E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.
JOHN O'MEARA.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, &c. (Office 337 George-st. d-w
JOHN BURNHAM
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office: No. 415 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont., next door north of new post office. MONEY TO LOAN. d&w
W. H. MOORE,
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter-sts., over McClelland's Jewellery store. d15w18
G. M. ROGER.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water-st., Peterborough. d37w
DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES. Money to Loan. Office, 417 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont.
ARTHUR STEVENSON, B. A.
R. M. DENNISTOUN, M. A.
STRATTON & HALL.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, &c., Peterborough, Ont. Office:—Next door to Post Office on Hunter-st.
W. A. STRATTON, LL. B. R. R. HALL.
d122

C. E. and Land Surveyors.
RICHARD B. ROGERS.
SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block, Peterborough. wd67
J. E. BELCHER
ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George-st. d80w25

Builders and Contractors
E. WEBB,
BRICKLAYER AND CONTRACTOR. All work done substantially and expeditiously. Address E. WEBB, Peterborough. Residence, 286 Aylmer-st. 1yd120
J. J. HARTLEY.
BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P. O. Box 667; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer-sts. 1yd160
WM. H. McELWAIN.
CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street north P. O. address, Box 32. d160
W. H. WHITEHAIR.
PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 388, Peterborough P. O. d8-lyr
JAS. R. DONELL.
RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturer of Doors and Sash, Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being a practical workman he trusts to be able to give patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.
JAS. R. DONELL.
yd58

BIG G
G is acknowledged the leading remedy for Gonorrhoea & Gleet. The only safe remedy for Leucorrhoea or Whites. I prescribe it and feel safe in recommending it to all sufferers.
A. J. STONER, M.D., DECATUR, ILL.
Sold by Druggists. PRICE $1.00.
G. A. SCHOFIELD, Agt., Peterborough d 35-ly

DIARIES!
POCKET and OFFICE
Diaries for 1891!
Twenty Sizes
to select from in CLOTH and LEATHER BINDINGS
—AT THE—
REVIEW STATIONERY.

If YOU WISH
to Advertise
Anything
Anywhere
at Any time
WRITE TO
GEO. P. ROWELL & CO.
No. 10 Spruce Street,
NEW YORK.

SOCIETY,
COMMERCIAL
AND BOOK
PRINTING!
First-Class Work at Low Prices.
Review Office
350 GEORGE ST.

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE.

February 1st. 1891.

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
8 30 a m 6 00 p m	Montreal and East, via O. & Q. R.	11 00 a m 9 00 p m
11 30 a m 11 30 p m	Toronto and West, via O. & Q. R.	6 15 p m 9 00 p m
	Grand Trunk, East & West	1 15 p m
	do East	8 30 p m
12 00 a m 8 30 p m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west.	8 00 a m 4 30 p m
8 30 a m 6 15 p m	Millbrook and Port Hope. do do	11 15 a m 8 30 p m
8 25 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings	1 00 p m
4 00 p m	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	11 35 a m
10 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clydesdale, Paudash and Cheddar, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 30 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Graystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays
	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do do	4 00 p m
	British Mails per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	9 00 p m
12 noon	Via New York, Mondays. Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	4 30 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Australia, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings Bank, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxemburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey. And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before. Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guiana, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Port Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books, &c., 4c for 4 oz. Other Registration fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Payment by stamp in all cases. Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland,) Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents. New Zealand, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents.

H. C. ROGERS, Postmaster.

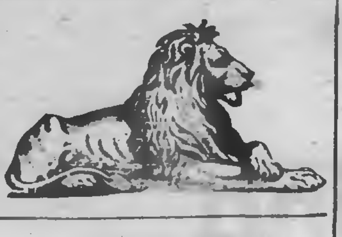
UNION CREDIT & PROTECTION ASSOCIATION.
FOR the Collection of Old and Worthless Accounts, in any part of the world. No charge if not collected. [illegible] Head and general office, [illegible] Adelaide-st. East, Toronto. [illegible]
DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON, Managers for the Association at Peterborough.
August 24th, 1888. 42-w

WEDDING CARDS.
LATEST STYLES AT THE
Review Stationery Store.

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XXV.—No. 37. PETERBOROUGH, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1891. TEN CENTS A WEEK

Probabilities.
Winds mostly north and east; fair weather; a little lower temperature.



SWISS
Needle Work
EMBROIDERY.

We take pleasure in annoucing that we have just received Ex. SS. Sardinian) direct from the manufactory in St. Gall, Switzerland, our new Spring collection of Needle Work Embroidery for the season of 1891. We placed unusual large orders for these goods when the stitch prices were at the lowest point. The value is exceptionally good. The designs were selected with the greatest care and we think will merit your approval. Special discount allowed to customers purchasing in quantities of a dozen yards and upwards.

ROBERT FAIR,
Sign of the Golden Lion,
383 George Street, Peterborough.
Ontario (144 and Bell Telephone (165).

KID GLOVES!
KID GLOVES!
W. W. JOHNSTON
has just received a complete assortment of
Black and Colored
Kid Gloves
at 85c. per pair.
The Best in the Market at the Price.
SPECIAL VALUE IN
Bed Room Towels and Kitchen Towelling.
Call and see our
ART MUSLIN
at 15c. per yard.
CRYSTAL BLOCK
410 George-st.

Musical.

ORGAN, PIANOFORTE and SINGING
DR. DAVIES,
Organist of St. John's church, late of Christ Church Cathedral and of St. James's Cathedral, Toronto, receives pupils at his residence, 44 McDonnel-st. At home each day from 9 till 10 a. m. and from 2 till 3 p. m. to make engagements, etc. d65-1m

Wood and Coal.

COAL AND WOOD.
THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.
W. B. FERGUSON,
Telephone Connection. Agent.

COAL! COAL!
THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of
COAL AND WOOD,
which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
d&w JAMES STEVENSO

PETERBOROUGH WATER CO.
OFFICE - - 2[illegible] HUNTER-ST.
W. HENDERSON, Superintendent.
F. ADAMS, Collector.
All water rates and accounts must be paid at the office. Mr. Adams will be in the office from 2 to 5 p.m. every day

Awnings.
Tents.
AND Sails.

ALFRED KINGSCOTE has opened out in Dansford's Block, on Water-st. opposite the market, where he is prepared to do all kinds of Awning, Tent and Sail making.
Good Work and Low Prices. Remember the place
A. KINGSCOTE,
d65-1yr No. 344 Water-st.

EDWIN ELCOME,
TAXIDERMIST
and Dealer in Eyes, Artificial Leave and Frostings.
BIRDS, ANIMALS, FISH and SNAKES Stuffed and Mounted in and out of cases in the best lifelike style at lowest prices. DEER'S HEADS a specialty. A stock of foreign and native birds always on hand for sale.
Residence, No. 1[illegible] Harvey-st., Peterborough
d114-w61-1y

Wants.

WANTED.
A GOOD GENERAL SERVANT and Nursemaid. Apply REVIEW Office. 31f

For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE,
A QUANTITY OF PAPER CUTTINGS and shavings. Apply at REVIEW Office.

TO LET.
Store and Dwelling
No. 2[illegible] George-st., now occupied by J.J. Turner. Good stand for grocery and boarding house. STORE and DWELLING No. 2[illegible] George-st. DWELLING HOUSES No. [illegible] Hunter-st., and 18 and 20 Queen-st. JOHN J. LUNDY. dtf

KNOW ALL MEN AND WOMEN
That I am instructed to sell a great variety of property in all parts of the town, in many cases much under value and that the addition of large Factories, Electric Street Railways and the opening of Spring are not likely causes for lower prices; consequently this is your golden opportunity. Come to-day, select to-day and seal the agreement of purchase to-day.
T. HURLEY,
JOHN L. HALL, Assistant. 357 George-st.

Carbon Gaslight
A RIVAL TO DAYLIGHT!
A new and Brilliant Illuminating Power—Clear, Steady and Mellow. Specially suited for Stores and large Buildings, Machine Shops, &c. A saving of 30 to 40 per cent. on gas can be effected by this new light
See it Burning at the Store of
J. E. NOBLE & Co.
287 George-st. South.
TELEPHONE.—Bell No. 181, Ontario No. 156.

MULHOLLAND & ROPER
BANKERS AND
INSURANCE AGENTS
Banking Department.
Deposit Accounts opened and Notes discounted at short dates or for twelve months if required. Special attention given to the purchase and collection of Farmers' Sale Notes. Drafts drawn on Merchants' Bank of Canada payable in New York, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and at any of its Branches in the Dominion. Cheques on other Banks cashed.
Four to Five per cent. allowed on deposits repayable on demand.
BANKING HOURS.—9.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m.
Insurance Department.
MR. FELIX BROWNSCOMBE is a partner in and manager of this department.
Careful attention given to Fire, Accident and Plate Glass Insurance.
The following companies are represented:—
London and Lancashire, City of London, Phoenix of Brooklyn, Caledonian, Royal Canadian, Agricultural, Montreal Plate Glass, Mutual Accident and Plate Glass, and Norwich and London Accident.
OFFICE HOURS.—9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

—ONTARIO—
Planing Mills!
Planing, Matching, Mouldings, Band Sawing & Turning, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Storm Sash.
JAMES Z. ROGERS.

Bell Telephone Co.,
OF CANADA.
Capital, - $1,500,000.00.
Head Office, MONTREAL.
AND. ROBERTSON, — President.
C. F. SISE, — Vice-Pres. and Man'g. Dir.
C. P. SCLATER, Secy.-Treas.
HUGH C. BAKER, Man., Ont. Dep., Hamilton.
300 EXCHANGES.
Long distance lines give unequalled facilities for talking between cities, towns and villages.
If you wish to speak to Kingston, Belleville Port Hope, Lindsay, Lakefield, Millbrook, Omemee, Toronto, Hamilton, etc., use the wires of the
BELL TELEPHONE Co.,
H. W. KENT,
d46-6mo Local Manager

Bill Heads,
Note Heads,
Letter Heads,
TAGS, ENVELOPES,
COUNTER HEADS
and every description of Business Printing executed at city prices at the
Review Office,
340 George Street.

AT
TURNBULL'S

Owing to so many covered shapes being worn this season we have a quantity of untrimmed Felt Hats and Bonnets left of all styles for Ladies and Children which we have put together in one lot and are clearing out at

25c. each.

This includes everything. Our friends may know what bargains await them as many of them have been sold during the season at from $1.00 to $1.50. Remember you get the choice of this lot for 25c.

We are showing in one of our windows Spring Prints, which are but an indication of the quantities of handsome patterns we have inside.

Our Spring Flanneletts have arrived. The patterns are new and darker, what so many people want. They are very pretty. Quantities of new goods opened every day. We show a handsome range of new shades in Dress Goods suitable for Wedding Outfits.

Further particulars of what we will offer this Spring as special inducements next week.

J. C. TURNBULL
George & Simcoe-sts., Peterborough.

A. CLEGG,
Funeral Director.
Ware rooms, - - 427 George-st.
Residence, - - 19 Benson-st.
A. CLEGG, Residence, 2[illegible] Stewart street. Telephone.

For You!
Reduction in prices of all Cloths. Suits and Overcoats to order for less money than ever to clear out the balance of winter stock.
Order now.
D. CAMERON & Co.
Tailors and Clothiers, 434 George-st.

LADIES' JERSEYS
In all the Leading Styles
at Lowest Prices at
PORT HOPE KNITTING WORKS
382 George-st.

TOOLS!
BUILDING HARDWARE!
NAILS, LOCKS, HINGES,
and all Building Hardware
Edge Tools, Saws, Files, Planes
and all Mechanics' Tools.
Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc., etc.
of the Best Quality and Lower in Price than Elsewhere
GEO. STETHEM.

MONEY TO LOAN.
A LARGE amount of private funds has been placed in my hands for loaning on farm security.
J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM,
d&w3 Solicitor, 1[illegible] Hunter-st.

HALL, INNES & Co.
GREAT REDUCTIONS
IN PRICES OF MANTLES
AND
TRIMMED MILLINERY

After a most successful season's trade in this department we will offer during January, the balance of our stock of Jackets, Mantles, Mantle Materials and Ulsters, also all Trimmed and Untrimmed Millinery,
at Greatly Reduced Prices.
From all who have not already made their purchases in these lines, we respectfully solicit a call as we will make it to their advantage to do so.
Sweeping Reductions in
Dress Stuffs, Shawls, Wool Squares and every description of Winter Goods.
Hall, Innes & Co

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1891.

THE QUEBEC CALAMITY.

THE DEATH ROLL NOW NUMBERS NINETEEN,

And Will in all Likelihood be Swelled by Half a Dozen More—List of the Victims of the Explosion—Heartrending Scenes.

QUEBEC, Feb. 12.—About 9.45 this morning the boiler in the Quebec Worsted Company's factory at Hare Point, on the northeastern outskirts of the city, exploded, completely demolishing the engine house and about half of the factory. The works had been closed down for two weeks while boilers and machinery were being overhauled and refitted. Preparations were to have resumed this morning and about 300 of the operators were on hand, but owing to some cause the machinery was not started and they were dismissed. Most of them, fortunately, went back to their homes, but a number remained about the building, many of them keeping in the vicinity of the engine room for the sake of the warmth. About 9.45 there was a sudden explosion, which completely wrecked engine house and dye house and damaged a large part of the main building. An immense crowd gathered immediately and the work of rescue commenced.

The Dead.

ARTHUR TWEDDELLE, mechanical superintendent of the Quebec & Levis Ferry Company.

WILLIAM FORBES, foreman of the reeling department.

JOSEPH MICHAUD, mechanic in employ of Carrier, Laine & Co., Levis.

THOMAS STOYLES, head machinist.

JOHN LEE, boiler inspector, of Montreal.

WILLIAM FRANCOEUR, mechanic in the employ of Carrier, Laine & Co.

AMANDA MERCIER, of 14-year-old daughter Honore Mercier of St. Sauveur.

JOSEPH DUFRESNE, watchman.

H. LALIBERTE, message boy, about 14 years of age.

JOSEPH LAMONTAGNE.
ARMANDA HAMEL.
PIERE CLEMENT.
GUSTAVE BLORUM.
ARTHUR KOUSSIN.
PIERRE GIROUX.
WILLIAM ADAMS.
FRED alias RENE HANLEY.
One unidentified.

Dying.

Emelie Beaule.
George Morrison.
Pierre Peterson.
Alfred Peterson.

Seriously Injured.

GEORGE WARREN, spinner from Guelph, Ont., terribly cut in head and other injuries about body; recovery doubtful.

ALFRED PIERSON, aged 16 years; recovery doubtful.

MR. LINDSAY, secretary, left side of head badly lacerated.

EMILIE BEAULI, aged 14, both legs broken and internal injuries; recovery doubtful.

W. STOYLES, dangerously bruised; recovery doubtful.

Seventeen others were slightly injured.

The cause of the disaster is not yet known, perhaps will never be known, as those that were interested in it are cold in death. It is well known, however, that some time ago one of the boilers was leaky and the company decided to have it repaired. Accordingly the hands were told that work would be suspended until the boiler would be repaired. This morning the hands returned to the works under the impression that work would be resumed. It was determined to try the newly repaired boiler, but owing to the recent severe cold the water had frozen inside of the injectors, and in order to melt it fires were put under the boiler, but when it got hot it was found that there was no water in it. Some was poured in and the disastrous explosion occurred.

BURNED IN THEIR HOUSE.

Three Members of a Family Perish in Russell County.

OTTAWA, Feb. 12.—A terrible calamity occurred last night near the village of St. Albert, Cambridge township, Russell county, which resulted in the loss of three lives. A family named Lafrance lived in a small house about a mile from the village. The family consisted of old Mr. and Mrs. Lafrance, their daughter, her husband Amarie Chartrand and two children. Chartrand and his wife left yesterday to visit Reeve Louis Genier of Cambridge and were away over night. During the night the house took fire, old Lafrance awakened to find himself surrounded by flames and smoke. He struggled to a window and jumped out, injuring himself severely. Old Mrs. Lafrance and the two children were burned to death in the house. The neighbors could do nothing to extinguish the fire, which burned itself out, only their remains being found. Old Mr. Lafrance was found in a shed almost frozen to death. He has not been able to speak, and there is little hope of his recovery.

A Gladstonian Succeeds Bradlaugh.

NORTHAMPTON, Feb. 12.—The election here to-day for member of Parliament resulted: Mansfied (Gladstonian) 5736, Germain (Conservative) 3723.

Died in a Chair.

PICTOU, N.S., Feb. 12.—The death is announced of David McCulloch, ex-collector of customs at Pictou, who expired suddenly while sitting in a chair.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

FULL TEXT OF THE SPEECH FROM THE THRONE.

A Passage of Arms Between Mowat and Meredith Respecting the Bruce Election—Ontario Ministers to Take No Part in the Dominion Elections.

TORONTO, Feb. 13.—There was a large attendance in the House yesterday when His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, accompanied by Commander Law, A.D.C., drove down to open proceedings at the House by reading the Speech from the Throne. At 3 the gubernational equipage passed by the lines of "C" School Infantry drawn up before the main entrance of the House under command of Major Vidal. The time-honored and ever-welcome strains of "God Save the Queen" floated on the gentle and almost balmy breeze, and a minute later His Honor, piloted by Commander Law, entered the Legislative chamber and took his seat.

Mr. Speaker-elect Ballantyne announced his election to His Honor in the usual set phrases.

Hon. Mr. Harcourt, on behalf of the Throne, informed the honorable Speaker that His Honor freely confided in the duty and attachment of the Assembly to Her Majesty's person and Government, that he doubted not their prudence and wisdom, and that he would recognize and allow their constitutional privileges. His Honor would also be accessible to the Assembly on all seasonable occasions and their proceedings would receive from him the most favorable construction.

All of which being said, His Honor read the anxiously awaited annual message.

Speech From the Throne.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly:

I have great pleasure in welcoming you to your legislative duties as members of a new Parliament.

I am happy to state that a considerable advance has been made since the last session of the Legislature towards a settlement of most of the long-pending differences between the Province and the Dominion. At a recent conference which took place between my Government and the representatives of the Governments of the Dominion and Quebec, definite arrangements were made for an arbitration to settle questions of account, and for referring to the courts in friendly actions some of the constitutional questions which have arisen; other differences are still the subject of negotiation. A settlement of most of these matters during the present year may reasonably be expected. A bill as to the proposed arbitration will be laid before you.

I regret that the Government of Quebec retains its old attitude with respect to the Land Improvement Fund, and in view of the continued delay and of the arrangements effected for the amicable settlement by arbitration and otherwise of most of the other questions in which the two Provinces are interested, I command to your consideration the propriety of now paying over to the municipalities concerned the share chargeable against this Province without waiting longer for a settlement of the balance which is claimed to be chargeable as the share of Quebec.

I am greatly pleased to observe the increasing interest which is taken in improved methods of agriculture as evinced by the marked success which attends the sessions of farmers' institutes and by the growing demand for the reports and bulletins of the Department of Agriculture.

I take pleasure in directing your attention to the work done in promoting the public health. Through the operations of the Provincial Board, the dissemination of sanitary literature and the increasing efficiency of local boards, epidemic disease has been notably less, and an impetus has been given to the construction of public waterworks and sewage systems. To aid efficient work of a scientific nature, a laboratory has been established, in connection with the Provincial Board, for investigations into the causes of disease. A bill will probably be laid before you supplying some defects, ascertained by experience, in the present statutory provisions, respecting the Boards of Health.

It having recently been ascertained beyond doubt that the province possesses immense deposits of nickel, a metal which is likely to be of great economic use and value in the immediate future, my advisers deemed the time opportune for making some changes in the laws relating to the sale of mining lands; and a part of the districts of Algoma and Nipissing in and near the nickel-bearing region was withdrawn from sale and location until you could be consulted. I commend to your attention a measure respecting our mining lands which is to be submitted for your consideration.

During the recess I issued a commission to inquire into the subject of prison reform, and another into the subject of the fish and game laws. The reports of the commissioners on both subjects are expected to be completed and ready for distribution during the present session, and, in case of their being received in time, bills will be laid before you for consideration.

Among other bills to be submitted for your consideration are a bill making certain improvements in the election law which another general election has suggested; bills making some amendments of our education laws, in the light of the five years' experience which has been had since the last revision; a bill regulating the charters to be granted to loan companies; a bill securing a lien to workmen on sawlogs in the western districts of the province, and a bill to make provision respecting the marriages of Quakers and others.

The public interests and the wants of those engaged in lumbering in the northwest part of the Province appeared recently to require that a limited number of timber berths west of Port Arthur should be offered for sale. A public sale was therefore held in October last, and fair prices were realized. A return of the particulars will be presented for your information.

The public accounts for the past year will be laid before you. You will be pleased to learn that the expenditure has been kept within the appropriations, and that the aggregate revenue has exceeded the amount anticipated.

The estimates for the current year will be presented for your approval. They will be found to be framed with a due regard to economy and to the necessities of the public service.

I feel assured that your deliberations will be characterized by wisdom and patriotism, and will conduce to the happiness and prosperity of the people.

The public interests and the wants of those engaged in lumbering in the northwest part of the Province appeared recently to require that a limited number of timber berths west [illegible] learn that the expenditure has been kept within the appropriation, and that the aggregate revenue has exceeded the amount anticipated.

The estimates for the current year will be presented for your approval. They will be found to be framed with a due regard to economy, and to the necessities of the public service.

I feel assured that your deliberations will be characterized by wisdom and patriotism, and will conduce to the happiness and prosperity of the people.

Greek Meets Greek.

Immediately on reading the above His Honor retired, his measured and dignified steps keeping time to the clanking of the aide-de-camp's sword.

When the Speaker announced the issue of a writ for a bye-election in North Perth Mr Meredith arose. He said the writ had been irregularly dated back.

Hon. Mr. Mowat: It is a mistake.

Mr. Meredith did not think so. He did not intend to take the matter up at present, but to mention it so as to give the Government an opportunity to explain. A number of the electors of Stratford had been disfranchised.

The Hon. Oliver said if a mistake was made it was purely accidental. He would be greatly surprised if his honorable friend were right.

Hon. Mr. Mowat moved that the Speech from the Throne be considered March 16.

Mr. Meredith both acquiesced in and regretted the necessity of postponement. It made the House a kind of donkey-engine to the Dominion House. He thought, however, that under the circumstances business would not receive proper attention. He wished to call the attention of the Honorable Attorney-General to a statement made by a gentleman occupying a position in another province similar to that of his honorable friend in this province. Mr. Mercier had said that he considered it his duty to enter upon the present Dominion campaign in an official capacity. He wished to know if his honorable friend opposite held the same view. The object of the men of Quebec was, in Mr. Mercier's words, "to avenge themselves on the central authority for its refusal to give effect to the resolution of the interprovincial conference." He protested against such a thing as taking an official part in Dominion politics. Mr. Mercier wanted more money from the Dominion Government according to the proposals. The money would be spent in Quebec. It ought to be well understood that the people of this province would oppose any attempt to disturb the finances. [Applause.]

Hon. Oliver said his honorable friend knew he was not responsible for Mr. Mercier's words. He would not, however, be drawn into disclaiming hostility to the Dominion Government. He thought a change there would be a good thing. [Applause.] Sir John had disturbed the finances by grants. The proposal of the conference was the only fair and permanent basis of apportionment. An unequal increase in populations had upset the basis agreed upon at Confederation. They wished to prevent arbitrary grants.

Will Take No Part in the Elections.

The Premier added he was glad his honorable friend was now more anxious about the dignity of the House than formerly. He agreed with him that it was a bad thing to bring on the elections just now. He was glad his honorable friend thought so. He did not think his honorable friend had made much out of his observations on the motion.

Mr. Meredith replied that what he objected to was the official nature of Mr. Mercier's intentions. He had hoped the honorable Attorney-General would have disavowed sympathy with Mr. Mercier as usual when in the wrong, but he had not met him fairly.

Hon. Mr. Mowat said he was sorry his honorable friend neither expressed himself so as to be understood nor could he understand others.

Mr. Meredith: "That's very parliamentary, very."

Hon. Mr. Mowat proceeded to explain that neither he nor his ministers would take any official part in the campaign.

Mr. Meredith: "Your Quebec colleague will."

The motion carried and the House adjourned at 4.45 p.m.

Charged With Murder

BROCKVILLE, Feb. 12.—Quite an excitement has been caused here by the arrival of Chief of Police Hoy from Prescott with Thomas Utman, his daughter, Lydia Ann Utman, and Charles Spinks, charged with the murder of Oscar Van Camp on the night of Aug. 21, 1889. Van Camp's mangled body was found on the railway track and it is now charged that he was first killed in Utman's house by the prisoners and the body placed where found.

Italy's New Ruler a Protectionist.

ROME, Feb. 12.—The Marquis di Rudini, the new Premier, has explained his program to his colleagues. He said he intended to reduce the military budget without affecting the strength of the army; to effect a revision of the customs duties so as to protect home industry and trade against foreign competition; reform the bank laws; to augment the paper currency and to legislate for a pension to relieve aged and disabled workmen.

The Sarnia Tunnel.

SARNIA, Feb. 12.—Nihan, Elliot & Phia, the contractors for the tunnel approaches, last week gave up the contract for the approach at the Sarnia side and will henceforth confine their operations to the Port Huron approach, on which they will place their whole force. Thomas H. Murphy has taken charge for the company of the work on the Sarnia approach and will push it ahead with all possible despatch, using the steam shovels and other plant of the contractors. The working force has been increased to 250 and it is intended to increase the working force to the largest number that can be economically employed in the approach, so as to get the excavation completed by the very earliest possible day.

Eight Hour Day for Miners.

COLUMBUS, Feb. 12.—The National Mine Convention to-day adopted a resolution that all miners and mine workers in the United States demand the 8-hour work day May 1 next and that no miner shall remain in the mines longer than eight hours. The system of idle coal days is to be abolished and the executive committee is instructed to provide means for the enforcement of the eight hours per day system.

Another Postoffice Robbed.

SUNBRIDGE, Feb. 12.—The postoffice here was entered and burglarized last night. The door was broken in and the safe blown open, a hole being drilled through the top and explosives and a fuse inserted. About $395 in cash belonging to the postoffice, express and telegraph businesses and registered matter containing checks, etc., was taken.

He Shot "The Sheeny."

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Jacob Goldsmith, aged 47, a German glazier, asked $1.50 for putting a pane of glass in Koenigberger's cafe, whereupon Koenigberger handed his bartender, William Langenberg, a revolver and told him to "shoot the Sheeny." This Langenberg did, killing Goldsmith. Koenigberger and his bartender were jailed.

THE PATRIOTS IN PRISON.

O'BRIEN AND DILLON SURRENDER THEMSELVES TO THE POLICE.

A Meeting of the McCarthyites Decides to Fight Independent of Parnell, who Will Continue to Pose as Leader of His Party—Press Comments on the Situation.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—Mr. Parnell will start for Ireland Friday, as another campaign will commence with a meeting at Roscommon Sunday. On the following Sunday a meeting will be held at Navan and on the succeeding Sundays at Drogheda, Dundalk and Newry. It is reported Parnell will speak shortly in London and Manchester.

The Times says: Mr Parnell will make the most of the interval before the general election. He will be constantly in parliament watching the interests of the Irish people. His Sundays will be spent in addressing meetings in Ireland. Later in the year he will probably address a series of meetings in the north of England.

In an editorial The Times says: Mr. O'Brien's manifesto may rank as his first production. His lachrymose genius wails through turgid and inflated sentences like a literary banshee. Perhaps it is to reward Dillon and O'Brien's neutrality that Mr. Parnell pays Mr. O'Brien a somewhat effusive compliment.

The Standard says: It is understood Mr. Parnell took exception to the inadequate assurances given in regard to the right of Imperial veto and the question of Irish representation at Westminster. When the negotiations are definitely ended Mr. Parnell will issue a manifesto to the Irish people. The Irish campaign will be based upon the principle of resistance to clerical dictation.

The Telegraph says: Considering the circumstances, it is a serious question whether Lord Zetland might not consistently with his duty and for the safety of the Irish people forthwith quash the conviction of Dillon and O'Brien, to enable them to take such an active part in the coming war as they and their constituents may consider best for mutual protection.

The Anti-Parnellites Meet.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—The meeting of the anti-Parnellite members of the House of Commons was held to-day in the committee-room of the House. Justin McCarthy presided, and was warmly cheered by his supporters. All the prominent members of the anti-Parnell faction were present. The rupture of negotiations with the Parnellites has caused considerable excitement in the political clubs. The anti-Parnellites, however, have long discounted the failure. The meeting passed resolutions of regret at the failures of the negotiations and adjourned until evening.

It was decided to convene the National committee immediately at Dublin in order to deal with the situation. Mr. McCarthy and Mr. Sexton have issued a brief official statement declaring the Boulogne negotiations were conducted upon their sole responsibility uninfluenced by any other members of their section and specifically upon the basis that Mr. Parnell's leadership was impossible. Mr. Sexton said, "Mr. McCarthy and myself had interviews this evening with Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien. Mr. Dillon expressed himself as strongly against Parnell's leadership as any member of the McCarthy section saying that under no possible circumstances would he ever again serve under Parnell and that rather than do so he would quit politics altogether.

Dillon and O'Brien Surrender.

FOLKESTONE, Feb. 12.—Dillon and O'Brien upon their arrival here voluntarily surrendered themselves to the police authorities.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—Dillon and O'Brien arrived in London this afternoon and were warmly greeted by their friends. They will be taken to Ireland to-night to serve out their terms.

While Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien were held in custody at Scotland Yard, Mr. Parnell, Thomas Sexton, Sir Thomas Esmonde and Sir Henry Roscoe called there to see the prisoners.

Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien will start for Ireland on the morning train.

The Tipperary Prosecutions.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—The sittings of the House of Commons on Monday and Thursday of next week will be given up to debate on Morley's motion to censure the Irish executive for its action in the Tipperary prosecutions. On Thursday a division on the motion will be had.

TORONTO TOPICS.

A Woman's Vengeance—Sudden Death of a Stock Broker.

TORONTO, Feb. 13.—A. N. Merrian of Tilt & Co., stock brokers of this city, died suddenly at 9.30 o'clock yesterday morning at his residence, 66 Isabella-street. Deceased was afflicted with varicose veins and on 4th instant, while on his way to the office, was taken with a fainting fit. Dr. Burns was summoned and he said the fainting was the result of spasm of the heart caused by interruption of circulation. Since then he has only been at the office once.

Yesterday morning he arose, washed his hands and immediately laid down upon a sofa. His wife, noticing a strange look in his face, summoned a neighboring physician. When they returned Mr. Merrian stretched out his hand and said "God bless my wife." He immediately expired. The cause of death was a clot of blood on the brain.

The Newfoundland Case.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—The Times' Paris correspondent says: Judging from a semi-official note, France and England appear to have agreed to arbitrate regarding Newfoundland, but a definition of what is to be submitted to arbitration is still unsettled. Both sides are very conciliatory, and in any case there will be established a modus vivendi this year, a full solution before the end of the season being impossible.

A Sudbury Miner Killed.

SUDBURY, Feb. 12.—John Hall, aged 26, was accidentally killed by the fall of a quantity of loose rock from the overhanging wall of Copper Cliff shaft, in which he along with several other men were engaged sinking. He was married only about six months ago.

Local Option Carried.

LEAMINGTON, Feb. 12.—Voting on the local option bylaw took place here. Every available vote was polled. At the close the vote stood: For the bylaw 163; against bylaw 1[illegible]—majority for 15.

That Deceased Wife's Sister Bill.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—The House of Commons to-day passed to a second reading, by a vote of 2[illegible] to 155, the bill permitting a man to marry the sister of his deceased wife. The bill has been passed several times before in the Commons and defeated through the ecclesiastical opposition in the Upper House.

Burglar Butler.

JACKSON, Mich., Feb. 12.—In the circuit court James Butler, colored, has been found guilty of burglary. This is the man who recently escaped from the county jail and was captured in Woodstock, Ont.

Dyspepsia

Intense Suffering for 8 years — Restored to Perfect Health.

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Staunton, Va. He says: "Before 1878 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 162 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, nausea, and indigestion. I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and for days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it had cured his wife of dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to tone up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

Intense Suffering 8 Years

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1891.

A GREAT CHANGE.

WHEN Hon. George Brown went to Washington to endeavor to negotiate a reciprocity treaty the Mackenzie Government drew up a memoradum in which it stated:—

"The Government of Canada do not propose any modification in matters of trade or commerce which would in any way injuriously effect imperial interests."

This principle was adhered to, and Mr. Brown stated in the memorandum of the British plenipotentiaries:—

"In regard to the addition of certain classes of manufactures to the free list under the old treaty we reminded you that the revenue of the Canadian Dominion was largely obtained from a 15 per cent. ad valorem duty on manufactured goods and that any articles made free in Canada under agreement with any foreign country must be made free to Great Britain."

Hon. Mr. Brown also stated in the Senate in 1875 that "nothing else was contemplated for a moment." Coming down later, speaking at Charlottetown on August 16th, 1878, Sir Richard Cartwright said:—

"They say we must have reciprocity, and we cannot live without it as a Dominion. I take exception to that statement. While reciprocity is desirable, we are not in such a state of subjection to the United States that we cannot live without it. We have men and ships and will carry the war into Africa. We will find new markets for ourselves and cut them out. There is nothing better calculated to prevent the bringing about of reciprocity than to tell the Americans we cannot live without them. It would induce them to believe that they had the power to drive us into their own terms."

This is the same Sir Richard Cartwright who now answers "promptly and emphatically" that he proposes to discriminate against Great Britain and in favor of the United States. But he does not carry all the Liberals with him, by any means. Hon. Edward Blake retires from public life before such a proposal. Hon. Alex. Mackenzie tells Sir Richard that he will not consent to reciprocal free trade that would be "inimical to the interests of Great Britain as the heart of the empire." Mr. Edgar Judge, ex-President of the Young Liberal Club of Montreal, says:—"When I see the Toronto Globe preaching annexation, thinly veiled as may be, when I see the Young Liberals of Toronto lauding the statements of Goldwin Smith, then it is time for me to say that we are not prepared to hand the country over to a foreign land." And many more Liberals throughout the country echo Mr. Judge's words. The Liberal leaders have abandoned the old Reform landmarks, but the great body of Canadians will remain true to themselves and their country, and will reject the schemes of Sir Richard and Mr. Erastus Wiman.

THE FRIENDS OF THE UNITED STATES.

THE Conservative administration is not hostile or unfriendly to the United States, but it is not so friendly to that country that it would yield up to it the industries of Canada and the national life of this country. Across the lines this election is watched with interest, yes with eagerness, for the Liberals are looked upon as the peculiar friends of the United States. And rightly so, for their leaders have been at Washington conferring with United States politicians, and they have adopted a policy given to them from the States, and that would throw this country into the hands of the Republic. Mr. Erastus Wiman, speaking at a banquet on Feb 3rd, said, referring to the commercial union resolution before Congress:

"Its passage at this juncture would make Canada ready, because it would help to elect the Liberal party and do more to help the friends of the United States in that country than anything else."

The Buffalo News of Feb. 5th, speaking of the general elections here, says:

"As a political move this appeal to the country is one of the shrewdest that even Sir John ever made and it is almost certain to gain him adherents. There are many Canadians now in the Liberal party who favor freer trade relations, but are not prepared to go so far as to support unrestricted reciprocity, because the regard it as the first step towards annexation, for which they are not prepared. The opinion on this matter cannot be successfully combatted. Commercial Union would compel Canada to adopt our tariff policy, and the loss of fiscal independence would pave the way for the loss or political independence. Besides, under such conditions, there would be a discrimination against England in favor of the United States, and that would about snap the loose tie that now binds Canada to the mother country. With the Tories standing solidly at his back Sir John should be able to gain enough of these moderate Liberals to enable him to carry the country.

"All the sentiment that can be stirred up against annexation will be used for all it is worth throughout the length and breadth of Canada. As far as possible this will be made the issue and it might as well be openly announced as such. Every vote cast for the Liberal candidate in most of the constituencies at least will be, in effect, a vote for annexation, since Commercial Union must lead to that. We have never been able to form any idea over here just how much feeling for annexation there is in Canada, but this contest will give something of a notion. Should the Liberals triumph, all doubts will be set at rest as to what is Canada's destiny. It will not be so very many years before she will be knocking at the door of you Uncle Sam."

Similar views are expressed by other well-informed United States journals. But on March 5th these foreign journals and schemers and their friends in Canada will receive an answer that will show them that annexation, disguised or open, will not be countenanced on this side of the lakes.

RAPID STRIDES HAVE BEEN MADE.

"MUCH is being constantly said about Peterborough's unexcelled manufacturing facilities, but the fact cannot be too strongly impressed that our town is a natural industrial centre and must look mainly to its manufactures for the media of prosperity and growth. Rapid strides have recently been made in the development of our resources, but it is apparent that there is yet ample room for the excercise of business enterprise and speculation."—Peterborough Examiner, Feb. 9th, 1890.

When a liberal organ drops politics and looks at the position of affairs from a business point of view, the truth will often come out. Peterborough has made rapid strides recently in the development of its resources—and these strides have been made under and with the assistance of the present fiscal policy, the National Policy. And this town must look to manufactures "for the media of its prosperity and growth"—and it is only by maintaining the present policy and rejecting the free trade (restricted to the United States) that the Liberals propose that additional manufactures can be secured or the present industries maintained in their present position. The welfare of the town, which means the welfare of its people, and the interests of all who are effected by the town's prosperity, require that unrestricted reciprocity shall not become the policy of this country.

THE Ottawa Free Press announces Mr. Stratton as the Liberal candidate in West Peterborough. How did it get the news?

IN one city where Sir Richard Cartwright spoke recently a Canadian Liberal would receive a large majority over a Conservative. That city is Boston, Massachusetts.

The Spring Medicine.

The popularity which Hood's Sarsaparilla has gained as a spring medicine is wonderful. It possesses just those elements of health-giving, blood-purifying and appetite-restoring which everybody seems to need at this season. Do not continue in a dull, tired, unsatisfactory condition when you may be so much benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood and makes the weak strong.

Local Market Quotation

WHEAT.
Wheat, fall per bushel, ...	0 96	to	0 97
" spring "	0 90	to	0 91
FLOUR AND MEAL.
Flour, Patent Process, per cwt.	$2 75	to	[illegible]
Flour, bakers per cwt...........	2 55	to	2 60
Flour, family per cwt	2 40	to	2 60
COARSE GRAIN.
Barley, per bushel................	0 43	to	0 46
Peas, ...	0 60	to	0 61
Oats..............................	0 43	to	0 44
Rye...............................	0 54	to	0 55
WOOL AND HIDES.
Fleece wool	0 18	to	0 16
Southdown wool....................	0 20	to	0 22
Veal Calf skins, per lb...........	0 05	to	0 07
Deacon skins, each	0 15	to	0 40
Hides, per cwt, rough	3 00	to	4 00
Tallow, rendered per lb	0 00	to	0 05
" per lb, rough............	0 00	to	0 03
Sheep skins	0 40	to	1 00
MEAT, POULTRY AND DAIRY PRODUCE.
Beef, by the quarter per cwt....	5 00	to	6 50
Pork per lb	0 06	to	0 07
Mutton per lb	0 07	to	0 08
Lamb per lb	0 07	to	0 09
Dressed Hogs per 100 lbs	5 00	to	6 00
Hogs, live weight	3 00	to	4 00
Lard..............................	0 09	to	0 10
Ducks, per pair...................	0 60	to	0 80
Geese, each	0 50	to	0 75
Turkeys, each	0 75	to	1 25
GENERAL.
Apples, per bag...................	0 70	to	1 25
Apples, per barrel	2 00	to	3 00
Butter, fresh roll, per lb........	0 16	to	0 18
Eggs, per doz.....................	0 16	to	0 25
Hay, per ton......................	6 00	to	7 00
Straw, per load	3 00	to	4 00
Wood, hard, per load..............	3 25	to	3 75
Wood, soft, per load..............	2 00	to	2 50
Chickens per pair	0 35	to	0 50
[illegible]
Potatoes, per bag.................	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Cabbage, per head.................	0 03	to	0 05
Beets, per bag....................	0 00	to	0 75
Onions, per bag...................	0 00	to	1 00
Carrots, small red, per bag.......	0 00	to	0 60
MILL FEED.
Oat chop, per cwt	1 40	to	1 50
Pea chop, "	1 25	to	1 35
Barley chop "	1 20	to	1 30
Pollards "	1 05	to	1 05
Bran, per ton.....................	15 00	to	15 00

Toronto Markets.

Wheat, fall, per bushel......	$ 0 98	to	$ 0 99
Wheat, red, per bushel.........	0 98	to	99
Wheat, spring, per bushel.......	0 85	to	87
Wheat, goose, per bushel........	0 65	to	0 70
Barley, per bushel..............	0 54	to	0 56
Oats, per bushel................	0 50	to	0 52
Dressed hogs, per cwt...........	6 00	to	6 25
Chickens, per pair..............	0 40	to	0 60
Butter, per lb rolls............	0 16	to	0 18
Eggs, new, per doz	0 22	to	0 23
Potatoes, new, per bag..........	1 00	to	1 10

Chicago Market.

Wheat....	May	1 07½
	July	0 98
Corn	May	0 52½
Oats......	May	0 46
Pork......	May	0 70
	July	10 05
Lard	May	5 85

The Handsomest Lady in Peterborough

Remarked to a friend the other day that she knew Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs was a superior remedy, as it stopped her cough instantly when other remedies had no effect whatever. So to prove this and convince you of its merit any druggist will give you a Sample bottle Free. Large size 50c and $1.

Following Fagin's Calling.

To the eccentricities of the confirmed collector there is no end, says the London Globe. Collectors collect everything, and the possible limit to the list will only be reached when every collectable article under the sun shal have its band of enthusiastic gatherers.

Collectors of postage-stamps, book-plates, play-bills, broad-sheets, coins and medals have attained a recognized standing; those of thimbles and walking-sticks will soon do so, and there is an indication that they will be followed by victims of the pocket-handkerchief mania.

The late Mr. Fagin and his compeers were scarce of sufficiently respectable standing to give vogue to the cult of the pocket-handkerchief collector, but now that the pursuit has been shown to be the life passion of a man who was once a wealthy tradesman, the proper impetous will be given.

Casper Eilers is the gentleman's name, and an absorbing passion for pocket-handkerchiefs would seem to be his whole nature.

Starting as a wealthy man to set up his museum, he paid whatever price was asked by the ladies of his aquaintance for whatever pocket-handkerchiefs they might be carrying. He was delighted, we are told, "at their sight and flavor"—an odd expression which might bear some further explanation.

Sometimes he had to pay enormous prices, but this never deterred him. We are not told whether the thing was ever actually done, but it would be almost an insult to female acuteness to suppose that so good an opportunity to acquire a respectable dot by the purchase and sale of a dozen or more pocket-handkerchiefs was never observed and taken advantage of.

By this channel all Casper Eiler's money vanished, and as he could buy no more handkerchiefs for his museum the obvious course was to steal them, which he did. He has now been caught for the second time, his confidence in his own dexterity leading him to attempt two pockets at once, after a fairly successful career as an amateur Artful Dodger extending over several years.

"Collectors" of purses, watches and chains and diamond pins may hence forth be expected to appear in great force at our police courts.

NORTH WARD, HARRAH!

Special meeting of Mr. Stevenson's supporters in the North Ward will be held this evening (Friday) at the committee rooms, Old Council Chamber, to organize for the work of the campaign. Rooms open every night.

R. H. DENNISTOUN,
Acting Chairman.

1d67

DEADLY DRUGS OF DEATH

SOME CURIOSITIES OF POISONS, ANCIENT AND MODERN.

An Affliction Which Came Regularly Every Month Caused by an Unknown Drug—a Remarkable Poison Which Paralyzed. Juliet's Well Known Potion.

Until the past few years poisoning has been a study pretty much confined to savages—not, of course, exclusively the savages in paint and feathers, but to the naturally ferocious and criminal in all communities. Among savages, in the ordinary sense of the world, there has often been found a wonderful knowledge on this subject, and some very curious results have frequently been obtained by them. A very intelligent and trustworthy resident on the borders of a North American Indian tribe, for instance, tells a very singular story. He had a young Indian girl in his kitchen for some years. When she first entered his service, so many of her relatives and friends came to see her that he had to give her peremptory orders to admit nobody. Unfortunately, one of her first visitors after this decree had gone forth was an old medicine man of her tribe, whom she steadfastly refused to admit to her kitchen, and who, consequently, went away furiously angry, and vowing all sorts of vengeance. Some months afterwards, the old doctor met the girl. He had, apparently, quite forgotten the insult he had received, and very heartily shook hands with her. She happened to have a slight wound in her hand, and after the old man had grasped it, she saw, to her dismay, that this wound was covered by a black patch, and she instantly suspected that it was a patch of poison, and she told him so. The old man frankly admitted that her suspicion was correct. She had insulted him when they last met and now he had paid her for it. For one month in every year, as long as she lived he told her that her skin would break out in black blotches. Twelve months afterwards, the affliction predicted actually befel the girl, and every year, as long as she continued in the service of the narrator of this story, her skin became blotched and patched all over with black marks, which continued to disfigure her for a month, and then disappeared. A Government officer at Winnipeg mentions in one of his official reports a very remarkable poison, which had the effect of paralyzing the muscles of the face. Speaking of a woman to whom it had been administered without her own consent or knowledge, this official says: "Only the eyes moved, and, as they were intensely black and rather sparkling, the ghastly deformity was rendered the more glaring. The most singular effect, however, was produced by her laugh. She was a jolly, good-natured squaw, and laughed upon the slightest provocation. Her eyes sparkled, and her 'ha! ha!' was musical to a degree; but not a muscle moved to denote the merriment on that expressionless face. One felt that some one else laughed behind that rigid integument. No idea could be formed of what she thought at any time." There is nothing incredible in this. Medical science has of late years been turning attention to poisons, and many effects quite as pronounced, if not perhaps quite so striking, have been observed. "Experiments," says one authority, "have shown that certain poisons are so potent and subtle in their action as to almost equal the wonders in tales told of charms condensed into necromancer's phials. The animal body can be played upon as if it were a machine. The strokes of the central pump, the heart, can be slowed or quickened; the vital heat lowered or increased; the pupil of the eye expanded or narrowed; the limbs paralyzed or convulsed; the blood sent to the surface or withdrawn to the interior; even the natural hue and color of the body can be changed." One very interesting result of modern study of poisons is the discovery of some ground for believing that certain diseases both of body and mind, may be attributable to poison in the system. Dr. B. W. Richardson, for instance, says that somnambulism, he has not the slightest doubt, "is produced by the formation in the body of a peculiar substance, which may be derived from the starchy parts of the body, and has the effect of the chemical substance known as amylene. I believe that," says Dr. Richardson, "because you produce artificial somnambulism by the use of that substance. Under its influence persons can be made to walk about unconsciously in the same way as the somnambulist does." The same respected authority affirms that there are substances known capable of producing extreme melancholy. "There is a peculiar offensive sulphur compound called mercaptan. A little of that administered to any one produces the intensest melancholy, tending almost to suicide. We can sometimes detect a similar offensive substance in the breath of patients who are suffering from melancholia." Similarly, there is a well-known poison which produces all the effects of scarlet fever. There is another, a large dose of which brings about all the symptoms of cholera; and there appear to be several poisons which produce idiocy or actual madness. The Hindoos are said to know a drug which, as Mr. Wynter Blyth tells us, has, in Indian history, often played the part of a State agent, and has been used to produce imbecility in persons of high rank whose mental integrity was considered dangerous to the despot in power. Among the most curious poisons of which there is any record in the past, or of which we have any knowledge at the present time, in that which knowledge at the present time, is that Shakespeare makes Friar Laurence give to Juliet, as a means of enabling her to escape the proposed marriage with Paris. It would, he assured her, produce temporarily all the symptoms of death—

Each part, deprived of supple government,
Shall, stiff and stark and cold, appear like death:
And in this borrowed likeness of shrunk death

Sellers of Property.

Blank Deeds, Blank Mortgages, Blank Transfers, House and Land Leases, etc., on hand at the REVIEW Stationery.

SAWS Filed and Gummed in First Class Style. Knives, Scissors, Tools, &c., ground and sharpened. S. W. ENGLISH, shop, 12 Charlotte-st. d15-w1y

D. BELLEGHEM,
Issuer of Mariage Licenses,
PETERBOROUGH.

GOUGHS
SUITS ARE RELIABLE

MONSTER
Stock Taking SALE!

The Most Gigantic Slaughter of Odds and Ends ever held in Canada.

In order to clear out stock we will sell at less than cost a Lot of Odd Garmemts. They are in every respect regular goods and splendid values.

To See is to Buy. Come and See.

GOUGH BROTHERS,
The Clothiers, 377 and 379 George-st

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. All druggists are authorised to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are placing a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have a Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup, or Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

WM. FITZGERALD,
Builder, Contractor and Jobber.

Contracts taken for all work connected with erection of new buildings, repairs or rebuilding. Twenty-five years experience. First-class work according to plans and specifications guaranteed. Estimates furnished for any description of work. Good dry material always on hand. Best of references given as to excellence of work and despatch.

Building Lots For Sale

in different localities. Most desirable sites for houses. This is the time to buy and build Lots sold and houses built thereon on terms to suit buyers. Easy terms of payment. Several good houses and lots for sale. Every one looking for a bargain should see these. WM. FITZGERALD, 1[illegible], corner of Dublin and Water-sts.
P.O. Box 6[illegible], Peterborough. d[illegible] w[illegible]-ly

"HARVARD"

"In twenty years experience as a druggist, I have never handled a remedy giving such satisfaction as does Harvard Bronchial Syrup." J. J. Perry, [illegible] [illegible]. "Have used it myself with the greatest results, and know many sufferers from [illegible] [illegible], who have been completely cured by it." J. G. Holmes, Montreal.

HAGGART & KIDD

TOWN and COUNTY } Auctioneers,
COMMISSION and SHIPPING } Merchants.
REAL ESTATE and INSURANCE } Agents.

☞ Money to Loan.

"HARVARD"

[illegible]

A. J. LAWRENCE, Montreal, Prop. for Canada. By all dealers.

REMOVAL.

DR. CARMICHAEL

has removed to his new office and residence, corner of Water and Brock-sts. (opposite the Court House. d146-w23-3mo

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

"It is the Safest and Fairest Policy I Have Ever Seen,"

Was the remark made by a prominent representative of one of the largest and best American Life Insurance Companies, when he had carefully examined

THE ORDINARY LIFE POLICY OF

—THE—

TEMPERANCE and GENERAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y.

This is the only policy offered to the Canadian public that can neither lapse nor expire as to its paid-up value till death ensues, after three annual premiums have been paid on it.

Our Limited Payment Life Policy, or Instalment Bonds, Our Comon Sense Renewable Term Policies, and our Survivors' Endowment Bonds are all possessed of new and excellent features and are all worthy of careful consideration.

Agents Wanted.

H. P. LINDSAY,
Gen. Agent for Peterborough, Northumberland and Durham. Office No. [illegible] George-st., opposite new market building.

PACKING HOUSE STORE!

For a Choice Selection of
Smoked Sugar Cured Meats and Bacon
LARD, guaranteed pure, in any quantity.
GEORGE MATTHEWS
356 George Street, Peterborough.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING
EPPS'S COCOA
BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.
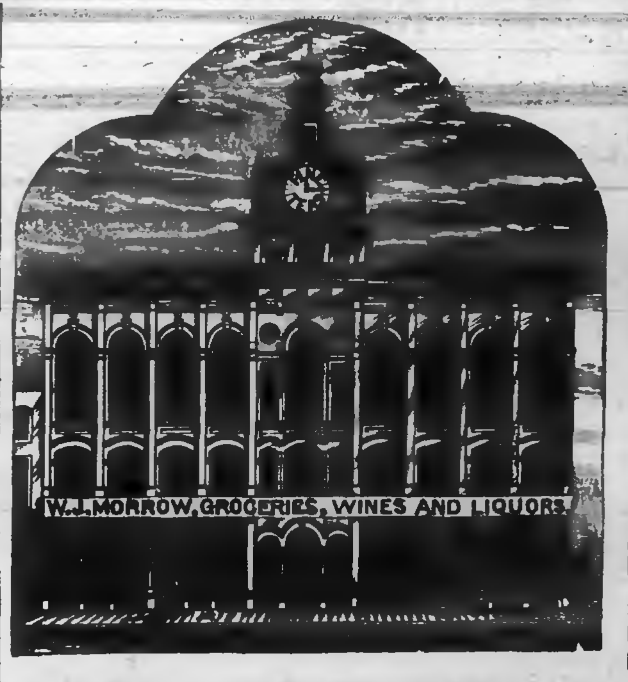
Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins, by grocers, labelled thus:
JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England. w[illegible]



W. J. MORROW, GROCERIES, WINES AND LIQUORS.

BIG TEA and COFFEE HOUSE

IN THE MARKET!

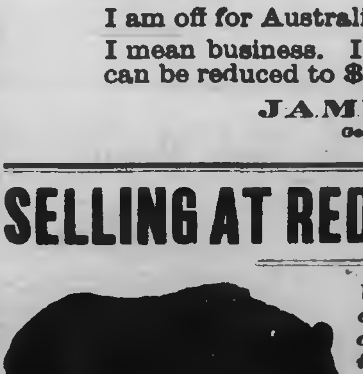
1.—I have sold out the City Hotel to Wm. Clancy, in 19 minutes.
2.—I have sold out Faren & Co, Billiard Room etc., to Faren & Co. in 13 minutes.
3.—The Dry Goods Stock is in the Market. If there is any new blood for this offer call and see me. Want to dispose of it inside of 10 days.

I am off for Australia early next month.

I mean business. If the stock is too large can be reduced to $1,000 in 30 days.

JAMES DOLAN,
George Street, Peterborough.

SELLING AT REDUCED PRICES



We are offering our Stock of Manufactured Furs at cost, previous to stock taking. The stock comprises a choice assortment of Ladies' and Gents fine Fur Collars, Cuffs, Capes, Caps, Gauntlets and Coats. Also a few Musk Ox, Bear, Oppossum and Goat Robes.

CALL AND BE CONVINCED.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.
Manufacturing Furriers.

DO YOU LIKE
Biscuits?

Most likely you do.
There's a deal of difference
in Biscuits. Quality is an important item. A good
biscuit should be fresh,
crisp and of good flavor.
Here's what will suit you.
Try the English biscuit, made
by Huntley & Palmer the famous makers. Imported
by us and guaranteed genuine.
Ask for Huntley & Palmer's biscuits.

W. J. MASON

425 GEORGE STREET.
No trouble to show Goods.

Valentines!

14th FEBRUARY,
St. Valentine's Day

Don't Forget the Occasion and Don't Forget the Fact
that you will find the CHOICEST SELECTION
—OF—VALENTINES
—AT—
H. Thompson
& Co's.,
406 George-st., Peterboro',
Stationers, Booksellers and Wall Paper Dealers.

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1891.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

Personal.

Miss E. Morris, of Belleville, is visiting friends in town.

Homeward Bound.

A despatch from Port Arthur dated yesterday says:—"Flavelle and his Lindsay team of curlers passed east to-day. They were met by half the curlers in town and cheered to the echo. Arrangements are being made here for a bonspiel next winter."

Every tissue of the body, every bone, muscle and organ, is made stronger and more healthful by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

A Meeting To-Morrow.

Mr. Lander, the promoter of the proposed sugar beet industry, was in town yesterday. He went to Harwood this morning to attend the meeting there, and will return to Peterborough this evening and address a meeting of the farmers in the market building to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock.

Spring.

Nobody seems to know where spring is, but preparations for its advent are being made nevertheless. You need new, fresh, seasonable groceries? We sell them. That's our business. We sell good goods. We deliver them on time. We charge you no more that you pay elsewhere, in most cases less. Call and see us. We welcome the smallest customer. STAPLETON & BLOOMER. d37

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

A Pleasant Surprise.

Mr. Robert Walton, of Rochester, son of Mr. Joseph Walton, of Peterborough, who was here recently on his wedding trip, having married Miss Lannin, formerly of Peterborough, received a pleasant surprise on his return home, which is thus reported in the Rochester Post-Express:—

"On Tuesday evening last Grand Canton J. W. Stebbins with a committee from Genesee lodge and Mount Hope encampment headed by the Martial band surprised Chevalier Robert Walton at his residence on Jones-st., the occasion being his return from his wedding trip. The chevaliers marched into the spacious parlor, when Colonel Stebbins, in a very neat speech presented Mr. and Mrs. Walton, in behalf of the above orders, with two very handsome chairs as a token of esteem. The surprise was so great that the brother was at a disadvantage, but in a few moments he was able to respond by thanking the chevaliers and the committee of Genesee lodge and Mount Hope encampment. Brother F. G. Vogel gave the newly married couple some good advice and wished them success in their enterprise. Brother F. Stallmiller also told some of his experiences. Mr. and Mrs. Walton invited their guests to the dining-room, where an elaborate supper was served. After thanking their hosts for their hospitality, and wishing the bride and groom every success in life, they marched back to their hall, having spent a very pleasant evening."

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. d16w1-6mo

HOSPITABLE ODDFELLOWS.

A Pleasant "At Home" Given by Peterborough Lodge, I. O. O. F.—A Farewell Presentation

The "At Home" given by Peterborough Lodge, I. O. O. F., last evening was a grand success, music, mirth and entire absence of formality making the evening one of the most pleasant that has been spent in a similar manner in Peterborough during the season. The "at home" was not only one for the entertainment of the friends of the members of the lodge, but it was also a farewell re-union tendered Bro. John Mein, a P. G. of the lodge, who leaves about the first of March for Victoria, B. C., where he intends to take up his residence. There must have been three or four hundred ladies and gentlemen present, but the most complete and handsome preparations had been made for their reception and entertainment. The lodge room proper had been furnished with tables and seated with chairs, and here, without any chairman or other formality, the guests of the lodge were at liberty to enjoy the games and amusements provided. In the ante-room other amusements furnished enjoyment for visitors. Then the two large vacant rooms adjoining had been secured and decorated for the occasion. The halls and passages had all been transformed into attractive retreats by bunting and flags tastefully arranged. Everything, in fact, had been attended to that would add to the success of the event and make the evening's enjoyment complete. Those who were present seemed to be inspired with the proper spirit, and pleasant social intercourse pervaded the gathering, one and all.

THE PRESENTATION.

Before the lodge room was thrown open to the guests, the lodge went into session when the event of the evening took place. Bro. John Mein has been a good Oddfellow, always consistent with the elevating principles laid down by the Order, and always active in assisting and promoting the interests of Oddfellowship. His departure from town will be a loss not only to Peterborough Lodge, but to Mount Hebron Encampment and Canton Peterborough, both of which branches of the Order he was also a member. His brethren in these three organizations, therefore, decided to express their regret at his departure, their appreciation of his work among them, and their wishes for success in his new home. The address was read by Bro. A. Macfarlane, R. S. of the lodge, and the presentation was made by Bro. R. Mulligan, V. G. The address read as follows:

To Bro. John Mein, Past Grand, Peterborough Lodge, I.O.O.F., No. 111:

DEAR BROTHER.—Your brethren of this lodge having learned with great regret that you are about to remove from the town desire before that event to place upon record an expression of the sentiments of respect and esteem and of brotherly regard which your life, both as a citizen and an Oddfellow, have awakened in all who have come in contact with you in either capacity.

As an Oddfellow especially, we can bear testimony to the exemplary manner in which you have fulfilled your obligations and lived the precepts of the Order in your daily life. Both on the floor of the Lodge room and in the various chairs, which have been steps to the highest in the gift of this lodge, you have shown commendable zeal and assiduity in promoting the principles of our beloved Order and we are sure that, in the distant land where you are going to make your home, you will not be found wanting when the grand principles of friendship, love and truth need a champion and promoter.

While we shall miss you as a companion and brother, and on that account deeply regret your departure, we still must heartily wish you God-speed on your journey towards the setting sun and wish you the fullest measure of success in whatever undertakings you may engage in and wish you wealth and health to enjoy it, a happy home and a happy wife to share it.

In earnest of our good wishes we ask your acceptance of this watch which we hope will, as long as you carry it, mark none but happy hours for you, and may its face remind you of the faces of the friends you leave behind you in dear old Peterborough.

Signed on behalf of the lodge,
J. D. TULLY,
N. G. Peterborough Lodge.
A. McFARLANE,
Rec.-Sec. Peterborough Lodge.
W. M. SAVIGNY,
C. P. Mount Hebron Encampment.
JOSEPH KIDD,
Scribe Mt. Hebron Encampment.
D. H. MOORE,
Com. Canton Peterborough.
W. C. SPRINGER,
Clerk Canton Peterborough.

The watch which accompanied the address was a handsome gold one, and had an elegant gold chain and Oddfellow's locket attached.

Bro. Mein made a suitable reply, referring to his pleasant relations in the past, promising to remain faithful to the Order in the future and returning his thanks for their kind words and handsome remembrance.

THE SOCIAL EVENING.

After the presentation the lodge was closed down and the walls which usually see only the movements of duly qualified Oddfellows looked upon a happy scene, where, instead of the mysteries of the Order, mirth, merriment and sociability held sway. While the gathering were busy at their games some excellent music was rendered by Mr. Umpleby, and Miss Clarke also contributed a vocal solo. After some time pleasantly spent refreshments of a most sumptuous character were served, Messrs. Long and Hooper being the caterers. After refreshments the games were again resumed and the orchestra furnished music for the dancers.

A few hours were most happily spent before the gathering dispersed.

Peterborough Lodge is to be congratulated on the success of their "At Home" and the successful hosts which they proved to be.

The Peterborough Oddfellows will all regret Bro. Mein's departure and will in parting extend to him the good hand of fellowship and wish him God-speed.

Brevities.

—There was another blank at the police court this morning.

—A convention for the discussion of the sugar beet industry is being held at Harwood to-day.

—The strike among the bricklayers at the Edison Works still continues.

—The Manufacturers and Fire, Water and Light Committees of the Town Council meet this evening.

—A number of ladies of the George-st. Methodist church drove out to Lakefield last evening and organized a branch of the Ladies Auxiliary in that village.

—Some forty members of the local lodge of Good Templars drove out to Mount Pleasant last night and gave an entertainment for the local lodge of Good Templars. An enjoyable time was spent.

The Population of Peterborough

is about 10,000, and we would say at least one-half are troubled with some affection of the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all our readers not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Trial size free. Large bottle 50c and $1. Sold by all druggists.

Health by Good Living.

For your choicest beef, mutton, lamb, pork, ham, breakfast bacon, spiced cof sausage, etc., go to John J. Howden, 431 George-st. Bacon sold by actual weight. d144f

THE STORY OF ESTHER

BIBLE HISTORY IN VERSE AND MUSIC.

The Cantata at the Opera House a Brilliant Pageant and Gratifying Musical Success—Impersonations and Impersonators—The House Crowded—A Second Night.

It may be taken as granted that every-one is familiar with that romantic and interesting chapter of sacred history the story of Esther and her Jewish people. Whether one reads the account as penned by the inspired writer or the less veracious though more detailed narrative of Josephus, the story has a strong and human interest, in the triumph of right over wrong, in the defeat of those who plotted destruction to the Jews in their captivity of the days of Ahasuerus the King. The scene is laid in the Shushan palace in the capital of Persia.

No better evidence can be desired than the house, the crowded house of last night, to show that our townspeople are always willing to encourage and assist a local institution or local effort. The large audience could not but inspire those taking part in the cantata to do their best, and apart from a natural diffidence at appearing in such a role before an audience of friends, the performers acquitted themselves with a deal of credit and to the admiration of all. The cantata, it may be remarked, had been in course of practise for some time under the direction of Mr. J. H. Ketcham, and at the expense of a great deal of time on the part of those participating. The result is highly creditable to his ability, tact, and patience, for all these attributes are called into play in handling and keeping together the individual influences at work.

In presenting the cantata Mr. Ketcham had the valuable assistance of the gentlemen of the Peterborough Amateur Orchestra. The instrumentation, carefully rendered, carried along the choruses with a swing and precision that an accompaniment of less volume would have lacked, while the carefully balanced accompaniment to the solos and recitatives were given with taste and skill. The action of the cantata, to use a theatrical phrase, was given on the programme together with the cast of characters or principal parts or soloists, and it is not necessary here to give in detail or succinct order the various movements of the score. The fact that the cantata was presented in costume lent great interest to the performance and, as the action progressed, afforded, opportunity for many striking and effective tableaux, especially at the close of the several acts. The costumes of the characters were appropriate and rich and those of the chorus formed an effective back ground against which the principals were grouped. Following is the cast of characters who took the principal parts.

King	Mr. W. J. Drope
Queen	Miss Edith Hall
Haman	Mr. George Matthews
Zeriah	Mrs. H. Stapleton
Mordecai	Mr. W. H. Manning
Mordecai's Sister	Miss Annie Dunn
Prophetess	Mrs. Daly
High Priest	Mr. Wm. Hill
Queen's Attendants	Miss Alice Davis Miss Lizzie Ketcham
Scribe	Mr. R. Rose
Guards	Mr. J Crane Mr. Jones Mr. McCallum Mr. B. Brooks
Pages	Maud Lundy Pearl Lundy Ada McBain

When the curtain was raised the sight was almost electrifying. The full depth and width of the stage was filled with the chorus, the bright faces of the ladies, the charming front ranks of the chorus framed in a blaze of white and crimson - the attire of the Persian section. Grouped behind were the men in less brilliant costume. Down below sat Mr. Ketcham wielding the baton as director. The orchestra played the opening bars of the accompaniment and the first chorus was attacked with vigor and enthusiasm. The effort in this respect at once created a favorable impression which was strengthened as succeeding numbers were taken. The singing of the chorus was admirable from first to last. Of the most pleasing may be mentioned, "To Thee O Lord," in act 2, the obligato chorus to "God is the Refuge of His People," "Go thou merrily" and "Rejoice, Open ye the Gates" and the finale, "Praise ye the Lord.". When it is remembered that the score of eighteen choruses had to be committed to memory it will be seen that the work has not been inconsiderable.

The King (Mr. Drope), bass, was a capital presentation, grandly attired as became the throne of Persia. His solos were given in good voice and confidence, his duet with Haman, "A Song of Joy," being boldly sung and full of spirit. The queen (Miss Edith Hall) was richly costumed, and her difficult solos were extremely well sung and were warmly applauded. Haman (Mr. Matthews), baritone, a prominent part, and presenting considerable difficulty in execution owing to the recitatives, was well taken. Mr. Matthews surprised his friends by his fine rendering of "To the King" and "A Song of Joy." with other selections. "Zeriah" (Mrs. H. Stapleton) claimed attention as representing very closely in costume the character assigned, and her fine alto was an admirable feature both in solo and duet during act 4. Mordecai (Mr. Manning) tenor, gave cleverly and impressively the difficult role of the Jewish hero. His solos of "Woe is Me," "Israel, O, Israel" and other numbers were to his credit, and in a distinctive way appropriate to the character. To "Mordecai's Sister" (Miss Annie Dunn), soprano, go the honors of the evening, her exquisite rendering of the solos and obligatos in the selections "God is the Refuge of His People," and "Thou Wilt Keep Him in Perfect Peace," received subdued though earnest applause, and in the duet with "Mordecai" was equally well received. The Prophetess (Mrs. Daly), soprano, gave her warning to the Court with considerable histrionic ability, her vocalization of the solo being perfect, displaying, as Mrs. Daly always does, the acme of clear enunciation and charming effect. The "High Priest" (Mr Wm. Hill, bass, rendered solos, full, sonorous and effective, his costume being admirable. In the solo, with choral accompaniment, "Thou Wilt Keep Him," Mr. Hill acquitted himself with great credit. A pleasing feature was the quartette by the "Guards" (Messrs. Crane, Jones, McCallum and Brooks), which was sung boldly, in good time and with a swing and zest that must have provoked an encore had such been permissable. The "Scribe" (Mr. R. Rose) filled his responsible duties in good order, while a charming bit of side play that made one wish there was more of it was the entrances and exits of the "Pages," little Ada McBain and Maud Lundy. The Queen's attendants, Misses Alice Davis and Lizzie Ketcham, were charming companions for so charming a queen. The chorus by the children, who marched in to do obeisance to the king and queen, was very sweetly sung by both boys and girls, the latter looking bright and attractive in their light dresses and crimson sashes and ribbons.

It was gratifying to find that the action of the cantata ran so smoothly and without hesitation, due largely, it is understood, to Mrs. Ketcham, who had the direction and drilling of the solos and dramatic features as her share of the work of preparation. Mr. R. M. Roy also gave some assistance at rehearsals and on Thursday evening. As the large audience withdrew, expressions of delight and satisfaction were heard on all sides at the success achieved.

The Cantata will be repeated to-night with following caste in the leading parts:—

King	Mr. E Knowles
Queen	Miss Annie Fawcett
Haman	Mr. Wm. Greatrex
Zeriah	Miss Nettie Wrighton
Mordecai	Mr. A. L. Davis
Mordecai's Sister	Miss Sophy Cameron
Prophetess	Miss May Hubeck
High Priest	Mr Hill
Queen's Attendants	Miss K. Wrighton Miss Vina Belleghem
Scribe	Mr. J. Crane
Guards	Mr. Rose Mr. Jones Mr McCallum Mr. B. Brooks
Pages	Maud Lundy Pearl Lundy Ada McBain

THE BAPTIST MISSION.

The South Ward Mission School Holds its Annual Entertainment.

The Baptist South Ward Mission School held its annual entertainment last Tuesday evening, when a very enjoyable evening was spent, the children rendering a programme which was exceedingly entertaining. Mr. H. Grundy, superintendent, presided. Rev. Mr. W. K. Anderson, of Lindsay, was present and conducted the opening exercises. Dr. Scott, superintendent of the Murray-st. church Sunday school, and Messrs. E. Elcombe and A. Turner, of the Auburn Mission, R. J. Kidd, J. C. Turnbull and Alex. Gillespie were present and gave short, happy speeches during the evening. The school had been nicely decorated with curtains, bunting, etc., and had put on quite an attractive appearance. The work of decorating was done by Miss Mann's Bible class. There was a large attendance of the parents and friends of the children.

THE SECRETARY'S REPORT.

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

This Sunday school was organized in Sept., 1888, this being our second annual social, and this the second annual report. The attendance at the beginning was most encouraging, being about 45, the largest attendance being 60, while this year it has reached as high as 60, with an average of 55, being an increase of 5 over the preceding year. We hope now that this part of the town is being built up that this building will soon become too small to accommodate us, and that we may have a building of our own. We have a staff of nine teachers, at first only having seven—another evidence of the increasing attendance. We have now a library of 279 books, having increased it by 33 new volumes.

The receipts for the year are as follows:

Collections	$51 70
Balance from last year	1 55
Total	53 25

And our expenses are:

Mrs. Drake for care of school	$17 00
Lesson pic. slips, Baptist teacher and cards	12 61
Sunday school papers, N. Mess. G. New	3 19
22 new libraries	7 50
Wood	4 73
Library cards and recitation book	1 15
Total	$46 18
Balance on hand	7 07

THE PROGRAMME.

The following is the programme as rendered:—

Chorus, "I'm a Little Pilgrim	Children
Welcome Recitation	Bertha Hunt
Recitation, "Who Loves Mother Best"	Emma Dicks and Rennie Dunsford
Recitation	Allie Wills
Instrumental solo	Messrs. Hudson and Williams
Recitation	Eldur Hunt
Recitation, "Have You any Stars in Your Crown"	Maggie Davidson
Recitation	Lillie Dicks
Recitation	Alex Davidson
Recitation, "Chatterbox"	Maggie Wells
Recitation	Ethel Stabler
Song	Nellie Pilling
Recitation	Wallie Kennedy
Recitation, "Remember the Poor"	Mary Booth
Recitation	Mary Davidson
Recitation, "A New Book"	Seven little children
Song, "Dropping Pennies"	Emma Dicks and Mary Davidson
Recitation	Gertie Martin
Recitation	Ethel Bain
Recitation	"Boys' Grevious Complaint" Fred. Davidson.
Recitation	Herbie Martin
Essay	Maggie Davidson
Recitation	Bessie Hughes
Reading	Edith Wells
Song	Miss Mann's Class
Intermission.
Instrumental duet	Misses Hudson and Williams
Reading	May Pilling
Recitation	Rennie Dunsford
Closing Hymn	"Sweet Bye and Bye"
Benediction.

To Rent.

Farms wanted to rent. Tenants supplied this year at half price. Call or write.

T. HURLEY,
d23tf 257 George-st.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. G. Gumpricht is in town Order may be left at Messrs. Taylor & McDonald's store. 1yd105

Make Your Plants Grow

and bloom by using Royal Plant Food. Sold only at Mason's Seed and Plant House, corner of Water and Brock sts. d34

Committee Meeting, Ward No. Two.

All persons who intend to take part and give the Conservative candidate a majority in this ward, please be at the Committee Rooms, Bradburn's opera house, to-night at 7 p'm. Meeting from 7 to 9.

1d GEORGE STEVENSON, chairman.

I Will Give You

The best bargains in groceries in Peterborough. My stock is new and goods are all first-class. Just received a nice line of Japan Tea I am selling at 25c per lb. Special discounts to hotels, boarding houses and parties purchasing goods in large quantities. Alex. Elliott, 383 George-st. Peterborough. d30

The Coming Contest.

It is considered it will be of a very lively nature. Every man may have his friends in politics, but when it comes to Grit or Tory of course he must cast his vote for his party irrespective of social friendship. The same may be said in this case. Parties may have their friends, but when it comes to business and they wish to buy tea, Groceries, wines or liquors at sacrifice, w j morrow's is the place they go to. d31w7

At it Again.

At what? Both political parties pegging away, getting ready for the fray. They say that a political contest wake's business up. That may or may not be the case, but which ever party wins there is the reflection that winners and losers also will go ahead drinking Hawley Bros. teas, the best, the purest, the cheapest that are sold. It may be convenient to forget some things in politics, but don't forget Hawley Bros teas. d31tf

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on a trial

VOLTAIC BELT Co., Marshall, Mich.

TO-NIGHT'S MEETING.

General meeting of Mr. Stevenson's supporters to-night, (Friday) at the committee rooms, Old Council Chamber. Working men are urged to come forward and look after their own interests involved in the issues of the campaign. Rooms open every evening.

NOMINATING CANDIDATES.

A Score or More of Candidates Chosen Yesterday.

South Leeds—George Taylor (Con.)

Haldimand—Dr. Montague (Con.)

Lincoln—S. Neelon (Con.) J. C. Rykert was nominated, but declined in Neelon's favor.

Montreal West—Sir Donald Smith (Con.)

Addington—J. W. Bell (Con.)

Richelieu, Que.—Sir Hector Langevin (Con.)

South Ontario—James I. Davidson (Ref.). William Smith (Con.)

West Hastings—Harry Corby (Con.)

Brockville—John F. Woods (Con.)

North Norfolk—John Charlton.

West Durham—Robert Beith.

East Toronto—E. Coatsworth.

Frontenac—Hon. G. A. Kirkpatrick (Con.)

North Essex—J. C. Patterson (Con.)

East Huron—Mr. Musgrove, the Conservative nominee in East Huron against Dr. McDonald, has declined to enter the contest.

West Huron — McCameron of Goderich (Ref.)

North Simcoe—D'Alton McCarthy (Con.)

South Victoria—Thomas Walters, Mayor of Lindsay (Ref.)

North Middlesex—W. H. Hutchins of Parkhill (Con.)

North Hastings—Hon. Mackenzie Bowell (Con.)

North Perth—S. R. Hesson (Con.)

South Grey—Dr. Landerkin (Ref.)

Bothwell—Hon. David Mills (Ref.)

East Simcoe—Dr. Spohn of Penetanguishene (Ref.)

Ottawa County—Charles Devlin, jr., of Aylmer (Ref.)

East Lambton—R. Stutt of Bosanquet (Ref.).

Glengarry — A rousing meeting of the Liberal-Conservative party was held at Alexandria yesterday. A letter from Mr. J McLennan was read in which he agreed to accept providing both parties consented to his nomination as an Independent. This the convention declined to do. The nomination was then unanimously tendered to Mr. R. R. McLennan, who accepted, and is now in the field as the Liberal-Conservative candidate.

A Scheme that Failed.

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 12.—An attempt was made to rob the Citizens' Bank to-day. The robber leaped over the counter rail and pulled a revolver on Assistant Cashier McCuaig and ordered him to hold up his hands. The robber then gathered up the loose money and putting it in a satchel started for the door. The cashier yelled police and the man was arrested.

CUPID SIDETRACKED.

Love Flew in the Window and Passed Out the Door.

COLUMBUS, Kan., Feb. 12.—Richard Halsey of Baxter Springs came over yesterday and saw his separated wife at the Empire House. He shot her, then killed himself. She will recover, but until she does so the cause of the tragedy will be a mystery.

Two Hearts That Didn't Beat as One.

LOWELL, Mass., Feb. 12.—Fat, fair and 40 Miss Luella Churchill has sued Lumber dealer Benjamin F. Sargent for breach of promise. She assesses the damages wrought upon her heart at $30,000 and has attached his property in that amount, so that he'll have to pay if the jury say so. There are affectionate letters to be introduced in evidence to prove the prior attachment.

Wives off on a Jaunt.

NEWARK, O., Feb. 12.—The heads of the Lacasand Ford households returned from work the other evening to find no wives and no furniture left in their houses. Jennie and Dollie had sold out and gone to Indianapolis during the day. Their husbands have sent for them.

A Widow Sweetheart's Credit Used.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Police messages vibrate over the wires from this city asking: "Where is Harman Miller, who went to Nicholson Village, on the Lackawanna Railroad, wooed and won rich young Widow Randall, used her name to get credit on at the store, borrowed several hundred dollars more and her gold watch of her, and left without a wedding?" There is no answer to the messages, except from the widow. She says: "I'm glad that such a thief went away so soon."

Sorry Sort of Bridegroom.

MAYSVILLE, Ky., Feb. 12.—Charles Fleming, a young man who comes of a wealthy and influential family of Fleming county, claims he was robbed at the Central Hotel here of $40 Sunday night. He says he was going to marry Anna Berry of Elizaville Wednesday but now will postpone the wedding.

The Kissing Priest's Blunder.

BROOKLYN, N.Y., Feb. 12.—Rev. Father Matthiaside M. Yodyzus, pastor of the Lithuanian Catholic Church, Williamsburg, who has heretofore been arrested for shooting at a parishioner who sought to get his wife out of the priest's house at night, and for embracing and kissing another feminine parishioner, has appeared in a new but somewhat similar role. He charges Maggie Pitakowski, his servant girl, with stealing $350 from him. She denies the charge, says it is done for spite to blacken her, and that the priest mutilated her face and tried to kill her yesterday because she wouldn't let him kiss her.

FOR ARSON.

Two Years For Burning a House Belonging to His Wife.

WHITBY, Feb. 12.—Joseph Gegg of Goodwood has been sentenced by Judge Burnham to two years in Kingston Penitentiary on a charge of setting fire to a house belonging to his wife. He got drunk and chased his wife and family out of the house with a gun. He then burnt the house.

Confessed His Guilt.

LYNDEN, Feb. 12.—A young lad named James Weir of Harrisburg has confessed that he was responsible for the burning of the barns and house of Robert Nesbitt, with whom he was formerly employed. Weir's story is that he entered the house to obtain food, and while there he let the lamp fall on the floor and the burning oil set fire to the carpet. Weir then said that he returned to the barn, and whilst groping about in the dark struck his head against a beam, and in order to learn his whereabouts he lit a match, which fell amongst the straw, the fire immediately spreading over the whole building. He has been committed for trial.

For Burning His Store.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 12.—A. C. Jandall of Marshall, Mich., was taken east yesterday for trial. About three months ago the store of Jandall was burned, and shortly after the fire Jandall disappeared under circumstances which seemed to point suspiciously toward him as the author of the fire. Jandall was located at Winnipeg and arrested. Extradition was waived and Jandall agreed to return to Marshall.

Diphtheria's Ravages.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—Six of the children of Mr. James Perkins of Dufferin-avenue who are stricken down with diphtheria have been removed to the hospital. The eldest child, a girl of 16 years, is too low to be moved. Two deaths have already occurred in the family during the past few days.

Dropped Dead from His Chair.

MINDEN, Feb. 12.—An aged farmer named Mann dropped dead from his chair yesterday

MARRIED

YOUNG—WHYTE.—At Rockdale, on Monday, Feb. 9th, by the Rev. J. J. Rae, J. ALBERT YOUNG, of Rockdale, to ADA WHYTE, daughter of the late John Whyte, formerly of Sunderland, England.

COPYRIGHT 1890

A DEAD SHOT

right at the seat of difficulty, is accomplished by the sure and steady aim of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Don't fool around with a pop-gun, nor a "Flint-lock," when this reliable "Winchester" is within reach!

Dr. Sage's treatment of Catarrh in the Head is far superior to the ordinary, and when directions are reasonably well followed, results in a permanent cure. Don't longer be indifferent to the verified claims of this unfailing Remedy.

The worst forms of Catarrh disappear with the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties effect a perfect and permanent cure, no matter how bad the case, or of how long standing. It's a remedy that succeeds where everything else has failed. Thousands of such cases can be pointed out. That's the reason its makers back their faith in it with money. They offer $500 reward for a case of Catarrh which they cannot cure.

It's a medicine that allows them to take such a risk.

Doesn't common sense lead you to take such a medicine?

"An advertising fake" you say.

Funny, isn't it, how some people prefer sickness to health when the remedy is positive and the guarantee absolute.

Wise men don't put money back of "fakes."

And "faking" doesn't pay.

COPYRIGHT 1890

After dinner, if you have discomfort and suffering, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, or Anti-Bilious Granules. They're made to assist Nature in her own way—quietly, but thoroughly. What the old-fashioned pill did forcibly, these do mildly and gently. They do more, too. Their effects are lasting; they regulate the system, as well as cleanse and renovate it. One little Pellet's a gentle laxative; three to four act as a cathartic. They're the smallest, cheapest, the easiest to take. Unequaled as a Liver Pill. Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the stomach and bowels, are promptly relieved and permanently cured.

They're the cheapest pill you can buy, because they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned.

You only pay for the good you get. Can you ask more?

A POLITICAL SCENE
On George-St.

A trio of anxious aspirants discussing the issues of the campaign.
One advocates "Free Trade."
Another wants "Reciprocity."
The third clamors for "Protection."

DOLAN THE CLOTHIER

Happens along and puts an end to the debate by remarking: "Gentlemen—judging from the general appearance of your wearing apparel," permit me to say that you all need clothes. The meeting broke up and adjourned to headquarters for clothing.

They were shown Suits from $5 to $25.
They looked at Overcoats from $4 to $24.
They saw Pantaloons from $1 to $10.

Finally they all bought a whole outfit. The white oak plank in our platform caught them solid, viz:—

One Price, a Low Price
AND
SQUARE DEALING.

Let others be guided by the wisdom of the above gentlemen, and remember
That we don't want your votes,
But we do want your notes
—AT—
DOLAN'S.

"PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE"

parties still hold the boards. We have a lot of good playing cards at 25c. a pack, or 5 for $1.00. These are worth 40c. each.

SAILSBURY BROS.

"Hello there, Brown, where are you going in such a hurry?"

"Why, I am going to J. J. Turner to get a pair of the fine Waterproof Horse Covers he makes. I tell you they are the finest I have seen. He also makes Wagon Covers, Lap Rugs, Clothing, &c.

"You want the address; all right,

J. J. TURNER,

The Tent and Awning Maker, corner of George and King-sts., Peterborough.
Telephone day or night.

LIME!

First quality Lime, in any quantity, for sale and delivered to any part of the town. Builders, contractors, etc. supplied promptly at current prices. Lime house, at G.T.R. Station.

A. RUTHERFORD.

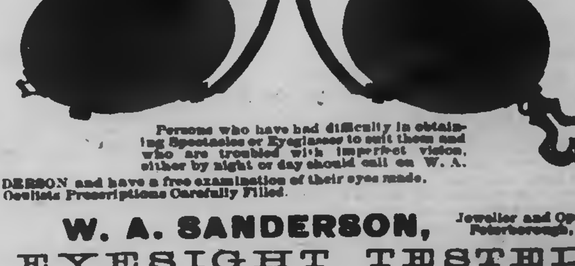
CAKES!

For a Good Cake, leave your orders at

Long Bros.

Also home-made cakes Iced and nicely Ornamented. Wedding Breakfasts and Evening Parties Catered for. Oyster Patties made to order. Our stock of Candies is pure and made by ourselves.

No. 286 and 414 George-st.



Persons who have had difficulty in obtaining Spectacles or Eyeglasses to suit them and who are troubled with imperfect vision, either by night or day should call on W. A. SANDERSON and have a free examination of their eyes made.
Oculists Prescriptions Carefully Filled.

W. A. SANDERSON, Jeweller and Optician, Peterborough, Ont.
EYESIGHT TESTED.

THE STANDARD LIFE
Assurance Company,
ESTABLISHED 1832

Subsisting Assurances ......$101,250,000.
Invested Funds .... 34,000,000.
Annual Income .... 4,500,000.
Bonuses Distributed .... 22,000,000.

The Funds Invested in Canada amount to nearly.... $5,000,000.
Deposited with Dominion Government at Ottawa.. 1,100,000

All plans of Assurance. Non Forfeitable Policies. Absolutely unconditional [illegible] from date of issue without extra charge. Absolute security. Rates [illegible] with any first-class Company)

W. M. RAMSAY, [illegible]

A.V.R. YOUNG, General Agent, and Inspector for Midland District, [illegible]
C. CAMERON,
MULLHOLLAND & ROPER, | Special Agents

Choicest Brands

—OF—

FLOUR!

BAKERS and PASTRY

—AT—

MELDRUM & DAVIDSON'S

Quality Guaranteed.

FEED:

All kinds always on hand. Orders left at Ormond & Walsh's or McDonald's drug stores will be promptly attended to.

Mill Telephone No. 106.

LOWEST PRICES FOR CASH.

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1891.

Bethlehem Town.

As I was going to Bethlehem town
Upon the earth I cast me down
All underneath a little tree
That whispered in this wise to me:
"Oh, I shall stand on Calvary
And bear what burthen saveth thee!"

As up I fared to Bethlehem town,
I met a shepherd coming down,
And thus he quoth: "A wondrous sight
Hath spread before mine eyes this night,
An angel host most fair to see
That sung full sweetly of a tree
That shall uplift on Calvary
What burthen saveth you and me!"

And as I gat to Bethlehem town,
Lo! wise men came that bore a crown:
"Is there," cried I, "in Bethlehem
A King shall wear this diadem?"
"Good sooth," they quoth, "and it is He
That shall be lifted on the tree
And freely shed on Calvary
What blood redeemeth us and thee!"

Unto a Child in Bethlehem town
The wise men came and brought the crown;
And while the infant smiling slept
Upon their knees they fell and wept;
But, with her babe upon her knee,
Naught recked that Mother of the tree
That should uplift on Calvary
What burthen saveth all and me.

Again I walk in Bethlehem town
And think on Him that wears the crown;
I may not kiss His feet again
Nor worship Him as did I then;
My King hath died upon the tree
And hath outpoured on Calvary
What blood redeemeth you and me!

—Eugene Field.

A PROPER MISTAKE.

"Our Sarah?" said Mrs. Sedley, in the subdued voice, tuned to a plaintive minor, which had been the outcome of many sorrows and a lifetime of tribulations. "Did you want to see her? She's in the back yard, hangin' out the clothes. We're dreadful behind in our wash this week, but it's rained every day until now. It's unseasonable weather, say what you will. Now I wonder," she added to herself, "what Mr. Jessup wants of Sarah? It can't be about the district school, for it's been give to Naomi Didgett, fair and square enough; and if he wants her to join one o' them botanical classes, she may just say no. A poor man's daughter can't spare the time to go trampin' over the hills and dales, pickin' clover leaves and sour-grass, and puttin' long Latin names to 'em. Our Sarah's got somethin' else to do! She aint situated like Squire Poole's sister and the Deming gals!"

And she went slowly back to her occupation of re-filling a newly washed bed-tick with bales of shining yellow straw.

John Jessup took his way over the dew-spangled grass of the "back yard," past the well sweep, under the yellowing fruit of the gnarly old quince tree, to where Sarah Sedley, with a sun-bonnet fallen back on her shoulders, was pinning innumerable fluttering pennons of household linen out to dry.

He looked quietly at her.

"Jamie must have forgotten to tell her that I was coming this morning," said he to himself.

Jamie had; but, after all, it did not signify so much. Sarah was always neatly dressed, no matter what her avocation might be. Her hair always shone like golden brown; her plain linen collar was always spotlessly white; and her smile, as she turned around at the crisp sound of his footsteps on the grass, lighted up her whole face like a sunbeam.

"Oh, Mr. Jessup, is that you?" said she. "I'll be through in a minute!"

Jessup sat down on the low twisted branch of an apple tree which seemed almost as if it had been made for a rustic seat.

"I can wait," said he, composedly, as he settled down quietly.

Sarah went on with her work, as if she knew how becoming were those swift evolutions to her slim, well-built figure and long white arms, and how like a cameo her pretty profile showed against the dazzling blue of the September firmament.

"I suppose it's about the botany class," said she, straightening a well-darned tablecloth with two or three deft strokes of the hand.

"No, it isn't about the botany," said Jessup. "Sarah, you work exactly as if you liked it."

"I do," said Sarah. "I believe I'm a born housekeeper."

"Sarah!"

"Yes, Mr. Jessup."

"How would you like to be my housekeeper?"

Sarah Sedley shook out the wet, snowy folds of a pillow case, and pinned it as straight as the lines of a geometrical proposition.

"Then it's true," said she; "that your mother's rheumatism is troubling her?"

"Yes, I am sorry to say that it is true."

"And," fixing her clear, wine brown eyes on his face, "you think I could suit you?"

"I don't know of any one who would suit me half as well," he answered, promptly.

Sarah pondered a moment, as she rescued a clothes-pin from the paws of a frisky young Maltese kitten.

"I—don't—know—that—I have any objection," said she. "Mother would miss me, of course!"

"Of course!"

John Jessup had half risen from his apple-tree throne, but Sarah kept diligently on disentangling the cable-like folds of a huge unbleached sheet.

"But I could come over and see her Sunday evenings?" said she.

"Or any other evening that you pleased."

"And one afternoon in a week?"

"Why, certainly," he responded.

"I should be treated like one of the family?"

"My mother would desire no dearer daughter."

"I don't expect her to feel like that," said Sarah, gravely. "But, of course, I shall try my best to be agreeable to her. Tell her I'll come over to see her this evening—after I've consulted with mother, of course."

"Shall I see your mother, Sarah?"

"No—why should you? I'm old enough to manage these things for myself, am I not?"

"But, Sarah—"

"Please excuse me just this minute," said Sarah, catching up the empty basket. "Jamie has left the door of the vegetable garden open, and the fowls are scratching up the new celery plants!"

"How practically she takes things!" said Jessup to himself, with a little shrug of the shoulders. "She is like no other girl that ever I saw. I wonder if she is coming back? No; she keep straight on to the kitchen door. Well, I suppose I may consider myself dismissed for the present."

And he climbed lightly over the stone wall, to take the short cut through the woods to Jessup Farm; while Sarah deliberately hung the clothes basket against the wall of the outer kitchen, and placed the clothes-pin box on the top shelf, well out of the reach of the marauding kitten.

"Mother," said she, "I'm going for hired help."

"La!" said Mrs. Sedley, who had reached the stage of mattress-making in which she was sewing up the tick with a stout needle and doubled linen thread.

"To Mrs. Jessup's," explained the girl.

"Yes, but, Sarah—"

"It isn't worth while to offer any objection," said Sarah, with a little determined nod of her well-poised head. "I'm to be treated as one of the family, and Mr. Jessup says his mother wants me dreadfully. It seems her rheumatism is bad again."

"Dear, dear!" interpolated Mrs. Sedley.

"And although I hate to leave you, yet there isn't much to do, now that the summer boarder season is over," pursued Sarah. "And you can easily get along with what help Jamie can give you, before and after school, and of course all my wages will go towards paying interest on the mortgage. And—but who's that?"

"It's only Ruth Ann Peebles," said Mrs. Sedley, "come to do a week's tailoring' and dressmakin'. I s'posed you'd seen her outside!"

Little Miss Peebles got up from her chair, with cheeks pinker than a mountain daisy.

"How do you do, Sarah?" said she. "You're in luck, to get such a chance to earn money."

"Yes," said Sarah, simply. "The Jessups are very pleasant people, if one means to live out at all."

"I wish I could get a place like that," said Ruth Ann, with a sigh.

Mrs. Sedley chuckled.

"Our Sarah's always in luck," said she.

"They are nice people," said Ruth Ann. "I helped Mrs. Jessup once, for a week, with six new quilts that she had on the frame. I never had a pleasanter week in my life. Where's the patterns for Jamie's overcoat, Mrs. Sedley? You had 'em!"

Sarah Sedley's new "engagement" made quite a sensation in the neighborhood. Mrs. Didgett heard of it as she came over to borrow a quart of real cider vinegar.

"La me, Sarah Sedley," said she; "of I'd a know'd you was goin' to live out I'd have give you twelve dollars a month myself!"

"Would you?" The wine-brown eyes sparkled. Mrs. Didgett lived close by, where Sarah could see her mother's milk-room windows from the Didgett door-step; and the Jessup family never had paid but ten dollars. "Will you give it to me now?"

"Yes, I will, in a minute. Gran'ther Didgett's gettin' dreadfully infirm, and there 's a many steps to take in a house like ours, especially sence Naomi took to school teachin'."

"Then," said Sarah, composedly, "I'll come, just as soon as you like."

"But—Mr. Jessup's folks!" queried Mrs. D.

"I'll manage that," said Sarah, firmly.

The new moon hung like a tiny sickle of silver over the crooked apple tree, where the lines had long since been denuded of their fluttering glories; the stars were shining as only New England stars know how to shine out of a crisp September sky, when a little brown-cloaked figure came out of the Sedley yard, and hurried along the road. In a second, as it were, a tall young man stepped forth from the shadows and joined her.

"I've been waiting for you, Sarah," said he. "You are going to our home?"

"O, Mr. Jessup," said Ruth Ann Peebles, with a start, "it isn't Sarah Sedley; it's me."

"Ruth Ann!"

Was it disappointment in his voice? Or was it a certain frank ring of pleasure? Ruth Ann was too flurried to be able to discriminate just at first.

"Yes, I'm a substitute, you must know," she added, with an agitated little laugh. "Sarah has changed her mind. She's had an offer that suits her better than yours."

"Oh!" said Mr. Jessup.

"To go to live at Didgett's," went on Ruth Ann.

"Indeed!"

"And she hopes you won't mind taking me in her place," added Ruth Ann, with a strange little tremolo in her voice. "I may not look quite so robust as she does, but I'm very strong, and I can do all sorts of work, and I would do my very best to suit your mother. It's hard to go from house to house at my trade, and I've often felt hungry like, seeing other people's snug homes. So that even if I'm only hired help—"

"So you would like me to take you in Miss Sedley's place," said John Jessup, looking down at Ruth Ann's soft blue eyes and cheeks tinged with delicate pink.

"Yes, if you please," meekly answered Little Miss Peebles.

"Agreed," said John. It's a bargain, eh?"

"Of course it's a bargain," said Ruth Ann "But—but—please don't hold my hand so tight."

"Why shouldn't I, Ruth Ann? Because, don't you see, there has been a misunderstanding all around. I didn't ask Sarah Sedley to be my hired help—I asked her to be my wife. Will you be the substitute now? You must, dear, for you have promised!"

Ruth Ann had begun to tremble. The roses and lilies chased each other fitfully across her cheek; her blue eyes sparkled.

But she faltered:

"What will Sarah say?"

"She will never know it now. I was dazzled by her bright eyes and winsome ways. But it seems she took everything in a literal sense. I always knew she liked Henry Didgett. Well, let her have him, so long as I can have you, dear little Ruth Ann."

And when they reached the old farm house where Mrs. Jessup was drowsily knitting by the light of a shaded lamp, John presented his affianced wife to the old lady.

"Well," said Mrs. Jessup, in her slow, deliberate way, "I've no objections to the plan. I always did like Ruth Ann Peebles!"

"Dear Mrs. Jessup, you are so kind," said Ruth Ann, scarcely knowing whether to laugh or to cry.

And Sarah Sedley never knew how near she had come to being John Jessup's choice. She became engaged to Harry Didgett the very next week. There was a husking party, a soft soap boiling, and an apple paring bee, all within ten days, and, as every one knows, Cupid reigns dominant over all these celebrations. And so it came to pass that Sarah and Ruth Ann were both married in the same gusty, red-leaf tinted month of November.

"Sarah Sedley has done very well, I don't doubt," said young Mrs. Jessup. "But Harry Didgett can't compare to my husband!"

"I'm glad Ruth Ann Peebles is married happily," observed Sarah, who made a handsome, red-cheeked bride. "But, according to my way of thinking, one might as well be buried alive as married to a bookworm like Mr. Jessup. My Henry, now—he's something like!"

And so people were suited all around.

Some three years ago two French chemists, M. M. Fremy and Verneuil, succeeded in producing rubies artificially, but the crystals were exceedingly minute. After long continued study and experiment they have succeeded in continuing the process over several months and producing as much as seven pounds of rubies at a single operation.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

Best on Earth
SURPRISE
Washday
SURPRISE
EVERY-WOMAN
Can save half the hard wearing-out toil of wash day and be fresh and strong. Can have clothes sweet, snowy-white, never yellow. Flannels not to shrink, colors not fade; her hands clean, but soft and white. Use the "Surprise" way. No boiling or scalding. Remarkable! Try it!
READ THE DIRECTIONS ON THE WRAPPER.
St. Croix Soap M'f'g. Co. St. Stephen, N. B.
SOAP
Send us 25 SURPRISE wrappers and get one of our beautiful engravings.

FOR MEN ONLY!

VIGOR AND STRENGTH. For LOST or FAILING MANHOOD; General and NERVOUS DEBILITY; Weakness of Body and Mind, Effects of Errors or Excesses in Old or Young. Robust, Noble MANHOOD fully Restored. How to enlarge and Strengthen WEAK, UNDEVELOPED ORGANS & PARTS OF BODY. Absolutely unfailing HOME TREATMENT—Benefits in a day. Men testify from 50 States and Foreign Countries. Write them. Descriptive Book, explanation and proofs mailed (sealed) free. Address ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N. Y.

"HARVARD"

"We have used Harvard Bronchial Syrup in our family and find it an excellent remedy." C. C. Colby, President of the Council, House of Commons, Ottawa. — "I have used it myself for Throat irritations and find it very efficacious." Rev. A. B. Chambers, Napanee.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

DOES CURE

CONSUMPTION

In its First Stages.

Palatable as Milk.

Be sure you get the genuine in Salmon color wrapper; sold by all Druggists, at 50c. and $1.00.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Belleville.

GEO. B. SPROULE,

ARTIST & PHOTOGRAPHER,

GROUND FLOOR,

170 Charlotte-st. - - - - - Peterborough.

FRAMES & PICTURE MOULDINGS.

"Harvard"

"Harvard Bronchial Syrup has been used in [illegible] one of the best and most efficacious remedies." Rev. Thos. Harris, Ormstown, Que.

MR. SHELDRAKE'S

Private

PREPARATORY SCHOOL,

FOR BOYS,

LAKEFIELD, ONTARIO.

TURKISH DYES

EASY TO USE.

They are Fast.
They are Beautiful.
They are Brilliant.

SOAP WON'T FADE THEM.

Have YOU used them; if not, try and be convinced.

One Package equal to two of any other make.

Canada Branch: 481 St. Paul Street, Montreal. Send postal for Sample Card and Book of Instructions.

"HARVARD"

"Harvard Bronchial Syrup has been much used in our family, and we conscientiously say it is the best Cough Remedy we have ever used." Rev. J. Tallman Pitcher, Montreal. — "It is the most satisfactory Cough Medicine I have ever tried." Ross Mackenzie, C.P.R. Offices, Montreal.

PASHA

STEEL PENS!

Fine Grades!

THE FAVORITE PEN FOR

Business,
Correspondence,
Book-keeping
and all Writing.

If used once no others will suit.

TRY THE "PASHA" PENS.

Review Statonery

OPEN FOR INSPECTION!

A handsome and very useful line of

CASE GOODS

COMPRISING

Carver Sets,

Ladies' and Gentlemen's

COMPANIONS

These Goods are the Best English Make.

KINGAN & Co

Bookbinding!

Magazines,
Periodicals,
Illustrated Papers,
Law, Music,

and all kinds of Books Bound in the very best style of the art. First-class Material and Work. Close Prices.

REVIEW PT'G. CO.

LIMITED,

BOOKBINDERS, STATIONERS & ACCOUNT BOOK MANUFACTURERS.

350 George-st.

BLYTHE MILLS,

PETERBOROUGH

The above Mills have now been thoroughly renewed upon the complete

Hungarian Roller Process

The latest improved Rolls and flour Dressing Machines from the best manufacturing firms have been put in and everything necessary added to enable her to turn out flour.

Second to None

in the Dominion. The facilities for receiving grain from farmers and for elevating and shipping are first-class. We have

A Large Feed Stone for Custom Chopping.

Chopping done satisfactorily and without delay.

Rolled Oats for Horses

Experienced horsemen are emphatic in asserting that there is nothing equal to rolled oats for horses, and to meet this demand we have had put in a machine specially adapted for this purpose.

Wheat Exchanges

Promptly attended to and

First-class Roller Flour Guaranteed.

Roller Flour, Bran, Shorts, and all kinds of Chopped Feed constantly on hand.

Highest Market Price Paid in Cash for any Quantity of Wheat.

Hilliard & Peplow.

UNION CREDIT & PROTECTION

ASSOCIATION.

FOR the Collection of Old and Worthless Accounts in any part of the world, and no charges if not collected. This Association has local officers in Canada and United States. Head and general office, 6½ Adelaide-st. East, Toronto. Rooms, 10, 11, 12 and 13. O. E. COLLINS, General Manager; & H. B. ANDREWS, Sec. Address all communications to Toronto, Ont., office. Telephone No. 2463. This is the only Association that settles accounts and advances the money to the creditor if desired.

O. E. COLLINS,
Manager.

DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON, Solicitors for the Association at Peterborough.

August 26th, 1890. d51 w

BANK of TORONTO

Capital $2,000,000 00
Reserve Fund 1,500,000 00

PETERBORO' BRANCH.

SAVINGS BANK

SPECIAL ADVANTAGES are derived by depositing money in our Savings Bank Department.

1. "ONE DOLLAR saved is one dollar earned."
2. DEPOSITS of ONE DOLLAR and upwards are received and interest allowed thereon.
3. INTEREST is added to the principal on the 31st day of May and 30th day of November, in each year.
4. MONEY bears interest from the day it is deposited with the Bank until the day of withdrawal.
5. THE DEPOSITOR is subject to no delay whatever.
6. THE SECURITY offered by this Bank is undoubted, as will be seen by the large reserve held and the amount of surplus available for depositors and note holders.

BUSINESS WITH FARMERS.

FARMERS' NOTES discounted at lowest rates. SPECIAL ATTENTION is given to the collection of Farmers' Sale Notes, and advances made thereon.

NOTE FORMS furnished free of charge on application.

DEPOSITS.

DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS opened subject to withdrawal by cheque on demand.

SPECIAL DEPOSITS.—Deposit Receipts issued bearing interest at current rates.

JOHN L. GOWER,
Manager.

d118-w6

Travel.

INTERCOLONIAL

RAILWAY OF CANADA.

The direct route between the west and all points on the Lower St. Lawrence and Baie de Chaleur, Province of Quebec, also New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward, Cape Breton and the Magdalene Islands, Newfoundland and St. Pierre.

Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax daily (Sunday excepted) and run through without change between these points in 30 hours.

The through express train cars of the Intercolonial Railway are brilliantly lighted by electricity and heated by steam from the locomotive.

New and elegant Buffet Sleeping and Day Cars are run on all through express trains.

The popular summer sea bathing and fishing resorts of Canada are along the Intercolonial or are reached by that route.

Canadian, European Mail and Passenger Route.

Passengers for Great Britain or the Continent leaving Montreal on Thursday morning will join outward mail steamer at Rimouski the same evening.

The attention of shippers is directed to the superior facilities offered by this route for the transport of flour and general merchandise intended for the Eastern Provinces and New Foundland, also for shipments of grain and produce intended for the European market.

Tickets may be obtained and all information about the route, also freight and passenger rates on application to

N. WEATHERSTON,
Western Freight and Passenger Agent, 93 Rossin House Block, York street, Toronto,

D. POTTINGER,
Chief Superintendent.

Railway Office, Moncton, N.B., 2nd July, 1890
1y

CANADIAN PACIFIC RY

PEOPLE'S POPULAR ONE WAY PARTIES

TO

British Columbia

WASHINGTON

Oregon and California

Leave Toronto 11 p.m. on Fridays, as under:

1891 | FEBRUARY 20 | 1891
MARCH 6, 20

RUNNING THROUGH TO VANCOUVER WITHOUT CHANGE

For Berths and all information, apply to nearest C.P.R. Agent.

CLARK & GIBSON

have now on view and for sale some

VERY FINE GOODS

—CONSISTING OF—

Gold and Silver Watches, Clocks and Fine Jewellery, etc.

Moderate in Price and Newest Patterns.

Ask to see their

English Oak Goods

AND

SCOTCH PEBBLE JEWELLERY

RARE, CHOICE AND BEAUTIFUL.

WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELLERY carefully repaired.

196 Hunter-st., 2 doors west of the Post Office.

THE

CENTRAL CANADA

Loan and Savings Co,

Authorized Capital	$5,000,000
Subscribed Capital	2,000,000
Paid-up Capital	600,000
Reserve Fund	180,000
Invested Funds	2,879,135.57

OFFICE—No. 437, George-st., Peterborough.

DEPOSITS received at current rates of interest, paid or compounded half-yearly.

DEBENTURES issued in Currency or Sterling, with interest coupons attached, payable in Canada or in England. Executors and Trustees are authorized by law to invest in the Debentures of this Company.

MONEY ADVANCED on Real Estate security at current rates and on favorable conditions as to repayment.

Mortgages and Municipal Debentures purchased.

GEO. A. COX,
Managing Director.

d59w43

JOHN NUGENT,

CHEMIST AND DRUGGIST.

Prescriptions Carefully Compounded.

Try Nugent's Remedies for Colds, Coughs and affections of the chest and throat.

J. NUGENT,

Drug Store, 170 Hunter-st. west.

BLANK FORMS

Deeds,
Mortgages,
Home Leases,
Farm Leases,
Agreements,
Short form of Lease
Lease of Land,
Magistrates Blanks,
Division Court Blanks,
etc., etc.,

Printed engraved paper and correct forms.

AT THE

REVIEW Stationery

Medical.

DR. SCOTT.

OFFICE—176 Brock-st. d158w24

F. D. GOLDSMITH, M. D.

L. R. C. S., L. S. A., L. R. C. P., London, Eng.,

HAS permanently located in Peterborough. Office and residence, 138 Brock-st., formerly occupied by Mr. J. B. McWilliams. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d47-w25-1y

D. M. CARMICHAEL, M. D.,

C. M., L. R. C. P. Ed.

GRADUATE OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY, Fellow of Trinity Medical School, Licentiate of Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh, L. M. of Simpson's Maternity Hospital, Edinburgh. Office in Mr. Alexander's new residence one door north of the late Dr. O'Sullivan's, George-st. d2m15-wyr26

DR. B. E. McKENZIE, B. A.

Lecturer on Orthopedic Surgery in the Women's Medical College, and in Toronto University; Consulting Orthopedic Surgeon to Victoria Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto.

Diseases of the Joints and Deformities Only

Bloor-st. W. (near Yonge-st.) Toronto, Consultation from 10 to 3. On Friday and Saturday by appointment only.

DR. MOHER.

HAS removed to 214 Hunter-st., opposite Marble Works. Office upstairs.

Legal.

HATTON & WOOD.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office, corner of George and Hunter-sts., over T. Dolan & Co's. store. MONEY TO LOAN.

B. E. WOOD, B. A. G. W. HATTON.

SAWERS & STONE.

BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyances, &c. Office, Hunter-st., Peterborough. MONEY TO LOAN.

E. B. STONE. d169-w43 C. W. SAWERS.

POUSSETTE & JOHNSTON.

BARRISTERS and SOLICITORS, 375 Water-st.

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C. W. F. JOHNSTON.

EDWARD A. PECK.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, etc., 352 George-st., Peterborough.

Private Funds to loan at 6 per cent.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter-st., Peterborough next English church. Money to loan at lowest rates of interest.

E. H. D. HALL. LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN O'MEARA.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, &c. Office 357 George-st. d-w

JOHN BURNHAM.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office: No. 416 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont., next door north of new post office. MONEY TO LOAN. d&w

W. H. MOORE.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter-sts., over McClelland's Jewellery store. d118w15

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water-st., Peterborough. d37w

DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES. Money to Loan. Office, 417 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont.

ARTHUR STEVENSON, B. A.
R. M. DENNISTOUN, B. A.

STRATTON & HALL.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, &c., Peterborough, Ont. Office:—Next door to Post Office on Hunter-st.

W. A. STRATTON, LL. B. R. R. HALL. d1m

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS, Office Post Office Block, Peterborough. wed37

J. E. BELCHER

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George-st. d35w43

Builders and Contractors

E. WEBB,

BRICKLAYER AND CONTRACTOR. All work done substantially and expeditiously. Address E. WEBB, Peterborough. Residence, 386 Aylmer-st. 1yd123

J. J. HARTLEY.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P. O. Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer-sts. 1yd109

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 23. d160

W. E. WHITEHAIR.

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER. CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 226, Peterborough P. O. d53-1yr

JAS. R. DONELL.

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being a practical man, he trusts to be able to give patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.

y233 JAS. R. DONELL.

G Cures in 1 to 5 DAYS. Guaranteed not to cause Stricture. Mf'd only by The Evans Chemical Co. TORONTO, ONT.

Big G is acknowledged the leading remedy for Gonorrhoea & Gleet. The only safe remedy for Leucorrhoea or Whites. I prescribe it and feel safe in recommending it to all sufferers.

A. J. STONER, M. D., DECATUR, ILL.

Sold by Druggists. PRICE $1.00.

G. A. SCHOFIELD, Agt., Peterborough d 39-ly

DIARIES!

POCKET and OFFICE

Diaries

for 1891!

Twenty Sizes

to select from in

CLOTH and LEATHER

BINDINGS

—AT THE—

REVIEW STATIONERY.

If YOU WISH

to Advertise

Anything

Anywhere

at Any time

WRITE TO

GEO. P. ROWELL & CO.

No. 10 Spruce Street,

NEW YORK.

SOCIETY,

COMMERCIAL

AND

BOOK

PRINTING!

First-Class Work at Low Prices.

Review Office

350 GEORGE ST.

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE.

February 1st. 1891.

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
[illegible] [illegible]	Montreal and East, via O. & Q. R.	[illegible] [illegible]
11 30 a m 11 30 p m	Toronto and West, via O. & Q. R.	8 15 p m 9 00 p m
	Grand Trunk, East & West	1 15 p m
	do East	5 30 p m
12 00 a m 5 30 p m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west	8 00 a m 4 30 p m
8 30 a m	Millbrook and Port Hope	11 15 a m
5 15 p m	do do	5 30 p m
8 35 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings	1 00 p m
4 00 p m	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	11 15 a m
10 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clydale, Paudash and Cheddar, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 30 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 00 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays
	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do do	4 30 p m
	British Mails per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	9 00 p m
12 noon	Via New York, Mondays. Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	4 30 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Australia, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria, (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings, Bank, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxemburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey. And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before. Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil British Guinea, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Port Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books, &c., 4c for 4 oz. Other Registration fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Payment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents.

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents. H. C. ROGERS, Post-Master.

MUNN & CO. SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN AGENCY for PATENTS

A pamphlet of information and abstract of the laws, showing How to Obtain Patents, Caveats, Trade Marks, Copyrights, sent free. Address MUNN & CO. 361 Broadway, New York.

WEDDING CARDS.

LATEST STYLES AT THE

Review Stationery Store.

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XXV.—No. 38. PETERBOROUGH, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1891. TEN CENTS A WEEK

Probabilities.
☐ Moderate winds, fair weather; not much change in temperature.

SWISS Needle Work EMBROIDERY.

We take pleasure in annoucing that we have just received Ex. SS. Sardinian) direct from the manufactory in St. Gall, Switzerland, our new Spring collection of Needle Work Embroidery for the season of 1891. We placed unusual large orders for these goods when the stitch prices were at the lowest point. The value is exceptionally good. The designs were selected with the greatest care and we think will merit your approval. Special discount allowed to customers purchasing in quantities of a dozen yards and upwards.

ROBERT FAIR,
Sign of the Golden Lion,
363 George Street, Peterborough.
Ontario (144 and Bell Telephone (145)

KID GLOVES!
KID GLOVES!

W. W. JOHNSTON
has just received a complete assortment of
Black and Colored
Kid Gloves
at 85c. per pair.
The Best in the Market at the Price.
SPECIAL VALUE IN
Bed Room Towels and Kitchen Towelling.
Call and see our
ART MUSLIN
at 15c. per yard.
CRYSTAL BLOCK
410 George st.

Musical.

ORGAN, PIANOFORTE and SINGING
DR. DAVIES,
Organist of St. John's church, late of Christ Church Cathedral and of St. James's Cathedral, Toronto, receives pupils at his residence, 46 McDonnel-st. At home each day from 9 till 10 a. m., and from 2 till 3 p. m. to make engagements, etc. d43-1m

Wood and Coal.

COAL AND WOOD.
THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.
W. B. FERGUSON,
Telephone Connection. Agent

COAL! COAL!
THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of
COAL AND WOOD,
which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
d&w JAMES STEVENSO

PETERBOROUGH WATER CO.
OFFICE - - 26 HUNTER-ST.
W. HENDERSON, Superintendent.
F. ADAMS, Collector.
All water rates and accounts must be paid at the office. Mr. Adams will be in the office from 2 to 5 a.m. every day

Awnings.
Tents.
AND Sails.
ALFRED KINGSCOTE has opened out in Dangerfield's Block, on Water-st., opposite the market, where he is prepared to do all kinds of Awning, Tent and Sail making.
Good Work and Low Prices. Remember the place
A. KINGSCOTE,
d88-1yr No. 344 Water-st.

EDWIN ELCOME,
TAXIDERMIST
and Dealer in Eyes, Artificial Leave and Frostings.
BIRDS, ANIMALS, FISH and SNAKES stuffed and mounted in and out of cases in the best possible style at lowest prices. DEER'S HEADS a specialty. A stock of foreign and native birds always on hand for sale.
Residence, No. 176 Harvey-st., Peterborough.
41'4-w62-1y

STOVES.
We have a few New and Second Hand Coal Heaters left and are running them off cheap.

LAMPS.
Beautiful designs, all styles, reduced in price.

W. G. BAIN & CO.
George-st.

For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE.
A QUANTITY OF PAPER CUTTINGS and shavings. Apply at REVIEW Office.

TO LET.
Store and Dwelling
No. 281 George-st., now occupied by J.J. Turner. Good stand for grocery and boarding house. STORE and DWELLING No. 281 George-st. DWELLING HOUSES No. 93 Hunter-st., and 18 and 20 Queen-st. JOHN J. LUNDY. dtf

Carbon Gaslight
A RIVAL TO DAYLIGHT!
A new and Brilliant Illuminating Power—Clear, Steady and Mellow. Specially suited for Stores and large Buildings, Machine Shops, &c. A saving of 30 to 40 per cent. on gas can be effected by this new light
See it Burning at the Store of
J. E. NOBLE & Co.
287 George-st. South.
TELEPHONES.—Bell No. 181, Ontario No. 156.

MULHOLLAND & ROPER
BANKERS AND INSURANCE AGENTS
Banking Department.
Deposit Accounts opened and Notes discounted at short dates or for twelve months if required. Special attention given to the purchase and collection of Farmers' Sale Notes. Drafts drawn on Merchants Bank of Canada payable in New York, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and at any of its Branches in the Dominion. Cheques on other Banks cashed.
Four to Five per cent. allowed on deposits repayable on demand.
BANKING HOURS.—9 30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m.
Insurance Department.
MR. FELIX BROWNSCOMBE is a partner in and manager of this department.
Careful attention given to Fire, Accident and Plate Glass Insurance.
The following companies are represented:—
London and Lancashire, City of London, Phoenix of Brooklyn, Caledonian, Royal Canadian, Agricultural, Montreal Plate Glass, Mutual Accident and Plate Glass, and Norwich and London Accident.
OFFICE HOURS.—9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Bell Telephone Co.,
OF CANADA.
Capital, - $1,500,000.00.
Head Office, MONTREAL.
AND. ROBERTSON, — President.
C. F. SISE, — Vice-Pres. and Man'g. Dir.
C. P. SCLATER, Secy.-Treas.
HUGH C. BAKER, Man., Ont. Dep., Hamilton.
300 EXCHANGES.
Long distance lines give unequalled facilities for talking between cities, towns and villages.
If you wish to speak to Kingston, Belleville, Port Hope, Lindsay, Lakefield, Millbrook, Omemee, Toronto, Hamilton, etc., use the wires of the
BELL TELEPHONE Co.
H. W. KENT,
d48-6mo Local Manager

Bill Heads,
Note Heads,
Letter Heads,
TAGS, ENVELOPES,
COUNTER HEADS
and every description of Business Printing executed at city prices at the
Review Office,
340 George Street.

AT
TURNBULL'S

Owing to so many covered shapes being worn this season we have a quantity of untrimmed Felt Hats and Bonnets left of all styles for Ladies and Children which we have put together in one lot and are clearing out at

25c. each.

This includes everything. Our friends may know what bargains await them as many of them have been sold during the season at from $1.00 to $1.50. Remember you get the choice of this lot for 25c.

We are showing in one of our windows Spring Prints, which are but an indication of the quantities of handsome patterns we have inside.

Our Spring Flannelette have arrived. The patterns are new and darker, what so many people want. They are very pretty. Quantities of new goods opened every day. We show a handsome range of new shades in Dress Goods suitable for Wedding Outfits.

Further particulars of what we will offer this Spring as special inducements next week.

J. C. TURNBULL
George & Simcoe-sts., Peterborough.

A. CLEGG,
Funeral Director.
Ware rooms, - - 427 George-st.
Residence, - 16 Benson-st.
S. CLEGG, Residence, 226 Stewart street. Telephone.

For You!
Reduction in prices of all Cloths. Suits and Overcoats to order for less money than ever to clear out the balance of winter stock.
Order now.
D. CAMERON & Co.
Tailors and Clothiers, 434 George-st.

LADIES' JERSEYS
In all the Leading Styles at Lowest Prices at
PORT HOPE KNITTING WORKS
382 George-st.

MONEY TO LOAN.
A LARGE amount of private funds has been placed in my hands for loaning on farm security.
J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM,
d4w7 Solicitor, 136 Hunter-st.

HALL, INNES & Co.
GREAT REDUCTIONS
IN PRICES OF MANTLES
AND
TRIMMED MILLINERY
After a most successful season's trade in this department we will offer during January, the balance of our stock of Jackets, Mantles, Mantle Materials and Ulsters, also all Trimmed and Untrimmed Millinery,
at Greatly Reduced Prices.
From all who have not already made their purchases in these lines, we respectfully solicit a call as we will make it to their advantage to do so.
Sweeping Reductions in
Dress Stuffs, Shawls, Wool Squares and every description of Winter Goods.
Hall, Innes & Co

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1891.

BIG LIBERAL MEETING.

3500 PEOPLE HEAR UNRESTRICTED RECIPROCITY EXPLAINED.

Speeches by Sir Richard Cartwright, S. H. Blake, Hon. Mr. Dryden and Hon Mr. Hardy—The Auditorium Packed to the Doors

TORONTO, Feb. 14.—The Reform mass meeting which was held in the Auditorium last evening was a grand one in point of numbers, fully 3500 being present. Not only was every inch of space occupied, ground floor and galleries, but many were unable to obtain admission. There were many ladies present, and Claxton's orchestra discoursed patriotic airs. These mottoes were displayed:

"The People Want Bread;" "No Sham Loyalty;" "N.P. Means No Progress;" "Loyalty will not allow the 'old flag' to be used to make a wigwam for Old To-morrow and His Tribe of Boodlers." "The country demands a policy that will win back to Canada 1,000,000 of her sons now in the United States through the N.P.;" "Tory annexationists of 1849 and the Loyalists of 1891;" "Free speech, free trade, free men; 100,000 young Canadians deprived of their votes; masses not the classes; "aggregate trade with Great Britain in 1876—$83,372,719; in 1888, $79,353,709"; "Three men in a boat—McGreevy, Langevin, Rykert"; "The Tory tariff enriches the few and impoverishes the many"; "Down with Monopoly"; "Tory Loyalty: Taxes, the Old Flag, 35 per cent."; "Five Liberal provinces will make one Liberal Dominion."

At 7.45 Robert Jaffray opened proceedings by taking the chair and introducing the various speakers.

Mr. Dryden was the first speaker, and confined his talk to the farming side of the question. He was subject to many interruptions and on two occasions the Chairman had to indignantly come to his aid and demand fair play for the speaker. Mr. Dryden was there he said, to speak for no party, but simply for himself. He told about his farming experience and how much he loved it. On account of that he thought he had a right to discuss the political situation so far as it touches the farming community. The freest possible trade relations were what the farmers wanted. When he started to advocate free trade he was met with the cry of disloyalty. The other party unfurl the old flag and ask, "Will we ever pull it down?" [Cries of "No, no."] He was desirous of teaching his children to respect and love the old flag, but he was told that to do so properly he would have to keep them in abject poverty. The men who are doing all this unfurling are not the honest sons of toil, but those who are drawing fine high salaries, and when they see the people getting restive they wave the flag in their faces in order to hoodwink them. He denied that the farmers were prosperous under the present state of affairs. [A voice: "You seem to be."] This statement was made on this platform a week ago by a gentleman. He might say this to an audience where there was no farmer, but let the gentleman come down to Ontario county and make that statement there. He would be laughed at. All the activity on the part of the farmer was in the way of borrowing money to help himself along.

Mr. Dryden quoted figures to show thereby that the country was the reverse of prosperous. He said he was a grower of barley, and lost 20 cents on every bushel because of the tariff wall. His sheep-raising was also circumscribed for the very same reason. He claimed that the farmers of Canada lost under present regulations $7,000,000. The opposite party frighten the farmer with the bugbear of direct taxation, but it does not work successfully. Mr. Dryden ridiculed the proposition to build up an English cattle trade. Four and a half cents, or perhaps under favorable circumstances five cents, will be given for the best Canadian beeves on the English market. He quoted figures from the Chicago market to show the advantage of the United States as a field for supply. He rallied Hon. Mr. Carling on being a brewer and Minister of Agriculture at the same time. In the matter of horses he put American prices in opposition to English. In the former the price was from $200 to $260 for stout breeds, while in the Old Country $150 would be the outside figure, and even to get this the farmer would have to change his stock and methods of raising it.

"But I tell you this," concluded Mr. Dryden, "the farmers are ready with a sharp ax for the 5th of March, to make one bold blow for what I call British freedom and British fair play."

The Apostle of Unrestricted Reciprocity.

Sir Richard Cartwright met with a fine reception, the audience rising and cheering for some minutes. He was in great fighting trim. There were a number of interruptions made, but the speaker was always ready with a reply.

The first question he dealt with was the dissolution. Sir John said he did not want to submit such an important question as reciprocity to a moribund parliament. He might with equally good reason have objected to a moribund voters' list. [Laughter.] On the list were 30,000 dead men, but 136,000 live young Canadians were deprived of a vote. Sir John knew his business, and may have thought one dead vote worth two live ones. [Laughter.] The dissolution was unconstitutional. The only parallel for such an abuse of gubernatorial power was 33 years ago, when Sir Edmund Head refused a dissolution to George Brown. In each case the prerogative was grievously strained.

Taking up in order the speeches made at the Conservative meeting a week ago he said he pitied the ministers, who for years had condemned reciprocity and were now compelled to ask their audiences to believe that Sir John was really anxious for even partial reciprocity. The task was repugnant to the feelings of those unhappy mortals. There was not a sentence from start to finish in their speeches honestly advocating reciprocity with the United States.

Bowell and Thompson Tackled.

Mr. Bowell's point was that trade with Great Britain was increasing while that with the United States was decreasing. Sir Richard quoted from the Trade and Navigation returns of the aggregate trade for the year:

	Great Britain.	United States.
1887	$89,000,000	$82,000,000
1888	79,000,000	91,000,000
1889	80,000,000	94,000,000

The trade with Britain for those years showed a decrease of $9,000,000, and that with the United States an increase of $12,000,000.

"Having done with the Grand Master I will turn to his well-beloved brother, Sir John Thompson. 'How delightful to see brethren dwell together in harmony!' As a manager of a happy family or to keep a menagerie together Sir John never had an equal." The reciprocity treaty of 1854 was negotiated not by Sir John, as Sir John Thompson said, but by Sir Francis Hincks. Sir John Thompson falls foul of Blaine, and if ever he makes an embassy to Washington again he will have to make an explanation. Mr. Blaine over his own signature has said that no negotiations were on foot for reciprocity, and that no proposal for reciprocity in natural products would be entertained. So that Sir John Thompson's statement was utterly false. Sir John Thompson said the Government had never been unwilling to treat with the United States for reciprocity. In three different sessions Sir Richard moved resolutions favoring negotiations for reciprocity which the Government voted down.

The objection that British goods would be discriminated against under reciprocity Sir Richard pronounced sheer nonsense. It was impossible to have reciprocity without discriminating against other countries.

A voice: "Annexation!"

Sir Richard: "The cry of annexation comes with ill grace from the followers of a man who has never been without a full-blooded annexationist of '49 in his cabinet." [Laughter.] Mr. Plimsoll, a few days ago, showed the true way in which Canada was regarded by Britain. The cattle trade, he said, was a matter of business, not of sentiment. Canadian cattle were admitted on better terms than United States cattle, not because Canada was a colony but because the cattle were free from contagious diseases.

Direct Taxation Not Necessary.

Sir Richard dealt at some length with direct taxation as a consequence of unrestricted reciprocity. Mr. Foster said it would require a direct tax of $3 or $4 a head, $15 to $20 a family, to make up for the loss of customs revenue from the United States. Mr. Foster must have known that the Liberals had not the slightest intention of inflicting any such tax on laborer, artisan, farmer. The statement was utterly false. The position of the Liberal party was this: If the Mackenzie Government had remained in power there would have been wise economy and this financial difficulty to reciprocity would never have arisen. But if the Liberals succeed in carrying their point the enormously increased collective wealth of the nation will enormously increase the tax-paying power. It is no part of the Liberal policy to increase taxes but to substitute one kind for another. If any additional tax were levied it would be the policy of the Liberals to spare the farmer, the artisan, the poor men who are so outrageously taxed under the present system.

Sir Richard next dealt with the loss of revenue under reciprocity. The revenue from United States imports would be lost amounting to seven or eight millions. Well, to make up for it, there was a present surplus of four millions. Then the controllable expenditure under Mr. Mackenzie was six and-a-half millions instead of 13 millions as at present. They could practice economy on the expenses connected with the civil service, Rideau Hall, the Intercolonial Railway, etc. They might lay their hands on the Senate.

At this point an individual in the body of the hall made some interruption. Sir Richard glared at him a moment and said: "I am afraid, my friend, we would have to tax your whisky and beer a little more." Roars of laughter followed.

It was also asserted that there would be a great loss of revenue on goods now imported from other countries but which under reciprocity would be imported free from the United States. Sir Richard characterized this as a vague vision. They had better wait to see what the loss was before talking about it. Canada would retain control of its own tariff and the United States of theirs—this was the difference between unrestricted reciprocity and commercial union. If the United States authorities calculated that after making all allowance for the action of the McKinley bill they would have a customs revenue of 190 millions. If Canada, relatively to its population, imported as much, it would have a customs revenue of one-twelfth or 16 to 17 millions from the customs. Sir Richard, however, dismissed this branch of the subject with a wave of his hand, remarking that he declined to treat of these visions, the ramifications of which no man could perceive. When this source of loss was speculated on by Foster, Thompson, Bowell, Mr. Thomson, the ex-fighting editor of The Globe—none of them knew what they were talking about. ["Oh!" "Oh!" and interruptions.] None of them can form an adequate idea of the effects which would be produced if there was full, free, unrestricted reciprocity. All anyone can say is that the wealth of Canada would be doubled or trebled in a few years, and the population would increase enormously. [A voice, "Give Sam Blake a chance!" laughter.]

Sir John's appeal to loyalty was ridiculed by Sir Richard. It reminded him, he said, of the anecdote of the horse thief who was strung up, and a friend, speaking of him, said the departed was not a model in all respects; he shot his father, beat his wife, starved his children; but in all his vicissitudes he remained true to the old flag. [Laughter.] Sir John dared to impeach the loyalty of men better than himself. "I know who burnt the Houses of Parliament in Montreal. I know who rotten-egged Lord Elgin. I know who rewarded the gentlemen who burnt the House of Parliament." Mr. Davin a few days ago called the Cabinet a mixture of fossils and fools. [Hisses from all parts of the house for several minutes.] A man might be known by the company he keeps. Sir John's associates were such annexationists as John Rose, D. L. Macpherson, S. L. Tilley, who 30 years ago declared the time was come to cut the connection with Britain.

In conclusion, Sir Richard predicted that unrestricted reciprocity would ultimately prevail and sat down, having spoken with force and vigor for two hours.

S. H. Blake's Address.

Mr. Blake's lips were set in a manner which showed that as usual he meant business when he arose to speak and looked over his gold-rimmed glasses at the cheering crowd. He trusted that those in the gallery would remember that under the old flag was free speech and no interruptions. The other party had had it till 12 and he wished the same rights. We had heard a great deal about the old policy, the old flag and the old man. This was certainly a battle begun under the old policy, the old, old policy of fraud and deceit which had deprived 100,000 young Canadians of the right to express their opinion about it. Sir John had no right to dissolve the House until 1892, but it was found inconvenient to delay, because the N.P. was beginning to be known as a worse than dead failure; because men were marching through the streets with a black flag. [A voice: "Peter Ryan."] These men, continued the speaker, had received the usual treatment of poor men from the Conservative party—the finger of scorn had been pointed at them. It was said the country ought to be taken into the confidence of the Government on the trade question and so the election was hurried on to shut out 100,000 young men. Referring to the "old flag" argument Mr. Blake raised his fist and cried: "I ask what liberty have those men to say that the old flag is one that waves over them and not over us! [Loud applause.] How dare they say to me that I am guilty of treason, when I wish to improve the condition of the poor at the expense of those who are already too rich? We don't want the old flag waved over that brigade which has been stealing timber limits, coal sections, ranches, furs and all they could lay their hands on. [Applause.] We have to put our hands in our pockets when we go among such a crowd. I dare say John Small thinks it the grandest flag that ever waved when he sees it over the custom house beckoning him in to enjoy.

I want to say a word about this loyalty. I call it a bastard loyalty begotten of place and selfishness, an old nag that steps high. "Oh yes," said Mr. Blake, slowly and sarcastically, and the crowd howled with laughter, "'the old policy, the old flag and the old man.' If only I had the pencil of a Bengough how I would put the old serpent there as a fourth and the prime mover in all their doings! [Renewed laughter.] The government was talking about a trade in eggs with England. Our grand High Commissioner was sniffing about Leadenhall market and smelt some Canadian eggs, and immediately a telegram came over about a great trade in eggs. But it was found the eggs were in that condition that bastard patriots liked for pelting governor-generals. They had been shipped in the summer, [Great laughter.] You smile, the speaker continued, but I tell you an act of parliament will make hens lay in the winter. There is no use in trying to trade with Japan and China and all the Antipodes; we did not batter down the Chinese wall to put it up here, but there is a great country to the south of us whose goods we want and which want ours. Let our cars go down full and return full. Let us try to raise ourselves to the height of true patriotism, which tries for the benefit of the generality."

As to Annexation.

In reference to annexation Mr. Blake said: "I don't believe they (the Americans) are any more anxious for annexation than we are. I myself am totally opposed to it. I propose to show how absurd this cry of disloyalty is. Twelve years ago that great voice—The London Times—assured us we were justified in making the best arrangements we could to carry on our country and they (England) would not interfere with us. Mr. Laurier declared there was no more loyal man in England than himself, because his fellow-countrymen had ten times more freedom under England than they would have had under France. But much as he loved England he loved Canada more and if friction arose he would stand by his native Canada. Mr. Laurier's patriotism was not the bastard patriotism which caused the tea party in Boston Bay." He commended Mr. Laurier to the young men as their leader—that man at once of great intellect and great ability, and, above all, of unswerving integrity; that man chivalrous to friend and foe, in whose hands my religious convictions are as safe as in the hands of the most ultra-Protestant; that man who will put the grand old flag where it ought to be.

"I ask you, young men," said he in concluding the subject, "who have asked me to speak here to-night to take Wilfrid Laurier and crown him your leader."

In conclusion he referred to the Equal Righters. They seemed with one exception to have gone out of the business—[wild shouting]—and it was well they had because the Reform party had always lived the policy of equal rights while others were talking about it. In pursuance of that they had elected Mr. Laurier, a brother from Quebec, as leader, that man who stands erect among us as a palm tree. Mr. Blake closed with a wish for victory and the words: "May God speed the right."

Hon. A. S. Hardy at so late an hour would not detain the audience. He only came to assure the country that his beloved leader and colleagues in the Ontario Cabinet were heartily in sympathy with Mr. Laurier, and hope that this campaign will be successful.

Three cheers for the Queen wound up the proceedings.

Killed the Day After His Wedding.

HALIFAX, Feb. 13.—William Mitchell, a workman at the grain elevator, was caught in the machinery and crushed to death this afternoon. He belonged to Jeddore and was married last evening. He was 40 years of age.

Made Her Last Deposit.

TILSONBURG, Feb. 12.—Mrs. P. Falls entered the Western Bank to make a deposit and immediately fell to the floor, having been seized with a paralytic stroke. She only lived a few hours.

150 Lives Lost.

PANAMA, Feb. 13.—In the terrible disaster at Cordoba houses were washed away by the score. The disaster was caused by a dyke having broken away. The damage caused is estimated at over $3,000,000 and more than 150 persons lost their lives.

Yesterday's Nominations.

Russell—W. C. Edwards (Ref.)
Kent—W. P. Killackey (Con.)
North Simcoe—H. H. Cook (Ref.)
West Hastings—R. C. Clute, Q.C. (Ref.)
West Bruce—James Rowand (Ref.)
Algoma—Alexander McDonell of Port Arthur (Con.)
Stormont—Dr. Bergin (Con.)
North Norfolk—John Charlton (Ref.), Dr. Sinclair (Con.)
Halton—James Henderson (Con.)
West Huron—Robert Porter (Con.)
East Grey—Dr. Sproule (Con.)
Ottawa County—J. M. McDougall (Con.)
West Middlesex—William Brock of Adelaide (Patrons of Industry).
South Middlesex—James Armstrong (Con.)
Hamilton—Alexander McKay and Ald. Ryckman

JACK THE RIPPER AGAIN

ATROCIOUS MURDER IN SWALLOW'S ALLEY, LONDON.

A Policeman Within a Few Yards of the Woman at the Time—The Body Still Warm When Found—An Arrest on Suspicion.

LONDON, Feb. 13.—Further particulars in regard to the woman who was found dead in the Whitechapel district this morning, and who is supposed to have been murdered by Jack the Ripper, show that she is about 25 years of age and quite good looking. She was found lying on her back, with her head nearly severed from her body. The scene of this possible latest series of "Jack the Ripper" crimes is a dark, narrow archway known as "Swallow's Gardens," and leading from Little Mint-street to Chamber-street. The archway referred to is, during the busiest hours, a well-frequented thoroughfare, especially used by railway employes and stablemen in passing to and from their residences in and about that neighborhood to their work. At all times in the night there are people awake in the houses and pedestrians passing about and through "Swallow's Gardens," but nobody seems to have heard any cries of an alarming nature during the early hours this morning, when the crime was committed. The murdered woman belonged to the abandoned class of females and was known as "Carroty Nell." The police theory is that the woman was murdered while in a standing position, and the crime was probably the work of "Jack the Ripper," and that the murderer was frightened away by the approach of some pedestrian before he had time to mutilate the body in the manner already described in the crimes attributed to "Jack the Ripper." The blood was still warm when the body was found. A railroad employe says he saw the murdered woman talking to a man just previous to the time the murder is supposed to have been committed. The policeman who found the woman must have reached the spot while the murderer was only a few yards away, for the victim's legs were still twitching nervously and her eyes were still rolling when the officer bent over her.

A man has been arrested on suspicion of having murdered her. He is miserably clad but of refined appearance. No blood stains were found on him. He is held for examination.

The spot where the murdered woman's body was found was not a stone's throw from a police station. Upon being questioned by his superior officer, the policeman who found the body said that in addition to the nervous twitching of the lips and rolling of the eyes, the woman's limbs were moving when he found her. The wound across the murdered woman's throat was evidently caused by a sharp powerful stroke and nothing can shake the belief of the police but that for the approach of some pedestrian, possibly the policeman who found the body, the victim would have been mutilated in a manner similar to that of other Whitechapel murders.

A woman has identified the remains of the victim as those of a woman named Frances, who was one of many unfortunates that haunted Whitechapel district. The witness says she left the Frances woman early in the morning in the company of a man who had the appearance of a sailor. This man had struck and insulted the witness on her refusing to accept his offer of a half crown to accompany him. She did not like his looks and advised the Frances woman to have nothing to do with him.

International Football.

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—The Chicago Cricket Club held a meeting at the Grand Pacific Hotel last evening and decided to organize a football team from its membership who shall proceed to Canada to play the various clubs there. The start will be made about May 22, and the first game will be played at Toronto May 24, the Queen's birthday.

Other games will be played at Berlin and Detroit. As at present arranged the team will be as follows: J. Balinghal, goal; A. T. Webb, captain; J. McLuckie, F. Kelly, T. Gibson, W. Balster, A. C. Goodyer, forward; J. Hendry, A. McFarland, backs; W. McLuckie, W. Ramsey and J. G. Davis, half-backs. Mr. Davis, who is secretary of the Cricket Club, will act as manager of the travelers during their tour.

An International League.

SYRACUSE, Feb. 13.—A meeting was held here to-day to organize an international league of baseball clubs. These delegates were present: Albany, Fassett, York; Troy, Maloney, Booth; Syracuse, Fraser; Rochester, Hersberger; Buffalo, Pat Powers, Wright; New Haven, Burnham. C. D. White of Utica presented a letter authorizing him to represent Toronto and Mgr. Powers represented Newark by proxy.

A new league to be known as the International League of professional baseball clubs was organized with seven clubs as follows:

Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse, Abany, Troy, New Haven and Toronto.

The eighth club will be selected from the cities of Newark, Providence and Worcester. It was decided to combine the offices of president, secretary and treasurer, and C. D. White of Utica was elected the general officer of the league. The new league had applied to the national board for protection. The meeting adjourned until March 3 at Buffalo, when a schedule committee will be appointed.

A Canadian Board.

MONTREAL, Feb. 13.—It is rumored that Sir Henry Tyler, president of the Grand Trunk Railway, is coming out shortly for the purpose of establishing a Canadian board of directors in Montreal for the purpose of advising the management. This has long been talked of as a necessary reform.

Death Record of a Day.

Admiral Porter died at Washington yesterday.

Missurus Pasha, the well-known Turkish diplomat, is dead at Constantinople.

Speaker Winram of the Manitoba Legislature died yesterday at Manitou.

J. B. Lane, treasurer and ex-president of the Ontario Dairymen's Association, died at Dorchester station Wednesday.

The News of a Night.

General Von Braun committed suicide at Berlin yesterday.

It is reported in British Ministerial circles that the Behring Sea negotiations promise a favorable conclusion.

Paris papers say the secret of the European movements of the Duke of Orleans, is that he is following an operatic singer, with whom he is madly in love.

Dillon and O'Brien were lodged in Kingstown Prison yesterday.

Parnell has issued a call for a meeting of his supporters at the House of Commons Monday.

Sir John and Sir Charles Coming.

A telegram was received from Sir John Macdonald yesterday afternoon, stating that he and Sir Charles Tupper would arrive in the city on Monday next. Tuesday evening the two will address a public meeting to be held in the Academy of Music.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is a concentrated extract of Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock, Pipsissewa, Juniper Berries, Mandrake, Dandelion, and other valuable vegetable remedies, every ingredient being strictly pure, and the best of its kind it is possible to buy.

It is prepared by thoroughly competent pharmacists, in the most careful manner, by a peculiar Combination, Proportion and Process, giving to it curative power

Peculiar To Itself

It will cure, when in the power of medicine, Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Blood Poisoning, Cancerous and all other Humors, Malaria, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Sick Headache, Catarrh, Rheumatism, and all difficulties with the Liver and Kidneys.

It overcomes That Tired Feeling, Creates an Appetite, and gives mental, nerve, bodily, and digestive strength. The value of

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is certified to by thousands of voluntary witnesses all over the country whom it has cured of diseases more or less severe. It is sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other.

100 Doses One Dollar

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1891.

THE BEST MARKETS.

THERE are two markets to which principally the farmers of Canada must look for the disposal of their produce, and they are the home market and the British market. Of the vast quantity of agricultural produce annually produced in this country, only a small fraction is exported, and for that reason the home market is the one of first importance.

But of the foreign markets, to which the farmers must look for disposal of the surplus to be exported, Great Britain stands first. And there are two reasons why this is the case. In the first place more Canadian agricultural produce is now sold there than is disposed of to any other country; and in the second place there is an almost unlimited demand there and the trade may be greatly expanded.

The Liberal leaders and organs tell us—or they did tell us a very short time ago—that the United States was the Canadian farmer's natural market. This is not correct, as can be easily shown. The United States not only grows enough agricultural produce for their own use, but they export largely. Take the returns for last year, and they show that the United States, after supplying themselves, sent out of the country exports of the following value:—

Cattle	$[illegible]
Other animals	[illegible]
		$ [illegible]
Breadstuffs—
Corn and corn meal	$ 41,574,394
Wheat and flour	[illegible]
Other breadstuffs	[illegible]
		[illegible]
Fruits (including nuts)		4,[illegible]
Provisions—
Meats	$[illegible]
Dairy	12,[illegible]
		[illegible]
Seeds (not enumerated)		[illegible]
Vegetables		[illegible]
Total		$[illegible]

Is this the country to which Canadian farmers must look for a market for their surplus produce? Why, the United States export more breadstuffs than, according to the report of the Ontario Bureau of Industries, the value of all the grain and vegetables grown in Ontario amounted to!

Take again the exports from Canada in 1889 of the chief food products to the United States and to Great Britain and contrast them:—

	To Gt. Brit.	To U.S.
Cattle	$[illegible]	$ 104,623
Sheep	[illegible]	761,[illegible]
Mutton	....	2,391
Swine	....	1,776
Pork	[illegible]	166
Bacon and hams	624,815	106
Beef	261	1,948
Lard	4,661	1
Tallow	1,416	....
Butter	184,166	[illegible]
Cheese	9,249,721	6,435
Poultry	[illegible]	[illegible]
Beans	....	[illegible]
Eggs	[illegible]	1,[illegible]
Wheat	[illegible]	[illegible]
Barley	12,[illegible]	[illegible]
Oats	133,371	[illegible]
Peas, whole and split	[illegible]	445,547
Flour	[illegible]	32,[illegible]
Potatoes	....	[illegible]
Oatmeal	[illegible]	44,[illegible]
Meats, canned	107,[illegible]	[illegible]
Apples	[illegible]	149,479
Rye	19,[illegible]	112,[illegible]
Vegetables	[illegible]	[illegible]
Vegetables, can'd	[illegible]	12,198
Total	$[illegible]	$[illegible]

These figures show that Great Britain is the best market for the chief food products which the Canadian farmer exports, and that it would be extreme folly to adopt a policy that would injure this trade with Great Britain.

Not only is Great Britain taking the greater part of our food exports, but there is a wide market there for them. While the United States exports largely Great Britain imports extensively, as the following figures demonstrate. The table shows the total British imports, and the Canadian exports to that country, for a three year period, 1887, 1888 and 1889, and are instructive:—

	From Canada	Total British imports.
Horses, number	[illegible]	12,[illegible]
Cattle, "	[illegible]	[illegible]
Sheep, "	[illegible]	[illegible]
Mutton, pounds	[illegible]	111,[illegible]
Pork "	[illegible]	[illegible]
Bacon, hams "	[illegible]	[illegible]
Beef, salted "	....	[illegible]
Beef, fresh "	[illegible]	[illegible]
Meats, canned, lbs.	[illegible]	[illegible]
Meats, all other "	[illegible]	[illegible]
Lard "	165,371	[illegible]
Tallow and stearine pounds	[illegible]	117,[illegible]
Butter "	[illegible]	[illegible]
Cheese "	[illegible]	[illegible]
Poultry	[illegible]	[illegible]
Eggs, dozen	[illegible]	[illegible]
Wheat, bushel	[illegible]	[illegible]
Barley "	[illegible]	41,[illegible]
Oats "	[illegible]	[illegible]
Peas "	[illegible]	[illegible]
Flour, bbls.	[illegible]	[illegible]
Potatoes, bush	[illegible]	[illegible]
Onions "	....	[illegible]
Apples "	[illegible]	[illegible]
Flax seed "	[illegible]	[illegible]
Wool, pounds	[illegible]	[illegible]

These figures carry their own comments. Unrestricted reciprocity would open the United States market to Canada, but it is a market already supplied by home produce, and capable of little expansion. But it would injure the import trade from Great Britain, and consequently jeopardise the export trade to that country and thus injure the Canadian farmer's best outside market, while at the same time it would cripple or extinguish Canadian industries, drive out Canadian mechanics and artisans and deplete the centres of population, and in that way injure the home market for farm produce, which is the most important market of all.

OTONABEE.

Correspondence of the Review.

The revival services in Bethel church here, conducted by Rev. A. C. Wilson, our pastor, closed last evening, having continued for six weeks. The meetings were marked by a deep divine power and great spiritual awakening. Some sixty persons were awakened and led to seek an interest in the blood of the Lamb of God.

Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered to the converts and others to-morrow afternoon.

NEWFOUNDLANDERS MAD.

A Series of Resolutions Passed in the Legislature—England's Refusal to Ratify Reciprocal Relations.

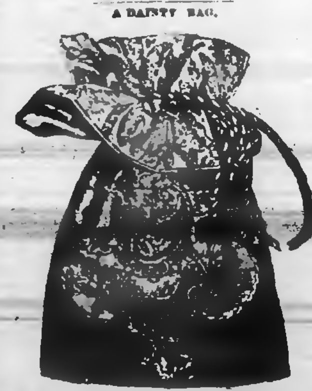
ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Feb. 13.—Immediately after the reading of the Governor's speech at the opening of the Legislature to-day Colonial Secretary Bond proposed these resolutions:

The preamble states that on July 8 the Newfoundland delegates proposed to the British Government that Newfoundland should be permitted through Sir Julian Pauncefote to negotiate a convention for reciprocal trade with the United States. On Sept. 3 this proposal was acquiesced in and consent was given for a delegation to proceed to Washington to aid in said negotiations. On Nov. 3 Colonial Secretary Bond was advised by the British Government to return to Washington to conclude the negotiations. On Dec. 16 a satisfactory convention was arranged and accepted on behalf of the United States Government by Secretary Blaine. Though strongly urged by Newfoundland the British Government up to date has declined to ratify the convention. The resolutions declare that the House views with profound disappointment and alarm the failure of Her Majesty's Government to carry out its solemn obligations to the colony, and is aware of the interference of Canada in relation to this matter, and the House cannot fail to appreciate the same as a menace to the independence of the colony that it should be made subservient to those of the Dominion and regard the delay that has occurred in the ratification of the convention as entirely unjustifiable and evidencing an utter disregard for the prosperity and well-being of the colony. It is resolved that the delay occasioned by Her Majesty's Government in ratifying the said convention is regarded by this legislature as unfriendly to the colony and calculated to permanently disturb the loyalty for which the colony has in the past been remarkable, and it is further resolved that the legislature most strongly urge Her Majesty's Government to immediately fulfil its claim to the colony by ratifying the said convention.

Nine Horses Burned.

HANOVER, Feb. 13.—The stables of the Queen's Hotel caught fire and were burned, nine horses perishing in the flames.

A DAINTY BAG.



This Pompadour bag is intended for any use for which a pretty bag is appropriate. The blue plush outside has an applique design of old-rose satin, embroidered with gold, pale green, cream, blue, tan, and heliotrope silks, with a velvet palm introduced.

The Best Result.

Every ingredient employed in producing Hood's Sarsaparilla is strictly pure, and is the best of its kind it is possible to buy. All the roots and herbs are carefully selected, personally examined, and only the best retained. So that from the time of purchase until Hood's Sarsaparilla is prepared, everything is carefully watched with a view to attaining the best results. Why don't you try it?

Local Market Quotation

WHEAT.

Wheat, fall, per bushel	0 96	to	0 97
" spring "	0 90	to	0 91

FLOUR AND MEAL.

Flour, Patent Process, per cwt.	$2 75	to	[illegible]
Flour, bakers per cwt	2 55	to	3 00
Flour, family per cwt	2 45	to	2 60

COARSE GRAIN.

Barley, per bushel	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Peas	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Oats	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Rye	[illegible]	to	[illegible]

WOOL AND HIDES.

Fleece wool	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Southdown wool	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Veal Calfskins, per lb	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Deacon skins, each	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Hides, per cwt, rough	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Tallow, rendered per lb	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
" per lb, rough	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Sheep skins	[illegible]	to	[illegible]

MEAT, POULTRY AND DAIRY PRODUCE.

Beef, by the quarter per cwt.	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Pork per lb	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Mutton per lb	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Lamb per lb	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Dressed Hogs per 100 lbs	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Hogs, live weight	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Lard	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Ducks, per pair	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Geese, each	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Turkeys, each	[illegible]	to	[illegible]

GENERAL.

Apples, per bag	0 70	to	[illegible]
Apples, per barrel	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Butter, fresh roll, per lb	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Eggs, per doz	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Hay, per ton	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Straw, per load	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Wood, hard, per load	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Wood, soft, per load	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Chickens per pair	[illegible]	to	[illegible]

VEGETABLES.

Potatoes, per bag	0 70	to	[illegible]
Cabbage, per head	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Beets, per bag	[illegible]	to	0 75
Onions, per bag	[illegible]	to	1 00
Carrots, small red, per bag	[illegible]	to	[illegible]

MILL FEED.

Oat chop, per cwt	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Pea chop, "	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Barley chop "	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Pollards "	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Bran, per ton	[illegible]	to	[illegible]

Toronto Markets.

Wheat, fall, per bushel	$ 0 [illegible]	to	$ 0 [illegible]
Wheat, red, per bushel	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Wheat, spring, per bushel	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Wheat, goose, per bushel	[illegible]	to	0 70
Barley, per bushel	0 51	to	[illegible]
Oats, per bushel	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Dressed hogs, per cwt.	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Chickens, per pair	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Butter, per lb rolls	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Eggs, new, per doz	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Potatoes, new, per bag	[illegible]	to	1 10

Chicago Market.

Wheat	May	1 07¼
	July	[illegible]
Corn	May	[illegible]
Oats	May	[illegible]
Pork	May	[illegible]
	July	[illegible]
Lard	May	[illegible]

Some Foolish People

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c and $1. Trial size free. At all druggists.

A Serious and Fatal Fire.

A few days ago some of our daily papers gave a brief account of "a house badly gutted by fire and one life lost." The writer, anxious to obtain particulars, visited one of the boarders who narrowly escaped death, and from him gleaned the following:—

"Fred was one of the boarders, and slept on the same flat with me. He was awakened as soon as I was, but seemed to have lost time in dressing and trying to save his effects. I urged him strongly to seek refuge, and leave all behind, as the fire was fast gaining on us, and the smoke was very dense. My warnings and entreaties were of no avail, and I was obliged to save my own life."

The writer, moralizing seriously, came to the conclusion that this brief story might prove a warning to thousands to-day who are in positions of danger and peril.

That there are thousands in our land to-day who are placed in positions as perilous as was the victim of the fire referred to, cannot be denied. The treacherous and deadly fire of disease has already been kindled in the bodies of many Canadians, in the form of overworked and tired out brain, unstrung nerves, a used up feeling, sleeplessness and headaches. Allow these symptoms to run on unchecked, and the fierce sharp flames of morbidness, paresis and insanity will soon follow, which will almost surely put an end to life.

For all sufferers, shut off from the joys and pleasures of true life by these dreaded ailments, there is only one avenue—one life preserver for all; it is Paine's Celery Compound. By its timely use life is saved, and the victim of disease and suffering placed on solid ground, to go on building up a new and vigorous constitution and a healthy appetite.

Paine's Celery Compound restores and strengthens the whole brain and nerve system, which is the great substructure of a healthy body. Try it sufferers, and you will have cause to bless its great discoverer.

Sellers of Property.

Blank Deeds, Blank Mortgages, Blank Transfers, House and Land Leases, etc., on hand at the REVIEW Stationery.

A Royal Quilt.

A prize competition of especial interest to every lady who does fancy work, is just announced by THE CANADIAN QUEEN. The lady making by hand work, the handsomest block one foot square, (to be of silk, either in one piece or patchwork, and embroidered or hand-painted according to the taste of the maker) for the Royal Quilt, will be presented with a pony cart and harness, value $250.00. The Royal Quilt will contain forty-eight blocks, and to each of the next forty-seven ladies sending the handsomest block will be presented with either a solid gold watch or an elegant silver tea service, value $40.00. Send four 3c. stamps for the last number of THE QUEEN, containing full instructions of the competition, and particulars as to what will be done with the Royal Quilt. Address THE CANADIAN QUEEN, "Royal Quilt Competition," Toronto, Canada. 8d29-6w4

SURPRISE
Wash day
SURPRISE
EVERY WOMAN
St. Croix Soap M'f'g. Co. St. Stephen, N.B.
SOAP
Hand up 25 SURPRISE wrappers and get one of our beautiful engravings.

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. All druggists are authorised to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are placing a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have a Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup, or Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

The D & L Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil

AND THE

Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda.

No other Emulsion is so easy to take.

It does not separate nor spoil.

It is always sweet as cream.

The most sensitive stomach can retain it.

CURES

Scrofulous and Wasting Diseases.
Chronic Cough.
Loss of Appetite.
Mental and Nervous Prostration.
General Debility, &c.

Beware of all imitations. Ask for "the D. & L." Emulsion, and refuse all others.

PRICE 50C. AND $1 PER BOTTLE.

WM. FITZGERALD,

Builder, Contractor and Jobber.

Contracts taken for all work connected with erection of new buildings, repairs or rebuilding. Twenty-five years experience. First-class work according to plans and specifications guaranteed. Estimates furnished for any description of work. Good dry material always on hand. Best of references given as to excellence of work and despatch.

Building Lots For Sale

in different localities. Most desirable sites for houses. This is the time to buy and build. Lots sold and houses built thereon on terms to suit buyers. Easy terms of payment. Several good houses and lots for sale. Every one looking for a bargain should see these. WM. FITZGERALD, 124, corner of Dublin and Water-sts.

P.O. Box [illegible], Peterborough. [illegible]

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED!

Grand Rally of the People's Party.

THE QUESTION OF THE HOUR!

The Greatest Good to the Largest Number.

GOUGH BROTHERS are in the field as the Candidates for public approval, basing their claim on the admitted facts that they supply the largest number, the greatest number of times with the largest dollar's worth of the best clothing that money can purchase.

Ask our constituents if this claim is not well grounded?

When you buy, buy from first hands, remembering that we supply Clothing, Furnishings, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes.

GOUGH BROTHERS,

The Clothiers, 377 and 379 George-st., Peterborough.

PASHA STEEL PENS!

Fine Grades!

THE FAVORITE PEN FOR

Business, Correspondence, Book-keeping and all Writing.

If used once no others will suit.

TRY THE "PASHA" PENS.

Review Stationey.

"HARVARD"

"In twenty years experience as a druggist, I have never handled a remedy giving such satisfaction as does Harvard Bronchial Syrup." J. J. Perry, Napanee, Ont.—"Have used it myself with the grandest results, and know many sufferers from Bronchial Trouble, who have been completely cured by it." J. C. McLaren, Montreal.

HAGGART & KIDD

TOWN and COUNTY } Auctioneers,
COMMISSION and SHIPPING } Merchants,
REAL ESTATE and INSURANCE } Agents.

☞ Money to Loan.

"HARVARD"

Harvard Bronchial Syrup emanates from the Medical Faculty of Harvard University, the best medical skill in America, and has proved to be the most wonderful cure for all Throat Troubles and Coughs resulting from sudden Colds. Pleasant to the taste. Absolutely free from injurious ingredients. Large bottle 25c, half the price of inferior remedies.

A. J. [illegible], Montreal, Prop. for Canada. By all dealers.

REMOVAL.

DR. CARMICHAEL

has removed to his new office and residence, corner of Water and Brock-sts. (opposite the Court House. d146-w23-6mo

"Itis theSafest and Fairest Policy I Have Ever Seen,"

Was the remark made by a prominent representative of one of the largest and best American Life Insurance Companies, when he had carefully examined

THE ORDINARY LIFE POLICY OF

—THE—

TEMPERANCE and GENERAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y.

This is the only policy offered to the Canadian public that can neither lapse nor expire as to its paid-up value till death ensues, after three annual premiums have been paid on it.

Our Limited Payment Life Policy, or Instalment Bonds, Our Common Sense Renewable Term Policies, and our Survivors' Endowment Bonds are all possessed of new and excellent features and are all worthy of careful consideration.

Agents Wanted.

H. P. LINDSAY,

Gen. Agent for Peterborough, Northumberland and Durham. Office No. [illegible] George-st., opposite new market building.

PACKING HOUSE STORE!

For a Choice Selection of

Smoked Sugar Cured Meats and Bacon

LARD, guaranteed pure, in any quantity.

GEORGE MATTHEWS

356 George Street, Peterborough.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

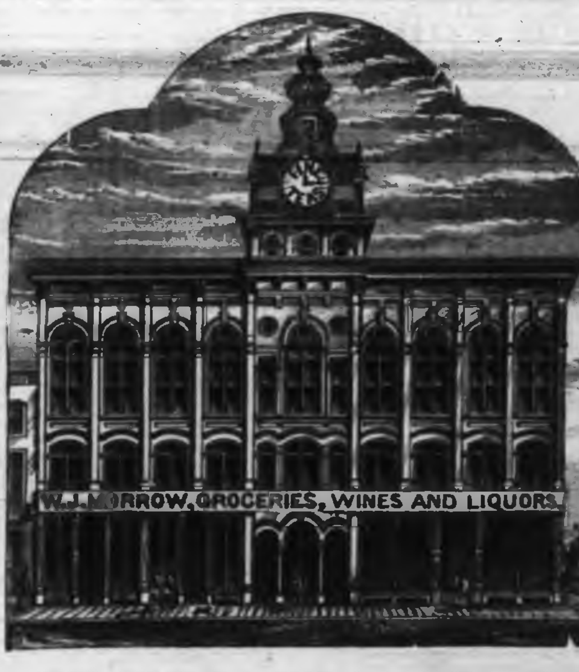
Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins, by grocers, labelled thus:

JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England. [illegible]



W. J. MORROW, GROCERIES, WINES AND LIQUORS

BIG TEA and COFFEE HOUSE

IN THE MARKET!

1.—I have sold out the City Hotel to Wm. Clancy, in 19 minutes.

2.—I have sold out Faren & Co. Billiard Room etc., to Faren & Co. in 13 minutes.

3.—The Dry Goods Stock is in the Market. If there is any new blood for this offer call and see me. Want to dispose of it inside of 10 days.

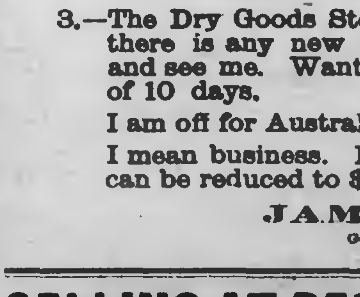
I am off for Australia early next month.

I mean business. If the stock is too large can be reduced to $1,000 in 30 days.

JAMES DOLAN,

George Street, Peterborough.

SELLING AT REDUCED PRICES



We are offering our Stock of Manufactured Furs at cost, previous to stock taking. The stock comprises a choice assortment of Ladies' and Gents fine Fur Collars, Cuffs, Capes, Caps, Gauntlets and Coats. Also a few Musk Ox, Bear, Oppossum and Goat Robes.

CALL AND BE CONVINCED.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

Manufacturing Furriers.

DO YOU LIKE
Biscuits?

Most likely you do.
There's a deal of difference
in Biscuits. Quality is an important item. A good
biscuit should be fresh,
crisp and of good flavor.
Here's what will suit you.
Try the English biscuit, made
by Huntley & Palmer the famous makers. Imported
by us and guaranteed genuine.
Ask for Huntley & Palmer's biscuits.

W. J. MASON
426 GEORGE STREET.
☞No trouble to show Goods.

Blank Books.
—AND—
Office Stationery

See the quality of our Blank Books.

Call and get our prices
on Ledgers,
Journals,
Day Books,
Stephen's Inks,
Carter's Inks,
Underwood's Inks
Stafford's Inks,
Pens,
Foolscap,
Legal paper,
and all other
Office supplies.

Our Prices are the Lowest.

H. THOMPSON & Co
Office and General Stationers, Booksellers and Wall Paper Dealers,
466 George-st.. — — Peterborough

The Daily Review.
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1891.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

The Weather Report.

Mr. Thos. Telford reports as follows:—At sunrise this morning the thermometer stood 6 degrees below zero.

The Liberal Candidate.

At the adjourned meeting of the Liberal convention held this afternoon Mr. Richard Hall was again nominated. Having in the meantime been prevailed upon to stand, Mr. Hall accepted the nomination.

An Unexpected Call.

Mr. Wm. McNeil, son of Mr. Alex. McNeil, who was employed with Mr. Geo. Hutchinson, died very suddenly this morning. He had been unwell for the past few weeks but death was an unexpected visitor. The deceased was a comparatively young man, industrious and well liked by all who knew him. Heart-disease was the cause of death.

Home From Hamilton.

Messrs. F. Browscombe and F. Somerville, delegates to the Grand Lodge of the Sons of England held at Hamilton, returned home last evening. They report having had a good time. Outside of the business of the Grand Lodge, the delegates were entertained most handsomely by the city, being extended the freedom of the place. They were also tendered a grand banquet on Thursday evening at which the Peterborough representatives were present.

Temperance Sunday.

To-morrow is called Temperance Sunday in the Church of England in this diocese. When the C.E.T.S. was first formed it was decided that one Sunday in the year should be set apart on which to make known its claims. Lent as being a season of repentance seemed especially suited for this purpose, and so on the first Sunday in lent every clergyman in the diocese is expected to preach before his congregation on this subject. His Lordship the Bishop of Toronto has just issued a circular reminding his clergy of this fact.

Y.M.C.A. Notes.

Young Men's Meeting to-night. Reports of convention at Kingston will be given by the delegates. All are welcome.

Consecration Meeting Sabbath morning. Mr. Scanlon will lead.

"Personal Purity Meeting" for men only in the afternoon. Short, straight talk. Hearty singing.

Gospel and Song Service Sabbath evening at 8.30. Public invited. Mr. Isaac Richardson will give the address.

Bible Class Tuesday evening at 8 p.m.

The Reception Committee will meet Tuesday evening. Invitation Committee will meet Wednesday after prayer meeting. Devotional Committee Meeting Thursday evening at 8 p.m. Membership Committee on Friday evening at 8 p.m.

Last evening Mr. E. Elcome addressed the junior branch, giving a practical and interesting talk on Natural History. The lads present greatly enjoyed it, and hope to have Mr. Elcome soon again.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. d16w4 6mo

SECOND NIGHT OF ESTHER.

The Successful Presentation of Thursday Night Repeated. A Large and Delighted Audience.

KING	Mr. F. Knowles
QUEEN	Miss Annie Fawcett
HAMAN	Mr. Wm. Greatrex
ZERIAH	Miss Nellie Wrighton
MORDECAI	Mr. A. L. Davis
MORDECAI'S SISTER	Miss Sophy Cameron
PROPHETESS	Miss May Heubeck
HIGH PRIEST	Mr Hill
QUEEN'S ATTENDANTS	Miss E. Wrighton Miss Vina Bellegham
ZERIAH'S ATTENDANT	Mrs Jones
HERALD	Mr. W. White
SCRIBE	Mr. J. Crane
GUARDS	Mr. Ross Mr. Jones Mr. McCallum Mr. R. Brooks
PAGES	Maud Landy Pearl Landy Ada McBain

The above was the caste of the leading characters in the second presentation of the beautiful Cantata, "Queen Esther," which was rendered in the Opera House last evening under the directorship of Mr. J. H. Ketcham. As on the first night, the house was filled, the large audience being a tangible and unmistakable endorsation of the successful presentation of the first night. All the eulogies that were dropped at the feet of Mr. and Mrs. Ketcham last night could be repeated again after the second rendition, but it is unnecessary. Mr. Ketcham undertook the difficult and patience-trying task of producing the beautiful musical event and the satisfactory success which marked both presentations, when the time for practice and the amount of labor and effort that is required is considered, is flattering alike to Mr. Ketcham as a musical director and to the talented ladies and gentlemen who participated. The words of eulogy which were uttered by Mr. Coyle Brown after the curtain had fallen on the last scene undoubtedly voiced the sentiments of the large audience.

To compare the two presentations would be invidious, as on both evenings the leading parts were well taken. There was, however, perhaps a more perceptible feeling of diffidence last night than on the previous evening, but this was not sufficiently pronounced to mar in any way the delighted appreciation of the audience. The King (Mr. F. Knowles) appeared well, his princely attire and his regal carriage, combined with his rich bass voice, handled with confidence and effectiveness, made him equal to the important part that had been given him. The Queen (Miss Annie Fawcett) acquitted herself with becoming grace and rendered her rather difficult role in good voice. Haman, as impersonated by Mr. W. R. Greatrex, was a good character. Mr. Greatrex sang his solos with a confidence that was pleasing and lent effectiveness to his fine voice by a good stage appearance and easy carriage. In the duet, "A Song of Joy," with the King, he was especially good, singing and acting with spirit. Miss Nellie Wrighton, as "Zeriah," made a most favorable impression, her pleasing contralto and her splendid appearance, together with her effective acting giving her a claim of the honors of the evening. Her solo to Haman when she tells the waning light of the King's Court of his "galling defeat" was well rendered. Her appearance in the finale was also an effective piece of acting. The Jew hero "Mordecai" was acceptably taken by Mr. A. L. Davis. "Mordecai's Sister" was pleasingly impersonated by Miss Sophy Cameron, her sweet soprano voice lending admirable expression to her solos "God is the Refuge" and "Thou will keep him in perfect peace" and in the finale in her duet with Mordecai "Do I wake, or am I dreaming." The "Prophetess," Miss May Heubeck, rendered her warning to the Court, with an impressiveness which was marked, her clear enunciation being particularly pleasing. As "High Priest" Mr. Wm. Hill acquitted himself in the same highly creditable manner that characterized him on the first night, as also did Mr. Ross who again appeared as Scribe. The quartette by the Guards was again given with the same spirit and vim which made it one of the best features of the previous night. The children's chorus was again a bright and taking feature of the presentation.

Mrs. Jones, as Zeriah's Attendant, made a charming appearance and performed her part very cleverly. Miss Neil also appeared well in this role on the previous evening. Mr. W. White made an excellent Herald on both evenings. The splendid pageant presented several times throughout the Cantata by the scene upon the stage was greatly enhanced by the colored light thrown from the gallery upon the stage by Mr. R. M. Roy, who operated his lime light instrument from that point.

Frequently throughout the evening the beautiful picture of court splendor and elegance so faithfully presented called forth the applause of the audience. The costumes and stage settings were admirable, while the orchestra again contributed in no small degree to the success which attended the event.

At the close of the last scene Mr. Coyle Brown expressed the pleasure that he was sure every person had enjoyed in witnessing such a creditable presentation of the beautiful cantata, and he moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Ketcham and the ladies and gentleman who had assisted. The resolution was received with great applause and the audience dispersed highly pleased with the evening's entertainment.

After the successful rendition, Mr. Ketcham entertained those who had participated in the cantata to a supper at Mr. Ed. Welsh's restaurant. A short time was pleasantly spent by the singers and their director before dispersing. Following is the list of those who took part both in solo and chorus.

SOPRANOS.

Miss Anna Dunn
" Bella Morrow
" Cahill
" M. Neil
" J. Mercer
" B. Mercer
" Alice Davis
" Doling
" L. Sanderson
" S. Cameron
" V. Belleghem
" B. Morrow
" E. Morrow
" A. Brundrette
" A. Fawcett
" M. Clark
" J. Rose

Miss Carruthers
" L. Mann
" Heubeck
" Watt
" L. Greene
" M. Patterson
" E. Owens
" Mahoney
" Clark
" E. Hall
" A. Hall
" P. Hall
" Watt
Mrs. Daly
" Rose
" Brooks
" Jones

ALTOS.

Miss N. Wrighton
" Mahoney
" L. Ketcham
" Hutchinson

Miss Eva Wrighton
" E. Sherlock
" Crane
Mrs. Stapleton

Mr. H. King.

TENORS.

Mr. W. H. Manning
" W. Daly
" Jones
" J. Crane
" W. Ross
" Dawson
" W. White
" McDonald
" Squires
" H. McClelland

BASS.

Mr. Jones
" W. Hill
" Greatrix
" McCallum
" G. Matthews
" Knowles
" B. Brooks
" A. L. Davis
" W. J. Drope
" Shelton

If you decide from what you have heard or read, that you will take Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to buy any substitute instead.

THE BEET SUGAR INDUSTRY.

Another Large and Representative Meeting Held at Harwood.

The attendance of between three and four hundred farmers at the meeting that was held at Harwood yesterday afternoon to discuss the sugar beet industry evidences the interest that is felt by the agricultural community of this vicinity in this proposed factory. The county of Peterborough was well represented. The County Council was represented by Warden Elmhirst and Messrs. M. Sanderson, Reeve, and H. C. Garbutt, Deputy Reeve, of Smith, Jos. Forster, of Monaghan, John Moloney, of Douro, A. R. Kidd, of Dummer, and Geo. Stewart, of Otonabee. Among others present from this county were Messrs. Dawson Kennedy, President of the West Peterborough Farmers' Institute, F. Birdsall, President of the East Peterborough Institute, R. E. Birdsall, W. Rutherford, H. Calcutt, Wm. Collins, Joshua Smithson, Jas. Miller and W. J. Johnson.

The meeting was held in Bowen's hall, which was crowded. Mr. Russell, President of the Northumberland Institute, occupied the chair, and after opening called upon Mr. Lauder, of Toronto, to address the meeting. Mr. Lauder's address was similar to the one he gave at the Cobourg meeting. He gave figures to show the farmers what was being done in Germany, France and other countries in beet sugar and said that of 112 samples of the roots sent from different parts of Ontario to the Ontario Agricultural College only one per cent. was found not to contain saccharine in abundance.

Mr. Arden Hinch, of Napanee stated that he had raised on 20 square feet of land 55 bushels of sugar beets.

Mr. Bowman, of Hamilton, gave his experience with the root, after which Mr. Westington moved, seconded by Mr. Birdsall the same resolution that was carried at the Cobourg meeting favoring the establishment of a factory and pledging the farmers to assist in its promotion. The resolution was carried.

Lieut.-Col. Boulton, of Cobourg, spoke in favor of the industry.

Mr. Dawson Kennedy next address the meeting, referring to the present as an opportune time for the establishment of the factory as the farmers were willing to grow something in place of grain. Mr. Kennedy moved, seconded by Mr. Rosevear, the resolution he moved at the former meeting calling upon the Dominion Government to assist the industry.

Mr. Guillett, M. P., supported the resolution, giving it as his opinion that the Government would be only too willing to assist such an industry. The resolution carried.

Mr. Bowman moved, seconded by Mr. Geo. Stewart, a resolution calling upon the Ontario Government to give the enterprise its assistance and favoring the Rice Lake district as the place of location.

Warden Elmhirst then made a short address, after which Mr. McNaughton, of Cobourg, spoke, objecting to the clause in the resolution as to location. However, the resolution was carried.

Mr. Birdsall moved, seconded by Mr. Nixon, that the presidents and secretaries of the farmers' institutes of East and West Peterborough be requested to gather information as to the acreage that would be available for the growing of sugar beets and report to Mr. Cullis, of Campbellford, Secretary of the West Northumberland Institute. This motion carried.

Resolutions of thanks were passed to the West Northumberland Institute for bringing the matter before the farmers, to Mr. Lauder for his able address and to the deputation from the County Council and Peterborough for their attendance.

Mr. Birdsall then introduced the question of the Farmers' picnic, which was well received and discussed. This event has become an established one with the farmers and is looked forward to with interest each year.

The meeting then adjourned.

Mr. Lauder is addressing a meeting of farmers in the market building this afternoon.

An Unfortunate Week.

Mr. Benj. Cooney, of Otonabee, met with two expensive misfortunes this week. On Monday his horse ran away and smashed the cutter to smithereens. Yesterday one of his cows gored another fine animal, completely disembowelling it and killing it instantly.

Swallowed Paris Green.

Thomas Benton, a young man about twenty years of age, son of Mr. George Benton, last evening took a large dose of Paris green, mixing the poison with water in a tumbler and swallowing it. Prompt medical attendance was secured, Dr. Yelland being summoned, and the young man was relieved from serious consequences.

Campaign Notes.

Mr. Stevenson held a meeting at Fraserville last night, which was largely attended and addressed by Mr. J. Hampden Burnham, Col. R. Z. Rogers and Mr. Stevenson on the question of the day. The meeting was very favorable to the Conservative candidate.

Mr. John Burnham held a meeting at Warsaw, in the East Riding, last night and gave an address on the issues in this contest. There was a large attendance and the indications were very favorable.

Personal.

Mr. William Sanderson, M.A., Comptroller and Treasurer of the Cosmopolitan Life and Casualty Association, Toronto, is spending several days in Peterborough and vicinity appointing representatives for the Company. Mr. Sanderson is an old Peterborough boy and from the many new and attractive features of this reliable company it is evident the Cosmopolitan is bound to forge ahead. Capt. E. Sanderson, of Smith, has been appointed local inspector for the Co. The Cosmopolitan claims to furnish the cheapest reliable life and accident insurance in Canada. 1d28

New Dry Goods Store at 383 George-st.

Two weeks from to-day (Saturday, Feb. 28th) Mr. O. C. Rowse will open out a first-class stock of dry goods in the store formerly occupied by Mr. Duncan Cameron. The store has been thoroughly remodelled. The old and the antiquated have given place to the newest and most modern improvements. The store has been extended to the length of one hundred feet. With a new store, new stock and prices very low in every department, we see no reason why Mr. Rowse should not receive a very large patronage from town and country. Remember the opening day, Feb. 28th. Mr. Rowse will then be pleased to see all his old friends, and as many new ones as will favor him with a call.

An Explanation.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—Allow me to correct an impression that might unintentionally be given by the announcement that the Liberal Committee will meet in "the Knights of Labor Hall on Water-st." The hall referred to has not been used by the Knights of Labor for over a year, as their hall is now situated on Hunter-st.

Yours truly,
T. M. MARTIN, M.W.

HIS LAST MARCH.

General Sherman, the Well Known United States Officer, Dead.

By Telegraph to the Review.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—General W. T. Sherman died at 1 50 o'clock this afternoon.

Brevities.

—There was no Police Court this morning

—The market was a large one this morning.

—W. C. T. U. members please remember the regular fortnightly business meeting to be held in the hall on Monday afternoon at half past three.

Religious Services.

The following is a list of services in the several churches on Sunday:—

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.—Rev. J.C. Davidson, M. A., Rector. Rev. C. B. Kenrick, M. A., Curate. W. M. Loucks, M.A., Reader. Feb. 15th. Quadragesima Sunday. 1st Sunday in Lent. 8.30 a. m., Holy Communion. 11 a. m., Morning Prayer, Sermon, and Holy Communion. 3 p. m., Sunday school and Bible Classes 7 p. m. Evening Prayer and Sermon. Seats provided and a hearty welcome at all services. All seats free in the evening. Ushers on duty. Messrs. Harry Long, E. H. Loucks, F. Perry, R. A. W. Hay.

ST. LUKE'S (Ashburnham).—Quadragesima Sunday, Morning Prayer and Holy Communion at 11 a. m. Children's Service at 3 o'clock p. m. Evening Prayer and Sermon at 7 p. m. Services conducted by the Rev. J. W. McCleary. All seats free. Strangers are welcome. Temperance Sunday.

ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL.—At St. Peters' Cathedral, Roman Catholic, there will be two masses celebrated, the first at 8 a. m., and the second at 10.30 a. m. Vespers at 7 p.m.

ST. PAUL'S.—Rev. E. F. Torrance, M. A., pastor. Services at 11 a. m., and 7 p. m.

GEORGE-ST. METHODIST CHURCH.—Rev. Jos. H. Locke, pastor. Services at 11 a. m., and 7 p.m. conducted by the pastor. Sunday School at 2.30 p. m. Mr. H. S. Griffin Superintendent. Ushers will welcome strangers and conduct them to seats.

CHARLOTTE-ST. METHODIST CHURCH.—Rev. S. J. Shorey, pastor. Services 11 a. m. and 7 p. m., conducted by the pastor. Sunday school at 2.30 p. m. Strangers welcome.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.—The Rev. A. McWilliams, South Mountain, Ont., will occupy the pulpit morning and evening. Services 11 a.m. and 7 p. m. Strangers welcome.

BAPTIST CHURCH, Murray-st.—Usual services at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m., conducted by Rev. C. Goodspeed, of McMaster Hall. Sunday Prayer meeting at 10 a. m. Sunday school at 3 p. m. Come and welcome. No rented seats.

METHODIST CHURCH, Mark-st. (Ashburnham).—Rev. A. C. Wilson, pastor. Services at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m., conducted by the pastor. Free pews and hearty welcome to all. Messrs. Brady, Smith and Johnston ushers. Sunday school 2.30 p. m. Mr. H. S. Armstrong superintendent.

ST. JOHN'S MISSION (Corner of Sherbrooke and Rubidge-sts).—Quadragesima Sunday 3 p. m. Sunday school. 7 p. m., Evening Prayer and Sermon. All welcome.

BAPTIST MISSION (Corner Dalhousie and Stewart-sts).—On Sunday services will be held as usual. Sabbath school at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Preaching service in the evening at 7 o'clock. A cordial invitation is given. Hymn books provided.

ROYAL TEMPLARS.—Gospel temperance meeting in the Royal Templars' hall, Hunter-st., at 4 o'clock p. m.

CHRISTIAN ALLIANCE.—Sabbath morning first, at 9.15, the Christian Alliance and American Divine Healing Association are commencing a meeting to be held every Sabbath morning in the Royal Templars Hall, Hunter-st., entrance west of Nugent's drug store. Come and study God's word and know His will as present Saviour, Sanctifier, Healer and Coming Lord. The sceptical, sick and weary in spirit and body are earnestly invited to these meeting. The weekly meeting is in the Y. M. C. A. Hall on Thursday evening at 7.45 o'clock.

The Largest Manufacturer of Trusses Coming!!!

People troubled with rupture should make a point to see Mr. Chas. Cluthe. He is known as an expert in rupture cases, and his business extends from the Atlantic to the Pacific. If you wish to deal with a man of regular lines and prices, we are sure he is the man. At Oriental hotel, Peterborough, Saturday, Feb. 21. 1d88

To Rent.

Farms wanted to rent. Tenants supplied this year at half price. Call or write.

T. HURLEY,
d23tf 357 George-st.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. G. Gumpricht is in town Order may be left at Messrs. Taylor & McDonald's store. 1yd168

Make Your Plants Grow

and bloom by using Royal Plant Food. Sold only at Mason's Seed and Plant House, corner of Water and Brock-sts. d34

I Will Give You

The best bargains in groceries in Peterborough. My stock is new and goods are all first-class. Just received a nice line of Japan Tea I am selling at 25c per lb. Special discounts to hotels, boarding houses and parties purchasing goods in large quantities. Alex. Elliott, 353 George-st. Peterborough. d30

Spring.

Nobody seems to know where spring is, but preparations for its advent are being made neverthe less. You need new, fresh, seasonable groceries? We sell them. That's our business. We sell good goods. We deliver them on time. We charge you no more that you pay elsewhere, in most cases less. Call and see us. We welcome the smallest customer. STAPLETON & ELCOMBE. d37

The Coming Contest.

It is considered it will be of a very lively nature. Every man may have his friends in politics, but when it comes to Grit or Tory of course he must cast his vote for his party irrespective of social friendship. The same may be said in this case. Parties may have their friends, but when it comes to business and they wish to buy tea, Groceries, wines or liquors at sacrifice, w j morrow's is the place they go to. d31w7

At It Again.

At what? Both political parties pegging away, getting ready for the fray. They say that a political contest wake's business up. That may or may not be the case, but which ever party wins there is the reflection that winners and losers also will go ahead drinking Hawley Bros. teas, the best, the purest, the cheapest that are sold. It may be convenient to forget some things in politics, but don't forget Hawley Bros teas. d31tf

That's Really Answered.

"My dear," said Mrs. Cupandsaucer, laying down the evening paper, "what is reciprocity?" "Reciprocity, my angel," said the head of the house, "is easily explained. It means a general evening up,—as, say when Smitters asks me in to take a-er-cigar and I ask him to have another.' "Exactly," said Mrs. C., "when I go to Hawley Bros. for tea and I hand Mr. Hawley a dollar and he gives me four or five pounds of splendid green or black mixture, I get the money's worth and he the money. Isn't that it?" "Exactly," said the husband as he reached for his hat. d30tf

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on a trial

VOLTAIC BELT CO., Marshall, Mich.

PASHA is the name of the popular pen. Seven styles to suit all hands. Try them. Sold at the REVIEW Stationery.

OUR ACTIVE MILITIA.

REMINISCENCES OF THE NORTH WEST REBELLION.

Sentry-Go and the Queer Happenings Which Sometimes Distinguish the Raw Recruit's Idea of Guard Duty—A General's Fine Snap.

PERSONAL gain cannot be said to have much to do with inducing men to enter the ranks of the militia, as a private only receives the munificent sum of fifty cents per day for the time he is under arms, and as the annual training generally takes place when men are busy and earning good pay.

A man joining the militia is bound to turn out at any time when called on, under a very heavy penalty of fine and imprisonment. During the Riel rebellion in the North-west in 1885, many prominent citizens had to shoulder the rifle and march away to "rough it" for months, and do some sharp fighting with half breeds and Indians, too. One lawyer who had to leave a fine practice in Montreal to rough it for fifty cents a day made out a very humorous bill against the Government on his return. An item which formed an important feature in his "bill" was "To unloading cord wood." Still these city men, so unaccustomed to the hardships of such a life, bore up pluckily throughout, and seemed even to enjoy it. The woodcraft of the rural corps came in splendidly on some occasions. In one in particular, where the troops had to pass a gorge through which a rapid river flowed, a halt was called while the engineer officers could draw plans for throwing a bridge across. A captain, who thought he and his men knew something about an axe and timber, set to work, and before the engineers could think the matter out they had constructed a strong and serviceable bridge, over which all passed safely.

In the annual camps some amusing incidents are often witnessed, guards and guard mounting being fertile sources of amusement in many cases, where the sentries have as much idea of their duties as they have of Otaheitean mythology. To the mind of the average militiaman it must, of course, appear to be a work of supererogation to go tramping up and down a beat for a couple of hours on a wet, dark night, and it is hardly to be wondered at if he should at such a time be tempted to seek the shelter of the nearest tent or on a fine night take a quiet snooze on the sward. Again, some sentries have a very hazy idea of the proper military respect due to the powers that be. One fine, burly fellow was sauntering along his beat, his rifle slung any way over his shoulder, when the D. A. G., Colonel ———, came past. The sentry stopped, grounded his firelock, and leaning his chin on the muzzle calmly gazed on the great man.

"Don't you know what to do, my man?" said the D. A. G., more in pity than anger. "I'm the general!"

"Ye are, are ye?" delightedly exclaimed Private———, rushing up and shaking the officer vigorously by the hand. "You've a fine soft snap of it, I've heerd, old boy! Mind yerself an' stick to it."

"Grand rounds," too, brings out some queer incidents in camp. Colonel———, a mild old soldier, was doing the rounds one night. On nearing the tent where the rear guard was mounted the colonel and officers accompanying him let their scabbards rattle as much as possible to have the sentry on the alert. There was no challenge given nor other notice taken of their approach, and on coming up to the tent the sentry was found leisurely stretched in front, smoking his pipe.

"Well, my man, why aren't you on your beat?" queried the colonel.

"Oh, man! I'm tired trampin' up an' down. I'm just havin' a smoke" was the reply.

"Well! well!" said the colonel hastily, as he heard a tittering behind him. "Turn our your guard. This is 'grand rounds.'"

"They're all asleep in there, long ago," was the answer.

"Tut! tut! Turn them out I tell you!"

"Don't I tell you, man, that they're all sleepin'. What's the use wakin' them?"

"Turn them out at once sir, when I tell you!" roared the colonel, getting angry at last. Slowly the sentry got on his legs, and going over to the tent put in his head and shouted: "Hey, you fellows! waken up an' come out here! There's an old chap wants to see you!"

A question which often crops up is that of city versus rural corps for active service. A prima facie case seems made out at once in favor of the rural men, as being more inured to the hardships of rough country life, but actual experience has shown that the city men have stood the long marches, fatigues and bad fare of a campaign with just as much pluck and cheerfulness as their country cousins. The city regiments have, of course, all the advantage in way of facilities for drilling, and are always available to turn out on short notice in aid of the civil power; but, I think, after all, for backbone the real dependence must be put on the rural corps.

The dress of the Canadian militia is one not suited to the hot weather experienced in summer. The thick cloth tunics lined with flannel are all well enough for cold weather, but perfectly unbearable in a hot time—especially to men accustomed to the loose neglige style of the hayfield and farm. It is quite common on a march to see big strapping fellows, who would stand fifteen hours, work in haying or harvesting, falling out, completely done up, after three or four miles, unable to bear the heat and constraint of tight tunic and cumbrous accoutrements.

"The "West Point" of Canada is the Royal Military College, at Kingston, Ontario, an institution which has proved a thorough success in every way. The college has turned out close on two hundred graduates since it was established, something over ten years ago. Nearly half of them are now serving in the regular army of England, in which many have highly distinguished themselves. Lieut. W. G. Stairs, who showed such gallantry and zeal in Stanley's late expedition in Africa, is a Kingston graduate, and a good fair sample of what they can turn out from that institution. Four commissions in Her Majesty's Army are given every year to Kingston students—one in the engineers, one in the artillery, one in the cavalry and one in the infantry.—Capt. Thos. S. Blackwell in Outing

Dr. Galinger, the New Hampshire Canadian, will be the oldest physician in the Senate of the United States.

Now, Give Attention

To the purification of your blood, for at no season is the body so susceptible to the benefits to be derived from a good medicine, as in March, April and May. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the people's favorite spring medicine. It stands unequalled for purifying the blood, curing scrofula, salt rheum, etc., regulating the kidneys and liver, repairing nerve tissue, strengthening and invigorating the whole body, as well as checking the progress of acute and chronic disease, and restoring the afflicted parts to a natural, healthy condition. If you have never tried Hood's Sarsaparilla for your "spring medicine," do so this season.

Health by Good Living.

For your choicest beef, mutton, lamb, pork, ham, breakfast bacon, spiced or sausage, etc., go to John J. Howden, 441 George-st. Bacon sold by actual weight d141

The Homeliest Man in Peterborough.

As well as the handsomest, and others are invited to call on any druggist and get free a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, a remedy that is selling entirely upon its merits and is guaranteed to relieve and cure all Chronic and Acute Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

DIED

HOWDEN.—In Ashburnham, on Saturday, Feb. 14th, 1891, GEORGINA BLANCHE, infant daughter of Mr. John J. Howden, aged 1 year and 7 days.

The funeral will take place from the family residence, and Lock-st., on Monday afternoon, Feb. 16, at 2.30 o'clock. Interment at Little Lake Cemetery.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

A POLITICAL SCENE
On George-St.

A trio of anxious aspirants discussing the issues of the campaign.
One advocates "Free Trade."
Another wants "Reciprocity."
The third clamors for "Protection"

DOLAN THE CLOTHIER

Happens along and puts an end to the debate by remarking: "Gentlemen—judging from the general appearance of your wearing apparel," permit me to say that you all need clothes. The meeting broke up and adjourned to headquarters for clothing.

They were shown Suits from $5 to $25.
They looked at Overcoats from $4 to $24.
They saw Pantaloons from $1 to $10.

Finally they all bought a whole outfit. The white oak plank in our platform caught them solid, viz:—

One Price, a Low Price
AND
SQUARE DEALING.

Let others be guided by the wisdom of the above gentlemen, and remember

That we don't want your votes,
But we do want your notes
—AT—
DOLAN'S.

"PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE"
parties still hold the boards. We have a lot of good playing cards at 25c. a pack, or 5 for $1.00. These are worth 40c. each.
SAILSBURY BROS.

FOR MEN ONLY!
VIGOR STRENGTH
For LOST or FAILING MANHOOD; General and NERVOUS DEBILITY; Weakness of Body and Mind, Effects of Errors or Excesses in Old or Young. [illegible] ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N. Y.

SAWS Filed and Gummed in First Class Style. Knives, Scissors, Tools, &c., ground and sharpened. S. W. ENGLISH. shop, 129 Charlotte-st. d3 wly

—ONTARIO—
Planing Mills!

Planing, Matching, Mouldings, Band Sawing & Turning, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Storm Sash.

JAMES Z. ROGERS.

2 BRICK HOUSES,
2 FRAME HOUSES,
and THREE LOTS,
to be sold at my office on WEDNESDAY next, the 18th inst., at 2 p.m.

The above properties are situated west of Bethune-st., and between the 2 railway stations in the centre of all the principal manufactories in town. A rare chance.

T. HURLEY,
357 George-st.

D. BELLEGHEM,
Issuer of Marriage Licenses,
PETERBOROUGH.

"Hello there, Brown, where are you going in such a hurry?"

"Why, I am going to J. J. Turner to get a pair of the fine Waterproof Horse Covers he makes. I tell you they are the finest I have seen. He also makes Wagon Covers, Lap Rugs, Clothing, &c.

"You want the address; all right,

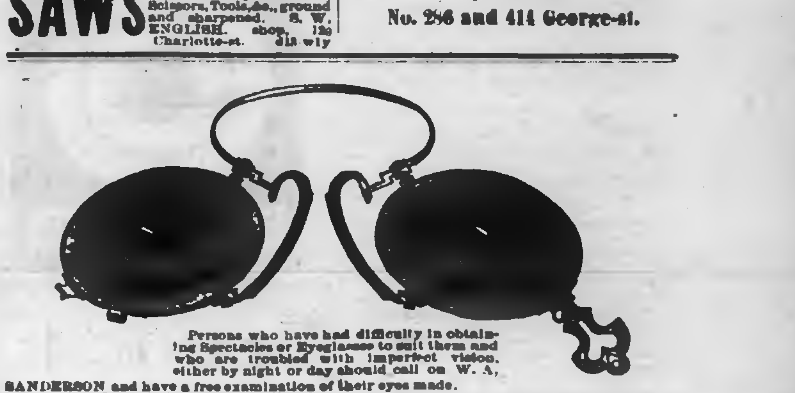
J. J. TURNER,
The Tent and Awning Maker, corner of George and King-sts., Peterborough.
Telephone day or night.

LIME!

First quality Lime in any quantity, for sale and delivered to any part of the town. Builders, contractors, etc. supplied promptly at current prices. Lime house, at G.T.R. Station.

A. RUTHERFORD.

CAKES!
For a Good Cake, leave your orders at
Long Bros.
Also home-made cakes iced and nicely Ornamented. Wedding Breakfasts and Evening Parties Catered for. Oyster Patties made to order. Our stock of Candies is pure and made by ourselves.
No. 286 and 414 George-st.



Persons who have had difficulty in obtaining Spectacles or Eyeglasses to suit them and who are troubled with imperfect vision, either by night or day should call on W. A. SANDERSON and have a free examination of their eyes made. Oculists Prescriptions Carefully Filled.

W. A. SANDERSON, Jeweller and Optician, Peterborough, Ont.
EYESIGHT TESTED.

"EXPLODED"

It was a noiseless explosion and came about gradually, but it exploded all the same. This is how it happened:—

Certain wives and daughters in this fair Canada got the idea into their heads (without having first proved its correctness) that because they couldn't buy as big an armful of "Sunlight" Soap for 25c. as they could of other soaps, that "Sunlight" Soap was consequently DEAR.

This is what has "exploded". This idea, or fancy, has been proved erroneous and misleading; and those who were once under that false impression now admit that there is more real pure soap and less water; more saving of labor and less water on the clothes; more comfort in washing and less injury to the hands; and more all round satisfaction in the use of "Sunlight" Soap than in any other soap in the market.

Don't stand in your own light. Try "Sunlight."

THE STANDARD LIFE
Assurance Company,
ESTABLISHED - - - - - - - 1832

Subsisting Assurances ......$101,250,000.
Invested Funds .... 34,000,000.
Annual Income .... 4,800,000.
Bonuses Distributed .... 22,000,000.
The Funds Invested in Canada amount to nearly.... $4,000,000.
Deposited with Dominion Government at Ottawa.. 1,100,000

All plans of Assurance. Non Forfeitable Policies. Absolutely unconditional policies from date of issue without extra charge. Absolute security. Rates compare favorably with any first-class Company!

W. M. RAMSAY, [illegible]
A.V.R. YOUNG, General Agent, and Inspector for Midland District, 329 Water-st.
C. CAMERON, MULLHOLLAND & ROPER, Special Agents.

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1891.

TORONTO TOPICS.

$1000 Reward For the Arrest of the Ancaster Murderer—The Father of Protection Dead.

TORONTO, Feb. 14.—An international curling match took place here yesterday. The Portage City Rink, the winners of the Mitchell medal of '90, and Yonkers, the champion Mitchell medal rink this year, met to fight for possession of the four pairs of curling stones presented by Mr. Thorburn of Beith, Scotland. This match decided the champion rink of the Grand National Curling Club of America. The match was inaugurated in 1869, when W. Kellock's New York rink won the Gordon medal. The winners have been New York, Yonkers, Milwaukee (3), Detroit Granite, Jersey City, Four Brothers (R. Malcolm), Jersey City, Detroit Granite, Yonkers, Milwaukee, Utica, Portage City, Yonkers, Milwaukee, Yonkers and Mosholu. It will thus be seen that Yonkers and Milwaukee were frequent winners of the distinction and again Yonkers is to the fore, as yesterday they won by four shots. The biggest majority ever secured was 12 and that was made four times.

The Ontario Government have decided on issuing a proclamation offering a reward of $1000 for information which may lead to the discovery and conviction of the murderer of John Heslop, the late clerk of the Township of Ancaster. An application has also been made to the Dominion Government to proclaim a full pardon to any of the party who should turn Queen's evidence, other than the actual murderer.

Companies Incorporated.

Letters patent have been issued incorporating the Toronto Construction and Electrical Supply Company (limited), with a capital stock of $250,000 in 2500 shares. The first subscribers are W. D. Matthews, W. R. Brock, Frederic Nicholls, Robert Jaffray, Hugh Ryan, H. P. Dwight and J. K. Kerr.

The Scugog Game Preserve Company (Limited), capital stock $10,000 in ten shares. H. S. Osler, S. C. Beatty, Joseph Kilgour, C. H. Riggs and Frederick H. Gooch are the first members.

"The Boynton Wall Plaster and Cement Manufacturing Company of Kingston (Limited)," capital stock $60,000 in 2400 shares. The subscribers are James Minnes, E. A. Kirkpatrick, John Hewton, Robert L. F. Strathy, John Gaskin, C. F. Gildersleeve and Isaac Newlands, all of Kingston.

The Mutual National Gas Company of Port Colborne (Limited); capital stock $20,000 in 200 shares.

One of the oldest of Toronto's journalists, Mr. John Maclean, father of W. F. Maclean of The World, died yesterday. Mr. Maclean was born in 1825 in Glasgow, where his father and grandfather had been extensively engaged in the cotton industry. He crossed the ocean in 1835. In 1853 he began his newspaper career as a writer on The Hamilton Times. Toronto was his next field of labor, and here in 1864 he took up the advocacy of protection. When The Mail was established in 1870 Mr. Maclean was its editor. For eight years he wrote continuously for that paper, and after quitting it he soon after resumed the advocacy of his theory in The World. About a year and a half ago he retired from active life, and since that time his health has been in a very precarious condition. Mr. Maclean was really the author of protection.

Canadian Press Association.

The annual business meeting of the Canadian Press Association was commenced yesterday in this city under the most gratifying auspices. There was a large muster of newspaper men in various grades. President Pattullo was in the chair.

The Executive Committee's report recommended the election of Lud K. Cameron, H. Hough and Roy V. Somerville as honorary members, that delegates be sent to the meeting of the National Editorial Association at St. Paul's next July and also that the secretary be directed to collect statistics from all the newspaper offices of Ontario as to the amount of capital invested in the newspaper business, the number of men employed, the aggregate rate of wages paid, the total annual expenditure of the business, etc. The report was adopted.

Advertising rates were discussed in a paper read by J. S. Brierly, St. Thomas Journal; "Rural Journalism," by A. F. Pirie, Dundas Banner; "Journalistic Imposition," John Cameron, London; "Pictorial Journalism," J. W. Bengough of Grip; "Higher Training of Journalists," by William Houston.

His Honor, the Lieutenant-Governor, was at home yesterday afternoon from 5 to 6 to the members, to meet whom a number of prominent citizens were invited. Among these were Hon. G. W. Allan, Hon. Mr. Mowat, Principal Caven, Rev. G. M. Milligan, Rev. J. A. McDonald.

In the evening there was a first class banquet at Webb's. Covers were laid for 75. Among the guests were Hon. Oliver Mowat, Prof. Goldwin Smith, Dr. Daniel Clark, R. L. Patterson, J. T. Johnson, H. E. Smallpiece of The World, Fred. Dwer of the Central Press, C. B. Robinson of The Presbyterian, and the majority of those who had taken part in the day's proceedings. Music was supplied by the Grenadiers' Band and the speeches were of a very high order. The banquet was a great success.

A Gladstonian Succeeds Bradlaugh.

NORTHAMPTON, Feb. 12.—The election here to-day for member of Parliament resulted: Manfield (Gladstonian) 5736, Germain (Conservative) 3723.

Died in a Chair.

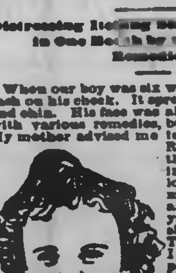
PICTOU, N.S., Feb. 12.—The death is announced of David McCulloch, ex-collector of customs at Pictou, who expired suddenly while sitting in a chair.

BABY'S FACE WAS RAW.

Distressing Itching Skin Disease Cured in One Month by the Cuticura Remedies.

When our boy was six weeks old he had a rash on his cheek. It spread on both cheeks and chin. His face was all raw. I doctored with various remedies, but it got no better. My mother advised me to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I used them faithfully, and in one week the boy looked better. In one month he was cured, and now he is three years old and no signs of it returning. The child was so bad I had to tie him in a pillow-case, and pin his hands down so that he could not scratch his face. I cannot speak too highly of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I recommend CUTICURA whenever I can. I would be pleased to see anyone and talk to them of the good it has done my boy. MRS. CYRUS PROSCH,

Cayteeville, Fort Lee P.O., N.J.



N.B. My husband is president of the Prosch Manufacturing Company, proprietors of the "Duplex" and "Triplex" Photographic Shutters, 389 Broome Street, New York City. He dislikes undesirable notoriety, but is willing to make sacrifices to benefit others, and assents to this testimonial to encourage the use of CUTICURA, and thus bring relief to others.

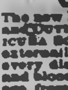
Cuticura Resolvent

The new Blood and Skin Purifier, internally, and CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, and exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally, instantly relieve and speedily cure every disease and humor of the skin, scalp, and blood, with loss of hair, from infancy to age, from pimples to scrofula.

Sold everywhere. Price, CUTICURA, 75c.; SOAP, 35c; RESOLVENT, $1.50. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CORPORATION, Boston.

Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases," 64 pages, 50 illustrations, and 100 testimonials.

BABY'S Skin and Scalp purified and beautified by CUTICURA SOAP. Absolutely pure.



RHEUMATIC PAINS. In one minute the Cuticura Anti-Pain Plaster relieves rheumatic, sciatic, hip, kidney, chest and muscular pains and weaknesses. Price 30c.

1891 1891

THE LADIES' JOURNAL BIBLE COMPETITION!

NO. 27.

In the next issue of THE LADIES' JOURNAL the editor of that popular monthly will announce a new competition. The questions will be as follows:—Where in the Bible are the following words first found: 1. MONEY. 2. COAL. 3. WOOD?

The fact that this is the twenty-seventh competition speaks well for their popularity. We can recommend the LADIES' JOURNAL and these prizes to our readers. They will find them all that is represented.

The list of rewards enumerated below is as large and attractive as is any of the former competitions, which have given so much satisfaction during the past nine years. To the sender of the first correct answer received at office of the LADIES' JOURNAL, will be given number one of these rewards, the SADDLE HORSE. The The sender of the second correct answer number two, one of the Gold Watches, and so on till all these first rewards are given away.

THE FIRST REWARDS.

First one, Lady's Saddle Horse, nearly thoroughbred, well broken, sound, kind, good jumper, will follow a lady like a lap dog; but a good traveller, not afraid of anything. Valued at ... $ 200

Next five, each a Lady's Fine, Gold-filled Hunting Case Watch. Value $50 each ... $ 250

Next six, each a Fine, Black Cashmere Dress Length. Value $16 ... $ 96

Next fifteen, each a set of Dinner Knives—one doz.—in a neat case. Value $10 ... $ 150

Next twenty-one, each a Lady's Fine Silver Watch, Excellent movement. Value $15 each ... $ 315

Next fifteen, each an Elegant Breakfast Cruet, extra quadruple plate, hand-painted bottles, very neat, $4 ... $ 60

Next four, each a Fine China Dinner Service, 100 pieces, an extra choice design, $35 ... $ 140

Next six, an Extra Quadruple Plate Silver Tea Service, 4 pieces, satin finish, a beautiful set, $40 ... $ 240

Next five, each a Gentleman's Hunting Case Gold-filled Watch, extra heavy case, beautifully engraved, non-magnetic, Waltham movement, full jewelled, pinion set, stem winder, $50 ... $ 250

Next five, each a Fine Black Corded Silk Dress Length, $25 ... $ 125

Next fifteen, each One doz. Quadruple Plate Tea Spoons, extra quality $5 ... $ 75

Next ten, each a Beautifully Bound Family Bible, with concordance, maps, engravings, dictionary and magnificently illustrated, $15 ... $ 150

To the sender of the middle correct answer of the whole competition from first to last will be given number one of these middle rewards. Next number two, and so on.

THE MIDDLE REWARDS.

First one, an Elegant Upright Rosewood Piano ... $ 300

Next one, Drawing Room Suite Upholstered in raw silk beautifully finished in every particular ... $ 100

Next one, Lady's Bicycle, latest improved Machine ... 120

Next five, each One Lady's Fine Gold Filled Watch, Hunting Case, beautifully engraved, good movement, full jewelled, at $50 ... $ 250

Next ten, each a Lady's Companion beautifully lined in plush containing Bevelled Glass, Fine Hair Brush, Comb, etc., $8 ... $ 80

Next five, each a Fine China Tea Service, extra choice design, especially imported, $10 ... $ 50

Next fifteen, Each a fine Pair of Razor Steel Scissors. Valued $2 ... $ 30

Next Five, Each a Handsomely Bound in Morocco Cover, Family Bible, Beautifully Illustrated, containing the Revised Edition, Commentary Dictionary, etc., etc., $15 ... $ 75

Next Ten, Each a Lady's or Gentleman's Coin Silver Watch, with good movement—a correct time-piece, $15 ... $ 150

Next Five, Each a beautifully chased full Quadruple Plate, Satin Finish, Waiters or Salvers, $18 ... $ 90

Next Twenty-four, each a very fine solid nickle straight line lever Gentlemen's Watch. This watch is well constructed and an extra time-piece, and no way to be compared with cheap nickle watches, $6 ... $ 144

Next Three, Each a well finished Family Sewing Machine, $70 ... $ 210

To the sender of the last correct answer of the whole competition, postmarked where mailed, not later than 25th March, 1891, will be given number one of these rewards. To the one preceding the last, number two, and so on, counting backwards till all these rewards are given. So even the residents of the most distant places have as good an opportunity to those living in Toronto.

THE CONSOLATION REWARDS.

First Five each a fine Black Corded Silk Dress length, $25 ... $ 125

Next six, each a handsome hand-painted brass finish, Drawing Room Lamp ... $ 36

Next fifteen, each one dozen full Quadruple Plate Tea Spoons, $5 ... $ 75

Next Ten, each a beautiful bound Family Bible, with concordance, maps, engravings, dictionary, and magnificently illustrated, $15 ... $ 150

Next Six, each a full quadruple plate Berry Dish, with beautiful colored and white glass bowl, a very showy, choice article, $15 ... $ 90

Next six, each a Gentleman's Filled Gold Open Face Watch, Waltham movement, exact time-piece $50 ... $ 300

Next six, each a Lady's Gold Hunting Case Swiss Watch, a reliable timer, $40 ... $ 24

Next fifty, each a Lady Fine Solid Silver Thimble, $1.50 ... $ 75

Next six, each a Fine Quadruple Silver Plated combined Sugar Bowl and Spoon Holder, with one dozen extra value Tea Spoons, $12 ... $ 72

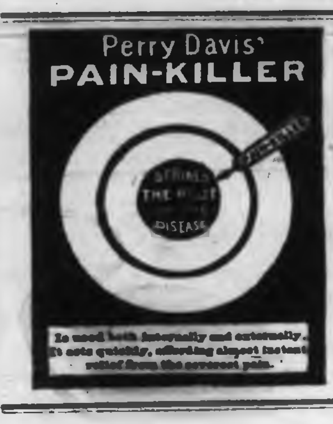
All persons competing must send with their answers, one dollar, for which THE LADIES' JOURNAL will be mailed to any address for one year. THE JOURNAL has been enlarged to 28 pages and a handsome cover added, making it one of the most attractive publications on the continent for the money. There is something in each issue to interest every lady, young or old, and you will find even if you do not get any of the above prizes, that you have received your dollar's worth in THE JOURNAL.

The names and full addresses of the winners of the first, middle and consolation rewards will be published in THE JOURNAL immediately at the close of the competition. The editor has in his possession thousands of highly complimentary letters of the winners of prizes in previous competitions. Doctors, lawyers, merchants, clergymen, members of parliament, publishers, printers, railway men, in fact nearly every trade and profession is represented in our list of winners. Address, Editor LADIES' JOURNAL, Toronto, Canada.

DO YOU KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE?

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM.

NO BETTER REMEDY FOR COUGHS, COLDS, CROUP, CONSUMPTION, &C.



Perry Davis'
PAIN-KILLER
STRIKES THE ... DISEASE
Is used both internally and externally.
It acts quickly, affording almost instant relief from the severest pain.

DIRECTLY TO THE SPOT.

INSTANTANEOUS IN ITS ACTION.

For CRAMPS, CHILLS, COLIC, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, CHOLERA MORBUS, and all BOWEL COMPLAINTS,

NO REMEDY EQUALS THE PAIN-KILLER.

In Canadian Cholera and Bowel Complaints its effect is magical. It cures in a very short time.

THE BEST FAMILY REMEDY FOR BURNS, BRUISES, SPRAINS, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA and TOOTHACHE.

SOLD EVERYWHERE AT 25C. A BOTTLE.

☞ Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations.

Choicest Brands

—OF—

FLOUR!

BAKERS and PASTRY

—AT—

MELDRUM & DAVIDSON'S

Quality Guaranteed.

FEED:

All kinds always on hand. Orders left at Ormond & Walsh's or McDonald's drug stores will be promptly attended to.

Mill Telephone No. 106.

LOWEST PRICES FOR CASH.

TOOLS!

BUILDING HARDWARE!

NAILS, LOCKS, HINGES, and all Building Hardware

Edge Tools, Saws, Files, Planes and all Mechanics' Tools.

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc., etc. of the Best Quality and Lower in Price than Elsewhere

GEO. STETHEM.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

GEO. B. SPROULE,

ARTIST & PHOTOGRAPHER,

GROUND FLOOR,

130 Charlotte-st. - - - - - Peterborough.

FRAMES & PICTURE MOULDINGS.

MR. SHELDRAKE'S

Private

PREPARATORY SCHOOL,

FOR BOYS,

LAKEFIELD, ONTARIO.

PASHA

STEEL PENS!

Fine Grades!

THE FAVORITE PEN FOR

Business, Correspondence, Book-keeping and all Writing.

If used once no others will suit.

TRY THE "PASHA" PENS.

Review Stationery.

OPEN FOR INSPECTION!

A handsome and very useful line of

CASE GOODS

COMPRISING

Carver Sets,

Ladies' and Gentlemen's

COMPANIONS

These Goods are the Best English Make.

KINGAN & Co

Bookbinding!

Magazines, Periodicals, Illustrated Papers, Law, Music,

and all kinds of Books Bound in the very best style of the art. First-class Material and Work. Close Prices.

REVIEW PT'G. CO.

LIMITED,

BOOKBINDERS, STATIONERS & ACCOUNT BOOK MANUFACTURERS.

350 George-st.

BLYTHE MILLS,

PETERBOROUGH

The above Mills have now been thoroughly renewed upon the complete

Hungarian Roller Process

The latest improved Rolls and flour Dressing Machines from the best manufacturing firms have been put in, and everything necessary added to enable her to turn out flour.

Second to None

in the Dominion. The facilities for receiving grain from farmers and for elevating and shipping are first-class. We have

A Large Feed Stone for Custom Chopping.

Chopping done satisfactorily and without delay.

Rolled Oats for Horses

Experienced horsemen are emphatic in asserting that there is nothing equal to rolled oats for horses, and to meet this demand we have had put in a machine specially adapted for this purpose.

Wheat Exchanges

Promptly attended to and

First-class Roller Flour Guaranteed.

Roller Flour, Bran, Shorts, and all kinds of Chopped Feed constantly on hand.

Highest Market Price Paid in Cash for any Quantity of Wheat.

Hilliard & Peplow.

UNION CREDIT & PROTECTION ASSOCIATION.

FOR the Collection of Old and Worthless Accounts, in any part of the world, and no charges if not collected. This Association has local offices in Canada and United States. Head and general office, 60 Adelaide-st. East, Toronto. Rooms, 10, 11, 12 and 13. C. E. COLLINS, General Manager, A. E. S. ANDREWS, Sec. Address all communications to Toronto, Ont., office. Telephone No. 2465. This is the only Association that settles accounts and advances the money to the creditor if desired.

C. E. COLLINS,
Manager

DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON, Solicitors for the Association at Peterborough.

August 20th, 1890. d51-w

BANK of TORONTO

Capital ... $2,000,000 00
Reserve Fund ... 1,200,000 00

PETERBORO' BRANCH.

SAVINGS BANK

SPECIAL ADVANTAGES are derived by depositing money in our Savings Bank Department.

1. "ONE DOLLAR saved is one dollar earned."

2. DEPOSITS of ONE DOLLAR and upwards are received and interest allowed thereon.

3. INTEREST is added to the principal on the 31st day of May and 30th day of November, in each year.

4. MONEY bears interest from the day it is deposited with the Bank until the day of withdrawal.

5. THE DEPOSITOR is subject to no delay whatever.

6. THE SECURITY offered by this Bank is undoubted, as will be seen by the large reserve held and the amount of surplus available for depositors and note holders.

BUSINESS WITH FARMERS.

FARMERS' NOTES discounted at lowest rates. SPECIAL ATTENTION is given to the collection of Farmers' Sale Notes, and advances made thereon.

NOTE FORMS furnished free of charge on application.

DEPOSITS.

DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS opened subject to withdrawal by cheque on demand.

SPECIAL DEPOSITS.—Deposit Receipts issued bearing interest at current rates.

JOHN L. GOWER, Manager.

d116-wf

Travel.

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY OF CANADA.

The direct route between the west and all points on the Lower St. Lawrence and Baie de Chaleur, Province of Quebec, also New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward, Cape Breton and the Magdalene Islands, Newfoundland and St. Pierre.

Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax daily (Sunday excepted) and run through without change between these points in 30 hours.

The through express train cars of the Intercolonial Railway are brilliantly lighted by electricity and heated by steam from the locomotive.

New and elegant Buffet Sleeping and Day Cars are run on all through express trains.

The popular summer sea bathing and fishing resorts of Canada are along the Intercolonial or are reached by that route.

Canadian, European Mail and Passenger Route.

Passengers for Great Britain or the Continent leaving Montreal on Thursday morning will join outward mail steamer at Rimouski the same evening.

The attention of shippers is directed to the superior facilities offered by this route for the transport of flour and general merchandise intended for the Eastern Provinces and Newfoundland, also for shipments of grain and produce intended for the European market.

Tickets may be obtained and all information about the route, also freight and passenger rates on application to

N. WEATHERSTON,

Western Freight and Passenger Agent, 93 Rossin House Block, York street, Toronto.

D. POTTINGER,
Chief Superintendent.

Railway Office, Moncton, N.B., 2nd July, 1890 1y

CANADIAN PACIFIC RY.

SETTLERS' TRAINS

WILL LEAVE ON

FEBRUARY 24th, 1891

AT 9.00 P.M.

AND EVERY TUESDAY THEREAFTER DURING MARCH AND APRIL

WITH COLONIST SLEEPER ATTACHED

FOR

MANITOBA AND THE CANADIAN NORTH-WEST

[redacted]

For full information see any C.P.R. agent.

CLARK & GIBSON

have now on view and for sale some

VERY FINE GOODS

—CONSISTING OF—

Gold and Silver Watches, Clocks and Fine Jewellery, etc.

Moderate in Price and Newest Patterns.

Ask to see their

English Oak Goods

AND

SCOTCH PEBBLE JEWELLERY

RARE, CHOICE AND BEAUTIFUL.

WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELLERY carefully repaired.

136 Hunter-st., 2 doors west of the PostOffice.

THE

CENTRAL CANADA Loan and Savings Co,

Authorized Capital ... $5,000,000
Subscribed Capital ... 2,000,000
Paid-up Capital ... 600,000
Reserve Fund ... 120,000
Invested Funds ... 2,579,133.57

OFFICE.—No. 437, George-st., Peterborough.

DEPOSITS received at current rates of interest, paid or compounded half-yearly.

DEBENTURES issued in Currency or Sterling, with interest coupons attached, payable in Canada or in England. Executors and Trustees are authorized by law to invest in the Debentures of this Company.

MONEY ADVANCED on Real Estate security at current rates and on favorable conditions as to repayment.

Mortgages and Municipal Debentures purchased.

GEO. A. COX,
Managing Director.

d3w63

JOHN NUGENT,

CHEMIST AND DRUGGIST.

Prescriptions Carefully Compounded.

Try Nugent's Remedies for Colds, Coughs and affections of the chest and throat.

J. NUGENT,

Drug Store, 170 Hunter-st. west.

BLANK FORMS

Deeds,
Mortgages,
Home Leases,
Farm Leases,
Agreements,
Short form of Lease
Lease of Land,
Magistrates Blanks,
Division Court Blanks,
etc., etc.,

Printed on good paper and correct forms.

AT THE

REVIEW STATIONERY.

Medical.

DR. SCOTT.

OFFICE—176 Brock-st. d158w26

F. D. GOLDSMITH, M. D.

L. R. C. S., L. S. A., L. R. C. P., London, Eng.,

HAS permanently located in Peterborough. Office and residence, 163 Brock-st., formerly occupied by Mr. J. R. McWilliams. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d47-w25-1y

D. N. CARMICHAEL, M. D.,

C. M., I. R. C. P. Ed.

GRADUATE OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY, Fellow of Trinity Medical School, Licentiate of Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh, L. M. of Simpson's Maternity Hospital, Edinburgh. Office in Mr. Alexander's new residence one door north of the late Dr. O'Sullivan's, George-st. d1w48-wy106

DR. B. E. McKENZIE, B. A.

Lecturer on Orthopedic Surgery in the Women's Medical College, and in Toronto University; Consulting Orthopedic surgeon to Victoria Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto.

Diseases of the Joints and Deformities Only

Bloor-st. W. (near Yonge-st.) Toronto, Consultation from 10 to 3. On Friday and Saturday by appointment only.

DR. HOMER,

HAS removed to 213 Hunter-st., opposite Marble Works. Office upstairs.

Legal.

HATTON & WOOD.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office, corner of George and Hunter-sts., over T. Dolan & Co's. store. MONEY TO LOAN.

E. B. WOOD, B. A., G. W. HATTON.

SAWERS & STONE.

BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyances, &c. Office, Hunter-st., Peterborough.

☞ MONEY TO LOAN.

E. B. STONE, d16-w8 C. W. SAWERS.

POUSSETTE & JOHNSTON,

BARRISTERS and SOLICITORS, 373 Water-st.

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C. W. F. JOHNSTON.

EDWARD A. PECK,

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, etc., 352 George-st., Peterborough.

Private Funds to loan at 6 per cent.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter-st., Peterborough next English church. Money to loan at lowest rates of interest.

E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN O'MEARA.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, &c. Office 357 George-st. d-w

JOHN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office: No. 415 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont., next door north of new post office. MONEY TO LOAN. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter-sts., over McClelland's Jewellery store. d115w13

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water-st., Peterborough. d37w

DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES. Money to Loan. Office, 417 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont.

ARTHUR STEVENSON, B. A.
R. M. DENNISTOUN, M. A.

STRATTON & HALL.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, &c., Peterborough, Ont. Office:—Next door to Post Office on Hunter-st.

W. A. STRATTON, LL. B. E. B. HALL. d125

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block, Peterborough. wd49

J. E. BELCHER

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George-st. d60w8

Builders and Contractors

B. WEBB,

BRICKLAYER AND CONTRACTOR. All work done substantially and expeditiously. Address B. WEBB, Peterborough. Residence, 286 Aylmer-st. 1yd138

J. J. HARTLEY.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P. O. Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer-sts. 1yd160

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north. P. O. address, Box 32. d160

W. E. WHITEHAIR.

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 368, Peterborough P.O. d68-1yr

JAS. R. DONELL.

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being a practical man, he trusts to be able to give patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.

JAS. R. DONELL.

Cures in 1 TO 5 DAYS. Guaranteed not to cause Stricture. Mf'd only by The Evans Chemical Co. TORONTO, CAN.

Big G is acknowledged the leading remedy for Gonorrhœa & Gleet. The only safe remedy for Leucorrhœa or Whites. I prescribe it and feel safe in recommending it to all sufferers. A. J. STONER, M. D., DECATUR, ILL. Sold by Druggists. PRICE $1.00.

G. A. SCHOFIELD, Agt., Peterborough d 30-ly

DIARIES!

POCKET and OFFICE

Diaries for 1891!

Twenty Sizes

to select from in

CLOTH and LEATHER BINDINGS

—AT THE—

REVIEW Stationery

If YOU WISH to Advertise Anything Anywhere AT Any time

WRITE TO

GEO. P. ROWELL & CO.

No. 10 Spruce Street,

NEW YORK.

SOCIETY, COMMERCIAL AND BOOK PRINTING!

First-Class Work at Low Prices.

Review Office

350 GEORGE ST.

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE.

February 1st, 1891.

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
8 00 a m 6 00 p m	Montreal and East, via O. & Q. R.	11 00 a m 6 00 p m
11 20 a m 11 30 p m	Toronto and West, via O. & Q. R.	5 15 p m 6 00 p m
	Grand Trunk, East & West do East	1 35 p m 6 30 p m
12 00 a m 6 00 p m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west.	8 00 a m 4 30 p m
8 20 a m 6 15 p m	Millbrook and Port Hope. do do	11 15 a m 5 30 p m
8 25 a m 4 00 p m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings. Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	1 00 p m 11 15 a m
10 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clydale, Paudash and Cheddar, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 30 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays
	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes do do do	7 00 a m 4 00 p m
	British Mails per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	9 00 p m
	Via New York, Mondays.
12 noon	Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	4 30 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire, Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Australia, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbadoes, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings Bank, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxemburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey. And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before. Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guiana, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Port Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books, &c., 4c for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Payment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents.

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents. H. C. ROGERS, Post Master

---

MUNN & CO. SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN AGENCY for PATENTS

A pamphlet of information and abstract of the laws, showing How to Obtain Patents, Caveats, Trade Marks, Copyrights, sent free. Address MUNN & CO. 361 Broadway, New York.

WEDDING CARDS.

LATEST STYLES AT THE

Review Stationery Store.

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XXV.—No. 39. PETERBOROUGH, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1891. TEN CENTS A WEEK

Probabilities. Fresh to strong winds, mostly south westerly; fair to cloudy weather, with light local rains.

SWISS Needle Work EMBROIDERY.

We take pleasure in annoucing that we have just received Ex. SS. Sardinian) direct from the manufactory in St. Gall, Switzerland, our new Spring collection of Needle Work Embroidery for the season of 1891. We placed unusual large orders for these goods when the stitch prices were at the lowest point. The value is exceptionally good. The designs were selected with the greatest care and we think will merit your approval. Special discount allowed to customers purchasing in quantities of a dozen yards and upwards.

ROBERT FAIR,

Sign of the Golden Lion,
383 George Street, Peterborough.
Ontario (144 and Bell Telephone (145)

KID GLOVES!
KID GLOVES!

W. W. JOHNSTON
has just received a complete assortment of
Black and Colored
Kid Gloves
at 85c. per pair.
The Best in the Market at the Price.

SPECIAL VALUE IN
Bed Room Towels and Kitchen Towelling.
Call and see our
ART MUSLIN
at 15c. per yard.
CRYSTAL BLOCK
410 George-st.

Musical.

ORGAN, PIANOFORTE and SINGING
DR. DAVIES,

Organist of St. John's church, late of Christ Church Cathedral and of St. James's Cathedral, Toronto, receives pupils at his residence, 45 McDonnel-st. At home each day from 9 till 10 a. m. and from 2 till 3 p. m. to make engagements, etc. d45-1m

Wood and Coal.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Seasoned Hard Coal of all sizes also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.
W. B. FERGUSON,
Telephone Connection. Agent

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of COAL AND WOOD, which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
d&w JAMES STEVENSON

PETERBOROUGH WATER CO.
OFFICE - - 23 HUNTER-ST.
W. HENDERSON, Superintendent.
F. ADAMS, Collector,
All water rates and accounts must be paid at the office. Mr. Adams will be in the office from 2 to 5 p.m. every day

Awnings. Tents. AND Sails.

ALFRED KINGSCOTE has opened out in Dundee's Block, on Water-st., opposite the market, where he is prepared to do all kinds of Awning, Tent and Sail making. Good Work and Low Prices. Remember the place d89-1yr A. KINGSCOTE, No. 344 Water-st.

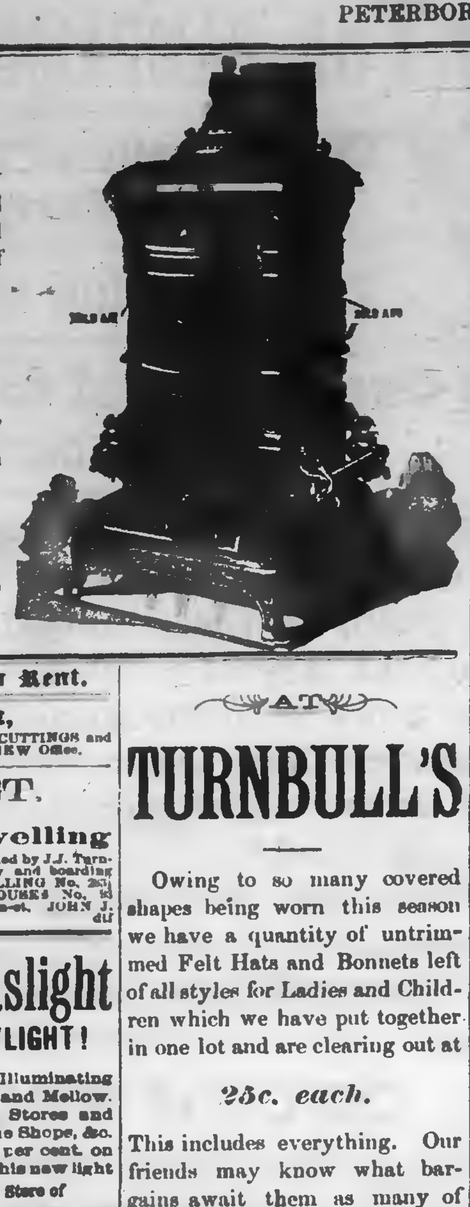
EDWIN ELCOME,
TAXIDERMIST
and Dealer in Eyes, Artificial Leaves and Frostings.
BIRDS, ANIMALS, FISH and SNAKES stuffed and Mounted in and out of cases in the best lifelike style at lowest prices. DEER'S HEADS a specialty. A stock of foreign and native birds always on hand for sale. Residence, No. 176 Harvey-st., Peterborough.
414-wd-1y



STOVES.

We have a few New and Second Hand Coal Heaters left and are running them off cheap.

LAMPS.

Beautiful designs' all styles, reduced in price.

W. G. BAIN & CO.
George-st.

For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE,
A QUANTITY OF PAPER CUTTINGS and shavings. Apply at REVIEW Office.

TO LET.
Store and Dwelling
No. 281 George-st., now occupied by J.J. Turner. Good stand for grocery and boarding house. STORE and DWELLING No. 283 George-st. DWELLING HOUSES No. 33 Hunter-st., and 18 and 20 Queen-st. JOHN J. LUNDY. d1f

Carbon Gaslight
A RIVAL TO DAYLIGHT!

A new and Brilliant Illuminating Power—Clear, Steady and Mellow. Specially suited for Stores and large Buildings, Machine Shops, &c. A saving of 30 to 40 per cent. on gas can be effected by this new light
See it Burning at the Store of
J. E. NOBLE & Co.
287 George-st, South.
TELEPHONES.—Bell No. 181, Ontario No. 156.

MULHOLLAND & ROPER
BANKERS AND INSURANCE AGENTS!

Banking Department.

Deposit Accounts opened and Notes discounted at short dates or for twelve months if required. Special attention given to the purchase and collection of Farmers' Sale Notes. Drafts drawn on Merchants' Bank of Canada payable in New York, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and at any of its Branches in the Dominion. Cheques on other Banks cashed.

Four to Five per cent. allowed on deposits repayable on demand.

BANKING HOURS.—9 30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m

Insurance Department.

MR. FELIX BROWNSCOMBE is a partner in and manager of this department.

Careful attention given to Fire, Accident and Plate Glass Insurance.

The following companies are represented:—London and Lancashire, City of London, Phœnix of Brooklyn, Caledonian, Royal Canadian, Agricultural, Montreal Plate Glass, Mutual Accident and Plate Glass, and Norwich and London Accident.

OFFICE HOURS.—9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Bell Telephone Co.,
OF CANADA.
Capital, - $1,500,000.00.

Head Office, MONTREAL.
AND. ROBERTSON, — President.
C. F. SISE, — Vice-Pres. and Man'g. Dir.
C. P. SCLATER, Secy.-Treas.
HUGH C. BAKER, Man., Ont. Dep., Hamilton.

300 EXCHANGES.
Long distance lines give unequalled facilities for talking between cities, towns and villages.
If you wish to speak to Kingston, Belleville Port Hope, Lindsay, Lakefield, Millbrook, Omemee, Toronto, Hamilton, etc., use the wires of the
BELL TELEPHONE Co,
H. W. KENT,
d46 6mo Local Manager

Bill Heads,
Note Heads,
Letter Heads,
TAGS, ENVELOPES,
COUNTER HEADS
and every description of Business Printing executed at city prices at the
Review Office,
340 George Street.

AT
TURNBULL'S

Owing to so many covered shapes being worn this season we have a quantity of untrimmed Felt Hats and Bonnets left of all styles for Ladies and Children which we have put together in one lot and are clearing out at

25c. each.

This includes everything. Our friends may know what bargains await them as many of them have been sold during the season at from $1.00 to $1.50. Remember you get the choice of this lot for 25c.

We are showing in one of our windows Spring Prints, which are but an indication of the quantities of handsome patterns we have inside.

Our Spring Flanneletts have arrived. The patterns are new and darker, what so many people want. They are very pretty. Quantities of new goods opened every day. We show a handsome range of new shades in Dress Goods suitable for Wedding Outfits.

Further particulars of what we will offer this Spring as special inducements next week.

J. C. TURNBULL
George & Simcoe-sts. Peterborough.

A. CLEGG,
Funeral Director.
Ware rooms, - - 427 George-st.
Residence, - 16 Benson-st.
A. CLEGG, Residence, 26 Stewart street. Telephone.

For You!

Reduction in prices of all Cloths. Suits and Overcoats to order for less money than ever to clear out the balance of winter stock.
Order now.
D. CAMERON & Co.
and Clothiers, 434 George-st.

LADIES' JERSEYS
In all the Leading Styles at Lowest Prices at
PORT HOPE KNITTING WORKS
382 George-st.

MONEY TO LOAN.
A LARGE amount of private funds has been placed in my hands for loaning on farm security.
J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM,
d6w2 Solicitor, 136 Hunter-st.

HALL, INNES & Co.
GREAT REDUCTIONS
IN PRICES OF MANTLES
AND
TRIMMED MILLINERY

After a most successful season's trade in this department we will offer during January, the balance of our stock of Jackets, Mantles, Mantle Materials and Ulsters, also all Trimmed and Untrimmed Millinery,
at Greatly Reduced Prices.
From all who have not already made their purchases in these lines, we respectfully solicit a call as we will make it to their advantage to do so.
Sweeping Reductions in
Dress Stuffs, Shawls, Wool Squares and every description of Winter Goods.
Hall, Innes & Co

The Daily Review.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1891.

A TORONTO MURDER.

A DISSOLUTE WOMAN KILLED BY HER PARAMOUR.

A Shocking Case of Brutality—$5000 Worth of Jewelry Seized by Customs' Officers—General Notes of Interest.

TORONTO, Feb. 16.—The customs authorities on Saturday morning seized from a man called Samuel Close about $5000 worth of jewelry on the charge that the goods had been smuggled into Canada. Close had been trying at various brokers to raise money on the goods and had not succeeded.

No. 11 Ontario-street, known to the police as an unsavory dive where the illicit sale of whisky and still more flagrant violations of the law have long been carried on, was the scene on Saturday of the death of Jane Harding, the circumstances surrounding which point to the commission of a brutal murder.

About 11 o'clock on Saturday night word was sent to Wilton-avenue Station that Jane Harding had died at No. 11 Ontario-street under circumstances of grave suspicion. Policeman Ed. Brown and Detective Watson were detailed to investigate, and as a result of their inquiries they placed Christopher McGrain under arrest on a charge of murder and notified Coroner Pickering.

Dr. Pickering reached the scene of the alleged crime at 1 o'clock on Sunday morning and, after hearing the statements of several inmates of the house and examining the body of the dead woman, ordered an inquest to be commenced at the City Morgue at 8 o'clock this evening, where the body is now lying.

Coroner Pickering, on examining the body, found marks of finger nails on the throat and left wrist, fully bearing out the statement of one of the inmates of the house, a girl named Annie Wilson, who will be the most important witness against McGrain. Her story, as told to the coroner and the police, is as follows:

On Saturday morning she was down stairs when she heard screams of "murder" proceeding from the room in the upper flat occupied by McGrain and the woman Harding. Running up the stairs she burst the door of the room open and found McGrain with his right hand choking Jane Harding to death, at the same time gripping her left wrist with his left hand. She shouted to him to stop and told him if he did not she would call the police. McGrain thereupon dropped his victim, who, black in the face, fell in a heap on the floor. She revived sufficiently to allow herself to be led downstairs. While in the act of descending McGrain rushed out of the bedroom with a piece of chamberware and threw it down on her head.

The Wilson girl took Mrs. Harding into the sitting-room and she lay down on a sofa, from which she never rose alive. She complained all day of her throat, and towards evening Annie Wilson, becoming alarmed, wanted to have a doctor called in and the woman's married daughter sent for. McGrain would not consent, telling her to mind her own business and that "the old woman was all right."

At 10 o'clock Jane Harding died, and it was not until then that a medical man was summoned. Dr. Ghent answered the call, but finding the woman dead went away. Then the police were notified and McGrain arrested.

A CHICAGO RIOT.

Unsuccessful Attempts to Employ Non-Union Labor at the World's Fair.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—An attempt was made yesterday to put a gang of Italians at work in a secluded portion of Jackson Park, which is now being graded in preparation for the World's Fair, but the pickets of the idle crowd discovered the ruse, and armed with sticks and stones made a dash upon them, the Italians fleeing in all directions. The discovery was also made that the carpenters at work on the temporary structures were receiving less than union wages, whereupon a delegation of union carpenters waited on them and gave them 15 minutes to quit work. Some obeyed and those who did not were pitched off the scaffolds. So not a stroke of work in behalf of the World's Fair is being done to-day. Some of the Italians were caught later and forced to run the gauntlet between two long rows of idlers, who pounded them with sticks as they ran Whisky and Open Lights.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 14.—The coroner's jury in the Mammoth Mine explosion have returned a verdict finding the company had not been guilty of neglect. They protested against the employment of fire bosses who were addicted to drink and also to the use of open lights, and suggested that a register be kept at the pit's mouth with the names of those employed.

Split His Tongue in Sections.

WOODSTOCK, Feb. 12.—While sawing wood in James Wilkie's woods with others a small sapling was held down by another small tree which had fallen across it and when it was cut the smaller one sprang back and struck Mr. Darling in the mouth, cutting his tongue through the centre.

To Form a New County.

BEAVERTON, Feb. 15.—Rumors are current that this town is about to become the county town of a county to be formed of the following townships: Brock, Scott, Georgina, N. Gwillimbury, Thorah, Mara, Rama, Carden Dalton and Eldon.

DAVITT AS A PROPHET.

HE SAYS NO PARNELLITES WILL AGAIN BE ELECTED

London's Scandal Ventilated in the House of Commons—The Zetland Relief Fund—Several Sailors Suffocated in Their Bunks.

DUBLIN, Feb. 15.—Michael Davitt addressed a meeting at Mountrath, Queen's county, to-day. Speaking on a resolution expressing confidence in Mr. Gladstone, Mr. Davitt denounced the land purchase bill, declaring that only an Irish parliament could adequately deal with the question. Neither Mr. Parnell or any of his followers, he said, would be returned at the general election, and the longer the controversy lasted the more determined the Irish people would become in their opposition to Mr. Parnell. Mr. Parnell's followers, he added, would regret the day they took Mr. Parnell's advice. The mention of Mr. Parnell's name was received with cheers, which caused so much disorder that the police had to intervene, and the meeting dispersed in confusion.

COLONIAL QUESTIONS.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—The colonial question this week overshadows everyother in England. Premier Rhodes is in London from South Africa demanding a South African federation, and virtually a license also for the British colonists there to do as they like with the Portuguese. Newfoundland threatens secession from the empire, and Canada occasions the most lively anxiety on account of the reported movement in favor of commercial union with the United States, which is here interpreted as meaning political union in the not-distant future. Australia is comparatively calm, waiting for the handsome fleet which is to make that island-continent mistress of the southern seas. Australia sends complaints that too much indulgence is shown to France and Germany in that neighborhood, and that those powers must be warned away from further encroachments. Under the circumstances it is not strange that the British Government has awakened to the necessity of doing something, and that the route to Asia and Australia by way of Vancover and the Canadian Pacific is being energetically pushed. In addition to this, leading British Conservatives and prominent colonists have been during the week in consultation as to some fiscal arrangement for improving the relations between Great Britain and the "greater Britains," but no satisfactory land has yet been evolved. While England offers free trade to all the world, she has nothing to offer to the colonies in the way of compensation for special exemptions to British trade. On the other hand, Lord Salisbury hesitates to propose an economic revolution which the adoption of a protective tariff, with exemption for the colonies, would mean. Lord Dunraven and others, however, see no other way out of the problem.

Cecil Rhodes

LONDON, Feb. 15.—London society just now is greatly interested in the visit of Cecil Rhodes. He is a self-made man of great simplicity of character. He possesses more than £2,000,000, which he devotes to the development of South Africa. The Duke of Fife entertained him at a dinner, which led to a remarkable gathering of public men. It is not often that one sees such notable persons as Lord Salisbury, Lord Knutsford, Mr. Chamberlain, Mr. Gladstone, Sir William Harcourt, Lord Herschell and the Prince of Wales dining at the same table. The Prince of Wales talked for more than an hour with the hero during the evening. Mr. Rhodes was once an admirer of Parnell. He contributed £10,000 to his campaign, but has now refused him any further help.

The Shipping Federation Ultimatum.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—The shipping federation has issued an ultimatum which declares the dictation of the unions is unbearable and that the federation will refuse to employ any man unless he pledges himself to embark on any vessel with which he signs articles whether the remainder of the crew be unionists or not. The federation disavows any intention to interfere with the unions or to reduce wages.

Osman Digna is Still Alive.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—A despatch from Cairo states that Osman Digna is said to be near Tokar, and that his followers are deserting him.

In the House of Commons to-day Sir James Fergusson said that the occupation of Tokar and Handoub was designed to relieve the district of Suakin from plundering dervishes, besides reopening the grain trade of the interior. No expense, Sir James added, would fall upon the English treasury.

A despatch from Mamowah states that Osman Digna is threatening that point, and that he is urging the tribes which have been allied to Italy to desert the flag of that country.

Two Sailors Suffocated.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—A fire early this morning on the British steamer Calliope lying at Newport from Bilboa caused considerable damage to the vessel. Two of the steamer's crew who had been ashore in the early part of last night carousing were found after the fire was extinguished dead in their bunks, having been suffocated by the dense smoke.

The Clergy and the Irish Quarrel.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—The McCarthy faction of the Irish Party, disheartened by their Boulogne experience, are appealing to the clergy to come to the rescue, and Archbishop Walsh has been requested to head the movement of anti-Parnellite organization. The Archbishop has, it is stated, consented to give the indorsement of his presence to an anti-Parnellite meeting in Dublin this month. Mr. Parnell substantially demands an independent Ireland and until that is granted he will continue to fight. The McCarthyites are in very straitened circumstances, although this aspect of the quarrel receives but little public attention. It is said that several of them are dependent upon the charity of their colleagues.

A Baby, a Bottle, a Coffin.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 15.—The 3-year-old child of Mr. Simpson, an employe of Galt Bros., got hold of a bottle of whisky and drank so much that he died.

The Canadian Defeated.

CHRISTIANIA, Feb. 15.—Hagen, the champion Norwegian skater, defeated Cormick, the Canadian champion, to-day in the contest for the skating championship of the world. The course measured about 4 3-5 miles and was covered by Hagen in 15 min. 36 2-5 secs. Cormick's time was 16 min. 37 3-5 secs.

The Victims Number 23

QUEBEC, Feb. 15.—The little girl, Emelie Boulé, who was so seriously injured in the late disaster, and who begged the rescuers to [illegible] the Marine [illegible] agony for [illegible]

POISONED BY STRYCHNINE.

Death of a Little Child Due to Its Parents' Negligence.

BROCKVILLE, Feb. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Quinn of Bedford had occasion to go to Westport to transact business, leaving their premises in charge of a young man. Quinn left on the table a bottle containing strychnine, which he kept in the house for poisoning foxes. Their little boy, 3 years old, noticing the bottle on the table and thinking it contained sugar, took out some of the deadly drug and spread it on a piece of bread, which he ate. In about an hour the child was a corpse.

THE LAST SPIKE DRIVEN.

Washington and British Columbia Joined By Rail.

VICTORIA, B.C., Feb. 15.—The last spike in the track which unites the State of Washington and British Columbia was driven at 11 o'clock yesterday in the presence of about 3000 persons from both sides of the line. The Fairhaven & Southern roads form the American line and New Westminster Southern the British Columbia. The trains arrived at the boundary line on which the new city of Blaine, Washington, and Blaine, B.C., is situated. The rails were placed in position and Governor Laughlin of Washington, Governor Nelson of British Columbia; President Hendry of New Westminster Southern; President C. X. Larrabee of the Fairhaven & Southern drove the spikes and then Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Laughlin with small silver hammers drove them home.

Governor Laughlin expressed the wish that no blow might ever be struck between the two countries, except in friendship, and three hearty cheers went up from the crowd. Governor Laughlin described the line as dividing the state and province as only imaginary and expressed friendship and good will for the people of British Columbia.

The following telegram was received from James Blaine, Secretary of State, the city being named in his honor:

To the Mayor and Citizens of Blaine.

It is with most kindly feeling that my thoughts turn towards you and your British brothers to-day while able to perform the ceremonies of connecting your wonderful countries in commercial union, and it is my most earnest wish and hope that the bonds from to-day by you may be not only of commercial union but of grander and nobler brotherly love that will unite in the end as two nations in one perfect union, and both your port of entry, which your Congressmen inform me will be established, you will be placed in a position to open a grand gateway of two mighty nations. May success attend your undertaking and good-will and peace be with you all.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

London's Scandal, the Zetland-Balfour Fund and Free Trade.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—In the House of Commons Mr. Henry Matthews, Secretary of State for the Home Department, replying to questions as to the legality of the baccarat games played at Mr. Arthur Wilson's house, Tranby Croft, at the time of the Doncaster race meeting last autumn, and where the scandal which disgraced Sir William Gordon-Cumming occurred, said that he had been informed that the playing referred to was not a contravention of the laws against gambling.

Mr. Timothy M. Healy renewed his question of Chief Secretary Balfour in regard to the Zetland-Balfour Fund. Mr. Healy asked the Chief Secretary if the fund referred to was an effort of private benevolence, and why, if such was the case, it was administered by magistrates and police and Poor Law officials.

Mr. Balfour replied that the Earl of Zetland and himself did not consider themselves precluded from using officials to distribute the fund. If others, he said, volunteered to assist in the work they would be employed.

"Can other benevolent agencies secure the same assistance?" asked Mr. Healy.

To this Mr. Balfour replied: "If the honorable member for North Longford will confide any plan to me I shall be happy to consider it."

At a meeting of Conservative members of Parliament and influential representatives of the British colonies to-day, called to consider the trading relations existing between the colonies and the Mother Land, a committee was appointed for the purpose of organizing a free trade association.

GENERAL SHERMAN DEAD.

The Hero of "The March to the Sea" "Died Like a Babe Falling Asleep."

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Gen. Sherman died at 1.50 p.m. He passed away without speaking to any of the members of his family, who were gathered about the bed. There was just a slight quiver of the muscles of the face, the old soldier ceased to breathe, and all was over. Secretary Barrett reached the telegraph office about 3 o'clock and sent messages announcing the General's death to President Harrison, Secretary of State Blaine, Secretary of War Proctor, Mrs. Rusk and many others. He could not restrain his tears. "He died like a babe falling asleep," he said, "there was no suffering, no pain." The funeral services will take place Thursday next from his late residence. Thursday evening the body will be taken to St. Louis in a special train of three cars in charge of Gen. Schofield.

William Tecumseh Sherman was born at Lancaster, Ohio, Feb. 8, 1820. He served in the Florida war in 1840-42, afterwards practising law in Leavenworth, Kansas. He was reappointed in the U.S. army with the rank of colonel in 1861 and commanded a brigade in the first battle of Bull Run. He was wounded at Shiloh. In February, 1864, with 20,000 men he marched to Meridian, Miss., and broke up the railroad centreing there. He was also engaged at many of the leading battles of the civil war.

Lost His Leg.

PICKERING, Feb. 14.—While Richard Woodworth, aged 19, was felling trees on a farm near here on Friday, he met with a serious accident. He had chopped around several trees when one of them fell upon him, crushing one leg through four inches of ice and grinding the bones to powder. The leg was amputated above the knee and young Woodworth will likely recover.

A Strike Averted.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—The officials of the Donaldson line of Glasgow steamers having conceded the demands of their seamen and firemen for higher wages the threatened strike has been averted and their vessels will sail as usual.

Peterboro's New Bishop.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—Canon Mandell Creighton, professor of ecclesiastical history in Emmanuel College, Cambridge University, since 1884, has been appointed Bishop of Peterborough.

English Iron Works Shut Down.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—The West Cumberland Iron Works have been compelled to shut down, owing to lack of orders for steel rails. About 1400 men are thus thrown out of work. Other iron works are reducing the number of men in their employ.

HE IS JACK-THE-RIPPER

AT LEAST THE LONDON POLICE CLAIM SO.

The Murderer of Carrotty Nell Believed to Be the Fiend Who Has Slaughtered Half a Score of Fallen Women in London—Sensational Developments Looked For LONDON, Feb. 15.—The police seem confident that they have at last nabbed the notorious Jack the Ripper, but the general public is skeptical as to the fact of the sailorman with bloody clothing being the hero of the dozen murders which have preceded that of Frances Coleman, or "Carroty Nell." It is quite likely that he committed the last crime, but there is nothing to connect him with the long series of similar atrocities which have terrorized the Whitechapel district. The police authorities are being censured for having relaxed the vigilance with which until recently the district haunted by the "Ripper" was guarded. The last crime is attributed to this negligence, just as the long immunity from these horrors since the last previous butchery is attributed to the extreme activity of the officials. It seems like pretty good evidence of the correctness of this theory that it was only a fortnight ago that the precaution of wearing rubber boots was given up by the patrolmen of the district. The noiselessness with which the constables went their rounds made such murders as that of "Carroty Nell" impossible, or too risky to be attempted by even the daring "Jack." But the sound of an officer's approaching steps, audible a long distance at night, served as a guide to the whereabouts of the minion of the law, and made crime comparatively easy.

Undoubtedly the Man.

The saddler who was arrested yesterday on suspicion was conveyed heavily guarded to the Arbour-square prison to-day. He was lately a fireman on board the steamer Fez, from Turkey. A formidable looking knife has been traced to his possession. He will be formally charged with the murder to-morrow. Startling revelations are expected.

When taken into custody blood was found on the prisoner's clothes. He has been absent from England for 18 months, or about the period which has elapsed since the last Whitechapel murder. A woman detailed as a witness asserts she saw the prisoner quarreling with the murdered woman early in the evening before the crime was committed. A policeman who was on duty on the streets in the vicinity of the crime has identified the prisoner as a man he met about a quarter of an hour after the murder. The policeman, noticing that the man had blood on his clothes, stopped him and asked several questions regarding the blood stains. The man replied that he had been assaulted while passing through a street in the neighborhood of the docks. The policeman not being aware that a murder had been committed was satisfied the man was telling the truth and so allowed him to pass. The prisoner's face is badly scratched, as if by a woman's finger nails. When questioned the man said he was scratched when he was assaulted near the docks. The prisoner stoutly denies having at any time met the murdered woman.

Experts who have studied the former crimes of "Jack the Ripper" say there is no doubt that this latest murder must be added to the list of that wretch's enormities. Like the others, this woman belonged to the "unfortunate class," and like them, she was not of the vilest grade in that class.

The Location of the Crime.

Another similarity is in the location of the crime, which was committed in a place comparatively public, and yet screened from immediate observation. The unfortunate women of Whitechapel, who had got over the terror created by the murders of some time ago, are again fear-stricken, and gather in groups to discuss the latest tragedy and wonder who will be the next victim. The location of the tragedy is near the city boundary in the vicinity of the docks, and viler in some respects than the scenes of the "Ripper's" former crimes. For this reason, had not the officer actually stumbled over the body, the "Ripper" might have returned to his horrible work after the policeman had passed, and the officer's statement indicates that the murderer was waiting in the darkness with this object when frightened into retreat by the officer's detection of the body.

Constable Thompson is the most unhappy man in London to-night, as he feels that he had the most noted criminal of the age almost within his grasp. The inquest will be held to-morrow. Meantime the police are scouring the city for suspicious characters and Sir Edward Bradford has spent all day in his office directing the operations.

The Previous Murders.

The following is a list of "Jack the Ripper's" previous murders:—

1. April 3, 1888.—Emma Elizabeth Smith, 45, had a stake or iron instrument thrust through her body near Osborn-street, Whitechapel.
2. Aug. 7, 1888.—Martha Tabram, 35, stabbed in 39 places, George Yard Building, Commercial-street, Spitalfields.
3. Aug. 31, 1888.—Mary Ann Nicholls, 47, throat cut and body mutilated, in Buck's-row, Whitechapel.
4. Sept. 8, 1888.—Annie Chapman, 47, throat cut and body mutilated, Hanbury-street, Spitalfields.
5. Sept. 30, 1888.—Elizabeth Stride, throat cut, Berner street, Whitechapel.
6. Sept. 30, 1888.—Catherine Eddowes, 43, throat cut and body mutilated, Mitre-square, Aldgate.
7. Nov. 9, 1888.—Mary Jane Kelly, throat cut and body mutilated, in Miller's Court, Dorset-street.
8. July 17, 1889.—Woman, supposed to be Alice McKenzie, from Peterborough, throat cut and body mutilated, in Castle-alley, Whitechapel.
9. Sept. 10, 1889.—Elizabeth Stride, found under a railway arch in Pinchin-street, Back Church-lane, Whitechapel.

"Fifteen before I surrender," was what the individual known as "Jack the Ripper" chalked on a shutter near the spot of one of his murders.

In addition to the above-mentioned crimes other murders of women have taken place, the perpetrators of which have not been brought to justice. Among them are: (1) Oct. 3, 1888, mutilated remains of woman found in New Police Buildings, at the Westminster end of the Victoria Embankment—unidentified; (2) Dec. 21, 1888, woman found strangled in Clarke's yard, High-street, Poplar, afterwards recognized as Maud Millett; 26 years of age; (3) June 4, 1889, and subsequent days, mutilated remains of a woman found in the Thames, afterwards identified as the body of Elizabeth Jackson, 24 years of age.

A Spice Manufacturer Fails.

MONTREAL, Feb. 15.—C. A. Laffiton, spice manufacturer, has assigned with liabilities of $31,000 and assets of $26,000. The largest creditor is the Bank of Halifax.

The Duke of Bedford's Singular Will.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—A report is published which states that, in addition to the destruction of his personal effects, the Duke of Bedford's will provides for the destruction of his carriages and the shooting of his horses.

Purify Your Blood

The importance of keeping the blood in a pure condition is universally known, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. The taint of scrofula, salt rheum, or other foul humor is heredited and transmitted for generations, causing untold suffering, and we also accumulate poison and germs of disease from the air we breathe, the food we eat, or the water we drink. There is nothing more conclusively proven than the positive power of Hood's Sarsaparilla over all diseases of the blood. This medicine, when fairly tried, does expel every trace of scrofula or salt rheum, removes the taint which causes catarrh, neutralizes the acidity and cures rheumatism, drives out the germs of malaria, blood poisoning, etc. It also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus overcoming that tired feeling, and building up the whole system. Thousands testify to the superiority of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier. Full information and statements of cures sent free.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

The Daily Review.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1891

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

SUGAR BEET INDUSTRY.

A MEETING OF FARMERS IN THE MARKET BUILDING.

The Town Council After the Industry—Mr. Lander Speaks of What Has Been Done and What Can be Done—The Proposed Factory—Profitable for the Farmer.

It is to be regretted that the meeting held in the market building on Saturday afternoon for the discussion of the sugar beet industry was not more largely attended, but with two political conventions being held at the same time in town, it was hardly to be expected that the farmers would be attracted to the market building, notwithstanding the importance of the industry. Politics take the precedence over everything else just at present. The meeting was arranged by the special committee of the Town Council, to whom the matter of watching this industry has been left.

Mayor Stevenson, with a few fitting remarks, opened the meeting. He referred to the sugar beet industry, and stated that it was thought that Peterborough would be as good a site for the location of a factory as any place in Canada. They had, therefore, induced Mr. Lander, of Toronto, to explain the enterprise to them. He then introduced Mr. Lander.

THE PROPOSED INDUSTRY.

Mr. Lander gave an address, the substance of which was published at the time the Cobourg meeting was held. He opened by giving a short sketch of the beet root sugar industry, showing the increase in its manufacture by figures. He said in 1838 there were only 200,000 tons of the beet sugar manufactured, but last year the total manufacture amounted to 3,500,000 tons. Then he passed on to give those present an idea of what was being done in other countries—Germany, France, Italy, Denmark, Spain and the United States—in the industry, giving figures to show the steadily increasing amount. He also read a number of quotations from different papers, which went to show that in all these countries the beet sugar factories were being extended and the manufacture increased, with profit to the farmer and the factory. He refuted objections which were made to the establishment of factories here, and said the cause of the failure of those factories established in the lower provinces was a failure on the part of the farmers to grow the quantity of beets they had promised to. He pointed out that the larger the factory the more money there would be in the industry, and it was therefore necessary that they should establish a factory with a large capacity and have the necessary supply of beets guaranteed before the manufacture would be undertaken. He pointed out that now they would of fifty years experience in other countries, that the soil was richer than in other countries, giving a better average yield in consequence, and that our water facilities were ahead of any others. The water supply was important, as they needed one million gallons per day. Coal was also cheaper here and this would be an advantage, as they would use about 5,000 tons during the five months they would be in operation. As to the cultivation and price the company proposed to pay he said a year ago he had sent out 25 samples of beet seed to farmers and had the crops analysis. The result was so encouraging that last year he had sent out 200 samples to farmers, distributing the seed as far east as Napanee and as far west as Windsor. He had collected 111 samples of these crops and had them analyzed at Ottawa and Guelph. The season had been unfavorable to the production of a good quality, yet the average per cent. was equal to that of Germany or France. This was so encouraging that they had decided to establish a beet sugar factory. The average yield of those samples had been 20 tons to the acre, although some had got 34 and one extraordinary case, Mr. Hinch, of Napanee, had raised 55 tons from a plot 30 feet square, an average of 72 tons to the acre. He gave an instance where a farmer had kept account of all the expenses of cultivating and delivering at the factory of an acre of beets and by this it was found that after paying $65 for expenses, with a yield of 25 tons from the acre, at $4 a ton, of $35. This gentleman was willing to grow 10 to 20 acres of beets if a factory was started, for he said it paid him better than any grain crop. Prof. Shaw, of the experimental farm, had also tried beet growing and the results were so satisfactory that he had said he would put his whole farm into beets if a factory was started near Guelph. Not only was it profitable but it improved the land. The company would pay in accordance with the sugar quality of the roots. In Ontario 14 per cent of saccharine would be the standard and for these they would $4.25 a ton at the factory or $4 at the station within fifty miles of the factory. There would be an additional 5 cents paid for every per cent over the standard. The testing of the beets would be satisfactory, as the farmers would appoint one tester and the company the other, so that one would be a check to the other. He pointed the opening there was for a factory here by stating that 2,000,000 tons of sugar was annually imported, one-fifth of our sugar being made in Germany. In answer to a question Mr. Lauder said a large lime kiln was used in the process manufacture for the purpose of purifying the syrup, and the scum which was left with the lime in this kiln was given to the patrons of the factory free. The pulp of the beet was sold for one dollar a ton and made as good feed for cattle as the ordinary mangold or turnip.

HAVE THE ADVANTAGE

HE HAD A PROFIT

SOME RESOLUTIONS.

It was moved by Mr. JOHN STOTHART, seconded by Mr. M. DAVIS,—"That the farmers of the County of Peterborough desire to strongly recommend to the consideration of the promoters of the proposed beet sugar manufactory the advantages to be derived from the location of said industry in the Town of Peterborough, which is the centry of a farming country well adapted for the cultivation of the sugar beet, and which possesses unrivalled shipping facilities and water privileges."

The resolution was carried.

Mr. C. D. MOORE moved, seconded by Mr. ALEX. FITZGERALD,—"That this meeting of farmers, of the County of Peterborough, convened for the purpose of considering the advantages of the farming community arising from the cultivation of the sugar beet and the manufacture of sugar therefrom, is strongly of opinion that every encouragement and assistance should be awarded the proposed industry and hereby memorialize the Ontario Government to grant such aid to the early construction of a factory as may seem reasonable and in the interests of the farmers of the Province.

This was also carried.

In moving the next resolution Mr. Dawson Kennedy strongly impressed upon the farmers the importance of securing the factory for this district.

Councillor DENNISTOUN, Chairman of the Special Committee, also addressed the meeting urging upon the farmers the importance of taking an active interest in the industry, as Peterborough was anxious to secure the factory and it would be a profitable industry for them. The company would not locate any place unless assured that the necessary quantity of beets would be raised by the farmers. There was no risk to be incurred by them, the risk of the failure of the factory falling on other shoulders.

Mr. DAWSON KENNEDY moved, seconded by Mr. J. W. FERGUSON,—That the farmers of the county of Peterborough in this meeting assembled desire to express the favorable impression they have received of the process of manufacturing beet sugar outlined by Mr. Lander, and the advantages that will accrue to the farming community therefrom, and should the proposed industry be established in this locality, to undertake the cultivation of a sufficient quantity of beets to supply the factory at the prices named.

The motion carried.

Moved by Mr. D. P. MCFARLANE, seconded by Mr. DAWSON KENNEDY:—That the farmers of the county of Peterborough [illegible] the Dominion Government to remit the customs duties on imported machinery to be used in the construction and equipment of a beet sugar factory, as they feel assured that the proposed industry will open a new and productive system of agriculture to the farmers of this province.

This also was carried.

Mr. Lander closed the meeting by impressing upon the farmer that the matter depended upon themselves, if they were willing and would promise to raise the necessary supply of roots. If this was done Peterborough's chances for securing the factory were as good as any other.

The meeting then dispersed.

The Population of Peterborough

is about 10,000, and we would say at least one-half are troubled with some affection of the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all our readers not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Trial size free. Large bottle 50c and $1. Sold by all druggists.

TO THE WORK. Conservative committee rooms open every night. All favorable to Mr. Stevenson's re-election cordially invited and urged to be present. Polling on March 5th.

The Weather Report.

Mr. Thos. Telford reports as follows:—Yesterday morning, Sunday, the self-registering thermometer stood 1 degree below zero during the night; this morning at sunrise it stood at 40 degrees above zero.

I Will Give You

The best bargains in groceries in Peterborough. My stock is new and goods are all first-class. Just received a nice line of Japan Tea I am selling at 25c per lb. Special discounts to hotels, boarding houses and parties purchasing goods in large quantities. Alex. Elliott, 363 George-st. Peterborough. d30

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Spring.

Nobody seems to know where spring is, but preparations for its advent are being made nevertheless. You need new, fresh, seasonable groceries? We sell them. That's our business. We sell good goods. We deliver them on time. We charge you no more that you pay elsewhere, in most cases less. Call and see us. We welcome the smallest customer. STAPLETON & ELCOMBE. d37

Sudden Death.

Mr. John Cox, of Lakefield, died very suddenly on Saturday evening. He had been in his usual health, and after tea laid down on the sofa, as was his custom, and soon after was seen to be ill, and expired almost immediately. Rheumatism of the heart is supposed to have been the cause.

The Coming Contest.

It is considered it will be of a very lively nature. Every man may have his friends in politics, but when it comes to Grit or Tory of course he must cast his vote for his party irrespective of social friendship. The same may be said in this case. Parties may have their friends, but when it comes to business and they wish to buy tea, Groceries, wines or liquors at sacrifice, W. J. Morrow's is the place they go to. d31w1

What it Costs

Must be carefully considered by the great majority of people in buying even necessities of life. Hood's Sarsaparilla commends itself with special force to the great middle classes, because it combines positive economy with great medicinal power. It is the only medicine of which can truly be said "100 Doses One Dollar," and a bottle taken according to directions will average to last a month.

MANY SERIOUS FIRES.

New Westminster, B.C., Visited by a $200,000 Blaze—A Falling Wall Fatally Injures One Man.

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C., Feb. 15.—At 3 o'clock this morning fire broke out in the wooden building, 715 Columbia-street, occupied by F. Stirsky, watchmaker and jeweler. All the buildings in the west half of the block containing eight stores were wooden and were in a short time levelled to the ground along with one residence and the main office of the local telephone exchange. The Masonic and Oddfellows' block, occupied by several merchants, the registry office and government offices on the second floor and lodge rooms on the third floor, was also gutted, together with its contents. Total loss will foot up from $175,000 to $200,000 and insurance about $80,000. About 11 o'clock part of the north wall of the Masonic block fell out and a hack driver named Fred McKinnon was caught by falling brick, both legs and one arm being broken. He will die.

$18,000 Fire at Kingston.

KINGSTON, Feb. 15.—This morning the sexton of the First Congregational Church discovered that the hall in the rear was on fire and that it had communicated to the roof from the furnace. The firemen were alarmed, but the roof of the hall and part of the church were destroyed. The interiors were damaged by water and smoke so that a complete removal will be required. The property is worth $30,000 and is insured for $15,000. The damage is about $18,000. Restoration will be immediately begun.

A Hospital in Rochester Falls a Victim to the Flames.

ROCHESTER, Feb. 15.—At 11.30 to-night a night watchman at St. Mary's R. C. Hospital discovered the eastern wing of the hospital to be on fire. A general alarm was sent in and firemen responded promptly. There were 250 patients, 19 nuns and a large number of employes in the building, but so far as is known all were taken out uninjured. The entire east wing of the building was burned. To-day is, the golden jubilee of Mother Hieronymo, who has just completed her 50th year as a professed nun and who founded the hospital. The occasion was to have been celebrated with much ceremony to-morrow.

Fire in the New York Postoffice—Two Newsboys Badly Burned.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—At 10.30 o'clock last night, while the clerks in the Mail-street side of the postoffice were receiving and distributing mails from the steamer Celtic, the electric lights were suddenly extinguished. A moment afterwards smoke puffed up from below and that end of the building rapidly filled with dense smoke. The engine and dynamo rooms adjoined each other, in them the fire was burning. It is thought the electric wires became crossed and set fire to the wood-work. After an hour's hard work the fire was extinguished. The damage done is estimated at $10,000, but Superintendent Hall of the newspaper department says not a letter was burned and none of the 1800 bags of foreign mail newspapers were injured except by water.

Two newsboys named Guiseppe Michaeli and John Gerusson were taken out from the elevators badly burned. The former has since died.

A Blaze in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 15.—Fire supposed to have been caused by the grounding of an electric light wire last night gutted the large building here occupied by Thompson & Cox, dealers in carpets. Loss $175,000.

Fierce Flames in Yokohama.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 15.—Advices from Yokohama say that on the night of Jan. 19 fire in the House of Representatives and the House of Peers destroyed those buildings. It was rumored that the fire was incendiary, but others said it was started by an electric light wire. The cost of the two buildings was $2,370,000. Three firemen were badly injured.

Queen of the Hawaiian Islands.

HONOLULU, Hawaii, via steamer to San Francisco, Feb. 15.—Workmen were busily engaged in preparation for welcoming King Kalakaua, who was expected to return from the United States improved in health when the United States steamer Charleston was sighted early Thursday morning Jan. 29. Decorations and arches of welcome have been torn down or turned into emblems of mourning. The Charleston, bearing the body of King Kalakaua, arrived in Honolulu harbor on Thursday, Jan. 29, seven days from San Francisco. Crowds of natives and foreigners gathered at the landing to obtain the first news.

The native women, as the Charleston came to anchor, set up a loud wailing. At 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon, amid the booming of minute guns from the warships in port and the batteries on shore, the king's body was landed and received by a guard of honor composed of sailors from the Charleston, Mohican and Nymph, headed by the Charleston band playing a funeral dirge. A procession was formed and moved to the palace. The streets were packed with people and the air was filled with wailing and lamentations as the cortege entered the palace.

The coffin was placed on the bier in the middle of the throne-room. On it were placed the King's crown of state, his sword and royal feather cloak. That evening the Cabinet met and issued a proclamation proclaiming the Princess Liliuokalani Queen of the Hawaiian Islands with the title of Liliuokalani.

Sons of England Convention.

HAMILTON, Feb. 15.—The supreme grand lodge of the Sons of England closed its session yesterday after sitting all night. The work towards the latter portion of the meeting consisted in discussing reports in committee of the whole. The new officers were installed at 2 o'clock this morning by J. W. Kempling, P.S.G.P., and congratulatory speeches were made by Bros. Caddick, Hulme, Skippen, Rev. W. Clarke, Toronto; G. D. King, Calgary; L. Garrett, Winnipeg, and Capt. Rowston, Sherbrooke, P.Q.

Sung Her Death Requiem.

MONTREAL, Feb. 15.—Miss Octavie Chagnon, 20 years old, living at 20 St. Felix-street, was attending to her household duties yesterday, singing merrily, when suddenly she threw up her hands, gasping, fell to the floor and expired instantly. She came from Vercheres. Death was caused by valvular disease of the heart.

Crashed Into the Depot.

SAGINAW, Mich., Feb. 15.—John A. Schultz, John Rice and Link French, with a number of other employes, were sitting in the Michigan Central roundhouse at Roscommon yesterday chatting, when, without a moment's warning, a train of log cars dashed in upon them, owing to a misplaced switch, scattering and destroying everything right and left, killing Schultz and probably fatally injuring Rice and French.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED!

Grand Rally of the People's Party.

THE QUESTION OF THE HOUR!

The Greatest Good to the Largest Number.

GOUGH BROTHERS are in the field as the Candidates for public approval, basing their claim on the admitted facts that they supply the largest number, the greatest number of times with the largest dollar's worth of the best clothing that money can purchase.

Ask our constituents if this claim is not well grounded?

When you buy, buy from first hands, remembering that we supply Clothing, Furnishings, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes.

GOUGH BROTHERS,

The Clothiers, 377 and 379 George-st., Peterborough.

LIME!

First quality Lime, in any quantity, for sale and delivered to any part of the town. Builders, contractors, etc. supplied promptly at current prices. Lime house, at G.T.R. Station.

A. RUTHERFORD.

CAKES!

For a Good Cake, leave your orders at

Long Bros.

Also home-made cakes iced and nicely Ornamented. Wedding Breakfasts and Evening Parties Catered for. Oyster Patties made to order. Our stock of Candies is pure and made by ourselves.

No. 286 and 411 George-st.

"It is the Safest and Fairest Policy I Have Ever Seen,"

Was the remark made by a prominent representative of one of the largest and best American Life insurance Companies, when he had carefully examined

THE ORDINARY LIFE POLICY OF

—THE—

TEMPERANCE and GENERAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y.

This is the only policy offered to the Canadian public that can neither lapse nor expire as to its paid-up value till death ensues, after three annual premiums have been paid on it.

Our Limited Payment Life Policy, or Instalment Bonds, Our Common Sense Renewable Term Policies, and our Survivors' Endowment Bonds are all possessed of new and excellent features and are all worthy of careful consideration.

Agents Wanted.

H. P. LINDSAY,

Gen. Agent for Peterborough, Northumberland and Durham. Office No. 3[illegible] George-st., opposite new market building.

WM. FITZGERALD,

Builder, Contractor and Jobber.

Contracts taken for all work connected with erection of new buildings, repairs or rebuilding. Twenty-five years experience. First-class work according to plans and specifications guaranteed. Estimates furnished for any description of work. Good dry material always on hand. Best of references given as to excellence of work and despatch.

Building Lots For Sale

in different localities. Most desirable sites for houses. This is the time to buy and build. Lots sold and houses built thereon on terms to suit buyers. Easy terms of payment. Several good houses and lots for sale. Every one looking for a bargain should see these. WM. FITZGERALD, 134, corner of Dublin and Water-sts.

P.O. Box 370, Peterborough. [illegible] w40-1y

WEDDING CARDS.

LATEST STYLES AT THE

Review Stationery Store.

PASHA STEEL PENS!

Fine Grades!

THE FAVORITE PEN FOR

Business,
Correspondence.
Book-keeping
and all Writing.

If used once no others will suit.

TRY THE "PASHA" PENS.

Review Stationey.

D. BELLEGHEM,

Issuer of Mariage Licenses,

PETERBOROUGH.

HAGGART & KIDD

TOWN and COUNTY } Auctioneers,
COMMISSION and SHIPPING } Merchants,
REAL ESTATE and INSURANCE } Agents.

☛ Money to Loan.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins, by grocers, labelled thus:

JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England. [illegible]

W. J. MORROW, GROCERIES, WINES AND LIQUORS

BIG TEA and COFFEE HOUSE

IN THE MARKET!

1.—I have sold out the City Hotel to Wm. Clancy, in 19 minutes.

2.—I have sold out Faren & Co. Billiard Room etc., to Faren & Co. in 13 minutes.

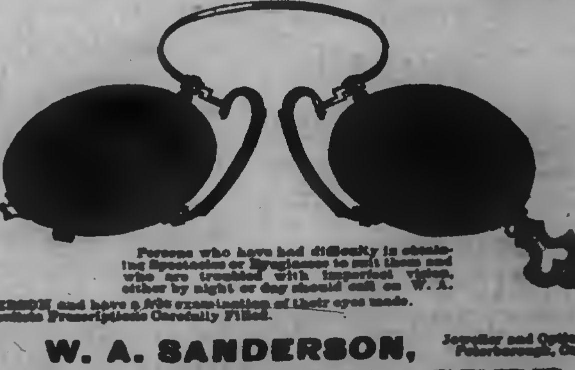
3.—The Dry Goods Stock is in the Market. If there is any new blood for this offer call and see me. Want to dispose of it inside of 10 days.

I am off for Australia early next month.

I mean business. If the stock is too large can be reduced to $1,000 in 30 days.

JAMES DOLAN,

George Street, Peterborough.



Persons who have had difficulty in obtaining Spectacles or Eyeglasses to suit them and who are troubled with imperfect vision, either by night or day should call on W. A. SANDERSON and have a free examination of their eyes made. Oculists Prescriptions Carefully Filled.

W. A. SANDERSON, Jeweller and Optician, Peterborough, Ont.

EYESIGHT TESTED.

DO YOU LIKE Biscuits?

Most likely you do.
There's a deal of difference
in Biscuits. Quality is an important item. A good
biscuit should be fresh,
crisp and of good flavor.
Here's what will suit you.
Try the English biscuit, made
by Huntley & Palmer the famous makers. Imported
by us and guaranteed genuine.
Ask for Huntley & Palmer's biscuits.

W. J. MASON

426 GEORGE STREET.
No trouble to show Goods.

Blank Books.
—AND—
Office Stationery

See the quality of our Blank Books.

Call and get our prices
on Ledgers,
Journals,
Day Books,
Stephen's Inks,
Carter's Inks,
Underwood's Inks
Stafford's Inks,
Pens,
Foolscap,
Legal paper,
and all other
Office supplies.

Our Prices are the Lowest.

H. THOMPSON & Co

[illegible] and General Stationers, Booksellers
and Wall Paper Dealers,
[illegible] George-st., — — Peterborough

The Daily Review.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1891.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

An Hotel Man Fined.

An hotel keeper was charged by Chief Roszel this morning at the Police Court with selling liquor on Sunday contrary to the provisions of the Crook's Act. The accused pleaded guilty and he was fined $20 and costs.

A Silver Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Armstrong, of Dalhousie-st., celebrated on Saturday evening their silver wedding. Friends of Peterborough and Toronto sent in their remembrances in the shape of presents, of silverware, a particularly nice thing being a handsome silver-headed cane from a local friend.

Another Step Forward.

A magazine of the size of The Ladies' Home Journal, of Philadelphia, Penn., which has just reach a monthly circulation of [illegible] copies, requires a good deal of room; another four-story building is to be occupied next month, in addition to the two now in use. The growing popularity of the Journal has also overtaken the capacity of its nine large presses, and twelve new ones of latest improved pattern are awaiting the completion of the new quarters.

ELECTORS. The prosperity and very existence of your country is in danger. Rally to Mr. Stevenson's support.

Y.M.C.A. Notes.

At the Saturday evening meeting Messrs. Williams, Collins and the General Secretary gave an account of the proceedings and impressions of the Provincial Convention held last week at Kingston. The attendance and interest were good. An after meeting was held for prayer service.

The consecration meeting Sabbath morning was led by Mr. Bennison and much blessing came to those present.

Short, pointed talks were given at the personal purity meeting yesterday afternoon. The young men who are attending these meetings are much benefitted and helped.

The gospel and song service last evening was addressed by Mr. Isaac Richardson who gave a very impressive address on Rev. 3:20. Our hall is now too small to accommodate the many who desire to attend these services.

Bible class Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. Reception committee will meet at close of Bible class. Invitation Committee will meet Wednesday evening after prayer meeting. Devotional on Thursday evening and Membership on Friday evening at 8 p.m.

TO THE WORK.

The opponents of the Dominion Government and of Mr. Stevenson have at last succeeded in pressing a candidate into the field, and those who favor Mr. Stevenson's re-election and the policy of the administration should rally to his support. The town and the whole riding must be thoroughly organized in order that complete success may be achieved on the evening of March 5th. The Conservative committee rooms in the Opera House block are open every night and there should be a grand rally there to-night that the work of the campaign may be pushed forward vigorously.

Mr. Stevenson has given much time and hard work for the benefit of the constituency. He has lost no opportunity to advance its interests in Parliament and out of it, and has been zealous in the performance of his duties. He has, by his efforts, been largely instrumental in securing important industries for the town, and by his enterprise in investing his means in manufactories he has shown his faith by his works and has done much to build up the town, to provide employment for its artisans and workmen, business for its merchants, and markets for the farmers of the surrounding country.

The electors should rally to his support and return him to his sphere of usefulness in Parliament.

The Government which Mr. Stevenson supports has pursued a policy in the interest of the country. It has been progressive, and has assisted the development of every part of the Dominion, and has at the same time been prudent and economical. It has inaugurated and maintained a fiscal policy that has built up manufacturing industries, that has provided employment, that has retained the markets of this country for the producers of the country, and that has benefitted every interest in the Dominion. While it has desired to be on friendly terms with the United States, and has again proposed to make arrangements for closer trade relations that will not be injurious to the great manufacturing and agricultural interests of the country it has opposed and does oppose the Wimanite scheme of the Liberal leaders that would extinguish our manufactories, cut off our trade with Great Britain, jeopardise the best markets for farm produce, throw Canadian workmen out of employment, give the United States control of our tariff and make this country dependent upon and subject to the United States.

The present patriotic Government must be retained in office in the interest of our national life and material prosperity, and this must be done by placing its supporters at the head of the polls.

The time is short. Much work must be done. United action and efforts will succeed, for the people are with us. Organization must be the watchword from now until polling day, and by each one doing his duty success is certain.

Rally at the committee rooms to-night. If you have taken part in election work before, come along again. If you have not assisted in the work of organization before, do not let that deter you. If you hesitate because you have formerly acted with the Liberals, remember the grave issues now at stake and join in to do your part. Let all favorable to Mr. Stevenson's election be on hand to-night, and with thorough organization, vigorous work and a cause that should fire the heart of every Canadian victory will be won.

HON. JOHN HAGGART.

The Postmaster General Will Speak in Peterborough.

Hon. John Haggart, Postmaster General, will deliver an address on the public questions of the day in the Opera House, town, on Tuesday, Feb. 24th. Mr. Haggart is a public speaker of merit and a valued colleague of Sir John Macdonald, and the electors should not fail to hear him on the important issues that will be decided at the polls on March 5th.

THE MINISTER OF CUSTOMS.

Hon. M. Bowell Will Speak at Norwood on Friday Night.

On Friday evening next Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Minister of Customs, will address the electors of East Peterborough in the Town Hall, Norwood. Mr. Bowell has been a member of Parliament since Confederation and Minister of Customs since 1878. He is an able administrator and a good speaker, going to the root of his subject and presenting his views clearly and forcibly. The electors of the East Riding should make a point of hearing Mr. Bowell at this time, and any from the West who can attend will be well repaid for doing so.

It Will be in the Police Court.

Yesterday afternoon what appears to have been a disgraceful row occurred in the market arcade. A young man said to have been intoxicated got into a row with two other youths, and in the fight the intoxicated individual bit one of his opponents in the cheek, almost taking a piece out. The police will ventilate the affair when names are received.

Dyspepsia's victims are numbered by thousands. So are the people who have been restored to health by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The Equal Righters' Convention

A convention of the Equal Righters of this riding was held on Saturday afternoon in the Orange Hall to consider the selection of a candidate to contest the election for the Dominion House, in the interests of the Association. Mr. A. R. Kidd presided, and Mr. John Carnegie acted as secretary. Speeches were made, among others by Messrs. E. B. Stone, H. Merrick, A. R. Kidd, W. Graham, Robt. Weir, T. E. Bell. Mr. John Carnegie was nominated by Mr. T. E. Bell, seconded by Mr. Robt. Weir, but in a short speech Mr. Carnegie declined the nomination. After some further discussion Mr. E. B. Stone submitted the name of Mr. E. Douglass Armour, of Toronto, as a worthy man to carry the Equal Rights banner. The convention accordingly adjourned until Wednesday afternoon next, and Messrs. J. Carnegie, E. B. Stone, Robert Weir, H. Merrick, T. E. Bell, and J. L. Hughes were appointed a committee to consider the question of a candidate, with an understanding that Mr. Armour be communicated with.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. [illegible]

ELECTORS. Protect home and country by voting for Mr. Stevenson. Come to the Committee rooms, Opera House block, open every night.

TRENT VALLEY CANAL

The Commission's Report is Favorable.

A COPY OF THE DOCUMENT

NO DOUBT AT ALL ABOUT A SUFFICIENT WATER SUPPLY.

The Assistance it Would be in Developing the Country Would Amply Repay the Outlay—A Choice of Two Routes at the West End—The Work Should be Pushed Forward—Suggestions as to Lessening the Cost—Barges that Would go Four Abreast Through the St. Lawrence Locks.

The report of the commissioners appointed by the Dominion Government to enquire into the Trent Valley canal, namely, Judge Weller, of Peterborough, Mr. F. Turner, C. E., of Toronto, and Mr. J. Kennedy, C.E. of Montreal, has been awaited with keen interest in this section. The commissioners have gone over the route and taken a large amount of evidence, and the evidence, together with their report, has been submitted to the Department.

The Report.

The report of their conclusions, as will be seen, is favorable to the work, and they recommend that it be pushed forward as soon as practicable. As the canal will be of great importance to this district the following copy of the report will be read with interest:—

To the Rt. Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald, G.C.B., Minister of Railways and Canals for the Dominion of Canada:

The Commissioners appointed to "consider the question of further extending the line of water communication between Lake Huron and Lake Ontario and to determine whether any other local works are necessary and whether it is advisable that an extension of the main work should be undertaken and if so to what extent," beg leave to report.

The main work referred to is what is commonly called the Trent Valley canal, being a projected waterway from Matchedash Bay, Georgian Bay, Lake Huron, to Trenton on the Bay of Quinte, Lake Ontario.

THE WORK COMPLETED.

The work already completed, as set forth in the report of the Chief Engineer of Canals, has rendered navigable the following portions of the main route, viz., Balsam lake to the village of Lakefield; the town of Peterborough to Healey's Falls on the Trent river, leaving

NECESSARY TO BE DONE,

according to the same report, to render the whole route navigable, the following sections, viz., a canal from Matchedash Bay to Lake Couchiching, a distance of 13 21-100 miles requiring fourteen locks; a canal from Lake Simcoe to Balsam lake 17 74-100 miles requiring eleven locks; a canal from the village of Lakefield to the town of Peterborough, 9 61-100 miles, requiring thirteen locks; a canal and improvement in the present navigation between Healey's falls and Hoard's creek 10 85-100 miles, requiring twenty-three locks; improvement in the present navigation between Hoard's creek and Frankford, and a canal between Frankford and Trenton 7 29-100 miles, requiring ten locks.

INFORMATION OBTAINED.

In endeavoring to obtain all available information on the subject under consideration, the commissioners went over the whole route, travelling by steamer to Healy's Falls, and from Lakefield to Fenelon Falls and Lindsay; and they also took evidence at the following places:—Montreal, Kingston, Toronto, Collingwood, Midland, Barrie, Orillia, Lindsay, Peterborough, Trenton and Deseronto, and at several points on the line of the Erie canal. Due notice of the sittings held at the places on the route of the proposed canal was given, in order that an opportunity of expressing opinion on the subject might be afforded to anyone disposed or inclined to do so.

The commissioners thought it advisable to frame a set of questions of a general character, which they caused to be forwarded to the members of the House of Commons and of the Legislature of Ontario, and to the publishers of the newspapers in the Province of Ontario, and to the clerks of the cities and towns in that province. To these very few replies have been received. These questions and the answers thereto, together with the other information obtained, are forwarded herewith.

ITS PRACTICABILITY ESTABLISHED.

In regard to the practicability of the proposed route in reference to its water supply, the commissioners are of opinion that this has been established beyond question, both by the report of the engineer and by the evidence received.

SAVING IN CONSTRUCTION.

The attention of the commissioners has been called to the width of the locks at present completed. There are twelve of these 134 feet long by 33 feet wide. For modern locks this width is very great in proportion to the length. They are of the same size as those on the Rideau canal. The latter, however, were built to accommodate side wheel vessels, which at this day it is not necessary to use. The commissioners suggest that a width of twenty-three feet would be sufficient. It is proposed, according to the report of the engineer, that the prism of the canal should be fifty feet in width at its bottom. That would be insufficient to admit of vessels passing each other, should they be of the extreme width of the present locks, but it would admit such passage by vessels of the reduced width; and, further, four barges of this reduced width would just about fill the St. Lawrence canal locks, when enlarged, and it is obvious that a considerable saving in construction by the suggested reduction in width would be effected. The attention of the commissioners has also been called to the expensive class or character of the works upon the locks lately constructed at Burleigh, Lovesick, Buckhorn and Fenelon Falls. They think that a considerable saving in that respect might be made in the building of the remaining locks, without materially effecting their substantial character, and they suggest that locks of a class of work somewhat similar to those at Bobcaygeon, Young's Point and Peterborough would be sufficient for the purposes of this canal. The commissioners desire to call attention to what is known as the "lift lock," which is now in practical use in England, France and Belgium, and to which rather full reference is made in the exhibits herewith. They suggest that it might be judicious to make a re-survey of the section between Healey's falls and Hoard's creek, and probably other sections of the route, with a view to the possible use of the "lift lock." It will be observed, as pointed out above, that the distance between these points is 10 85-100 miles, requiring twenty-three locks. Under such circumstances the use of the "lift lock" would seem to be desirable in the direction of economy in the cost of construction and in the time required for lockage. The commissioners simply call attention to the point without themselves having formed any decided opinion upon it.

TWO ROUTES AT THE WEST END.

As will be observed in the evidence taken at Collingwood it is suggested that the route from Lake Simcoe to Nottawasaga Bay would be a more satisfactory and judicious one than that now contemplated between Lake Couchiching and Matchedash Bay, and it may be thought desirable, should that section be built, that a survey of the suggested line be made, in order to determine the respective merits of the two routes.

GIVE ACCESS TO A WIDE EXTENT.

In considering the bearing of the canal upon the development of trade and natural resources of the country through which it will pass, it should be noted that the conditions are peculiar, inasmuch as it would act as a connecting link in a chain of lakes and streams which, for the most part, lie transversely to the line of canal, and that it would therefore afford access to an extent of country and coast line much greater than usual in a canal of its length.

SHOULD BE COMPLETED.

The commissioners, upon the evidence and information which they have been able to obtain, and which accompany this report, are of opinion that an extension of the main work should be undertaken by the completion, as soon as convenient and practicable, of the work necessary to give continuous navigation from Balsam lake to the Bay of Quinte. This would embrace the sections between Lakefield and Peterborough and between Healey's Falls and Trenton. In the opinion of the commissioners a waterway would thereby be made which would not only greatly increase the value of the works already constructed, but would assist and develop the industries along its route, and open up the resources of the country through which it would pass, to such an extent as to amply compensate for the expenditure necessary to be incurred although the work itself would not be expected to produce direct revenue.

PREPONDERANCE OF EVIDENCE FAVORABLE.

This conclusion is arrived at by a careful consideration of the evidence adduced before the commission, by which the commissioners feel they must be guided, such evidence to their minds greatly preponderating in favor of the extension of this important work in the manner indicated.

(Sgd.) C. A. WELLER,
FRANK TURNER,
JOHN KENNEDY.

History of the Project.

In the early history of the country the work of connecting the navigable waters between the Georgian Bay and the Bay of Quinte was taken up, but was soon after suspended. The project was revived at different times without much result, although there were always public spirited men who believed in the practicability and utility of the canal, and had faith that it would be constructed. The early history of the work and the repeated efforts made to revive it are well known to the people.

A Narrow Escape.

In 1878 the canal had a narrow escape from being placed in such a position that it would have been killed for many a year to come. The Liberals who were then in office had no faith in waterways and especially in this canal. Hon. Alex. Mackenzie took the ground that the works already constructed on the route were simply a burden not to be borne by the Government, and he arranged, in the closing days of his Government, to hand them over to the Provincial Government, which contemplated the destruction of a portion of them. The only utility the Liberal Dominion and Provincial Governments saw in the works was the assistance they were to lumbermen, and they rejected with scorn the idea of connecting the chains of navigation—of building the canal.

"This work, however," said Hon. Alex. Mackenzie in the House of Commons, referring to the canal, "was long ago given up as one utterly impracticable, and every practical man knew that there was not the slightest intention of building the canal. The project had been given up by every engineering authority and by the Provincial and Dominion authorities."

Mr. Brown, a Liberal who then sat for West Hastings, told the House "he supposed that the idea of shortening the distance to Chicago was, to a certain extent, exploded." The then member for West Peterborough, also a Liberal, acquiesced in the transfer of the works to the Provincial authorities—which was an abandonment of the canal.

Sir John to the Rescue.

But the Liberal Government had to give place, in 1878, to a Conservative Government under Sir John Macdonald, and one of its first acts was to cancel the transfer of the works to the Provincial Government. This act saved the canal. In the meantime, also, Conservative members had been sent to Ottawa from these constituencies, and they, acting upon the Conservative principle of progress and development, pressed the construction of the canal upon the Government. The Government took the matter up and, after having surveys made and enquiring into the matter, made appropriations, let contracts and had the connecting links at Burleigh, Lovesick, Buckhorn and Fenelon Falls constructed, which opened up a stretch of over one hundred miles of navigation.

Still Objected To.

The Liberals, however, were not satisfied. They still objected to the work or demanded more information. Hon. Alex. Mackenzie said in 1882:—"I think the hon. gentleman (Sir Charles Tupper) is committing a great mistake in beginning a new canal in the present state of transportation eastward." "Progress by rail," he continued, "is reaching a point that sets our canal system at defiance." He did not believe in canals at all, and especially not in this one, which he said was "without beginning or end." He even objected to the Dominion Government keeping up the works that had been built years ago. "The proper course, as I have always held," said he, "is, that if works of this kind are to be kept up at all they should be kept up by the Local Government."

Hon. Edward Blake was also dissatisfied and kept up a running fire of questions and demands for more information. Mr. H. H. Cook, a Liberal member for one of the Simcoes, in 1886 placed before the House of Commons the opinion of Mr. Kingsmill who spoke of the "absurdity of the project" and Mr. Cook in doing so informed the House that it was the "opinion of an eminent engineer." Mr. Cook also had doubts as to the practibility of the canal and said "they should know whether it is practicable, which they do not know even to-day." "It is the duty of the Government," he said, "to ascertain the utility of the work."

These are samples, taken from the official reports, of the opposition and objections of Liberal members.

This opposition, these doubts thrown upon the feasibility and utility of the project, these repeated demands for further information, led to the appointment of the commission which has just reported.

And the report is decidedly favorable to the greater portion of the work, and unfavorable to none, while the references to the two routes at the west end and to the barges passing through the St. Lawrence canal locks show a favorable opinion to the entire project.

Practical Conclusions.

The people certainly have reason to be pleased with this report. The prophecies of those who (exhibiting their own halfheartedness at the same time) would have the people believe that the commission was appointed as a means of killing the project have come to naught and are shown to have been groundless. The Government, which manifested its views by building the sections completed, is pledged to the work, and it has now a supply of information that should satisfy even Mr. Blake or Dr. Landerkin. At any rate it will enable the Government to meet those who oppose the building of the canal, and the work will go on.

The work will be proceeded with, because the Government is pledged to it, if the Government is retained in office—and there is little or no doubt that it will be. If there was any doubt of the Government—and there is room for none with this report—there could still be none in view of the position that Mr. Stevenson has taken, which is that, if elected, he will resign if the work is not prosecuted—and there is no doubt he will be elected. With such staunch upholders of the canal as Mr. Stevenson and Mr. Burnham in the House and supporting the Government, and armed with the support of the people and the commission's report, the canal must go on.

There is no need to explain to the people of Peterborough or of this section the benefit completion of the canal would be. They know what even the work of construction would mean to them and they are aware of the impetus its completion would give to the developement, growth and prosperity of this district.

The Duty of the Hour.

The Government is ready to build the canal; the Conservative candidates are ready to uphold the Government in the work and to urge it forward; the rest remains with the electors.

GO INTO SESSION TO-MORROW.

The Grand Supreme Lodge of the Sons of Canada.

At ten o'clock to-morrow morning the Supreme Grand Lodge of the Sons of Canada will go into session in the lodge rooms of the local lodge on George-st. Delegates to the number of nearly a hundred are expected from all parts of of the Province. Some of these will arrive this evening. The business of the Order will occupy two days least and the sessions may be continued into Thursday.

To-morrow evening a banquet will be tendered the visiting delegates in the lodge room, when it is probable that Mayor Stevenson and civic representatives will be present and tendered the visitors a public welcome. The local members of the Order have made all necessary arrangements for the reception and entertainment of the visitors and a pleasant session can be expected.

The Campaign.

A meeting in the interest of Mr. Stevenson's candidature was held in the town hall, Ennismore, on Saturday evening. Dr. Brennan, W. H. Moore and Mr. Stevenson delivered addresses, and Mr. W. Cumming, of Ennismore, spoke for the Liberal candidate. The meeting was a large one, and Mr. Stevenson's exposition of his position on the trade and other public questions met with the hearty approval of the audience.

Mr. Burnham held a very successful meeting at Indian River on Saturday night, and addressed a large audience of electors

A Plucky Young Lady Injured.

Yesterday afternoon as Mr. Hoskins, a gentleman who resides on Smith st., was driving with his daughter a dog ran out from the roadside and frightened the spirited young colt which he was driving. The animal did not run, but kicked so violently that he went over the shaft. Miss Hoskins, who always drove the colt, jumped from the cutter and grasped the horse by the head. The animal reared, knocking the plucky young lady down and trampling upon her. When picked up she had received a severe cut upon the head and another upon the arm. The horse was quieted without further damage to the cutter than a broken shaft.

WORKINGMEN. Mr. Stevenson has given time and work and money to build up industries in the town which give employment to large numbers. Send him again to Parliament to continue the good work.

Brevities.

—The young man, Thomas Benton, who accidentally took the dose of poison on Friday night, is almost fully recovered.

—An alarm of fire was sounded on Saturday evening. It was a false alarm, caused by the crossing of telephone wires with one of the alarm systems.

—Lindsay and Peterborough are to curl to-morrow if the ice remains. Skip Fitzgerald is to be banquetted in the evening at Lindsay.

To Rent.

Farms wanted to rent. Tenants supplied this year at half price. Call or write.
T. HURLEY,
d23tf 257 George-st.

Make Your Plants Grow

and bloom by using Royal Plant Food. Sold only at Mason's Seed and Plant House, corner of Water and Brock-sts. d24

Health by Good Living.

For your choicest beef, mutton, lamb, pork, ham, breakfast bacon, [illegible] of sausage, etc., go to John J. Howden, 461 George-st. Bacon sold by actual weight. d14t

Going Fast.

Look in at Stapleton & Elcombe's and secure a barrel of those fine Northern Spy apples, regular beauties. They are selling fast. Another consignment just received. d20tf Portraits! Portraits!

E. Michener, General Agent of the Boston Portrait Co., is at the Cavanagh House. He is showing work in Crayon, Pastell and Oil. Will be at the House any time after 6 p.m. Please call and see samples and bring your photos or tintypes with you. 3d36

The Handsomest Lady in Peterborough

Remarked to a friend the other day that she knew Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs was a superior remedy, as it stopped her cough instantly when other remedies had no effect whatever. So to prove this and convince you of its merit any druggist will give you a Sample bottle Free. Large size 50c and $1.

A Pertinent Puzzle.

F
O
R
E
FORESTERS'
T
E C
R A
S' R
N CARNIVAL
V
A
L
!

FRIDAY, FEB. 26TH. d20eod

That's Easily Answered.

"My dear," said Mrs. Cupandsaucer, laying down the evening paper, "what is reciprocity?" "Reciprocity, my angel," said the head of the house, "is easily explained. It means a general evening up,—as, say when Smitters asks me in to take a-er-cigar and I ask him to have another.' "Exactly," said Mrs. C., "when I go to Hawley Bros. for tea and I hand Mr. Hawley a dollar and he gives me four or five pounds of splendid green or black mixture, I get the money's worth and he the money. Isn't that it?" "Exactly," said the husband as he reached for his hat. d23tf

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on a trial

VOLTAIC BELT CO., Marshall, Mich.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

Member's of Mr. Stevenson's Committees for Ward No. 2, will meet at committee rooms, Opera House block, at 7 p. m. sharp.

GEO. STEVENSON,
Chairman Ward No. Two.

Glass Shades.

Assorted sizes, may be had at Mason's Seed and Plant House, corner of Water and Brock-sts. d20tf

Every Week

The Scientific American presents whatever is new in the world of science, art and manufactures, thus doing service both to theoretical and practical workers. For forty-five years Munn & Co., 361 Broadway, N.Y., have conducted this paper with close reference to the work of procuring and describing patents in a way to make it an authority on scientific and mechanical subjects. 1d30

BIRTH.

JACKSON.—At Peterborough, on Saturday, Feb. 14th, the wife of MR. JAS. JACKSON, butcher, of a daughter.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. G. Gumpricht is in town Order may be left at Messrs. Taylor & McDonald's store 1yd166

WANTED.

A GOOD LIVE MAN for Life Insurance for Peterborough and vicinity. Address or call on J. L. GALE, Grand Central Hotel. 3d69

DOMINION
ELECTIONS!
East Riding of Peterborough.
MR. STEVENSON'S
Committee Rooms
OLD COUNCIL CHAMBER,
OPERA HOUSE BLOCK.

Open Every Evening. All Liberal Conservatives and citizens wishing to maintain the present Government are invited to meet at the rooms in the interests of the Conservative Candidate.

W. H. MOORE,
Pres. Lib.-Con. Ass'n
W. J. MINORE,
Sec. Lib.-Con. Ass'n

"PROGRESSIVE
EUCHRE"

parties still hold the boards. We have a lot of good playing cards at 25c. a pack, or 5 for $1.00. These are worth 40c. each.

SAILSBURY BROS.

SAWS Filed and Gummed in First Class Style. Knives, Scissors, Tools, &c., ground and sharpened. S. W. ENGLISH. shop, 11[illegible] Charlotte-st. [illegible]-wly

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. All druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are placing a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have a Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup, or Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

TO-DAY

and the C.P.R. brought us a case of neckwear. Not the only one, more are fast following. The invoices now with us promise many new ideas in this line. The colors range from showy magnificence to the dignified and extremely quiet. The shapes are without number and entirely new. If you are a lover of things rich, if beautiful colors delight your eye—see our neckwear. Many find it profitable to look at goods before buying, why not you?

One thing suggests another. Suits for instance. You may not need one. However it will not hurt to show the goods nor harm you in looking at them. The good impressions made now will bear fruit later on. See the pyramids of goods we have procured for Spring.

T. DOLAN & Co.

Clothiers and Furnishers.

—ONTARIO—
Planing Mills!

Planing, Matching, Mouldings, Band Sawing & Turning, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Storm Sash.

JAMES Z. ROGERS.

2 BRICK HOUSES,
2 FRAME HOUSES,
and THREE LOTS,
to be sold at my office on WEDNESDAY next, the 18th inst., at 2 p.m.

The above properties are situated west of Bethune-st. and between the 2 railway stations in the centre of all the principal manufactories in town. A rare chance.

T. HURLEY,
257 George-st.

"Hello there, Brown, where are you going in such a hurry?"

"Why, I am going to J. J. Turner to get a pair of the fine Waterproof Horse Covers he makes. I tell you they are the finest I have seen. He also makes Wagon Covers, Lap Rugs, Clothing, &c.

"You want the address; all right,

J. J. TURNER,

The Tent and Awning Maker, corner of George and King-sts., Peterborough.
Telephone day or night.

SELLING AT REDUCED PRICES

We are offering our Stock of Manufactured Furs at cost, previous to stock taking. The stock comprises a choice assortment of Ladies' and Gents fine Fur Collars, Cuffs, Capes, Caps, Gauntlets and Coats. Also a few Musk Ox, Bear, Oppossum and Goat Robes.

CALL AND BE CONVINCED.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

Manufacturing Furriers.

PACKING HOUSE STORE!

For a Choice Selection of
Smoked Sugar Cured Meats and Bacon
LARD, guaranteed pure, in any quantity.

GEORGE MATTHEWS

356 George Street, Peterborough.

THE STANDARD LIFE Assurance Company,

ESTABLISHED, ... 1832

Subsisting Assurances	$[illegible]	The Funds Invested in Canada amount to nearly....	$[illegible]
Invested Funds	34,000,000.	Deposited with Dominion Government at Ottawa..	1,[illegible]
Annual Income	4,000,000.
Bonuses Distributed	22,000,000.

All plans of Assurance. Non Forfeitable Policies. Absolutely unconditional [illegible] from date of issue without extra charge. Absolute security. [illegible] compare favorably with any first-class Company!

W. M. RAMSAY, [illegible]

A.V.R. YOUNG, General Agent, and Inspector for Midland District, 3[illegible] Water-st.

C. CAMERON,
MULLHOLLAND & ROPER, | Special Agents

Choicest Brands
—OF—
FLOUR!
BAKERS and PASTRY
—AT—
MELDRUM & DAVIDSON'S
Quality Guaranteed.

FEED:
All kinds always on hand. Orders left at Ormond & Walsh's or McDonald's drug stores will be promptly attended to.
Mill Telephone No. 198.
LOWEST PRICES FOR CASH.

REMOVAL.
DR. CARMICHAEL
has removed to his new office and residence, corner of Water and Brock-sts., (opposite the Court House. d148-w52-3mo

The Daily Review.

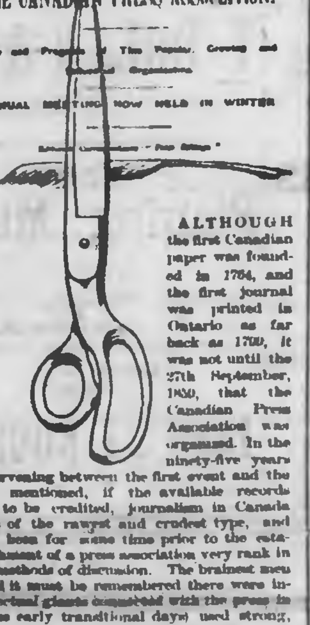
MONDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1891.

THE CANADIAN PRESS ASSOCIATION.

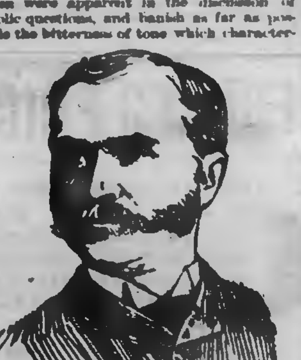
Rise and Progress of This Popular, Growing and Influential Organization

ANNUAL MEETING NOW HELD IN WINTER

Sketches of Prominent Members — Press Outings.

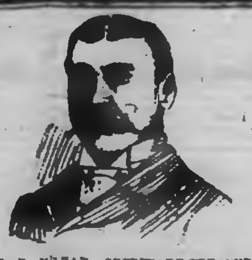


ALTHOUGH the first Canadian paper was founded in 1764, and the first journal was printed in Ontario as far back as 1799, it was not until the 27th September, 1859, that the Canadian Press Association was organized. In the ninety-five years intervening between the first event and the last mentioned, if the available records are to be credited, journalism in Canada was of the rawyst and crudest type, and had been for some time prior to the establishment of a press association very rank in its methods of discussion. The brainest men used it must be remembered there were intellectual giants connected with the press in those early transitional days used strong, very strong, language to enforce their arguments. Perhaps they had pleaded, as some newspapers of the baser sort do now-a-days, when something more atrocious than usual appeared in their papers, that the public taste and appetite demanded the feast set before them. At any rate, in course of time, culminating in 1859, pressmen, especially in Ontario, felt the absolute need of some ameliorating influence if the newspapers were to "adorn their calling" and become in every truth as they were in name true indices of national progress and enlightenment. Accordingly, in the city of Kingston, on the 27th September, 1859, the Canadian Press Association was born. The primary objects of the new institution, as set forth in the constitution, enable us to understand even now in some degree the disagreeable character of the journalism of that period. These were the "creating more intimate relations, socially, among the editorial fraternity of Canada, and by bringing together annually members of the Fourth Estate in a reunion where party differences should be forgotten and social acquaintanceships formed, thereby tend to check the asperities which unfortunately too often were apparent in the discussion of public questions, and banish as far as possible the bitterness of tone which characterized the public press."



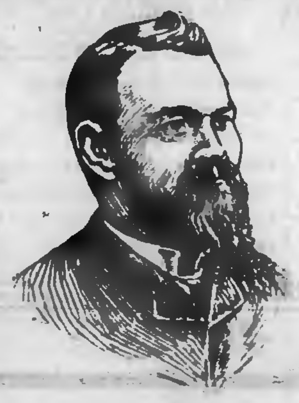
MR. ANDREW PATTULLO, WOODSTOCK SENTINEL-REVIEW.

These primary objects: The checking of asperities and the banishment of bitterness of tone in public discussions have been in a great measure attained. While it cannot be said that the strong language of the early days has been entirely expunged from the columns of the newspaper press, it is now rare to find even heated discussions tainted with bitterness of tone. There can, therefore, be no reasonable doubt that the Canadian Press Association has done good work in the past in this regard, and is entitled to be credited with a large meed of praise for educating public opinion in the better way. Now-a-days no one mistakes abuse for argument, and the utilitarian spirit of the age is too highly developed to permit even the ignorant to be led away by a sound of words which signify nothing. Dearly as the average man loves a fight, he prefers to see a kid-gloved prize fighter to a bludgeon-wielder. The initial board of officers of the new association were: W. Gillespy, president; J. G. Brown, first vice-president; Josiah Blackburn, second vice-president; Thomas Sellar, secretary and treasurer; D. McDougall, honorary secretary; George Sheppard, James Seymour, James Somerville, Thomas McIntosh and John Jacques, executive committee. These men, and their press colleagues of that time, builded, as we have seen, better than they knew, and in the yearly meetings which were always thereafter held the primary objects of the association were never lost sight of. President after president, in his annual address and these used to be prepared with elaborate care and study and include the details of palpable growth in graces congratulated the association upon the progress being made. And it is no wonder that improvement was apparent. The Canadian Press Association has numbered some very clever men among its officers—men who afterwards attained to the dignity of Ministers of the Crown. In 1872 a new departure, and one which revived and increased the interest of members, was taken. An excursion to some point or points of interest was added to the civilizing attractions of the annual meeting, which then became more peripatetic in its character, and to include smaller places than the larger cities. Usually the annual meeting was held at the excursion starting point.



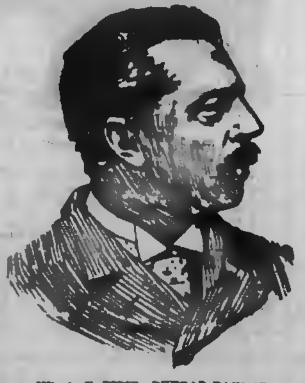
MR. J. B. M'LEAN, SECRETARY-TREASURER

Thus naturally the social influence among the editors of Canada became the stepping stone to the attainment of knowledge of their own country, and there can be no question that such press trips have be advantageous in enabling them to deal practically with many public questions as the country grew and prospered. The editorial ken was "widened with the process of the suns," and their annual jaunts doubtless proved as near a "royal road to learning" as editors may ever expect to have in this world. In 1889 another change came o'er the spirit of the editorial dream. Original waste places had been fairly well cultivated, and several ends conspired to incite them to reach out after other and greater worlds to conquer. The great development of the country and especially of its railways, with the more modern methods inaugurated by the latter; the consequent multiplicity of journals during the past twenty years, the great increase in the membership of the association, the introduction of young blood which had been educated in the schools and colleges, and, last but not least, the combining spirit of the age as shown in every other walk of life, induced the newspaper men to move along with the modern procession. Then it was decided to hold a winter session of the association in Toronto, and it was accordingly held in the Press Club rooms on Feb. 22 and 23, 1889. The essayists seemed to be inspired, and the meeting was an unqualified success; and this was followed by another in 1890 which also was characterized by mutual profit and advantage. The subjects discussed were live topics of interest to the fraternity, and many knotty points, unsolvable to the individual, were settled by the greater experience, freely given, of someone else who had met with similar difficulties and overcome them. The press trip, however suffered collapse last year, and it was decided at the annual meeting in July, 1890, to hold the annual meeting hereafter in February. The programme for this year surpasses in interest anything hitherto attempted, and of especial interest to every newspaper man in the province. Brilliant speakers of national note, practical subjects for discussion, fraternal intercourse with brethren of the press who have made names for themselves in the neighboring republic, and a dinner at which the guild will have free social interchange of thought and an opportunity to hob-nob over a square meal of victuals, furnish a combination of attractions for the newspaper men far and near from the Queen City.



MR. H. P. MOORE, ACTON FREE PRESS.

Those who are not already members of the association, and who are entitled to be such under the constitution, should become so at once. It will pay in more ways than one, especially in the added zest in the actual newspaper grind which will come to all members of the craft who will suffer the infatuation for their guild, possessed by most newspaper men to a degree seldom experienced by men of other crafts, to become beaming and gushy under the influences alluded to above. The people of the country may think that I have given too much importance to this new departure of the Canadian Press Association. Not so. A glance at what has already been accomplished for the betterment of mankind in Canada by this organization, can only be intensified in the future under the new and better conditions. It is to the interest of all readers of country newspapers that their editors should thus meet for social conference and counsel about the details of their semi-public business, and they will be making a mistake if they do not urge upon their newspaper men to avail themselves of this educating influence. The better qualified for their business the members of the press are, the more cosmopolitan-minded they become, the greater will be the progress they will incite the people of their respective constituencies to engage in.



MR. A. F. PIRIE, DUNDAS BANNER.

The present executive of the Canadian Press Association is composed of gentlemen who are an honor to their guild, and with accompanying portraits I herewith append short sketches of their respective newspaper careers.

(Concluded to-morrow.)

Sellers of Property.
Blank Deeds, Blank Mortgages, Blank Transfers, House and Land Leases, etc., on hand at the REVIEW Stationery.

"HARVARD" BRONCHIAL SYRUP
CURES COUGHS COLDS CROUP HOARSENESS and every form of THROAT TROUBLE
Large Bottles, 50c. Extra Large, $1.

As the name implies, emanates from the Medical Faculty of Harvard University. The highest and best medical skill and knowledge in America were employed in devising this medicine, with a result that has even surpassed the expectations of its compounders, and has proved a wonderful cure for all throat troubles arising from sudden colds. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely free from injurious ingredients.

THE GRANDEST REMEDY OF THE AGE.
"I find it very efficacious for throat irritation." Rev. A. B. Chambers, [illegible], Ont.—"We have used it in our family and find it an excellent remedy." C. C. Colby, President of the Council, House of Commons, Ottawa.—"It is the most satisfactory medicine I have ever tried." Ross McKenzie, C.P.R. Office, Montreal.—"I cheerfully recommend it for all it claims to be." Rev. J. A. Dufresne, [illegible], Que.—"Have used it myself with the grandest results." J. C. McLaren, Montreal, Que.

JUST TRY IT ONCE
A Delightful Medicine for Children as well as for Adults.
If your dealer does not keep it send price in stamps to the proprietor,
A. J. LAWRENCE, Montreal

Best on Earth
SURPRISE
Washday
SURPRISE
EVERY WOMAN
Can save half the hard wearing-out look of wash day and be fresh and strong. Can have clothes sweet, snowy-white, never yellow. Flannels not to shrink, colors not fade, your hands chap, but soft and white. Use the "Surprise" way. No boiling or scalding. Remarkable! Try it!
Read the directions on the wrapper.
St. Croix Soap M'f'g. Co.
St. Stephen, N.B.
SOAP
Send us 25 SURPRISE wrappers and get one of our beautiful engravings.

GEO. B. SPROULE,
ARTIST & PHOTOGRAPHER,
GROUND FLOOR,
170 Charlotte-st, ... Peterborough.
FRAMES & PICTURE MOULDINGS.

MR. SHELDRAKE'S
Private
PREPARATORY SCHOOL,
FOR BOYS,
LAKEFIELD, ONTARIO.

TOOLS!
BUILDING HARDWARE!
NAILS, LOCKS, HINGES,
and all Building Hardware
Edge Tools, Saws, Files, Planes
and all Mechanics' Tools.
Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc., etc.
of the Best Quality and Lower in Price than Elsewhere
GEO. STETHEM.

TURKISH DYES
EASY TO USE.
They are Fast.
They are Beautiful.
They are Brilliant.
SOAP WON'T FADE THEM.
Have YOU used them; if not, try and be convinced.
One Package equal to two of any other make.
Canada Branch: 481 St. Paul Street, Montreal.
Send postal for Sample Card and Book of Instructions.

I took Cold,
I took Sick,
I TOOK
SCOTT'S EMULSION
RESULT:
I take My Meals,
I take My Rest,
AND I AM VIGOROUS ENOUGH TO TAKE ANYTHING I CAN LAY MY HANDS ON; getting fat too, FOR Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda NOT ONLY CURED MY Incipient Consumption BUT BUILT ME UP, AND IS NOW PUTTING FLESH ON MY BONES
AT THE RATE OF A POUND A DAY. I TAKE IT JUST AS EASILY AS I DO MILK."
Scott's Emulsion is put up only in Salmon color wrappers. Sold by all Druggists at 50c. and $1.00.
SCOTT & BOWNE, Belleville.

FOR MEN ONLY!
VIGOR–STRENGTH
For LOST or FAILING MANHOOD; General and NERVOUS DEBILITY; Weakness of Body and Mind, Effects of Errors or Excesses in Old or Young. Robust, Noble MANHOOD fully Restored. How to enlarge and strengthen WEAK, UNDEVELOPED ORGANS & PARTS of BODY. Absolutely unfailing HOME TREATMENT—Benefits in a day. Men testify from 50 States and Foreign Countries. Write them. Descriptive Book, explanation and proofs mailed (sealed) free. Address ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N.Y.

UNION CREDIT & PROTECTION ASSOCIATION.
FOR the Collection of Old and Worthless Accounts, in any part of the world, and no charges if not collected. This Association has local offices in Canada and United States. Head and general office, 60½ Adelaide-st. East, Toronto. Rooms, 10, 11, 12 and 13. O. E. COLLINS, General Manager; A. H. E. ANDREWS, Sec. Address all communications to Toronto, Ont., office. Telephone No. 2082. This is the only Association that settles accounts and advances the money to the creditor if desired.
O. E. COLLINS,
Manager
DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON,
Solicitors for the Association at Peterborough.
August 9th, 1890. d81 w

OPEN FOR INSPECTION!
A handsome and very useful line of
CASE GOODS
COMPRISING
Carver Sets,
Ladies' and Gentlemen's
COMPANIONS
These Goods are the Best English Make.
KINGAN & Co

Bookbinding!
Magazines,
Periodicals,
Illustrated Papers,
Law, Music,
and all kinds of Books Bound in the very best style of the art. First-class Material and Work. Close Prices.
REVIEW PT'G CO.
LIMITED,
BOOKBINDERS, STATIONERS & ACCOUNT BOOK MANUFACTURERS.
350 George-st.

BLYTHE MILLS,
PETERBOROUGH
The above Mills have now been thoroughly renewed upon the complete
Hungarian Roller Process
The latest improved Rolls and flour Dressing Machines from the best manufacturing firms have been put in and everything necessary added to enable her to turn out flour.
Second to None
in the Dominion. The facilities for receiving grain from farmers and for elevating and shipping are first-class. We have
A Large Feed Stone for Custom Chopping.
Chopping done satisfactorily and without delay.
Rolled Oats for Horses
Experienced horsemen are emphatic in asserting that there is nothing equal to rolled oats for horses, and to meet this demand we have had put in a machine specially adapted for this purpose.
Wheat Exchanges
Promptly attended to and
First-class Roller Flour Guaranteed.
Roller Flour, Bran, Shorts, and all kinds of Chopped Feed constantly on hand.
Highest Market Price Paid in Cash for any Quantity of Wheat.
Hilliard & Peplow.

BARAVENA MILK FOOD
FOR INFANTS is the easiest, cheapest and nearest to Mothers' Milk of any Food made.
Ask your Druggist.
THE IRELAND NATIONAL FOOD CO. LD. TORONTO

BANK of TORONTO
Capital $2,000,000 00
Reserve Fund 1,200,000 00
PETERBORO' BRANCH.
SAVINGS BANK
SPECIAL ADVANTAGES are derived by depositing money in our Savings Bank Department.
1. "ONE DOLLAR saved is one dollar earned."
2. DEPOSITS of ONE DOLLAR and upwards are received and interest allowed thereon.
3. INTEREST is added to the principal on the 31st day of May and 30th day of November, in each year.
4. MONEY bears interest from the day it is deposited with the Bank until the day of withdrawal.
5. THE DEPOSITOR is subject to no delay whatever.
6. THE SECURITY offered by this Bank is undoubted, as will be seen by the large reserve held and the amount of surplus available for depositors and note holders.
BUSINESS WITH FARMERS.
FARMERS' NOTES discounted at lowest rates.
SPECIAL ATTENTION is given to the collection of Farmers' Sale Notes, and advances made thereon.
NOTE FORMS furnished free of charge on application.
DEPOSITS.
DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS opened subject to withdrawal by cheque on demand.
SPECIAL DEPOSITS.—Deposit Receipts issued bearing interest at current rates.
JOHN L. GOWER,
Manager.
d11w-wf

Travel.

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY OF CANADA.
The direct route between the west and all points on the Lower St. Lawrence and Baie de Chaleur, Province of Quebec, also New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward, Cape Breton and the Magdalene Islands, Newfoundland and St. Pierre.
Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax daily (Sunday excepted) and run through without change between these points in 30 hours.
The through express train cars of the Intercolonial Railway are brilliantly lighted by electricity and heated by steam from the locomotive.
New and elegant Buffet Sleeping and Day Cars are run on all through express trains.
The popular summer sea bathing and fishing resorts of Canada are along the Intercolonial or are reached by that route.
Canadian, European Mail and Passenger Route.
Passengers for Great Britain or the Continent leaving Montreal on Thursday morning will join outward mail steamer at Rimouski the same evening.
The attention of shippers is directed to the superior facilities offered by this route for the transport of flour and general merchandise intended for the Eastern Provinces and New Foundland, also for shipments of grain and produce intended for the European market.
Tickets may be obtained and all information about the route, also freight and passenger rates on application to
N. WEATHERSTON,
Western Freight and Passenger Agent, 93 Rossin House Block, York street, Toronto.
D. POTTINGER,
Chief Superintendent.
Railway Office, Moncton, N.B., 2nd July, 1890. ly

CANADIAN PACIFIC Ry
PEOPLE'S POPULAR ONE WAY PARTIES
TO British Columbia
WASHINGTON
Oregon and California
Leave Toronto 11 p.m. on Fridays, as under:
1891 FEBRUARY 20 1891
MARCH 6, 20
RUNNING THROUGH TO VANCOUVER WITHOUT CHANGE
For Berths and all information, apply to nearest C.P.R. Agent.

CLARK & GIBSON
have now on view and for sale some
VERY FINE GOODS
—CONSISTING OF—
Gold and Silver Watches, Clocks and Fine Jewellery, etc.
Moderate in Price and Newest Patterns.
Ask to see their
English Oak Goods
AND
SCOTCH PEBBLE JEWELLERY
RARE, CHOICE AND BEAUTIFUL.
WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELLERY carefully repaired.
126 Hunter-st., 2 doors west of the PostOffice.

THE
CENTRAL CANADA
Loan and Savings Co.
Authorized Capital $5,000,000
Subscribed Capital 2,000,000
Paid-up Capital 300,000
Reserve Fund 190,000
Invested Funds 2,579,133.37
OFFICE—No. 437, George-st., Peterborough
DEPOSITS received at current rates of interest, paid or compounded half-yearly.
DEBENTURES issued in Currency, or Sterling, with interest coupons attached, payable in Canada or in England. Executors and Trustees are authorized by law to invest in the Debentures of this Company.
MONEY ADVANCED on Real Estate security at current rates and on favorable conditions as to repayment.
Mortgages and Municipal Debentures purchased.
GEO. A. COX,
d4we3 Managing Director

JOHN NUGENT,
CHEMIST AND DRUGGIST.
Prescriptions Carefully Compounded.
Try Nugent's Remedies for Colds, Coughs and affections of the chest and throat.
J. NUGENT,
Drug Store, 170 Hunter-st. west.

BLANK FORMS
Deeds,
Mortgages,
Home Leases,
Farm Leases,
Agreements,
Short form of Lease
Lease of Land,
Magistrates Blanks,
Division Court Blanks,
etc., etc.,
Printed on good paper and correct forms.
AT THE
REVIEW STATIONERY.

Medical.

DR. SCOTT.
OFFICE—178 Brock-st. d118w26

P. D. GOLDSMITH, M. D.
L. R. C. S., L. S. A., L. R. C. P., London, Eng.,
HAS permanently located in Peterborough. Office and residence, 196 Brock-st., formerly occupied by Mr. J. E. McWilliams.
TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d47-w35-ly

D. N. CARMICHAEL, M. D.,
C. M., L. R. C. P. Ed.
GRADUATE OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY, Fellow of Trinity Medical School, Licentiate of Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh, L. M. of Simpson's Maternity Hospital, Edinburgh. Office in Mr. Alexander's new residence one door north of the late Dr. O'Sullivan's, George-st. d1m58-wyr36

DR. B. E. McKENZIE, B. A.
Lecturer on Orthopedic Surgery in the Women's Medical College, and in Toronto University; Consulting Orthopedic Surgeon to Victoria Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto.
Diseases of the Joints and Deformities Only
Bloor-st. W. (near Yonge-st.) Toronto, Consultation from 10 to 3. On Friday and Saturday by appointment only.

DR. HOMER,
HAS removed to 214 Hunter-st., opposite Marble Works. Office upstairs.

Legal.

HATTON & WOOD.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office, corner of George and Hunter-sts., over T. Dolan & Co's. store. MONEY TO LOAN.
E. B. WOOD, B. A. G. W. HATTON.

SAWERS & STONE.
BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyances, &c. Office, Hunter-st., Peterborough.
MONEY TO LOAN.
E. B. STONE, d168-w41 C. W. SAWERS.

POUSSETTE & JOHNSTON,
BARRISTERS and SOLICITORS, 370 Water-st.
A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C. W. F. JOHNSTON.

EDWARD A. PECK.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, etc., 352 George-st., Peterborough.
Private Funds to loan at 6 per cent.

HALL & HAYES.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter-st., Peterborough next English church. Money to loan at lowest rates of interest.
E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN O'MEARA.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, &c. Office 363 George-st. d-w

JOHN BURNHAM
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office: No. 415 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont., next door north of new post office.
MONEY TO LOAN. d&w

W. H. MOORE,
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter-sts., over McClelland's Jewellery store. d115w18

G. M. ROGER.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water-st., Peterborough. d37w

DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES. Money to Loan. Office, 417 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont.
ARTHUR STEVENSON, B. A.
R. M. DENNISTOUN, B. A.

STRATTON & HALL.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, &c., Peterborough, Ont. Office—Next door to Post Office on Hunter-st.
W. A. STRATTON, LL. B. R. E. HALL.
d128

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS,
SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block, Peterborough. wed27

J. E. BELCHER.
ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George-st. d89w44

Builders and Contractors

E. WEBB,
BRICKLAYER AND CONTRACTOR. All work done substantially and expeditiously. Address E. WEBB, Peterborough. Residence, 136 Aylmer-st. lyd128

J. J. HARTLEY.
BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P. O. Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer-sts. lyd129

WM. H. McELWAIN.
CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 33. d109

W. E. WHITEHAIR.
PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 388, Peterborough P.O. d63-lyr

JAS. R. DONELL.
RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being a practical man, he trusts to be able to give patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.
yd38 JAS. R. DONELL.

Big G is acknowledged the leading remedy for Gonorrhœa & Gleet. The only safe remedy for Leucorrhœa or Whites. I prescribe it and feel safe in recommending it to all sufferers.
A. J. STONER, M. D., DECATUR, ILL.
Sold by Druggists. PRICE $1.00.
Cures in 1 TO 5 DAYS. Guaranteed not to cause Stricture. Mfd only by The Evans Chemical Co. TORONTO, CAN.
G. A. SCHOFIELD, Agt., Peterborough d 89-ly

DIARIES!
POCKET and OFFICE
Diaries
for 1891!
Twenty Sizes
to select from in
CLOTH and LEATHER
BINDINGS
—AT THE—
REVIEW Stationery

If YOU WISH
to Advertise
Anything
Anywhere
at Any time
WRITE TO
GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.
No. 10 Spruce Street,
NEW YORK.

SOCIETY,
COMMERCIAL
AND BOOK
PRINTING!
First-Class Work at Low Prices.
Review Office
350 GEORGE ST.

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE.
February 1st. 1891.

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
5 00 a m 6 00 p m	Montreal and East, via O. & Q. R.	[illegible] a m 9 00 p m
11 30 a m 11 30 p m	Toronto and West, via O. & Q. R.	5 15 p m 9 00 p m
	Grand Trunk, East & West	1 15 p m
	do East	8 30 p m
10 00 a m 5 30 p m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west.	8 00 a m 4 30 p m
8 30 a m 5 15 p m	Millbrook and Port Hope, do do	11 15 a m 8 30 p m
8 25 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings	1 00 p m
4 00 p m	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	11 15 a m
10 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clydesdale, Paudash and Cheddar, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 30 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Dummer, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays
	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do do	4 30 p m
	British Mails per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	9 00 p m
	Via New York, Mondays
12 noon	Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	4 30 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Australia, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria, (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings Bank, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

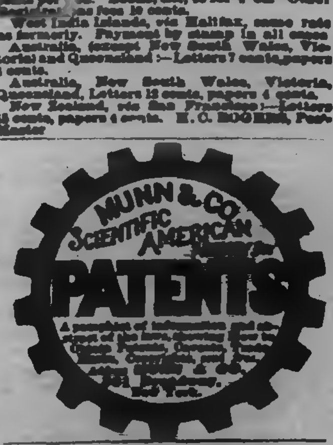
Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxembourg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey. And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before. Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil British Guiana, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Port Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books, &c., 4c for 4 oz. Other Registration fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Prepaid by stamp in all cases. Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland,—Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents. Australia, New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents. H. C. ROGERS, Post Master.



WEDDING CARDS.
LATEST STYLES AT THE
Review Stationery Store.

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XXV.—No. 40. PETERBOROUGH, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1891. TEN CENTS A WEEK

Probabilities.
Cloudy, with rain or snow; wind shifting to northerly, and weather turning a little colder.

SWISS
Needle Work
EMBROIDERY.

We take pleasure in annoucing that we have just received Ex. SS. Sardinian) direct from the manufactory in St. Gall, Switzerland, our new Spring collection of Needle Work Embroidery for the season of 1891. We placed unusual large orders for these goods when the stitch prices were at the lowest point. The value is exceptionally good. The designs were selected with the greatest care and we think will merit your approval. Special discount allowed to customers purchasing in quantities of a dozen yards and upwards.

ROBERT FAIR,
Sign of the Golden Lion,
383 George Street, Peterborough.
Ontario (144 and Bell Telephone (149).

KID GLOVES!
KID GLOVES!

W. W. JOHNSTON has just received a splendid assortment of
Black and Colored
Kid Gloves
at 85c. per pair.
The Best in the Market at the Price.
SPECIAL VALUE IN
Bed Room Towels and Kitchen Towelling.
Call and see our
ART MUSLIN
at 18c. per yard.
CRYSTAL BLOCK
410 George-st.

Musical.

ORGAN, PIANOFORTE and SINGING
DR. DAVIES.
Organist of St. John's church, late of Christ Church Cathedral and of St. James's Cathedral, Toronto, receives pupils at his residence, McDonnel-st. At home each day from 9 till 10 a. m. and from 2 till 3 p. m. to make engagements, etc. d65-1m

Wood and Coal.

COAL AND WOOD.
THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.
W. B. FERGUSON,
Telephone Connection. Agent

COAL! COAL!
THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of
COAL AND WOOD,
which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Second Cash.
ddw JAMES STEVENSON.

PETERBOROUGH WATER CO.
OFFICE - - 24 HUNTER-ST.
W. HENDERSON, Superintendent.
W. ADAMS, Collector.
All water rates and accounts must be paid at the office. Mr. Adams will be in the office from 3 to 5 p.m. every day

Awnings.
Tents.
AND Sails.

ALFRED KINGSCOTE has opened out in [illegible] on Water-st, opposite the market, where he is prepared to do all kinds of Awning, Tent and Sail making.
Good Work and Low Prices. Remember the place
A. KINGSCOTE,
d88-1yr No. 344 Water-st.

EDWIN ELCOME,
TAXIDERMIST
and Dealer in Eyes, Artificial Leave and Frostings.
BIRDS, ANIMALS, FISH and SNAKES stuffed and Mounted in and out of cases in the best lifelike style at lowest prices. DEER'S HEADS a specialty. A stock of foreign and native birds always on hand for sale.
Residence, No. 176 Harvey-st., Peterborough d114-w20-ly

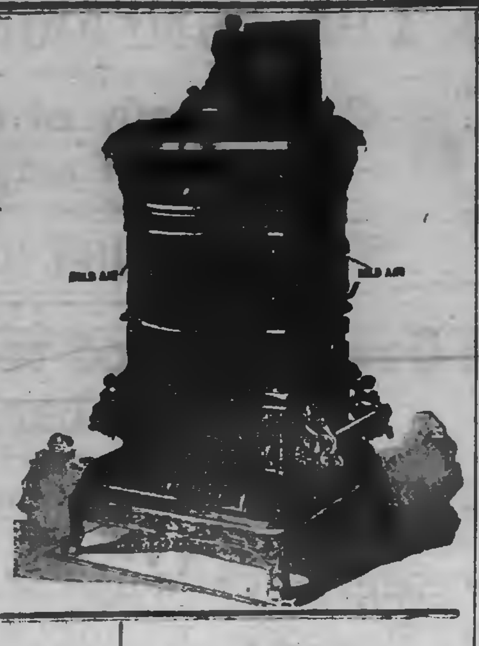
STOVES.

We have a few New and Second Hand Coal Heaters left and are running them off cheap.

LAMPS.

Beautiful designs, all styles, reduced in price.

W. G. BAIN & CO.
George-st.



Wants.

WANTED.
A GOOD KITCHEN GIRL, able to cook. Apply at 287 George-st. THOS. H. PRATT. 3549

WANTED.
A GOOD LIVE MAN for Life Insurance for Peterborough and vicinity. Address or call on J. L. GALE, Grand Central Hotel. 3480

For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE.
A QUANTITY OF PAPER CUTTINGS and shavings. Apply at REVIEW Office.

TO LET.
Store and Dwelling
No. 281 George-st., now occupied by J.J. Turner. Good stand for grocery and boarding house. STORE and DWELLING No. 283 George-st. DWELLING HOUSES No. 88 Hunter-st., and 18 and 20 Queen-st. JOHN J. LUNDY. dif

REMOVAL.
DR. CARMICHAEL
has removed to his new office and residence, corner of Water and Brock-sts., (opposite the Court House. d148-w18-3mo

MULHOLLAND & ROPER
BANKERS AND
INSURANCE AGENTS
Banking Department.
Deposit Accounts opened and Notes discounted at short dates or for twelve months if required. Special attention given to the purchase and collection of Farmers' Sale Notes. Drafts drawn on Merchants' Bank of Canada payable in New York, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and at any of its Branches in the Dominion. Cheques on other Banks cashed.
Four to Five per cent. allowed on deposits repayable on demand.
BANKING HOURS.—9.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m.
Insurance Department.
MR. FELIX BROWNSCOMBE is a partner in and manager of this department.
Careful attention given to Fire, Accident and Plate Glass Insurance.
The following companies are represented:—
London and Lancashire, City of London, Phoenix of Brooklyn, Caledonian, Royal Canadian, Agricultural, Montreal Plate Glass, Mutual Accident and Plate Glass, and Norwich and London Accident.
OFFICE HOURS.—9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Bell Telephone Co.,
OF CANADA.
Capital, - $1,500,000.00.
Head Office, MONTREAL.
AND. ROBERTSON, :— President.
C. F. SISE, — Vice-Pres. and Man'g. Dir.
C. P. SCLATER, Secy.-Treas.
HUGH C. BAKER, Man., Ont. Dep., Hamilton.
300 EXCHANGES.
Long distance lines give unequalled facilities for talking between cities, towns and villages.
If you wish to speak to Kingston, Belleville Port Hope, Lindsay, Lakefield, Millbrook, Omemee, Toronto, Hamilton, etc., use the wires of the
BELL TELEPHONE Co.,
H. W. KENT,
d46-6mo Local Manager

Bill Heads,
Note Heads,
Letter Heads,
TAGS, ENVELOPES,
COUNTER HEADS
and every description of Business Printing executed at city prices at the
Review Office,
340 George Street.

AT
TURNBULL'S

Owing to so many covered shapes being worn this season we have a quantity of untrimmed Felt Hats and Bonnets left of all styles for Ladies and Children which we have put together in one lot and are clearing out at

25c. each.

This includes everything. Our friends may know what bargains await them as many of them have been sold during the season at from $1.00 to $1.50. Remember you get the choice of this lot for 25c.

We are showing in one of our windows Spring Prints, which are but an indication of the quantities of handsome patterns we have inside.

Our Spring Flanneletts have arrived. The patterns are new and darker, what so many people want. They are very pretty. Quantities of new goods opened every day. We show a handsome range of new shades in Dress Goods suitable for Wedding Outfits.

Further particulars of what we will offer this Spring as special inducements next week.

J. C. TURNBULL
George & Simcoe-sts., Peterborough.

A. CLEGG,
Funeral Director.
Ware rooms, - - 427 George-st.
Residence, - - 14 Brock-st.
S. CLEGG, Residence, 226 Stewart street. Telephone.

For You!
Reduction in prices of all Cloths. Suits and Overcoats to order for less money than ever to clear out the balance of winter stock.
Order now.
D. CAMERON & Co.
Tailors and Clothiers, 424 George-st.

LADIES' JERSEYS
In all the Leading Styles
at Lowest Prices at
PORT HOPE KNITTING WORKS
382 George-st.

MONEY TO LOAN.
A LARGE amount of private funds has been placed in my hands for loaning on farm security.
J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM,
d662 Solicitor, 139 Hunter-st.

HALL, INNES & Co.
GREAT REDUCTIONS
IN PRICES OF MANTLES
AND
TRIMMED MILLINERY
After a most successful season's trade in this department we will offer during January, the balance of our stock of Jackets, Mantles, Mantle Materials and Ulsters, also all Trimmed and Untrimmed Millinery,
at Greatly Reduced Prices.
From all who have not already made their purchases in these lines, we respectfully solicit a call as we will make it to their advantage to do so.
Sweeping Reductions in
Dress Stuffs, Shawls, Wool Squares and every description of Winter Goods.
Hall, Innes & Co

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1891.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

'TWAS STRONG AS SATAN'S

BLUE BLAZES IN COURT FROM WHISKY TRUST FLUID.

Paper, Corks, Towels and Fingers Burned at Its Very Touch—Startling Discoveries.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—There was more fire in the package said to have been given by Whisky Trust Gibson to De War, the agent employed to destroy Shufeldt's non-Trust distillery, than even the most suspicious and credulous among the prosecuting witnesses were prepared for. They made an official examination of it before Judge Blodgett this morning. Attorney William Barry of counsel for Gibson, was present, as he had urged the examination. So were District Attorney Milchrist, Inspector Summerville, Special Agent Brooks, Marshal Hitchcock and Captain Stuart.

Opening the 6x12 inch package they found a pint bottle full of light-bluish fluid. The cork was drawn with some difficulty. Upon a piece of paper lying on the table a single drop was poured. The instant it came in contact with the paper there was a flash, a stream of fire shot out and the room was filled with suffocating sulphuric flames. So quickly dip the paper burn that a bucket of water had to be thrown on to prevent the fire from communicating with other materials.

In attempting to cork the stuff up again the cork was ignited. A towel was thrown over the bottle, and the towel caught fire burned up before the fire could be put out. As soon as the crowd succeeded in extinguishing the fire and getting the fluid safely in hand a rush was made for the door, the room was so filled with blue smoke.

United States District Attorney Milchrist was greatly excited, and in answer to the question exclaimed: "What is it? Great Scott! Can't you smell it? Look at my hands!"

"What do you suppose a whole pint of that stuff would do, when a single drop of it nearly set the whole building on fire?"

The strong fume emitted by the fluid proved its principal ingredient to be phosphorus. Some of it had gotten on the hands of Captain Stuart and Mr. Milchrist, and it continued for a long time to send forth a blue smoke.

Mr. Milchrist said of the result of the experiment: "It fastens the chain of evidence securely around Gibson and makes it possible to indict him for attempted arson."

The market value of the trust certificates found in the satchel Gibson had prepared—an alleged reward to De War, was $15,000—just what De War swears that Gibson promised him.

WITH A BABE IN HER ARMS.

For Two Hours a Mother Walked the Streets of New York.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—Mrs. Rosie Markovitz, who resides with her husband at No. 95 Orchard-street, left her house intending to visit her brother, Jacob Grossa, who lives in Eighty-fourth-street, near Second-avenue. She walked to the Seventieth-street station of the L road, and then, removing some of the covering from around the baby's head and face, took a look at it. The child's eyes were closed; it lay motionless and quiet, and her crooning words of endearment brought forth no answering sign. Then she bent down her head and kissed the little one's face.

A piercing cry was the first intimation that the others upon the platform received that anything unusual had happened. Then they saw the poor mother fall upon her knees and place the child upon the platform. Stooping over the babe she lifted its little head between her hands and began to kiss it frantically. The baby was dead.

The police officials informed her that she could not take her dead baby home until she had secured a coroner's permit to remove it.

So for over two hours, and during a journey of more than two miles, Mrs. Markovitz was compelled to carry in her weary, benumbed arms the body of her dead baby before she found a coroner at home.

Black Skin on a White Body.

READING, Pa., Feb. 16.—Will the skin of a black man, engrafted upon a white man's body, turn white? That is the question Dr. John Ege of this city is solving. He has just grafted 15 small pieces of cuticle from a Boston negro's arm to the spaces that will not heal on Joel Seal's white leg, which has been sore for two years, and which did not readily assimilate all of the 30 pieces of healthy white skin planted thereon Jan. 10. Ten of the white particles did grow, though some of them are from the size of a pin-head to two inches in diameter.

If the black skin should grow white on a white body it would give rise to entirely new theories in surgery.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

THE MOTION TO CENSURE THE TIPPERARY EXECUTIVE

Defeated by Straight Party Vote—Parnell and McCarthy Exchange Words—Killed in a Duel—The Alleged Jack the Ripper on Trial.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—A daring robbery was committed here to-day. A stylishly-dressed stranger accosted in the National Provincial Bank of England a clerk from the London branch of the Bank of Scotland. The clerk was standing at the public counter of the National Provincial Bank making a deposit. When spoken to by the stranger the clerk turned towards him and an accomplice snatched the wallet containing bonds and checks worth many thousand pounds and ran out of the bank. He has not been captured.

JACK THE RIPPER.

The Alleged Murderer of Carroty Nell Arraigned in Court.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—The latest discovery made by the Metropolitan police in connection with the Whitechapel murder of Friday morning last, by which a woman known as "Carroty Nell" lost her life, bids fair to connect the man Sadler now in custody with this "Jack the Ripper" crime.

A knife was traced to the possession of Sadler, who as stated was a fireman on board a steamer which arrived from Turkey. The police have no doubt that Sadler was the murderer of "Carroty Nell."

The prisoner was placed in the dock this afternoon. His face was dirty and scratched. He seemed to be utterly careless as to what happened to him and is apparently entirely composed. He kept his hand in his pocket and glanced calmly around him as if he was a disinterested party. During the examination a man testified that he had seen Sadler in company with the murdered girl on Thursday night. As the witness was making his statement the prisoner watched him sharply, and exclaimed, addressing the man in the witness box, "Be careful about what you are saying." Continuing, the witness described in detail the visit of Sadler to a small coffee shop. Sadler, according to this witness, sat in the coffee house with the murdered girl and seemed to be quarrelling with her. Sadler, the witness said, claimed to have been robbed. Finally Sadler and "Carroty Nell" left the coffee shop separately. Upon the conclusion of the testimony the prisoner was remanded until Feb. 24.

Further details in regard to the blood-stained knife in possession of the police show Sadler sold the weapon to a sailor on Friday, the day of the murder. Opinions differ as to whether Sadler is "Jack the Ripper."

To avoid trouble the police transferred Sadler to the police court during the night, hoping thereby to avoid a vast crowd of people, mostly women. The women are eager for a sight of the prisoner. Wild threats of lynching and tearing the prisoner to pieces were uttered by the most excited of those females. When the man was removed to the police court an immense force of police was employed, and every precaution necessary was taken to prevent the Whitechapel mob from lynching the prisoner.

The witness admitted the prisoner's face was scratched and bloody when he was seen in the coffee shop. The prisoner was remanded until Feb. 24.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

The Motion of Censure Defeated in the Imperial Parliament.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—In the House of Commons to-day John Morley moved that the House adopt a vote censuring the Irish executive for its action in the Tipperary prosecutions. Mr. Morley's motion declared that such action on the part of the executive was calculated to bring the law into contempt and was a violation of the rights of citizens. Mr. Morley's motion was rejected 320 to 245.

The announcement of the figures was received with prolonged Conservative cheers. Interest in the debate was lessened by the limitation of the line of assault on the Government to the incidents at Tipperary already thrashed out. For the first time since their rupture the Irish members were grouped all together.

Parnell exchanged words with McCarthy and Sexton but ignored Healy. The division on Morley's motion was on strict party lines, Gladstone having paired and the whole Irish party supporting Morley. Mr. Morley opened the debate with a strong denunciation of the conduct of the police at Tipperary and the vindication of the Irish executive. Mr. Gladstone supported Morley's motion in a vigorous speech. Mr. Balfour and Mr. Smith, First Lord of the Treasury, opposed the motion.

Mr. Gladstone felt indisposed and after speaking left the House. His illness is not serious. He is suffering from over-fatigue.

Killed in a Duel.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 16.—A duel with pistols has been fought at the village of Krasno, Selo., between Prince Vadlolsky and Lieut. Tomonossow, officer of the Imperial Guard. Tomonossow was killed. The affair was due to a quarrel arising after both had drank wine freely.

Labor Troubles Abroad.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—The outlook of the dockers' strike here and at Cardiff is serious. The lightermen here started to unload 20,000 frozen sheep to-day but soon afterwards withdrew, alleging their lives were in danger from violence threatened by the strikers.

Padlewski's Fate.

SOFIA, Feb. 16.—A Bulgarian newspaper says the body of Padlewski, who was charged with the murder of General Seliverstoff in Paris, has been found half devoured by wolves between Philippopolis and Kalanlik. The body was identified by documents found in the pockets.

Cable Briefs.

A shipment of 38 natives of East Africa arrived at Hamburg to-day and will enter the service of the Woermann line of steamships as firemen. This is announced as the first experiment for utilizing a semi-savage people in this description of labor.

A terrible storm has been raging on the Schleswig coast and large quantities of snow have fallen. The thawing snow and ice along the Baltic are causing disastrous floods, and at Revel and several other exposed ports the situation is exceedingly dangerous.

Sir Charles Tupper's Narrow Escape.

HALIFAX, N.S., Feb. 16.—Sir Charles Tupper, Canadian High Commissioner, after a speech at the political demonstration here on Saturday night left on a special train for Toronto, where he was to appear at a Conservative demonstration.

The tier of the engine's driving wheel broke near Sackville, N.B., this morning and the [illegible] [illegible]

A LUCKY ESCAPE.

A Moulder Struck By a M.C.R. Engine and Hurled Through the Air.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—Saturday afternoon as the Michigan Central express was nearing Glanworth the engine struck a man and hurled him through the air to the fence. The engineer stopped the train and backed up to where the accident occurred. The man who was struck by the engine was standing with two companions placidly winding a handkerchief over his left hand, and remarked when the engineer asked if he was hurt, "It never touched me." The man, who gave his name as George Wright, a moulder belonging to Hamilton, was under the influence of liquor. His only injury consists of two broken fingers.

Smothered the Baby.

WEST MCGILLIVRAY, Feb. 16.—Mrs. William Steeper had been on a visit to her mother in Clandeboye with her one month old infant, and on returning, the day being cold, she wrapped the little one too closely, in her solicitude to keep it warm. On arriving at Pumfrey's hotel she undid the wrap, and found with horror that her child had been smothered to death on the journey.

After the Irish Organ.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—At a meeting of the McCarthyite members of parliament to-day it was resolved to acquiesce in the proposition to devote the remainder of the league fund, £36,000, to the benefit of the evicted tenants provided the money is distributed by the Tenants' Defence Association. It was also resolved to endeavor to secure by legal means control of United Ireland.

TORONTO TOPICS.

TORONTO, Feb. 17.—The finals for the Ontario Tankard begins to-morrow. The four large rinks will be occupied for the first draw. As there are 16 champions from the different groups and the contests are two-rink ones 16 sheets of ice will be required for the eight preliminary games. Four events will take place in Victoria Rink, six at the Granite, four at Prospect Park and two at the Caledonian. The four matches in the afternoon will be played at Victoria and Granite. The two semi-finals will take place at the Victoria Rink Thursday morning, if the Granites still remain, and the grand final in the afternoon. The draws take place this evening at 9.30 at Mr Russell's office. It is just possible that a lack of ice will cause a postponement of the event.

The master in chambers yesterday gave judgment in the alimony suit of Zybach v Zybach, on the motion for particulars, ordering the defendant to give particulars of the charges of improper conduct alleged in the statement of defence against plaintiff.

Judgment was also given in the libel action of F. H. Sangster against The Empire, dismissing with costs the motion for security for costs. This is the action in which the plaintiff, a barrister of Stouffville, sues The Empire for $10,000 damages for the publication of what he alleges was a false report of proceedings before a magistrate in which he was charged with fraud but the charge dismissed.

The final motion in the quo warranto proceedings instituted some time ago, against the Mayor of Ottawa, was made before the master in chambers yesterday, when he was asked to unseat Thomas Birkett, hardware merchant, from the position of Mayor of the City of Ottawa, and for a new election. The ground alleged why Mr. Birkett should be unseated is that at the time of the election he had an interest in a contract for the supply of hardware to the city. The argument of the case occupied most of the day, and judgment was reserved.

Ex-Deputy Chief John Macpherson reached the end of a long and useful life on Sunday evening at 77. His death took place at his late residence, 294 Seaton-street, and was quite unexpected. On Saturday Mr. Macpherson was apparently in the best of health, taking his customary walk and eating heartily. On Sunday he partook of a good dinner as usual, and on going out between 5 and 6 to look after his pet dogs he was suddenly seized with a fainting fit and required assistance to reach the house. Later he became unconscious and died at the hour named. He was in his 80th year.

The Drygoods section of the Board of Trade met yesterday afternoon, Mr. S. Caldecott in the chair. The business tax was discussed and it was resolved to attend in a body the meeting of the sub-committee of the Executive Committee of the City Council, to be held this afternoon to consider the question.

AMERICAN WHEELMAN.

Between the L. A. W. and Canadian Wheelmen—The League Membership.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The National Assembly of the Board of Officers of the League of American Wheelmen was held here to-day. Secretary Bassett's report showed the present membership to be 18,113, an increase of 5710. There are 441 ladies on the list. The Membership Committee reported 14 cases of doubtful membership had been considered with the expulsions and stated that petty jealousies in the ranks of the league led to many useless protests. The president, Mr. Dunn, in his annual report, recommends that steps be taken to secure a more complete harmony between the L. A. W. and Canadian wheelmen.

President Dunn was re-elected. W. S. Brewster of St. Louis was chosen treasurer. The secretary holds over. The next assembly will be held in February, 1892.

They Wanted to Boom the Game.

BOSTON, Feb. 16.—A meeting of the Board of the Amateur Athletic Union was held here Saturday. The disqualified lacrosse players, including the Montreal Club men, who offended the sabtere A. A. U. by playing at the recent Madison-square Garden tournament, were, with the exception of the Druids, reinstated because they sent in a satisfactory explanation of their action, to the effect that they merely played in the tournament to boom the game and were ignorant of any possible violation of the rules. The Druids will probably explain their case in short order.

The matter of the indoor championship meeting came up for a long consideration. The eyes of the managers seem to have been turned toward Buffalo, and they have appointed E. C. Carter to look over the ground and see what the Buffalo Athletic Club is willing to do toward managing the affair.

Sale of Trotting Stock.

BUFFALO, Feb. 16.—The biggest sale of trotting horseflesh ever recorded took place to-day in this city, whereby General Rufus L. Howard sold the entire stock of his farm, including the celebrated stallion Wilkie Collins, by George Wilkes (2.22), valued at $60,000, and 90 other good mares, stallions and youngsters, to W. J. White, Cleveland millionaire, for $85,000.

Hamilton sports lost quite a bundle on a cocking main with Rochester men Sunday morning near Buffalo. The wager was $500 and $50 on each battle. Rochester won 4 out of 7. The Spectator says that between $1400 and $1500 was lost on the result.

The Dead.

A cable despatch from Paris announces that Admiral Barriere is dead.

News of the death, at the age of 69, of Rev. Father Pandosy, at the Okanagan Indian Mission, was received yesterday at Victoria, B.C. He was a native of Marseilles and a son of the famous Admiral Pandosy. He entered the missionary service of the Catholic Church 45 years ago, joining the Order of Oblate Fathers. He was looked on by relatives as a supernatural being on account of his large knowledge of medicine. On entering the church he gave up a fortune of 2,000,000f and a high social position. Three days ago he was buried in an Indian village. His body was encased in a wood coffin. He devoted nearly half a century of his life to the redemption of the Indians.

When Greek Meets Yank.

GLASGOW, Feb. 16.—A wrestling match for the championship of the world took place here to-night between Antonio Pierre of Greece and Tom Cannon of America. Pierre won.

WITH A RED HOT POKER

ENDED HIS WIFE'S LIFE IN A SHOCKING MANNER.

Arrest and Confession of the Murderer—The Crime is the Result of Almost a Lifetime of Drunkenness, and the Children of the McMullens Have Inherited the Vice.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 17.—The village of Shavertown, five miles from this city, was the scene of a horrible murder about midnight last night. Edward McMullen killed his wife with a red hot poker, wounding and mutilating her in a shocking manner. McMullen is about 30 years ago and so was his wife. They had been drinking all day yesterday as was their custom after pay day. In the evening they were alone in the house and were heard by the neighbors quarrelling all the evening. No attention was paid to this, but about midnight shrieks were heard coming from the house, which were soon followed by groans. Soon after McMullen came running out of the house shouting and cursing like one insane. When the neighbors ventured in they found the woman lying on the floor, with every particle of clothing torn from her body, which was burned and mutilated in a horrible manner. McMullen had evidently taken a red hot poker, beaten her on the head and thrust it into her body and pressed it into her flesh in dozens of places.

When aroused and told that his wife was dead, he said, "I know it; didn't I kill her myself?"

The crime is the outcome of almost lifelong drunkenness. Not only have McMullen and the murdered woman been drunkards for years but their children have inherited the vice. Two years ago, in the same house, their only daughter, a girl of 20 years, was burned to death with her infant child while lying in bed in a drunken stupor, while her father and mother were in the next room in the same condition.

The scene, as described by Mrs. McGowan and her daughter and the neighbors who first entered the house, was horrifying. The woman, with some fragments of clothing around her waist, was lying on the floor of the dirty room in a condition beyond words to describe. She was still breathing. Around her a great pool of blood had collected. The walls were spattered with it, and the few bits of furniture daubed red. The murderer was probably half an hour about his butchery, for the poker must have been heated again and again. The house was filled with the odor of burning flesh.

It is believed that the drunken ruffian was stirring the fire with the poker. The couple had been quarrelling, the woman said something that angered him and he wheeled around and struck her on the head with the poker, knocking her down. He struck her again while she was prostrate.

Stupefied with liquor and the blows, she only laid there and shrieked. A fiendish determination came into his head. He thrust the poker into the stove, and when it was red hot turned to the woman on the floor, tore off her clothing and laid the glowing iron on her flesh. Again and again the hot iron was applied. It grew cool and he thrust it once more into the fire, and when it was again red hot he returned to the groaning, dying woman, and tearing what remained of her clothes off thrust it into her body.

Again the poker was heated and again and again applied to her quivering form, but she was probably then far beyond feeling pain. He then discarded the poker and took up a pair of tongs. They were found covered with blood to the handle. The fiend made them red hot, too, and then plunged them into the gaping wounds he had already made tore and mangled the sizzling flesh with his new implement of torture.

From every wound blood had streamed. Everywhere around the room where he had laid his reeking hands on the walls or furniture they left red stains.

When at last his fearful work was done he turned and fled from the house reeling in his drunkenness and frenzy.

A STRANGE TRAGEDY.

The Story of "The Bells" Recalled by a Murder in Westphalia.

BERLIN, Feb. 16.—A horrible murder, which recalls in some of its features the motive and method of the Erckmann-Chatrian story, "Le Juif Polonais," or "The Bells," as it has been made familiar to English audiences by Mr. Irving, is reported from the village of Diepholz in Westphalia.

The victim was a young woman named Margaret Krausm, the daughter of a farmer who lives in Damme. She was waylaid and murdered in a forest, on her way home from the railway station at Diepholz.

A gendarme discovered the body and rode off for help. The first cottage that he reached was that of a woodcutter named Rotsky. The officer knocked at the door, which was opened by Rotsky's wife, who explained that her husband was not in, but she expected him very shortly. Almost immediately he came up and his appearance at once aroused the gendarme's suspicion. His clothes were stained with blood. He was at once charged with the crime and was so surprised that he made a confession on the spot.

He explained that the girl had called at the house an hour before and asked him to accompany her on her walk through the forest, explaining that she was afraid to go alone, as she was carrying a large sum of money.

Rotsky refused to comply with her request, and as soon as she left he took another path which brought him out at a lonely place ahead of her. There he lay in wait and when she came up demanded the money, and on her refusing to give it to him he murdered her. Had he then destroyed her body by throwing it into a lime pit and escaping detection, growing rich and respected on the proceeds, only to perish miserably by the awful weight of remorse, the resemblance to "Le Juif Polonais" would have been complete.

The Good White Czar.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 16.—The Rabbi Marcus and a Jewish physician named Chamanovetch living in Grodno have been arrested and exiled from that province for two years for sending to the Government, in behalf of the Jewish community, a petition demanding redress for an outrage committed by a Russian doctor named Granvaski, who was charged with having branded the word "thief" in three languages on the forehead of a Jewish boy who was accused of having stolen a small quantity of fruit.

A Naked Lamp, Fire, Doom.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., Feb. 16.—The Meyer mine, three miles from this place, is on fire. An employe dropped a naked lamp which is thought to have caused an explosion. Four men are understood to be entombed and there is but little prospect of their being rescued.

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XXV.—No. 40. PETERBOROUGH, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1891. TEN CENTS A WEEK

Probabilities.
Cloudy, with rain or snow; wind shifting to northerly, and weather turning a little colder.

SWISS Needle Work EMBROIDERY.

We take pleasure in annoucing that we have just received Ex. SS. Sardinian) direct from the manufactory in St. Gall, Switzerland, our new Spring collection of Needle Work Embroidery for the season of 1891. We placed unusual large orders for these goods when the stitch prices were at the lowest point. The value is exceptionally good. The designs were selected with the greatest care and we think will merit your approval. Special discount allowed to customers purchasing in quantities of a dozen yards and upwards.

ROBERT FAIR,

Sign of the Golden Lion,
383 George Street, Peterborough.
Ontario (114 and Bell Telephone (145).

KID GLOVES!
KID GLOVES!

W. W. JOHNSTON

has just received a complete assortment of

Black and Colored

Kid Gloves

at 85c. per pair.
The Best in the Market at the Price.

SPECIAL VALUE IN
Bed Room Towels and Kitchen Towelling.
Call and see our

ART MUSLIN
at 18c. per yard.
CRYSTAL BLOCK
410 George st.

Musical.

ORGAN, PIANOFORTE and SINGING
DR. DAVIES,

Organist of St. John's church, late of Christ Church Cathedral and of St. James' Cathedral, Toronto, receives pupils at his residence, 45 McDonnel-st. At home each day from 9 till 10 a. m. and from 2 till 3 p. m. to make engagements, etc. d45-1m

Wood and Coal.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.
W. B. FERGUSON,
Telephone Connection. Agent

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of
COAL AND WOOD,
which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
d&w JAMES STEVENSON.

PETERBOROUGH WATER CO.
OFFICE - - 86 HUNTER-ST.
W. HENDERSON, Superintendent.
F. ADAMS, Collector.
All water rates and accounts must be paid at the office. Mr. Adams will be in the office from 2 to 5 p.m. every day

Awnings.
Tents.
AND Sails.

ALFRED KINGSCOTE has opened out in Dumble's Block, on Water-st., opposite the market, where he is prepared to do all kinds of Awning, Tent and Sail making.
Good Work and Low Prices. Remember the place
A. KINGSCOTE,
d88-1yr No. 344 Water-st.

EDWIN ELCOME,
TAXIDERMIST
and Dealer in Eyes, Artificial Leave and Frostings.
BIRDS, ANIMALS, FISH and SNAKES stuffed and Mounted in and out of cases in the best lifelike style at lowest prices. DEER'S HEADS a specialty. A stock of foreign and native birds always on hand for sale.
Residence, No. 170 Harvey-st., Peterborough
d114-w6-ly

STOVES.

We have a few New and Second Hand Coal Heaters left and are running them off cheap.

LAMPS.

Beautiful designs, all styles, reduced in price.

W. G. BAIN & CO.

George-st.

Wants.

WANTED.
A GOOD KITCHEN GIRL, able to cook. Apply at 337 George-st. THOS. H. PRATT. 3d46

WANTED.
A GOOD LIVE MAN for Life Insurance for Peterborough and vicinity. Address or call on J. L. GALE, Grand Central Hotel. 3d39

For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE,
A QUANTITY OF PAPER CUTTINGS and shavings. Apply at REVIEW Office.

TO LET.

Store and Dwelling
No. 241 George-st., now occupied by J.J. Turner. Good stand for grocery and boarding house. STORE and DWELLING No. 263 George-st. DWELLING HOUSES No. 81 Hunter-st., and 18 and 20 Queen-st. JOHN J. LUNDY. dtf

REMOVAL.

DR. CARMICHAEL
has removed to his new office and residence, corner of Water and Brock-sts., (opposite the Court House. d146-w52-3mo

MULHOLLAND & ROPER

BANKERS AND INSURANCE AGENTS.

Banking Department.

Deposit Accounts opened and Notes discounted at short dates or for twelve months if required. Special attention given to the purchase and collection of Farmers' Sale Notes. Drafts drawn on Merchants' Bank of Canada payable in New York, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and at any of its Branches in the Dominion. Cheques on other Banks cashed.
Four to Five per cent. allowed on deposits repayable on demand.
BANKING HOURS.—9 30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m

Insurance Department.

MR. FELIX BROWNSCOMBE is a partner in and manager of this department.
Careful attention given to Fire, Accident and Plate Glass Insurance.
The following companies are represented:—
London and Lancashire, City of London, Phoenix of Brooklyn, Caledonian, Royal Canadian, Agricultural, Montreal Plate Glass, Mutual Accident and Plate Glass, and Norwich and London Accident.
OFFICE HOURS.—9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Bell Telephone Co.,

OF CANADA.
Capital, - $1,500,000.00.
Head Office, MONTREAL.
AND. ROBERTSON, :— President.
C. F. SISE, — Vice-Pres. and Man'g. Dir.
C. P. SCLATER, Secy.-Treas.
HUGH C. BAKER, Man., Ont. Dep., Hamilton.

300 EXCHANGES.

Long distance lines give unequalled facilities for talking between cities, towns and villages.
If you wish to speak to Kingston, Belleville Port Hope, Lindsay, Lakefield, Millbrook, Omemee, Toronto, Hamilton, etc., use the wires of the
BELL TELEPHONE Co.,
H. W. KENT,
d46-6mo Local Manager

Bill Heads,
Note Heads,
Letter Heads,
TAGS, ENVELOPES,
COUNTER HEADS
and every description of Business Printing executed at city prices at the
Review Office,
340 George Street.

—AT—

TURNBULL'S

Owing to so many covered shapes being worn this season we have a quantity of untrimmed Felt Hats and Bonnets left of all styles for Ladies and Children which we have put together in one lot and are clearing out at

25c. each.

This includes everything. Our friends may know what bargains await them as many of them have been sold during the season at from $1.00 to $1.50. Remember you get the choice of this lot for 25c.

We are showing in one of our windows Spring Prints, which are but an indication of the quantities of handsome patterns we have inside.

Our Spring Flanneletts have arrived. The patterns are new and darker, what so many people want. They are very pretty. Quantities of new goods opened every day. We show a handsome range of new shades in Dress Goods suitable for Wedding Outfits.

Further particulars of what we will offer this Spring as special inducements next week.

J. C. TURNBULL

George & Simcoe-sts., Peterborough.

A. CLEGG,
Funeral Director.
Ware rooms, - - 427 George-st.
Residence, - 15 Benson-st.
A. CLEGG, Residence, 206 Stewart street. Telephone.

For You!

Reduction in prices of all Cloths. Suits and Overcoats to order for less money than ever to clear out the balance of winter stock.
— Order now.
D. CAMERON & Co.
Tailors and Clothiers, 434 George-st.

LADIES' JERSEYS

In all the Leading Styles at Lowest Prices at
PORT HOPE KNITTING WORKS
382 George-st.

MONEY TO LOAN.
A LARGE amount of private funds has been placed in my hands for loaning on farm security.
J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM,
d4w2 Solicitor, 122 Hunter-st.

HALL, INNES & Co.

GREAT REDUCTIONS
IN PRICES OF MANTLES
AND
TRIMMED MILLINERY

After a most successful season's trade in this department we will offer during January, the balance of our stock of Jackets, Mantles, Mantle Materials and Ulsters, also all Trimmed and Untrimmed Millinery,
at Greatly Reduced Prices.
From all who have not already made their purchases in these lines, we respectfully solicit a call as we will make it to their advantage to do so.
Sweeping Reductions in
Dress Stuffs, Shawls, Wool Squares and every description of Winter Goods.

Hall, Innes & Co

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1891.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

'TWAS STRONG AS SATAN'S

BLUE BLAZES IN COURT FROM WHISKY TRUST FLUID.

Paper, Corks, Towels and Fingers Burned at Its Very Touch—Startling Discoveries.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—There was more fire in the package said to have been given by Whisky Trust Gibson to De War, the agent employed to destroy Shufeldt's non-Trust distillery, than even the most suspicious and credulous among the prosecuting witnesses were prepared for. They made an official examination of it before Judge Blodgett this morning. Attorney William Barry of counsel for Gibson, was present, as he had urged the examination. So were District Attorney Milchrist, Inspector Summerville, Special Agent Brooks, Marshal Hitchcock and Captain Stuart.

Opening the [illegible] package they found a pint bottle full of light-bluish fluid. The cork was drawn with some difficulty. Upon a piece of paper lying on the table a single drop was poured. The instant it came in contact with the paper there was a flash, a stream of fire shot out and the room was filled with suffocating sulphuric flames. So quickly did the paper burn that a bucket of water had to be thrown on to prevent the fire from communicating with other materials.

In attempting to cork the stuff up again the cork was ignited. A towel was thrown over the bottle, and the towel caught fire burned up before the fire could be put out. As soon as the crowd succeeded in extinguishing the fire and getting the fluid safely in hand a rush was made for the door, the room was so filled with blue smoke.

United States District Attorney Milchrist was greatly excited, and in answer to the question exclaimed: "What is it? Great Scott! Can't you smell it? Look at my hands!"

"What do you suppose a whole pint of that stuff would do, when a single drop of it nearly set the whole building on fire?"

The strong fume emitted by the fluid proved its principal ingredient to be phosphorus. Some of it had gotten on the hands of Captain Stuart and Mr. Milchrist, and it continued for a long time to send forth a blue smoke.

Mr. Milchrist said of the result of the experiment: "It fastens the chain of evidence securely around Gibson and makes it possible to indict him for attempted arson."

The market value of the trust certificates found in the satchel Gibson had prepared—an alleged reward to De War, was $15,000—just what De War swears that Gibson promised him.

WITH A BABE IN HER ARMS.

For Two Hours a Mother Walked the Streets of New York.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—Mrs. Rosie Markovitz, who resides with her husband at No. 95 Orchard-street, left her home intending to visit her brother, Jacob Grosse, who lives in Eighty-fourth-street, near Second-avenue. She walked to the Seventieth-street station of the L road, and then, removing some of the covering from around the baby's head and face, took a look at it. The child's eyes were closed; it lay motionless and quiet, and her crooning words of endearment brought forth no answering sign. Then she bent down her head and kissed the little one's face.

A piercing cry was the first intimation that the others upon the platform received that anything unusual had happened. Then they saw the poor mother fall upon her knees and place the child upon the platform. Stooping over the babe she lifted its little head between her hands and began to kiss it frantically. The baby was dead.

The police officials informed her that she could not take her dead baby home until she had secured a coroner's permit to remove it.

So for over two hours, and during a journey of more than two miles, Mrs. Markovitz was compelled to carry in her weary, benumbed arms the body of her dead baby before she found a coroner at home.

Black Skin on a White Body.

READING, Pa., Feb. 16.—Will the skin of a black man, engrafted upon a white man's body, turn white? That is the question Dr. John Ege of this city is solving. He has just grafted 18 small pieces of cuticle from a Boston negro's arm to the spaces that will not heal on Joel Saul's white leg, which has been sore for two years, and which did not readily assimilate all of the 33 pieces of healthy white skin planted thereon Jan. 10. Ten of the white particles did grow, though some of them are from the size of a pin-head to two inches in diameter.

If the black skin should grow white on a white body it would give rise to entirely new theories in surgery

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

THE MOTION TO CENSURE THE TIPPERARY EXECUTIVE

Defeated by Straight Party Vote—Parnell and McCarthy Exchange Words—Killed in a Duel—The Alleged Jack the Ripper on Trial.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—A daring robbery was committed here to-day. A stylishly-dressed stranger accosted in the National Provincial Bank of England a clerk from the London branch of the Bank of Scotland. The clerk was standing at the public counter of the National Provincial Bank making a deposit. When spoken to by the stranger the clerk turned towards him and an accomplice snatched the wallet containing bonds and checks worth many thousand pounds and ran out of the bank. He has not been captured.

JACK THE RIPPER.

The Alleged Murderer of Carroty Nell Arraigned in Court.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—The latest discovery made by the Metropolitan police in connection with the Whitechapel murder of Friday morning last, by which a woman known as "Carroty Nell" lost her life, bids fair to connect the man Sadler now in custody with this "Jack the Ripper" crime.

A knife was traced to the possession of Sadler, who as stated was a fireman on board a steamer which arrived from Turkey. The police have no doubt that Sadler was the murderer of "Carroty Nell."

The prisoner was placed in the dock this afternoon. His face was dirty and scratched. He seemed to be utterly careless as to what happened to him and is apparently entirely composed. He kept his hand in his pocket and glanced calmly around him as if he was a disinterested party. During the examination a man testified that he had seen Sadler in company with the murdered girl on Thursday night. As the witness was making his statement the prisoner watched him sharply, and exclaimed, addressing the man in the witness box, "Be careful about what you are saying." Continuing, the witness described in detail the visit of Sadler to a small coffee shop Sadler, according to this witness, sat in the coffee house with the murdered girl and seemed to be quarrelling with her. Sadler, the witness said, claimed to have been robbed. Finally Sadler and "Carroty Nell" left the coffee shop separately. Upon the conclusion of the testimony the prisoner was remanded until Feb. 24.

Further details in regard to the blood-stained knife in possession of the police show Sadler sold the weapon to a sailor on Friday, the day of the murder. Opinions differ as to whether Sadler is "Jack the Ripper."

To avoid trouble the police transferred Sadler to the police court during the night, hoping thereby to avoid a vast crowd of people, mostly women. The women are eager for a sight of the prisoner. Wild threats of lynching and tearing the prisoner to pieces were uttered by the most excited of those females. When the man was removed to the police court an immense force of police was employed, and every precaution necessary was taken to prevent the Whitechapel mob from lynching the prisoner.

The witness identified the prisoner's face was scratched and bloody when he was seen in the coffee shop. The prisoner was remanded until Feb. 24.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

The Motion of Censure Defeated in the Imperial Parliament.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—In the House of Commons to-day John Morley moved that the House adopt a vote censuring the Irish executive for its action in the Tipperary prosecutions. Mr. Morley's motion declared that such action on the part of the executive was calculated to bring the law into contempt and was a violation of the rights of citizens. Mr. Morley's motion was rejected 330 to 345.

The announcement of the figures was received with prolonged Conservative cheers. Interest in the debate was lessened by the limitation of the line of assault on the Government to the incidents at Tipperary already thrashed out. For the first time since their rupture the Irish members were grouped all together.

Parnell exchanged words with McCarthy and Sexton but ignored Healy. The division on Morley's motion was on strict party lines, Gladstone having paired and the whole Irish party supporting Morley. Mr. Morley opened the debate with a strong denunciation of the conduct of the police at Tipperary and the vindication of the Irish executive. Mr. Gladstone supported Morley's motion in a vigorous speech. Mr. Balfour and Mr. Smith, First Lord of the Treasury, opposed the motion.

Mr. Gladstone felt indisposed and after speaking left the House. His illness is not serious. He is suffering from over-fatigue.

Killed in a Duel.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 16.—A duel with pistols has been fought at the village of Krasno, Selo., between Prince Vadlolsky and Lieut. Tomonossow, officer of the Imperial Guard. Tomonossow was killed. The affair was due to a quarrel arising after both had drank wine freely.

Labor Troubles Abroad.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—The outlook of the dockers' strike here and at Cardiff is serious. The lightermen here started to unload 20,000 frozen sheep to-day but soon afterwards withdrew, alleging their lives were in danger from violence threatened by the strikers.

Padlewski's Fate.

SOFIA, Feb. 16.—A Bulgarian newspaper says the body of Padlewski, who was charged with the murder of General Seliverstoff in Paris, has been found half devoured by wolves between Philippopolis and Kalanlik. The body was identified by documents found in the pockets.

Cable Briefs.

A shipment of 58 natives of East Africa arrived at Hamburg to-day and will enter the service of the Woermann line of steamships as firemen. This is announced as the first experiment for utilizing a semi-savage people in this description of labor.

A terrible storm has been raging on the Schleswig coast and large quantities of snow have fallen. The thawing snow and ice along the Baltic are causing disastrous floods, and at Revel and several other exposed ports the situation is exceedingly dangerous.

Sir Charles Tupper's Narrow Escape.

HALIFAX, N.S., Feb. 16.—Sir Charles Tupper, Canadian High Commissioner, after a speech at the political demonstration here on Saturday night left on a special train for Toronto, where he was to appear at a Conservative demonstration.

The tier of the engine's driving wheel broke near Sackville, N. B., this morning, and the [illegible]

A LUCKY ESCAPE.

A Moulder Struck By a M.C.R. Engine and Hurled Through the Air.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—Saturday afternoon as the Michigan Central express was nearing Glanworth the engine struck a man and hurled him through the air to the fence. The engineer stopped the train and backed up to where the accident occurred. The man who was struck by the engine was standing with two companions placidly winding a handkerchief over his left hand, and remarked when the engineer asked if he was hurt, "It never touched me." The man, who gave his name as George Wright, a moulder belonging to Hamilton, was under the influence of liquor. His only injury consists of two broken fingers.

Smothered the Baby.

WEST MCGILLIVRAY, Feb. 16.—Mrs. William Steeper had been on a visit to her mother in Clandeboye with her one month old infant, and on returning, the day being cold, she wrapped the little one too closely, in her solicitude to keep it warm. On arriving at Fumfrey's hotel she undid the wrap, and found with horror that her child had been smothered to death on the journey.

After the Irish Organ.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—At a meeting of the McCarthyite members of parliament to-day it was resolved to acquiesce in the proposition to devote the remainder of the league fund, £36,000, to the benefit of the evicted tenants provided the money is distributed by the Tenants' Defence Association. It was also resolved to endeavor to secure by legal means control of United Ireland.

TORONTO TOPICS.

TORONTO, Feb. 17.—The finals for the Ontario Tankard begins to-morrow. The four large rinks will be occupied for the first draw. As there are 16 champions from the different groups and the contests are two-rink ones 16 sheets of ice will be required for the eight preliminary games. Four events will take place in Victoria Rink, six at the Granite, four at Prospect Park and two at the Caledonian. The four matches in the afternoon will be played at Victoria and Granite. The two semi-finals will take place at the Victoria Rink Thursday morning, if the Granites still remain, and the grand final in the afternoon. The draws take place this evening at 8.30 at Mr. Russell's office. It is just possible that a lack of ice will cause a postponement of the event.

The master in chambers yesterday gave judgment in the alimony suit of Zyback v Zyback, on the motion for particulars, ordering the defendant to give particulars of the charges of improper conduct alleged in the statement of defence against plaintiff.

Judgment was also given in the libel action of F. H. Sangster against The Empire, dismissing with costs the motion for security for costs. This is the action in which the plaintiff, a barrister of Stouffville, sues The Empire for $10,000 damages for the publication of what he alleges was a false report of proceedings before a magistrate, in which he was charged with fraud but the charge dismissed.

The final motion in the quo warranto proceedings instituted some time ago, against the Mayor of Ottawa, was made before the master in chambers yesterday, when he was asked to unseat Thomas Birkett, hardware merchant, from the position of Mayor of the City of Ottawa, and for a new election. The ground alleged why Mr. Birkett should be unseated is that at the time of the election he had an interest in a contract for the supply of hardware to the city. The argument of the case occupied most of the day, and judgment was reserved.

Ex-Deputy Chief John Macpherson reached the end of a long and useful life on Sunday evening at [illegible]. His death took place at his late residence, 30 Seaton street, and was quite unexpected. On Saturday Mr. Macpherson was apparently in the best of health, taking his customary walk and eating heartily. On Sunday he partook of a good dinner as usual, and on going out between 5 and 6 to look after his pet dogs he was suddenly seized with a fainting fit and required assistance to reach the house. Later he became unconscious and died at the hour named. He was in his [illegible] year.

The Drygoods section of the Board of Trade met yesterday afternoon, Mr. S. Caldecott in the chair. The business tax was discussed and it was resolved to attend in a body the meeting of the sub-committee of the Executive Committee of the City Council, to be held this afternoon to consider the question.

AMERICAN WHEELMAN.

Between the L. A. W. and Canadian Wheelmen—The League Membership.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The National Assembly of the Board of Officers of the League of American Wheelmen was held here to-day. Secretary Bassett's report showed the present membership to be 18,113, an increase of 5710. There are 441 ladies on the list. The Membership Committee reported 14 cases of doubtful membership had been considered with the expulsions and stated that petty jealousies in the ranks of the league led to many useless protests. The president, Mr. Dunn, in his annual report, recommends that steps be taken to secure a more complete harmony between the L.A.W. and Canadian wheelmen.

President Dunn was re-elected. W. S. Brewster of St. Louis was chosen treasurer. The secretary holds over. The next assembly will be held in February, 1892.

They Wanted to Boom the Game.

BOSTON, Feb. 16.—A meeting of the Board of the Amateur Athletic Union was held here Saturday. The disqualified lacrosse players, including the Montreal Club men, who offended the austere A.A.U. by playing at the recent Madison-square Garden tournament were, with the exception of the Druids, reinstated because they sent in a satisfactory explanation of their action, to the effect that they merely played in the tournament to boom the game and were ignorant of any possible violation of the rules. The Druids will probably explain their case in short order.

The matter of the indoor championship meeting came up for a long consideration. The eyes of the managers seem to have been turned toward Buffalo, and they have appointed E. C. Carter to look over the ground and see what the Buffalo Athletic Club is willing to do toward managing the affair.

Sale of Trotting Stock.

BUFFALO, Feb. 16.—The biggest sale of trotting horseflesh ever recorded took place to-day in this city, whereby General Rufus L. Howard sold the entire stock of his farm, including the celebrated stallion Wilkie Collins, by George Wilkes (2.22), valued at $25,000, and 80 other good mares, stallions and youngsters, to W. J. White, Cleveland millionaire, for $80,000.

Hamilton sports lost quite a boodle on a cocking main with Rochester men Sunday morning near Buffalo. The wager was $500 and $50 on each battle. Rochester won 4 out of 7. The spectator says that between $1100 and $1500 was lost on the result.

The Dead.

A cable despatch from Paris announces that Admiral Barriere is dead.

News of the death, at the age of 60, of Rev. Father Pendossy, at the Okanagon Indian Mission, was received yesterday at Victoria, B.C. He was a native of Marseilles and a son of the famous Admiral Pendossy. He entered the missionary service of the Catholic Church 46 years ago, joining the Order of Oblate Fathers. He was looked on by redskins as a supernatural being on account of his large knowledge of medicine. On entering the church he gave up a fortune of $[illegible] and a high social position. Three days ago he was buried in an Indian village. His body was encased in a wood coffin. He devoted nearly half a century of his life to the redemption of the Indians.

When Greek Meets Yank.

GLASGOW, Feb. 16.—A wrestling match for the championship of the world took place here to-night between Antonio Pierre of Greece and Tom Cannon of America. Pierre won.

WITH A RED HOT POKER

ENDED HIS WIFE'S LIFE IN A SHOCKING MANNER.

Arrest and Confession of the Murderer. The Crime is the Result of Almost a Lifetime of Drunkenness, and the Children of the McMullens Have Inherited the Vice

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 17.—The village of Shavertown, five miles from this city, was the scene of a horrible murder about midnight last night. Edward McMullen killed his wife with a red hot poker, wounding and mutilating her in a shocking manner. McMullen is about 50 years age and so was his wife. They had been drinking all day yesterday as was their custom after pay day. In the evening they were alone in the house and were heard by the neighbors quarrelling all the evening. No attention was paid to this, but about midnight shrieks were heard coming from the house, which were soon followed by groans. Soon after McMullen came running out of the house shouting and cursing like one insane. When the neighbors ventured in they found the woman lying on the floor, with every particle of clothing torn from her body, which was burned and mutilated in a horrible manner. McMullen had evidently taken a red hot poker, beaten her on the head and thrust it into her body and pressed it into her flesh in dozens of places.

When aroused and told that his wife was dead, he said, "I know it; didn't I kill her myself?"

The crime is the outcome of almost lifelong drunkenness. Not only have McMullen and the murdered woman been drunkards for years but their children have inherited the vice. Two years ago, in the same house, their only daughter, a girl of 20 years, was burned to death with her infant child while lying in bed in a drunken stupor, while her father and mother were in the next room in the same condition.

The scene, as described by Mrs. McGowan and her daughter and the neighbors who first entered the house, was horrifying. The woman, with some fragments of clothing around her waist, was lying on the floor of the dirty room in a condition beyond words to describe. She was still breathing. Around her a great pool of blood had collected. The walls were spattered with it, and the few bits of furniture daubed red. The murderer was probably half an hour about his butchery, for the poker must have been heated again and again. The house was filled with the odor of burning flesh.

It is believed that the drunken ruffian was stirring the fire with the poker. The couple had been quarreling, the woman said something that angered him and he wheeled around and struck her on the head with the poker, knocking her down. He struck her again while she was prostrate.

Stupefied with liquor and the blows, she only laid there and shrieked. A fiendish determination came into his mind. He thrust the poker into the stove, and when it was red hot turned to the woman on the floor, tore off her clothing and laid the glowing iron on her flesh. Again and again the hot iron was applied. It grew cool and he thrust it once more into the fire, and when it was again red hot he returned to the groaning, dying woman, and tearing what remained of her clothes off thrust it into her body.

Again the poker was heated and again and again applied to her quivering form, but she was probably then far beyond feeling pain. He then discarded the poker and took up a pair of tongs. They were found covered with blood to the handle. The fiend made them red hot, too, and then plunged them into the gaping wounds he had already made tore and mangled the sizzling flesh with his new implement of torture.

From every wound blood had streamed. Everywhere around the room where he had laid his reeking hands on the walls or furniture they left red stains.

When at last his fearful work was done he turned and fled from the house reeling in his drunkenness and frenzy.

A STRANGE TRAGEDY.

The Story of "The Bells" Recalled by a Murder in Westphalia.

BERLIN, Feb. 16.—A horrible murder, which recalls in some of its features the motive and method of the Erckmann-Chatrian story, "Le Juif Polonais," or "The Bells," as it has been made familiar to English audiences by Mr. Irving, is reported from the village of Diepholz in Westphalia.

The victim was a young woman named Margaret Krumm, the daughter of a farmer who lives in Damme. She was waylaid and murdered in a forest, on her way home from the railway station at Diepholz.

A gendarme discovered the body and rode off for help. The first cottage that he reached was that of a woodcutter named Rotzky. The officer knocked at the door, which was opened by Rotzky's wife, who explained that her husband was not in, but she expected him very shortly. Almost immediately he came up and his appearance at once aroused the gendarme's suspicion. His clothes were stained with blood. He was at once charged with the crime and was so surprised that he made a confession on the spot.

He explained that the girl had called at the house an hour before and asked him to accompany her on her walk through the forest, explaining that she was afraid to go alone, as she was carrying a large sum of money.

Rotzky refused to comply with her request, and as soon as she left he took another path which brought him out at a lonely place ahead of her. There he lay in wait and when she came up demanded the money, and on her refusing to give it to him he murdered her. Had he then destroyed her body by throwing it into a lime pit and escaping detection, growing rich and respected on the proceeds, only to perish miserably by the awful weight of remorse, the resemblance to "Le Juif Polonais" would have been complete.

The Good White Czar.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 16.—The Rabbi Marcus and a Jewish physician named Chasnowvitch living in Grodno have been arrested and exiled from that province for two years for sending to the Government, in behalf of the Jewish community, a petition demanding redress for an outrage committed by a Russian doctor named Granvoski, who was charged with having branded the word "thief" in three languages on the forehead of a Jewish boy who was accused of having stolen a small quantity of fruit.

A Naked Lamp, Fire, Death.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., Feb. 16.—The Moyer mine, three miles from this place, is on fire. An employe dropped a naked lamp which is thought to have caused an explosion. Four men are understood to be entombed and there is but little prospect of their being rescued.

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes

That Tired Feeling

creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

"I derived very much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took for general debility. It built me right up, and gave me an excellent appetite." ED. JENKINS, Mt. Savage, Md.

Fagged Out

"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. BROOLS, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

Worn Out

"Hood's Sarsaparilla restored me to good health. Indeed, I might say truthfully it saved my life. To one feeling tired and worn out I would earnestly recommend a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla." MRS. PHEBE MOSHER, 30 Brooks Street, East Boston, Mass.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy anything else instead. Insist upon having

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1891

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

TO THE WORKINGMEN.

THE Government of Sir John Macdonald has strong claims upon the workingmen for their support. The Government's policy has benefitted all classes of the community and none more than the workingmen.

When the Conservatives took office they found a bargian made to give assisted passages to immigrants coming to this country, which helped to bring mechanics and laborers here to compete with the workmen of this country. This agreement the Macdonald administration terminated as soon as the bargain made by the Liberal Government permitted them to do so.

Not only did the Government put an end to the system of assisted passages carried on by the Liberals, but they discouraged the immigration of mechanics to this country through printed documents and through their agents. In the official document distributed in the Old Country the following appears:—

"Mechanics, general laborers and navvies are advised to obtain special information as to their respective trades before going out * * * Such men, especially with large families, are not encouraged to go out on the chance of finding employment."

Men who desired employment as railway employees, clerks, shop assistants and such situations were also advised that "any demand for labor of these kinds is fully met on the spot." In this respect the Government considered the interests of the workmen of Canada.

The fiscal policy of the Government also benefits workingmen, and in two ways. In the first place—and this is of great importance—by protecting home manufactures, by placing a duty on imported goods that may be made here and allowing raw material to come in free or at a low rate, the manufacturing industries of the country have been increased and built up, giving employment to large numbers. The beneficial effects of this policy has been seen in our own town, where new and important industries have been established that would have been impossible without the National Policy, and other industries have been enlarged.

This also benefits all trades, for the consequent increase of population gives employment to the building and other trades, as well as increases the home market for farm produce.

There is another way in which the National Policy benefits workingmen. The higher duties are on the finest goods and luxuries, while tea and coffee are free, and the people who purchase the more expensive classes of goods and luxuries pay the most taxes. Home grown produce and home made goods (except liquors and tobaccos) are not taxed, and it is those who purchase expensive imported goods who pay the duties.

The workingmen of the country will act in their own interest by supporting the Government, and by rallying to the aid of its candidates, for while the Conservative policy has and will benefit them the Liberal policy of unrestricted reciprocity would destroy the manufacturing industries and thus injure the mechanics engaged in them and all other tradesmen.

THE PUBLIC DEBT.

THOSE who charge the Dominion Government with having unwarrantably increased the debt of the Dominion—those who allege that the country is being over-burdened in this way—are either grossly reckless or worse. Canada has something useful and necessary for her prosperity and welfare to show for every cent of her debt and more.

The Dominion indebtedness amounts to $237,533,211. Of this sum, however, $106,472,034 is made up of debts belonging to the Provinces that were assumed by the Dominion. This is not an increase of debt, but merely a shifting of it to the central authority (and in this all the Provinces were treated fairly) where a less rate of interest is paid and the burden lightened. This leaves a debt of $131,061,177 incurred by the Dominion for its own purposes. For what purposes was it incurred? There are four items that account for more than the whole amount. The Northwest, a great territory over twenty-two times as large as the United Kingdom, was purchased from the Hudson Bay Company and opened for settlement. The Intercolonial railway, a road necessary to confederation and a valuable line, was constructed. The building of the Canadian Pacific railway, the great belt that crosses the continent and that has valuable connecting lines, including the one through Peterborough, was secured. The canal system of Canada has been extended and enlarged and the St. Lawrence navigation improved. These were all necessary and invaluable works, and the total expenditure upon them amounted to $144,862,286, or over $17,000,000 more than the whole debt that has been incurred for Dominion purposes. And in addition to these undertakingings public works of benefit to the people have been erected in every part of the Dominion, including public buildings, docks, lighthouses, etc., the experimental farms have been established, the post office system greatly extended, and other work done, the expense of which has been paid out of revenue. Few countries can show so favorable a record.

But there is another aspect of this question that is important when it is remembered who the men are that bring these charges against the Government. Sir Richard Cartwright was Finance Minister in the Mackenzie administration, and the increase of debt under his management averaged $3,162,721 each year during the time he was in office. He now charges the present Government with recklessness, while the average increase in the debt since the last election has been $3,886,826 or $4,509,195 less than it was in his time. More than that, the increase of debt last year was only $3,170—practically nothing. The great works that the Government had in hand are completed, or about completed, and while it has still continued to develop the country, it has by prudent management been able to do so without increasing the debt. In fact the debt at the end of January, 1891, was $111,513 less than it was at the end of January in the previous year.

The Government's financial record is one upon which it can invite criticism and claim the support of the people.

THEY THROW UP THE SPONGE.

ANOTHER of the Liberal theories has been discarded by that party. A short time ago the farmers were told that the United States was their natural market, that they must look to that country for the sale of their produce and that they had nothing to fear from competition. But a change has come. At the Liberal convention at Norwood a resolution was passed which censured the Government for the "insult of pretending to give a jug-handled measure of reciprocity, which will bring on increased competition to the farmer." This opposition to reciprocity based on the former treaty, which is the Government's proposal, is a great change from the attitude of the Liberals up to a few days ago and shows that they had no faith in their own doctrine that the United States was the natural market for the farmers of this country.

"THE Conservatives had introduced a protection policy to stab British trade, and their leader exclaimed, "If the British people do not like it, so much the worse for them."—Hon. W. Laurier.

This extract is taken from a speech by Mr. Laurier, as reported in the Globe. Sir John Macdonald never said anything of the kind, and no Conservative leader did. Further, the imports from Great Britain since 1880 have shown an average increase per year of $1,463,261, as compared with the period under Liberal rule, while the importations from the United States have fallen off. The National Policy did not "stab" British trade, and it has greatly benefitted Canada.

BEFORE Mr. Erastus Wiman had induced the present Liberal leaders to take up unrestricted reciprocity, the Toronto Globe said:—"Mistrust all figures professing to show that Canada had retrograded instead of advancing. Avoid associations with the teachers of dispair; old men who, with worn out powers, assert that national suicide is the only course of national salvation, may be excused by considerations of their senility; but young men who echo their doleful refrain can never seem otherwise than contemptible." Liberals who now hear their leaders sing this doleful refrain should remember these words. Avoid the teachers of dispair who would lead Canada into national suicide.

TO THE WORK. Conservative committee rooms open every night. All favorable to Mr. Stevenson's re-election cordially invited and urged to be present. Polling on March 5th.

I Will Give You

The best bargains in groceries in Peterborough. My stock is new and goods ar all first-class. Just received a nice line of Japan Tea I am selling at 25c per lb. Special discounts to hotels, boarding houses and parties purchasing goods in large quantities. Alex. Elliott, 358 George-st. Peterborough. d39

Some Foolish People

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediatey see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c and $1. Trial size free. At all druggists.

FOUR STRANGE BROTHERS.

A Quartette of Farmers Who Will Not Allow Wearers of Petticoats to Come Near Their Home.

READING, Feb. 16.—In an old log house half a mile from Wernersville, this county, live four "women haters," Benjamin, Samuel, Michael and Nathaniel Kunkle, aged respectively 78, 71, 65 and 61 years, are brothers who have neither married, nor, so far as anyone can remember, associated with any members of the fairer sex, except their two sisters and mother, all three of whom have been dead for many years. Since the death of their sisters the four brothers have never allowed a woman to enter their home to do any kind of work. All the household labors, such as baking, cooking, churning the butter from six cows, is done by the mysterious men who shun the society of women as they would the presence of an evil spirit. The two sisters when living bore a similar aversion to strange men, and both of them went through life without husband or lover.

A Lonely Dwelling.

The brothers are thrifty farmers. They can speak but little English. A farm of 120 acres is tilled by them very economically. It is a "hill" farm, located in what is known as the "Dark Corner" of Berks county, near the springs from which flows Maiden Creek. It is a wild section of country, where the houses stand a mile apart. Close by are the Blue Mountains, in which the "Blue Mountain Hermit" secluded himself for nearly half a century, and where he was murdered a short time ago and robbed of the money he had hoarded. The Kunkle farm yields good crops. The brothers are averse to the use of any labor-saving machinery, so they mow their hay with scythes, cut their wheat, rye and oats with cradles, and thresh their grain with flails. Four well-fed horses are kept, many fowls of various kinds flock about the baryard, droves of sheep, a pen full of pigs and six cows are all well tended. No thriftier men can be found in Berks county than the Kunkle brothers.

No Visitors Wanted.

The latch-string of their door is not hung on the outside. Even strange men seldom get within the old log house, which is but a story and a half high. Things about the place are as neat and trim, however, as though a good housewife had charge. The floors are clean, furniture of the oldest and simplest kind is used, much of it being made by those who use it. Two long-barreled rifles hang on a hook above the door, and near them are the bullet pouches and powder horns. In this same place the family has lived for nearly a century, the father of the eccentric sons being one of the pioneer settlers in that region. There seems to have been but one single object in the lives of the boys, and that was to stick together and make money. They have succeeded in carrying out their desire to a large extent. The same roof has always covered their heads, and it is said that they have accumulated in money $35,000.

The Money Goes in One Pile.

All the earnings are thrown into a common fund, which has been invested by them with a solemn compact that it shall not be divided so long as one of them survives. Although they have a large farm and a hard one to cultivate, the brothers earn a great many dollars by working for their neighbors. They are never idle from the beginning to the end of the year. In the long winter nights one of the chief occupations is to make baskets and brooms to sell. The baskets are made from young white oak trees, which are sawed in pieces about five feet long, but varying according to the size of the baskets and then split into long thin strips These strips are shaved with draw-knives down to the proper size and made very smooth. Then the "splints" are woven together, making a very strong basket. For a basket that will hold a bushel of ears of corn they receive about 50 cents. The brooms are made from little hickory trees. One end is sawed off, then the broommaker takes a sharp knife and a strong one splits back the end for about 15 inches into little strips half as big as a lead pencil. When the whole stick has been split that way the splints are straightened out, tied around with a tarred rope, making a very serviceable instrument for scrubbing wooden floors.

Regular Church-goers.

The brothers, although the most pronounced "woman-haters," are regular in their attendance at church on Sundays. They go and come together and sit together while at the services. They are German Lutherans and attend a church of that denomination at Stony Run, of which Rev. Mr. Small is pastor. They are very much alike in their general appearance, all being tall, rather bony and lank, and have gray hair and clean-shaved faces.

The clothes that cannot be purchased ready-made they make themselves, and they are said to be quite handy with the needle. Such work as cobbling shoes is always done by one of the brothers. It is an exceedingly rare thing for them to hire any work done. A few years ago when their old barn had rotted down they themselves built a new one.

The bread they make and the butter they churn are of the very best, showing that by long practice they have become as skilful in the art of baking and making butter as women.

The New Party Out of It.

WYOMING, Feb. 16.—Two or three gentlemen interested in Canada's New Party met together to-day in the Temperance Hall here to receive the answer of the delegation appointed to interview Messrs. D. S. Robertson of Plympton and Miles Hagle of Warwick as to their acceptance of the nomination tendered them to contest the west and east ridings of Lambton in the interests of Canada's New Party. After talking over the matter and receiving the refusals of the nominees mentioned the following resolution was carried unanimously: "That, owing to the absorbing interest taken in the tariff question and the comparative indifference of the public on the Prohibition and Equal Rights questions, our lack of organization and the shortness of time previous to election day, we consider it inadvisable to place candidates in the field at this election."

Don't Feel Well,

And yet you are not sick enough to consult a doctor, or you refrain from so doing for fear you will alarm yourself and friends—we will tell you just what you need. It is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which will lift you out of that uncertain, uncomfortable, dangerous condition, into a state of good health, confidence and cheerfulness. You've no idea how potent this peculiar medicine is in cases like yours.

ELECTORS. Protect home and country by voting for Mr. Stevenson. Come to the Committee rooms, Opera House block, open every night.

PETERBOROUGH

PLANING MILLS!

Dublin-st., Peterborough.

A. RUTHERFORD,

PROPRIETOR.

Having purchased the plant, and business, formerly carried on by J. D. Baptie, in the above premises, I am prepared to execute orders for every description of General Carpenter Work Window and Door Frames, Blinds, Mouldings, etc.

Scroll Work, Band Sawing, Turning executed to order.

Large supply of Dry Lumber of all Kinds always on hand.

Factory and Office,—Dublin-st. Telephone Connection.

LIME—Always kept on hand. Orders left at Mill or at G.T.R. Station promptly attended to. d6-wtf

FOR SALE

BY TENDER.

The Stock in trade of the Hardware business carried on by George Stetham, in the Town of Peterborough. Purchaser can get lease of premises for term. Tenders at so much on the dollar. Stock lists can be seen at the premises. Highest or any tender not necessarily accepted. Tenders addressed to the undersigned received up to noon on Saturday, the 21st day of February instant.

R. A. MORROW.

Peterborough, Ont., Feb. 14th, 1891. 3d40

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. All druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are placing a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have a Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup, or Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED!

Grand Rally of the People's Party.

THE QUESTION OF THE HOUR!

The Greatest Good to the Largest Number.

GOUGH BROTHERS are in the field as the Candidates for public approval, basing their claim on the admitted facts that they supply the largest number, the greatest number of times with the largest dollar's worth of the best clothing that money can purchase.

Ask our constituents if this claim is not well grounded?

When you buy, buy from first hands, remembering that we supply Clothing, Furnishings, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes.

GOUGH BROTHERS

The Clothiers, 377 and 379 George-st., Peterborough.

The Coming Contest.

It is considered it will be of a very lively nature. Every man may have his friends in politics, but when it comes to Grit or Tory of course he must cast his vote for his party irrespective of social friendship. The same may be said in this case. Parties may have their friends, but when it comes to business and they wish to buy tea, Groceries, wines or liquors at sacrifice, W. J. Morrow's is the place they go to. d31w

TO THE ELECTORS

OF THE

East Riding

OF THE

COUNTY OF PETERBOROUGH.

GENTLEMEN;—Parliament having been dissolved, the present Government appeal again to the people for a renewal of confidence and an approval of the policy of the administration. I have been chosen to contest the Riding in the interests of the Liberal Conservative Party, and I have accepted the nomination and now solicit your support.

The principal question to be decided is as to our trade relations with the United States, whether, as advocated by the Opposition, we shall adopt such a policy as will practically leave us free to trade only with the United States to the exclusion of Great Britain and other countries, or whether we shall, as advocated by Sir John Macdonald, adopt such a policy, as while dealing with the United States in fair and equitable terms and not to the exclusion of Great Britain, will preserve our nationality and enable us still to remain an integral portion of the British Empire.

I am opposed to the policy of the Opposition, as, in my opinion, it simply means annexation to the United States. As an advocate of the views of the Government I appeal to you. The time is so short before the Polling day that I will not be able to personally see all the electors, but I hope to meet most of you at the several meetings which I shall hold throughout the Riding to discuss the questions at issue.

JOHN BURNHAM.

Ashburnham, February 16th, 1891. w71

MR. SHELDRAKE'S

Private

PREPARATORY SCHOOL,

FOR BOYS,

LAKEFIELD, ONTARIO.

V. R.

DOMINION ELECTIONS!

MR. STEVENSON

The Conservative Candidate, will address the Electors of West Peterborough at the following places and on the dates named:—

North Monaghan, TOWN HALL, Friday, Feb. 20th.

Ennismore O'REILLY'S SCHOOL HOUSE, Saturday, Feb'y. 21.

Bridgenorth, Monday, Feb. 23

Young's Point, Monday, Feb. 24

Selwyn, Wednesday, Feb. 25

Smith, Thursday, Feb. 26.

Meetings begin at 7.30 p.m.

An opportunity for discussion will be allowed.

Nomination Feb'y. 26th. Polling Day March 5th. 1w8

2 BRICK HOUSES,

2 FRAME HOUSES,

and THREE LOTS,

to be sold at my office on WEDNESDAY next, the 18th inst., at 2 p.m.

The above properties are situated west of Bethune-st. and between the 2 railway stations in the centre of all the principal manufactories in town. A rare chance.

T. HURLEY,

357 George-st.

—ONTARIO—

Planing Mills!

Planing, Matching, Mouldings, Band Sawing & Turning, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Storm Sash.

JAMES Z. ROGERS.

SAWS Filed and Gummed in First Class Style. Knives, Scissors, Tools, &c., ground and sharpened. R. W. ENGLISH, shop, 119 Charlotte-st. 31e-wly

"Hello there, Brown, where are you going in such a hurry?"

"Why, I am going to J. J. Turner to get a pair of the fine Waterproof Horse Covers he makes. I tell you they are the finest I have seen. He also makes Wagon Covers, Lap Rugs, Clothing, &c.

"You want the address; all right,

J. J. TURNER,

The Tent and Awning Maker, corner of George and King-sts., Peterborough.

Telephone day or night.

CAKES!

For a Good Cake, leave your orders at

Long Bros.

Also home-made cakes iced and nicely Ornamented. Wedding Breakfasts and Evening Parties Catered for. Oyster Patties made to order. Our stock of Candies is pure and made by ourselves.

No. 286 and 414 George-st.

"Itis the Safest and Fairest Policy I Have Ever Seen,"

Was the remark made by a prominent representative of one of the largest and best American Life insurance Companies, when he had carefully examined

THE ORDINARY LIFE POLICY OF

—THE—

TEMPERANCE and GENERAL

LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y.

This is the only policy offered to the Canadian public that can neither lapse nor expire as to its paid-up value till death ensues, after three annual premiums have been paid on it.

Our Limited Payment Life Policy, or Instalment Bonds, Our Common Sense Renewable Term Policies, and our Survivors' Endowment Bonds are all possessed of new and excellent features and are all worthy of careful consideration.

Agents Wanted.

H. P. LINDSAY,

Gen. Agent for Peterborough, Northumberland and Durham. Office No. [illegible] George-st., opposite new market building.

WM. FITZGERALD,

Builder, Contractor and Jobber.

Contracts taken for all work connected with erection of new buildings, repairs or rebuilding. Twenty-five years experience. First-class work according to plans and specifications guaranteed. Estimates furnished for any description of work. Good dry material always on hand. Best of references given as to excellence of work and despatch.

Building Lots For Sale

in different localities. Most desirable sites for houses. This is the time to buy and build. Lots sold and houses built thereon on terms to suit buyers. Easy terms of payment. Several good houses and lots for sale. Every one looking for a bargain should see these. WM. FITZGERALD, 124, corner of Dublin and Water-sts.

P.O. Box 675, Peterborough. [illegible] w8-ly

PASHA

STEEL PENS!

Fine Grades!

THE FAVORITE PEN FOR

Business,

Correspondence.

Book-keeping

and all Writing.

If used once no others will suit.

TRY THE "PASHA" PENS.

Review Stationey.

D. BELLEGHEM,

Issuer of Mariage Licenses,

PETERBOROUGH.

HAGGART & KIDD

TOWN and COUNTY } Auctioneers,

COMMISSION and SHIPPING } Merchants,

REAL ESTATE and INSURANCE } Agents.

☞ Money to Loan.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins, by grocers, labelled thus:

JAMES EPPS & CO., Homoeopathic Chemists, London, England. w8-d26-6m

DO YOU LIKE

Biscuits?

Most likely you do.
There's a deal of difference
in Biscuits. Quality is an important item. A good
biscuit should be fresh,
crisp and of good flavor.
Here's what will suit you.
Try the English biscuit, made
by Huntley & Palmer the famous makers. Imported
by us and guaranteed genuine.
Ask for Huntley & Palmer's biscuits.

W. J. MASON

426 GEORGE STREET.
No trouble to show Goods.

Blank Books.
—AND—
Office Stationery

See the quality of our Blank Books.

Call and get our prices
on Ledgers,
Journals,
Day Books,
Stephen's Inks,
Carter's Inks,
Underwood's Inks
Stafford's Inks,
Pens,
Foolscap,
Legal paper,
and all other
Office supplies.

Our Prices are the Lowest.

H. THOMPSON & Co

Office and General Stationers, Bookbinders and Wall Paper Dealers, 408 George-st. — — Peterborough

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1891.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

Glass Shades.

Assorted sizes, may be had at Mason's Seed and Plant House, corner of Water and Brock-sts. d29tf

Spring.

Nobody seems to know where spring is, but preparations for its advent are being made nevertheless. You need new, fresh, seasonable groceries? We sell them. That's our business. We sell good goods. We deliver them on time. We charge you no more that you pay elsewhere, in most cases less. Call and see us. We welcome the smallest customer. STAPLETON & ELCOMBE. d37

A Waterworks Purchase.

The business of the Peterborough Water company has grown to such an extent that it has been found necessary to secure more room at the head of the works. Consequently the company has purchased property above Mr. Hilliard's, on the east side of the river from the Smith estate and on the west side, from Mr. Carnegie, and will move their pump house to the dam up there, where they will have more space and more control of the water.

Hood's Sarsaparilla has the largest sale of any medicine before the public. Any honest druggist will confirm this statement.

Personal.

Mr. Robt. Fair left for Toronto this morning on a business trip.

Dr. G. S. Ryerson, the eye, ear and throat specialist, of Toronto, who has been away in Jamaica, West Indies, for the past two months, has returned. He will visit Peterborough about the end of March. The exact date will be announced.

Bro. Reid, of Lawrence Lodge, Brockville, and a Past Grand Master of the Order, attended the regular meeting of Otonabee Lodge, I.O.O.F., last evening and assisted in the initiation work. Bro. Wood, P.G., also of Lawrence Lodge, was present and assisted in the work.

The meeting of the Supreme Lodge of the Sons of Canada has brought three newspaper men to Peterborough for a few days. Mr. E. E. Sheppard ("Don") of Toronto Saturday Night is to arrive to-day, and Messrs. H. W. Laird, of the Port Hope Times, and J. W. Gale, of the Bowmanville Statesman, arrived this morning.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your Cough. It never fails. d16w4-6mo

FLYERS ON ICE.

Annual Winter Meeting on Little Lake—The Programme for Two Days.

Next week, weather permitting, the annual winter meeting of the Peterborough Driving Association will be held on Little Lake, the dates fixed being Wednesday and Thursday, the 25th and 26th. With good ice, there is everything to assure a successful two days meet, and some good sport will be furnished for local horsemen. The $650 which makes up the purses will ensure good entries. The races will come in as a "slight diversion" in the heat of the election campaign and will be all the more enjoyed.

FIRST DAY—WEDNESDAY.

For the first day the programme will consist of three events as follows:—

Named race, purse $80.00. Open to the following horses:—Geo. Mitchell's Livery Maid, R. Croft's Billy C, J. Beatty's pacer Ormus; Fred Jones' Chestnut Pacer, E. Phillips' Brown Pacing Mare; Mr. Pollard's (Newcastle) Pollard's Mare, J. Dickinson's pacer Royal Ned, I. Hickey's Rip Van Winkle, T. Pettit's Chestnut Pacer, Connors Bros', Dan C, J. Simpson's chestnut pacer Maud B, J. Johnston's (Grafton) Bay Mare, Taylor's Midget, J. E. McIntyre's Clan Alpine, J. Newall's Gladstone, P. W. McRea's Gelding. 1st, $45.00; 2nd, $25.00; 3rd, $10.00.

2.40 class, purse $100.00, divided as follows:—1st, $55.00; 2nd, $30.00; 3rd, $15.00.

Four year old colt race, purse $50.00. Open to all colts, 4 years old and under. 1st, $30.00; 2nd, $15.00; 3rd, $10.00.

SECOND DAY—THURSDAY.

On the second day there will be three more interesting events on the programme as follows:—

Three Minute class, (Clara K. barred,) purse $100.00; 1st, $55.00, 2nd, $30.00, 3rd $15.00.

Named Stallion race, purse $100.00. Open to the following stallions:—Alex. Patterson's Harold Hartwood, Hambletonian George, Grey Messenger, owned at Manvers; Trues' Canada Southern, Jr., Watson's Chestnut Stallion, E. Phillips (Port Hope) Stallion, J. Baptie's Boxer, Simpson's Lapadist Chief, Lusk's Warrior Chief, J. Beatty's Dean Stanton and Tariff Jr., J. Thompsons' Billy T; J. Johnston's King Tariff; R. Croft's Blake; Dr. Willoughby's Governor Johnston; J. McGuire's Nutgrove; McRea's Black Diamond; and Volunteer Clay. 1st. $55.00. 2nd, $30.00, 3rd, $15.00.

2.30 class, purse $125.00. 1st, $70.00. 2nd, $35.00. 3rd, $20.00.

JUDGES.—Messrs. G. T. Brotell, Cobourg, J. W. Smith, Sarnia, and Wm. Briggs, Orillia.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Meetings in Different Parts of the County—[illegible] The Town Committee Rooms.

Mr. Stevenson held a very successful meeting at Centreville last night, although the bad weather interferred with the attendance. Telling addresses were given by Mr. R. M. Dennistoun and Mr. Stevenson.

A meeting in Mr. Hall's interest was held at the Town Hall, Ennismore, last night. Messrs. P. Hamilton, C. J. Leonard and J. R. Stratton spoke on behalf of the Liberal candidate and Mr. Hall spoke briefly. Dr. Brennan and Mr. J. H. Burnham made spirited addresses on behalf of the Government candidate, and the personalities introduced by the other side availed them nothing.

Mr. Burnham attended meetings yesterday in Belmont, in the afternoon at [illegible]ton and in the evening at Havelock. There was a good attendance at the meetings, the hall being packed at Havelock. Mr. Rork, the Liberal candidate, and Dr. Mallory, and Mr. Kidd, the Equal Rights candidate, and Mr. E. B. Stone, gave addresses, and Mr. Burnham closed the meeting with an able and convincing speech. Belmont will give a good account of itself.

There was a rousing meeting in the Conservative committee rooms in the Opera House block last night and everyone went into the work with vim. Keep up the work like this, gentlemen, until polling day and success is won. The rooms are open night and day, and all favorable to Mr. Stevenson's re-election are most cordially asked to come along and give their assistance.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

Peterborough Good Templars Give a Pleasant Entertainment.

Correspondence of the Review.

On the evening of the 10th inst. about forty members of Carswell Lodge, I.O.G.T., of Peterborough, paid a fraternal visit to Mount Pleasant which will be long remembered by the brethren of that place. The visiting brethren and sisters gave an entertainment at which a programme of Peterborough talent was rendered. Bro. J. G. Early presided and made an appropriate opening address, while short interesting speeches were also made by Bros. Smith, Best and Kenny, of Mount Pleasant. During the intermission refreshments were served. Altogether the visit was a most happy one. The programme rendered was as follows:—

Opening Chorus	Lodge Choir
Reading	Bro. Preeborn
Instrumental	Sister Harvie
Recitation	Sister Kingdom
Recitation	Sister Mrs. Mitchell
Song, Cantilena	Several Voices
(INTERMISSION.)
Song, Broken Lily	Several Voices
Reading	Sister Chrowe
Mouth Organ Solo	Bro. Preeborn
Organ and Violin Solo	Sister B. Mitchell and Bro. Warrington
Song	Sisters B. and C. Mitchell
Closing Chorus	Choir

The Homeliest Man in Peterborough.

As well as the handsomest, and others are invited to call on any druggist and get free a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, a remedy that is selling entirely upon its merits and is guaranteed to relieve and cure all Chronic and Acute Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. G. Gumpricht is in town. Orders may be left at Messrs. Taylor & McDonald's drug store. 1yd86

Good Breakfast Dishes.

Rolled Bacon, Sausage, Head Cheese, Ham, etc. Best brands of these superior meats always on hand. Bacon sold by actual weight. J. J. Howden, 461 George-st. Telephone connection. d40tf

To Every Band in Canada.

The Surprise Soap manufacturers have now arranged to present the full score of "My Own Canadian Home," as played by Gilmour's famous band, to every band in Canada. Apply to Morley McLaughlin, Pagan Place, St. John, N.B. 1d40

Brevities.

—The Lindsay and Peterborough cup matches was not played to-day. The soft weather destroyed the Lindsay ice.

—Skip Flavelle and his Winnipeg rinks are being banqueted at Lindsay to night.

—There was a blank at the Police Court this morning.

WORKINGMEN. Mr. Stevenson has given time and work and money to build up industries in the town which give employment to large numbers. Send him again to Parliament to continue the good work.

WELCOME TO THE TOWN.

THE SUPREME GRAND LODGE OF THE SONS OF CANADA.

The Session Opens in Peterborough—The Delegates who are Here—The Mayor's Welcome—The Standing Committees—A Banquet This Evening.

The Supreme Grand Lodge of the Sons of Canada went into session here this morning in the lodge room of the local lodge. There was a good attendance of delegates and more are expected to arrive on to-day's train. Deputy Supreme President Nelson D. Mills, of Toronto, presided.

WELCOME TO THE TOWN.

When the delegates assembled this morning Mayor Stevenson was introduced by the Peterborough delegates and in a short, neat speech welcomed the visiting delegates to Peterborough. The Mayor spoke of the town, its advantages, expressed the hope that the visitors would enjoy their stay and promised them a warm welcome among the citizens.

Deputy Supreme President Mills made a happy reply on behalf of the Order, eulogizing the town and thanking His Worship for his kind and hearty words of welcome.

THE OFFICERS PRESENT.

The Supreme officers present were:—

SUPREME PAST PRESIDENT.—Bro. L. L. Walker.

DEPUTY SUPREME PRESIDENT.—Bro. Nelson D. Mills.

SUPREME FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT.—Bro. J. W. Gale.

SUPREME SECOND VICE-PRESIDENT.—Bro E. B. Morris.

SUPREME CHAPLAIN.—Bro. F. Mason.

SUPREME RECORDING SECRETARY.—Bro. F. H. Fitzgerald.

SUPREME GENERAL SECRETARY.—Bro. B. Blaine.

SUPREME STEWARD.—Bro. J. J. Mason.

SUPREME ORGANIZER.—Bro. G. McLean.

THE DELEGATES WHO ARE HERE.

No. 1, Beaver Lodge, Toronto.—Bros. Patterson, Brownlow, T. Porter and E. E. Sheppard.

No. 2, Toronto Lodge, Toronto.—Bros. Buchanan, P. P., H. A. Brasel, Dr. Watson, H. Mansell and C. Deverall.

No. 12, Peterborough Lodge, Peterborough.—Bros. H. S. Dixon and H. H. Robinson.

No. 14 Lodge, Port Perry.—Bros. Beatty, P.P., E. H. Purdy and Jas. Swan.

No. 16 Lodge, Port Hope.—Bros. H. W. Laird, P.P., J. H. McGill, P.P., and T. O. Monaghan.

No. 17, National Lodge, Brantford.—Bros. E. J. Ford, P.P., R. Burland and J. Van Stone.

No. 27, Bay City Lodge, Belleville.—Bros. F. S. Wallbridge and Marshall.

No. 29, Town Lodge, Blackstock.—Bros. Kinsman, P. P., Robinson and Gummett.;

No. 32, North Star Lodge, Collingwood.—Bro. A. G. Smith.

No. 34 Lodge, Hamilton.—Bros Dickson, P. P., Shouldice and New.

No. 42, Brock Lodge, Bowmanville.—Bros. Weeks and F. H. Mason.

DOWN TO BUSINESS.

After the Mayor's welcome, the lodge was formally opened and the order of business proceed with. A committee consisting of Bros. McGill, Dixon, Saunders, Smith and Laird, were appointed to strike the Standing Committees.

The Supreme Executive Secretary presented the report of the Executive Committee, which was handed to the Legislative Committee.

The General Secretary also [illegible] this, together with the auditors' report, was handed to the Finance Committee.

THE STANDING COMMITTEES.

The Striking Committee reported, recommending to following to be the standing committees:—

LEGISLATION.—Bros. Wallbridge, McGill and Buchanan.

CORRESPONDENCE.—Bros. Laird, Beatty and Robinson.

SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION.—Bros. F. Mason (Bowmanville), Gummett, and Walker.

PRESS.—Bros. Gale, Dixon and Laird.

REDISTRIBUTION OF DISTRICTS (special)—Bros. Morris, Deverall and Marshall.

RITUALS (special)—Bros. Walker, McGill, Smith, F. Mason (Peterborough), Purdy, E. E. Sheppard and Wallbridge.

This report was adopted.

This evening the visiting delegates will be tendered a banquet in the lodge rooms, when a pleasant time may be expected.

ELECTORS. The prosperity and very existence of your country is in danger. Rally to Mr. Stevenson's support.

Portraits! Portraits!

E. Michener, General Agent of the Boston Portrait Co., is at the Cavanagh House. He is showing work in Crayon, Pastell and Oil. Will be at the House any time after 5 p.m. Please call and see samples and bring your photos or tintypes with you. 8d38

That's Easily Answered.

"My dear," said Mrs. Cupandsaucer, laying down the evening paper, "what is reciprocity?" "Reciprocity, my angel," said the head of the house, "is easily explained. It means a general evening up,—as, say when Smitters asks me in to take a-er-cigar and I ask him to have another.' "Exactly," said Mrs. C., when I go to Hawley Bros. for tea and I hand Mr. Hawley a dollar and he gives me four or five pounds of splendid green or black mixture, I get the money's worth and he the money. Isn't that it?" "Exactly," said the husband as he reached for his hat. d38tf

King's Boots Sold by Kidd.

FOR A SOLID FOUNDATION.

John A. is shaking in his boots
As if he had the ague got;
If he don't get a pair from Kidd
His power will all go to pot.

Jimmie, send him a pair from Kidd,
Strong-soled and double-spring;
Then he will stand without a shake
In the boots that's made by King.

Send a pair down to your tutor,
Buy them right from Kidd, the booter,
They will answer a six footer
Or a small man like John.

KIDD,
1d40-1w8 THE BOOTER.

The Merry Masquerade.

The elections are the ruling topic nowadays, but the public should not allow politics to drive remembrance of the Foresters' great carnival from their minds. It will be the finest thing of the kind ever seen here. Eighteen prizes valued at $100 will be offered for competition, costumes which won prizes at the last carnival being barred out of this. Four guessing prizes are also to be given, for which all may compete. There will be a curling bonspiel, for which suitable prizes are offered. The committee of management have made arrangements with the railway lines for cheap fares from the surrounding stations, and a large crowd of visitors is expected. The fire brigade band will be in attendance as usual. The carnival will be the grandest one of the series. The prizes are now on exhibition in the north window of the Peterborough Bookstore. Don't fail to attend. d46eod

BAILIEBORO NOTES.

Correspondence of the Review.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. Hugh Kent, hotel keeper, is giving up the hotel business and going back to the farm. Contractor A. Rutherford, of Peterborough, has in hand the work of refitting and improving the farm buildings. Considerable work will be done on the house in the shape of new windows, blinds, new floors, etc.

Not Posted on Restaurant Prices.

There is a young lady in this city who will not want to take lunch of any of the restaurants for some time to come. For several weeks she had wished to try a special kind of soup which she had heard her brother speak of, so when she went shopping a few days ago she made up her mind to get some of the soup as soon as she had finished her purchases. It was near 3 o'clock and she was both hungry and tired when she sat down to order her dish. The waiter asked what she wished and he soon returned with the steaming dish. As he put it down on the table the lady gave him 15 cents, which she thought was the price, but the waiter thought it was a tip and he became very attentive to her. While she was eating the soup the waiter laid the check down on the table and then went and got a finger bowl. For a few minutes the lady did not pay any attention to the slip of white paper, but when she did and glanced at the figures on it her face became very red.

"What is this for?" she asked.

"That is for the soup," was the waiter's reply.

The check was for 45 cents, all the money the lady had. She hardly knew what to do, but on second thought she said: "Here are 30 cents; I gave you 15, which makes the amount." The waiter looked disgusted and the lady became confused. She attempted to cut her bread and it rolled on the floor, and, finally, gathering up her wraps she made a hasty exit.—Philadelphia Press.

Peril in Double Lighting Fixtures.

"There is a good deal of danger in these gas and electric light fixtures," said a practical electrician to me the other day. "I mean in the kind which are used for gas and electric light in combination. Of course it is convenient to have the gas all ready for use if the electric apparatus gets out of order, and in theatres and public institutions the joint fixtures are particularly useful, no doubt. But I think where the double fixtures are used in hotels or private houses the taps ought to be made conspicuously distinct; in fact, it would be well to have the gas tap screwed up while the electric light is being used.

"The other day two actresses came mighty near being suffocated in a Pittsburgh hotel through the double fixture trap. When they went to bed one of them tried to turn out the electric light. She did turn a tap but it didn't shut off the light. Then her companion got up and turned off the electric light. But the first girl had turned on the gas when she thought she was turning off the electric light. Result, two young women in a state of asphyxiation next morning; would have been dead had not their room been very large. It is a mistake likely to occur, and those who have double fixtures should take care in time."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Woman's Inhumanity to Woman.

One day I overheard a lady of fashion relating to another of her kind all about a terrible insult put upon her by a clerk, who left her fully five minutes unattended while she was purchasing a carpet. And I marked the exultation in her voice as she added: "But I had the satisfaction of reporting him and receiving the assurance of his discharge." Oh! how I longed to materialize as the spirit of the north wind did in Macdonald's beautiful story, and shake that woman until her artificiality and her heartlessness were rent from her like the down from a dandelion; to carry her away on pinions of strength and let her behold the miseries of that life she has never touched, its hidden sorrows, its grinding torments of care, and its unstayed tears, that she might blush for her shallowness and repent of her vixenish temper.—Chicago Herald.

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effect upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on a trial!

VOLTAIC BELT Co., Marshall, Mich.

PASHA is the name of the popular Pen. Seven styles to suit all hands. Try them. Sold at the REVIEW Stationery.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

Member's of Mr. Stevenson's Committees for Ward No. 2, will meet at committee rooms, Opera House block, at 7 p. m. sharp.

GEO. STEVENSON,
Chairman Ward No. Two.

DOMINION
ELECTIONS!

West Riding of Peterborough.

MR STEVENSON'S
Committee Rooms
OLD COUNCIL CHAMBER,
& OPERA HOUSE BLOCK.

Open Every Evening. All Liberal Conservatives and Citizens wishing to maintain the present Government are invited to meet at the Rooms in the interests of the Conservative Candidate.

W. H. MOORE,
Pres. Lib.-Con. Ass'n
W. J. MINORE,
Sec. Lib.-Con. Ass'n

GEO. B. SPROULE,
ARTIST & PHOTOGRAPHER
GROUND FLOOR,
370 Charlotte-st. - - - - - Peterborough.
FRAMES & PICTURE MOULDINGS.

To Rent.

Farms wanted to rent. Tenants supplied this year at half price. Call or write.

T. HURLEY.
d29tf 357 George-st.

Going Fast.

Look in at Stapleton & Elcombe's and secure a barrel of those fine Northern Spy apples, regular beauties. They are selling fast. Another consignment just received. d29tf

BIRTH.

RUTHERFORD—At Milwaukee, Wis., on Thursday, Feb. 12, the wife of Dr. A. J. RUTHERFORD, of a son.

DOMINION
ELECTIONS!

West Peterborough.

HON. JOHN
HAGGART
POSTMASTER GENERAL,
will address a meeting in the Opera House (Peterborough) on the Evening of TUESDAY, February 24th,
on the public questions of the day.

The gallery will be reserved for Ladies.

THE MEETING will commence at 8 o'clock

W. H. MOORE,
Pres. Lib.-Con. Ass'n.
W. J. MINORE.
Sec. Lib.-Con. Ass'n.

V. R.

Dominion Elections

East Riding of Peterborough

MR. BURNHAM

the Conservative Candidate will address meetings as follows:—

TOWN HALL, HARVEY
Monday Evening, Feb. 23rd, at 7.30 o'clock.

Ventriss' School House, Harvey
Tuesday Evening Feb. 24th,
at 7.30 o'clock.

Time will be allowed for discussion.

A. E. PECK,
Sec. of Com.

Polling Day March 5th. 1w8

"PROGRESSIVE
EUCHRE"

parties still hold the boards. We have a lot of good playing cards at 25c. a pack, or 5 for $1.00. There are worth 40c. each.

SAILSBURY BROS.

TO-DAY

and the C.P.R. brought us a case of neck wear. Not the only one, more are fast following. The invoices now with us promise many new ideas in this line. The colors range from showy magnificence to the dignified and extremely quiet. The shapes are without number and entirely new. If you are a lover of things rich, if beautiful colors delight your eye—see our neckwear. Many find it profitable to look at goods before buying, why not you?

One thing suggests another. Suits for instance. You may not need one. However it will not hurt to show the goods nor harm you in looking at them. The good impressions made now will bear fruit later on. See the pyramids of goods we have procured for Spring.

T. DOLAN & Co.

Clothiers and Furnishers.

NEW GOODS!

·20 PIECES OF

COLOURED

SURAH SILK

15 to 20 Yard Lengths,

25cts. PER YARD.

Shorter Lengths 30c. per yard.

—AT—

THOS. KELLY'S.

New Dress Goods
New Prints
New Embroideries
New Cottons

New Dress Goods
New Prints
New Embroideries
New Cottons

—AT—

THOS. KELLY'S, CORNER OF GEORGE AND SIMCOE-STS.

SELLING AT REDUCED PRICES

We are offering our Stock of Manufactured Furs at cost, previous to stock taking. The stock comprises a choice assortment of Ladies' and Gents fine Fur Collars, Cuffs, Capes, Caps, Gauntlets and Coats. Also a few Musk Ox, Bear, Oppossum and Goat Robes.

CALL AND BE CONVINCED.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

Manufacturing Furriers.

PACKING HOUSE STORE!

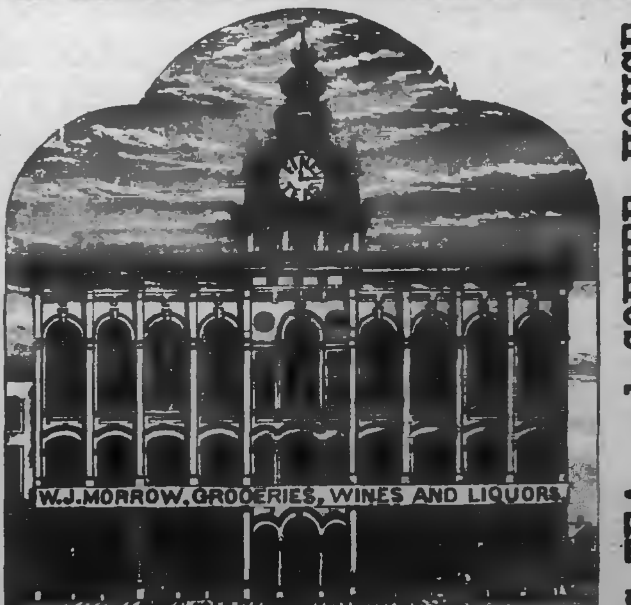
For a Choice Selection of

Smoked Sugar Cured Meats and Bacon

LARD, guaranteed pure, in any quantity.

GEORGE MATTHEWS

356 George Street, Peterborough.



W.J.MORROW, GROCERIES, WINES AND LIQUORS

BIG TEA and COFFEE HOUSE

IN THE MARKET!

1.—I have sold out the City Hotel to Wm. Clancy, in 19 minutes.

2.—I have sold out Faren & Co, Billiard Room etc., to Faren & Co. in 13 minutes.

3.—The Dry Goods Stock is in the Market. If there is any new blood for this offer call and see me. Want to dispose of it inside of 10 days.

I am off for Australia early next month.

I mean business. If the stock is too large can be reduced to $1,000 in 30 days.

JAMES DOLAN,
George Street, Peterborough.

SURPRISE
SURPRISE
Wash day
EVERY-WOMAN
Can save half the hard wearing-out toil of wash day and be fresh and strong. Can have clothes sweet, snowy-white, never yellow. Flannels not to shrink, cotton not too hard, but soft and white. Use the "Surprise" way. No boiling or scalding. Remarkable! Try it!
READ THE DIRECTIONS ON THE WRAPPER.
St. Croix Soap Mfg. Co. St. Stephen, N.B.
SOAP
Send us 25 SURPRISE wrappers and get one of our beautiful engravings

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1891

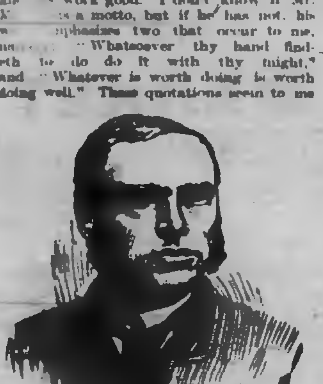
Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

CANADIAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

(Concluded from yesterday.)

MR. ANDREW PATTULLO, president of the Canadian Press Association, was born on a farm in the township of Caledon, county of Peel, dangerously near forty years ago. His family removed to the County of Oxford when he was but a few years old, and consequently he may be said to have lived all his life among the people who are cognizant of his daily outgoings and incomings—an excellent thing for a country journalist. Mr. Pattullo had the inestimable advantage of good schooling, as he received his education at the public school and at the Dundas and St. Catharines grammar schools, under J. Howard Hunter, M. A., now Inspector of Insurance in Toronto. He was the winner of the Gilchrist Scholarship in 1873, which gave him the option of attending London or Edinburgh University for three years with £100 a year. He chose London, where he spent a year, but his health failed and he returned home. Afterwards he drifted into journalism—like many another good man before and since—in The Woodstock Sentinel office in connection with his brother, now Registrar of Oxford. By and by the The Sentinel and The Review united forces, and in course of time Mr. Pattullo bought out his partner. For the past ten years he has had entire control of the Sentinel-Review, and, although he has done very considerable platform work, he has never sought any public position. His single-eyed devotion to [illegible] has told, however, and The Sentinel-Review ranks amongst the foremost country newspapers in this province. He was one of the first to recognise the fact that the local newspaper has a distinct field in which it cannot [illegible] newspapers. This is the field of local news, and to his belief, backed up as it is by an energetic working of the field, through local correspondence and devotion to home questions and interests, the notable success of Mr. Pattullo's paper is largely due. But it is not alone as a local paper that The Sentinel-Review has prominence in the Canadian journalistic field. Some years ago, although it is allied to the same political party, The Sentinel-Review led a most spirited and well-conducted attack upon the Globe newspaper on the latter's free trade departure, and this stroke made it known outside as a paper which was backed by brains and independence. In the working up of the Birchall-Benwell murder case recently the editor of The Sentinel-Review has, by his good work, added to the laurels so well and worthily worn in legitimate newspaper enterprise, and he has demonstrated that country journals may be relied upon to furnish the news of the topic of the hour as ably as their larger city confreres. The Sentinel-Review is both daily and weekly, both of which enjoy large circulations—the weekly, I believe, having now some 5,000 old subscribers and the daily having doubled its clientele within a year.

MR. H. P. MOORE, first vice-president of the Canadian Press Association, was born in the field of his newspaper work, Acton, on the 18th Oct., 1858. Although his paper, the Acton Free Press, has its home in a village, he is one of the best known and highly respected newspaper men in the province. His sterling integrity, his affable manner, and the fact that he turns out a paper second to no weekly in Canada for mechanical perfection could lead to no other result. Like the president of the association, he cultivates well the field of local news, and he knows his constituency like a book. He made use of all his advantages, and these were not few, as in addition to public school privileges, he received his education at the old Rockwood Academy and subsequently at Albert College, Belleville. In partnership with his brother, now Rev. T. Albert Moore, pastor Simcoe street Methodist church, Hamilton, Mr. Moore began his successful newspaper career as successor to Mr. J. H. Hacking, now of Winnipeg, and founder of the Free Press, in 1878. A year later the partnership was dissolved, and Mr. Moore has had entire control ever since. The writer has had unusual opportunities for watching the course, the struggles and the growth of the Free Press, and he may be pardoned if he points therewith with a moral and adorns a tale. It is of universal interest to country newspaperdom, else it were better left unsaid. From this study the lesson is taught, even more emphatically than it would be in Pica Boldface, that a man may, even in a village with limited opportunities, attain to a wide sphere of usefulness and may compel even enemies to bear witness that his methods are right and his work good. I don't know if Mr. Moore has a motto, but if he has not, his work emphasizes two that occur to me, namely: "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do do it with thy might," and "Whatever is worth doing is worth doing well." These quotations seem to me to contain the kernel of the nut of the Free Press' success under Mr. Moore, and there is nothing invidious in mentioning them, as there might be were his lot cast in a wider local sphere. But Mr. Moore has been a useful and honored citizen of this country as well as of Acton. For years he has occupied a position on the board of examiners of Albert College, Belleville, and it was with pleasure that I noticed that at the session of the General Conference of the Methodist church at Montreal last September he was appointed to the Board of Management of the same institution. Mr. Moore has been for the past ten years one of the most loyal and devoted members of the Canadian Press Association, and has done much to further its interests and make it popular with the craft. In 1886 he was elected a member of the Executive Committee and last year to the office of first vice-president.

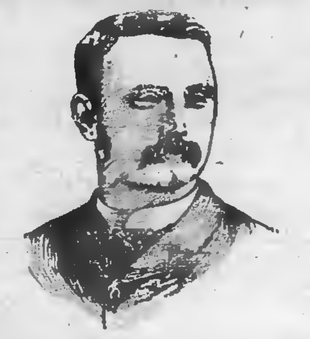


MR. L. G. JACKSON, NEWMARKET ERA.

MR. ALEX. F. PIRIE was born in his father's newspaper office in Guelph, Wellington County, in 1849, went to Toronto in 1874 and introduced the semi-humorous column of paragraphs in the Toronto Sun, which has since become a feature of some Canadian journals. Mr. Pirie was the first writer engaged on the Toronto Telegram, which he edited for twelve years, and its success was largely due to his facile pen. He spent many sessions in the press gallery of the Ontario Legislature, and did special correspondence in the press gallery of the House of Commons for the Montreal Star, which paper he afterwards edited for a year and a half. He was chairman of the press committee of the last Montreal carnival. Mr. Pirie has contributed to newspapers and magazines all the way from Grip to the North American Review, and is looked upon as one of the versatile writers of the Canadian press. He has been continually engaged in editorial writing on the daily press for nearly twenty years. In 1890 he bought the Dundas Banner. Mr. Pirie is not only a good writer, but is a good speaker, and he took an active platform part in the last Ontario campaign. Mr. Pirie is happily circumstanced. He has a good paper, a beautiful home, an accomplished wife and a five months' old baby, and is as happy as any newspaper man can reasonably expect to be.

MR. L. G. JACKSON was born next door to a printing press. At his birth his father's residence was in the same building as the printing office, so that Mr. Jackson not unjustly claims that he has lived all his life in a printing office. He received his educational attainments at the local institutions of his native town. His father, the present Mayor of Newmarket, ran The Era for 30 years, during which time he was thirteen years a member of the executive committee of the Canadian Press Association, for three years discharged the duties of secretary-treasurer without compensation, and was one year favored with the presidency. The Era has made some stir in the world, as might be expected from the vigorous and capable men who have controlled its destinies for the past forty years. Some years ago, although it had always been an outspoken Reform journal it attained a party dignity never bestowed upon papers of no account. Believing the Reform convention to have been "packed" in favor of a nominee it refused to submit and met with the fate which has made and established its position as an untrammelled and independent Reform journal ever since. During the past seven years, Mr. Jackson has had sole control of The Era which is just entering its 40th year of usefulness. And these years have not been they of the lean kine, for the circulation of the paper has increased during that period by 750 copies weekly, and not a paper is sent out of the riding in which it is published without first being paid in advance. It has always been an all home print paper, and as a local journal has no superior. Mr. Jackson is now putting in his third year on the Canadian Press Association executive, and if he has a fault it is that he is too modest for the excellent work he does both in his own office and in this important position.

[illegible] executive committee. He is probably the best known member of the association, having been first elected second vice president in 1872, then a member of the executive committee in 1874, and subsequently secretary and treasurer in 1876, which position he held with honor to himself and profit to the association for the long period of fourteen years. He resigned the secretary-treasurership at the annual meeting of 1890, and was deservedly accorded a sincere vote of thanks for his continuous service in that position, during which period he did a very large amount of the executive work and generally served the association with zeal and devotion. He is editor and proprietor of the Bowmanville Sun, a paper known to every member of the association. Mr. Climie has been one of the most familiar figures at the regular and special meetings of the association, and his official position has brought him into direct contact with all the members, who all highly respect him.



MR. T. D. PRESTON, BRANTFORD EXPOSITOR.

MR. T. H. PRESTON, proprietor of the Brantford Expositor, is another member of the executive committee of the Canadian Press Association. He served his apprenticeship some twenty or more years ago with the Woodstock Sentinel and the Stratford Beacon. He was a printer in Toronto at the time of the great general strike in 1871, and while the strike was still on left for the United States, where he remained until 1874. Part of this time was spent on the Springfield (Mass.) Republican, which was then owned by Samuel Bowles. In September, 1874, he joined the reportorial staff of the Ottawa (Ont.) Free Press, remaining with that paper till 1881. During these years his face was a familiar one in the press gallery of the House of Commons, and he had an extensive connection with Canadian and U. S. newspapers. In 1881 he bought the Walkerton Telescope, but sold it almost immediately thereafter in order to accept the night editorship of the Toronto Globe. He was acting as Ottawa correspondent for the same paper at Ottawa, when, in August, 1882, he became interested with others in the purchase of the Winnipeg Sun. For nearly eight years he was connected with Manitoba journalism as managing director of the above paper, and after he and his associates had sold out at a large profit he bought the Brantford Expositor, which he has recently greatly improved. The Expositor, indeed, is now one of the most enterprising and successful of the Provincial dailies.

MR. J. B. MCLEAN, secretary of the association, left school in his 20th year, and immediately afterwards began newspaper work in the best of training schools, The World. Here were instilled into him the principles that are required to make a successful newspaper man. From there he went to The Mail, and three years afterwards became its assistant commercial man. When The Empire started he was appointed its commercial editor. It is, however, as proprietor of several trade journals that he holds membership in the association. In 1887 he started The Canadian Grocer, the first weekly special trade paper in Canada. This was followed in 1889 by Hardware, another weekly and last month by The Dry Goods Review. In this latter he has associated with him Mr. Chas. Morrison, formerly city editor of The Mail. He owns Books and Notions, the organ of the book and stationery trade in Canada, and is also interested in two out-of-town newspapers. All his ventures have been successful; his trade journal business especially has grown in extent and influence. The editorial and business staff has grown from two persons in 1886 to seventeen at the present time, exclusive of special writers. Mr. McLean is supposed to work very hard to keep his various enterprises booming, but he does not; his success is more owing to his thorough knowledge of every department of a paper and his ability to direct others to do the work. He learned to set type and make up forms when at school; he spent his spare time on The Mail with the pressmen and electrotypers, and during his nine years experience has filled every editorial and reportorial position on a paper. As a commercial editor Mr. McLean has perhaps no superior on the Canadian press. Though but three years in existence, he has made The Empire a recognized authority on commercial matters. He knows almost every prominent merchant and manufacturer in the province, and is thus able to keep posted on doings in the business world. He takes a deep interest in military matters, being a captain in the Royal Grenadiers, and was recently appointed adjutant. Though he is yet only in his 28th year, he has had several very tempting offers from American newspaper publishers, but none so far have been sufficient to induce him to leave Canada. He was treasurer of the Toronto Press Club for some years, and was elected secretary-treasurer of the Canadian Press Association at the last annual meeting.

Live Long, and Live Happy.

Statistics prove that wealth does no necessarily favor long life. In Prof. Humphrey's "Report on aged persons," containing an account of 824 individuals of both sexes, and between the ages of 80 and 100, it is stated that 48 per cent. were poor, 42 per cent. were in comfortable circumstances, and only 10 per cent. were described as being in affluent circumstances. High and sumptuous living, a lack of proper exercise, and being continually in the hands of the doctor will account in a large measure for the small precentage who reach old age. The poorer class, and those in moderate and comfortable circumstances, when any of the symptoms of disease show up, as a rule use that great and infallible remedy Paine's Celery Compound, which is nature's true restorer.

The nervous, used up, brain-tired mortal is braced up and strengthened for life's battles.

The sleepless, wakeful, irritable, morose, despondent and morbid victim secures sleep, rest, peace of mind, joyousness and vivacity of spirits, and is therefore enabled to enjoy life and long years. Ample proof is on record of the fact that men and women of from 80 to 90 are living to-day through the agency and power of Paine's Celery Compound.

Choicest Brands
—OF—
FLOUR!
BAKERS and PASTRY
—AT—
MELDRUM & DAVIDSON'S
Quality Guaranteed.
FEED
All kinds always on hand. Orders left at Ormond & Walsh's or McDonald's drug stores will be promptly attended to.
Mill Telephone No. 196.
LOWEST PRICES FOR CASH.

TOOLS!
BUILDING HARDWARE!
NAILS, LOCKS, HINGES,
and all Building Hardware
Edge Tools, Saws, Files, Planes
and all Mechanics' Tools.
Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc., etc.
of the Best Quality and Lower in Price than Elsewhere
GEO. STETHEM.

TURKISH DYES
EASY TO USE.
They are Fast.
They are Beautiful.
They are Brilliant.
SOAP WON'T FADE THEM.
Have YOU used them; if not, try and be convinced.
One Package equal to two of any other make.
Canada Branch: 481 St. Paul Street, Montreal.
Send postal for Sample Card and Book of Instructions.

FOR MEN ONLY!
VIGOR STRENGTH
For LOST or FAILING MANHOOD; General and NERVOUS DEBILITY; Weakness of Body and Mind, Effects of Errors or Excesses in Old or Young. Robust, Noble MANHOOD fully Restored. How to enlarge and Strengthen WEAK, UNDEVELOPED ORGANS & PARTS OF BODY. Absolutely unfailing HOME TREATMENT—Benefits in a day. Men testify from 50 States and Foreign Countries. Write them. Descriptive Book, explanation and proofs mailed (sealed) free. Address ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N. Y.

UNION CREDIT & PROTECTION
ASSOCIATION.
FOR the Collection of Old and Worthless Accounts, in any part of the world, and no charges if not collected. This Association has local offices in Canada and United States. Head and general office, 6½ Adelaide-st. East, Toronto. Rooms, 10, 11, 12 and 13. C. R. COLLINS, General Manager; & H. B. ANDREWS, Sec. Address all communications to Toronto, Ont., office. Telephone No. 2685. This is the only Association that settles accounts and advances the money to the creditor if desired.
C. R. COLLINS, Manager.
DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON, Solicitors for the Association at Peterborough.
August 29th, 1890 d52 w

OPEN FOR INSPECTION!
A handsome and very useful line of
CASE GOODS
COMPRISING
Carver Sets,
Ladies' and Gentlemen's
COMPANIONS
These Goods are the Best English Make.
KINGAN & Co

Bookbinding!
Magazines,
Periodicals,
Illustrated Papers,
Law, Music,
and all kinds of Books Bound in the very best style of the art. First-class Material and Work. Close Prices.
REVIEW PT'G CO.
LIMITED,
BOOKBINDERS, STATIONERS & ACCOUNT BOOK MANUFACTURERS.
350 George-st.

BLYTHE MILLS,
PETERBOROUGH
The above Mills have now been thoroughly renewed upon the complete
Hungarian Roller Process
The latest improved Rolls and flour Dressing Machines from the best manufacturing firms have been put in and everything necessary added to enable her to turn out flour.
Second to None
in the Dominion. The facilities for receiving grain from farmers and for elevating and shipping are first-class. We have
A Large Feed Stone for Custom Chopping.
Chopping done satisfactorily and without delay.
Rolled Oats for Horses
Experienced horsemen are emphatic in asserting that there is nothing equal to rolled oats for horses, and to meet this demand we have had put in a machine specially adapted for this purpose.
Wheat Exchanges
Promptly attended to and
First-class Roller Flour Guaranteed.
Roller Flour, Bran, Shorts, and all kinds of Chopped Feed constantly on hand.
Highest Market Price Paid in Cash for any Quantity of Wheat.
Hilliard & Peplow.

BARAVENA
MILK FOOD
FOR INFANTS is the safest, cheapest and nearest to Mothers' Milk of any Food made. Ask your Druggist.
THE IRELAND NATIONAL FOOD CO. LD. TORONTO

BANK of TORONTO
Capital $2,000,000 00
Reserve Fund 1,500,000 00
PETERBORO' BRANCH.
SAVINGS BANK
SPECIAL ADVANTAGES are derived by depositing money in our Savings Bank Department.
1. "ONE DOLLAR saved is one dollar earned."
2. DEPOSITS of ONE DOLLAR and upwards are received and interest allowed thereon.
3. INTEREST is added to the principal on the 31st day of May and 30th day of November, in each year.
4. MONEY bears interest from the day it is deposited with the Bank until the day of withdrawal.
5. THE DEPOSITOR is subject to no delay whatever.
6. THE SECURITY offered by this Bank is undoubted, as will be seen by the large reserve held and the amount of surplus available for depositors and note holders.
BUSINESS WITH FARMERS.
FARMERS' NOTES discounted at lowest rates.
SPECIAL ATTENTION is given to the collection of Farmers' Sale Notes, and advances made thereon.
NOTE FORMS furnished free of charge on application.
DEPOSITS.
DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS opened subject to withdrawal by cheque on demand.
SPECIAL DEPOSITS.—Deposit Receipts issued bearing interest at current rates.
JOHN L. GOWER, Manager.
d16-wC

Travel.

INTERCOLONIAL
RAILWAY OF CANADA.
The direct route between the west and all points on the Lower St. Lawrence and Baie de Chaleur, Province of Quebec, also New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward, Cape Breton and the Magdalene Islands, Newfoundland and St. Pierre.
Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax daily (Sunday excepted) and run through without change between these points in 30 hours.
The through express train cars of the Intercolonial Railway are brilliantly lighted by electricity and heated by steam from the locomotive.
New and elegant Buffet Sleeping and Day Cars are run on all through express trains.
The popular summer sea bathing and fishing resorts of Canada are along the Intercolonial or are reached by that route.
Canadian European Mail and Passenger Route.
Passengers for Great Britain or the Continent leaving Montreal on Thursday morning will join outward mail steamer at Rimouski the same evening.
The attention of shippers is directed to the superior facilities offered by this route for the transport of flour and general merchandise intended for the Eastern Provinces and New Foundland, also for shipments of grain and produce intended for the European market.
Tickets may be obtained and all information about the route, also freight and passenger rates on application to
N. WEATHERSTON,
Western Freight and Passenger Agent, 93 Rossin House Block, York street, Toronto,
D. POTTINGER,
Chief Superintendent
Railway Office, Moncton, N.B., 2nd July, 1890 17

CANADIAN PACIFIC RY.
SETTLERS' TRAINS
WILL LEAVE ON FEBRUARY 24th, 1891
AT 9.00 P.M.
AND EVERY TUESDAY THEREAFTER DURING MARCH AND APRIL
WITH COLONIST SLEEPER ATTACHED
FOR
MANITOBA AND THE CANADIAN NORTH-WEST
For persons without Stock a Colonist Sleeper will be attached to Express Train leaving Toronto 11 p.m.
For full information see any C.P.R. agent.

CLARK & GIBSON
have now on view and for sale some
VERY FINE GOODS
—CONSISTING OF—
Gold and Silver Watches, Clocks and Fine Jewellery, etc.
Moderate in Price and Newest Patterns.
Ask to see their
English Oak Goods
AND
SCOTCH PEBBLE JEWELLERY
RARE, CHOICE AND BEAUTIFUL.
WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELLERY carefully repaired.
136 Hunter-st., 2 doors west of the PostOffice.

THE
CENTRAL CANADA
Loan and Savings Co.

Authorized Capital	$5,000,000
Subscribed Capital	2,000,000
Paid-up Capital	300,000
Reserve Fund	150,000
Invested Funds	2,579,183.57

OFFICE—No. 437, George-st., Peterborough.
DEPOSITS received at current rates of interest, paid or compounded half-yearly.
DEBENTURES issued in Currency or Sterling, with interest coupons attached, payable in Canada or in England. Executors and Trustees are authorised by law to invest in the Debentures of this Company.
MONEY ADVANCED on Real Estate security at current rates and on favorable conditions as to repayment.
Mortgages and Municipal Debentures purchased.
GEO. A. COX, Managing Director
d94w41

JOHN NUGENT,
CHEMIST AND DRUGGIST.
Prescriptions Carefully Compounded.
Try Nugent's Remedies for Colds, Coughs and affections of the chest and throat.
J. NUGENT,
Drug Store, 170 Hunter-st. west.

BLANK FORMS
Deeds,
Mortgages,
Home Leases,
Farm Leases,
Agreements,
Short form of Lease
Lease of Land,
Magistrates Blanks,
Division Court Blanks,
etc., etc.,
Printed on good paper and correct forms.
AT THE
REVIEW STATIONERY.

Medical.

DR. SCOTT.
OFFICE—176 Brock-st. d18w24

P. D. GOLDSMITH, M. D.
L. R. C. S., L. R. C. P., L. R. C. P., London, Eng.,
HAS permanently located in Peterborough. Office and residence, 198 Brock-st., formerly occupied by Mr. J. B. McWilliams.
TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d67-w35-ly

D. N. CARMICHAEL, M. D.,
C. M., L. R. C. P. Ed.
GRADUATE OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY, Fellow of Trinity Medical School, Licentiate of Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh, L. M. of Simpson's Maternity Hospital, Edinburgh. Office in Mr. Alexander's new residence one door north of the late Dr. O'Sullivan's, George-st. d3m16-wyr16

DR. B. E. McKENZIE, B. A.
Lecturer on Orthopedic Surgery in the Women's Medical College, and in Toronto University; Consulting Orthopedic surgeon to Victoria Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto.
Diseases of the Joints and Deformities Only
Bloor-st. W. (near Yonge-st.) Toronto, Consultation from 10 to 3. On Friday and Saturday by appointment only.

DR. MOHER,
HAS removed to 216 Hunter-st., opposite Marble Works. Office upstairs.

Legal.

HATTON & WOOD.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office, corner of George and Hunter-sts., over T. Dolan & Co's. store. MONEY TO LOAN.
E. B. WOOD, B. A. G. W. HATTON.

SAWERS & STONE.
BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyances, &c. Office, Hunter-st., Peterborough.
MONEY TO LOAN.
E. B. STONE, d103-w41 C. W. SAWERS.

POUSSETTE & JOHNSTON,
BARRISTERS and SOLICITORS, 379 Water-st.
A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C. W. F. JOHNSTON.

EDWARD A. PECK.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, etc., 332 George-st., Peterborough.
Private Funds to loan at 6 per cent.

HALL & HAYES.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter-st., Peterborough next English church. Money to loan at lowest rates of interest.
E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN O'MEARA.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, &c. Office 287 George-st. d-w

JOHN BURNHAM
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office: No. 415 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont., next door north of new post office.
MONEY TO LOAN. d&w

W. H. MOORE,
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter-sts., over McClelland's Jewellery store. d118w15

G. M. ROGER.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Offices of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water-st., Peterborough. d37w

DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES. Money to Loan. Office, 417 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont.
ARTHUR STEVENSON, B. A.
R. M. DENNISTOUN, B. A.

STRATTON & HALL.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, &c., Peterborough, Ont. Office:—Next door to Post Office on Hunter-St.
W. A. STRATTON, LL. B. P. R. HALL. d128

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.
SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block, Peterborough. wed67

J. E. BELCHER
ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George-st. d6w46

Builders and Contractors

E. WEBB,
BRICKLAYER AND CONTRACTOR. All work done substantially and expeditiously. Address E. WEBB, Peterborough. Residence, 336 Aylmer-st. 1yd129

J. J. HARTLEY.
BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P. O. Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer-sts. 1yd109

WM. H. McELWAIN.
CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 82. d109

W. E. WHITEHAIR.
PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 886, Peterborough P. O. d85-1yr

JAS. R. DONELL.
RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being a practical man, he trusts to be able to give patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.
yd36 JAS. R. DONELL.

Big G Cures in 1 to 5 DAYS. Guaranteed not to cause Stricture. Mf'd only by The Evans Chemical Co. TORONTO, CAN.
Big G is acknowledged the leading remedy for Gonorrhœa & Gleet. The only safe remedy for Leucorrhœa or Whites. I prescribe it and feel safe in recommending it to all sufferers. A. J. STONER, M. D., DECATUR, ILL. Sold by Druggists. PRICE $1.00.
G. A. SCHOFIELD, Agt., Peterborough d 50-ly

DIARIES!
POCKET and OFFICE
Diaries
for 1891!
Twenty Sizes
to select from in
CLOTH and LEATHER
BINDINGS
—AT THE—
REVIEW Stationery

If YOU WISH
to Advertise
Anything
Anywhere
at Any time
WRITE TO
GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.
No. 10 Spruce Street,
NEW YORK.

SOCIETY,
COMMERCIAL
AND BOOK
PRINTING!
First-Class Work at Low Prices.
Review Office
350 GEORGE ST.

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE.

February 1st. 1891.

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
[illegible]	Montreal and East, via O. & Q. R.	[illegible]
11 30 a m 11 30 p m	Toronto and West, via O. & Q. R.	5 15 p m 9 00 p m
	Grand Trunk, East & West	1 15 p m
	do East	5 30 p m
12 00 a m 8 30 p m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west.	5 00 a m 4 30 p m
8 20 a m	Millbrook and Port Hope.	11 15 a m
5 15 p m	do do	5 30 p m
8 25 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings.	1 00 p m
4 00 p m	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	11 15 a m
10 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore	1 30 pm
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clydale, Paudash and Cheddar, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 30 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays
	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do do	4 00 p m
	British Mails per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	9 00 p m
	Via New York, Mondays
12 noon	Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	4 30 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz by each route, Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Australia, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings Bank, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxenburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey. And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamacia, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before. Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil British Guinea, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Port Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books, &c., 4c for 4 oz. Other Registration fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Payment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 12 cents, papers 4 cents.

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents. H. C. ROGERS, Post-Master

MUNN & CO
SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN AGENCY for PATENTS
A pamphlet of information and abstract of the laws, showing How to Obtain Patents, Caveats, Trade Marks, Copyrights, sent free. Address MUNN & CO. 361 Broadway, New York.

WEDDING CARDS.
LATEST STYLES AT THE
Review Stationery Store.

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XXV.—No. 41. PETERBOROUGH, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1891. TEN CENTS A WEEK

Probabilities.
Cloudy, with rain or snow; wind shifting to northerly, and weather turning a little colder.

SWISS
Needle Work
EMBROIDERY.

We take pleasure in announcing that we have just received Ex. SS. Sardinian) direct from the manufactory in St. Gall, Switzerland, our new Spring collection of Needle Work Embroidery for the season of 1891. We placed unusual large orders for these goods when the stitch prices were at the lowest point. The value is exceptionally good. The designs were selected with the greatest care and we think will merit your approval. Special discount allowed to customers purchasing in quantities of a dozen yards and upwards.

ROBERT FAIR,
Sign of the Golden Lion,
383 George Street, Peterborough.
Ontario (144 and Bell Telephone (145).

KID GLOVES!
KID GLOVES!

W. W. JOHNSTON
has just received a complete assortment of
Black and Colored
Kid Gloves
at 85c. per pair.
The Best in the Market at the Price.

SPECIAL VALUE IN
Bed Room Towels and Kitchen Towelling.
Call and see our
ART MUSLIN
at 15c. per yard.
CRYSTAL BLOCK
410 George st.

Musical.

ORGAN, PIANOFORTE and SINGING
DR. DAVIES,
Organist of St. John's church, late of Christ Church Cathedral and of St. James' Cathedral, Toronto, receives pupils at his residence, 42 McDonnel-st. At home each day from 9 till 10 a.m. and from 2 till 3 p.m. to make engagements, etc. d&w-1m

Wood and Coal.

COAL AND WOOD.
THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.
W. B. FERGUSON,
Telephone Connection. Agent

COAL! COAL!
THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of
COAL AND WOOD,
which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
d&w JAMES STEVENSON.

PETERBOROUGH WATER CO.
OFFICE - - 26 HUNTER-ST.
W. HENDERSON, Superintendent.
F. ADAMS, Collector.
All water rates and accounts must be paid at the office. Mr. Adams will be in the office from 2 to 5 p.m. every day

Awnings.
Tents.
AND Sails.

ALFRED KINGSCOTE has opened out in Dumble's Block, on Water-st., opposite the market, where he is prepared to do all kinds of Awning, Tent and Sail making. Good Work and Low Prices. Remember the place
A. KINGSCOTE,
d48-1yr No. 344 Water-st.

EDWIN BLOOMER,
TAXIDERMIST
and Dealer in Eyes, Artificial Leaves and Frostings.
BIRDS, ANIMALS, FISH and SNAKES stuffed and mounted in and out of cases in the best lifelike style at lowest prices. DEER'S HEADS a specialty. A stock of foreign and native birds always on hand for sale. Residence, No. 178 Harvey-st., Peterborough. d11-w41-ly

Wants.

WANTED.
A GOOD KITCHEN GIRL, able to cook. Apply at 287 George-st. THOS. H. PRATT. 2d40

WANTED.
A GOOD LIVE MAN for Life Insurance for Peterborough and vicinity. Address or call on J. L. GALE, Grand Central Hotel. 3d40

For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE,
A QUANTITY OF PAPER CUTTINGS and shavings. Apply at REVIEW Office.

TO LET.
Store and Dwelling
No. 281 George-st., now occupied by J.J. Turner. Good stand for grocery and boarding house. STORE and DWELLING No. 287 George-st. DWELLING HOUSES No. 33 Hunter-st., and 18 and 20 Queen-st. JOHN J. LUNDY. dtf

FOR SALE
BY TENDER.
The Stock in trade of the Hardware business carried on by George Stethem, in the Town of Peterborough. Purchaser can get lease of premises for term. Tenders at so much on the dollar. Stock lists can be seen at the premises. Highest or any tender not necessarily accepted. Tenders addressed to the undersigned received up to noon on Saturday, the 21st day of February instant.
R. A. MORROW.
Peterborough, Ont., Feb. 14th, 1891. 2d40

REMOVAL.
DR. CARMICHAEL
has removed to his new office and residence, corner of Water and Brock-sts., (opposite the Court House. d146-w52-3mo

MULHOLLAND & ROPER
BANKERS AND
INSURANCE AGENTS
Banking Department.
Deposit Accounts opened and Notes discounted at short dates or for twelve months if required. Special attention given to the purchase and collection of Farmers' Sale Notes. Drafts drawn on Merchants' Bank of Canada payable in New York, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and at any of its Branches in the Dominion. Cheques on other Banks cashed.
Four to Five per cent. allowed on deposits repayable on demand.
BANKING HOURS.—9.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m.
Insurance Department.
MR. FELIX BROWNSCOMBE is a partner in and manager of this department.
Careful attention given to Fire, Accident and Plate Glass Insurance.
The following companies are represented:—
London and Lancashire, City of London, Phœnix of Brooklyn, Caledonian, Royal Canadian, Agricultural, Montreal Plate Glass, Mutual Accident and Plate Glass, and Norwich and London Accident.
OFFICE HOURS.—9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

HAGGART & KIDD
TOWN and COUNTY } Auctioneers,
COMMISSION and SHIPPING } Merchants,
REAL ESTATE and INSURANCE } Agents.
☞ Money to Loan.

DOMINION
ELECTIONS!
West Riding of Peterborough.
MR. STEVENSON'S
Committee Rooms
OLD COUNCIL CHAMBER,
OPERA HOUSE BLOCK.
Open Every Evening. All Liberal Conservatives and Citizens wishing to maintain the present Government are invited to meet at the Rooms in the interests of the Conservative Candidate.
W. H. MOORE,
Pres. Lib.-Con. Ass'n
W. J. MINORE,
Sec. Lib. Con. Ass'n

SAWS Filed and Gummed in First Class Style. Knives, Scissors, Tools, &c., ground and sharpened. R. W. ENGLISH, shop, 369 Charlotte-st. d16 w1y

AT
TURNBULL'S

Owing to so many covered shapes being worn this season we have a quantity of untrimmed Felt Hats and Bonnets left of all styles for Ladies and Children which we have put together in one lot and are clearing out at

25c. each.

This includes everything. Our friends may know what bargains await them as many of them have been sold during the season at from $1.00 to $1.50. Remember you get the choice of this lot for 25c.

We are showing in one of our windows Spring Prints, which are but an indication of the quantities of handsome patterns we have inside.

Our Spring Flanneletts have arrived. The patterns are new and darker, what so many people want. They are very pretty. Quantities of new goods opened every day. We show a handsome range of new shades in Dress Goods suitable for Wedding Outfits.

Further particulars of what we will offer this Spring as special inducements next week.

J. C. TURNBULL
George & Simcoe-sts., Peterborough.

A. CLEGG,
Funeral Director.
Ware rooms, - - 427 George-st.
Residence, - 16 Benson-st.
S. CLEGG, Residence, 236 Stewart street. Telephone.

For You!
Reduction in prices of all Cloths. Suits and Overcoats to order for less money than ever to clear out the balance of winter stock.
Order now.
D. CAMERON & Co.
Tailors and Clothiers, 434 George-st.

TURKISH
DYES
EASY TO USE.
They are Fast.
They are Beautiful.
They are Brilliant.
SOAP WON'T FADE THEM.
Have YOU used them; if not, try and be convinced.
One Package equal to two of any other make.
Canada Branch: 481 St. Paul Street, Montreal.
Send postal for Sample Card and Book of Instructions.

D. BELLEGHEM,
Issuer of Mariage Licenses,
PETERBOROUGH.

LADIES' JERSEYS
In all the Leading Styles
at Lowest Prices at
PORT HOPE KNITTING WORKS
382 George-st.

MONEY TO LOAN.
A LARGE amount of private funds has been placed in my hands for loaning on farm security.
J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM,
dwt Solicitor, 186 Hunter-st.

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1891.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

TREASON EXPOSED.

SIR JOHN CASTS A BOMBSHELL IN THE POLITICAL CAMP.

The Leaders of the Liberal Party Pronounced to be Traitors—Documentary Evidence of Treason—How the Country Was to be Handed over Neck and Crop to the United States.

TORONTO, Feb. 17.—No statesman of a free country in modern times ever received an ovation more complete or flattering than that which greeted Canada's Grand Old Man last night in the Academy of Music. The interior of that building presented a sight the inspiration of which cannot be conveyed in print. Into all parts of the house the crowd had forced itself. Ladies sat in the boxes and with their escorts filled the gallery in every corner. Men covered every inch of the remaining space. They sat in the windows, perched on the gallery stairways and sat on the edges of the platform.

The scene outside the Academy, though not so brilliant as that inside, was quite as interesting. Traffic was blocked in King-street shortly after 7 o'clock. The great crowd extended about 100 yards each way from the doors. The side doors at which reporters were admitted were blocked by those who could get no nearer the main entrance. Cheer after cheer arose from the street long after all hope of gaining admission was abandoned. At 10 o'clock, when Sir Charles was still speaking, cheers could be heard from time to time by those within who had no means of knowing what time those outside dispersed.

Chairman Brock said: Twenty thousand citizens are outside and unable to get in. I know you are here as loyal citizens of Toronto to do honor to the representatives of Sir John Macdonald's Government and himself. The people have been called to choose representatives for the coming Parliament.

Sir John Macdonald was greeted with a perfect uproar. The whole house rose en masse and cheered loud and long. Handkerchiefs and hats waved over the vast throng, and cheers were renewed again and again. Sir John stood smiling and looking quite happy. Finally the chorus, "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," was sung as it was never sung in Toronto, and the old chieftain was allowed to speak. Almost at his first word the noise which marked the first part of the meeting dropped and perfect quiet prevailed. At first Sir John's voice was weak and audible only to those immediately near him, but later in his speech, when he denounced the conspirators it was strong enough for the largest building in the country.

Sir John said: I can scarcely hope that my feeble voice will be heard to the extremities of this hall. Although my good friend Sir Charles Tupper says that I am a little younger than himself, I feel that I cannot emulate him either in physical strength, mental activity or power of expression. You have listened with equal instruction and pleasure to his speech to-night. I am glad to be before you to-night. The happiest years of my life have been spent here. One of the consolations of being handed over to the cold shades of Opposition was to come to Toronto in order to earn my bread. When I came here trade and commerce of this great city was crippled by the vicious legislation and still more vicious want of legislation of the previous five years. Oh, Mr. Chairman, affairs were in a bad state! Workingmen were reduced to half-time, three-quarters time and no time at all, and the markets of the city were burdened with the sweepings of the United States warehouses. It was pressed upon me more than ever, though I was always a protectionist in theory, that the country was in urgent need of protection to native industries, that Canada should be kept for the Canadians. [Cheers.] I have always been well treated and cordially received by friends and friendly foes in Toronto, and indeed I would be insensible to all cordiality if I were not affected by the enthusiastic reception to-night. There was certainly rather an uproarious evidence of enthusiasm in one part of this hall. These gentlemen were complementary to Sir Charles, for they would not be converted, and I have no hope of converting them. [Laughter.] They are in the same position as the little girl who was asked how far she was in her catechism. "How far?" she said, "I am past redemption." [Laughter and applause.] You have lately heard four of my colleagues on the questions of the day, and you have heard the exposition of Sir Charles Tupper to-night. I feel that I have little further to add. The policy of the Government of which I am the leader, the aged leader—perhaps the weak and inefficient leader—[shouts of "No, no"]—but the honest and well-intentioned leader—[cheers and applause] — I say the policy of the Government is the same as it was in 1878. The policy of protection which we brought before the people then has been faithfully carried out.

Negotiations for Trade With the United States.

Gentlemen—Mr. Chairman rather, and gentlemen—I may say that the Opposition press has been spreading the idea that the United States Government would not deal with us. Well, suppose that were true—and it is not true—(applause)—we offer—the Canadian Government as at present constituted offer—to enter into negotiations for trade without limitation as to the subjects which such negotiations would reach without limitation in any way, except that the subject should be dealt with in such a way as would be beneficial to the interests of both countries. We only make two reservations. In the first place this free people, with a free parliament and with a free Government, would never consent to hand over the control of our tariff to any foreign country. [Loud applause.] We all know and we all look back in this age of education, where everybody reads history; we all look back with admiration to the stand which 13 colonies of America made against the Mother Country when England attempted [illegible] to put a tariff on them—a reasonable tariff as it was, but it was right that they resisted it, because they had no voice in the imposition of that tariff, and their resistance was founded, as it deserved to be founded, upon that, and it was successful, as it deserved to be. [Applause.] Are we inferior in patriotism to the people of the 13 colonies? We are not inferior to them, and we are not inferior to the people of the United States in our resolve to be free men. We are resolved, as the thirteen colonies were, and as England was when she resisted the ship money at the time of Charles I., when an illegal tax was placed without the vote of Parliament upon the people of England. You remember how John Hampden gained immortality by resisting the imposition of that tax. Why, that was the chief cause why King Charles the First's head rolled on the scaffold. As it was with our ancestors in England, so it was with the people of the United States; so it was with the freemen of England and America when they resisted the oppressive idea of any people, of any power but the power generated and coming from the people imposing taxation or allowing the tax gatherer into the houses of the people, seizing the property and interfering with their liberty. [Loud applause.] This was one of the reservations we made in any negotiations with the United States, that we would keep the control of our own tariff. [Loud applause.] And the next was that we would suffer no discrimination against our Mother Country. [Loud applause.] It would be foolish, it would be unpatriotic, it would be ungrateful, and great would be the sin, if we attempted that, and great would be the punishment that would fall upon the country. [Loud applause.] Suppose now for a moment that England was to take the idea of discriminating, of looking after her own interests. We look back to the civil war in the United States, how it worked misery in England. You remember how Lancaster, supplying as it was the cotton manufactures of the world, was ruined, how misery was caused by the blockade of the southern ports, by the absolute want of the cotton, the raw material which supplied the means of employment to the hundreds of thousands of artisans of Lancashire. You remember how completely English cotton manufacturers were dependent upon this natural product of the United States. Suppose now that England would propose to make a discriminating tariff in order to get cotton free. Suppose that England would make a treaty with the United States by which they would agree that there should be free trade between the United States and England, but that there should be a discriminating tariff against the colonies. Would we stand that for a moment if American grain, if American barley, if American products, generally cheese, butter, and all that, were admitted free into England?

What would we say? How long would we continue a colony of England? We would say, is England shutting her door to our products? is England allowing a foreign country to send their products to her shores free, and excluding or putting a tax upon Canadian products, one of her own colonies? How long would we endure that? Yet, Mr. Chairman, that is what Sir Richard Cartwright wants us to do. Sir, we will never do it. [Hear, hear.] With these restrictions we have offered to the United States to sit down like two sensible civilized trading nations desirous of developing mutual trade, to enter into negotiations; and what does Mr. Blaine say? Mr. Blaine said: I think we ought to have a basis for negotiation; let us have a friendly talk a quiet talk, unofficial, to see whether we cannot find a basis on which we can afterwards negotiate. And Mr. Blaine went further, so anxious was he, so desirous was he, to meet our views. He said: Well, if you will only agree to that, after March 4, when Congress rises, I will be quite ready to meet the British Minister at Washington and any delegation from Canada to consider all these points. That is the position in which that matter now stands. It is true, Mr. Chairman, that we find great obstruction at Washington, great indifference in the American mind, to enter into a discussion with us, because Canadian traitors, as Sir Charles Tupper has truly called them, have gone to Washington, have told them. You should not concede to Canada anything. If you do not put the screws to Canada, if you do not put every possible obstruction upon her trade, if you do not coerce them, bulldoze them in every possible way, you will not get Canada; we will assist you, and with our assistance you will get Canada. That is a very strong statement for me to make, but I know it, I know the responsibility of making the charge. I say that there is a deliberate conspiracy, in which some of the leaders of the Opposition are more or less compromised. I say that there is a deliberate conspiracy, by force, by fraud, or by both, to force Canada into the American union. In the first place, did you ever know before statesmen of one country going clandestinely to that of another and giving advice to them against the constituted authority of their own? [Cries of "Never" and "Name him."]

Farrer is the Traitor.

What is that I hear? You ask me to name him? Yes, I will name him. In the first place you know Mr. Farrer? [Hear, hear.] People know who Mr. Farrer is. He was once the editor of The Mail when it was a Tory paper. He is now the editor, philosopher and friend of Sir Richard Cartwright, and the controlling influence over that great, that glorious and consistent newspaper—The Globe. Mr. Farrer has been down to Washington several times. Perhaps he is there yet. [A voice: He is here to-night.] I am very glad that he is, because he will hear what I have to say. Then, Mr. Charlton was down there, and, as Sir Charles Tupper says, Mr. Charlton is a native-born Yankee. He came to Canada to lumber a little, and make a little money. He is a patriotic man, and I am a patriotic Britisher, to use an American expression, so he is a devoted friend of the Republic across the border. To be sure, he has sworn that he will bear true allegiance to Queen Victoria, her heirs and successors. If he had his will I do not think he would leave much to the heirs and successors. But, the allegiance that Mr. Charlton desires to bear to the Queen's heirs and successors is rather an indefinite quantity. But still, he is an American, and we will forgive him. Let us leave this to his own conscience whether he can settle his republican principles and his actions to carry out those principles because they are inconsistent with the oath he has taken in the Parliament of Canada, and before God and his country, that he will bear true allegiance to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors. Then comes Sir Richard Cartwright. He is a native born Canadian, a native born British subject, his ancestors came from the United States as U. E. Loyalists, his grandfather bore a name which still lingers, held with respect and veneration around the Bay of Quinte, where he took refuge because he abandoned everything for the sake of his loyalty and connection to his king. Sir Richard Cartwright was a Conservative, too; a Tory. Yes, he was. [Cheers and laughter.] It is said that grief makes people's hair gray.

You read in Lord Byron of the man who, from agony of mind, in one night had his hair turned from the deepest black to the brightest white. Sir Richard Cartwright changed from Toryism to what he is now, God knows what you would call that. [Loud cheers and laughter.] His Toryism changed into Radicalism, Gritism, United Statesism. It changed when he saw in The Gazette that His Excellency the Governor-General had been pleased to appoint Sir Francis Hincks Minister of Finance. From that moment he did not hesitate to say so. He wrote me a note that he could no longer be considered a supporter when I took such a man as Sir Francis Hincks into the Government, because Sir Francis Hincks was a man of the people. He had been a shopkeeper in the city of Toronto; he had grown from being a rather violent Liberal himself, from long experience and greater knowledge of the world, to be an English Whig, in other words, a Liberal-Conservative. I was looking for the best man to manage the finances of Canada, which were not in so satisfactory a state then as they are now. [Hear, hear.] I wrote around to find the best man in my humble opinion, I being premier at the time, for that purpose. I did not care what were his previous proclivities, I did not care, although he had led a party on one side and I sat opposite him on the other, I knew that he was a sound, loyal man. [Hear, hear.] I knew that after long years of experience in Canada he had become a real constitutional British statesman and I admired his great financial ability. It was because I had the audacity to think that Sir Francis Hincks would settle the affairs of Canada, and especially get rid of the silver nuisance better than Sir Richard, that his hair turned from black to white, and he turned from Tory to Radical. [Laughter.] However, he was a native Canadian, and besides he had taken an honor from the Queen. You may remark that some of the Liberal papers sneer at me because I have a title, a handle to my name, and they sneer at others, such as my colleagues, Sir Hector Langevin, Sir Adolphe Caron, Sir Charles Tupper and others—they have handles to their names. You never heard Sir Richard Cartwright on that subject of attack upon the present Government. [Laughter.]

Seduced by the Devil and 'Ras Wiman.

Yet this man, seduced by the devil and Erastus Wiman, forgetful of his oath of allegiance, and forgetful of his character as a British subject, as a sworn Privy Councillor—because he is a Privy Councillor of Canada, although not nominated to the Cabinet—forgetful of all his obligations, moral, social and otherwise, he has sneaked down to Washington, sneaked down, coaxed by Wiman. He did not go to any hotel. He did not register his name in any public place. No, Mr. Chairman, he went down there like all conspirators as it were with their cloaks around them, and he sat at night with sundry of the statesmen of the United States settling whether he could not sell Canada and sell me. [Loud laughter and cheers.] I say it was not known at first that he had gone there. It was kept quite secret. It came out, however. These things will come out—(cheers and laughter)—and I heard in Parliament several members casually throw it across the floor, and every time that little question was mentioned those were the only times I ever saw Mr. Richard Cartwright wilt. [Hear, hear and cheers.] How can we expect to make a reasonable treaty with the United States when these gentlemen of the Liberal party were—to use a phrase that may be used by some of you, although I don't use it myself—going one better? [Cheers and laughter.] We said we must have control of our own tariff, but they said this is a matter of agreement, and we will come and adopt the tariff. Of course a tariff once adopted that tariff can only be altered by the Congress of the United States and the Parliament of Canada. The United States Congress represents 65,000,000 and our Parliament represents 5,000,000 or 6,000,000. The United States is stronger and they would wag us, or otherwise the tail would wag the dog, you know. [Laughter and cheers.] Well, Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, the conspiracy has been going on, and I take the full responsibility of making this statement that there is a deliberate attempt to induce the United States to favor the present opposition against the present Government by holding out to them hopes of annexation. How am I to prove that? you will say. Well, I will tell you how. As you know, The Globe is the Bible of the Sir Richard Cartwright branch of the Liberals. Thank God for the sake of the country and of the credit of the Liberal party it is only a wing of the party. [Cheers.] As Sir Charles Tupper has said, and in fact the moral of the party, and the respectability shudder at the length to which Sir Richard Cartwright, from his own insane ambition, has carried him. Mr. Farrer, a man of great ability, as I happen to know, and a man of utter want of principle, as I happen to know, was the Tory editor of the Tory newspaper, The Mail. [Laughter.] That newspaper has also fallen from grace, but Sir Richard Cartwright wanted to have a man of ability and he brought him—no, leave out the letter R in that word brought—(laughter)—I say he bought him from The Mail and planted him in The Globe. Since then Mr. Farrer has been the ambassador between The Globe, Sir Richard Cartwright and Washington. Now, a loyal man brought it to the notice of a member of the Government that this Mr. Farrer, the conscience-keeper of Sir Richard Cartwright—an easy task, by the way—with his own hand had prepared a document for the purpose to be used in the United States. He (Mr. Farrer) had prepared a document to be used there, and I have no doubt on his last visit there has used it. He (Mr. Farrer) prepared that manuscript with his own hand. He was afraid to publish it even with his own types in The Globe office. He took it to Hunter, Rose & Co. He got back the manuscript, and a loyal man brought some of the original galley proofs of that document which is now being collected, or is nearly all collected, by the officers of the police. [Hear, hear and cheers.] Now, we have conclusive evidence on that by statutory declaration of the fact that that paper, that manuscript, was the manuscript of Farrer. There is a statutory declaration from a man who knew Farrer's handwriting as well as he knew his own. [Hear, hear.] I will read to you the last paragraph of that paper, and you will see the charge that I make that all this negotiation at Washington is merely leading up to a result which they consider inevitable — the result being the annexation of Canada to the United States. [Hear, hear.]

How They are to Force Us.

This document tells the Americans how they are to force Canada: "You are to grant them nothing; you are to try to stop the bonding system; you are to put a tax on everything that Canada produces." In fact, the document points out every possible way in which Canada and its trade can be injured and its people impoverished, with the view of eventually bringing about annexation. The writer pays me a great compliment. He says annexation cannot make great progress as long as I am at the head of affairs. [Hear, hear, and cheers.] But then, he says, I am 75 years old. [Laughter.] Now, gentlemen, you laugh at their attempts to bulldoze us into this position, and I am inclined to laugh myself sometimes, but this document shows that there is a treasonable conspiracy in Canada—[hear, hear]—and it is a treason that is to be met by every man, no matter what his political proclivities may be, no matter whether he reckons himself a Liberal or a Conservative, a Conservative Liberal or a Liberal Conservative; so long as he is a British subject, every man who feels his obligation as a Canadian will visit—I was going to say with his vengeance—with his righteous indignation any party that would be guilty, directly or indirectly, of a conspiracy of this kind. I know the responsibility of what I am saying; but I will read you the document, and I think you will say that I am justified in characterizing it as I do. It is a rather long document and I will read its concluding paragraph, which alludes particularly to the fisheries of the Maritime Provinces as the feature in which Canada can most easily be hurt. What I shall read is a copy taken from the original galleys and printed from the types of Hunter, Rose & Co. and I have got the original.

How It Reads.

"A word in conclusion about the situation in the Maritime Provinces. Outside of Halifax the people as a body are well disposed towards the United States. The fisherman's phrase that they should like 'to see Gloucester moved east' in order that they might enjoy higher wages commends itself to the majority. Sir John Macdonald secures the election of a Tory majority from Nova Scotia only by a system of largesse and corruption carried on without attempt at concealment."

This is a case of John Madiver: "Come along, John; we have lots of money to put down bribery and corruption."

"A constituency which returns an Opposition member is forthwith excluded from sharing in the railway subsidies and other appropriations lavished on the rest."

If a man holds that a subsidy to a railway is corrupt, he cannot well complain if the corruption is not practised in his own county.

"The fishermen have a saying that a Nova Scotia member on the wrong side at Ottawa is 'a spare pump in a dry ship.' In Prince Edward Island, where it is impossible to spend public money, except on a few wharves and lighthouses, the people return a solid Liberal contingent to Ottawa. The islanders are exceedingly friendly to the Americans, and it is said by one who knows the state of feeling there that fully 70 per cent. of them would vote for full reciprocity or for annexation, provided the question were submitted to them free from any entangling issues of a local character, and that the Ottawa Government abstained from the use of bribery. It is felt by all that Sir John's methods of reconciling these provinces to the vast economic loss they sustain from being severed from their natural market in New England cannot survive the man himself."

That is me. [Laughter.]

"No one else could employ them with equal skill or success. He is now 75 years old."

I am 76.

"The fishery question owes its existence not to the people but to the fish merchants and vessel owners. The traders in other lines would be glad to see the widest privileges extended to the Americans, whose custom was once, and might be again, an important factor in the business of the provinces, more especially since the decay of the in-shore fisheries had rendered it all the more essential that the coast population should be permitted to resume their former relations with the visitors. The influence of the fish merchants is far-reaching. They control the newspapers, and to some extent the politics of the provinces."

I thought it was the Government that did the bribery.

"The headland question, the dispute over the right of Americans to enter the Bay of Fundy, which was terminated by the arbitration in the case of the vessel Washington and other points of controversy, were all pressed by them in the hope, to which they still cling, of being able to force Congress into yielding free fish. If their minds could be disabused of this notion, and they were made to see that free fish was not procurable through coercion, we should soon hear the last of the cry that to grant commercial privileges to the Americans would be to surrender an invaluable franchise. The imposition by the United States of a tonnage tax on all Nova Scotia vessels laden whole or in part with fish would speedily put an end to seizures, and indeed to the whole controversy. Another ready way of bringing the Government and all concerned to their senses would be to suspend the bonding privilege, or cut the connection of the Canadian Pacific with United States territory at Sault Ste. Marie. Either of these methods would rouse the full force of Western Canada influence against the Government. It would be better still to oblige Britain to withdraw her countenance and support from the Canadian contention as she did in 1871."

Lord Kimberley, who was a very weak and inefficient Minister of the Colonies, who rather thought the colonies were a nuisance, wrote a very cold water despatch, which has been repudiated by every English Government since that time.

"That would secure the end desired without leaving the United States open to the charge of being animated by hatred of Canada, on which Sir John Macdonald trades. Whatever course the United States may see fit to adopt, it is plain that Sir John's disappearance from the stage is to be the signal for a movement towards annexation. The enormous debt of the Dominion ($50 per head), the virtual bankruptcy of all the provinces except Ontario, the pressure of the American tariff upon trade and industry, the incurable issue of race, and the action of the natural forces making for the consolidation of the lesser country with the greater, have already prepared the minds of most intelligent Canadians for the destiny that awaits them; and a leader will be forthcoming when the hour arrives."

Who is to Be the Leader?

Voices: "That's Cartwright."

Who is to be the leader? Mr. Farrer here speaks of his leader, his boss, Sir Richard Cartwright. [Hear, hear and cheers.] I think you will agree with me that there is somewhere and among some people a conspiracy to drive Canada into the arms of the United States, by inducing the United States to be as obstructive as possible and as annoying as possible to this country. The abolition of the bonding privilege, under which we have free intercourse, and every device that can possibly hurt Canada, is suggested in this paper; and we are told that all the intelligent people of Canada think so; that these things must bring about annexation, and that the leader will be found when the time comes. Gentlemen, that is the position we have to face in Canada at the present time. Here we have a Government and a people, and I believe an electorate, as will be shown in a few days, that fully value the privileges we have got, that believe we will be losers and not gainers by such a union, and we believe that we have enjoyed as great an amount of freedom as any country in the world. I believe that we are as happily constituted as any country under the sun, believing that there is social freedom, there is individual freedom, there is political freedom, and there is an absence of those disintegrated and treasonable qualities which threatened the peace and prosperity of the country. We have no such questions [as the negro question which was looming up so disastrously in the United States to bother us;—we have no large social assemblages of foreign anarchists; you saw what they did at Chicago a while ago. We have no such thing as elected judges, where the people elect men who will decide according to the wishes of the majority. We look up to England and to English tradition for our guidance; we have everything to lose, much more than wealth, much more than money's worth, we have everything to lose to be severed from England; we have everything to gain by the benign influence of her Majesty's Government; a free Queen over a free people, but governed by principles of religion, by principles of equality and by principles of morality which a fierce democracy never had and never will have. [Applause.] And will the people of Canada submit to such a thing; will they submit to men going off to a foreign country, aye and raising money for the purpose of driving the people into annexation? In ordinary electoral struggle there is too common an opinion among the people who do not think of the responsibility, "Oh, well, my vote is my own, and if I sell it it is no man's business." I have heard it a hundred times; it is wrong. You can understand that feeling exists; but in a case of this kind a man who takes money from a foreigner or from a native, from Sir Richard Cartwright, not only sells his vote but sells his country. I have no idea that the people of Canada will do that.

Shall Canada's Fate be That of Poland?

Why, Mr. Chairman, look at the fate of Poland. Poland a free country, a gallant people, a great people, the greatest soldiers in the world, one of the finest races in the world; that country was finally conquered by corruption. The people rose in arms, and under their great general they fought against enormous odds, but at last they were overcome, and when the gallant Pole fell on the field of battle his last words were, "Finis Polina"—that is, the last of Poland. Now, we will not have war just yet, but if we submit to this kind of foreign intervention, if we allow American millionaires or speculators to come into this country, to be traitors among our ranks, to spend foreign gold for the purpose of buying up our people, why then can we say, like the Polish general, "Finis Canada"—this is, the end of Canada. But there is no fear of that. [No, no.] But if it should happen that we should be absorbed in the United States, the name of Canada would be literally forgotten—we would have the state of Ontario, state of Quebec, and state of Nova Scotia, and state of New Brunswick; every one of the provinces would be a state; but where is the grand, the glorious name of Canada which we now have in one and which we are now proud of? It would indeed be this in the end. All I can say is that not with me, or not by the action of my friends or not by the action of the people of Canada, will such a disaster come upon us. I believe that this election, which is a great crisis and upon which so much depends, will show to the Americans that we prize our country as much as they do, that we would fight for our existence as much as they fought for the preservation of their independence. [Hear, hear.] That spirit of our fathers which fought and won battle after battle still exists in their sons; and if I thought it was otherwise I would say the sooner the grass was growing over my grave the better, rather than that I should see the degradation of the country which I have loved so much and which I have served so long. [Loud and prolonged applause.]

The meeting was brought to a close with cheers for "The Old Man," "God Save the Queen," and "We will Hang Ned Farrer on a Sour Apple Tree."

A Few More Nominations.

West Elgin—George E. Casey (Ref.).
South Lanark—John Haggart (Con.).
North York—Wm. Mulock (Ref.).
West Bruce—Hugh Morrison, solicitor of Lucknow (Con.)
Glengarry—John McLennan having declined the Reform nomination, J. T. Schell of Alexandria was tendered it yesterday and accepted.
East Huron—Dr. Wm. J. R. Holmes of Goderich, treasurer of Huron (Con.).
Dundas—Hugh Ross of Iroquois (Con.).
Carleton—J. M. McDougall of Aylmer, Que. (Con.)

The United States in 1890 exported $33,000,000 worth of cattle, and Great Britain imports cattle in large numbers. Retain the market for Canadian cattle by opposing unrestricted reciprocity. Vote for Messrs. Burnham and Stevenson.

King of Medicines

A Cure "Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered had to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 6 years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well.

"Early in 1886 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Circus,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A. LEHR, 9 N. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.

HAVE NOT LOST A SINGLE DAY

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 13. 1891.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House. Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

TAXATION.

IT is easy for the followers o Sir Richard Cartwright to make assertions regarding the burden of Dominion taxation, but an examination of the facts shows that they are wrong. In 1878-9, the last year in which Sir Richard managed the finances of the country, there was raised by taxation $[illegible], but in that year there was a deficit of $1,937,999.42, which should be added to the taxes, because it had to be made up by the people to pay the current expenses of that year, and that makes the total $29,418,612.77, or $4.90 per head of the population. Since the present Government took office the post office system has been extended, the Northwest has been opened up and necessarily added to the expenditure, public works have been built and improved, and much work done out of revenue which has facilitated business and benefitted the people. And what has been the increased taxation on account of this? In 1889-90 there was a surplus of $3,885,[illegible]8.94; there were increased subsidies to the Provinces amounting to $462,157.79, which gave the Ontario Government more funds to expend for the people and for which they take great credit, and $[illegible],617.44 was paid into the sinking fund. Deducting these items there was taxation to the amount of $25,579,[illegible].57, or $5.00 per head of the present population, an increase of just ten cents. This is an increase, it is true, but no Canadian would wish to withdraw that ten cents and have the country without the beneficial expenditure that has been made. The Government has been progressive, but it has been prudent. The taxation has been kept down, and while Sir Richard Cartwright increased the debt at the rate of $9,166,66 a year, last year the increase was only $8,000 and it is now being reduced.

CANADA HAS PROSPERED.

SIR JOHN MACDONALD predicted that the present fiscal policy would revive business in Canada and give an impetus to its growth and development. His prediction was well-grounded, as time has proved and as the records show. The increase in the miles of railway, shipping, money circulation and deposits, etc, in 1890 as compared with 1878 is a follows:—

		Increase.
Miles of railway		7,046
Tons of shipping		15,149,709
Letters and cards carried in mails		48,180,000
Deposits in banks	$	[illegible]
Money orders	$	6,777,000
Bank note circulation	$	17,0[illegible],396
Production of coal (tons)		1,8[illegible],000
Value of cheese exports	$	8,374,081
Value of exports of cattle	$	5,797,083
Value of exports of sheep	$	[illegible],010
Value manufactured wood exports	$	6,798,719
Value home manufactures exports	$	7,347 354

The increase in the railways, shipping, letters, money orders, banking business, etc., show a great increased of business and production in the country, and that the policy of the Government has had the beneficial effect that i's authors and supporters said it would have. A reversal of this policy, and the exclusion of trade from all countries except the United States, which the Liberals propose, would check the growth and prosperity of the Dominion and the tide would flow the other way. Instead of advancement there would be retrogression.

SHADOWS CAST BEFORE.

The London Free Press says:—"One of the leading hardware dealers of this city recently received a large import order for the Bolt Works. They have been cabled to cancel the order until after the 5th of March.

"Messrs. A.J. Nash & Co., the well-known carriage manufacturers of this city, had an order for a carload of buggies from New Brunswick. That order has just been cancelled, pending the elections. Messrs. Nash & Co. were informed that if unrestricted reciprocity carries, not another Ontario carriage will be wanted in New Brunswick."

In these cases the evils that would come under unrestricted reciprocity cast their shadows before.

The workingmen of Canada, the business men, the agriculturists and all who have business relations or an interest in this country should consider this.

"That tired feeling" is entirely overcome by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which gives a feeling of buoyancy and strength to the whole system.

SCIENCE AND PROGRESS.

INTERESTING PARAGRAPHS CULLED FROM VARIOUS FIELDS.

Carbonic Acid in the Air During Fogs—How to Unite the Ends of Lead Pipe—Electricity's Early Days—Scientific Notes.

It is recorded in a local newspaper that recently, on the occasion of a particularly dense fog in Dundee and its neighborhood, a chemist attached to the University College took the opportunity of investigating the amount of carbonic acid in the atmosphere within the college grounds. The test was taken at 8 A. M., when the fog appeared to be at its thickest. At this time the proportion of carbonic acid in the air was 8 volumes in 10,000, or more than double the normal amount in the locality. It is remarked in the report of this experiment that, although the air in fog has often been analysed before, the circumstance of the high proportion o carbonic acid present in the atmosphere under such conditions appears to be of peculiar interest, and the question is asked whether attention has been called to it. To this, says the Journal of Gas Lighting, the answer must be in the affirmative. If the air of a dense fog in Dundee only contains the stated maximum of carbonic acid, the people of this locality are very much better off than those condemned to breathe fogs in London or Manchester, where the maximum of the noxious gas named is at such times much higher. For the rest, an excess of carbonic acid is to be expected under the circumstances, from the stagnation of the air, which hinders the dispersion of the products of combustion and animal respiration.

How to Unite the Ends of Lead Pipe.

What may be found a convenient method of uniting the ends of pipe, the American Engineer thus explains: Whatever the size of the pipe may be, procure a block of hard wood, say four or five inches long, and four inches in diameter, bore a hole straight through the centre, so nearly the size of the pipe that the block can be driven on the end of the pipe with a light hammer. If one has a set of auger bits, it will not be difficult to select a bit of the proper size to make a water-tight fit. Let the block be driven clear on the pipe, so that the end of the pipe will be flush or even with the end of the block. Now place the two ends of the pipe together and drive the block off one pipe on the other, until the joint will be at the middle of the block. If the hole in the block is made of the proper size, the block will fit so closely that the joint will be water-tight; and if the ends of the pipe are dressed off true and square the joint will be so strong that it will sustain the pressure of a head or column of water one hundred feet high. Iron pipe may be united in the same manner. Should the joint leak a trifle, let shingle nails be driven into the wood around the pipe so as to press the timber firmly all around the pipe.

Electricity's Early Days.

In an interesting article on the invention of the electric motor by Davenport, a Vermont village blacksmith, fifty years ago, F. L. Pope, who has been investigating the subject historically, states that in order to insulate his wire the poor inventor was actually driven to the necessity of tearing up into strips his wife's much-prized wedding dress. This incident has recalled an amusing episode of the old telegraphic days, when James D. Reid, now United States Consul at Dunfermline, but then a pioneer with Mr. Morse, started out in charge of a gang and coated the wire between Philadelphia and Baltimore with tar. No hotel proprietor would give him or his tar bucket any hospitality. That was in 1846. At another time the use of waxed cloth at the point where the wires met the suspension pins was tried. The only result was that the bees of all the country round made a dead set at the waxed rags, and for a short time there was prevailing in a beeswax boom. But wax soon gave way to glass.

An Exhibition of Weavings.

An exhibition of artistic weavings has been arranged in Stockholm by Froken Brunsson, who has for a number of years been engaged in teaching and practising artistic weaving. She has the reputation of being one of the ablest of Sweden's many excellent weavers, and has done much for the advancement of this domestic art industry. The exhibition contains a large number of specimens of the various textile arts, such as gobelins, and also a hand loom in work.

SCIENTIFIC NOTES.

It has recently been found that certain fungoid growths have the power of removing gold from water containing it in suspension.

A Hoosier inventive genius has recently patented a voting booth that can be folded up into the smallest possible space for transportation.

Tough paper is made by mixing chloride of zinc with the pulp. The more concentrated the zinc solution the tougher will be the paper.

Geologists have proved that the diamond mines of South Africa are situated in vents or chimneys varying from 70 to 15,000 feet in diameter.

Celluloid in solution is now being extensively used as a lacquer for all kinds of fine metal work and as a wood varnish with results that are said to be superior to the old methods.

It is proposed using the Eiffel tower to exhibit the rotation of the earth by the Foucault method. The pendulum is a bronze wire 380 feet long, with a steel globe at the end weighing 198 pounds.

By the application of chloride of antimony a beautiful violet color is imparted to brasswork. The brass should be first made perfectly clean and heated until water will steam off it without hissing.

Data of the trials of three large steamers, showing the comparative methods of large and small screw, show that propellers of small diameter have in each case proved the more economical and effective both increasing the speed and decreasing the coal consumption.

In the electric gyroscope for use in correcting the error of a compass neither rolling nor pitching need be feared. It is said to be adapted to correct the compass with certainty, as its axis of rotation remains fixed as long as it is necessary to prolong the observation.

One of the greatest problems of the future is thought to be the transformation of carbon energy into light upon the same principle that the glow-worm and firefly gave their light, and when a single pound of combustible material will furnish as much light as is now obtained from a ton of coal.

A London merchant rejoices because he tried music as a medicine. His boy, 6 years old, was dying with typhoid, and was quite insensible, with no appearance of being able to live through the night. Knowing his son's fondness for music, the father procured a large music box and caused it to play, with the result that the child's attention was aroused and his life saved by the reaction.

Two Letters of William I.

Two remarkably interesting autograph letters of Emperor William I. have been discovered in an antiquarian's shop in Berlin. One dated March 13, 1848, five days before the revolution, says: "Through revolution and the weakness of her rulers Germany has come to the point at which Louis Philippe began in 1830. Whither are we tending? We can now see how logical has been the radical agitation. And now even the National Guard! Such things and the freedom of the press will make a republic of Germany yet."

"The political world is still unwilling to make use of our arm," he wrote from Coblenz in 1853, "but yet we must keep our sword sharp, for the time will come when we must swing it, and I wish to see it cut then foreign rather than domestic foes."

The Population of Peterborough is about 10,000, and we would say at least one-half are troubled with some affection of the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all our readers not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Trial size free. Large bottle 50c and $1. Sold by all druggists.

POINTS FROM PARAGRAPHERS.

The Boy Left.—A lady residing in the suburbs had a small boy, who, like many of his species, shows a decided propensity to pick up words and phrases not adapted to public ears. With these he occasionally startles the family, and is especially apt to do so, of course, when visitors are present. A gentleman caller recently asked him some trivial questions, when he turned on him and said: "Did you speak, or did a cabbage head burst?" Exit boy, in company with his father.

An Ancient Error.—Young husband—Here's the old chestnut about a rose being just as sweet by any other name. It's a lie; it wouldn't. Young wife—Pray, what difference could the name make? Young husband—Well, here's your own case. Two months ago you were Miss Catchim, and Moses! how sweet you were! and now you're Mrs. Gottim, and—Jerusalem!

No Difference Perceptible.—Jones—Very stupid girl, that Miss Wilpin. Smith—How so? Why, you see, we were guessing conundrums the other evening, and I asked her what was the difference between myself and a donkey. "Well?" "Well! Why, by Jove, she said she didn't know." "Well as far as that goes, I don't either."

Correcting an erroneous idea—Jimson—All this talk about young wives' biscuits being hard as bricks is a slanderous lie. Simson—I'm glad to hear you say so, Jimson. Jimson—Yes, I've been married four weeks now, and every loaf of bread that Mrs. Jimson has made so far has been as soggy and soft as apple dump.

Doomed to be Missed.—Sapper—It seems to me as if I'm doomed to fail in everything I undertake. Tried to commit suicide this morning with that pistol I borrowed of you, and hanged if I didn't miss myself. Snapper—Umph! If you hadn't missed yourself nobody would have missed you.

Mr. Waffle—Aw, Miss West, kindly allow me to escort you into the banqueting salon. Miss West—Pardon me, Mr. Waffle but do you expect to walk or ride? Mr. Waffle—(standing on her dress)—Why walk, of course. Miss West—Then, please, get off the train.

"What a bitter flight it is!" said Jones' wife. "I don't envy folks who live in Greenland tonight, do you, dear?" said she as she jumped into bed and put her feet on Jones. "Yes!" yelled Jones, and he sprang out and went to sleep on the oilcloth.

"Is that venison?" asked Jobbink of his butcher, pointing to a quarter of veal. "No; that's very cheap," said the butcher. "I asked you if it was venison." "And I said no, it was very cheap. Venison is deer."

Always Seasonable—Tapely—What kind of a suit do you want? Grayneck—I would like to get one that would always be in season. Tapely—Ah, then how would you like one of these pepper and salt suits?

Visitor—Why are you shaking your head so furiously? Farmer Furrow—Wal, I had a big horn of "stone fence" last night, and I'm trying to make my head hum ag'in.

Severe.—Wooden (meeting Cutting at a theatre of a distinctly inferior order)—You didn't expect to see any respectable person here, did you? Cutting—No, and I haven't.

Paradoxical: "Your contributions to light literature are wonderful in one respect," said Bibby. "And that is what?" asked Scribby. "They are so heavy."

Proof Positive.—Dora—Do you think, dear, that Clarence is in earnest? Nora—I'm certain of it. He told me last night his favorite flower was the poppy.

The only reason why some folks go to church on Sunday is that they think if they have served the devil faithfully six days in the week they've done enough.

No Doubt of It.—Teacher—Who was it that said first, Property is robbery? Boy—I don't know. I suppose it was some fellow who didn't have any.

Jennie's father caught her and Harry enjoying a little smack. Harry wanted to take all the blame, but the father said they were in the same boat.

Thought cannot be publicly presented until it is properly clothed in language.

The head cannot warm the heart, but the heart often sets the head afire.

The monkey hanging by his tail had some claims to long descent.

"Three of a kind!" said the cow as she looked her triplets over.

We hear of a young lady in this city who is an Anna-kissed.

Eggs Not Color for Farmers.

There is one sure way of increasing egg production, and that is to breed from the best layers, and to use only males from the best layers. The Jersey cow was fast going out of sight when judged for color, but the color now is of but little consequence compared with the butter record, yet the Jerseys are bred just as pure and true to color as ever. There need be no retrograde in purity if selected hens prove pure breeds and are used for producing something better than themselves. The selection of breeders for the color marks of the show room is of but little interest to the farmers, but they well know which of their hens are the best layers, and can all join in the work of improvement.

ELECTORS. Protect home and country by voting for Mr. Stevenson. Come to the Committee rooms, Opera House block, open every night.

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. All druggists are authorised to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are placing a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have a Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup, or Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

TEN POUNDS IN TWO WEEKS THINK OF IT!

As a Flesh Producer there can be no question but that

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Of Pure Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites Of Lime and Soda

is without a rival. Many have gained a pound a day by the use of it. It cures

CONSUMPTION, SCROFULA, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS AND COLDS, AND ALL FORMS OF WASTING DISEASES. AS PALATABLE AS MILK.

Genuine made by Scott & Bowne, Belleville. Salmon Wrapper; at all Druggists, 50c. and $1.00.

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED!

Grand Rally of the People's Party.

THE QUESTION OF THE HOUR!

The Greatest Good to the Largest Number.

GOUGH BROTHERS are in the field as the Candidates for public approval, basing their claim on the admitted facts that they supply the largest number, the greatest number of times with the largest dollar's worth of the best clothing that money can purchase.

Ask our constituents if this claim is not well grounded?

When you buy, buy from first hands, remembering that we supply Clothing, Furnishings, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes.

GOUGH BROTHERS

The Clothiers, 377 and 379 George-st., Peterborough.

The Coming Contest.

It is considered it will be of a very lively nature. Every man may have his friends in politics, but when it comes to Grit or Tory it should be must cast his vote for his party irrespective of social friendship. The same may be said in this case. Parties may have their friends, but when it comes to business and they wish to buy tea, Groceries, wines or liquors at sacrifice, W. J. Morrow's is the place they go to. d31wf

TO THE ELECTORS

OF THE

East Riding

OF THE

COUNTY OF PETERBOROUGH.

GENTLEMEN:—Parliament having been dissolved, the present Government appeal again to the people for a renewal of confidence and an approval of the policy of the administration. I have been chosen to contest the Riding in the interests of the Liberal Conservative Party, and I have accepted the nomination and now solicit your support.

The principal question to be decided is as to our trade relations with the United States, whether, as advocated by the Opposition, we shall adopt such a policy as will practically leave us free to trade only with the United States to the exclusion of Great Britain and other countries, or whether we shall, as advocated by Sir John Macdonald, adopt such a policy, as while dealing with the United States in fair and equitable terms and not to the exclusion of Great Britain, will preserve our nationality and enable us still to remain an integral portion of the British Empire.

I am opposed to the policy of the Opposition, as, in my opinion, it simply means annexation to the United States. As an advocate of the views of the Government I appeal to you. The time is so short before the Polling day that I will not be able to personally see all the electors, but I hope to meet most of you at the several meetings which I shall hold throughout the Riding to discuss the questions at issue.

JOHN BURNHAM.

Ashburnham, February 10th, 1891. w71

MR. SHELDRAKE'S

Private

PREPARATORY SCHOOL,

FOR BOYS,

LAKEFIELD, ONTARIO.

V. R.

DOMINION ELECTIONS!

MR. STEVENSON

The Conservative Candidate, will address the Electors of West Peterborough at the following places and on the dates named:—

North Monaghan, TOWN HALL, Friday, Feb. 20th.

Ennismore O'RILEY'S SCHOOL HOUSE, Saturday, Feb'y. 21.

Bridgenorth, Monday, Feb. 23

Young's Point, Monday, Feb. 24

Selwyn, Wednesday, Feb. 25

Smith, Thursday, Feb. 26.

Meetings begin at 7.30 p.m.

An opportunity for discussion will be allowed.

Nomination Feb'y. 26th. Polling Day March 5th. 1w6

2 BRICK HOUSES,
2 FRAME HOUSES,
and THREE LOTS,

to be sold at my office on WEDNESDAY next, the 18th inst., at 2 p.m.

The above properties are situated west of Bethune-st., and between the 2 railway stations in the centre of all the principal manufactories in town. A rare chance.

T. HURLEY,
207 George-

PETERBOROUGH

PLANING MILLS!

Dublin-st., Peterborough.

A. RUTHERFORD,

PROPRIETOR.

Having purchased the plant, and business, formerly carried on by J. D. Baptie, in the above premises, I am prepared to execute orders for every description of General Carpenter Work Window and Door Frames, Blinds, Mouldings, etc.

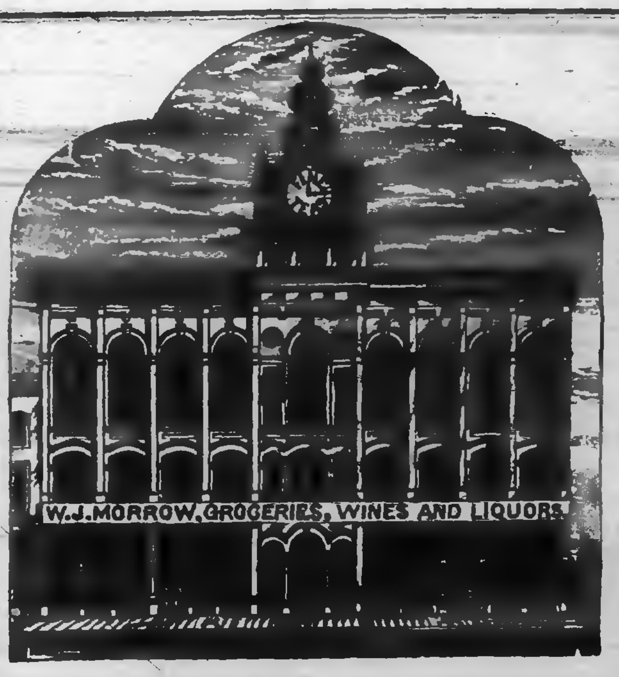
Scroll Work, Band Sawing, Turning executed to order.

Large supply of Dry Lumber of all Kinds always on hand.

Factory and Office,—Dublin-st. Telephone Connection.

LIME—Always kept on hand. Orders left at Mill or at G.T.R. Station promptly attended to. d8-w8f



W.J. MORROW, GROCERIES, WINES AND LIQUORS

BIG TEA and COFFEE HOUSE.

WM. FITZGERALD,

Builder, Contractor and Jobber.

Contracts taken for all work connected with erection of new buildings, repairs or rebuilding. Twenty-five years experience. First-class work according to plans and specifications guaranteed. Estimates furnished for any description of work. Good dry material always on hand. Best of references given as to excellence of work and despatch.

Building Lots For Sale

in different localities. Most desirable sites for houses. This is the time to buy and build Lots sold and houses built thereon on terms to suit buyers. Easy terms of payment. Several good houses and lots for sale. Every one looking for a bargain should see these. WM. FITZGERALD, 121, corner of Dublin and Water-sts.

P.O. Box 276, Peterborough. 2p w28-ly

CAKES!

For a Good Cake, leave your orders at

Long Bros.

Also home-made cakes Iced and nicely Ornamented. Wedding Breakfasts and Evening Parties Catered for. Oyster Patties made to order. Our stock of Candies is pure and made by ourselves.

No. 296 and 414 George-st.

"Hello there, Brown, where are you going in such a hurry?"

"Why, I am going to J. J. Turner to get a pair of the fine Waterproof Horse Covers he makes. I tell you they are the finest I have seen. He also makes Wagon Covers, Lap Rugs, Clothing, &c.

"You want the address; all right,

J. J. TURNER,

The Tent and Awning Maker, corner of George and King-sts., Peterborough.

Telephone day or night.

"Itis the Safest and Fairest Policy I Have Ever Seen,"

Was the remark made by a prominent representative of one of the largest and best American Life Insurance Companies, when he had carefully examined

THE ORDINARY LIFE POLICY OF

THE

TEMPERANCE and GENERAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y.

This is the only policy offered to the Canadian public that can neither lapse nor expire as to its paid-up value till death ensues, after three annual premiums have been paid on it.

Our Limited Payment Life Policy, or Instalment Bonds, Our Common Sense Renewable Term Policies, and our Survivors' Endowment Bonds are all possessed of new and excellent features and are all worthy of careful consideration.

Agents Wanted.

H. P. LINDSAY,

Gen. Agent for Peterborough, Northumberland and Durham. Office No. 2[illegible] George-st., opposite new market building.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins, by grocers, labelled thus:

JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England. w[illegible]

DO YOU LIKE Biscuits?

Most likely you do.
There's a deal of difference
in Biscuits. Quality is an important item. A good
biscuit should be fresh,
crisp and of good flavor.
Here's what will suit you.
Try the English biscuit, made
by Huntley & Palmer the famous makers. Imported
by us and guaranteed genuine.

Ask for Huntley & Palmer's biscuits.

W. J. MASON

426 GEORGE STREET.
No trouble to show Goods.

Blank Books.

—AND—

Office Stationery

Call and get our prices
on Ledgers,
Journals,
Day Books,
Stephen's Inks,
Carter's Inks,
Underwood's Inks
Stafford's Inks,
Pens,
Foolscap,
Legal paper,
and all other
Office supplies.

See the quality of our Blank Books.

Our Prices are the Lowest.

H. THOMPSON & Co

Office and General Stationers, [illegible]
and Wall Paper Dealers,
[illegible] George-st.. — — Peterborough

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1891.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

Glass Shades.

Assorted sizes, may be had at Mason's Seed and Plant House, corner of Water and Brock-sts. d22tf

Died Near Omemee.

Mr. D. Doig, of town, received a telegram last night from Omemee stating that his father, David Doig, sr., had died suddenly near that village. Mr. Doig left this morning with undertaker Comstock to bring the remains to Peterborough.

A Complete Line

of the finest soaps in the world. Sunlight Soap, Dingman's Electric Soap, etc. See the large bar I am selling at 5 cents, also the mammoth bar at 10 cents. A large stock of toilets. The largest stock and best value in Peterborough. Alex. Elliott 389 George-st. Peterborough. d41

The Sunday Assault Case.

As was expected, the row which was reported as having occurred in the market arcade on Sunday afternoon was ventilated in the Police Court this morning. Thos. Duncan was charged with assaulting Jas. Lang, the nature of the assault being a severe bite on the cheek. Duncan was also charged with being drunk and disorderly. He pleaded guilty and was fined $5 for each offence. The money was paid.

Campaign Notes.

A rousing meeting in the interests of the Government candidate, Mr. Stevenson, was held at Beaufort last night. There was a large attendance and those present listened attentively and appreciatively to able and lucid expositions of the Conservative policy that were given by Mr. Stevenson and Mr. R. M. Dennistoun. Mr. E. B. Edwards spoke as a representative of Mr. Hall and unrestricted reciprocity. Mr. Stevenson will address a meeting at Bailieboro tonight.

Delegates Stricken Down.

Bro. L. L. Walker, of Toronto, Past Supreme President of the Sons of Canada, came here yesterday as a delegate to attend the meeting of the Supreme body of the Order, in the welfare and prosperity of which he takes a great interest. He was unwell when he came and last night after the banquet he was taken seriously ill. He will be taken to Toronto this evening. Heart and lung affections are the cause of suffering. Bro. J. H. Magill, of Port Hope, another delegate, was also taken ill last night and was taken home on the noon train to-day.

CANADIANS BANQUETTED

A PATRIOTIC AND DECIDEDLY PLEASANT GATHERING.

Complimentary Banquet to the Delegates of the Supreme Lodge of the Sons of Canada—No Annexation for the Sons of Canada—Speeches, Wit, Humor and Song.

"Canada for the Canadians and Canadians for Canada" was the patriotic sentiment which held sway at the complimentary banquet which was tendered the delegates to the Supreme Lodge of the Sons of Canada last night. It was indeed a loyal, patriotic and thoroughly Canadian gathering and, to put it in the words of one of the speakers, the spirit of the occasion was the brotherhood of man, the Fatherhood of God and the motherland of Canada.

The spread was tastefully laid in the lodge room and over one hundred and fifty Sons of Canada and their friends sat down to the repast which had been elaborately prepared by Mr. T. Hooper, caterer. The local lodge of the Order had made arrangements for the feast and right handsomely did they perform their deed of hospitality. Every speaker during the evening had a flattering tribute to pay to the Peterborough brothers' energy, attentiveness and hospitality. Not only this, but the visitors all had a good word to say of the town, the citified appearance and business enterprise and activity everywhere apparent being a surprise to many who had never seen "the most prosperous town" in Canada and therefore were strangers to her many beauties, advantages and marks of prosperity.

The local lodge of the Order will undoubtedly receive a well deserved influx to its membership by the splendid front presented by the Supreme body of the Order. The Order has been somewhat pressed into the background by older and stronger societies, but the patriotic aims of the Order are such that they will commend themselves to all young men.

THE TOAST LIST.

Bro. F. Mason, Supreme Chaplain, and a member of the Peterborough Lodge, presided at the head of the table, flanked on either side by Deputy Supreme President Mills and Past Supreme President L. L. Walker. After all had satisfactorily discussed the tempting edibles, "the feast of reason and flow of soul" followed, the Chairman proposing the toasts in a happy manner.

In loyal Canadian style was the opening toast "The Queen and Royal Family" honored. This was followed by "The Governor-General and Lieut.-Governor," which was also heartily drank.

"Canada Our Home" was enthusiastically toasted and all united in singing "The Maple Leaf." Mr. E. E. Sheppard, of Toronto, the Supreme President-elect, was the first able responser. The popular and gifted writer and proprietor of Saturday Night made one of those characteristic happy speeches which, while it amused, contained much sound common sense. He spoke of Canada, her advantages and of the aim of the Society of which they were members—to make Canada for Canadians. There was no such thing officially as a Canadian, the mortuary statistics, the tombstones, none of them recorded the death of a Canadian. Every person was English, Irish, Scotch, Dutch, etc. To every boy, he said, was left the legacy of honor for mother and he who would sell the honor of a mother was forever disgraced. With his [illegible] so with the country. There should be an honor for the motherland and he who would barter or sell that honor should be disgraced. In Canada the abuse and corruption of politics was due to a lack of a strong love for the motherland. They were a legitimate child of a motherland and should have a name, which should be Canadians, and to raise this nation should be the aim of all. The Sons of Canada, the baby Society among societies, cherished a sentiment for Canada and had for one object the giving to Canadians of a National song of which the Atlantic and Pacific would both whisper the refrain.

DOWN WITH ANNEXATION.

Bro. Wallbridge, of Belleville, and Bro. Dr. Orr, of Toronto, also made able responses doing honor to Canada, the former gentleman remarking that if there were any who should put down any feelings of annexation it should be those in whom were engendered the loyal principles of the Sons of Canada. Dr. Orr felt proud that Canada was attracting attention of outside nations and that the Republic to our south were anxious to gain possession of the portion of the globe which had been allotted to Canadians. He felt confident of Canada's future as a nation and regretted that here at home Canadian merit was at a discount. As an instance of this he pointed to the occupants of the chairs in the Universities and other official positions. As to the political cries that were being raised, he said, if there was anything in the fiscal policy of a political party that would lead to annexation it was the duty of every loyal Canadian to oppose that party. If there was anything in these cries, said the speaker, and certainly from the speeches they read in the papers on the other side the speakers over there referred to that policy as a way leading to annexation. They thought that commercial union was to lead to annexation. It might be urged that we might have a better market for a few things, but if they were loyal Canadians they would say Canada first.

Mr. T. O. Monaghan, of Port Hope, a well-know versatile vocalist, gave a humorous song which was loudly encored.

THEY SPEAK OF THEMSELVES.

"Our Society" was a toast honored with enthusiasm and called forth able responses from Bro. Mills, Deputy Supreme President, and Bro. Fitzpatrick. Bro. Mills spoke with pride of the progress of the Society which was young but being steadily appreciated. The loyal aims of the Society were also eulogized and it was foreshadowed to grow to be the society of Canada. Its work was to inculcate in the heart and mind of every man in Canada that there was only one country and that that country was Canada. They had the broad intellect, the strong muscle, the vitality, the business capacity and energy to build up a strong and vigorous society. During the coming year they expected the Society to make great strides. The extension of the Society in the several provinces of the Dominion was going to cement the provinces together and place them in a position that they could say they were a nation. He believed there were a few men in Canada who were desirous of seeing Canada annexed to the United States, but he believed they would in time leave these ideas and realize that we had the stamina and back-bone to form a great nation.

Bro. Fitzgerald dealt with the benevolent object of the Society, speaking of the aid which was extended to the afflicted and suffering brethren, and the insurance branch, which he urged all the members to boom.

OTHER TOASTS.

"The Supreme Officers" were next toasted and responded to in excellent and appropriate speeches by Bros. Blaine, General Secretary, J. W. Gale, Supreme First Vice-President and J. J. Magill Supreme Steward.

Bro. Monaghan again delighted the gathering with another of his characteristic songs.

"Our Sister Societies" brought Messrs. E. H. D. Hall and Benjamin Shortly and Bro. E. E. Sheppard to their feet.

Councillors A. Dawson and E. H. D. Hall replied to "The Mayor and Corporation," the town, its facilities, rapid progress and prosperity receiving full justice at their hands. Words of welcome to the Supreme Lodge were also spoken and a hope expressed that the visit would be repeated.

Bro. J. E. Doran, Supreme Treasurer proposed the health of "The Past Presidents," which was duly acknowledged by Bro. Walker, Past Supreme President, and Bro. Saunders, Past Supreme Secretary.

"Our Guests" was responded to by Bros. (Dr.) Orr, W. H. Laird and Morris, each speaking in the highest terms and most pronounced eulogies of the generous and attentive entertainment of the Peterborough brethren.

"The Ladies" was championed in happy responses by Bros. J. J. Mason and T. O. Monaghan, who gave a recitation which was rapturously encored.

"The Press" was royally toasted, as usual, and responded to by representatives of the Examiner, Times and REVIEW and by Bro. Doran.

Bro. E. E. Sheppard proposed the health of "Peterborough Lodge—Our Host," which was enthusiastically drank and acknowledged by pleasant speeches from Bros. H. Robinson, W. C. Mudge, H. Dixon and F. Mason.

"Auld Lang Syne" was sung with joined hands and the happy gathering dispersed shortly after midnight.

THE LABOR QUESTION.

To-night's Address at St. John's by Rev. E. A. Oliver, of Toronto.

The Labor Question and other social problems of the day will be discussed to-night at St. John's by Rev. E. A. Oliver, of Toronto, under the title of "Our Social Responsibilities." This will be the second in the Wednesday evening course of lectures. Mr. Oliver, though a young man, has enjoyed exceptional advantages in England and this country and has given special attention to social questions, into which he has thrown himself with ardor and enthusiasm. This great subject has in the past few years been pressed before the notice of people in all civilized parts of the globe and upon it are turning largely the social, political and philanthropic movements in progress throughout the world. Every-one, therefore, who wishes to be at all abreast of the times should hear and learn something about the matter. Those who listened to Father Huntington's views will be interested to hear the subject discussed from another standpoint.

Mr. Oliver's address this evening will begin at 8.30 precisely, following the service at 8. Every seat in the church is entirely free on the occasion. Workingmen are invited to attend in working dress.

235 George-st.

Just arrived—a choice lot of Fearman Hams and Bacon, also some fine Neufchatel Cream Cheese and Northern Spy Apples. Stapleton & Elcombe.

ELECTORS. The prosperity and very existence of your country is in danger. Rally to Mr. Stevenson's support.

Brevities.

—A young man was fined $5 at the Police Court this morning for having [illegible] room on Sunday last.

—Two rinks of Lakefield curlers went to Toronto this morning to play in the Ontario Tankard bonspiell.

The Handsomest Lady in Peterborough

Remarked to a friend the other day that she knew Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs was a superior remedy, as it stopped her cough instantly when other remedies had no effect whatever. So to prove this and convince you of its merit any druggist will give you a Sample bottle Free. Large size 50c and $1.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. G. Gumpricht is in town. Orders may be left at Messrs. Taylor & McDonald's drug store. 1yd68

To Rent.

Farms wanted to rent. Tenants supplied this year at half price. Call or write.

T. HURLEY,
d23tf 357 George-st.

Good Breakfast Dishes.

Rolled Bacon, Sausage, Head Cheese, Ham, etc. Best brands of these superior meats always on hand. Bacon sold by actual weight. J. J. Howden, 441 George-st. Telephone connection. d40tf

To Every Band in Canada.

The Surprise Soap manufacturers have now arranged to present the full score of "My Own Canadian Home," as played by Gilmour's famous band, to every band in Canada. Apply to Morley McLaughlin, Pagan Place, St. John, N.B. 1d40

Portraits! Portraits!

E. Michener, General Agent of the Boston Portrait Co., is at the Cavanagh House. He is showing work in Crayon, Pastell and Oil. Will be at the House any time after 5 p.m. Please call and see samples and bring your photos or tintypes with you. 3d38

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. d16w4 6mo

WORKINGMEN. Mr. Stevenson has given time and work and money to build up industries in the town which give employment to large numbers. Send him again to Parliament to continue the good work.

That's Easily Answered.

"My dear," said Mrs. Cupandsaucer, laying down the evening paper, "what is reciprocity?" "Reciprocity, my angel," said the head of the house, "is easily explained. It means a general evening up,—as, say when Smitters asks me in to take a-er-cigar and I ask him to have another." "Exactly," said Mrs. C., "when I go to Hawley Bros. for tea and I hand Mr. Hawley a dollar and he gives me four or five pounds of splendid green or black mixture, I get the money's worth and he the money. Isn't that it?" "Exactly," said the husband as he reached for his hat. d38tf

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

PASHA is the name of the popular Pen. Seven styles to suit all hands. Try them. Sold at the REVIEW Stationery.

CANADIANS IN COUNCIL

SUPREME LODGE OF THE SONS OF CANADA.

The Proceedings of the Lodge—The President's Report—Officers Elected—The Work of the Year.

At the morning session yesterday of the Supreme Lodge of the Sons of Canada in the absence of the Supreme President, ex-Ald. Ritchie, of Toronto, the Deputy, Nelson D. Mills, delivered the annual address, which proved a more than usually interesting deliverance. He said:

It is owing to the unfortunate illness of our worthy Supreme President that upon me falls the important and pleasing duty of extending to you all a sincere and cordial greeting to the seventh annual session of the Supreme Lodge. I trust that our meeting together may be productive of much brotherly regard and that our deliberations may be as they have been in the past, conducive to the best interests of our association.

Since the last session of the Supreme Lodge, ever mindful time has never stayed his hand, and in the line of our march many fresh mounds mark the final resting places of brethren who once counselled with us. They are now no longer to be heard in the lodge room. They have responded to the call of the supreme gavel of the universe. We who are left should feel thankful to Almighty God for permitting us once more to assemble for roll call, and to take up the fibrous ends of the web which we are weaving for the future well being of our countrymen.

Aid has been extended to the bereft families of those deceased brethren, and in addition words of comfort have been spoken to console the hearts made lonely by that dread visitor whom we all must some day entertain.

The year just closed has been a most propitious one to us as an Association. Our membership has materially increased, lodges have been instituted in Belleville, Deseronto, Blackstock, Uxbridge, Barrie, Collingwood, Owen Sound, Hamilton, Simcoe, South London, St. Thomas, Ridgetown, Chatham, Sarnia, Petrolia, Bowmanville, and two extra lodges in the city of Toronto, a truly great showing for an Association so young in years. During that time there have appeared some slight signs of the harvest which we hope to reap from our sowings as a national society. * * *

During the last year we have received communications from Canadians now resident in the neighboring Republic, asking about our Association and suggesting that we extend to them the privileges of membership. I believe that a great many of our countrymen who are now earning a livlihood on the other side of the border would, if it were possible, avail themselves of membership. I would recommend that the legislation necessary for the institution of lodges in the U. S. and the admission of those Canadians into our Association be made, so as to retain for Canada the sympathy of a people who otherwise might become hostile to the land that loves them.

On motion Bros. Laird, Wallbridge, Magill, J. J. Mason, Morris and Mason (Peterborough), were appointed to draft a reply to the Deputy President's address.

An adjournment for noon was then made.

Afternoon Session.

The afternoon session was opened in the 'Prentice Boy's Hall at 2 o'clock, the number of delegates having been largely augmented by arrivals from the east and west on the morning trains.

THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The election of officers of the Supreme Lodge was then proceeded with and resulted as follows:—

SUPREME PRESIDENT.—Bro. E. E. Sheppard, Toronto.

SUPREME DEPUTY PRESIDENT.—Bro. Nelson D. Mills, Toronto.

SUPREME 1ST VICE-PRESIDENT.—Bro. J. W. Gale, Bowmanville.

SUPREME 2ND VICE-PRESIDENT.—Bro. E. B. Morris, Ingersoll.

SUPREME CHAPLAIN.—Bro. F. Mason, Peterborough.

SUPREME RECORDING SECRETARY.—Bro. T. H. Fitzpatrick, Toronto.

SUPREME GENERAL SECRETARY.—Bro. B. Blaine, Toronto.

SUPREME TREASURER.—Bro. J. E. Doran Toronto.

SUPREME STEWARD.—Bro. J. H. Magill, Port Hope.

SUPREME ASSISTANT STEWARD.—Bro. J. FRACHLICK, Waterloo.

SUPREME 1ST GUARD.—Bro. W. A. Beatty, Port Perry.

SUPREME ASSISTANT GUARD.—Bro. A. G. Smith, Collingwood.

TRUSTEES.—Bros. L. L. Walker and F. Saunders, Toronto.

MEDICAL ADVISER.—Bro. Dr. Orr, Toronto.

REPRESENTATIVES ON EXECUTIVE.—Bros. H. W. Laird, Port Hope; C. Deverall, Toronto, and E. H. Purdy, Port Perry.

After the election of officers was concluded, the reports of the Finance, Legislation and Correspondence Committees were received.

The lodge adjourned at six o'clock.

This Morning Session.

The Supreme Lodge went into session at ten o'clock this morning. The receiving of the reports of the different committees occupied most of the morning session.

The Legislation Committee's report, which was adopted, contained an important resolution. It was in favor of the establishment of an honorary membership in connection with the Order, to which those Canadians who were not eligible by reason of their advanced age to become members drawing benefits will be admitted to the Order on payment of a nominal fee and dues. This will allow many gentlemen to enter who have hitherto been debarred.

The Correspondence Committee and the Special Committee on Rituals also reported, the latter favoring and relegating the duty of revising the ritual to a special committee. The report also favored the institution of three degrees in connection with the Order instead of one as at present.

The Committee on the Endowment scheme of the Order reported and referred the proposed insurance branch to a special committee.

This afternoon the installation of officers will take place and the session will close before evening.

Everybody Knows

That at this season the blood is filled with impurities, the accumulation of months of close confinement in poorly ventilated stores, workshops and tenements. All these impurities and every trace of scorfula, salt rheum, or other diseases may be expelled by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier ever produced. It is the only medicine of which "100 doses one dollar" is true.

A Pertinent Puzzle.

F
O
R
E
FORESTERS'
T
E C
R A
S' R
N
CARNIVAL
V
A
L
!

FRIDAY, FEB. 20TH. d39eod

TO THE WORK. Conservative committee rooms open every night. All favorable to Mr. Stevenson's re-election cordially invited and urged to be present. Polling on March 5th.

Stretches in Sheep.

Stretches is classed by veterinarians under the head of colic. It is generally more prevalent toward the spring than at any other season, although cases are met with at any time when the flock is fed upon hay or straw. A sheep attacked by this complaint suffers intense pain, and stretches every few minutes. The simplest and most effective remedy is for a strong man to seize the sufferer by the hind legs above the hocks, and hold him up, head downward, by elevating the arms as high as possible, keeping the back of the sheep next the body of the operator. We have tried this repeatedly, and seen it tried by others, and have never yet known it to fail when taken in the early stages. The reason why this should afford relief is not easily explained. It is probable that the stretching of the animal may be due to intussusception, the passing of one part of the intestine into another, like the drawing of one part of the finger of a glove into another. This being the case, elevating the animal in the air, head downwards, would cause the intestines to pass over each other, and unless too much inflammation exists, the intussuscepted intestine would resume its normal position. Whether this is so or not the remedy will generally prove effective.

HALL, INNES & Co.

See our window of

NEW

EMBROIDERIES

Hall, Innes & Co.

130, 132 and 134 Simcoe-st.

"PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE"

parties still hold the boards. We have a lot of good playing cards at 25c. a pack, or 5 for $1.00. These are worth 40c. each.

SAILSBURY BROS.

TO-DAY

and the C.P.R. brought us a case of neck wear. Not the only one, more are fast following. The invoices now with us promise many new ideas in this line. The colors range from showy magnificence to the dignified and extremely quiet. The shapes are without number and entirely new. If you are a lover of things rich, if beautiful colors delight your eye—see our neckwear. Many find it profitable to look at goods before buying, why not you?

One thing suggests another. Suits for instance. You may not need one. However it will not hurt to show the goods nor harm you in looking at them. The good impressions made now will bear fruit later on. See the pyramids of goods we have procured for Spring.

T. DOLAN & Co.

Clothiers and Furnishers.

DOMINION ELECTIONS!

West Peterborough.

HON. JOHN

HAGGART

POSTMASTER GENERAL,

will address a meeting in the Opera House (Peterborough) on the Evening of

TUESDAY, February 24th,

on the public questions of the day.

The gallery will be reserved for Ladies.

THE MEETING will commence at 8 o'clock.

W. H. MOORE,
Pres. Lib.-Con. Ass'n.

W. J. MINORE,
Sec. Lib.-Con. Ass'n.

NEW GOODS!

20 PIECES OF

COLOURED SURAH SILK

15 to 20 Yard Lengths,

25cts. PER YARD.

Shorter Lengths 30c. per yard.

—AT—

THOS. KELLY'S.

New Dress Goods
New Prints
New Embroideries
New Cottons

New Dress Goods
New Prints
New Embroideries
New Cottons

—AT—

THOS. KELLY'S, CORNER OF GEORGE AND SIMCOE-STS.

BE ONE OF THEM!

When an article of domestic use is so appreciated and sought after that it enjoys the largest sale in the world, in its class, does it not sound to sense that it can be no common or ordinary article, or else the consumption would not be so immense?

It is the appreciative consumers of "SUNLIGHT" Soap who have given it the largest sale in the world. These consumers are free to buy whatever soap they like best. The are not compelled to buy the "SUNLIGHT," but the do so because they find they like it the best, and that it will do what no other soap can do.

This should be a sufficiently intelligent reason for anybody. Is it for you? Be open to conviction and try the "SUNLIGHT" Soap.

THE STANDARD LIFE Assurance Company,

ESTABLISHED 1832

Subsisting Assurances	$101,250,000.	The Funds Invested in Canada amount to nearly....	$5,000,000.
Invested Funds	34,000,000.	Deposited with Dominion Government at Ottawa..	1,150,000
Annual Income	4,000,000.
Bonuses Distributed	23,000,000.

All plans of Assurance. Non Forfeitable Policies. Absolutely unconditional policy from date of issue without extra charge. Absolute security. Rates compare favourable with any first-class Company.

W. M. RAMSAY, Manager, Montreal.

A.V.R. YOUNG, General Agent, and Inspector for Midland District, 379 Water-st.

C. CAMERON,
MULLHOLLAND & ROPER, Special Agents

IN THE MARKET!

1.—I have sold out the City Hotel to Wm. Clancy, in 19 minutes.

2.—I have sold out Faren & Co. Billiard Room etc., to Faren & Co. in 13 minutes.

3.—The Dry Goods Stock is in the Market. If there is any new blood for this offer call and see me. Want to dispose of it inside of 10 days.

I am off for Australia early next month.

I mean business. If the stock is too large can be reduced to $1,000 in 30 days.

JAMES DOLAN,
George Street, Peterborough.

SELLING AT REDUCED PRICES

We are offering our Stock of Manufactured Furs at cost, previous to stock taking. The stock comprises a choice assortment of Ladies' and Gents fine Fur Collars, Cuffs, Capes, Caps, Gauntlets and Coats. Also a few Musk Ox, Bear, Oppossum and Goat Robes.

CALL AND BE CONVINCED.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

Manufacturing Furriers.

BABY'S FACE WAS RAW.

Distressing Itching Skin Disease Cured in One Month by the Cuticura Remedies.

When our boy was six weeks old he had a rash on his cheek. It spread on both cheeks and chin. His face was all raw. I doctored with various remedies, but it got no better. My mother advised me to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I used them faithfully, and in one week the boy looked better. In one month he was cured, and now he is three years old and no signs of it returning. The child was so bad I had to tie him in a pillow-case, and pin his hands down so that he could not scratch his face. I cannot speak too highly of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I recommend CUTICURA whenever I can. I would be pleased to see anyone and talk to them of the good it has done my boy.

MRS. CYRUS PROSCH,
Coytesville, Fort Lee P.O., N.J.

N.B. My husband is president of the Prosch Manufacturing Company, proprietors of the "Duplex" and "Triplex" Photographic Shutters, 389 Broome Street, New York City. He dislikes undesirable notoriety, but is willing to make sacrifices to benefit others, and consents to this testimonial to encourage the use of CUTICURA, and thus bring relief to others.

Cuticura Resolvent

The new Blood and Skin Purifier, internally, and CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, and exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally, instantly relieve and speedily cure every disease and humor of the skin, scalp, and blood, with loss of hair, from infancy to age, from pimples to scrofula.

Sold everywhere. Price, CUTICURA, 75c.; SOAP, 35c; RESOLVENT, $1.50. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CORPORATION, Boston.

☞ Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases," 64 pages, 50 illustrations, and 100 testimonials.

BABY'S Skin and Scalp purified and beautified by CUTICURA SOAP. Absolutely pure.

RHEUMATIC PAINS.

In one minute the Cuticura Anti-Pain Plaster relieves rheumatic, sciatic, hip, kidney, chest and muscular pains and weakness. Price 30c.

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1891.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

DEATH ON THE STAGE.

A HOLOCAUST IN A RUSSIAN OPERA HOUSE.

McCarthy and United Ireland—Very Hot Weather in the Antipodes—A Case in Which Strikers Defeated the Nobility.

LONDON, Feb 17.—A despatch gives a thrilling account of the burning of the Romscheid Theatre during a performance. The stage performers appear to have been the principal sufferers, three actresses having been burned to death and several seriously injured.

Two Costumes That Attracted the Attention of Guests.

BERLIN, Feb. 17.—The carnival came to a close during the week with the grand ball at the royal castle which, up to about four years ago, was of annual occurrence at the Berlin court. Although 2500 persons participated in it there was nothing novel or original about the affair to distinguish it from its predecessors except the exquisite costumes worn by the Princess Frederick Charles and Queen Louise.

The Princess' white toilet was of dead silk, with a purple train and ermine, all the ornaments being of precious stones, sewn on to the dress three fingers broad or sprinkled over the costume. The color effects were most artistic, and the whole was a marvel of the modiste's combined with the jeweler's art. Queen Louise's dress was similar to that worn by the Emperor's great-grandmother in the well-known picture of that beautiful and unfortunate queen. The material was of white silk, cut round at the neck, and with the waist under the arms circled by a girdle of gold and precious stones. The hair was worn high, in the Grecian style. Broad gold braiding, with sprays of flowers were worked into the hem of the dress and train.

CYCLONES AND COCOANUTS.

Snapped Like Pipestems — Very Hot Weather in the Antipodes.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 17.—Australian advices by the steamer Alameda say that Christmas in the Antipodes is, of course, midsummer, but this year the heat was unparalleled during the holidays. On New Year's day, in Sydney, the mercury stood at 85 degrees, the following day 94 degrees and for six days did not fall below 85 degrees. In the interior the heat was still worse, ranging from 100 to 110 degrees, while in Condobolin great bush fires swept a district 20 by 60 miles in extent and destroyed 20,000 sheep. A cyclone in the Harvey group of islands destroyed over 70 houses and nearly all the cocoanut and bread-fruit trees, many 16 feet in circumference being snapped in two by the gale like pipestems. The schooner Araura, near Raratonga, was wrecked and 14 lives lost.

THE STRIKERS WON.

Grand Duke Alexis Degrades and Dismisses a Russian Admiral.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 17.—Admiral Virkofski, who was recently assaulted by strikers in the admiralty shop building dockyard on account of his alleged tyranny, was summoned before Grand Duke Alexis, the high admiral of the fleet, to explain his actions. The Grand Duke was dissatisfied with the Admiral's explanation and dismissed him from the post of command and of the Port of St. Petersburg and transferred him to Vladivostock. The Grand Duke also ordered that the demands of the strikers be satisfied.

Not Believed to Be the "Ripper."

LONDON, Feb. 17.—The police of London are coming to the conclusion that the drunken sailor now under lock and key is not the much-sought-after "Jack the Ripper." There is no doubt that the fellow has been in a row with somebody and that the row was attended with blood-spilling, but there is nothing in his appearance to indicate the desperate murderer. The detectives are continuing their search in every quarter.

The police place no confidence in the theory that the criminal is a woman, as while it might be possible that one or two of the murders has been committed by a woman, the general character of the murders indicates that the assassin was a man who obtained the temporary companionship of his victims.

Another "Jack the Ripper" scare is agitating this city. A woman was found dying this morning with her throat cut and suffering from a stab wound in the chest. In spite of the popular "Jack the Ripper" theory the police declare the woman committed suicide.

Oysters Frozen to Death.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—The correspondent at Whitstable of The Daily News writes: "Since the disappearance of the frost it has been found that enormous damage has been done by the recent severe weather to the extensive oyster beds at Whitstable, the damage sustained by the two companies being estimated at £15,000. The French and Dutch sorts have suffered most, and these have almost all been killed by the effects of the prolonged frost. The oyster beds are two miles long by one mile wide and are laid in different sections, according to the kinds of oysters. During the intensely cold weather the sea was frozen over, the frost reaching the oyster and causing its death. As it takes from three to five years for an oyster to become marketable from the time the spat is laid, it will be nearly this time before the beds will recover from the loss that has been caused."

Many Lives Lost in the Storms.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—Terrible storms are reported on the coast of Greece. A steamer has been wrecked off Zea and nine lives were lost. Other disasters are feared. From Malta comes similar news. The weather has been unusually severe, and latest advices are that the schooner Dominico has been wrecked in a terrific storm. Four of the crew were drowned.

Queen and Commons Aroused.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—In the House of Commons to-day the Right Hon. Edward Stanhope, Secretary of State for War, replying to a question as to what action the Government proposed to take with reference to the military officers who were concerned in the recent baccarat scandal, said that, pending the result of the legal proceedings taken by Sir William Gordon Gordon-Cumming against the persons who had accused him of unfair play, the War Department did not propose to retire any of the officers concerned in the affair. Mr. Stanhope further said that the colonels of the various regiments were making successful endeavors to prevent gambling among the officers of their commands.

The Queen has called upon the Earl of Coventry, Master of the Buckhounds, for a full statement regarding the gaming scandal in which the names of the Prince of Wales and Sir Gordon Gordon-Cumming are involved.

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on a trial.

VOLTAIC BELT CO., Marshall, Mich.

The Anvil.

Many hours have I stood watching
By the village blacksmith's anvil,
Where, upon the glowing metal,
Dealt he blow on blow like rain,
Forging bolt or bar or horseshoe,
Turning shear or pruning sickle,
Or a link of some great chain.

How the sparks at each concussion
Flew in bright and burning showers,
As the hammer, merrily ringing,
Fell, and rose to fall again;
While beneath it all the anvil,
Sturdy, strong, and firmly seated,
Never seemed to heed the strain.

Many men have I seen standing
Sturdy, strong, and firmly anchored,
While upon them, like the anvil,
Fell the blows of fate amain;
Turned they not from searching sorrow,
Nor the very king of terrors,
Proudly steadfast, true to manhood,
Showed not where a blow had lain.

—Texas Siftings.

Pithy Colored Sayings.

Whaffo yo' chuck up rock! Mebbe he fall down on yo' own skull.

Face an ox behine, a mule befo', but a raskil no whar: he don't got no safe side.

You talk all day, dat no cook 'tater.

Black man shoot fru de bresh. Mebbe he chase snake, mebbe snake chase nigger.

Ef you get no shoe don't tromple in de bramble.

Don't you neber let loose de wildcat to chase away de house kitten.

Fat nigger, warm blanket. Dem's fast friends.

Yo' better look shark when the dog no make bark.

When yo' sings don't yo' never shet yo' mouf.

Better set in de mud than fall in de crick.

Fool around in de canebrake and mebbe you find pipe-stem.

You call nigger black, and you no' mo' white yourself.

'Case yo' chimbly done quit smoke in summer time, no pull her down, bimeby winter come.

No use bangin' de lame mule.

See here, 'case yo' daddy was mlons, yo' mammy pepper, dat no reason why yo' is yam.

When de old man chop wood, watch out for splinters.

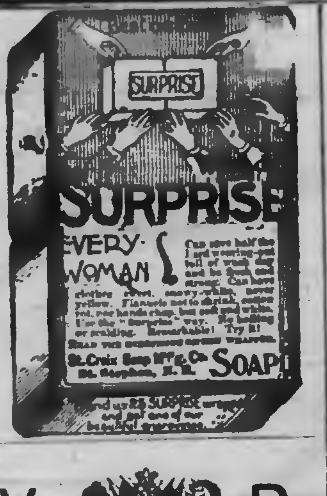
Yo' jes follow buzzard and yo' boun' fin' dead hoss.

No good tief what no know hide.

"Who my boss?" ax de copperhead, and de lightwood chunk he say "I is."

Brer Bar, he done got cotched by him foot. Mister Man by him tongue.—Atlanta Constitution.

Blank Deeds, Blank Mortgages, Blank Transfers, House and Land Leases, etc., on hand at the REVIEW Stationery.



SURPRISE
SURPRISE
EVERY-WOMAN
Can save half the hard wearing-out toil of wash day and be fresh and strong. Can have clothes sweet, snowy-white, never yellow. Flannels not to shrink, colors not to fade, her hands not to chap, but soft and white. Use the "Surprise" way. No boiling or scalding. Remarkable! Try it!
St. Croix Soap M'f'g. Co. St. Stephen, N. B.
SOAP
Send us 25 SURPRISE wrappers and get one of our beautiful engravings.

V. R.

Dominion Elections

East Riding of Peterborough

MR. BURNHAM

the Conservative Candidate will address meetings as follows:—

TOWN HALL, HARVEY

Monday Evening, Feb. 23rd, at 7.30 o'clock.

Ventriss' School House, Harvey

Tuesday Evening Feb. 24th, at 7.30 o'clock.

Time will be allowed for discussion.

A. E. PECK,
Sec. of Com.

Polling Day March 5th. 1w8

The D. & L. Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil

AND THE Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda.

No other Emulsion is so easy to take.
It does not separate nor spoil.
It is always sweet as cream.
The most sensitive stomach can retain it.

CURES
Scrofulous and Wasting Diseases.
Chronic Cough.
Loss of Appetite.
Mental and Nervous Prostration.
General Debility, &c.

Beware of all imitations. Ask for "the D. & L." Emulsion, and refuse all others.

PRICE 50C. AND $1 PER BOTTLE.

FOR MEN ONLY!

VIGOR and STRENGTH! For LOST or FAILING MANHOOD; General and NERVOUS DEBILITY; Weakness of Body and Mind, Effects of Errors or Excesses in Old or Young. Robust, Noble MANHOOD fully Restored. How to enlarge and Strengthen WEAK, UNDEVELOPED ORGANS & PARTS OF BODY. Absolutely unfailing HOME TREATMENT—Benefits in a day. Men testify from 50 States and Foreign Countries. Write them. Descriptive Book, explanation and proofs mailed (sealed) free. Address ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N. Y.

"HARVARD" BRONCHIAL SYRUP

CURES COUGHS COLDS CROUP HOARSENESS and every form of THROAT TROUBLE

Large Bottles, 25c. Extra Large, 50c.

As the name implies, emanates from the Medical Faculty of Harvard University. The highest and best medical skill and knowledge in America were employed in devising this medicine, with a result that has even surpassed the expectations of its compounders, and has proved a wonderful cure for all throat troubles arising from sudden colds. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely free from injurious ingredients.

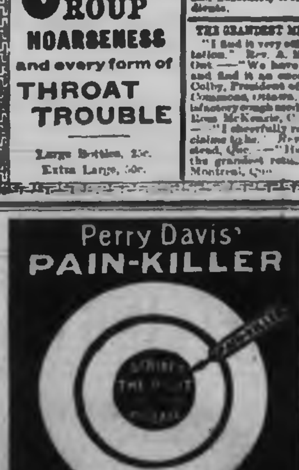
THE GRANDEST MEDICINE OF THE AGE. "I find it very efficacious for throat irritation." Rev. A. B. Chambers, Napanee, Ont. —"We have used it in our family and find it an excellent remedy." C. C. Colby, President of the Council, House of Commons, Ottawa. —"It is the most satisfactory cough medicine I have ever tried." Ross McKenzie, C. P. R. Office, Montreal. —"I cheerfully recommend it for all it claims to be." Rev. J. A. Dufresne, Stanstead, Que. —"Have used it myself with the grandest results." J. C. McLaren, Montreal, Que.

JUST TRY IT ONCE

A Delightful Medicine for Children as well as for Adults.

If your dealer does not keep it send price in stamps to the proprietor,

A. J. LAWRENCE
Montreal



Perry Davis'
PAIN-KILLER
STRIKES THE RIGHT SPOT
Is used both internally and externally. It acts quickly, affording almost instant relief from the severest pain.

DIRECTLY TO THE SPOT.
INSTANTANEOUS IN ITS ACTION.

For CRAMPS, CHILLS, COLIC, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, CHOLERA MORBUS, and all BOWEL COMPLAINTS,

NO REMEDY EQUALS THE PAIN-KILLER.

In Canadian Cholera and Bowel Complaints its effect is magical. It cures in a very short time.

THE BEST FAMILY REMEDY FOR BURNS, BRUISES, SPRAINS, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA and TOOTHACHE.

SOLD EVERYWHERE AT 25C. A BOTTLE.

☞ Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations.

DO YOU KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE?
ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM.
NO BETTER REMEDY FOR COUGHS, COLDS, CROUP, CONSUMPTION, &C.

Choicest Brands —OF— FLOUR!

BAKERS and PASTRY —AT— MELDRUM & DAVIDSON'S

Quality Guaranteed.

FEED:

All kinds always on hand. Orders left at Ormond & Walsh's or McDonald's drug stores will be promptly attended to.

Mill Telephone No. 106.

LOWEST PRICES FOR CASH.

OPEN FOR INSPECTION!

A handsome and very useful line of

CASE GOODS

COMPRISING

Carver Sets,

Ladies' and Gentlemen's

COMPANIONS

These Goods are the Best English Make.

KINGAN & Co

—ONTARIO—
Planing Mills!

Planing, Matching, Mouldings, Band Sawing & Turning, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Storm Sash.

JAMES Z. ROGERS.

GEO. B. SPROULE,
ARTIST & PHOTOGRAPHER
GROUND FLOOR.
170 Charlotte-st. . . . . . Peterborough.

FRAMES & PICTURE MOULDINGS.

Bookbinding!

oo—oo—oo

Magazines,
Periodicals,
Illustrated Papers,
Law, Music,

and all kinds of Books Bound in the very best style of the art. First-class Material and Work. Close Prices.

REVIEW PT'G CO.
LIMITED,
BOOKBINDERS, STATIONERS & ACCOUNT BOOK MANUFACTURERS.
350 George-st.

Bell Telephone Co., OF CANADA.

Capital, - $1,500,000.00.

Head Office, MONTREAL.

AND. ROBERTSON, — President.
C. F. SISE, — Vice-Pres. and Man'g. Dir.
C. P. SCLATER, Secy.-Treas.
HUGH C. BAKER, Man., Ont. Dep., Hamilton.

300 EXCHANGES.

Long distance lines give unequalled facilities for talking between cities, towns and villages.

If you wish to speak to Kingston, Belleville, Port Hope, Lindsay, Lakefield, Millbrook, Omemee, Toronto, Hamilton, etc., use the wires of the

BELL TELEPHONE Co.

H. W. KENT,
Local Manager
d48-6mo

UNION CREDIT & PROTECTION ASSOCIATION.

FOR the Collection of Old and Worthless Accounts, in any part of the world, and no charges if not collected. This Association has local offices in Canada and United States. Head and general office, 84 Adelaide-st. East, Toronto. Rooms, 10, 11, 12 and 13. O. R. COLLINS, General Manager; & H. B. ANDREWS, Sec. Address all communications to Toronto, Ont., office. Telephone No. 2063. This is the only Association that settles accounts and advances the money to the creditor if desired.

O. R. COLLINS,
Manager

DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON,
Solicitors for the Association at Peterborough.
August 29th, 1890. d51 w

Travel.

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY OF CANADA.

The direct route between the west and all points on the Lower St. Lawrence and Baie de Chaleur, Province of Quebec, also New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward, Cape Breton and the Magdalene Islands, Newfoundland and St. Pierre.

Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax daily (Sunday excepted) and run through without change between these points in 30 hours.

The through express train cars of the Intercolonial Railway are brilliantly lighted by electricity and heated by steam from the locomotive.

New and elegant Buffet Sleeping and Day Cars are run on all through express trains.

The popular summer sea bathing and fishing resorts of Canada are along the Intercolonial or are reached by that route.

Canadian, European Mail and Passenger Route.

Passengers for Great Britain or the Continent leaving Montreal on Thursday morning will join outward mail steamer at Rimouski the same evening.

The attention of shippers is directed to the superior facilities offered by this route for the transport of flour and general merchandise intended for the Eastern Provinces and Newfoundland, also for shipments of grain and produce intended for the European market.

Tickets may be obtained and all information about the route, also freight and passenger rates on application to

N. WEATHERSTON,
Western Freight and Passenger Agent, 93 Rossin House Block, York street, Toronto.

D. POTTINGER,
Chief Superintendent.
Railway Office, Moncton, N.B., 2nd July, 1890. 1y

CANADIAN PACIFIC RY

PEOPLE'S POPULAR ONE WAY PARTIES

TO British Columbia WASHINGTON Oregon and California

Leave Toronto 11 p.m. on Fridays, as under:

1891 FEBRUARY 20 MARCH 6, 20 1891

RUNNING THROUGH TO VANCOUVER WITHOUT CHANGE

For Berths and all information, apply to nearest C.P.R. Agent.

Carbon Gaslight

A RIVAL TO DAYLIGHT!

A new and Brilliant Illuminating Power—Clear, Steady and Mellow. Specially suited for Stores and large Buildings, Machine Shops, &c. A saving of 30 to 40 per cent. on gas can be effected by this new light

See it Burning at the Store of

J. E. NOBLE & Co.
287 George-st, South.
TELEPHONES.—Bell No. 181, Ontario No. 156.

JOHN NUGENT,
CHEMIST AND DRUGGIST.

Prescriptions Carefully Compounded.

Try Nugent's Remedies for Colds, Coughs and affections of the chest and throat.

J. NUGENT,
Drug Store, 179 Hunter-st. west.

BANK of TORONTO

Capital	$2,000,000 00
Reserve Fund	1,500,000 00

PETERBORO' BRANCH.

SAVINGS BANK

SPECIAL ADVANTAGES are derived by depositing money in our Savings Bank Department.

1. "ONE DOLLAR saved is one dollar earned."
2. DEPOSITS of ONE DOLLAR and upwards are received and interest allowed thereon.
3. INTEREST is added to the principal on the 31st day of May and 30th day of November, in each year.
4. MONEY bears interest from the day it is deposited with the Bank until the day of withdrawal.
5. THE DEPOSITOR is subject to no delay whatever.
6. THE SECURITY offered by this Bank is undoubted, as will be seen by the large reserve held and the amount of surplus available for depositors and note holders.

BUSINESS WITH FARMERS.

FARMERS' NOTES discounted at lowest rates. SPECIAL ATTENTION is given to the collection of Farmers' Sale Notes, and advances made thereon.

NOTE FORMS furnished free of charge on application.

DEPOSITS.

DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS opened subject to withdrawal by cheque on demand.

SPECIAL DEPOSITS.—Deposit Receipts issued bearing interest at current rates.

JOHN L. GOWER,
Manager
d116-w7

BLANK FORMS

Deeds,
Mortgages,
Home Leases,
Farm Leases,
Agreements,
Short form of Lease
Lease of Land,
Magistrates Blanks,
Division Court Blanks,
etc., etc.,

Printed on good paper and correct forms.

AT THE REVIEW STATIONERY.

Medical.

DR. SCOTT.

OFFICE—176 Brock-st. d188w31

P. D. GOLDSMITH, M. D.

L. R. C., L. S. A., L. R. C. P., London, Eng.,

HAS permanently located in Peterborough. Office and residence, 196 Brock-st., formerly occupied by Mr. J. E. McWilliams. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. 46-w46-ly

D. N. CARMICHAEL, M. D.,

C. M., L. R. C. P. Ed.

GRADUATE OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY, Fellow of Trinity Medical School, Licentiate of Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh, L. M. of Simpson's Maternity Hospital, Edinburgh. Office in Mr. Alexander's new residence one door north of the late Dr. O'Sullivan's, George-st. d2m88-wyr86

DR. B. E. McKENZIE, B. A.

Lecturer on Orthopedic Surgery in the Women's Medical College, and in Toronto University; Consulting Orthopedic Surgeon to Victoria Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto.

Diseases of the Joints and Deformities Only

Bloor-st. W. (near Yonge-st.) Toronto, Consultation from 10 to 3. On Friday and Saturday by appointment only.

Will be at the Grand Central Hotel, Peterborough, March 14th. next.

DR. MOHER,

HAS removed to 214 Hunter-st., opposite Marble Works. Office upstairs.

Legal.

HATTON & WOOD.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office, corner of George and Hunter-sts., over T. Dolan & Co's. store. MONEY TO LOAN.

E. B. WOOD, B. A. G. W. HATTON.

SAWERS & STONE.

BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyances, &c. Office, Hunter-st., Peterborough.

☞ MONEY TO LOAN.

E. B. STONE, d168-w8 C. W. SAWERS.

POUSSETTE & JOHNSTON.

BARRISTERS and SOLICITORS, 370 Water-st.

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C. W. F. JOHNSTON.

EDWARD A. PECK.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, etc., 358 George-st., Peterborough.

Private Funds to loan at 6 per cent.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter-st., Peterborough next English church. Money to loan at lowest rates of interest.

E. H. D. HALL. LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN O'MEARA.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, &c. Office 383 George-st. d-w

JOHN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office: No. 415 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont., next door north of new post office. MONEY TO LOAN. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter-sts., over McClelland's Jewellery store. d115w8

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water-st., Peterborough. d37w

DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES. Money to Loan. Office, 417 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont.

ARTHUR STEVENSON, B. A.
R. M. DENNISTOUN, B. A.

STRATTON & HALL.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, &c., Peterborough, Ont. Office:—Next door to Post Office on Hunter-St.

W. A. STRATTON, LL. B. R. R. HALL. d138

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block, Peterborough. wd27

J. E. BELCHER

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George-st. d86w8

Builders and Contractors

E. WEBB,

BRICKLAYER AND CONTRACTOR. All work done substantially and expeditiously. Address E. WEBB, Peterborough. Residence, 236 Aylmer-st. 1yd128

J. J. HARTLEY.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P. O. Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer-sts. 1yd189

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north. P. O. address, Box 21. d150

W. B. WHITEHAIR.

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 566, Peterborough P.O. d49-1yr

JAS. R. DONELL.

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash, Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being a practical man, he trusts to be able to give patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.

d188 JAS. R. DONELL.

Big G is acknowledged the leading remedy for Gonorrhœa & Gleet. The only safe remedy for Leucorrhœa or Whites. I prescribe it and feel safe in recommending it to all sufferers.

A. J. STONER, M. D., Decatur, Ill.

Cures in 1 TO 5 DAYS. Guaranteed not to cause Stricture. Mf'd only by The Evans Chemical Co. TORONTO, CAN.

Sold by Druggists. Price $1.00.

G. A. SCHOFIELD, Agt., Peterborough d 89-ly

THE

CENTRAL CANADA Loan and Savings Co,

Authorized Capital	$5,000,000
Subscribed Capital	2,000,000
Paid-up Capital	600,000
Reserve Fund	150,000
Invested Funds	2,679,135.67

OFFICE.—No. 437, George-st., Peterborough.

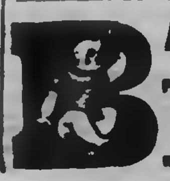
DEPOSITS received at current rates of interest, paid or compounded half-yearly.

DEBENTURES issued in Currency or Sterling, with interest coupons attached, payable in Canada or in England. Executors and Trustees are authorized by law to invest in the Debentures of this Company.

MONEY ADVANCED on Real Estate security at current rates and on favorable conditions as to repayment.

Mortgages and Municipal Debentures purchased.

GEO. A. COX,
Managing Director.
d6wd8



BARAVENA MILK FOOD

FOR INFANTS is the safest, cheapest and nearest to Mothers' Milk of any Food made. Ask your Druggist. THE BERNARD [illegible]

If YOU WISH
to Advertise
Anything
Anywhere
at Any time
WRITE TO
GEO. P. ROWELL & CO.
No. 10 Spruce Street,
NEW YORK.

SOCIETY, COMMERCIAL AND BOOK PRINTING!

First-Class Work at Low Prices.

Review Office

350 GEORGE ST.

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE.

February 1st. 1891.

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
8 00 a m 6 00 p m	Montreal and East, via O. & Q. R.	[illegible]
11 30 a m 11 30 p m	Toronto and West, via O. & Q. R.	[illegible]
	Grand Trunk, East & West	1 15 p m
	do East	5 30 p m
12 00 a m 6 00 p m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west.	8 00 a m 4 00 p m
8 30 a m	Millbrook and Port Hope	11 15 a m
5 15 p m	do do	5 30 p m
8 35 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings	1 00 p m
4 00 p m	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	11 15 a m
10 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clydesdale, Paudash and Cheddar, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 30 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays
	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do do	4 00 p m
	British Mails per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	8 00 p m
	Via New York, Mondays.
12 noon	Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	4 30 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Australia, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings Bank, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxemburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherlands, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey. And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan, Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before.) Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guiana, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books, &c., 4 cents for 4 oz. Other Registration fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Prepayment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents. H. C. ROGERS, Post Master.

MUNN & CO. SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN PATENTS

WEDDING CARDS.
LATEST STYLES AT THE
Review Stationery Store.

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XXV.—No. 42. PETERBOROUGH, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1891. TEN CENTS A WEEK

Probabilities.

Winds shifting to easterly; fair to cloudy weather, followed by some sleet or snow to-night; stationary or higher temperature.

SWISS
Needle Work
EMBROIDERY.

We take pleasure in annoucing that we have just received Ex. SS. Sardinian) direct from the manufactory in St. Gall, Switzerland, our new Spring collection of Needle Work Embroidery for the season of 1891. We placed unusual large orders for these goods when the stitch prices were at the lowest point. The value is exceptionally good. The designs were selected with the greatest care and we think will merit your approval. Special discount allowed to customers purchasing in quantities of a dozen yards and upwards.

ROBERT FAIR,

Sign of the Golden Lion,
382 George Street, Peterborough.
Ontario (144 and Bell Telephone (145)

KID GLOVES!
KID GLOVES!

W. W. JOHNSTON
has just received a complete assortment of
Black and Colored
Kid Gloves
at 85c. per pair.
The Best in the Market at the Price.

SPECIAL VALUE IN
Bed Room Towels and Kitchen Towelling.
Call and see our
ART MUSLIN
at 15c. per yard.
CRYSTAL BLOCK
410 George-st.

Musical.

ORGAN, PIANOFORTE and SINGING
DR. DAVIES,

Organist of St. John's church, late of Christ Church Cathedral and of St. James's Cathedral, Toronto, receives pupils at his residence, 44 McDonnel-st. At home each day from 9 till 10 a.m. and from 2 till 3 p.m. to make engagements, etc. 4d-1m

Wood and Coal.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Seasoned Hard Coal of all sizes also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.

W. B. FERGUSON,
Telephone Connection. Agent

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of
COAL AND WOOD,
which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
d&w JAMES STEVENSON.

PETERBOROUGH WATER CO.
OFFICE - - 26 HUNTER-ST.
W. HENDERSON, Superintendent
(F. ADAMS, Collector.

All water rates and accounts must be paid at the office. Mr. Adams will be in the office from 3 to 5 p.m. every day

Awnings.
Tents.
AND Sails.

ALFRED KINGSCOTE has opened out in Dumbleton's Block, on Water-st. opposite the market, where he is prepared to do all kinds of Awning, Tent and Sail making.
Good Work and Low Prices. Remember the place

A. KINGSCOTE,
d69-1yr No. 344 Water-st.

EDWIN ELCOME,
TAXIDERMIST
and Dealer in Eyes, Artificial Leave and Frostings.

BIRDS, ANIMALS, FISH and SNAKES stuffed and Mounted in and out of cases in the best English style at lowest prices. DEER'S HEADS a specialty. A stock of foreign and native birds always on hand for sale.
Residence, No. 178 Harvey-st., Peterborough
d41-w49-1y

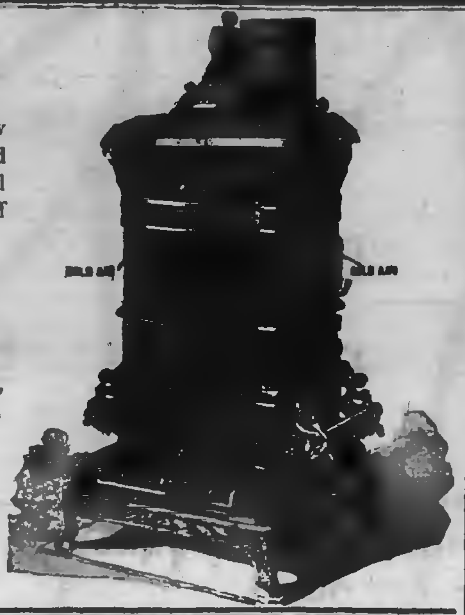
STOVES.

We have a few New and Second Hand Coal Heaters left and are running them off cheap.

LAMPS.

Beautiful designs, all styles, reduced in price.

W. G. BAIN & CO.
George-st.



Wants.

WANTED.

A GOOD KITCHEN GIRL, able to cook. Apply at 237 George-st. THOS. H. PRATT. 3d40

For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE,

A QUANTITY OF PAPER CUTTINGS and shavings. Apply at REVIEW Office.

TO LET.

Store and Dwelling

No. 281 George-st., now occupied by J.J. Turner. Good stand for grocery and boarding house. STORE and DWELLING No. 280 George-st. DWELLING HOUSES No. 88 Hunter-st., and 18 and 20 Queen-st. JOHN J. LUNDY. dtf

FOR SALE
BY TENDER.

The Stock in trade of the Hardware business carried on by George Stethem, in the Town of Peterborough. Purchaser can get lease of premises for term. Tenders at so much on the dollar. Stock lists can be seen at the premises. Highest or any tender not necessarily accepted. Tenders addressed to the undersigned received up to noon on Saturday, the 21st day of February instant.

R. A. MORROW.
Peterborough, Ont., Feb. 14th, 1891. 3d45

REMOVAL.

DR. CARMICHAEL

has removed to his new office and residence, corner of Water and Brock-sts, (opposite the Court House. d148-w52-3mo

HAGGART & KIDD

TOWN and COUNTY } Auctioneers,
COMMISSION and SHIPPING } Merchants,
REAL ESTATE and INSURANCE } Agents.

☛ Money to Loan.

DOMINION
ELECTIONS!

West Riding of Peterborough.

MR. STEVENSON'S
Committee Rooms
OLD COUNCIL CHAMBER,
OPERA HOUSE BLOCK.

Open Every Evening. All Liberal Conservatives and Citizens wishing to maintain the present Government are invited to meet at the Rooms in the interests of the Conservative Candidate.

W. H. MOORE,
Pres. Lib.-Con. Ass'n
W. J. MINORE,
Sec. Lib.-Con. Ass'n

SAWS Filed and Gummed in First Class Style. Knives, Scissors, Tools, &c., ground and sharpened. S. W. ENGLISH shop, 125 Charlotte-st. d13 w17

AT
TURNBULL'S

Owing to so many covered shapes being worn this season we have a quantity of untrimmed Felt Hats and Bonnets left of all styles for Ladies and Children which we have put together in one lot and are clearing out at

25c. each.

This includes everything. Our friends may know what bargains await them as many of them have been sold during the season at from $1.00 to $1.50. Remember you get the choice of this lot for 25c.

We are showing in one of our windows Spring Prints, which are but an indication of the quantities of handsome patterns we have inside.

Our Spring Flanneletts have arrived. The patterns are new and darker, what so many people want. They are very pretty. Quantities of new goods opened every day. We show a handsome range of new shades in Dress Goods suitable for Wedding Outfits.

Further particulars of what we will offer this Spring as special inducements next week.

J. C. TURNBULL
George & Simcoe-sts., Peterborough.

For You!

Reduction in prices of all Cloths. Suits and Overcoats to order for less money than ever to clear out the balance of winter stock.
Order now.

D. CAMERON & Co.
Tailors and Clothiers, 434 George-st.

D. BELLEGHEM,
Issuer of Mariage Licenses,
PETERBOROUGH.

LADIES' JERSEYS
In all the Leading Styles
at Lowest Prices at
PORT HOPE KNITTING WORKS
382 George-st.

MONEY TO LOAN.

A LARGE amount of private funds has been placed in my hands for loaning on farm security.
J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM,
d4w2 Solicitor, 136 Hunter-st.

HALL, INNES
& Co.

See our window of
NEW EMBROIDERIES

Hall, Innes & Co.
130, 132 and 134 Simcoe-st.

The Daily Review.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1891.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

THE NEWS OF EUROPE.

A HOT FIGHT PROMISED THROUGHOUT IRELAND.

Justice Stephen and The Maybrick Case—Wholesale Murders of Children in London—The New Cure For Antrax—Emperor William and Bismarck

LONDON, Feb. 18.—The chief interest in the pending Irish dispute now centres around the campaign about to be opened in Ireland, and for which the McCarthyites have about completed their preparations. The authorized report of their meeting yesterday hardly conveys an adequate idea of the result of their deliberations. An active, vigorous campaign was decided upon and will be undertaken in advance. It will [illegible] even if, to do so, it is found necessary to deprive the Irish benches during the discussion of the Irish Land bill.

Between 20 and 30 Nationalists, including the unpopular Healy and the popular Sexton, leave London at once. To ensure for these orators a fitting reception, the priests have been communicated with and full directions sent out.

The officials are congratulating themselves upon the fact that 6176 persons, representing that number of families, are now employed upon the light railways in the west of Ireland, the appropriation for the construction of which were made by parliament early in the session. The result of this Government measure of relief has already been to largely mitigate the suffering in the congested districts and bridge over the most trying season of the year.

Capt. Vandeleur is about to again begin evictions in County Clare. It will be remembered that 18 months ago Capt. Vandeleur met the National League half way and agreed to leave the dispute with his tenants to the arbitration of Sir Charles Russell. The cause of Capt. Vandeleur's present action is the failure on the part of the tenants to carry out the conditions of Sir Charles' award.

Fierce Language and Broken Heads

DUBLIN, Feb. 18.—The Express says Ireland is committed to the strife of two powerful parties, a state of affairs not seen before save in the time of the civil war. Soon fierce language will be used and probably broken heads will follow. The contest really is between Mr. Parnell and the hierarchy and will result in the overthrow of the hierarchy by Mr. Parnell, or vice versa. $25,000, the first instalment of the Liberal grant to the McCarthyites, has been deposited in checks signed by Mr. Morley and Mr. McCarthy.

Michael Davitt, who has been visiting the west coast of Ireland, reports that the inhabitants of that coast are badly in need of seed. Mr. Davitt pronounces the road repairing work being done at Achille to be mere burlesque and adds that the children are suffering from a lack of milk.

The Cure for Anthrax

BERLIN, Feb. 18.—Some further particulars have now transpired concerning the cure for anthrax, which, as announced last month, has been discovered by Mr. E. H. Hankin, the English bacteriologist. His cure of anthra is based upon his previous discovery of protective proteids. It is a well-known fact that rats possess immunity from many diseases, including anthra. This is due to the presence of protective proteids, which in rats has a greater power of resisting microbes than it has in the case of other animals. This substance Mr. Hankin has succeeded in isolating, extracting it from the system of rats with the aid of a 50 per cent. solution of glycerine. This is the same medium as is employed by Dr. Koch, but it is observed that it was used by Mr. Hankin prior to the publication of the German professor's article on the completion of his remedy for tuberculosis. By Mr. Hankin's process, the extract is precipitated in alcohol, and the precipitate is then dissolved in water. Experiments with the new remedy on mice and other animals have given highly satisfactory results. The importance of Mr. Hankin's discovery is not confined to anthrax, as it is possibly capable of extension to the other diseases from which rats enjoy an immunity.

Two Colors of Eyes

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Angelo Amati, an Italian immigrant, interested the Barge Office physician to-day, in that he had eyes of two distinct colors—one brown and the other blue.

One of the Twins Killed.

POUGHKEEPSIE, Feb. 18.—Ida May and Willie May, twin daughters of David Lesman of this city, aged 14, were playing with a loaded revolver to-day, when it suddenly exploded in the hands of Ida. The bullet entered Willie's right eye and lodged in the brain. She died this evening.

TOPICS FROM TORONTO.

A YOUNG MAN THROWN FROM HIS HORSE AND KILLED.

Returned From Jamaica—The A.O.U.W.—Death of a Prominent Citizen Annual Meeting of the Architects—General News Items of Interest.

TORONTO, Feb. 18.—Soft ice greeted the Ontario Branch curlers for the first day of their Tankard finals.

The Granite Rink was unfit for play and all the matches except two occurred at Victoria Rink. The Granites knocked out Walkerton, thanks to the great work of Skip Williamson and his rink. Prospect Park and Belleville showed up unusually strong and won handily in the first round. Paris had an easy victory over Lakefield.

In the second round the Hamilton Thistles and Belleville had easy work with their opponents. The final and semi-final rounds take place to-day as given below.

Thrown From His Horse and Killed

One of the most distressing accidents which has occurred in this city since the death of Eddie Coates took place at 10 o'clock last night. It resulted in the death of George A. Badgerow, son of County Crown Attorney Badgerow, who is now in the Bermudas for his health. The young man was returning on horseback to his home in Avenue-road from Mr. A. H. Badgerow's in North Toronto. While galloping along through Deer Park in the dark his horse fell. He was thrown forward and shortly after was picked up dead. Dr. Armstrong was immediately summoned, but human skill was powerless. The body is now lying at Mr. Badgerow's in North Toronto. The time for the funeral has not been decided on.

The deceased young man was about 21 years of age. He was in his third year in the faculty of arts in Toronto University, and a lieutenant in "K" (the University) company Q.O.R. In person he was tall and singularly handsome. His disposition and manner were such as to win him great popularity among his fellows.

A. O. U. W.

The 13th annual session of the Grand Lodge A.O.U.W. met yesterday morning in Victoria Hall, the grand master, John Milne, mayor of Essex, presiding.

The report of the committee on distribution was taken up and adopted. Past Master M. D. Dawson of London moved the adoption of report of Finance Committee—which was done. The figures presented show this order to be in a flourishing condition. The order collected during the year $236,015 on beneficiary account. For this purpose they made 14 assessments. They paid 143 death claims amounting to $290,000, leaving the small balance of $15. The smallest amount collected in any one month, when there was one assessment, was about $19,000. The months that a double assessment was made produced about $40,000. The committee congratulate the order in having no unsatisfied or disputed claims. A very large proportion of the deaths were young men, 55 passing away under the age of 40 years and 81 dying under the age of 45 years; 17 young men died under 30. The order paid in 1890 to their widows and orphans $[illegible],000, and it cost $[illegible] only for expenses, showing that the certificate holders got for the year 1890 eleven-twelfths of all moneys received by the grand recorder.

Twenty-six new lodges have been added to the roll during the past year; 19 in the province of Ontario, four in Quebec and three in Manitoba. The membership has made a net increase of 3135, making the total membership 22,404. The average death rate per 1000 was only 6½.

A telegram of fraternal greeting was received from the Grand Lodge of the Sons of Canada in session in Peterboro. A committee of the Grand Lodge, A.O.U.W., responded in suitable terms. An official communication was also received from the grand officers of the Order of Canadian Home Circles, conveying fraternal congratulations, which was reciprocated.

The time of the evening session, from 7.30 to 11 p.m., was occupied in the consideration and discussion of the revised constitution.

An agreeable break in this work was caused by the visit of Edward Towe, high chief ranger of the Canadian Order of Foresters, who was warmly greeted by the A.O.U.W. Grand Lodge.

The discussion on the new constitution will be continued this morning and the election of officers will take place in the afternoon.

Well Known Citizen Dead.

At 5 o'clock yesterday morning, Mr Alexander McDonald of 158 Euclid-avenue, for the past 30 years an official of the Crown Lands Department, died after an illness of less than five days. The deceased came to Canada in the forties with the 93rd Highlanders. In Quebec he bought his discharge and was employed as messenger in the offices there attached to the Department of Crown Lands. Afterwards he was transferred to Ottawa and on Confederation was removed to Toronto where he held the position of clerk and messenger in the Crown Lands Department until his death. He was an honorary member of the Army and Navy Veterans

Peter McSweyn, of the firm of McSweyn & Sons, merchant tailors, Queen-street west passed peacefully away yesterday afternoon at his residence after a three weeks' illness. The deceased was a most distinguished and much respected member of the Royal Templars of Temperance, the Gaelic and other societies. He leaves a widow and three children, all grown up, to mourn his loss.

C.P.R. Earnings.

MONTREAL, Feb. 18.—The following is the return of traffic earnings of the Canadian Pacific Railway from Feb. 7 to Feb. 14 1891: 1891, $334,000; 1890, $233,000. Increase for 1891 $101,000. Earnings of the New Brunswick Railway included both years.

Her First and Final Trip.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—The steamer Have while on her way down the bay this afternoon ran into and sank the bark Masoetta on her first trip to San Domingo. Three lives were lost.

Manager and Dancer Elope.

BOSTON, Feb. 18.—Al Haynes, one of the proprietors of the dime museum known as the Nickelodeon, disappeared this morning and so did Cyrene who has been billed as Carmencita's rival. Judging from the fact that Haynes left a letter for his partner, Austin, stating that he had eloped with the woman, this statement of the case is probably true. Early this morning Cyrene settled her bill with her landlady on Alston-street and drove away with her trunks in a hack. A short time afterward she and Haynes were seen at the city ticket office of the Old Colony Railroad, and it is supposed that they fled in the direction of New York.

Cyrene began her engagement only yesterday, but she had danced at the Nickelodeon before, and her acquaintance with Haynes was formed then. She is alleged to have a husband in New York. Haynes' accounts are all straight.

THEY FOUGHT TO A FINISH.

Ryan Knocked Out Needham in Seventy-six Rounds at Minneapolis.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 18.—Ryan knocked Needham out in the seventy-sixth round.

At 2.30 o'clock President Harris of the Twin City Club announced his intention of making Needham and Ryan fight to a finish. Up to that time 73 rounds had been fought, and the men were simply walking around each other, letting fly a blow occasionally.

With round 76 each man came up for blood, Ryan leading effectively with his left. Ryan used his left again, and knocked Needham down. A clinch followed, and Needham was knocked down again. Ryan dealing an upper cut, knocking Needham down repeatedly, and the call of time only saved him from being knocked out. As it was he was carried to his corner in a dazed condition, and before time was called his seconds threw up the sponge. The fight is universally considered one of the greatest fought in the country. The exact time of the fight was five hours and five minutes. Needham was badly punished, especially about the face. Ryan escaped without a mark.

DEATH BY DIPHTHERIA.

Terrible Ravages of Diphtheria in Essex County.

WINDSOR, Feb. 18.—Six members of the family of John Prosser, a farm laborer on the Walker farm, near Walkerville, have died from diphtheria during the past three weeks. The first child died on Jan. 28, the second within a week, two others last week, within a couple of days of each other, and these had scarcely been buried when a pair of twins were affected, and they died last night. Out of a family of eight children but two are left.

POWDERLY STRICKEN.

Suddenly Attacked With Heart Disease After Making a Speech.

TOPEKA, Kan. Feb. 18.—T. V. Powderly, General Master Workman of the Knights of Labor, at the conclusion of his speech in the Hall of Representatives last night fell to his chair prostrated by heart disease. He recovered in a short time and walked to his hotel and immediately took to his bed. This morning he decided to cancel all his Western engagements and departed for his home at Scranton, Pa. This is the third attack of that kind which Mr. Powderly has suffered while on his present trip.

AN ASYLUM FOR DEFAULTERS.

The Absconding St. Catharines' Loan Co Manager in Buenos Ayres.

ST. CATHARINES, Feb. 18.—Mr. David Mills, a widely known drug traveler of this city, writes to a friend here a letter bearing date Jan. 12, from Buenos Ayres, Argentine Republic, South America. "On the 9th inst. I was walking on one of the principal streets in this city in company with my wife when I suddenly came face to face with A. M. Macrea. He was walking alone and looked very crestfallen and unhappy. He appeared to recognize us, but neither of us spoke. He is not extraditable in this republic, whose population is about one-third composed of refugees from justice."

It will be remembered that the A. M. Macrea mentioned in this letter is the dashing "Matt" Macrae formerly secretary-treasurer of the St. Catharines Security Loan & Savings Co., who absconded with some $30,000 of the company's money in September last.

Fatal Fire in Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—A woman and four children were suffocated and a man was probably fatally burned in a fire that occurred at Delmonico-place and Hopkinson-line, Brooklyn, this morning. Jacob Enrich was at work in the basement over a pot of boiling fat in a large pot at 4.30 o'clock this morning, when the pot boiled over, and running to the floor set fire to the surrounding woodwork. In a few minutes the building was on fire and dense smoke was pouring through the halls. Enrich was badly burned and cannot live. On the top floor were found Mrs. John Henry and her four children, dead. The woman and her children were asleep when the fire broke out and were overcome by the smoke before they could escape.

A Hundred Dollars Stolen by a Mouse.

MONMOUTH, Ill., Feb. 18.—Fifteen years ago a $100 bill disappeared from the cash drawer of the Second National Bank of Monmouth and a customer, now deceased, was suspected of having been overpaid. Last night a workman in dissecting an old counter found the lost bank note in a mouse nest and the cloud on the dead man's name is lifted. The bill, which was issued by the Pittsburg National Bank, is not badly mutilated and will be readily redeemed.

Discovery of a Murderous Conspiracy in Buenos Ayres.

BUENOS AYRES, Feb. 18.—A startling conspiracy has been discovered here, but the details are kept secret by the police and government officials. It is known, however, that the plot embraced the proposed assassination of the principal members of the government. Considerable excitement, naturally, has followed the discovery of the conspiracy.

The A. A. Jumps.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—The report of the withdrawal of the American Association from the National agreement was substantiated at the St. James' Hotel to-day, where the delegates of the association are in session for the purpose of effecting organization. President Thurman has been removed for bad faith to the association. New officers are being elected.

Frightened to Death.

CLINTON, Mo., Feb. 18.—Mrs. M. Trollinger of Leesville died yesterday from fright. She was sitting in a wagon watching her son cut down a tree. The tree fell toward the wagon, and the boy called to his mother to get out of the way. She seemed unable to move. The tree crashed down just behind the wagon without touching Mrs. Trollinger, but she fell over dead. Physicians examined the body and say they found no sign of the woman having been hit. They assign the cause to paralysis of the heart.

Coasting Accident.

HASTINGS, Feb. 18.—John Walsh, a lad of 9 was coasting when the sled collided with the Clarendon House platform, throwing Walsh against the brick wall. When picked up it was found that the left thigh bones were shattered.

A Lynching Bee.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 19.—A white man and a negro were taken from the jail in Gainesville last night by a mob and hanged. They had been arrested for complicity in numerous assaults.

Deserted, But Baptised.

QUEBEC, Feb. 18.—A newly born infant was found between the two doors of the St Roche Presbytery this morning. The little stranger was baptised by the Rev. Mr Belanger, and then sent to the Sacre Coeur Hospital.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

COLONIAL QUESTIONS DISCUSSED IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Great Britain Opposes the Request of the Newfoundland Assembly and Will Not Approve of the Proposed Convention With the United States.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—Lord Dunraven, the champion of an imperial zollverein for Great Britain and the colonies, questioned the Government in the House of Lords regarding the documents which the Government had promised a few days ago to present, relative to the draft of a convention between Newfoundland and the United States.

Lord Knutsford, in behalf of the Cabinet, said that a misapprehension had arisen on the subject in Newfoundland as to the course of the British Government, which has been condemned for breaking engagements that never were made. Leave to negotiate did not imply imperial sanction of the results of the negotiation. The Canadian Government was strongly opposed to the Newfoundland convention and the Imperial Government had decided after mature consideration that the proposed convention should not for the present be completed.

Lord Denman offered a motion for a bill giving suffrage to women who were householders.

Lord Salisbury thought it unwise to interfere with the franchises as at present established, as the Commons might take advantage of such a proposition to initiate other and less desirable changes.

A Colonial Zollverein.

In the House of Commons Mr. Vincent moved that the Government at the earliest opportunity invite the British colonies to a conference in London to decide the best means of forming a zollverein. He contended that imperial federation was only to be attained through commercial federation. Many of the leading colonial statesmen and others favored commercial federation.

Sir Lyon Playfair criticized the motion as covering a protectionist movement. He argued that owing to the varied interests of the colonies a zollverein was impracticable. He quoted statistics showing the increase of British trade during the present regime. He contended that it would be most injudicious to arrest the reaction in America against excessive protection induced by the McKinley law by imposing differential duties against America for the benefit of the colonies. Considering all the circumstances there was no basis to justify parliament in inviting the colonies to a conference. In conclusion, he expressed a hope for an ultimate union of the colonies on a free trade basis.

Mr. Lowther declared that there was no real free trade party in America and that the whole world with the exception of England was becoming protectionist. He said: "Unless we give our colonies commercial facilities we had better make up our minds to advocate the imperial position."

Mr. Goschen, Chancellor of the Exchequer, said that, whatever might be the fate of the motion, England had no desire to influence the Canadian elections. He sympathized with some points of Mr. Vincent's speech. He believed that the increasing desire for a closer union between England and the colonies ought to be fostered. He also conceded that many of the views of Adam Smith and John Stuart Mill had lost the authority they formerly exerted and that it was no longer possible to denounce opposing views as clap-trap. Still he must hold to what was sound in their views and he hoped that the suspicions of lurking protection would not retard a union of the colonies.

While he granted that the country must be prepared for some fiscal changes in the interests of that union, colonists must understand that it was impossible for England to tax corn. [Cheers.] There was no likelihood, he said, that the colonies would consent to a conference on a free trade basis. There only remained differential duties, and he failed to see how they could be imposed. It seemed to him, therefore, that the conference would be merely an invitation to follow a "will-o'-the wisp."

Mr. Vincent withdrew the motion.

The Alabama Claims.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—In the House of Commons Hon. W. H. Smith said, in reply to a question, that, according to published accounts in America, a portion of the Alabama indemnity remained in the hands of the United States Government, but it would be contrary to the engagement of the treaty of Washington in 1871 for the English Government to request a return of the money.

William Will Not Prosecute.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—A Berlin despatch says that at the dinner given by Chancellor von Caprivi Emperor William distinctly stated that he had no intention of prosecuting Bismarck.

Due to the Tariff.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—James Wilson & Sons, builders of Bradford, have failed, liabilities £80,000. The failure is attributed chiefly to the new U.S. tariff law, killing cash trade in packing cases for woolens sent to America.

Bismarck Discredits It.

LONDON, Feb. 8.—A despatch from Berlin says Bismarck is convinced the reports as to the Emperor's "injurious opinion" of himself are untrue and are "inventions of Bismarck's enemies." Bismarck is quoted as saying: "The Emperor knows too well how to estimate the motives which prompt my political warnings to doubt my patriotism."

Sitting Bull's Cabin has been Given Over to Them.

BISMARCK, N.D., Feb. 18.—The Indians give Sitting Bull's cabin a wide berth. Every Indian on the reservation shares in the belief that the building is nightly inhabited by the disembodied spirit of the old warrior and his men. Even Sitting Bull's two wives and children have deserted the cabin.

An Apparition Flags the Trains.

WAY CROSS, Ga., Feb. 18.—Conductor Pierson of the Brunswick & Western Road has asked for a day-run because of a ghost-like apparition which, he avers, meets the night trains near here. The ghost appears on the track as if to signal down a train. Several nights ago loud screams were heard as the train dashed by here.

Driven Out By a Valentine.

ATLANTA, Feb. 19.—The Rev. R. R. McKay of Lagrange tendered his resignation to the Baptist Church Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service and insisted that it should be accepted, which was finally done. He stated that he had received an anonymous letter on St. Valentine's Day signed "Your Valentine," informing him that the church was tired of him and making charges against him which he branded as utterly false. He will go back to Canada, whence he came.

The Wanzer Factory.

HAMILTON, Feb. 18.—It is said that a Scotch company is negotiating for the purchase of the Wanzer sewing machine factory. The city council will be asked to grant a bonus or some encouragement to the company.

sia for 8 years—Re-to Perfect Health.

people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Staunton, Va. He says: "Before 1878 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 162 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, nausea, and indigestion.

Intense

I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and for days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it had cured his wife of dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to tone up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

Suffering

8 Years

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

The Daily Review.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1891.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House. Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

UNMASKED.

The Traitorous Act Acknowledged by Sir Richard's Partisans.

THE exposure of the traitorous conspiracy to force Canada into annexation, which was made at Toronto by Sir John Macdonald, should arouse every Canadian to a sense of his duty to protect his country. The act is not denied by the chief conspirator, the Globe editor, and his defence is an aggravation of the offence. Mr. Farrer, the Globe writer, prepared a pamphlet pointing out how Canada might be compelled to join the States. Among the means he pointed out to them were to tax Nova Scotia vessels, to suspend the bonding privilege, and to cut off the Canadian Pacific at Sault Ste. Marie. He said:—

> "Whatever course the United States may see fit to adopt, it is plain that Sir John's disappearance from the stage is to be the signal for a movement towards annexation."

He added that "a leader will be forthcoming when the hour arrives."

This Globe writer has written an answer to Sir John, which was published on the editorial page of Wednesday's Globe. He does not deny having written the pamphlet, but says:—

> "I admit that I was the writer and sole author of the brochure, and should not hesitate, under similar circumstances, to write another, or a dozen more, on that or any other subject."

Nor does he deny that he desires to see Canada annexed to the United States, as he further says:—

> "The statement that I believed his (Sir John's) methods of government would not outlast him, and that I thought political union with the United States was the manifest destiny of Canada and that in the fulness of time we should see it, may be a mistaken one; but I believed it and believe it now and shall continue to do so until I am shown satisfactory evidence to the contrary."

Caught in the act, and without any loophole through which to escape, the unmasked plotter brazenly tries to face it out. But it is not so much with him that the people have to deal. This throws a flood of light on the visits of Mr. Farrer, while chief Globe writer and Sir Richard Cartwright's right hand man, to Washington; and it is not forgotten that Sir Richard himself, Mr. Charlton, Mr. Longley and other leaders of the present Liberal party, what is left of the old party, have made visits also, secretly sometimes, to the United States capital. Mr. Farrer says he did not circulate copies of this pamphlet in Washington. Perhaps he did not, but he sent them to the United States, he acknowledges that, and his friend Mr. Wiman or other friends there could see that they were placed where they "would do the most good"—that is, where they would do the most injury to Canada.

To such traitorous acts as this Canada owes the McKinley bill, the fisheries trouble, the attacks on Canadian railways and other attempts made to coerce this country. The only way to end such attempts is to show that Canada will not be coerced, by politically burying the men who are encouraging the enemies of the country. Then the United States will see the uselessness of such a course and will treat fairly with this country.

The crisis in the affairs of the Dominion cannot be exaggerated, and the attention of Liberals as well as Conservatives is called to the danger of placing such men at the head of affairs in Canada.

THE TRENT VALLEY CANAL.

IT is singular to see a Liberal organ standing up for "Parliamentary propriety" and red-tapeism, and arguing that the people should be kept in the dark regarding matters that interest them deeply until red tape laws have been complied with by the information being first presented to Parliament in session and then given out to the people. An "old fogy Tory" might be excused for contending for such formalities and etiquette, but from one professing to be a Liberal it was hardly to be expected. But in order to ease the distressed soul of the sticklers for red tape, and to show that the constitution has not been altogether shattered by the report of the Trent Valley Canal commission being published prior to the meeting of Parliament, it may be pointed out that for several years the rule has not been to keep back departmental reports until the meeting of the House. That was the rule, but Liberals and Conservatives alike agreed that it had outlined its usefulness, and since then departmental reports are given out when they are ready, and the public accounts and other reports for 1890 have been given to the people although Parliament has not seen them. It was known that the commission had sent in its report and the REVIEW, knowing the interest felt in it in this section, took steps to secure a copy, and if the local party paper that is now chagrined to find that the report is favorable, and that the canal has not been killed but will be built, had made similar application for the report it would have got it. It was not refused a copy, but perhaps the worshipper of red-tape and "Parliamentary propriety" would not care to ask for such a document—lest it might disprove the Liberal assertions that the report would be against the building of the canal. The Ontario Government also gives out such reports before the Legislature and the Globe has even published the reports of royal commissions before they were presented to the Legislature.

Doubt is also expressed that the commission has served any good purpose. Well, it was appointed because Liberal members threw doubt upon the feasibility of the canal and exhibited a keen hunger for more information, but whether the information, full and complete as it is, will do them any good or not we are not rash enough to venture an opinion. Hon. Alex. Mackenzie will doubtless still condemn the building of the canal as a great mistake and Dr. Landerkin and other Liberals will doubtless still jeer at it, but with Conservatives members from this district, and Sir John at the head of affairs, the work will go on. Mr. Bertram made a reference to Mr. Stevenson's prediction, made after the last election, that the Peterborough-Lakefield section would then be proceeded with. That prediction would have been verified but for Liberal obstruction which caused the appointment of the commission. Besides, we would remind Mr. Bertram that when he represented West Peterborough he acquiesced in the abandonment of the canal and the handing over of the old works to the Provincial Government.

An alleged paragraph from Lakefield has been published intimating that local men could not get employment on the portions of the canal that have been constructed by the Government when they were being built. Mr. Wade, who was foreman for the contractor and who is employed at the Edison works, states that local men were employed and that advertisements were inserted in local papers for men, and that so long as local men could be procured outsiders were not engaged. A gentleman from Lakefield, who was himself engaged on the works, confirmed this statement.

The Government has shown its bona fides in this matter by constructing portions of the canal and extending navigation, and with the report of the commission and the evidence that it collected, it will be enabled to silence Liberal criticism and proceed with the remainder of the work.

THE DEW OF SYMPATHY.

What is Wanted in Social Questions—Lecture by Rev. E. A. Oliver at St. John's.

Notwithstanding the gradually increasing excitement which is making politics the all-absorbing topic of interest there was a large sprinkling of gentlemen in the good audience which attended St. John's church Wednesday evening to listen to Rev. E. A. Oliver, of Toronto, who was to give the second lecture on the Lenten series of Wednesday evening addresses. His subject was one of live interest at the present time—"Our Social Responsibilities." The rev. gentleman is a young man, yet the thought and ability evidenced in his excellently composed lecture was equal to many older minds. It was a learned deliverance, born of deep thought, earnest study and involving questions of political economy, and it cannot be justly presented to the readers in a condensed synopsis.

The rev. speaker in opening said every age had its problem which was pressing for solution. There was at present one problem which above all others filled the mind of every thoughtful man and woman and that was the social problem. The speaker then quoted from the report of the Lambeth Council and the Bishop of Manchester's report setting forth the social evils and the extreme gravity of the situation and picturing poverty and riches side by side. Referring to other countries he said with the increase of wealth the situation became the despair of philanthropists, a reproach to the church and a foul blot and menance to the State.

In the United States and Canada, while we had not the same abject poverty that was to be found elsewhere, yet it would increase and it was because of this condition in other countries that he asked them to look away from home and take a stand with the rest of the world. He then in beautiful and impressive language spoke of the relation of capital and and labor, wealth and poverty, his claim being that with the introduction of steam and power in the eighteenth century came a change, capital became concentrated and the relation between master and workman underwent a revolution, the workmen becoming simple hands, the industrial development changing the citizens into machines. What were they to do, it might be asked, when they had not the time or ability to solve a problem so difficult? What they wanted, he said, was not so much light for the intellect as dew for the soul, a reliealization of the watchword of the new crusade "The Brotherhood of Man." After dwelling upon this thought of the brotherhood of man, he said he believed they should extend a more generous sympathy to all labor organizations which had for their objects the shortening of the hours of labor and the bettering of wages. Eloquently did he stand up in defence of the labor organizations and their leaders. In closing he entreated them to whom God had entrusted a large share of riches to remember the great obligations placed upon them. It was not a mere charity, but their duty; not a cry for charity, but for justice. To the workingmen he said that they should remember that the obstacles to the attainment of the brighter social future were not all from above and beyond their control. Higher wages and shorter hours were not the end, but only the means to higher and purer life. They should fight rum first. They should see that they were faithful husbands, loving fathers, and in the leisure hours read useful and instructive books, and lead a life that was pure, wholesome and religious.

Stand Your Ground.

When you make up your mind to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to buy some other preparation instead. Clerks claim that "ours is as good as Hood's" and all that, but the peculiar merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla cannot be equalled. Therefore have nothing to do with substitutes and insist upon having Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier and building-up medicine.

Some Foolish People

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediatey see the excellent effect after taking the first pose. Price 50c and $1. Trial size free. At all druggists.

Remember the =

Piano Tuning.

Mr. G. Gumpricht is in town. Orders may be left at Messrs. Taylor & McDonald's drug store. 1yd65

ELECTORS. The prosperity and very existence of your country is in danger. Rally to Mr. Stevenson's support.

To Rent.

Farms wanted to rent. Tenants supplied this year at half price. Call or write.

T. HURLEY,
257 George-st.

d23:f

Forester's Carnival

Redpath's Cut Leaf Sugar

In 5 lb. boxes, Redpath's Pure Syrup in 2 lb. tins, Fresh salmon, 2 tins for 25c.; Finest Canadian Cheese, 2 lbs. for 25c.; Pickles equal to bottled, 15c. per quart or 2 quarts for 25c. All goods cheap. W. J. Morrow, 340 George-st. d41-w8

318 George-st.

Just arrived—a choice lot of Fearman Hams and Bacon, also some fine Neufchatel Cream Cheese and Northern Spy Apples. Stapleton & E'coombe.

To-morrow night,

Good Breakfast Dishes.

Rolled Bacon, Sausage, Head Cheese, Ham, etc. Best brands of these superior meats always on hand. Bacon sold by actual weight. J. J. Howden, 441 George-st. Telephone connection. d40tf

Portraits! Portraits!

E. Michener, General Agent of the Boston Portrait Co., is at the Cavanagh House. He is showing work in Crayon, Pastell and Oil. Will be at the House any time after 5 p.m. Please call and see samples and bring your photos or tintypes with you. 3d36

Friday Ev'g, Feb. 20

Roses and Other Cut Flowers

as well as floral designs, to be had at Mason's Seed and Plant House, corner of Water and Brock-st. d42tf

TO THE WORK. Conservative committee rooms open every night. All favorable to Mr. Stevenson's re-election cordially invited and urged to be present. Polling on March 5th.

J. W. Crosby, 413 George-st.

Has now on exhibition the most expensive upright piano in the Dominion of Canada. The scale is new and original, surpassing anything ever placed before the public. The tone is rich, mellow and powerful. The action is a high grade American make. All critics, lovers of music and intending purchasers are invited to inspect it during the next few days. d42 f in Skating Rink.

A Daring Female Missionary.

Miss Taylor of the China Inland Mission, is about to attempt a journey through Thibet. This singular and interesting country, always jealously closed against the outer barbarian, has again and again thwarted the well-laid plans of some of the greatest men travelers of our time. As the members of the Inland Mission wear the Chinese dress and observe the Chinese customs in their daily walks and conversation, it is thought not improbable that Miss Taylor may succeed in adding her name to those of intrepid women travelers.—Harper's Bazar.

Plenty of Faith.

Farmer (to tramp)—What are you sitting there for? I saw you in the same place yesterday.

Tramp (on the fence)—Everything comes to him who waits, and I have been waiting two days for a square meal.—Texas Siftings.

WORKINGMEN. Mr. Stevenson has given time and work and money to build up industries in the town which give employment to large numbers. Send him again to Parliament to continue the good work.

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects up n the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on a trial.

VOLTAIC BELT Co., Marshall, Mich.

BIRTH

STOCKER.—At Peterborough, on Feb. 19th, 1891, the wife of Mr. WALTER STOCKER, of a daughter.

MARRIED.

MILNER—EASTLAND.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Dublin-st., on the 18th inst., by the Rev. S. J. Shorey, Mr. GEORGE A. MILNER, publisher of the Lakefield Chronicle, to Miss JOSEPHINE EASTLAND.

ELECTORS. Protect home and country by voting for Mr. Stevenson. Come to the Committee rooms, Opera House block, open every night.

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. All druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are placing a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have a Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup, or Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY.

Ice Wanted

The ice to be clear, solid and free from snow and all impurities, to be sawn, or if ploughed, to be cut at least 9 inches deep. The blocks to be perfectly square and unbroken. Subject to the company's inspection.

Apply to

R. M. ROY,
Inspector.

1642

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED!

Grand Rally of the People's Party.

THE QUESTION OF THE HOUR!

The Greatest Good to the Largest Number.

GOUGH BROTHERS are in the field as the Candidates for public approval, basing their claim on the admitted facts that they supply the largest number, the greatest number of times with the largest dollar's worth of the best clothing that money can purchase.

Ask our constituents if this claim is not well grounded?

When you buy, buy from first hands, remembering that we supply Clothing, Furnishings, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes.

GOUGH BROTHERS

The Clothiers, 377 and 379 George-st., Peterborough.

The Coming Contest.

It is considered it will be of a very lively nature. Every man may have his friends in politics, but when it comes to Grit or Tory of course he must cast his vote for his party irrespective of social friendship. The same may be said in this case. Parties may have their friends, but when it comes to business and they wish to buy tea, Groceries, wines or liquors at sacrifice, W. J. Morrow's is the place they go to. d31w7

TO THE ELECTORS

OF THE

East Riding

OF THE

COUNTY OF PETERBOROUGH.

GENTLEMEN;—Parliament having been dissolved, the present Government appeal again to the people for a renewal of confidence and an approval of the policy of the administration. I have been chosen to contest the Riding in the interests of the Liberal Conservative Party, and I have accepted the nomination and now solicit your support.

The principal question to be decided is as to our trade relations with the United States, whether, as advocated by the Opposition, we shall adopt such a policy as will practically leave us free to trade only with the United States to the exclusion of Great Britain and other countries, or whether we shall, as advocated by Sir John Macdonald, adopt such a policy, as while dealing with the United States in fair and equitable terms and not to the exclusion of Great Britain, will preserve our nationality and enable us still to remain an integral portion of the British Empire.

I am opposed to the policy of the Opposition, as, in my opinion, it simply means annexation to the United States. As an advocate of the views of the Government I appeal to you. The time is so short before the Polling day that I will not be able to personally see all the electors, but I hope to meet most of you at the several meetings which I shall hold throughout the Riding to discuss the questions at issue.

JOHN BURNHAM.

Ashburnham, February 16th, 1891. w71

MR. SHELDRAKE'S Private PREPARATORY SCHOOL,

FOR BOYS,
LAKEFIELD, ONTARIO.

V. R.

DOMINION ELECTIONS!

MR. STEVENSON

The Conservative Candidate, will address the Electors of West Peterborough at the following places and on the dates named:—

North Monaghan, TOWN HALL, Friday, Feb. 20th.
Ennismore O'RILEY'S SCHOOL HOUSE, Saturday, Feb'y. 21.
Bridgenorth, Monday, Feb. 23
Young's Point, Monday, Feb. 24
Selwyn, Wednesday, Feb. 25
Smith, Thursday, Feb. 26.

Meetings begin at 7.30 p.m.

An opportunity for discussion will be allowed.

Nomination Feb'y. 26th. Polling Day March 5th. 1w8

2 BRICK HOUSES,
2 FRAME HOUSES,
and THREE LOTS,

to be sold at my office on WEDNESDAY next, the 18th inst., at 2 p.m.

The above properties are situated west of Bethune-st. and between the 2 railway stations in the centre of all the principal manufatories in town. A rare chance.

T. HURLEY,
257 George-

PETERBOROUGH

PLANING MILLS!

Dublin-st., Peterborough.

A. RUTHERFORD,

PROPRIETOR.

Having purchased the plant, and business, formerly carried on by J. D. Baptie, in the above premises, I am prepared to execute orders for every description of General Carpenter Work Window and Door Frames, Blinds, Mouldings, etc.

Scroll Work, Band Sawing, Turning executed to order.

Large supply of Dry Lumber of all Kinds always on hand.

Factory and Office,—Dublin-st. Telephone Connection.

LIME—Always kept on hand. Orders left at Mill or at G.T.R. Station promptly attended to. d6-w31f

WM. FITZGERALD,

Builder, Contractor and Jobber.

Contracts taken for all work connected with erection of new buildings, repairs or rebuilding. Twenty-five years experience. First-class work according to plans and specifications guaranteed. Estimates furnished for any description of work. Good dry material always on hand. Best of references given as to excellence of work and despatch.

Building Lots For Sale

in different localities. Most desirable sites for houses. This is the time to buy and build Lots sold and houses built thereon on terms to suit buyers. Easy terms of payment. Several good houses and lots for sale. Every one looking for a bargain should see these. WM. FITZGERALD, 124, corner of Dublin and Water-sts.
P.O. Box 676, Peterborough. gp w28-1y

CAKES!

For a Good Cake, leave your orders at

Long Bros.

Also home-made cakes Iced and nicely Ornamented. Wedding Breakfasts and Evening Parties Catered for. Oyster Patties made to order. Our stock of Candies is pure and made by ourselves.

No. 286 and 414 George-st.

Awnings, Tents and Sails

If you want the Best Goods at the Lowest Prices go or send to

J. J. TURNER,

283 and 283½ George-st., Peterborough.

He also manufactures

Waterproof Clothing, Lap Rugs, Horse and Wagon Covers, Aprons, etc., etc.

Telephone day or night.
Bell 130. • • • Ontario 72.

CLARK & GIBSON

have now on view and for sale some

VERY FINE GOODS

—CONSISTING OF—

Gold and Silver Watches, Clocks and Fine Jewellery, etc.

Moderate in Price and Newest Patterns.

Ask to see their

English Oak Goods

AND

SCOTCH PEBBLE JEWELLERY

RARE, CHOICE AND BEAUTIFUL.

WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELLERY carefully repaired.

136 Hunter-st., 2 doors west of the PostOffice.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

Bill Heads,
Note Heads,
Letter Heads,

TAGS, ENVELOPES,
COUNTER HEADS

and every description of Business Printing executed at city prices at the

Review Office,

340 George Street.

"It is the Safest and Fairest Policy I Have Ever Seen,"

Was the remark made by a prominent representative of one of the largest and best American Life Insurance Companies, when he had carefully examined

THE ORDINARY LIFE POLICY OF

—THE—

TEMPERANCE and GENERAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y.

This is the only policy offered to the Canadian public that can neither lapse nor expire as to its paid-up value till death ensues, after three annual premiums have been paid on it.

Our Limited Payment Life Policy, or Instalment Bonds, Our Common Sense Renewable Term Policies, and our Survivors' Endowment Bonds are all possessed of new and excellent features and are all worthy of careful consideration.

Agents Wanted.

H. P. LINDSAY,

Gen. Agent for Peterborough, Northumberland and Durham. Office No. 332 George-st., opposite new market building.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins, by grocers, labelled thus:

JAMES EPPS & CO. Homœopathic Chemists, London, England. w8-[illegible]

DO YOU LIKE Biscuits?

Most likely you do.
There's a deal of difference
in Biscuits. Quality is an important item. A good
biscuit should be fresh,
crisp and of good flavor.
Here's what will suit you.
Try the English biscuit, made
by Huntley & Palmer the famous makers. Imported
by us and guaranteed genuine.

Ask for Huntley & Palmer's biscuits.

W. J. MASON

426 GEORGE STREET.
No trouble to show Goods.

Blank Books.
—AND—
Office Stationery

Call and get our prices
on Ledgers,
Journals,
Day Books,
Stephen's Inks,
Carter's Inks,
Underwood's Inks
Stafford's Inks,
Pens,
Foolscap,
Legal paper,
and all other
Office supplies.

See the quality of our Blank Books.

Our Prices are the Lowest.

H. THOMPSON & Co

Office and General Stationers, Booksellers
and Wall Paper Dealers,
406 George-st. — — Peterborough

The Daily Review.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1891.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

Gone to Millbrook.

Two rinks of local curlers went to Millbrook to-day to play a friendly game with the Millbrook men. W. Sailsbury and Geo. Brown are skipping the two Peterborough rinks.

A Complete Line

of the finest soaps in the world. Sunlight Soap, Dingman's Electric Soap, etc. See the large bar I am selling at 5 cents, also the mammoth bar at 10 cents. A large stock of toilets. The largest stock and best value in Peterborough. Alex. Elliott 280 George-st. Peterborough. d41

Twenty Thousand Tons of Ice.

To-day a gang of men under the instruction of Mr. R. M. Roy, superintendent of supplies on the Grand Trunk, are cutting ice in the Little Lake to be shipped to the railway company's ice houses at Sarnia and Port Huron. Two train loads of the frozen water will leave to-morrow. Twenty thousand tons in all will be cut and shipped.

That's Easily Answered.

"My dear," said Mrs. Cuppandsaucer, laying down the evening paper, "what is reciprocity?" "Reciprocity, my angel," said the head of the house, "is easily explained. It means a general evening up,—as, say when Smitters asks me in to take a-er-cigar and I ask him to have another.' "Exactly," said Mrs. C., "when I go to Hawley Bros. for tea and I hand Mr. Hawley a dollar and he gives me four or five pounds of splendid green or black mixture, I get the money's worth and he the money. Isn't that it?" "Exactly," said the husband as he reached for his hat. d30tf

Hymeneal.

The REVIEW extends congratulations to its confrere, Mr. Geo. A. Milner, of the Lakefield Chronicle, on his marriage with Miss Josephine (Minnie) Eastland, of Peterborough, which took place on Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's mother, Rev. S. J. Sherey performing the ceremony. Miss H. Eastland, sister of the bride, performed the duties of bridesmaid, while the groom was assisted by Mr. E. W. Kicombe. Mr. Milner has many friends in Peterborough as well as in Lakefield, and all will join in wishing himself and Mrs. Milner all happiness and prosperity.

For bracing up the nerves, purifying the blood and curing sick headache and dyspepsia, there is nothing equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

THE SESION CLOSES.

Last Hours of the Sons of Canada Supreme Lodge—Municipal Men Made Members.

At five o'clock Wednesday evening the Supreme Lodge of the Sons of Canada, which has been in session here for the past two days, adjourned. The majority of the visiting delegates left for home Wednesday night. This was marked as the most successful Supreme Lodge meeting in the history of the Order, and the delegates one and all will carry away with them pleasant recollections of their visit to Peterborough, which they eulogized in the most flattering terms. The treatment of Peterborough's citizens usually does win the esteem of visitors, while the town's manifest enterprise, beauty and business activity always commends itself to the observant stranger.

THE CLOSING SESSION.

Wednesday afternoon when the Supreme Lodge resumed the first business was the installation of officers, who were duly installed into office according to the list published on Wednesday. The reports of the Committees on Suspension and Expulsions and the Distribution of Districts were read and adopted.

CIVIC DIGNITARIES HONORED.

Then a pleasant new departure was made in the proceedings, being the introduction and initiation as honorary members of four of our local municipal dignitaries, Mayor Stevenson, Councillors E. H. D. Hall and R. S. Davidson and Town Clerk Macdonald attended according to invitations extended, and were made the recipients of a mark of appreciation on the part of the Supreme Lodge of the town's hospitality. When the civic notables were announced five officers were deputed to introduce them. They were ushered into the lodge room and received by Supreme President E. E. Sheppard in a most cordial manner and duly initiated by that Supreme officer as honorary members of the Order. Each of the honorary members then made suitable speeches, expressing their appreciation of the honor conferred upon them and wishing the Order success. The Mayor and Town Clerk then withdrew owing to business engagements, but Councillors Hall and Davidson remained and listened to the proceeding.

London was decided upon as the next place of meeting of the Supreme Lodge.

The question of establishing an official organ in connection with the Order was discussed and referred to the Executive Committee for action.

The report of the Committee appointed to draft a reply to the President's address was received and adopted.

Bro. H. W. Laird, of Port Hope, moved a resolution of thanks to the local press, which was carried by a standing vote.

The Secretary's salary was on motion increased by $100.

After a farewell address by the Supreme President the Lodge adjourned, closing one of the most successful sessions of the Supreme lodge since organization.

NO EQUAL RIGHTS MAN.

The Convention Decides Not to Make it a Three-Cornered Fight.

Wednesday afternoon the adjourned convention of the Equal Rights Association of West Peterborough was held in the Orange Hall to consider the nomination of a candidate to contest the riding on the Equal Rights platform. There was a fair attendance. Mr. John Carnegie performed the duties of chairman. A discussion arose as to the advisability of putting a man in the field, Messrs. J. L. Hughes, Sol. Northey, Wm. Graham, Robt. Weir, Wm. King, Wm. M. Green, Henry Best, T. E. Bell, Wm. Jackson and others taking part.

The general feeling was that an Equal Righter would have slim chances of victory and it was considered hardly fair to ask any man to stand up to be knocked down. The question of money to defray expenses also was a serious one and a resolution was introduced, moved by Mr. John A. Davidson, seconded by Mr. Robert Weir, that the former motion recommending the nomination of a candidate be rescinded and that no man be placed in the field, but that, neither of the present candidates adopting the Equal Rights platform, the members would vote as they deemed best in the interests of their country. Some objected to this and wanted the last clause amended so as to bind the members of the Association to refrain from voting. This amendment was lost and the original motion was carried. After some further political talk the meeting dispersed with cheers for the Queen.

SECOND OF THE SERIES.

The Foresters' Grand Carnival Friday Night—Splendid Events and Prizes.

Another grand glacial spectacle and brilliant panorama will be seen at the rink Friday night, when the second carnival under Foresters' auspices takes place. The rink will be beautifully decorated, and the gay costumes of the skaters skirling over the ice to the rythmic melody of the band music, will from a scene of kaleidoscopic grandeur seldom to be witnessed. The committee of management are pushing the carnival for all its worth and intend to make the second of this season's series grander than any of its predecessors.

The splendid prizes offered for competition among the skaters are exhibited in the show window of the Peterborough Bookstore. They will incite a keen rivalry and draw together a collection of costumes of rare excellence. There are also four races for the amusement of the spectators.

Four guessing prizes are offered for the ladies and gentlemen guessing nearest and next nearest to the actual number of tickets taken in at the door. At the last carnival the correct number, 1220, was guessed by two parties.

A curling bonspiel is to take place between rinks representing the Foresters' against the world for a barrel of flour, and between two rinks of juniors for a set of curling brooms.

A large attendance is expected from other towns and cheap railway fares have been arranged.

For further particulars see the posters which have been liberally placarded.

Personal.

Mr. Sam Downs, who has been with Mr. John McKee, druggist, leaves this evening for Boston where he has accepted a lucrative situation.

Brevities.

—There was no Police Court this morning.

—A number of the delegates to the Supreme Lodge of the Sons of Canada were given a drive around town last evening and had the sights pointed out to them by Town Clerk Macdonald.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. d16w4 6mo

PASHA is the name of the popular Pen. Seven styles to suit all hands. Try them. Sold at the REVIEW Stationery.

CAMPAIGN MEETINGS.

THE FIRST LIBERAL GATHERING IN THE OPERA HOUSE.

The Liberal Policy of Four Years Ago—Mr. Bertram Defends Manufacturers from Liberal Strictures—Our Excellent Mayor—Meetings Elsewhere.

A meeting, called in the interest of Mr. Hall, was held last night in the Opera House and was addressed by Dr. Bell and by Mr. John Bertram, of Toronto. There was a large audience, the hall being well filled at the commencement, but the effect of the meeting will do little to convince the people that they should adopt the present Liberal policy of unrestricted reciprocity.

It is a coincidence that exactly four years ago last night, on Feb. 18th, 1887, a Liberal campaign meeting was held in the same place in the interest of Mr. Geo. A. Cox who was then the candidate of that party, and that Mr. Bertram was one of the speakers, the Hon. Oliver Mowat being the speaker of the evening. It is interesting, and instructive also, to recall what was said regarding the trade policy of the country on that night four years ago and contrast it with the attacks on the National Policy and the manufacturers of the country now being made. Hon. Oliver Mowat made the following statement:—

"Then another cry to shield them from condemnation, and that was the National Policy, which was now a dead issue, was raised, because it had become the fixed policy of Canada, having been endorsed by the people at two general election. It was now the policy of Canada as much as free trade in England was accepted as the policy of that country."

Mr. Bertram denied that he was a member of a free trade party or that there was or ever had been a free trade party in Canada, and said Mr. Blake would "rectify a few irregularities in the National Policy."

Mr. Geo. A. Cox repeated the views he expressed earlier in the campaign, which were as follows:—

"Before leaving the subject of the National Policy I will give you my views upon the matter. I hold it to be the duty of the Government to afford such protection to all our manufacturing industries as will enable them to sell their products at a price that will give them a substantial advantage over foreign competition, and that will at the same time afford such returns as will enable them to pay their operatives and employees the highest wages for that class of labor current in either Canada or the United States."

These extracts are taken from the Examiner's reports, and that paper said editorilly on Feb. 4th of the same year:—"The tariff is no longer in dispute. No one proposes a change in that."

And in the face of these statements, Dr. Bell had the hardihood to stand on the same platform last night and attack the National Policy and manufacturers, and to charge the Conservative party with changing its views!—although the position of the Government has not changed, for now as then it is in favor of a fair reciprocal arrangement and has taked steps to obtain it, and then as now it stands by a fair measure of protection for all our industries, manufacturing and agricultural. But the change in the Liberal party's position—what a right about face it is! And how clearly it shows the danger of trusting to Liberal professions, for no man can tell what their views or policy may be a month or two from now.

Dr. Goldsmith presided at last night's meeting, and after saying he a note from Mr. Stevenson stating that he had an engagement at Bailieboro, he made a short speech. He took a blue ruin view of things, and said that the farmers of the country were going behind, although the Ontario Government reports state that the value of farm property has increased $160,000,000 since 1882.

Dr. Bell condemned the Government for bringing on the elections now and thought it did so because it feared the "inroads that unrestricted reciprocity was making in the minds of the people," forgetful that two years ago we were told that the people were ready to vote almost unanimously for the Wimanite nostrum and that the Liberals called upon Sir John a few weeks ago to bring on the elections. He dealt with old questions, graphically describing the burning of the Parliament buildings in Lord Elgin's time, and made the usual charges of corruption. He asked how many more tall chimnies there were in Peterborough now than in 1878? There was one down by the river side, he said, but it was there in 1878 and there were no more. He overlooked the fact that the tall chimney referred to did not smoke in 1878 and that the old building is alive with industry now and extensive additions have been made, and also that several other industries have been added to the town since that, as well as old ones enlarged. He quoted the free trade maxim that they should "sell in the dearest and buy in the cheapest market," although unrestricted reciprocity would raise the tariff against all countries except the United States. He depicted the manufacturers as robbing the people, and gave way for Mr. Bertram.

Mr. Bertram in opening complimented Peterborough on being the most prosperous town in Ontario and attributed its prosperity to its manufacturers and merchants. He said that his friend Mr. Stevenson was an excellent Mayor and was whole hearted in endeavoring to advance the interests of the town, a truthful statement that was received with cheers.

In taking up trade matters Mr. Bertram said that Mr. Laurier promised not to pay too high a price for reciprocity, but asked them to affirm that they wished unrestricted reciprocity. What unrestricted reciprocity meant he did not stop to explain, but Sir Richard Cartwright has admitted that it meant free trade with the States alone and discrimination against all other countries. Mr. Bertram tried to show that Sir Charles Tupper was inconsistent because he said he was in favor of reciprocal trade that would not be injurious to either country, but was opposed to free trade with the States, a difference that is a difference indeed. He then branched off to make charges of extravagance and corruption, and stated that the Government had put fruits on the free list and at another session placed them on the dutiable list, as if the tariff was expected to be like the laws of the Medes and Persians on all minor matters no matter what the circumstances were.

He did not believe, he said, that the McKinley bill was aimed at Canada, but was enacted because the Republican authors of the bill were protectionists. The farmers of the United States were, he said, having hard times and were heavily taxed—and yet the Liberal proposal is to place Canadian farmers in the same position as those across the line. He took up the question of trade with Great Britain and the United States, seemingly to demonstrate Sir Richard Cartwright's statement that anything could be proved by the doctrine of averages.

Mr. Bertram proceeded to say that prosperity did not depend entirely upon the N. P. or non-N. P. If Mr. Laurier got in office or if reciprocity were secured the sun would not shine more on that account. They had entirely different conditions now from what they had a few years ago, for wheat was coming from the Northwest (not a deluge of wheat, though he wished millions of tons were coming), but this wheat, and the same grain from the United States, India and Russia, was coming into competition with our farmers. This was part of the trouble, and all that could be done was not to burden the farmers with taxation. He might have added also, that unrestricted reciprocity would bring about direct taxation which would bear heavily on farm lands.

The McKinley bill, he said, lowered the United States duty on lumber, and Sir John did a good thing in removing the export duty on logs and thus securing the lower duty on lumber going into the States. He missed the opportunity, however, of pointing out that the export duty was put on to secure this concession, and that Sir John's action in removing it showed his bona-fides in favoring fair reciprocity.

Mr. Bertram, continuing, complimented the farmers on their good sense in going into cattle raising and dairying and hoped they would take up creameries, but he might also have said that almost the only market for cattle, cheese and butter is in Great Britain, which would be jeopardised by unrestricted reciprocity, as it includes discrimination.

Mr. Bertram rather sat on his colleagues by saying he was not in sympathy with some of the strictures passed by some Liberals on manufacturers. They should be considered the same as anyone else, and he proceeded to try to show that, instead of enabling the manufacturers to rob the people, the National Policy had injured them! He had pointed out in 1878 that they should have a tariff on importations, because wages were higher than in England. He thought that if the tariff was high enough to cover the proportion of wages as compared with the whole cost of production, that would be sufficient. But he thought that on some things the tariff was higher than was necessary, and he again missed the opportunity of pointing out that the Liberals by their proposed alliance with the States would raise the tariff, even on woollens and pig iron, two articles that he mentioned. They could not, he said, afford to hamper the manufacturers. He pointed out some things in which he thought they could trade with the States, favored the free importation of pork, and advised the Canadians to hold their heritage. He alleged that the cotton mills had been enlarged and that the owners lost money and had sold out to English capitalists.

Mr. Bertram then, turning from these questions, said there were social questions that must be considered by thinking people. Why was it that some were millionaries while others had not enough to eat? This was a difficult problem. He was studying it, and the only conclusion he had reached was that if there was any unjust law on the statute books it should be wiped out, and workingmen should have a fair field. The giving of votes to women would aid them, because their votes would always be on the side of justice. They should study this question, and they should allow no privilege to any class.

In concluding Mr. Bertram startled the audience by saying he had nothing to say personally as to which candidate they should vote for, Mr. Hall or Mr. Stevenson. He had tried to contribute something to the discussion of the questions, and they should consider for themselves.

The meeting was then closed with cheers for the Queen and for Mr. Bertram, but no one called for or gave cheers for the Liberal candidate in whose interest the meeting was supposed to be held.

Vote for Peterborough's excellent Mayor who is whole hearted in advancing its interests.

An enthusiastic meeting in the interest of Mr. Stevenson was held at Bailieboro Wednesday night. Mr. Stevenson made a telling and stirring address and was ably supported by Mr. R. Mulholland.

Mr. Hall held a meeting at O'Rielly's school house in Ennismore last night and was accompanied by quite an array of Grit stumpers in the persons of Messrs. O'Leary, of Lindsay, Geo. Ball, C. J. Leonard and Peter Hamilton. Each of these gentlemen spoke. Mr. W. H. Moore upheld the Government's policy for Mr. Stevenson and was given a good reception and hearing.

Mr. Rorke, the Reform candidate in the East Riding, held a meeting at Keene Wednesday night and had Dr. Mallory to do the speaking for him. Mr. R. M. Dennistoun addressed the meeting in the Conservative interests, and Mr. E. B. Stone for Mr. Kidd, the Equal Righter.

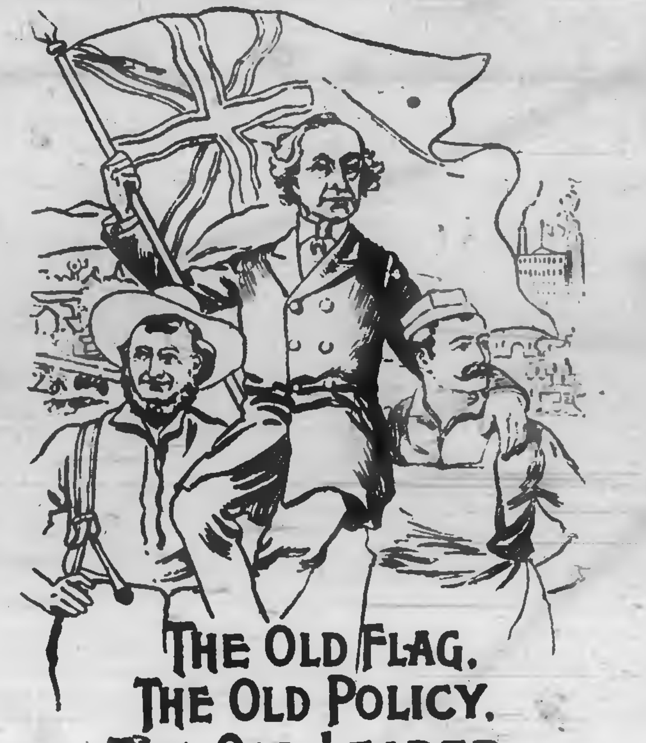
Mr. Stevenson will be at Springville this evening.

To-morrow Evening.

Hon. M. Bowell, Minister of Customs, will address the electors of the East Riding at Norwood to-morrow evening. He is thoroughly familiar with trade questions, and the electors should hear him on this important issue.

On Tuesday evening next Hon. John Haggart, Postmaster General, will address a meeting in the Opera House. Mr. Haggart is an experienced Parliamentarian and a good speaker, and the people of this town and district should not fail to hear him. Mr. Hall or his representative will be given an opportunity to speak at the meeting.

Hear the Hon. John Haggart in the Opera House on Tuesday night on the public questions of the day. The importance of the present crisis in Canadian affairs should call out every elector.

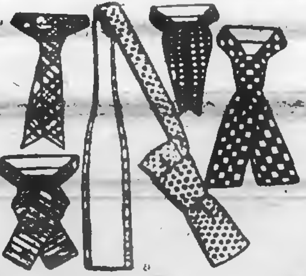


THE OLD FLAG.
THE OLD POLICY.
THE OLD LEADER.

"PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE"

parties still hold the boards. We have a lot of good playing cards at 25c. a pack, or 5 for $1.00. There are worth 40c. each.

SAILSBURY BROS.



TO-DAY

and the C.P.R. brought us a case of neckwear. Not the only one, more are fast following. The invoices now with us promise many new ideas in this line. The colors range from showy magnificence to the dignified and extremely quiet. The shapes are without number and entirely new. If you are a lover of things rich, if beautiful colors delight your eye—see our neckwear. Many find it profitable to look at goods before buying, why not you?

One thing suggests another. Suits for instance. You may not need one. However it will not hurt to show the goods nor harm you in looking at them. The good impressions made now will bear fruit later on. See the pyramids of goods we have procured for Spring.

T. DOLAN & Co.
Clothiers and Furnishers.

DOMINION
ELECTIONS!

West Peterborough.

HON. JOHN
HAGGART
POSTMASTER GENERAL,

will address a meeting in the Opera House (Peterborough) on the Evening of

TUESDAY, February 24th,

on the public questions of the day.

The gallery will be reserved for Ladies.

THE MEETING will commence at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Hall or his representative is invited to be present.

W. H. MOORE,
Pres. Lib.-Con. Ass'n.

W. J. MINORE.
Sec. Lib.-Con. Ass'n.

1891. 1891.

NEW DRESS GOODS!

Very Low in Price.

New Prints,
New Embroideries,
New Check Muslins,
New Wool Tweeds,
New Shirtings,
New Ginghams,
New Table Linens,
New Towelings,
New Flanelettes,
New Shirting Flannels,

Very Low in Price.

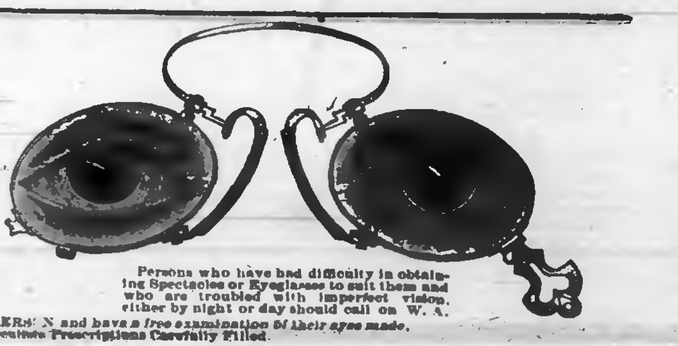
—AT—

THOS. KELLY'S.

20 pieces Double Fold Bleached Sheetings, Plain or Twilled, at 20c. per yard.
10 pieces Double Fold Grey Sheetings, Plain, at 15c. per yard.
5 Bales Grey Cotton (soiled) at 3c. per yard.

—AT—

THOS. KELLY'S, CORNER OF GEORGE AND SIMCOE-STS.



Persons who have had difficulty in obtaining Spectacles or Eyeglasses to suit them and who are troubled with imperfect vision, either by night or day should call on W. A. SANDERSON and have a free examination of their eyes made. Oculists Prescriptions Carefully Filled.

W. A. SANDERSON, Jeweller and Optician, Peterborough, Ont.

EYESIGHT TESTED.

THE STANDARD LIFE Assurance Company,

ESTABLISHED 1832

Subsisting Assurances ......$101,250,000.
Invested Funds .... 34,000,000.
Annual Income .... 4,500,000.
Bonuses Distributed .... 22,000,000.
The Funds Invested in Canada amount to nearly.... $5,000,000.
Deposited with Dominion Government at Ottawa.. 1,190,000

All plans of Assurance. Non Forfeitable Policies. Absolutely unconditional policy from date of issue without extra charge. Absolute security. Rates compare favourable with any first-class Company!

W. M. RAMSAY, Manager, Montreal.

A.V.R. YOUNG, General Agent, and Inspector for Midland District, 379 Water-st.

C. CAMERON,
MULLHOLLAND & ROPER, Special Agent

PACKING HOUSE STORE!

For a Choice Selection of

Smoked Sugar Cured Meats and Bacon

LARD, guaranteed pure, in any quantity.

GEORGE MATTHEWS

356 George Street, Peterborough.

IN THE MARKET!

1.—I have sold out the City Hotel to Wm. Clancy, in 19 minutes.
2.—I have sold out Faren & Co. Billiard Room etc., to Faren & Co. in 13 minutes.
3.—The Dry Goods Stock is in the Market. If there is any new blood for this offer call and see me. Want to dispose of it inside of 10 days.

I am off for Australia early next month.

I mean business. If the stock is too large can be reduced to $1,000 in 30 days.

JAMES DOLAN,
George Street, Peterborough.

SELLING AT REDUCED PRICES

We are offering our Stock of Manufactured Furs at cost, previous to stock taking. The stock comprises a choice assortment of Ladies' and Gents fine Fur Collars, Cuffs, Capes, Caps, Gauntlets and Coats. Also a few Musk Ox, Bear, Oppossum and Goat Robes.

CALL AND BE CONVINCED.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.
Manufacturing Furriers.

MULHOLLAND & ROPER

BANKERS AND INSURANCE AGENTS

Banking Department.

Deposit Accounts opened and Notes discounted at short dates or for twelve months if required. Special attention given to the purchase and collection of Farmers' Sale Notes. Drafts drawn on Merchants' Bank of Canada payable in New York, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and at any of its Branches in the Dominion. Cheques on other Banks cashed.

Four to Five per cent. allowed on deposits repayable on demand.

BANKING HOURS.—9 30 a.m. to 4 30 p.m.

Insurance Department.

MR. FELIX BROWNSCOMBE is a partner in and manager of this department.

Careful attention given to Fire, Accident and Plate Glass Insurance.

The following companies are represented:—

London and Lancashire, City of London, Phoenix of Brooklyn, Caledonian, Royal Canadian, Agricultural, Montreal Plate Glass, Mutual Accident and Plate Glass, and Norwich and London Accident.

OFFICE HOURS.—9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The Daily Review.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1891

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

ROYAL TEMPLARS.

Opening of the Convention at Hamilton – Increase of Membership

HAMILTON, Feb. 18.—After the several delegates had taken their places yesterday the Rev. T. R. McNair of Mt. Brydges, Grand Councillor of Ontario, proceeded to open the convention. Reports were presented from Grand Councillor, Grand Treasurer, Grand Secretary, Chairman of Missionary Board and others, reviewing the work of the last year, and these were handed over to the several committees to which they belonged before being finally dealt with by the Grand Council. The Grand Secretary's report showed that the membership had increased from 9914 on Jan. 1, 1890, to 13,127 on Jan. 1, 1891, being a net gain of 3213 for the year—a most satisfactory showing.

To-day's proceedings were opened at 8.30 by a prayer meeting conducted by Mr. W. A. Dunnett of Montreal and Mr. J. Smith of this city, after which the regular business of the convention was entered into, with Grand Councillor McNair in the chair.

The Committee on Temperance presented a report urging the members of the order to even more aggressive work in the reformation of drunkards by visiting the homes of such, and also as far as practicable to visit the Police Court, etc., and do what is possible in this way towards the reclamation of the unfortunates who from time to time appear there. After an animated discussion on this point the resolution passed.

A resolution was also passed urging the councils who have not yet taken action to co-operate with the Christian churches in the circulation of petitions to the Dominion Government asking that a prohibitory measure be enacted, and that whenever it is known that prohibition candidates are in the field for Parliamentary honors the councils and members should do all in their power to further their election.

A DOCTOR'S DEATH.

An Overdose of Morphine Removes a Prominent Physician.

DUTTON, Feb. 18.—Dr. Leitch, a well-known physician of this village, has been in the habit of using morphine and last night took an overdose. He never rallied and died about midnight. Dr. Leitch is wellknown throughout the west, having practised in St. Thomas, Aylmer and Duart.

CAUGHT IN HIS OWN TRAP.

How the Capture of a Forger Was Brought About by Himself.

BELLEVILLE, Feb. 18.—It has been learned that C. W. Yourex, the noted forger, went hence via Hamilton to New York, where he ticketed for Bremen, Germany, at the same time purchasing a ticket for Australia. A few days after arriving in Bremen under an assumed name he placed his coat, cane and some papers with his name upon them by a hole in the ice on the river. He then disguised himself and told the police that he had seen a man drown there. The police suspected Yourex, arrested him and took possession of his luggage and then he confessed. He waived all extradition proceedings. His object in the drowning fraud was to defraud sundry life insurance companies in which he had policies for $17,000.

IDENTIFIED THE WRONG ROLAND.

A Young Man Recognizes a Corpse as that of His Father, Who Then Appears.

LANCASTER, Pa. Feb. 17.—The mutilated body of a colored man was found Saturday in a chicken coop on the premises of Mrs. Mary Spencer, in North Duke-street, a fashionable part of this city. His head had almost been severed from the body by three gashes inflicted in the back part of the neck. The body was taken to an undertaker's establishment.

Shortly afterwards the son of Henry Roland entered, and after looking at the corpse exclaimed that it was that of his father. A moment later, to the surprise of all present, Henry Roland himself entered. It was noticed that he bore a striking resemblance to the deceased man. It seems, however, that the dead man was John Roland, as shown by a railroad ticket found in his pocket, although he is not related to Henry Roland. It is said that Roland had sold a carload of horses and was robbed and killed.

Foreign Labor Notes.

The Labor Council of the port of London, at a secret meeting held yesterday, reported that they would consider the proposal for a general strike as an answer to the Shipping Federation's manifesto. The council represents all the shipping and dock unions.

A recurrence of serious labor troubles which may affect the wool crop is feared in Victoria, Australia. The trouble originates in the opposition of the shearers who belong to the union to the employment by the sheep farmers of "free" or non-union shearers. A wholesale strike upon the part of the union shearers is anticipated.

Lynched on General Principles

NACOGDOCHES, Tex., Feb. 18.—News has just reached here of the lynching at the village of Douglas of a negro named Tom Robin. The cause assigned is on general principles. He was a notorious character, who somehow succeeded in getting out of tight places in the law's meshes, and had been guilty of numerous crimes.

Blank Deeds, Blank Mortgages, Blank Transfers, Home and Land Leases, etc., on hand at the REVIEW stationery.

JUSTICE STEPHENS RESIGNS.

He Has Never Recovered From the Worry of the Maybrick Case

LONDON, Feb. 18.—Sir James Fitz-James Stephen, M.A., justice of the Queen's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice, has resigned his seat on the bench. Justice Stephen is in ill health, his sickness being attributed to the worry and excitement which he was subjected to during the trial of Mrs. Florence Elizabeth Maybrick, the American, in August, 1889, who was tried and convicted in Liverpool on the charge of having poisoned her husband, James Maybrick, by administering arsenic to him. Justice Stephen presided at Mrs. Maybrick's trial.

Wholesale Child Murders in London.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—An inquest was held at Battersea yesterday, touching the death of a female child whose body was found in the Thames. Inspector Crosby of the river police stated that he found the body near Nine Elms pier on Friday morning last. It was quite nude and decomposed. Dr. Felix Charles Kempster stated that he saw the child at the mortuary and made a post mortem examination. The nose was flattened and the bones of the skull were fractured all over. The injuries had been inflicted while the child was alive, and they had caused death. The Coroner: I think we have had about ten such cases, have we not? Dr. Kempster: Yes, all killed in the same way. As soon as it is born the child's head is knocked in, and the body afterwards thrown in the river. A verdict of wilful murder against some person or persons unknown was returned.

McCarthy Explains.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—Justin McCarthy yesterday said the story of a Liberal subsidy would depend entirely on funds furnished by their own country-men. Other McCarthyites said they had determined to preserve their independence and not to seek a closer alliance with the Liberals.

Smallpox in Belfast.

BELFAST, Feb. 18.—Smallpox prevails here to an alarming extent. The municipal authorities are doing their utmost to check the spread of the disease.

A Million Dollar Flood.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 18.—At 1 o'clock this afternoon the Allegheny River reached 23 feet 11 inches and began to recede. With nearly every iron mill flooded and closed railroad tracks washed away, squares upon squares of streets flooded to the second stories and thousands of cellars filled, the direct loss by flood cannot fall less than $1,000,000. The poor living along the river have suffered greatly.

Save The Dear Children.

The children of nervous and irritable parents will to some extent inherit these dreaded troubles, and show them as they grow up. These ailments will be intensified when the children devote themselves to school studies. Their delicate systems and over-taxed nerves will soon feel the severe strain, and the certain result is a very brief life.

We see, daily, young children afflicted with twitching muscles, general nervousness, dizziness and irritableness. These troubles bring on that dreaded disease St. Vitus Dance, with all its involuntary movements and spasms.

Such children require immediate attention. Paine's Celery Compound is now acknowledged to be the great agent and remedy for all these distressing symptoms. It tones up and strengthens the weak nervous system, builds up the body and health, and restores to natural activity and perfect action every muscle; and purifies and cleanses the whole system. Do not allow the dear children to suffer and die early, while Paine's Celery Compound guarantees health and long life. Save the children from all ills; they are the hope of our country.

Asparagus Culture Not Difficult.

Growing asparagus is not so difficult as some of the early authorities described it. Some of our most successful Arlington market gardeners raise asparagus on rich land year after year, without other manure than the tops, and a liberal annual dressing of salt, usually taken from salt or fish barrels. According to Vick, asparagus is most easily grown and simplest in its requirements of any vegetable. The chief requirements are dry, warm, fertile soil, some shelter from high winds and room enough for its mass of roots. It will do well enough even in an upland meadow, without culture or manure, and surrounded by other growths, if the soil is good and if it is not crowded or injured by cattle. About four feet by two is the preferred distance apart. A bed will last a lifetime, once planted and not abused. Its few demands for care make it especially desirable for a farmer's garden. The growth and size of the sprouts depend much on the full, uninjured growth of the tops after cutting ceases, about mid-June, when green peas come in. Manure enables more good sprouts to be grown on less area, and often tenderer, but not richer.

Yields of a Well Managed Garden.

The amount of produce a well-managed garden is capable of yielding is well shown by the following statement recently made to the American Cultivator by a gardener owning 58 acres of land near Greenpoint, Long Island, during the last year: 3,750 bushels of onions and 4,500 bushels of carrots; early cabbages, 5,500 barrels; early potatoes, 2,500 bushels; strawberries, 11,000 quarts; onions from sets, 2,200 bushels; white beans, 100 bushels; carrots, 11,000 bushels, late potatoes, 450 bushels; onions from seed, 3,000 bushels; ears of corn, 2,000 bushels; Brussels sprouts, 200 bushels; potato onion sets, 10 bushels; carrot seed, 40 pounds; onion seed, 100 pounds, Brussels sprout seed, 4 pounds; cabbage seed, 2 pounds; Hungarian grass, 3 tons; cabbage plants to carry over, 250,000.

The Homeliest Man in Peterborough.

As well as the handsomest, and others are invited to call on any druggist and get free a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, a remedy that is selling entirely upon its merits and is guaranteed to relieve and cure all Chronic and Acute Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

SURPRISE EVERY WOMAN Can save half the hard wearing-out toil of wash day and be fresh and strong. Can have clothes sweet, snowy-white, never yellow. Flannels not to shrink, cotton not rot, nor hands chap, but soft and white. Use the "Surprise" way. No boiling or scalding. Remarkable! Try it! Read the directions around wrapper.

St. Croix Soap M'f'g. Co. St. Stephen, N.B. SOAP

Send us 25 SURPRISE wrappers and get one of our beautiful engravings.

V. R.

Dominion Elections

East Riding of Peterborough

MR. BURNHAM

the Conservative Candidate will address meetings as follows:—

TOWN HALL, HARVEY

Monday Evening, Feb. 23rd. at 7.30 o'clock.

Ventriss' School House, Harvey

Tuesday Evening Feb. 24th, at 7.30 o'clock.

Time will be allowed for discussion.

A. E. PECK,
Sec. of Com.

Polling Day March 5th. 1wd

BLYTHE MILLS,

PETERBOROUGH

The above Mills have now been thoroughly renewed upon the complete

Hungarian Roller Process

The latest improved Rolls and flour Dressing Machines from the best manufacturing firms have been put in and everything necessary added to enable her to turn out flour.

Second to None

in the Dominion. The facilities for receiving grain from farmers and for elevating and shipping are first-class. We have

A Large Feed Stone for Custom Chopping.

Chopping done satisfactorily and without delay.

Rolled Oats for Horses

Experienced horsemen are emphatic in asserting that there is nothing equal to rolled oats for horses, and to meet this demand we have had put in a machine specially adapted for this purpose.

Wheat Exchanges

Promptly attended to and

First-class Roller Flour Guaranteed.

Roller Flour, Bran, Shorts, and all kinds of Chopped Feed constantly on hand.

Highest Market Price Paid in Cash for any Quantity of Wheat.

Hilliard & Peplow.

A. CLEGG,

Funeral Director.

Ware rooms, - - 427 George-st.
Residence, - 16 Benson-st.
A. CLEGG, Residence, 126 Stewart street. Telephone.

The United States sells farm produce; Great Britain buys it in large quantities. Retain the British markets by voting for Messrs. Stevenson and Burnham.

Choicest Brands

—OF—

FLOUR!

BAKERS and PASTRY

—AT—

MELDRUM & DAVIDSON'S

Quality Guaranteed.

FEED:

All kinds always on hand. Orders left at Ormond & Walsh's or McDonald's drug stores will be promptly attended to.

Mill Telephone No. 196.

LOWEST PRICES FOR CASH.

OPEN FOR INSPECTION!

A handsome and very useful line of

CASE GOODS

COMPRISING

Carver Sets,

Ladies' and Gentlemen's

COMPANIONS

These Goods are the Best English Make.

KINGAN & Co

—ONTARIO—

Planing Mills!

Planing, Matching, Mouldings, Band Sawing & Turning, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Storm Sash.

JAMES Z. ROGERS.

GEO. B. SPROULE,

ARTIST & PHOTOGRAPHER

GROUND FLOOR,

170 Charlotte-st., [illegible], Peterborough.

FRAMES & PICTURE MOULDINGS.

Bookbinding!

Magazines,

Periodicals,

Illustrated Papers,

Law, Music,

and all kinds of Books Bound in the very best style of the art. First-class Material and Work. Close Prices.

REVIEW PT'G CO.

LIMITED,

BOOKBINDERS, STATIONERS & ACCOUNT BOOK MANUFACTURERS.

350 George-st.

Bell Telephone Co.,

OF CANADA.

Capital, - $1,500,000.00.

Head Office, MONTREAL.

AND. ROBERTSON, :— President.
C. F. SISE, — Vice-Pres. and Man'g. Dir.
C. P. SCLATER, Secy.-Treas.
HUGH C. BAKER, Man., Ont. Dep., Hamilton.

300 EXCHANGES.

Long distance lines give unequalled facilities for talking between cities, towns and villages.

If you wish to speak to Kingston, Belleville Port Hope, Lindsay, Lakefield, Millbrook, Omemee, Toronto, Hamilton, etc., use the wires of the

BELL TELEPHONE Co.

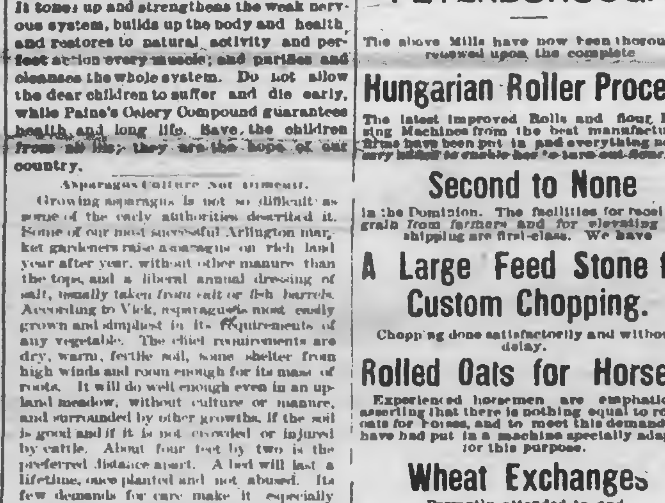
H. W. KENT,
d48-6mo Local Manager

UNION CREDIT & PROTECTION

ASSOCIATION.

FOR the Collection of Old and Worthless Accounts, in any part of the world, and no charges if not collected. This Association has local offices in Canada and United States. Head and general office, 60 Adelaide-st. East, Toronto. Rooms, 10, 11, 12 and 13. C. R. COLLINS, General Manager; & H. B. ANDREWS, Sec. Address all communications to Toronto, Ont., office. Telephone No. 2462. This is the only Association that settles accounts and advances the money to the creditor if desired.

C. R. COLLINS,
DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON, Manager
Solicitors for the Association at Peterborough.
August 28th, 1890. 461 w



W. J. MORROW, GROCERIES, WINES AND LIQUORS
BIG TEA and COFFEE HOUSE.

Travel.

INTERCOLONIAL

RAILWAY OF CANADA.

The direct route between the west and all points on the Lower St. Lawrence and Baie de Chaleur, Province of Quebec, also New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward, Cape Breton and the Magdalene Islands, Newfoundland and St. Pierre.

Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax daily (Sunday excepted) and run through without change between these points in 30 hours.

The through express train cars of the Intercolonial Railway are brilliantly lighted by electricity and heated by steam from the locomotive.

New and elegant Buffet Sleeping and Day Cars are run on all through express trains.

The popular summer sea bathing and fishing resorts of Canada are along the Intercolonial or are reached by that route.

Canadian, European Mail and Passenger Route.

Passengers for Great Britain or the Continent leaving Montreal on Thursday morning will join outward mail steamer at Rimouski the same evening.

The attention of shippers is directed to the superior facilities offered by this route for the transport of flour and general merchandise intended for the Eastern Provinces and New Foundland, also for shipments of grain and produce intended for the European market.

Tickets may be obtained and all information about the route, also freight and passenger rates on application to

N. WEATHERSTON,

Western Freight and Passenger Agent, 93 Rossin House Block, York street, Toronto.

D. POTTINGER,
Chief Superintendent.

Railway Office, Moncton, N.B., 2nd July, 1890 1y

CANADIAN PACIFIC RY.

SETTLERS' TRAINS

WILL LEAVE ON

FEBRUARY 24th, 1891

AT 9.00 P.M.

AND EVERY TUESDAY THEREAFTER DURING MARCH AND APRIL WITH COLONIST SLEEPER ATTACHED FOR

MANITOBA AND THE CANADIAN NORTH-WEST

[illegible]

For full information see any C.P.R. agent.

Carbon Gaslight

A RIVAL TO DAYLIGHT!

A new and Brilliant Illuminating Power—Clear, Steady and Mellow. Specially suited for Stores and large Buildings, Machine Shops, &c.

A saving of 30 to 40 per cent. on gas can be effected by this new light

See it Burning at the Store of

J. E. NOBLE & Co.

287 George-st. South.

TELEPHONES.—Bell No. 181, Ontario No. 156.

JOHN NUGENT,

CHEMIST AND DRUGGIST.

Prescriptions Carefully Compounded.

Try Nugent's Remedies for Colds, Coughs and affections of the chest and throat.

J. NUGENT,

Drug Store, 170 Hunter-st. west.

BANK of TORONTO

Capital	$2,000,000 00
Reserve Fund	1,500,000 00

PETERBORO' BRANCH.

SAVINGS BANK

SPECIAL ADVANTAGES are derived by depositing money in our Savings Bank Department.

1. "ONE DOLLAR saved is one dollar earned."
2. DEPOSITS of ONE DOLLAR and upwards are received and interest allowed thereon.
3. INTEREST is added to the principal on the 31st day of May and 30th day of November, in each year.
4. MONEY bears interest from the day it is deposited with the Bank until the day of withdrawal.
5. THE DEPOSITOR is subject to no delay whatever.
6. THE SECURITY offered by this Bank is undoubted, as will be seen by the large reserve held and the amount of surplus available for depositors and note holders.

BUSINESS WITH FARMERS.

FARMERS' NOTES discounted at lowest rates.
SPECIAL ATTENTION is given to the collection of Farmers' Sale Notes, and advances made thereon.
NOTE FORMS furnished free of charge on application.

DEPOSITS.

DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS opened subject to withdrawal by cheque on demand.
SPECIAL DEPOSITS.—Deposit Receipts issued bearing interest at current rates.

JOHN L. GOWER,
d116-wf. Manager

BLANK FORMS

Deeds,
Mortgages,
Home Leases,
Farm Leases,
Agreements,
Short form of Lease
Lease of Land,
Magistrates Blanks,
Division Court Blanks,
etc., etc.,

Printed on good paper and correct forms.

AT THE

REVIEW STATIONERY.

Medical.

DR. SCOTT.

OFFICE—176 Brock-st. d119w21

F. D. GOLDSMITH, M. D.

M. R. C. S., L. S. A., L. R. C. P., London, Eng.,

HAS permanently located in Peterborough. Office and residence, 196 Brock-st., formerly occupied by Mr. J. B. McWilliams.
TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d47-w8-1y

D. M. CARMICHAEL, M. D.,

C. M., L. R. C. P. Ed.

GRADUATE OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY, Fellow of Trinity Medical School, Licentiate of Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh, L. M. of Simpson's Maternity Hospital, Edinburgh. Office in Mr. Alexander's new residence one door north of the late Dr. O'Sullivan's, George-st. d[illegible]-wyr[illegible]

DR. B. E. McKENZIE, B. A.

Lecturer on Orthopedic Surgery in the Women's Medical College, and in Toronto University; Consulting Orthopedic surgeon to Victoria Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto.

Diseases of the Joints and Deformities Only

Bloor-st. W. (near Yonge-st.) Toronto, Consultation from 10 to 2. On Friday and Saturday by appointment only.

Will be at the Grand Central Hotel, Peterborough, March 14th. next.

DR. MOHER,

HAS removed to 214 Hunter-st., opposite Marble Works. Office upstairs.

Legal.

HATTON & WOOD.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office, corner of George and Hunter-sts., over T. Dolan & Co's. store. MONEY TO LOAN.
E. E. WOOD, B. A., G. W. HATTON.

SAWERS & STONE.

BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyancers, &c. Office, Hunter-st., Peterborough.
MONEY TO LOAN.
E. B. STONE, d109-w43 C. W. SAWERS.

POUSSETTE & JOHNSTON.

BARRISTERS and SOLICITORS, 379 Water-st.
A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C. W. F. JOHNSTON.

EDWARD A. PECK.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, etc., 332 George-st., Peterborough.

Private Funds to loan at 6 per cent.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter-st., Peterborough next English church. Money to loan at lowest rates of interest.
R. E. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN O'MEARA.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, &c. (Office 267 George-st. d-w

JOHN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office: No. 415 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont., next door north of new post office.
MONEY TO LOAN. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter-sts., over McClelland's Jewellery store. d115w19

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water-st., Peterborough. d37w

---

DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES. Money to Loan. Office, 417 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont.
ARTHUR STEVENSON, B. A.
R. M. DENNISTOUN, B. A.

STRATTON & HALL.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, &c., Peterborough, Ont. Office:—Next door to Post Office on Hunter-st.
W. A. STRATTON, LL. B. R. R. HALL. d122

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block, Peterborough. wd27

J. E. BELCHER

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George-st. d92w43

Builders and Contractors

E. WEBB,

BRICKLAYER AND CONTRACTOR. All work done substantially and expeditiously. Address E. WEBB, Peterborough. Residence, 236 Aylmer-st. 1yd126

J. J. HARTLEY.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P. O. Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer-sts. 1yd150

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 53. d100

W. E. WHITEHAIR.

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 588, Peterborough P. O. 463-1yr

---

JAS. R. DONELL.

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being a practical man, he trusts to be able to give patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.
y[illegible] JAS. R. DONELL.

Big G Cures in 1 TO 5 DAYS. Guaranteed not to cause Stricture. Mfd only by The Evans Chemical Co. TORONTO, CAN.

Big G is acknowledged the leading remedy for Gonorrhoea & Gleet. The only safe remedy for Leucorrhoea or Whites. I prescribe it and feel safe in recommending it to all sufferers.
A. J. STONER, M. D.
Decatur, Ill.
Sold by Druggists.

G. A. SCHOFIELD, Agt., Peterborough d 39-1y

THE

CENTRAL CANADA

Loan and Savings Co,

Authorized Capital	$5,000,000
Subscribed Capital	2,000,000
Paid-up Capital	300,000
Reserve Fund	150,000
Invested Funds	2,579,196.57

OFFICE.—No. 437, George-st., Peterborough.

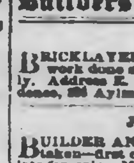
DEPOSITS received at current rates of interest, paid or compounded half-yearly.

DEBENTURES issued in Currency or Sterling, with interest coupons attached, payable in Canada or in England. Executors and Trustees are authorized by law to invest in the Debentures of this Company.

MONEY ADVANCED on Real Estate security at current rates and on favorable conditions as to repayment.

Mortgages and Municipal Debentures purchased.

GEO. A. COX,
d3w41 Managing Director



BARAVENA

MILK FOOD

FOR INFANTS is the safest, cheapest and nearest to Mothers' Milk of any Food made.
Ask your Druggist.
THE [illegible]
[illegible] FOOD CO. LD. TORONTO

If YOU WISH
TO Advertise
Anything
Anywhere
AT Any time
WRITE TO
GEO. P. ROWELL & CO.
No. 10 Spruce Street,
NEW YORK.

SOCIETY,

COMMERCIAL

AND

BOOK

PRINTING!

First-Class Work at Low Prices.

Review Office

350 GEORGE ST.

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE.

February 2nd, 1891.

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
8 00 a m 6 00 p m [illegible] 11 00 p m	Montreal and East, via O. & Q. R. Toronto and West, via O. & Q. R.	11 00 a m 9 00 p m 3 15 p m 9 00 p m
	Grand Trunk, East & West do East	1 15 p m 5 30 p m
12 00 a m 5 30 p m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west)	5 00 a m 4 30 p m
8 00 a m 5 15 p m	Millbrook and Port Hope. do do	11 15 a m 5 30 p m
8 15 a m 4 00 p m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings	1 00 p m
	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	11 15 a m
10 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clydesdale, Paudash and Cheddar, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 30 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays
	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do do	4 00 p m
	British Mails per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	9 00 p m
	Via New York, Mondays.
12 noon	Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	4 30 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Australia, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings Bank, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxemburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey. And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before. Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

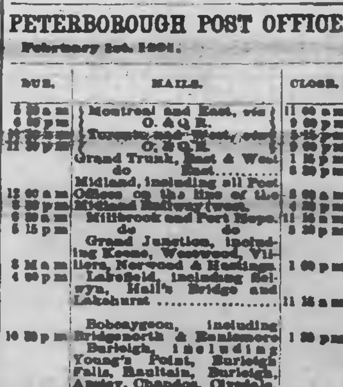
For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil British Guiana, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Port Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books, &c., 4c for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Payment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents.

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents. H. C. ROGERS, Post-Master



MUNN & CO SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN AGENCY for PATENTS

A pamphlet of information and abstract of the laws, showing How to Obtain Patents, Caveats, Trade Marks, Copyrights, sent free. Address MUNN & CO. 361 Broadway, New York.

WEDDING CARDS.

LATEST STYLES AT THE

Review Stationery Store.

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XXV.—No. 43. PETERBOROUGH, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1891. TEN CENTS A WEEK

Probabilities.

Winds shifting to easterly; fair to cloudy weather, followed by some sleet or snow to-night; stationary or higher temperature.

SWISS
Needle Work
EMBROIDERY.

We take pleasure in annoucing that we have just received Ex. SS. Sardinian) direct from the manufactory in St. Gall, Switzerland, our new Spring collection of Needle Work Embroidery for the season of 1891. We placed unusual large orders for these goods when the stitch prices were at the lowest point. The value is exceptionally good. The designs were selected with the greatest care and we think will merit your approval. Special discount allowed to customers purchasing in quantities of a dozen yards and upwards.

ROBERT FAIR,
Sign of the Golden Lion,
383 George Street, Peterborough.
Ontario (144 and Bell Telephone (145)

KID GLOVES!
KID GLOVES!

W.W. JOHNSTON has just received a complete consignment of
Black and Colored
Kid Gloves
at 85c. per pair.
The Best in the Market at the Price.

SPECIAL VALUE IN
Bed Room Towels and Kitchen Towelling.
Call and see our
ART MUSLIN
at 15c. per yard.
CRYSTAL BLOCK
410 George st.

Musical.

ORGAN, PIANOFORTE and SINGING
DR. DAVIES,
Organist of St. John's church, late of Christ Church Cathedral and of St. James's Cathedral, Toronto, receives pupils at his residence, 41 McDonnel-st. At home each day from 9 till 10 a.m. and from 2 till 3 p.m. to make engagements, etc. d48-1m

Wood and Coal.

COAL AND WOOD.
THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.
W. B. FERGUSON,
Telephone Connection. Agent

COAL! COAL!
THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of
COAL AND WOOD,
which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
d&w JAMES STEVENSON.

PETERBOROUGH WATER CO.
OFFICE - - 26 HUNTER-ST.
W. HENDERSON, Superintendent
F. ADAMS, Collector,
All water rates and accounts must be paid at the office. Mr. Adams will be in the office from 8 to 5 p.m. every day

Awnings.
Tents.
AND Sails.

ALFRED KINGSCOTE has opened out in Dunsford's Block, on Water-st., opposite the market, where he is prepared to do all kinds of Awning, Tent and Sail making.
Good Work and Low Prices. Remember the place
A. KINGSCOTE,
d88-1yr No. 344 Water-st.

EDWIN BLOOMER,
TAXIDERMIST
and Dealer in Eyes, Artificial Leaves and Frostings.
BIRDS, ANIMALS, FISH and SNAKES Stuffed and Mounted in and out of cases in the best lifelike style at lowest prices. Deer HEADS a specialty. A stock of foreign and native birds always on hand for sale. Residence, No. 178 Harvey-st., Peterborough.

For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE,
A QUANTITY OF PAPER CUTTINGS and shavings. Apply at REVIEW Office.

TO LET.
Store and Dwelling
No. 281 George-st., now occupied by J.J. Turner. Good stand for grocery and boarding house. STORE and DWELLING No. 283 George-st. DWELLING HOUSES No. 96 Hunter-st., and 18 and 20 Queen-st. JOHN J. LUNDY. dtf

REMOVAL.
DR. CARMICHAEL
has removed to his new office and residence, corner of Water and Brock-sts, (opposite the Court House. d146-w52-3mo

A. CLEGG,
Funeral Director.
Ware rooms, - - 427 George-st.
Residence, - 16 Benson-st.
S. CLEGG, Residence, 286 Stewart street. Telephone.

For You!
Reduction in prices of all Cloths. Suits and Overcoats to order for less money than ever to clear out the balance of winter stock.
Order now.
D. CAMERON & Co.
Tailors and Clothiers, 434 George-st.

TO THE ELECTORS
OF THE
East Riding
OF THE
COUNTY OF PETERBOROUGH.

GENTLEMEN:—Parliament having been dissolved, the present Government appeal again to the people for a renewal of confidence and an approval of the policy of the administration. I have been chosen to contest the Riding in the interests of the Liberal Conservative Party, and I have accepted the nomination and now solicit your support.

The principal question to be decided is as to our trade relations with the United States, whether, as advocated by the Opposition, we shall adopt such a policy as will practically leave us free to trade only with the United States to the exclusion of Great Britain and other countries, or whether we shall, as advocated by Sir John Macdonald, adopt such a policy, as while dealing with the United States in fair and equitable terms and not to the exclusion of Great Britain, will preserve our nationality and enable us still to remain an integral portion of the British Empire.

I am opposed to the policy of the Opposition, as, in my opinion, it simply means annexation to the United States. As an advocate of the views of the Government I appeal to you. The time is so short before the Polling day that I will not be able to personally see all the electors, but I hope to meet most of you at the several meetings which I shall hold throughout the Riding to discuss the questions at issue.

JOHN BURNHAM.
Ashburnham, February 16th, 1891. w71

LADIES' JERSEYS
In all the Leading Styles
at Lowest Prices at
PORT HOPE KNITTING WORKS
382 George-st.

D. BELLEGHEM,
Issuer of Mariage Licenses,
PETERBOROUGH.

MONEY TO LOAN.
A LARGE amount of private funds has been placed in my hands for loaning on farm security.
J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM,
d&w2 Solicitor, 132 Hunter-st.

SAWS Filed and Gummed in First Class Style. Knives, Scissors, Tools, &c., ground and sharpened. R. W. ENGLISH, shop, 71b Charlotte-st. 3m-d1y

AT
TURNBULL'S

Owing to so many covered shapes being worn this season we have a quantity of untrimmed Felt Hats and Bonnets left of all styles for Ladies and Children which we have put together in one lot and are clearing out at

25c. each.

This includes everything. Our friends may know what bargains await them as many of them have been sold during the season at from $1.00 to $1.50. Remember you get the choice of this lot for 25c.

We are showing in one of our windows Spring Prints, which are but an indication of the quantities of handsome patterns we have inside.

Our Spring Flanneletts have arrived. The patterns are new and darker, what so many people want. They are very pretty. Quantities of new goods opened every day. We show a handsome range of new shades in Dress Goods suitable for Wedding Outfits.

Further particulars of what we will offer this Spring as special inducements next week.

J. C. TURNBULL
George & Simcoe-sts., Peterborough.

HALL, INNES
& Co.
See our window of
NEW
EMBROIDERIES
Hall, Innes & Co.
130, 132 and 134 Simcoe-st.

DOMINION ELECTIONS!
West Riding of Peterborough.

MR. STEVENSON'S
Committee Rooms
OLD COUNCIL CHAMBER,
OPERA HOUSE BLOCK.

Open Every Evening. All Liberal Conservatives and Citizens wishing to maintain the present Government are invited to meet at the Rooms in the interests of the Conservative Candidate.

W. H. MOORE,
Pres. Lib.-Con. Ass'n
W. J. MINORE,
Sec. Lib.-Con. Ass'n

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

SURPRISE
EVERY WOMAN
Can save half the hard wearing-out toil of wash day and be quick and strong. Can have clothes sweet, snowy-white, never yellow. Flannels not to shrink, cotton not, nor hands chap, but soft and white. Use the "Surprise" way. No boiling or scalding. Remarkable! Try it. Read the directions on the wrapper.
St. Croix Soap Mf'g. Co. St. Stephen, N.B. SOAP.
Send us 25 SURPRISE wrappers and get one of our beautiful pictures.

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1891.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

WRANGLING OVER FUNDS.

THE LATEST PHASE OF THE IRISH PARTY DISPUTE.

The Prince of Wales to Visit the Congested District of Ireland A Bishop's Arraignment of Parnell and His "Heaven-Cursed Crime."

LONDON, Feb. 19.—It is announced that the Prince of Wales will visit Ireland the coming summer. The Earl of Zetland, the Lord Lieutenant and Chief Secretary Balfour are understood to have urged the Prince to make the visit with the view of giving encouragement to the industries of that country. The Princess of Wales is reported to be assiduous in the attention she pays to the Zetland-Balfour Fund for the relief of the suffering poor of Ireland. The Princess and her daughters have sent contributions of clothing to the fund and have also solicited subscriptions for the same cause.

DUBLIN, Feb. 19.—The Bishop of Dromore has sent a letter to the clergy of his diocese, in which he warns the faithful not to attend Parnell's meeting in Newry. He says he hopes the poisoned atmosphere of the divorce court and the filthy, disgusting, and scandalous details of the O'Shea case have not reached his diocese. The proposed meeting, he declares, will be a wanton insult to a religion, to the bishop and to the priests and a laudation of a heaven-cursed crime. "Let God arise," he says, "and his enemies will be confounded. Forbearance has encouraged this iniquity. Let the brave men and true who love godliness and hate adultery use lawful means to save the honor and good fame of their mothers, wives and sisters by resenting the daring aggression of those attempting to prostitute the country to aggrandize an individual and hide their own filthy conduct."

LONDON, Feb. 19.—A financial dispute between the McCarthyite and the Parnellite factions of the Irish Parliamentary party is likely to be much in evidence during the coming struggle.

The $40,000 released a month ago from the League funds was divided in the following manner: The sum of $25,000 went to the Campaign Committee and $15,000 passed into the hands of the Tenants' Defence League. The latter sum forms the subject of the present dispute. The McCarthyites' idea is that the amount is out of proportion to the number of evicted tenants the League has relieved, but the McCarthyites are inclined to waive this point. They contend, however, that instead of being devoted to evicted tenants it was used to meet an overdraft on the Hibernian Bank.

Mr. Thomas P. Gill's letter to Mr. McCarthy referring to this matter rather evades the point at issue by declaring that when he signed the release Mr. McCarthy must have known that the fund set apart for the evicted tenants was heavily overdrawn.

Mr. James F. Xavier O'Brien and Mr. J. J. Clancy's checks were dishonored, though it is evident that Mr. McCarthy left Boulogne believing that the money was devoted to the relief of the tenants only. The proof that Mr. O'Brien gave his sanction to meeting the overdraft is found in Mr. Timothy Harrington's statement last night that he had a document proving that the money had been disposed of in the manner promised by Mr. O'Brien. The question arises whether there was some misconception at Boulogne or whether Mr. O'Brien came to the conclusion that he was acting within the lines of the agreement by adjusting the bank account.

In an interview to-day Justin McCarthy declared that the story of a Liberal subsidy of £3000 for his party was an impudent fabrication; that none such was ever suggested, and if offered would not be accepted. His party would depend entirely on funds placed at their disposal by their own countrymen. He did not intend to reply to T. P. Gill's letter calling for atonement for the story connected with the transfer of the £8000 to Mr. O'Brien.

Other McCarthyites, on being interviewed, said several members of the party had already furnished personal guarantees to provide for immediate necessities pending arrangements to obtain resources for the electoral campaign. They said they had determined to preserve their independence and not to seek a closer alliance with the Liberals, preferring a more careful limitation of their relations. They repudiated the least idea of impugning the good faith of Mr. O'Brien. Instead of suggesting an improper use of part of the £8000 they simply wished a declaration (as they have not yet been shown) that the whole sum is devoted to the evicted in the manner prescribed by Mr. O'Brien.

Further grants ought to be distributed under the control of agencies commanding the confidence of all parties. If Mr. O'Brien was free the McCarthyites would not hesitate to entrust him absolutely to distribute; meantime they were willing that Mr. McCarthy should place the whole of the funds in Paris at the disposal of properly recognized distributors.

THE NEWS WAS FATAL.

A SCULPTOR AND HIS WIFE DIE WITHIN A FEW MINUTES.

The Earl of Hartford Expires Suddenly from Heart Disease—Earthquakes in Hungary and Spain—A Gigantic Federation Scheme

BERLIN, Feb. 19.—Herr Luersen, the sculptor who modelled a bust of President Garfield, died suddenly to-day from apoplexy in his studio. When the news of the death of Luersen was communicated to his wife she was so overcome with grief that she was seized with convulsions and shortly afterwards died in a fit.

AN EARL'S DEATH.

Beauchamp of Hertford Passes Away Suddenly From Heart Disease.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—The Earl of Beauchamp died to-day of heart disease.

The peerage dates from 1730 in the reign of George II. The title is Earl of Hartford and Viscount Beauchamp. The deceased was generally termed Earl Beauchamp. The family name is Lygon. The deceased peer was born in 1830 and succeeded to the title and estates in 1866. He was married and is succeeded by his son, Viscount Elmley, who was born in 1872. Earl Beauchamp was a leader of the extreme High Church or ritualistic party in England. With Earl Nelson he took an active part in the establishment of the English Church Union. He manifested great interest in Church of England home and foreign missions.

WAS HE A PLAGARIST.

Illustration of the Adage that Great Minds Run in the Same Groove.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—The Pall Mall Gazette publishes in parallel columns a sermon which Rev. Charles H. Spurgeon preached in 1864 and an address delivered by Lord Mayor Joseph Savory of London last week at the Polytechnic Institute Young Men's Christian Institute for apprentices, artisans, etc., in Regent-street. The two discourses are identical in almost every particular, long passages in the Spurgeon sermon being delivered unchanged in the Lord Mayor's address. Lord Mayor Savory, whose attention was called to this singular coincidence, said he was unaware of the similarity existing between his recent oration and Spurgeon's pulpit utterances of 1864. The Lord Mayor added that he had never, to the best of his knowledge, seen the sermon referred to.

THE QUEEN OF HONOLULU.

She Would Not Leave the Coffin of the Dead King.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19.—From Honolulu comes word that the Queen has not once left the side of the king's coffin since it was deposited in the throne room. At night she stretches herself on the floor under the coffin and gets a little sleep, lulled to rest by the wild wailing of the Kanakas, who have free access to the room at all times. She is utterly prostrated with grief, and refuses to be comforted. There is a good deal of criticism and significant murmurings among Kanakas against Col. Hopoli Baker, the King's friend. They say he should have tested all the medicine given to the King, and they assert that the King was poisoned. They also bitterly complain that he should have been embalmed, for it is said that his flesh should have been eaten by the chiefs.

AND THE EARTH WAS SHAKEN.

Earthquakes Create Much Damage—Buildings Wrecked and Fires Kindled.

MADRID, Feb. 19.—A slight shock of earthquake in Valencia to-day caused much alarm.

VIENNA, Feb. 19.—A terrific storm passed over Presburg, Hungary, to-day, unroofing houses, tearing up trees by the roots and doing an immense amount of other damage. The storm was followed by an earthquake, which caused two large fires. One of the buildings which took fire was a girls' college, several of the inmates of which were injured by jumping from windows. No one was seriously hurt.

The Alleged "Jack the Ripper" Asks Aid from His Fellow-Unionists.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—The steamship fireman, Sadler, who has been remanded for further examination on the charge of having murdered "Carroty Nell," has written a letter to a member of the union to which he belongs asking his fellow-unionists to get the newspaper press to watch the case, declaring that the police are quashing evidence favorable to him with the object of hurrying his conviction. Sadler denies buying or selling the knife stained with human blood, which the police claim to have traced into his possession.

Ex-Empress Frederick in Paris

PARIS, Feb. 19.—Ex-Empress Frederick to-day walked in the Garden of the Tuilleries, and drove in the Bois de Boulogne, receiving everywhere respectful greetings. She afterward visited the exhibition of the Art Union Club. During the day many persons called at the German Embassy to pay their respects to the ex-Empress. Among them were M. Ribot, Minister of Public Instruction, and General Brugere, chief of the military household of President Carnot.

BERLIN, Feb. 19.—The papers here regard the visit of the ex-Empress to Paris as an experiment to prepare the way for Emperor William.

Quiet Restored in Buenos Ayres

PARIS, Feb. 19.—A despatch from Buenos Ayres says: A three days' censorship of political telegrams, which was imposed in order not to cause alarm in Europe, has ceased. The plot to replace Celman in power which was disclosed by Lawyer Rodrigues was nipped in the bud by the activity of President Pellegrini and the loyalty of the troops. Quiet has been restored throughout the country.

The Portuguese Uprising.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—The court-martials of the rebels who took part in the recent revolutionary outbreak at Oporto will be held next week. The prisoners are confined on war vessels anchored in the roads outside the harbor. The Governor of Oporto is taking energetic steps to check any exhibitions of sympathy by the people with the imprisoned men.

Guarded by Police.

CARDIFF, Feb. 19.—The strike of street car drivers and conductors here has assumed a most serious aspect. Each car running is guarded by a mounted policeman, and the streets are patrolled by an additional force of 300 police.

Jealous Frenchmen.

PARIS, Feb. 19.—The newspapers here contain violent articles against England's course in Egypt. They say Egypt's autonomy is rapidly disappearing.

John Bull Hanged

MERIDIAN, Miss., Feb. 19.—Ben Pierce, a farmer of Battlefield, was brutally murdered a few days ago by John Bull, an Indian, who entered Pierce's house and cut his throat. Last night neighbors took Bull from the jail and hanged him.

LIVED A DUAL LIFE.

A Toronto Stock Broker Who Had Two Wives—Death and Discovery

TORONTO, Feb. 19.—The death of A. N. Merriam, which took place suddenly at 66 Isabella-street on the 12th inst., has brought to light some very startling revelations.

This gentleman appeared in Toronto for the first time about four years ago, and has been living in the city on and off ever since. For a time he acted as manager for E. Strachan Cox, and subsequently he entered the firm of Tilt & Co., stock brokers, whose offices until recently were in the Imperial Bank buildings. Merriam was a stout, hearty, handsome man, a bon vivant of the first order, and a jolly good fellow generally. He became acquainted with a good many of the city's "bloods," spent money lavishly on the theatre, cabs, dinners and enjoying all the luxuries of high living. According to the entries in the firm's books he must have kept up his end pretty well.

About 18 months ago he went to Port Huron and returned with a woman whom he claimed to have made his wife in that city. The couple took furnished apartments at 66 Isabella-street, and lived sumptuously up to the time of his death.

It is impossible to say whether the woman with whom he was living knew her true position or whether she was deceived. She appears to have acted her part as a wife lovingly and faithfully. She took the body to Port Huron, where her people live, and laid it to rest in the family burial plot. There was not the slightest suspicion that any developments would follow Merriam's death, but the importance that can be attached to his dying words, "God bless my wife."

On Tuesday a fashionably-dressed lady of prepossessing appearance arrived in town from Chicago and registered at the St. James' Hotel as "Mrs. A. N. Merriam, Chicago, Ill." Yesterday she said that Merriam was born in Lynn., Mass., where his father conducts a big boot and shoe factory. He was a shrewd business man and was attracted to Chicago by the excitement and possibilities of a life among the brokers in that city. He figured as the leading spirit in the firm of Fleming, Loring & Merriam, whose business methods attracted the attention of the police, with the result that the firm was given an informal call and Loring arrested and sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the county jail. Fleming and Merriam skipped the town and succeeded in escaping the clutches of the law.

Merriam was also connected with the notorious "Fund W," by which hundreds of Canadians were swindled out of their little pile.

During his stay in Chicago he fell in love with Miss Mary J. Casey, who in spite of her troubles and sad experiences, still possesses many of the charms which attracted the young broker. They were married in Chicago May 8, 1882, and the Mrs. Merriam who registered at the St. James' on Tuesday claims to be none other than the woman who was made his lawful wife. They lived together for a number of years with all possible domestic felicity, and their home was the scene of many brilliant social gatherings.

A few years ago Merriam became acquainted with one of the belles of Port Huron, but the loving wife never suspected that from that time her husband's affections were not wholly bestowed on her.

About three years ago Merriam left his cheerful home at the usual hour in the morning and started for his office. He did not return in the evening and upon inquiry it was learned that he had left the city. For two years and a half his wife could get not the slightest trace of his whereabouts. About six months ago, by the merest accident, she learned that her runaway husband was living in Toronto. She came to the city and found Merriam living with the Port Huron lady. She consequently put her case in the hands of J. G. Holmes, of the firm of Best & Holmes, barristers, Victoria-street. Mr. Holmes succeeded in getting $350 from Merriam, for his client, together with an agreement to the effect that $22.50 should be paid to the wife monthly. Merriam carried out the agreement strictly up to the time of his death, as the following letter will show:

Mrs. M. J. Merriam, 66 East Harrison-street, Chicago, Ill.:

DEAR MADAM,—We herewith enclose you sight draft on New York for $22.50, being monthly payment from A. N. Merriam.

(Signed.) BEST & HOLMES.

The payments were sent regularly each month up to the time of his death. Mrs. Merriam had been living very quietly at the above address and when she heard of her husband's death all her womanly tenderness and powers of forgiveness were aroused, and she came back to the city to claim the body of the man who had so cruelly wronged her. She found that the body had already been taken to Port Huron and buried and that not a dollar's worth of real or personal property was left for her.

Mrs. Merriam, accompanied by her brother, left last night for Troy, N.Y., where her parents live.

R. T. OF T.

The Grand Council Elects Officers—Next Meeting in Belleville.

HAMILTON, Feb. 19.—At the session of the Royal Templars of Temperance yesterday afternoon the grand council elected the following officers:

J. H. Flagg of Mitchell, grand councillor; John White, Toronto, grand vice-councillor; Rev. T. R. McNair, Corunna, past grand master; Rev. W. H. Barnes, Belleville, grand chaplain; Dr. Emory, Hamilton, grand secretary; Jeremiah Cornell, Lynden, grand treasurer; P. H. Stewart, Barrie, grand auditor; Dr. Robertson, Milton, grand medical referee; William Heaman, London, grand herald; Mrs. C. V. Tobey, Picton, grand deputy herald. Grand trustees: A. C. Steele, Toronto, three years; James Hughes, Toronto, two years; D. J. Ferguson, Aylmer, one year.

Representatives to the Dominion council: Regulars—G. M. Lee, Toronto; A. C. Steele, Toronto; R. A. Payne, Guelph; R. Holtom, R. Y. Blythe, E. F. Smith, F. Buchanan, Toronto; J. H. Wyett, Belleville; H. O. Lindsey, Ingersoll. Alternates—Byron Smith, Hamilton; F. Bissett, Cornell; W. Heaman, London; W. A. Holliday, Dr. Robertson, Milton; Rev. E. D. Lewis, Shannonville; J. H. Flagg, Mitchell; J. T. Richardson, Toronto; Rev. A. M. Phillips, Toronto; R. H. Calvery.

J. H. Wyett, Belleville, grand guard; R. H. Lapp, Deseronto, grand sentinel.

The next convention will be held in Belleville. The session lasted until midnight. Appeals were considered and some changes made in the sick benefit law. The cadet work was discussed. There are 20 corps, with a membership of 1000. The convention voted $300 to have the work extended.

His Victim Dead.

NEWMARKET, Feb. 19.—John Connell, who was struck over the head with a shoemaker's last by Christopher Lepard at Roach's Point during an altercation, has since died from his injuries. Lepard has been committed for trial.

TOPICS FROM TORONTO.

THE A. O. U. W. CONCLUDES ITS SESSION.

Election of Officers and District Master—Drowned in the Bay—A Barrister's Sudden Death—The School Board and Prayer.

TORONTO, Feb. 19.—A meeting of the Public School Board was held last night, at which Dr. Ogden's motion to open the proceedings of the board with prayer was carried, and a committee consisting of himself and Trustees Kent and McPherson was appointed to draw up a form.

Peter Sullivan, a laborer employed on the breakwater improvements at the Island, was capsized in the bay yesterday morning and died from the effects of the exposure and exhaustion 20 minutes after being rescued.

Mr. William Worts Evatt, a former partner of the firm of Boulthee & Evatt, solicitors, and ex-secretary of the National Club, died rather suddenly in his rooms, 31 King-street west, yesterday afternoon. Dr. Garratt of Bay-street, who was at his bedside when he breathed his last, pronounced heart failure as the cause of death. The deceased passed a brilliant examination as a solicitor.

Death has been busy this week in the ranks of Toronto's citizens. Yesterday Mr. David William Thompson, manager of the firm of D. W. Thompson & Co., cabinet hardware and upholsterers' supplies, Buchanan and Teraulay-streets, died at his residence, 50 Hayter-street. Deceased, who was the son of Col. J. Thompson of Quebec, was 46 years of age. He had been ill for the past three weeks, but the end came unexpectedly.

Hamilton takes another championship. Yesterday the final match for the Ontario Tankard was played and the Thistles from the Ambitious City came out on top. The Prospect Parks were the opponents of the men from the mountain and in common phraseology were "never in it."

Winning Club.	Year.	Last Competing Club
Hamilton Thistle	1875	Hamilton Mechanics
Toronto	1876	Orillia.
Toronto	1877	No other competitor.
Hamilton Thistle	1878	Port Hope.
Bowmanville	1879	Galt.
Port Hope	1880	Bowmanville
Hamilton Thistle	1881	Port Hope.
Toronto Caledonian	1882	Bowmanville
Brampton	1883	Barrie.
St. Mary's	1884	Orillia.
Orillia	1885	Hamilton Thistle.
Toronto Granite	1886	Guelph.
Paris	1887	St. Mary's.
Thamesville	1888	Galt.
Galt	1889	Toronto Granite.
Walkerton	1890	Toronto Granite.
Hamilton Thistle	1891	Toronto Prospect Park.

Samuel Paterson alias McCann, alias Williams, alias Jones, and Fred Collins, alias Wilkinson, alias Williams, two well-known Toronto thieves, have just been sentenced in Rochester, N.Y., to five years each in Auburn State Prison for picking pockets. Collins formerly kept a dive in York-street, and was the boon companion of Convict Buckley, "Gas" Burns and others of that ilk.

The master in chambers yesterday gave judgment in Reg. ex rel. McGuire v. Birkett, unseating Thomas Birkett from the office of Mayor of Ottawa and ordering a new election. Mr. Birkett is evidently the choice of the citizens of Ottawa, for there were four candidates for the office and he received almost as many votes as the other three together, being elected by a majority of over 900 votes. Mr. Birkett will have to pay the costs of the quo warranto proceedings.

A. O. U. W.

Grand Lodge yesterday morning went into committee of the whole for the consideration of the new constitution and general laws for the government of subordinate lodges. This together with the election of officers occupied the morning session.

The election of grand officers resulted as follows:

Grand Master Workman—John Milne, Mayor of Essex, re-elected by acclamation.

Grand Foreman—F. J. Inwood of Toronto, re-elected by acclamation.

Grand Overseer—D. F. Macwatt of Barrie.

Grand Recorder—M. D. Carder of St. Thomas, re-elected (13th time) by acclamation.

Grand Receiver—James Rushton of Ridgetown, re-elected by acclamation (for 13th time.)

Grand Guide—F. W. Unitt of Toronto, re-elected by acclamation.

Grand Watchman—Thomas Chambers of Montreal, re-elected by acclamation.

Grand Trustee—Thomas Sargant of Toronto.

Executive Committee—(two members elected annually)—T. L. L. Lewis of Chatham and J. B. Nixon of Toronto.

Past Grand Master Warren Totten of Woodstock was elected solicitor. The representatives to Supreme Lodge A.O.U.W. to be held in Detroit next June were elected as follows: Past Grand Masters Daniel Spry, Barrie; M. D. Dawson, London, and John Milne, Essex.

A resolution was adopted recommending steps to be taken to show the distinction between the A.O.U.W. and the A.O.U.W. Relief Society, the latter being an adjunct under separate control.

It was approved that the Grand Lodge act as a guaranteeing body from which the subordinate lodges could obtain the necessary bonds for the financiers and receivers.

The Grand Master appointed as members of Executive Committee W. J. Parkhill of Midland and James Dixon of Hamilton. He also confirmed the selection of the following district masters for 1891-2 as nominated by the representatives:

District.	District Master.	Address.
St. Clair	J. D. Williams	Walkerville
Erie	George Stewart	Port Rowan
Niagara	R. Hoggett	Niagara Falls
Hamilton	John Wilson	Hamilton
London	R. J. C. Dawson	London
Guelph	W. H. Zeigler	Guelph
Huron	George Patterson	Seaforth
Simcoe	J. S. Beddy	Bradford
Georgian Bay	J. B. Carruthers, M.D.	North Bay
Dufferin	James McLaughlin	Owen Sound
Peel	William Pettet	Caledon East
York	W. P. Cole	Sutton
Toronto	J. E. Winnett	Toronto
Durham	W. H. Smith	Colborne
Ontario	D. Holliday	Brooklin
Quinte	J. K. Halliwell	Belleville
Kingston	W. Dunn	Kingston
St. Lawrence	N. H. Beecher	Toledo
Stormont	D. J. Ransom	Wales
Lanark and Renfrew	H. H. Reeve, M.D.	Almonte
Ottawa	A. K. Mills	Ottawa
Brant	S. R. Wallace	Burgessville
Quebec	T. P. Butler, Q.C.	Montreal

The following resolution was unanimously carried by a standing vote of the whole lodge:

Grand Lodge closed the session at 5 p.m. to meet in Ottawa on the third Wednesday in February, 1892.

PROVIDENCE BAY, Ont., Feb. 19.—James Cuson, the 5-year-old son of R. Cuson of Mindemoya, with the two older children were laughing and playing with soup bones when the little fellow began choking, it is believed, from a bone in his throat, and death from strangulation ended his life in half an hour.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is a concentrated extract of Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock, Pipsissewa, Juniper Berries, Mandrake, Dandelion, and other valuable vegetable remedies, every ingredient being strictly pure, and the best of its kind it is possible to buy.

It is prepared by thoroughly competent pharmacists, in the most careful manner, by a peculiar Combination, Proportion and Process, giving to it curative power

Peculiar To Itself

It will cure, when in the power of medicine, Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Blood Poisoning, Cancerous and all other Humors, Malaria, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Sick Headache, Catarrh, Rheumatism, and all difficulties with the Liver and Kidneys.

It overcomes That Tired Feeling, Creates an Appetite, and gives mental, nerve, bodily, and digestive strength. The value of

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is certified to by thousands of voluntary witnesses all over the country whom it has cured of diseases more or less severe. It is sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other.

100 Doses One Dollar

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1891.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House. Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

MR. BERTRAM'S IDEA OF PROTECTION.

In the Opera House on Wednesday evening Mr. Bertram gave his idea of the principle upon which the tariff should be based. He said "that a tariff sufficient to pay the wages of the employees was sufficient to encourage any industry." If that principle were applied the result would be that on a great many articles the tariff would be increased, and in some cases considerably. As an instance take an industry which has been referred to by Liberal speakers at meetings in this campaign, the Peterborough lock works. In that factory the wages paid is at least from 20 to 30 per cent. of the cost of production, while the tariff on locks is from 20 to 25 per cent., and if Mr. Bertram's doctrine were applied the tariff on these articles would be increased from 20 to 30 per cent. And while Mr. Bertram lays down this doctrine of protection for the guidance of the electors, the policy which the Liberal party asks the electors to adopt would remove the protection the industries now have from the assaults of the powerful combinations of the United States, and would result in their extinction. The Government's policy does not go to either extremes, but gives to the industries moderate protection, so that they can resist the Yankee combinations and, as Mr. Geo. A. Cox said at the last election, enables them to pay their employees the highest wages. This is the policy that should be maintained in the interest of the industries, of the country which they build up, of the men that they employ, of the agricultural industry that is given a market, and of every interest in the Dominion.

DAIRY SCHOOLS.

Sometime ago Prof. J. W. Robertson was appointed Dairy Commissioner for the Dominion and his efforts have been given to benefit the important and growing dairy industry. Another step has been taken by the Dominion Government, however, for preparations have been made for opening dairy schools throughout the Dominion under Prof. Robertson's supervision. The object of these schools is to discuss and learn the best methods of producing th finest cheese and butter. Canada has secured a high position in the European markets for her cheese and there is no good reason why the butter industry should not also be developed and made much more profitable. Although Canada shipped 75,000,000 lbs. of cheese to Great Britain in 1890, the total imports of the United Kingdom that year amounted to 212,000,000, so that there is room for expanding that trade; and Great Britain imported 215,000,000 lbs. of butter, of which Canada only supplied 2,000,000 lbs. These dairy schools will be exceedingly useful in developing the dairy industries. In establishing these schools, as in the appointment of the Dairy Commissioner and the establishment of the Experimental Farms with their able staffs, the Government, which has always recognized the importance of the agricultural industry, has given renewed evidence of its earnest desire to do all that a government can to advance the interests of the farming community. A Liberal speaker in the Opera House the other evening referred to the importance of cattle raising and dairying, and in doing so he but echoed the words of the professors and other gentlemen sent out by the Ontario Government to address Farmers' Institutes throughout the country. But if Sir Richard Cartwright's policy of unrestricted reciprocity were adopted the trade of Great Britain would be seriously injured or destroyed, and it is to that country that Canada must look for a market for its surplus cattle and dairy products, as well as many other products of the farm, because while Great Britain imports them extensively, the United States produces more than supplies themselves and exports them. The scheme proposed by the present Liberal leaders would seriously injure the already important and growing dairy industries and the cattle trade of Canada.

ACROSS THE LINES.

THE Liberal leaders are endeavoring, by unrestricted reciprocity, to place the farmers of Canada on a level with those of the United States. And what is the condition there? A committee of the United States Congress took evidence on the subject, and a witness, from Pennsylvania, comparing the value of farm lands now with six years ago, said:—

> "There is a depreciation of more than 50 per cent. all over the country outside of these cities and manufacturing towns where land is very valuable for urban residences and building purposes."

In a book written by Mr. J. N. Elliott and published by Messrs. G. P. Putnam Sons it is said:—

"It is admitted now on all sides that farm industry is not progressing in New England; rather, fast losing ground."

In the same work the condition of New York State is thus referred to:—

"The New York state agent reported about 18 months ago that 'there are large numbers of farms that were purchased 10 years ago and mortgaged, which would not now sell for more than the face of the mortgages, owing to the depreciation of the farm lands, which on an average is 30 per cent. in 10 years. Probably one third of the farms in the state would not sell for more than the cost of the buildings and other improvements, owing to this shrinkage.'"

The author quotes an authority whose name is familiar in this country as well as in the States:—

"The Hon. David A. Wells says: 'A few years ago the inhabitants of Ludlow, formerly a most prosperous town in Windsor county, Vermont, memorialized the legislature to the effect that there were 12 deserted farms within the town limits, and asked permission to guarantee to any person who would lease and work exemption from taxation, local and state, for a considerable term of years.' He also states: 'All over New England farms in abundance can now be purchased for less than the cost of the improvements upon them—yes, for less than the cost of the construction of their stone walls.'"

How would it benefit the farmers of Canada to injure their British export trade and their home markets, which are the most profitable markets, and to place themselves on a level with the conditions in the United States? Yet that is what unrestricted reciprocity would do.

CLAP TRAP.

The Toronto Empire says:—"A NICE disingenuous specimen is Mr. Thomas Rorke, the Grit candidate in East Peterborough. Mr. Rorke has issued an address to the electors, in which he poses as a farmer, calls upon the farmers to support him, and dates his appeal from Asphodel, a township in the riding. The facts are that Mr. Rorke is not a farmer at all, but a grain buyer; that he does not live in Asphodel, but in Norwood, and that his address is simply a bit of clap-trap to catch farmers' votes."

The Population of Peterborough

is about 10,000, and we would say at least one-half are troubled with some affection of the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all our readers not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Trial size free. Large bottle 50c and $1. Sold by all druggists.

ELECTORS. Protect home and country by voting for Mr. Stevenson. Come to the Committee rooms, Opera House block, open every night.

Local Market Quotation

WHEAT.
Wheat, fall per bushel	0 96	to	0 97
" spring "	0 92	to	0 95
FLOUR AND MEAL.
Flour, Patent Process, per cwt.	$2 75	to	[illegible]
Flour, baker's per cwt.	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
Flour, family per cwt	[illegible]	to	[illegible]
COARSE GRAIN.
Barley, per bushel	0 43	to	0 46
Peas	0 55	to	0 57
Oats	0 43	to	0 44
Rye	0 54	to	0 55
WOOL AND HIDES.
Fleece wool	0 18	to	0 19
Southdown wool	0 20	to	0 21
Veal Calfskins, per lb	0 06	to	0 07
Cosson skins, each	0 15	to	0 40
Hides, per cwt, rough	3 00	to	4 00
Tallow, rendered per lb	0 03	to	0 05
" per lb, rough	0 00	to	0 02
Sheep skins	0 40	to	1 00
MEAT, POULTRY AND DAIRY PRODUCE.
Beef, by the quarter per cwt.	5 00	to	6 50
Pork per lb	0 06	to	0 07
Mutton per lb	0 07	to	0 08
Lamb per lb	0 07	to	0 08
Dressed Hogs per 100 lbs.	5 00	to	6 00
Hogs, live weight	3 00	to	4 00
Lard	0 00	to	0 10
Ducks, per pair	0 00	to	0 00
Geese, each	0 50	to	0 75
Turkeys, each	0 75	to	1 25
GENERAL.
Apples, per bag	0 70	to	1 25
Apples, per barrel	2 00	to	3 00
Butter, fresh roll, per lb.	0 14	to	0 16
Eggs, per doz	0 16	to	0 18
Hay, per ton	6 00	to	7 00
Straw, per load	3 00	to	4 00
Wood, hard, per load	3 25	to	3 75
Wood, soft, per load	2 00	to	2 50
Chickens per pair	0 25	to	0 50
VEGETABLES.
Potatoes, per bag	0 70	to	0 80
Cabbage, per head	0 03	to	0 05
Beets, per bag	0 00	to	0 75
Onions, per bag	0 00	to	1 00
Carrots, small red, per bag	0 00	to	0 00
MILL FEED.
Oat chop, per cwt	1 40	to	1 50
Pea chop, "	1 25	to	1 30
Barley chop "	1 20	to	1 30
Pollards "	1 05	to	1 05
Bran, per ton	13 00	to	14 00

Lindsay Markets.

Fall Wheat	$0 92	to	$0 90
Spring Wheat	0 85	to	0 88
Barley	0 45	to	0 50
Peas	0 60	to	0 60
Oats	0 00	to	0 42
Potatoes, per bushel	0 45	to	0 45
Butter	0 15	to	0 16
Eggs	0 16	to	0 17
Hay	6 00	to	8 00

Toronto Markets.

Wheat, fall, per bushel	$0 98	to	$1 01½
Wheat, red, per bushel	0 98	to	1 01½
Wheat, spring, per bushel	0 95	to	97
Wheat, goose, per bushel	0 70	to	0 72
Barley, per bushel	0 30	to	0 55
Peas	72	to	74
Oats, per bushel	0 54	to	0 54½
Dressed hogs, per cwt.	5 60	to	6 20
Chickens, per pair	0 60	to	0 75
Butter, per lb rolls	0 16	to	0 18
Eggs, new, per doz	0 18	to	0 20
Potatoes, per bag	1 00	to	1 20
Hay, Timothy	9 00	to	12 00
Hay, clover	7 00	to	8 00
Straw, per ton	7 00	to	8 00

Toronto Live Stock Market.

Cattle—	per cwt.
Butchers' extra	$3 00	to	$3 75
Butchers' choice	3 25		3 50
Butchers' medium to good	2 50		3 00
Milch cows and springers, p. hd	35 00		57 00
Sheep—
Butchers per head	4 00		5 00
Lambs, per head	2 50		4 50
Hogs—
Light fat	4 25		4 50
Stores	4 00		4 25
Heavy	4 10		4 25

Chicago Market.

Wheat	May	97¼
	July	0 93½
Corn	May	0 53½
Oats	May	0 46
Pork	May	9 62
Lard	May	5 80

The Spring Medicine.

The popularity which Hood's Sarsaparilla has gained as a spring medicine is wonderful. It possesses just those elements of health-giving, blood-purifying and appetite-restoring which everybody seems to need at this season. Do not continue in a dull, tired, unsatisfactory condition when you may be so much benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood and makes the weak strong.

TO THE WORK. Conservative committee rooms open every night. All favourable to Mr. Stevenson's re-election cordially invited and urged to be present. Polling on March 5th.

PASHA is the name of the popular Pen. Seven styles to suit all hands. Try them. Sold at the REVIEW Stationery.

Mr. Stevenson's Address

TO

THE ELECTORS

OF

WEST PETERBOROUGH.

GENTLEMEN,—The time that will elapse before polling day is so short, and my business demands on my time just now are so great that, though most anxious to do so, I find it altogether impossible to personally call on any considerable number of the electors; and therefore use this medium of placing before you my opinions of the great issue that has been raised by the leaders of the Reform party, viz., Unrestricted Reciprocity with the United States.

The Government of Sir John A. Macdonald many years since placed on the Statute books of the Dominion an Act enabling the Governor-General in Council, whenever the United States declared its readiness to free from duty any named natural products of this country going into that country, to free the same coming into Canada from the United States.

That Statute still remains in force; and, although the Government of Canada has on many occasions called the attention of the authorities at Washington to it, yet they have declined to act on it, but have now signified their willingness to negotiate generally on trade matters.

The present Government at Ottawa has shown its readiness to negotiate for reciprocal trade relations on the basis of the treaty of 1854, which I believe was eminently fair to both countries; but the proposed policy of the Reform party, as is clearly indicated by the politicians and press of the United States, is one which practically hands over to that country the trade of Canada, for the Reform party declare that they are prepared to offer to the United States absolute and unconditional free trade in manufactures, as well as in natural products, and they say such will be accepted by the latter country; and this party, led by Mr. Laurier, urges that such a policy is in our interests, even if we have to discriminate against England and all the rest of the world, and enact and build up a tariff wall equal to that of the United States, and even if we have, in addition, to suffer a loss of revenue, placed by Sir Richard Cartwright in his speech in Toronto, the 13th instant, as reported in the Globe, of $7,000,000 or $8,000,000, but which, it is perfectly certain, would not be less than $12,000,000. I submit for your consideration whether this is really a "free trade" policy or a policy deserving your support. I am convinced that it is not, and that it is opposed to the best interests of Canada. The present tariff of the United States is more than double that of Canada. It is, in fact, the most exclusive and excessive tariff known, and the effect of the adoption of it by us would, in my humble opinion, be to make us, commercially, an unknown land—except to our neighbors to the South, for no other nation would or could import its goods to us as heretofore, and as their shipping would come much less to our shores, our trade in cheese, cattle and other products with Great Britain would be seriously injured, if not wholly ruined. The high freight rates, for want of competition, would alone make these products unprofitable, and I am sure you will hesitate before you destroy or imperil a trade with England and Europe of 377,000,000 people, which [illegible] largely, by reason of the keen competition of shipping from England, which, under our moderate tariff, has, out of all proportion to the extent of the United States, come to Halifax and up the St. Lawrence to our great ports for several years past.

The policy of the present Government since its adoption in 1879, has brought into Canada, a tremendous amount of Capital and produced the manufacture of most of our needs of life at prices, through the competition that has grown up, no higher than in the country from which the capital came.

The population of Peterborough has in ten years almost doubled, and I am confident the present moderate revenue tariff will enable the country to construct great public works in our vicinity, and that our town will be not less than 20,000 population within the next ten years. The proposed policy, I am assured, would endanger all the advantages we have gained and almost certainly end in the ruin of our town, as of many other towns and cities in Canada, and also most seriously injure the farming interests by destroying the home market and in other ways and I therefore cannot give my sanction to such a measure.

I cannot believe that with the declarations of high authority we have as to the terms on which we can obtain unrestricted trade relations, with the United States there is any general feeling in favor of the Reform platform, for I find that Mr. Blain, the Secretary of State at Washington, recently in a public speech used these words: "It is their (Canadians) right to choose for themselves, as it is our right to choose for ourselves, but I am opposed, tre-totally opposed, to giving the Canadians the sentimental satisfaction of waving the British flag, paying British taxes, and enjoying the actual cash remuneration of American markets. They cannot have both at the same time. If they come with us they can have what we have. It is an absolute wrong for Congress to say that they shall have exactly the same share in our markets that we have, and so far as I can help it, I do not mean that they shall be Canadians and Americans at the same time" and Mr. McAdoo, a Democratic member of the House of Representatives, recently used these words in the House: "The United States do not desire to add a single acre to its imperial domain but if the people of Canada, in their Soverign capacity wish to maintain unrestricted relations with the people of the United States, they have but to rise in their sovereignity, spontaneously and unsought for act and ask for annexation, which is the cutting of the Gordion knot, and the ultimate destinity of the Canadian people."

Neither can I support the new policy, because, as reported in the Globe on the 5th day of October, 1889, Mr. Erastus Wiman, of New York, who is the partner of the millionaire, Jay Gould, and the sole father of the scheme originated for personal and selfish ends, says: "My idea is that a uniform tariff should be adopted both by the Congress of the United States and the Dominion Parliament of Canada; that Canada should agree to always have the same tariff as the United States; that this tariff should be administered by a join commission of which the majority should, of course, rest with the United State." and the Chicago Times confirms this, as do all the leading papers of the United States by declaring that "entire free trade is impossible, unless the Dominion 'is prepared to make a complete and unconditional surrender of all control over its own tariff and to accept whatever tariff our Congress may choose to enact from time to time.'"

I feel that this is a sacrifice and surrender greater than Canada should make for it means the loss of legislative control over our fiscal policy the transference to Washington of the regulation of our tariff and the end of our political existence, and, as said in an American paper "Canadians would be "curs and cads" to entertain the idea."

The end proposed by the Reform leaders I am sure cannot be attained, and, if attained, attainment will bring in its train the incident of direct taxation, with an army of assessors and collectors replacing the Customs Houses and Customs officers along the frontier between the United States and Canada. Mr. Laurier in Quebec a few days ago said that his expectant Finance Minister, Sir Richard Cartwright, would be genius enough to avoid recourse to "so cruel a measure" but in Toronto on the 13th instant, the avoidance the latter found after quoting the words of Mr. Foster, that direct taxation would amount to $20.00 per family, and after entering upon a tirade of abuse of the Government to draw his audience from the question was summed up in these words as given in the Globe's report of his speech. "But it is impossible to deal with these imaginary difficulties, and when I am asked to say what I will do if a possible contingency arises I would respectfully say that we will wait to see the contingency we have to meet."

I am sure the whole electorate will declare with me that this, from a man, posing as a statesman, and seeking the confidence and support of the country was a contemptible and [illegible] of the most vital matter, and an acknowledgment that direct taxation is a necessary incident of the Reform platforms.

I would call attention to a matter of local importance, viz., the construction of the Trent Valley Canal, which has been thrown back for two years by the action of prominent members of the Reform party, and the statements in the House that there was good reason for believing that, as a national undertaking, it would prove a failure because of an insufficiency of water. The matter was consequently referred to commissioners to report, and the commissioners having examined the whole of the route and taken a great mass of evidence, have now reported, and the report that has been published is a complete answer to all objections as to its feasibility and the propriety of the undertaking, and as in the past, I, if elected, shall in the future persistently advocate and insist on the immediate construction of this great work. I am confident it will prove of immense value as a public work, and I know that its importance to this locality will, from various and obvious reasons, be almost inestimable. I am also quite certain that if the Reform party gains power in this election and adopts the policy it is advocating, there will follow such admittedly tremendous deficits in the revenue that even with the aid of direct taxation it will be impossible for the Government, however willing, to undertake the building of this national highway of commerce.

In conclusion, I would ask the electors to accept the above statement as indicating my views of the chief public questions of the hour, and the policy relied on by the leader of the Reform party, and his Wiman allies, as the one by which they hope to gain control of the Government of Canada, and to displace the existing Government, and I would ask all who cannot approve so radical a change as proposed, to rally to the support of the Liberal Conservative party in the present great crisis in our affairs.

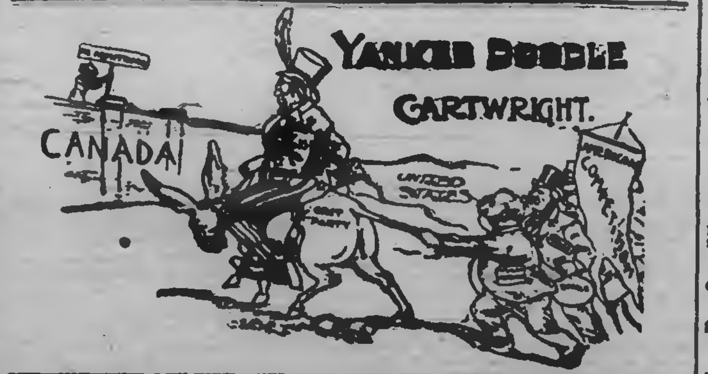
I am, gentlemen,

Your sincere and humble servant,

JAMES STEVENSON.



PACKING HOUSE STORE!

For a Choice Selection of

Smoked Sugar Cured Meats and Bacon

LARD, guaranteed pure, in any quantity.

GEORGE MATTHEWS

356 George Street, Peterborough.

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED!

Grand Rally of the People's Party.

THE QUESTION OF THE HOUR!

The Greatest Good to the Largest Number.

GOUGH BROTHERS are in the field as the Candidates for public approval, basing their claim on the admitted facts that they supply the largest number, the greatest number of times with the largest dollar's worth of the best clothing that money can purchase.

Ask our constituents if this claim is not well grounded?

When you buy, buy from first hands, remembering that we supply Clothing, Furnishings, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes.

GOUGH BROTHERS

The Clothiers, 377 and 379 George-st., Peterborough.

---

2 BRICK HOUSES,
2 FRAME HOUSES,
and THREE LOTS,

to be sold at my office on WEDNESDAY next, the 18th inst., at 2 p m.

The above properties are situated west of Bethune-st., and between the 2 railway stations in the centre of all the principal manufactories in town. A rare chance.

T. HURLEY,
257 George-

CAKES!

For a Good Cake, leave your orders at

Long Bros.

Also home-made cakes iced and nicely Ornamented. Wedding Breakfasts and Evening Parties Catered for. Oyster Patties made to order. Our stock of Candies is pure and made by ourselves.

No. 296 and 414 George-st.

PETERBOROUGH

PLANING MILLS!

Dublin-st., Peterborough.

A. RUTHERFORD,
PROPRIETOR.

Having purchased the plant, and business, formerly carried on by J. D. Baptie, in the above premises, I am prepared to execute orders for every description of General Carpenter Work Window and Door Frames, Blinds, Mouldings, etc.

Scroll Work, Band Sawing, Turning executed to order.

Large supply of Dry Lumber of all Kinds always on hand.

Factory and Office,—Dublin-st. Telephone Connection.

LIME—Always kept on hand. Orders left at Mill or at G.T.R. Station promptly attended to. d86-w32

MR. SHELDRAKE'S
Private
PREPARATORY SCHOOL,
FOR BOYS,
LAKEFIELD, ONTARIO.

Awnings, Tents and Sails

If you want the Best Goods at the Lowest Prices go or send to

J. J. TURNER,

283 and 283½ George-st., Peterborough.

He also manufactures

Waterproof Clothing, Lap Rugs, Horse and Wagon Covers, Aprons, etc., etc.

Telephone day or night.

Bell 190. • • • Ontario 72.

HAGGART & KIDD

TOWN and COUNTY } Auctioneers,
COMMISSION and SHIPPING } Merchants,
REAL ESTATE and INSURANCE } Agents.

☞ Money to Loan.

CLARK & GIBSON

have now on view and for sale some

VERY FINE GOODS
—CONSISTING OF—
Gold and Silver Watches, Clocks and Fine Jewellery, etc.

Moderate in Price and Newest Patterns.

Ask to see their

English Oak Goods
AND
SCOTCH PEBBLE JEWELLERY
RARE, CHOICE AND BEAUTIFUL.

WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELLERY carefully repaired.

126 Hunter-st., 2 doors west of the Post-office.

WM. FITZGERALD,
Builder, Contractor and Jobber.

Contracts taken for all work connected with erection of new buildings, repairs or rebuilding. Twenty-five years experience. First-class work according to plans and specifications guaranteed. Estimates furnished for any description of work. Good dry material always on hand. Best of references given as to excellence of work and despatch.

Building Lots For Sale

in different localities. Most desirable sites for houses. This is the time to buy and build Lots sold and houses built thereon on terms to suit buyers. Easy terms of payment. Several good houses and lots for sale. Every one looking for a bargain should see them. WM. FITZGERALD, 124, corner of Dublin and Water-sts.

P.O. Box 274, Peterborough. eop w 20-1y

"It is the Safest and Fairest Policy I Have Ever Seen,"

Was the remark made by a prominent representative of one of the largest and best American Life Insurance Companies, when he had carefully examined

THE ORDINARY LIFE POLICY OF

—THE—

TEMPERANCE and GENERAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y.

This is the only policy offered to the Canadian public that can neither lapse nor expire as to its paid-up value till death ensues, after three annual premiums have been paid on it.

Our Limited Payment Life Policy, or Instalment Bonds, Our Common Sense Renewable Term Policies, and our Survivors' Endowment Bonds are all possessed of new and excellent features and are all worthy of careful consideration.

Agents Wanted.

H. P. LINDSAY,

Gen. Agent for Peterborough, Northumberland and Durham. Office No. 118 George-st., opposite new market building.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins, by grocers, labelled thus:

JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England. w6-d33m

DO YOU LIKE

Biscuits?

Most likely you do.
There's a deal of difference
in Biscuits. Quality is an important item. A good
biscuit should be fresh,
crisp and of good flavor.
Here's what will suit you.
Try the English biscuit, made
by Huntley & Palmer the famous makers. Imported
by us and guaranteed genuine.
Ask for Huntley & Palmer's biscuits.

W. J. MASON

426 GEORGE STREET.
☞No trouble to show Goods.

Blank Books.
—AND—
Office Stationery

See the quality of our Blank Books.

Call and get our prices
on Ledgers,
Journals,
Day Books,
Stephen's Inks,
Carter's Inks,
Underwood's Inks
Stafford's Inks,
Pens,
Foolscap,
Legal paper,
and all other
Office supplies.

Our Prices are the Lowest.

H. THOMPSON & Co

Office and General Stationers, Booksellers
and Wall Paper Dealers,
[illegible] George-st.. — — Peterborough

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1891.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

The Choir Entertained.

The choir of St. Paul's church were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Crane at their residence, Water-st., last night. A very pleasant time was spent in singing and the despatch of refreshments, which were kindly served by the host and hostess.

They Were Pleased.

The Port Hope Times says:—"The delegates who represented the local Lodge of the Sons of Canada to the Supreme Grand Lodge which met at Peterborough Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday last, returned home last evening. During their visit they were entertained in a right royal manner by the brethren of Peterborough."

Died in Peterborough.

On Monday morning last, says the Lindsay Watchman, Mr. William Duffus received a telegram stating that his mother who resides in Perth but for the past week had been visiting with her daughter at St. Joseph's hospital, Peterborough, was taken suddenly ill and was not expected to live. Mr. Duffus made preparations to go to Peterborough by the eleven o'clock train but before that time another despatch was received stating that she had passed away. Mr. Duffus has the sympathy of the entire community.

Wedding Bells.

The Lindsay Watchman says:—"On Wednesday, the 11th instant, an interesting ceremony took place at Mr. William Hall's residence in the township of Fenelon. The occasion was the marriage of his eldest daughter, Miss Bella Hall to Mr. Alexander Carley, of Cambray. The Rev. Mr. Johnston, of Lindsay, performed the ceremony. Miss Sarah Newson, of Woodstock, was bridesmaid, while Mr. R. R. Hall, of Peterborough, a brother of the bride, supported the groom. There were quite a number of the relatives of the contracting parties present at the ceremony, among them we noticed Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ferguson, Miss Hall, of Peterborough, Mr. Thomas Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hall, Miss Ada Davidson, Mr. John A. Davidson, Miss McKibbin, and Mr. S. McKibbin. The bride was the recipient of a large number of handsome and beautiful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Carley take up their home about 20 miles west of Toronto."

When you go to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla be sure you get it. Don't you be put off with an inferior substitute. Insist upon Hood's.

TIPS FROM THE TEE.

Millbrook Defeated by 9 Shots Curling Chit-Chat.

Two rinks of local curlers went to Millbrook yesterday and defeated two rinks of that place by a majority of 9 shots. The names of the Millbrook stane hurlers were not secured, but the Peterborough rinks and scores were as follows:—

PETERBOROUGH.	MILLBROOK.
Rink No. One.
T. Connal,
Geo. Matthews,
J. Connal,
W. Sailsbury, skip..22	J. C. Kells, skip. 18
Rink No. Two.
G. Davidson,
J. McClelland,
J. Stanger,
J. B. Pentland, skip..18	W. Woods, skip..13
Total..........40	Total.........31

Majority for Peterborough, 9 shots.

The reception given to Skip Flavelle and his Winnipeg rink upon their arrival in Lindsay on Saturday is said by the Watchman to have been "the largest and most enthusiastic" ever witnessed in Lindsay with the exception of the volunteers' return from the Northwest. Mayor Walters read a flattering address from the citizens and at the banquet on Tuesday evening a similar address was presented by the Curling Club. Lindsay, according to the newspaper reports, went wild over their plucky and victorious curlers.

THE TABLES TURNED.

A Detective Charged with Larceny by a Suspected Farmer.

Chief Roszel was in Whitby yesterday attending a larceny trial as a witness for the Crown. The case was a peculiar one. The readers of the REVIEW will remember reading a few weeks ago the particulars of the Chief Roszel's visit to Clairmont in company with Mr. Patterson, jeweller, of Lakefield, to identify some jewellery which a detective by the name of John Williamson had described by letter to the Chief and which was suspected to be part of Mr. Patterson's stock which was stolen some time ago. It will also be remembered that the detective and Chief Roszel when they searched the suspected man's house found an immense stock of jewellery, purses, combs and general knick-knacks which were rather an unusual stock to be found in a farm house. John Badgerow is the farmer's name who came under the detective's suspicion.

Now comes the sequel. Badgerow was not found to be in possession of the jewellery described by the detective and therefore nothing was done towards him. However he took steps against Detective Williamson and swore out a warrant charging the officer with stealing a diamond pin, a diamond brooch and a diamond ring. It was alleged that when searching Badgerow's house he had stolen these articles. The detective spent a week in gaol in Uxbridge and Whitby and came up for trial yesterday. It was shown to the satisfaction of the court that he was entirely innocent of the crime and he was discharged. The other men who were present when the search was prosecuted had not seen any such valuable jewellery.

Band, Attention!

The band is requested to be on hand at their hall at 7.30 to-night to parade to go to the rink. W. H. Crowe, Secretary.

A Brakeman Injured.

John Hailey, a Brakeman on the Grand Trunk, whose home is in Belleville, met with a painful accident at the station here yesterday evening. He was coupling a broken freight when the fingers of the right hand were caught and badly smashed. It was necessary to amputate part of the first two fingers of the hand.

Personal.

The Lindsay Watchman has the following personals of visiting Peterborough ladies:—Miss Patterson, of Peterborough, is visiting in town, the guest of Miss McMillan....Mrs. W. Dayman and Mrs. Henthorn, of Peterborough, are visiting friends in town....Miss Menzies, of Peterborough, is visiting in town, the guest of Mrs. R. J. Menzies....Miss Mercer, of Peterborough, is visiting friends in town.

Mother and Child go to Gaol.

Martha Johnston is an unfortunate girl whose condition is pitiable. Some months ago she was arrested as a vagrant, and being at the time enciente, she was sent home by the authorities. Her story was the usual sad one of a young girl who had come into town and met a heartless scoundrel who accomplished her ruin and then deserted her. The girl's father lived in Irondale, her mother being dead, and to him she was sent. Yesterday Martha appeared at the Police Court again, carrying her infant child in her arms. She had the careworn look of a woman of fifty who had seen nothing of the sunny side of life. A few soda biscuits she carried in her pockets had furnished her food in her journey from her back country home. The girl wanted to be sent somewhere for the winter until her child had become somewhat less of a burden, not requiring so much attention. The Magistrate accordingly gave her three months as a vagrant, and she and her child went to gaol.

Campaign Notes.

Mr. Stevenson addressed a meeting at Springville last evening and his exposition of the evil consequences that would follow the adoption of the Liberal programme was clear and forcible. Mr. Armstrong spoke briefly on some of the questions of the day. The meeting was well attended and the Conservative candidate was well received.

A meeting was held in Mr. Hall's interest at Middleton's school house in Smith last night. Messrs Hall, G. M. Roger, W. A. Stratton and J. R. Stratton addressed the meeting in favor of the Reform candidate and unrestricted reciprocity or annexation and direct taxation. Mr. J. H. Burnham appeared for Mr. Stevenson and his able and clear exposition of the Government's policy and complete refutation of the misstatements of his opponents were well received by the audience. Mr. H. B. Merrick also appeared and desired to speak, but as he was not representing either candidate no time could be allowed him.

Hon. Mackenzie Bowell will address a mass meeting of the electors of East Peterborough at Norwood this evening in Mr. Burnham's behalf.

There is a rousing rally of enthusiastic workers at Mr. Stevenson's committee rooms every night and earnest, telling work is being energetically carried on. With continued work and unfailing vigilance victory is assured on the 5th of March.

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on a trial

VOLTAIC BELT CO., Marshall, Mich.

The United States sells farm produce Great Britain buys it in large quantities. Retain the British markets by voting for Messrs. Stevenson and Burnham.

AN EVENT AT ZION.

The Foresters Hold a Tea and Entertainment Which is Marked by its Success.

An unusually successful tea and entertainment was held last night at Zion under the auspices of Court Zion, C.O.F. There was an immense gathering from Peterborough, Nassau, Springville, Centreville and all the surrounding neighborhood. So great was the crowd that while tea was being served the Methodist church close to the hall was opened to accommodate the surplus crowd and, this edifice also becoming filled, the English had also to be secured. The object of the event was to raise funds for the liquidation of the debt on the Foresters Hall and the financial result must have been exceedingly gratifying. Two tables had been laid the whole length of the hall and these were filled eight or nine times between six and nine o'clock before the crowd had all partaken. But notwithstanding the large crowd there were ample provisions for all.

When tea had been served to all, the hall was cleared and an excellent programme was rendered, but a large number of those who had taken tea were unable to gain admission to the hall. In fact the press was so great that Miss Moyse who was down on the programme for a vocal solo could not gain an entrance and the number had to be omitted. Mr. H. Nesbitt, D.D. H.C.R., presided as chairman. The programme rendered was a pleasing one. The Wilson family gave two musical selections which were highly appreciated. Mr. John Nugent contributed two recitations which, as is usual with that gentleman, delighted the audience and were loudly applauded. Miss Kindred rendered two vocal solos in excellent voice and received well-deserved recognition from the audience. Her two numbers were exceedingly meritorious. The entertainment closed with the laughable farce entitled "From Pumpkin Ridge." This was the feature of the evening and the audience enjoyed a rare treat of humorous impersonation and were delighted. The talent on the caste was from Peterborough and Ashburnham and they one and all performed their parts cleverly. The caste was as follows:—

Johnathan Scroggins	F. Packenham
Mr. Brown	Alf. Gaskins
Miss Brown	Miss Eva Tivey
Augustus Simroy	J. J. Turner, jr
Annie Brown	Bella Armstrong
Belinda Jane Hopkins	Lizzie Long
Harry Clifton	Thos. Ryah
Constable Maloney	Bert Everett

This closed one of the most successful entertainments ever given in the Zion neighborhood.

The Handsomest Lady in Peterborough

Remarked to a friend the other day that she knew Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs was a superior remedy, as it stopped her cough instantly when other remedies had no effect whatever. So to prove this and convince you of its merit any druggist will give you a Sample bottle Free. Large size 50c and $1.

An Open Letter to Mr. Richard Hall, the Reform Candidate.

SIR,—You say in your address that you will support the policy of the Opposition leaders on the trade question. Allow us to ask you a question or two, and if you answer them satisfactorily we promise you three Tory votes.

First. What is the Opposition trade policy—reciprocity, commercial union, unrestricted reciprocity or annexation, which?

Second. How do you propose to raise the (according to the Globe's own figures) shortage of fourteen million dollars in our customs revenue? Show us in plain figures where this amount can be raised and you will get our votes.

Third. Your leader, Mr. Cartwright, said that Canada would never surrender the control of her own tariff. Well, all the United States papers say that there is not [illegible] reciprocity between the two countries unless the tariff of Canada is assimilated to that of the United States. You are a good enough business man to know that the Americans are not fools enough to allow the Canadian importers to bring in from England say woollen goods at 30 per cent. duty and ship them into the U.S. free of duty to compete with the very same goods brought in by American importers at 65 per cent. duty! Let us know how you will get over that difficulty?

Fourth. You are aware that commerce is the result of exchange or barter and in order to get ordinarily cheap freights to and from England it is necessary to have return cargoes ready for the ships as they arrive in port. If we got American woollen, iron and steel goods in free of duty under reciprocity we will of necessity buy fewer English goods, the duty on which would average 30 per cent. If we buy fewer English goods the unvarying law of commerce teaches us that they will buy few fewer goods from us; and at present, you know, England buys as much from us as all the rest of the world together. What then would become of your farmer friends whose cattle, cheese, hogs and other products will be shut out of the English market, because there will be very few returns cargoes?

Fifth. Let us know your reason for saying the United States is a better market than England for our farmers. There is more money made on cheese, cattle, hog products and apples than on wheat and barley. Look a moment:—

	To England.	To U.S
Cheese	$[illegible]	$ 7,000
Cattle	[illegible]	[illegible]
Apples	[illegible]	[illegible]
Bacon	[illegible]	100

To shorten matters, England bought as much from us last year as all the rest of the world, including the U. S., put together. Do you wish to destroy that market, a sure and certain market, bound to increase largely every year, for an uncertain market across the border, where almost the same identical products are raised as are raised in Canada?

Sixth. It is the farming community whose votes you are trying to get. If you have read any of the evidence given before a committee of the House of Representatives at Washington on the farming question, during the last two years, you will remember that the sworn evidence was to the effect that over one half of the farms in the Eastern States had been abandoned, and that these states actually decreased in population during the past 10 years. Even in the richest State of the Union—New York—the State assessors report, "Everywhere we are confronted with the statement that farming lands are depreciated, that sales are unfrequent, and the industry is gradually growing less profitable; in many instances liens upon farms represent their full value." That wonderful "sixty million" market is accessible to all these farmers, but they are growing poorer every day. Then, what good would it do our farmers to get into that market? To emphasize this point read what the New York Times lately said: "The farmers of the United States are staggering under a burden of mortgages amounting to almost nine thousand millions of dollars"—look! $9,000,000,000. And the Times also said that this vast sum was not used to improve farmers, but to enable farmers to live!

In conclusion let us ask you to explain why certain life-long reformers are not supporting the policy you uphold. You ought to see that there is something wrong with your policy when men like the following refuse to support it:—Hon. Edward Blake, Stephen Caldecott, Vice President Reform Club, Toronto; Hon. Wm. Macdougall, Ottawa; Commodore Welsh, Reform M.P. for P.E.I.; C. N. Skinner, Reform M.P. for St. Johns; S. Alward, M.P.P., A. A. Stockton, M.P.P., and H. A. McKeown, M.P.P., Reform members of Local Legislature, New Brunswick; D. G. Smith, New Brunswick; Edgar Judge, Montreal, ex-President of the Reform Club; Solicitor General Pugsley, New Brunswick, a strong opponent of Hon. Mr. Foster in 1887; ex-Alderman Stephens, Halifax, President of the Reform Association; and Gordon Brown, A. M. Smith, D. Gunn and James Bond, Toronto.

Waiting an answer, either through the press or on the platform, we are

THREE WAITING-TO-BE-CONVERTED TORIES.

Feb. 17, '91.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

LAKEFIELD LOCALS.

The Sudden Death of Mr. John Cox—Movements of Curlers—Notes.

Correspondence of the Review.

SUDDEN DEATH.—We have this week to record the very sudden death of one of our oldest citizens, viz., Mr. John Cox. He was at work on Saturday at his usual avocation at the saw mill and expressed to several that he felt better than he had for years. After tea he lay down on the couch to have a rest, and in a few minutes breathed his last. The doctor was called in and said death was caused by apoplexy. The deceased was 75 years and 5 months old, having been born in Wiltshire, England, in the year 1815, emigrating to Canada in the year 1832, coming to the county of Peterborough. He lived near Hilliard's mills for a great many years and finally settled down in Lakefield about eighteen or twenty years ago.

INSURANCE.—Mr. W. Sanderson, of the Cosmopolitan Life Insurance Company, was in Lakefield and appointed Mr. W. M. Graham as local agent.

CURLING.—Our local curlers took a trip to Bobcaygeon on Thursday to have a friendly game with the Bobcaygeon club, which resulted in a tie. They then had a brush with Lindsay, which resulted in defeat by 4 shots. Two rinks go to Toronto this week to take part in the Tankard Competition which takes place on the 18th and 19th. The rinks are as follows:—

No. 1	No 2
W. A. Eastland,	R. Graham,
J. P. Strickland,	John Clarin,
Thos. Wallan,	Geo. Baladon,
J. G. Grylls, skip.	Geo. Postlewaite, skip

A BAD FALL.—Patrick Sage sustained a very severe fall on the ice on Sunday, which necessitated the calling in of a doctor, but we are pleased to note that he is recovering.

NORWOOD NEWS.

Electric Light for the Village—Successful Anniversary Services.

Correspondence of the Review.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Fred Story, a student of Trinity Medical College, who returned home ill with rheumatic fever, is around and well.

VISIT OF INSPECTION.—Mr. John Seath, High School Inspector, inspected the High school on Friday last.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES.—The Presbyterian anniversary services and tea meeting were throughout a complete success. The numerous speakers acquitted themselves with credit and the choir singing was very good. The soloists of the evening were Miss Cameron and Miss Brundrette, of Peterborough, and Miss Fowlds, of Hastings, all of whom well sustained their reputation.

ELECTIONS.—There is not very much excitement over the elections as yet outside of the "workers." The address to be delivered on Friday night by Hon. MacKenzie Bowell will likely help to stir up a little more energy.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS.—It is understood that the village council have contracted for nine electric lights at a cost of $480 per annum.

PROPOSED NEW SCHOOL BUILDINGS.—An agitation is on foot in our village to erect new high school buildings. We hope to see it materialize as no better investment could be made in the interests of Norwood.

Bell Telephone Exchange

Mr. G. W. Schaffer, successor to Mr. H. Kent in the management of the Peterborough exchange, is now fairly at work in the interests of the company. Mr. Schaffer comes from Belleville and has had an experience for the last 12 years in the construction department. Preparations are being made to remodel many of the town lines and connections in the spring, and in the meantime new 'phones are being put in from time to time. The latest additions are J. W. Bennett, 154; Sawers & Stone, 90; R. G. Sloan's livery, 56.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. G. Gumpricht is in town. Orders may be left at Messrs. Taylor & McDonald's drug store. 1yd65

To Rent.

Farms wanted to rent. Tenants supplied this year at half price. Call or write.

T. HURLEY.
d232f 267 George-st.

335 George-st.

Just arrived—a choice lot of Fearman Hams and Bacon, also some fine Neufchatel Cream Cheese and Northern Spy Apples. Stapleton & Elcombe.

Redpath's Cut Leaf Sugar

In 5 lb. boxes, Redpath's Pure Syrup in 2 lb. tins, Fresh Salmon, 2 tins for 25c.; Finest Canadian Cheese, 2 lbs. for 25c.; Pickles equal to bottled, 15c. per quart or 2 quarts for 25c. All goods cheap. W. J. Morrow. 340 George-st. d41-w8

Good Breakfast Dishes.

Rolled Bacon, Sausage, Head Cheese, Ham, etc. Best brands of these superior meats always on hand. Bacon sold by actual weight. J. J. Howden, 441 George-st. Telephone connection. d40tf

Portraits! Portraits!

E. Michener, General Agent of the Boston Portrait Co., is at the Cavanagh House. He is showing work in Crayon, Pastell and Oil. Will be at the House any time after 5 p.m. Please call and see samples and bring your photos or tintypes with you. 2d36

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. d16w1 6mo

A Complete Line

of the finest soaps in the world. Sunlight Soap, Dingman's Electric Soap, etc. See the large bar I am selling at 5 cents, also the mammoth bar at 10 cents. A large stock of toilets. The largest stock and best value in Peterborough. Alex. Elliott 380 George-st. Peterborough. d41

J. W. Crosby, 333 George-st.

Has now on exhibition the most expensive upright piano in the Dominion of Canada. The scale is new and original, surpassing anything ever placed before the public. The tone is rich, mellow and powerful. The action is a high grade American make. All critics, lovers of music and intending purchasers are invited to inspect it during the next few days. d42f

That's Easily Answered.

"My dear," said Mrs. Cupandsaucer, laying down the evening paper, "what is reciprocity?" "Reciprocity, my angel," said the head of the house, "is easily explained. It means a general evening up,—as, say when Smitters asks me in to take a-er-cigar and I ask him to have another." "Exactly," said Mrs. C., "when I go to Hawley Bros. for tea and I hand Mr. Hawley a dollar and he gives me four or five pounds of splendid green or black mixture, I get the money's worth and he the money. Isn't that it?" "Exactly," said the husband as he reached for his hat. d38f

Foresters's Carnival!
Skating Rink!
To-night!

Unique Costumes!
Elegant Prizes!
Exciting Races!

Guessing Contest!
Curling Bonspiel!
Band Music!

Best of the Series!
Don't Miss It!
Admission 25c.

The Merry Masquerade.

The elections are the ruling topic nowadays, but the public should not allow politics to drive remembrance of the Foresters' great carnival from their minds. It will be the finest thing of the kind ever seen here. Eighteen prizes valued at $100 will be offered for competition, costumes which won prizes at the last carnival being barred out of this. Four guessing prizes are also to be given, for which all may compete. There will be a curling bonspiel, for which suitable prizes are offered. The committee of management have made arrangements with the railway lines for cheap fares from the surrounding stations, and a large crowd of visitors is expected. The fire brigade band will be in attendance as usual. The carnival will be the grandest one of the series. The prizes are now on exhibition in the north window of the Peterborough Bookstore. Don't fail to attend. d46eod

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. All druggists are authorised to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are placing a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have a Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup, or Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

TO-DAY

and the C.P.R. brought us a case of neckwear. Not the only one, more are fast following. The invoices now with us promise many new ideas in this line. The colors range from showy magnificence to the dignified and extremely quiet. The shapes are without number and entirely new. If you are a lover of things rich, if beautiful colors delight your eye—see our neckwear. Many find it profitable to look at goods before buying, why not you?

One thing suggests another. Suits for instance. You may not need one. However it will not hurt to show the goods nor harm you in looking at them. The good impressions made now will bear fruit later on. See the pyramids of goods we have procured for Spring.

T. DOLAN & Co.
Clothiers and Furnishers.

"PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE"

parties still hold the boards. We have a lot of good playing cards at 25c. a pack, or 5 for $1.00. These are worth 40c. each.

SAILSBURY BROS.

FOR MEN ONLY!
VIGOR STRENGTH
[illegible]
[illegible] MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N. Y.

DOMINION

ELECTIONS!

West Peterborough.

HON. JOHN
HAGGART
POSTMASTER GENERAL,

will address a meeting in the Opera House (Peterborough) on the Evening of

TUESDAY, February 24th,

on the public questions of the day.

The gallery will be reserved for Ladies.

THE MEETING will commence at 8 o'clock.

Mr Hall or his representative is invited to be present.

W. H. MOORE,
Pres. Lib.-Con. Ass'n.

W. J. MINORE.
Sec. Lib.-Con. Ass'n.

1891. 1891.

NEW DRESS GOODS!

Very Low in Price.

New Prints,
New Embroideries,
New Check Muslins,
New Wool Tweeds,
New Shirtings,
New Ginghams,
New Table Linens,
New Towelings,
New Flanelettes,
New Shirting Flannels,

Very Low in Price.

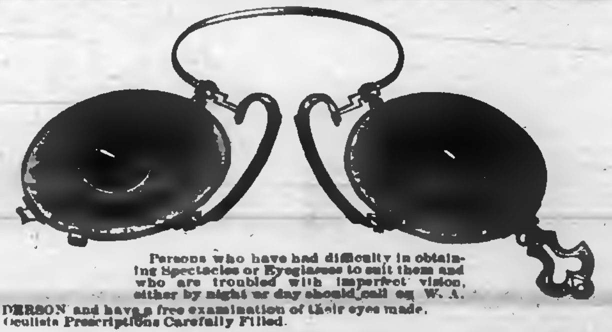
—AT—

THOS. KELLY'S.

20 pieces Double Fold Bleached Sheetings, Plain or Twilled, at 20c. per yard.
10 pieces Double Fold Grey Sheetings, Plain, at 15c. per yard.
5 Bales Grey Cotton (soiled) at 3c. per yard.

—AT—

THOS. KELLY'S, CORNER OF GEORGE AND SIMCOE-STS.



Persons who have had difficulty in obtaining Spectacles or Eyeglasses to suit them and who are troubled with imperfect vision, either by night or day should call on W. A. SANDERSON and have a free examination of their eyes made.
Oculists Prescriptions Carefully Filled.

W. A. SANDERSON, Jeweller and Optician, Peterborough, Ont.

EYESIGHT TESTED.

WHITE LABEL ALE
On Draught.
10 cts. per qt.

☞Try our Bottled Ale, White Label, India Pale, etc., etc.

W. J. MORROW.
Opera House Block, George-st.

IN THE MARKET!

1.—I have sold out the City Hotel to Wm. Clancy, in 19 minutes.
2.—I have sold out Faren & Co. Billiard Room etc., to Faren & Co. in 13 minutes.
3.—The Dry Goods Stock is in the Market. If there is any new blood for this offer call and see me. Want to dispose of it inside of 10 days.

I am off for Australia early next month.

I mean business. If the stock is too large can be reduced to $1,000 in 30 days.

JAMES DOLAN,
George Street, Peterborough.

SELLING AT REDUCED PRICES.

We are offering our Stock of Manufactured Furs at cost, previous to stock taking. The stock comprises a choice assortment of Ladies' and Gents fine Fur Collars, Cuffs, Capes, Caps, Gauntlets and Coats. Also a few Musk Ox, Bear, Oppossum and Goat Robes.

CALL AND BE CONVINCED.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.
Manufacturing Furriers.

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1891.

TO FIGHT LABOR.

The Employers' Labor Union Joins the Shipping Federation

LONDON, Feb. 19.—The Employers' Labor Association of Liverpool representing shipping of 750,000 tonnage, comprising all the leading owners and lines, has joined the Shipping Federation. This raises the aggregate tonnage of the federation to 7,000,000, leaving only 2,000,000 tonnage in the United Kingdom not embraced in the Federation. Of this 2,000,000 one-half is exclusively engaged in trade with foreign ports and negotiations continue to capture the other half for the Federation. This explains the action of the Federation in demanding an unconditional resumption of work before discussing further than the point raised by the dockers in the interest of the coal porters. The Federation's demand has angered the dockers, who accuse it of bad faith.

A correspondent at Cardiff declares that the strike has virtually collapsed—that the Shipping Federation is supplying all the crews necessary.

OUT OF THE DEPTHS.

One of the Seventeen Dead Recovered From the Jeanesville Slope.

HAZLETON, Pa., Feb. 19.—Since the 4th of this month, the day on which the awful disaster occurred at the Jeanesville mine, near this city, untiring efforts have been made to find the seventeen unfortunate men who were imprisoned. When the body of Edward Gallagher was hoisted to the surface to-day the report of finding a body spread through the little mining town rapidly, and before the car containing the body could be put under cover a large and excited crowd had gathered at the mouth of the slope. The car was quickly run into a shop near by and the doors were closed.

DERAILED AND BURNED.

Several Passengers Injured, One Fatally in a Collision on the Illinois Central.

MILAN, Tenn., Feb. 19.—At a trestle six miles from here this morning, at 7 o'clock, while the limited vestibule train on the Illinois Central was running at the rate of 25 miles an hour, it was thrown from the track by a broken rail and hurled into a ditch. A freight train ran into the rear of the passenger, throwing the remainder of the coaches, with the exception of one sleeper, into a deep ditch. A fire broke out in the baggage car, and to the shrieks of the terrified passengers were added the hissing of steam and the crackling of the flames as they quickly devoured the coaches, the engine, cab and tender, and the baggage, mail, express, smoker and ladies' car and one sleeper were consumed.

Ed Silvertooth, baggagemaster, was pinioned in the car by two large trunks and by heroic efforts was saved from the flames. He will die. A number of passengers received minor injuries, but strange to say none of the lady passengers were hurt.

Opera House Burned.

ROCHESTER, N.Y., Feb. 19.—The Grand Opera House (variety theatre) and the Windsor Hotel adjoining were destroyed by fire here this morning. An explosion, the cause of which is unknown, was the cause of the fire. Below the theatre and on the street level were a number of stores and a barber shop. The contents of these places will be a total loss. The loss on the theatre will be [illegible], insurance, $30,000. The Williams & Orr Specialty Company, which was playing at the opera house, loses all its equipments. Miss Wilmuth, an actress, loses $900 worth of dresses.

It Snowed Salt.

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 19.—It snowed here Monday night, and a peculiar feature of the snowstorm was a large quantity of salt which fell with it. The snow melted yesterday and left the salt on the ground at least one-fourth of an inch in thickness. The salt was evidently absorbed from the lake.

Smoked Himself to Death.

NEWBURG, N.Y., Feb. 19.—Fowler Simpson, who was known among his many friends as "Doc," died recently at McAfee, Sussex county, N.J., from the effects of excessive cigaret smoking. Simpson was a bright young man and had corresponded for several years with newspapers till a short time before his death. He was a son of the late William Simpson of McAfee, and a brother-in-law of Mr. J. C. Wilson, a prominent citizen of Warwick, N.Y.

Capron of Galt Surprises Windy City Experts and Downs Maggioli.

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.—The contestants in the short stop billiard tournament last night were Maggioli and Capron, the Canadian. The latter surprised everyone by winning by a score of 400 to 339. His average was 10 10-39. Maggioli's average was 9 6-57.

In the afternoon game Ives won hands down from Shaw by a score of 400 to 179. He averaged 16 4-23 and made a high run of 70. Shaw averaged 8 2-31.

Died From His Injuries.

HAMILTON, Feb. 19.—Terence Reardon who fell from a livery rig while driving home from the horse races on the bay two weeks ago, died in St. Joseph Hospital to-day from his injuries. Reardon, who was 43 years of age, leaves a wife and family of small children.

Found Dead in Bed.

ST. GEORGE, Feb. 19.—Mrs. Robert Witty, the wife of a farmer residing about a mile and a half from the town, retired on Wednesday evening last about 10 o'clock in her usual good health. The following morning her husband arose at the usual hour, dressed and made the fire, and then proceeded to the barn to do the chores. On returning to the house, seeing his wife had not arisen, he went to call her, when he was dumfounded to find her dead.

Taken to Galway Jail.

DUBLIN, Feb. 19.—O'Brien and John Dillon were transferred to Galway jail at daylight this morning. The prisoners were taken from Clonmel in a carriage. Though secrecy was observed the inhabitants got wind of the affair and assembled in crowds at the Tipperary railroad station and enthusiastically cheered the members of parliament as the latters' train stopped for a few moments in their midst. Messrs. O'Brien and Dillon will complete their sentence in Galway jail.

On arriving at the Galway jail Mr. O'Brien was placed in the hospital and Mr. Dillon was locked in a cell.

After More Funds.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—The Healyites have resolved to maintain evicted tenants until the general election.

T. P. O'Connor will resume the work of the American Mission with Mr. Abraham J. Kenny and Mr. Flynn, while Messrs. Sullivan and Cox will make a similar tour of Australia.

Tenants Pay Up.

DUBLIN, Feb. 19.—Owing to cessation of the allowances from the National League the tenants evicted from Lord Clanricarde's estate at Portumna for taking part in the plan of campaign have settled separately with the landlord and have been reinstated in their old places.

McCarthy for Leader.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—A majority of the executive members of the National League in Great Britain have decided that speakers at branch meetings on St. Patrick's Day shall advocate Mr. McCarthy for the leadership.

COPYRIGHT, 1889.

PADDLE YOUR OWN CANOE.

"Voyagers on life's sea,
To yourself be true,
And whate'er your lot may be,
Paddle your own canoe."

"To yourself be true," "and thou canst not then be false to any man." "Self-love is not so vile a sin as self-neglecting." Then "be wise to-day, 'tis madness to defer." Get Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for all affections of the lungs and throat. It is likewise a wonderful liver tonic, and invigorator.

All the year round, you may rely upon Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's not like the sarsaparillas, that are said to be good for the blood in March, April and May. The "Discovery" works equally well at all times, and in all cases of blood-taints, or humors, no matter what their name or nature. It cures all Skin, Scalp and Scrofulous affections, as Eczema, Tetter, Salt-rheum, Fever-sores, White Swellings, Hip-joint disease and kindred ailments.

It's the cheapest blood-purifier, sold through druggists, because you only pay for the good you get.

Your money is returned if it doesn't benefit or cure you.

Can you ask more?

It isn't the usual way

—it's just the reverse—to pay a patient when you can't cure him. Nevertheless, that's what's done by the makers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. They promise to pay you $500 if they can't cure your catarrh, no matter how bad the case. It isn't mere talk—it's business. You can satisfy yourself of it, if you're interested. And you ought to be, if you have catarrh. It's faith in their medicine that's behind the offer. It has cured thousands of the worst cases, where everything else failed. You can be cured, too. If you can't, you get the money. They're willing to take the risk—you ought to be glad to take the medicine.

TALKS FOR THE FARMER

TIMELY INFORMATION OF VALUE TO CANADIAN AGRICULTURISTS.

The Value of Trying New Methods and Making Records of the Work Done and the Results Attained on the Farm Tersely Told.

One great cause of the cry of "hard times" among farmers is that they are pursuing the same methods as their fathers and grandfathers did. A great many of them lack enterprise and progression. The old methods were good enough in the olden times, but have no place with the modern improvements of to-day. In nearly every neighborhood there is one or more farmers who have got out of the old ruts and are looked up to as "fancy" farmers. Yet these "fancy" farmers are the ones that are making money and are up with the times. They always have good seed and crops, improved machinery, neat buildings and stock in good condition, and the old-time farmers call them "lucky" and yet are willing to exchange seed with them and use their pure blooded animals as sires. Every farmer, if he tries, can make some improvements in his methods, and more money from his crops. Let every crop be an experimental one to see what are the results of different times of planting or sowing, different varieties of seed, different methods of cultivation and the use of different manures. Make a written note of everything pertaining to the crop. The minor conditions are of as much importance as the greater ones and should be carefully noted. An experiment is worthless unless all the conditions under which it is tried are known. You can begin to experiment at once with the cattle in the barn. Try the effect of different rations on the milk production of the cows or the growth of the young cattle. Do not guess at the results, but buy a pair of scales and weigh them. Notice what the effect is of keeping your cows in the stable all day and then of letting them out to stand in a cold, windy yard for six hours and see what they tell you in the milk-pail. In the spring sow some oats on fall plowed and some on spring plowed ground and compare them through the season. Hundreds of other experiments may be tried and the farm turned into an experiment station. The lessons learned will be of value and the interest awakened will be intense. Write the results obtained, so that other farmers working in the same line may have the benefit of your experiments. Try it at once and see if by another year you will have found a way to increase the productiveness of your farm and give up some of the old methods that do not pay.—Farm and Home.

A Garden Hint.

All the rubbish in gardens, whether weeds brush, or other material should be raked up and burned early in the winter, or at least before warm weather comes. The squash bugs and other insects that most plague the gardener hide themselves or deposit their eggs on, or under this rubbish. Removing and burning it assures their destruction. For the same reason, it is better not to deposit manure on gardens until cold weather has stopped the movement and depositing of eggs of the insects that do most damage.

A Possible Revival.

An effort is being made to revive the old, gold corset closed in front. As a lacer will be needed, the price of ladies' maids will surely go up. In the name of his highness whalebone let the historic stays be revived.

No Good To Them.

No matter how much rapid transit the street railway companies might give, a good many men wouldn't get home any earlier nights.

MULHOLLAND & ROPER

BANKERS AND INSURANCE AGENTS

Banking Department.

Deposit Accounts opened and Notes discounted at short dates or for twelve months if required. Special attention given to the purchase and collection of Farmers' Sale Notes. Drafts drawn on Merchants Bank of Canada payable in New York, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and at any of the Branches in the Dominion. Cheques on other Banks cashed.

Four to Five per cent. allowed on deposits repayable on demand.

BANKING HOURS.—9.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m

Insurance Department.

MR. FELIX BROWNSCOMBE is a partner in and manager of this department.

Careful attention given to Fire, Accident and Plate Glass Insurance.

The following companies are represented:—

London and Lancashire, City of London, Phoenix of Brooklyn, Caledonian, Royal Canadian, Agricultural, Montreal Plate Glass, Mutual Accident and Plate Glass, and Norwich and London Accident.

OFFICE HOURS.—9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

TURKISH DYES

EASY TO USE.

They are Fast.
They are Beautiful.
They are Brilliant.

SOAP WON'T FADE THEM.

Have YOU used them; if not, try and be convinced.

One Package equal to two of any other make.

Canada Branch: 481 St. Paul Street, Montreal. Send postal for Sample Card and Book of Instructions.

Bermuda Bottled.

"You must go to Bermuda. If you do not I will not be responsible for the consequences." "But, doctor, I can afford neither the time nor the money." "Well, if that is impossible, try

SCOTT'S EMULSION

OF PURE NORWEGIAN COD LIVER OIL.

I sometimes call it Bermuda Bottled, and many cases of CONSUMPTION, Bronchitis, Cough or Severe Cold

I have CURED with it; and the advantage is that the most sensitive stomach can take it. Another thing which commends it is the stimulating properties of the Hypophosphites which it contains. You will find it for sale at your Druggist's, in Salmon wrapper. Be sure you get the genuine.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Belleville.

"HARVARD" BRONCHIAL SYRUP

CURES COUGHS [illegible] SYRUP [illegible] and every form of THROAT TROUBLE

Large Bottles, 25c. Extra Large, 50c.

As the name implies, emanates from the Medical Faculty of Harvard University. The [illegible] best medical skill and [illegible] America were employed in [illegible], with a result that has [illegible] the expectations of its [illegible] has proved a wonder[illegible] from [illegible] it is pleasant to the taste and [illegible] free from injurious ingredients.

THE [illegible] OF THE AGE.

"I [illegible] for throat irritation." [illegible] B. Chambers, Nanaimo, [illegible] "We have used it in our family and find it an excellent remedy." C. C. Colby, President of the Council, House of Commons, Ottawa. —"It is the most satisfactory cough medicine I have ever tried." Ross McKenzie, C.P.R. Office, Montreal. —"I cheerfully recommend it for all it claims to be." Rev. J. A. Dufresne, Sherbrooke, Que. —"Have used it myself with the grandest results." J. C. McIlwraith, Montreal, Que.

JUST TRY IT ONCE

A Delightful Medicine for Children as well as for Adults.

If your dealer does not keep it send price in stamps to the proprietor,

A. J. LAWRENCE Montreal

Choicest Brands —OF— FLOUR!

BAKERS and PASTRY —AT— MELDRUM & DAVIDSON'S

Quality Guaranteed.

FEED:

All kinds always on hand. Orders left at Ormond & Walsh's or McDonald's drug stores will be promptly attended to.

Mill Telephone No. 106.

LOWEST PRICES FOR CASH.

OPEN FOR INSPECTION!

A handsome and very useful line of

CASE GOODS

COMPRISING

Carver Sets,

Ladies' and Gentlemen's

COMPANIONS

These Goods are the Best English Make.

KINGAN & Co

—ONTARIO—

Planing Mills!

Planing, Matching, Mouldings, Band Sawing & Turning, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Storm Sash.

JAMES Z. ROGERS.

GEO. B. SPROULE, ARTIST & PHOTOGRAPHER

[illegible]

176 Charlotte-st. . . . . . Peterborough.

FRAMES & PICTURE MOULDINGS.

Bookbinding!

Magazines, Periodicals, Illustrated Papers, Law, Music,

and all kinds of Books Bound in the very best style of the art. First-class Material and Work. Close Prices.

REVIEW PT'G CO.

LIMITED,

BOOKBINDERS, STATIONERS & ACCOUNT BOOK MANUFACTURERS.

350 George-st.

Bell Telephone Co., OF CANADA.

Capital, - $1,500,000.00.

Head Office, MONTREAL.

AND. ROBERTSON, — President.
C. F. SISE, — Vice-Pres. and Man'g. Dir.
C. P. SCLATER, Secy.-Treas.
HUGH C. BAKER, Man., Ont. Dep., Hamilton.

300 EXCHANGES.

Long distance lines give unequalled facilities for talking between cities, towns and villages.

If you wish to speak to Kingston, Belleville, Port Hope, Lindsay, Lakefield, Millbrook, Omemee, Toronto, Hamilton, etc., use the wires of the

BELL TELEPHONE Co,

H. W. KENT, Local Manager

d46-6mo

UNION CREDIT & PROTECTION ASSOCIATION.

FOR the Collection of Old and Worthless Accounts, in any part of the world, and no charge if not collected. This Association has local offices in Canada and United States. Head and general office, 60 Adelaide-st. East, Toronto. Rooms, 10, 11, 12 and 13. O. E. COLLINS, General Manager; & H. S. ANDREWS, Sec. Address all communications to Toronto, Ont., office. Telephone No. 2[illegible]. This is the only Association that settles accounts and advances the money to the creditor if desired.

O. E. COLLINS, Manager

DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON, Solicitors for the Association at Peterborough.

August 20th, 188[illegible]. d31 w

Travel.

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY OF CANADA.

The direct route between the west and all points on the Lower St. Lawrence and Baie de Chaleur, Province of Quebec, also New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward, Cape Breton and the Magdalene Islands, Newfoundland and St. Pierre.

Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax daily (Sunday excepted) and run through without change between these points in 30 hours.

The through express train cars of the Intercolonial Railway are brilliantly lighted by electricity and heated by steam from the locomotive.

New and elegant Buffet Sleeping and Day Cars are run on all through express trains.

The popular summer sea bathing and fishing resorts of Canada are along the Intercolonial or are reached by that route.

Canadian, European Mail and Passenger Route.

Passengers for Great Britain or the Continent leaving Montreal on Thursday morning will join outward mail steamer at Rimouski the same evening.

The attention of shippers is directed to the superior facilities offered by this route for the transport of flour and general merchandise intended for the Eastern Provinces and Newfoundland, also for shipments of grain and produce intended for the European market.

Tickets may be obtained and all information about the route, also freight and passenger rates on application to

N. WEATHERSTON, Western Freight and Passenger Agent, 93 Rossin House Block, York street, Toronto.

D. POTTINGER, Chief Superintendent.

Railway Office, Moncton, N.B., 2nd July, 1890 ly

CANADIAN PACIFIC RY.

SETTLERS' TRAINS

WILL LEAVE ON FEBRUARY 24th, 1891 AT 9.00 P.M.

AND EVERY TUESDAY THEREAFTER DURING MARCH AND APRIL WITH COLONIST SLEEPER ATTACHED FOR

MANITOBA AND THE CANADIAN NORTH-WEST

[redacted]

For full information and descriptive pamphlets of Manitoba, the North West Territories and British Columbia. Apply to any C. P. R. Agent.

Carbon Gaslight

A RIVAL TO DAYLIGHT!

A new and Brilliant Illuminating Power—Clear, Steady and Mellow. Specially suited for Stores and large Buildings, Machine Shops, &c. A saving of 30 to 40 per cent. on gas can be effected by this new light

See it Burning at the Store of

J. E. NOBLE & Co.

287 George-st, South.

Telephones—Bell No. 142, Ontario No. 156.

JOHN NUGENT, CHEMIST AND DRUGGIST.

Prescriptions Carefully Compounded.

Try Nugent's Remedies for Colds, Coughs and affections of the chest and throat.

J. NUGENT,

Drug Store, 170 Hunter-st. west.

BANK of TORONTO

Capital $2,000,000 00
Reserve Fund............ 1,500,000 00

PETERBORO' BRANCH.

SAVINGS BANK

SPECIAL ADVANTAGES are derived by depositing money in our Savings Bank Department.

1. "ONE DOLLAR saved is one dollar earned."
2. DEPOSITS of ONE DOLLAR and upwards are received and interest allowed thereon.
3. INTEREST is added to the principal on the 31st day of May and 30th day of November, in each year.
4. MONEY bears interest from the day it is deposited with the Bank until the day of withdrawal.
5. THE DEPOSITOR is subject to no delay whatever.
6. THE SECURITY offered by this Bank is undoubted, as will be seen by the large reserve held and the amount of surplus available for depositors and note holders.

BUSINESS WITH FARMERS.

FARMERS' NOTES discounted at lowest rates. SPECIAL ATTENTION is given to the collection of Farmers' Sale Notes, and advances made thereon.

NOTE FORMS furnished free of charge on application.

DEPOSITS.

DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS opened subject to withdrawal by cheque on demand.

SPECIAL DEPOSITS.—Deposit Receipts issued bearing interest at current rates.

JOHN L. GOWER, Manager

d116-wf

BLANK FORMS

Deeds,
Mortgages,
Home Leases,
Farm Leases,
Agreements,
Short form of Lease
Lease of Land,
Magistrates Blanks,
Division Court Blanks,
etc., etc.,

Printed on good paper and correct forms.

AT THE

REVIEW STATIONERY.

Medical.

DR. SCOTT.

OFFICE—176 Brock-st. d118w28

F. D. GOLDSMITH, M. D.

L. R. C. P., L. S. A., L. R. C. P., London, Eng.,

HAS permanently located in Peterborough. Office and residence, 126 Brock-st., formerly occupied by Mr. J. B. McWilliams. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d47-w8-ly

D. H. CARMICHAEL, M. D., C. M., [illegible]

GRADUATE OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY, Fellow of Trinity Medical School, Licentiate of Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh, L. M. of Simpson's Maternity Hospital, Edinburgh. Office in Mr. Alexander's new residence one door north of the late Dr. O'Sullivan's, George-st. d[illegible]-wy76

DR. B. E. McKENZIE, B. A.

Lecturer on Orthopedic Surgery in the Women's Medical College, and in Toronto University; Consulting Orthopedic surgeon to Victoria Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto.

Diseases of the Joints and Deformities Only

Bloor-st. W. (near Yonge-st.) Toronto, Consultation from 10 to 2. On Friday and Saturday by appointment only.

Will be at the Grand Central Hotel, Peterborough, March 14th. next.

DR. MOHER,

HAS removed to 214 Hunter-st., opposite Marble Works. Office upstairs.

Legal.

HATTON & WOOD.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office, corner of George and Hunter-sts., over T. Dolan & Co's. store. MONEY TO LOAN.

E. E. WOOD, B. A. G. W. HATTON.

SAWERS & STONE.

BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyances, &c. Office, Hunter-st., Peterborough.

MONEY TO LOAN.

E. B. STONE, d168-wdl C. W. SAWERS.

POUSSETTE & JOHNSTON.

BARRISTERS and SOLICITORS, 379 Water-st.

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C. W. F. JOHNSTON.

EDWARD A. PECK.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, etc., 352 George-st., Peterborough.

Private Funds to loan at 6 per cent.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter-st., Peterborough next English church. Money to loan at lowest rates of interest.

E. H. D. HALL. LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN O'MEARA.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, &c. Office 367 George-st. d-w

JOHN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office: No. 415 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont., next door north of new post office. MONEY TO LOAN. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter-sts., over McClelland's Jewellery store. d115w18

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water-st., Peterborough. d37w

DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES. Money to Loan. Office, 417 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont.

ARTHUR STEVENSON, B. A.
R. M DENNISTOUN, M. A.

STRATTON & HALL.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, &c., Peterborough, Ont. Office:—Next door to Post Office on Hunter-St.

W. A. STRATTON, LL. B. R. R. HALL. d123

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block, Peterborough. wd49

J. E. BELCHER

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George-st. d86w8

Builders and Contractors

R. WEBB,

BRICKLAYER AND CONTRACTOR. All work done substantially and expeditiously. Address R. WEBB, Peterborough. Residence, 386 Aylmer-st. 1yd128

J. J. HARTLEY.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P. O. Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer-sts. 1yd139

WM. H. McILWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 22. d140

W. R. WHITEHAIR.

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 386, Peterborough P.O. d85-1yr

JAS. R. DONELL.

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being a practical man, he trusts to be able to give patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.

yd18 JAS. R. DONELL.

Cured in 1 to 5 DAYS. Guaranteed not to cause Stricture. Mf'd only by The Evans Chemical Co. TORONTO, CAN.

Big G is acknowledged the leading remedy for Gonorrhoea & Gleet. The only safe remedy for Leucorrhoea or Whites. I prescribe it and feel safe in recommending it to all sufferers. A. J. STONER, M. D., DECATUR, ILL. Sold by Druggists. PRICE $1.00.

G. A. SCHOFIELD, Agt., Peterborough d 39-ly

THE CENTRAL CANADA Loan and Savings Co,

Authorized Capital.................. $5,000,000
Subscribed Capital.................. 2,000,000
Paid-up Capital....................... 300,000
Reserve Fund.......................... 150,000
Invested Funds........................ 2,379,153.57

OFFICE.—No. 437, George-st., Peterborough.

DEPOSITS received at current rates of interest, paid or compounded half-yearly.

DEBENTURES issued in Currency or Sterling, with interest coupons attached, payable in Canada or in England. Executors and Trustees are authorized by law to invest in the Debentures of this Company.

MONEY ADVANCED on Real Estate security at current rates and on favorable conditions as to repayment.

Mortgages and Municipal Debentures purchased.

GEO. A. COX, Managing Director.

d80w8

BARAVENA MILK FOOD

FOR INFANTS is the safest, cheapest and easiest to digest. [illegible] any Food made. Ask your Druggist. THE IRELAND [illegible]

IF YOU WISH to Advertise Anything Anywhere at Any time

WRITE TO GEO. P. ROWELL & Co. No. 10 Spruce Street, NEW YORK.

SOCIETY, COMMERCIAL AND BOOK PRINTING!

First-Class Work. at Low Prices.

Review Office

350 GEORGE ST.

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE.

February 1st. 1891.

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
[illegible]	Montreal and East, etc.	[illegible]
[illegible]	C. O. & Q. R.	[illegible]
11 20 a m	Toronto and West, via	[illegible]
11 20 p m	O. & Q. R.	5 00 p m
	Grand Trunk, East & West	1 15 p m
	do East	5 30 p m
12 00 a m 5 30 p m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west.	6 00 a m 4 30 p m
8 30 a m 5 15 p m	Millbrook and Port Hope. do do	11 15 a m 5 30 p m
8 25 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings.	1 00 p m
4 00 p m	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	11 15 a m
10 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clydesdale, Paudash and Cheddar, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 30 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily.	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays
	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do do	4 30 p m
	British Mails per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	9 00 p m
	Via New York, Mondays.
12 noon	Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	4 30 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire, Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Australia, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings Bank, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxemburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey. And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before. Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guiana, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books, &c., 4c for 4 oz. Other Registration fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Payment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 12 cents, papers 4 cents.

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents. H. C. ROGERS, Post-Master

MUNN & CO. SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN AGENCY for PATENTS

A pamphlet of information and abstract of the laws, showing How to Obtain Patents, Caveats, Trade Marks, Copyrights, sent free. Address MUNN & CO. 361 Broadway, New York.

WEDDING CARDS.

LATEST STYLES AT THE

Review Stationery Store.

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XXV.—No. 44. PETERBOROUGH, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1891. TEN CENTS A WEEK

Probabilities.

Strong winds and gales, south-west shifting to north-west; comparatively mild in morning, followed before night by weather turning colder and snow flurries.

SWISS Needle Work EMBROIDERY.

We take pleasure in annoucing that we have just received Ex. SS. Sardinian) direct from the manufactory in St. Gall, Switzerland, our new Spring collection of Needle Work Embroidery for the season of 1891. We placed unusual large orders for these goods when the stitch prices were at the lowest point. The value is exceptionally good. The designs were selected with the greatest care and we think will merit your approval. Special discount allowed to customers purchasing in quantities of a dozen yards and upwards.

ROBERT FAIR,
Sign of the Golden Lion,
383 George Street, Peterborough.
Ontario.(144 and Bell Telephone (165)

KID GLOVES! KID GLOVES!

W. W. JOHNSTON
has just received a complete assortment of
Black and Colored
Kid Gloves
at 85c. per pair.
The Best in the Market at the Price.

SPECIAL VALUE IN
Bed Room Towels and Kitchen Towelling.
Call and see our
ART MUSLIN
at 15c. per yard.
CRYSTAL BLOCK
410 George-st.

Musical.

ORGAN, PIANOFORTE and SINGING
DR. DAVIES,
Organist of St. John's church, late of Christ Church Cathedral and of St. James's Cathedral, Toronto, receives pupils at his residence, 46 McDonnel-st. At home each day from 9 till 10 a. m. and from 2 till 3 p. m. to make engagements, etc. d48-1m

Wood and Coal.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.
W. B. FERGUSON,
Telephone Connection. Agent

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of COAL AND WOOD, which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
d&w JAMES STEVENSON.

PETERBOROUGH WATER CO.
OFFICE - - 186 HUNTER-ST.
W. HENDERSON, Superintendent.
W. ADAMS, Collector.
All water rates and accounts must be paid at the office. Mr. Adams will be in the office from 2 to 5 p.m. every day

Awnings. Tents. AND Sails.

ALFRED KINGSCOTE has opened out in Dunsford's Block, on Water-st. opposite the market, where he is prepared to do all kinds of Awning, Tent and Sail making.
Good Work and Low Prices. Remember the place
A. KINGSCOTE,
498-1yr No. 344 Water-st.

EDWIN [illegible],
TAXIDERMIST
and Dealer in Eyes, Artificial Leave and Frostings.
BIRDS, ANIMALS, FISH and SNAKES stuffed and Mounted in and out of cases in the best lifelike style at lowest prices. DEER'S HEADS a specialty. A stock of foreign and native birds always on hand for sale. Residence, No. 1?? Hervey-st., Peterborough
4??4-?d-ly

STOVES.

We have a few New and Second Hand Coal Heaters left and are running them off cheap.

LAMPS.

Beautiful designs, all styles, reduced in price.

W. G. BAIN & CO.
George-st.

For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE,
A QUANTITY OF PAPER CUTTINGS and shavings. Apply at REVIEW Office.

TO LET.

Store and Dwelling
No. 281 George-st., now occupied by J.J. Turner. Good stand for grocery and boarding house. STORE and DWELLING No. 283 George-st. DWELLING HOUSES No. 38 Hunter-st., and 18 and 20 Queen-st. JOHN J. LUNDY. dtf

HALL, INNES & Co.
See our window of
NEW
EMBROIDERIES
Hall, Innes & Co.
130, 132 and 134 Simcoe-st.

REMOVAL.

DR. CARMICHAEL
has removed to his new office and residence, corner of Water and Brock-sts., (opposite the Court House. d148-w52-3mo

A. CLEGG,
Funeral Director.
Ware rooms, - - 437 George-st.
Residence, - 14 Benson-st.
S. CLEGG, Residence, 256 Stewart street. Telephone.

MONEY TO LOAN.
A LARGE amount of private funds has been placed in my hands for loaning on farm security.
J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM,
d6w2 Solicitor, 136 Hunter-st.

SAWS Filed and Gummed in First Class Style. Knives, Scissors, Tools, &c., ground and sharpened. S. W. ENGLISH, shop, 128 Charlotte-st. dis-wly

D. BELLEGHEM,
Issuer of Mariage Licenses,
PETERBOROUGH.

LADIES' JERSEYS
In all the Leading Styles
at Lowest Prices at
PORT HOPE KNITTING WORKS
382 George-st.

SEALED TENDERS marked "For Mounted Police Clothing Supplies," and addressed to the Honorable the Minister of Railways and Canals, will be received up to noon on Monday, 9th March, 1891.

Printed forms of tender containing full information as to the articles and quantities required, may be had on application to the undersigned.

No tender will be received unless made on such printed forms. Patterns of articles may be seen at the office of the undersigned.

Each tender must be accompanied by an accepted Canadian bank cheque for an amount equal to ten per cent. of the total value of the articles tendered for, which will be forfeited if the party decline to enter into a contract when called upon to do so, or if he fail to supply the articles contracted for. If the tender be not accepted the cheque will be returned.

No payment will be made to newspapers inserting this advertisement without authority having been first obtained.

FRED. WHITE,
Comptroller N. W. M. Police.
Ottawa, Feby. 9th, 1891. 2644

AT

TURNBULL'S

Owing to so many covered shapes being worn this season we have a quantity of untrimmed Felt Hats and Bonnets left of all styles for Ladies and Children which we have put together in one lot and are clearing out at

25c. each.

This includes everything. Our friends may know what bargains await them as many of them have been sold during the season at from $1.00 to $1.50. Remember you get the choice of this lot for 25c.

We are showing in one of our windows Spring Prints, which are but an indication of the quantities of handsome patterns we have inside.

Our Spring Flanneletts have arrived. The patterns are new and darker, what so many people want. They are very pretty. Quantities of new goods opened every day. We show a handsome range of new shades in Dress Goods suitable for Wedding Outfits.

Further particulars of what we will offer this Spring as special inducements next week.

J. C. TURNBULL
George & Simcoe-sts., Peterborough.

DOMINION

ELECTIONS!

West Riding of Peterborough.

MR. STEVENSON'S

Committee Rooms

OLD COUNCIL CHAMBER,

OPERA HOUSE BLOCK.

Open Every Evening. All Liberal Conservatives and Citizens wishing to maintain the present Government are invited to meet at the Rooms in the interests of the Conservative Candidate.

W. H. MOORE,
Pres. Lib.-Con. Ass'n
W. J. MINORE,
Sec. Lib.-Con. Ass'n

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

Do
Do you
Do you buy
Do you buy Dry
Do you buy Dry Goods!
Perhaps
Perhaps you
Perhaps you do.
Look
Look for
Look for our
Look for our Opening.
On
On next
On next Saturday.
New
New Store,
New Store, Stock,
New Store, Stock, Prices,
365
365 George
365 George Street.
O.
O, C.
O. C. ROWSE. 444-w9

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1891.

INTERESTING IRISH NEWS.

SECRET CONFERENCE WITH THE CLONMEL PRISONERS

Harrington and O'Brien Alleged to Have Communicated With Each Other—Where is that £8000? Archbishop Walsh Takes a Determined Stand Against Parnell.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—No great headway has been made during the week in the question of the leadership of the Irish party. The Parnellites are ominously quiet. The McCarthyites are in the fore with meetings and preparing for war. Beginning in Ireland Sunday, Parnell will endeavor to inspire his friends with the hope that he will yet triumph. Accounts received from Ireland do not support his claim but rather indicate a decline of strength. The McCarthyites are certainly advancing in preparation for the campaign. They will have the systematic support of the priests, who are unrelenting in denouncing Parnell. Both sections are now regretful that a question has been raised as to how the fund of £8000 handed to O'Brien and Harrington was used, but being raised both sections are determined to make a statement on the subject. The Parnellites rely on O'Brien to clear them of the charge of unwarrantable use of the money, but doubting whether O'Brien will be allowed to engage in the controversy in his prison cell application has been made to the Dublin Executive to permit Mr. Sexton as the McCarthy nominee with Mr. Harrington to confer with Mr. O'Brien. The request has been referred to Mr. Balfour, who will not accede unless there is reason to suppose the conference would further embitter the quarrel between the factions. Harrington has been secretly communicating with O'Brien since the latter went to Clonmel and has placed him in possession of the facts in regard to the fund dispute.

United Ireland.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—United Ireland is still under control of the Parnellites, whatever change may be about to take place. To-day the paper says that with the imprisonment of John Dillon and William O'Brien dies the hope of re-uniting the Irish party as at present constituted. It is the duty, the paper declares, of every Irishman to overthrow the banner raised by a faction under British control, with the object of dividing the Irish.

INSANE ON A TRAIN.

An Insane Man Detained by the Police at Guelph.

GUELPH, Feb. 20.—On the arrival of the midnight train from Toronto Thursday night a young man, apparently about 23 years of age and of respectable appearance, alighted from the train and by his strange behavior soon attracted the attention of the police, who took him in charge and lodged him in the cells. He appeared to be insane and was unable to give any account of himself, other than that he had come from Heathcourt, near Meaford. Upon searching his pockets a sum of money amounting to about $34 was found, also a Methodist class ticket for February, bearing the initials "G. S. H.," and a circular issued by the "Holiness" convention in Galt. In appearance the young man is of medium height, full face, clean shaven and of pleasing countenance. He is clad in dark clothing, black overcoat, astrachan cap and a white cravat.

NICARAGUA CANAL BILL.

American Senators Discuss a Bill That England Will Resent.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The Senate to-day took up the Nicaragua Canal bill giving the guarantee of the United States Government to the company's 4 per cent. bonds to the extent of one hundred million of dollars. In the discussion Senator Vest said that no greater calamity could come upon the world than a war between the United States and Great Britain. This bill assumed, for the first time, that the Clayton-Bulwer treaty anent the isthmus trade was annulled, while Great Britain since 1850 has repeatedly affirmed that the treaty is in force. In passing the bill the House must accept the consequences, if not war, a condition of animosity, antagonism and distrust which would operate injuriously on the interests of both countries and of the world. The bill assumes exclusive control of the canal by the United States. Many others spoke, but the Senate adjourned without action.

Blank Deeds, Blank Mortgages, Blank Transfers, House and Land Leases, etc., on hand at the REVIEW Stationery.

DEATH IN A TUNNEL.

SHOCKING RAILWAY ACCIDENT IN NEW YORK

Two New York Central Trains Collide in Fourth-avenue Fire Adds to the Horrors of the Scene—Six Persons Killed—The Engineer of a Passenger Train Locked Up

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—A terrible collision between trains occurred in the tunnel of the New York Central and the New York & New Haven roads this morning. One of the trains caught fire and a deplorable loss of life resulted. At 7.05 the 7.01 New Haven local passenger train, north-bound, approached the station at Eighty-sixth-street. A mist filled the tunnel and the lights had partially failed because of the storm of snow and hail which had lasted all morning. A train of sleeping-cars was ahead on the same track as the New Haven train. This was run into by the New Haven local, which was going at a high rate of speed. The crash was terrible, and both trains, engines and cars were completely telescoped and smashed to atoms. The cars of the forward train caught fire from a stove, and the flames rose high above the wreck.

Three alarms of fire were sent out, followed immediately by two calls for ambulance. The latter were responded to by physicians from Bellevue and Harlem hospitals. When the police, doctors and firemen reached the scene they found approach difficult by reason of the complete wreck of the cars, combined with the smoke, flames and the narrow limits of the tunnel.

Five persons were killed in the accident and seven injured. The victims are all employes of the road. The passengers in the New Haven train were badly shaken up, but beyond some slight cuts and bruises none of them were badly hurt.

The passengers were taken from the track back to the Grand Central depot in a New Haven train that was just passing at the time in the east tunnel. Engineer Fowler of the New Haven train said that when at 72nd-street he got the white signal, which was a signal to go ahead. There was no ringing of the bell as is customary when the danger signal is up. He was running at the rate of about 20 miles an hour on the northbound track. He was so close to the "shop train" before he was aware of it that he telescoped it before he was hardly able to put on the air brakes.

The "shop train," consisting of seven cars, included several sleepers that had come into the Grand Central depot early in the morning, and was on the way to the repair shop, as is the custom after a trip. On the telescoped shop train there were probably a dozen or more employes, both of the road and of the Wagner Company.

Five bodies were taken from the wreck up to 1 o'clock. They were three men, one woman and a boy. The latter was the newsboy of the Boston and Albany express.

How the Accident Occurred.

The New Haven accommodation train, due at the eastern end of its route at 10.04, carried a load of passengers out of the Grand Central Depot. Ahead of it was a shop train of seven sleeping cars that had come in during the night before. It was going to Mott Haven to be cleaned up for to-night's trip eastward. It carried nobody can tell exactly how many shop hands, in addition to its own crew of porters, cleaners and newsboys. The two trains were on the north-bound track, a block apart. The railroad block in the tunnel is equal to almost 10 or 12 city blocks. The shop train had gone as far as Eighty-sixth-street when for some reason at present unknown it slowed up and prepared to stop at the station at that point. At Eighty-fourth-street the accommodation overtook the shop train, then standing or moving very slowly past the Eighty-sixth-street station. The accommodation was under good headway and its engine crashed into the last of the seven sleepers. The rear car of the shop train completely telescoped the one before it. Switch engine No. 8, bound from the Mott Haven yard to the Grand Central Depot, was coming along at the same time on the opposite track. As No. 8 was passing the cars that had been thrown together were hurled against it. The switch engine was thrown from the track. Engineer Bailey, his fireman and six other men were aboard at the time. Bailey was injured, not seriously, but none of the others were hurt.

The Wreck Took Fire.

In a moment the flames burst from the wreck and clouds of smoke rolled up through the air-vent in the tunnel that was almost directly over the scene of the accident. Fearful cries for help were heard by those who were passing in the street overhead. Citizens ran for the police and sent alarms for the firemen and in a few minutes assistance came galloping. Burned and breathless men, coal black with smoke and with their clothes blazing, then began to crawl up through the air-vent when ladders had been hastily let down. When no more came up, firemen went down with axes and hose and broke into the wreck from which the flames were rising. Out of the broken window of the last car, where the engine of the accommodation train had pinned him fast, hung a man crying wildly for help. No other cry rose than from the awful pile. A dozen axes smashed the woodwork that held him, and he was taken out. He was a car cleaner and said that his name was Hancke.

A Priest's Bravery.

Father Walker of St. Lawrence Church climbed down into the smoking hole where the fire was raging. He stood by while the work of rescue was going on and prayed with Hancke. "In all my days I never saw so horrible a thing," said he. When the end of the car was smashed in the dead were reached. The dreadful masses of burned flesh were laid on the south-bound track and hoisted up to the street through the air-vent on stretchers. They were laid in the little park that enclosed the air-vents and covered with blankets.

A great crowd gathered at the spot. Every fresh body brought out steamed as if it had been parboiled in addition to being burned. Half a dozen fire engines had pumped streams of water into the gap before the wreck could be approached.

While the firemen worked by the aid of lanterns to recover bodies gangs of trainmen were laboring to raise the derailed switch engine and put it back on its track. The engine of the accommodation was pulled out of the wreck and back to the depot yard. A more complete wreck than the telescoped car it would be impossible to imagine.

Six persons were killed and four injured. No passenger on the accommodation was hurt and even Engineer Fowler escaped with slight hurts. The passengers were taken back to the Grand Central Depot. All those who were killed were employes of the road.

The Dead.

JOHN HANCKE, 30 years, car cleaner, both legs crushed and left leg and foot burned. He was conscious when taken out and was removed to the hospital, where he died at 10 o'clock.

MICHAEL MULLANE, 13 years, was taken from the wreck dead from a fracture of the skull and left jaw.

A WOMAN taken out dead, terribly lacerated about the head and body, supposed to be Mrs. Nellie Supple, a car cleaner.

MRS. ELLEN FAY, a car cleaner, was taken out burned beyond recognition, identified by means of a gold ring on one of the fingers.

AN UNKNOWN COLORED MAN, burned about the body.

AN UNKNOWN WHITE MAN, burned about the back of the head and lower portion of the legs and face.

The Injured

WILLIAM D. BROWN, brakeman on the shop train, injured internally.

DANIEL M. CALBERTH, colored cook, suffering from shock, may recover.

LOUIS FOWLER, engineer.

JOHN SOFIELD, member of 16 Truck Company overcome by smoke.

It is alleged the accident was due to the neglect of Engineer Fowler of the accommodation train to notice the danger signal and the ringing of a gong, which would have indicated that the shop train was but a short distance ahead. Fowler and his fireman, however, assert that there was no danger signal and that the signal at 72nd-street indicated a clear track. On the other hand it is claimed that the red light was up and that the mechanical and electrical systems of signals were in first-class order. The block system is used in the tunnel.

The body of the unknown white man has been identified as that of James B. Flynn, a machinist 50 years old. There now remains but one body to be identified. Engineer Fowler has been arrested.

A C. P. R. Collision.

LACHUTE, Que., Feb. 20.—About 4.15 this morning two freight trains collided about two miles west of St. Hermans, on the C.P.R., completely demolishing both engines and several cars. Both engineers and the firemen were injured. A man named Fuessel was killed and several others more or less seriously injured.

MANY SUDDEN DEATHS.

A Point Edward Yardsman Decapitated and Otherwise Horribly Mangled.

POINT EDWARD, Feb. 20.—Angus McDonald, formerly yardmaster at Fort Gratiot, was switching cars during the night in the G.T.R. yards here when he fell and an engine and eight cars ran over him twice before it became known that he was hurt. His body was cut in many pieces. His head lay 20 feet from the largest portion of the trunk and his arms and legs were cut to shreds and scattered around the yard. McDonald was a single man, his parents residing here.

Fell to His Death.

William Brock, aged 74, residing with his nephew, William Simpson, West Gararaxa, fell through the barn floor to the stable floor below. He supposed he had dislocated his hip, but early next morning became very restless and said he was dying. The doctor was summoned and when he arrived Brock was dead, the cause of death being, it is supposed, concussion of the brain or spine.

Disastrous Boiler Explosion.

MADOC, Feb. 20.—Yesterday a boiler exploded in a small steam sawmill about three miles from the village owned by Frank Cantleman. One of his sons was thrown 20 feet and severely scalded. His recovery is very doubtful. Another son escaped with slight injuries. Boiler and building are a complete wreck.

Fatally Crushed While at Work.

DOON, Feb. 20.—A young man by the name of Leyburn, aged about 18 years, was assisting to move a heavy pressing machine in Perine's factory, when by some means it fell over on him and crushed him underneath it. He lived two hours.

Only An Hour's Notice.

ST. THOMAS, Feb. 20.—Fritz Newman, aged 74, had been complaining of billousness, but was able to be around. A physician was called for the first time at noon yesterday. During the afternoon Mr. Newman became worse, and was taken with convulsions, expiring at 4 o'clock.

Found Dead in Bed.

WATFORD, Feb. 20.—J. C. G. Lamont, aged 64, was found dead in bed yesterday, the cause being trouble of the heart. The old gentleman was at Strathroy the previous evening apparently in his usual health.

A Toronto Girl Killed by a Grip Car.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—Miss Haas, aged 21, recently from Toronto and on a visit to her uncle, Robert Nichols, was fatally injured last night while alighting from a grip car, her skull being fractured.

Sudden Death in Minto.

HARRISTON, Feb. 20.—Hugh Shannon, a prominent farmer of Minto, expired suddenly at noon to-day. Death is supposed to have been caused from an affection of the heart. He was a member of the Minto council for many years.

Died from a Fall.

MINTO, Feb. 20.—Mrs. E. Pringle had the misfortune to fall upon the ice recently and sustained a fracture of the hip and severe injuries to her spine, from the effects of which she died yesterday.

Dropped Dead in the Street.

LISTOWEL, Feb. 20.—James Brock, sr. of Elma, without warning, dropped dead of heart disease at Myer's Mill in this town. Brock was a carpenter by trade and came to Canada in 1857.

A Fatal Runaway.

HANOVER, Feb. 20.—A horse driven by David Jackson, aged 77, of Walkerton, ran away here and Jackson was thrown against a telegraph pole, receiving fatal injuries.

Died in His Chair.

WELLAND, Feb. 20.—James Hyatt, an inmate of the jail, died suddenly in a chair yesterday.

Fire at Gananoque.

GANANOQUE, Ont., Feb. 20.—Fire broke out this morning in A. C. Shields' boot and shoe store in McIntyre's building in King-street. It was quickly extinguished, however, but not before the building had been slightly and the stock considerably damaged. The loss on the stock is estimated to be about $1600. The damage to the building and stock is covered by insurance.

Carelessness Cost a Hand.

ALLISTON, Feb. 20.—As a consequence of scuffling around machinery, James Delainey lost his left hand at Thompsonville. It appears a young man who acts as tail sawyer for Mr. Tuer in the sawmill, while playing with Delainey threw him towards the saw which was running, and his hand coming in contact with the saw was cut off at the wrist joint.

A Patent Right Case.

MILTON, Feb. 20.—Martin Coster of Milton and George Emmett of Esquesing have been committed for trial on a charge preferred by Nathan Moore of Esquesing of combining to defraud him in May last by procuring from him a promissory note for $125 by falsely pretending that Emmett was giving Coster a similar note, the consideration of both notes being the assignment of a patent right.

FROM ACROSS THE SEA.

AN INTERVIEW WITH "JACK THE RIPPER'S" WIFE.

She is Evidently a Virago—Egyptian Troops Occupy Tokar—The Disestablishment Question in the Imperial Parliament—Emperor William to the People.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—The interest of the public, especially in and about Whitechapel, still centres in the question whether the man Sadler is or is not Jack the Ripper. With a view of throwing light on the matter a reporter interviewed Sadler's wife, who on account of his furious temper is unable to longer live with him.

According to her story the sailor is a man of most peculiar temperament, who flies into an ungovernable rage over nothing at all and commits during these spasms the most violent actions.

"I would not live with him again," added the poor woman, "for when he's in them tantrums he's best left alone. I used to 'umor him like, but I've seed him behave like a lunatics, and many's the time as he's got up rows in cool blood when nobody was a naggin' of 'im.

"But one thing I will say for 'im; never 'ave I knowed 'im lose five minutes at 'is work. No matter how bloomin' drunk 'he' might 'a bin the night afore, he allus comes to time next mornin'."

On being asked whether her husband had a knife, Mrs. Sadler replied that he had a strange looking clasp-knife with a long dagger-like blade. She also declared that Sadler was thoroughly acquainted with every nook and corner of London, and especially of Whitechapel.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

A Close Vote on the Question of Disestablishment in Wales.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—Baron Henry de Worms, Political Secretary of the Colonial Office in the House of Commons, in answer to a question upon Newfoundland matters, said that the Government of Newfoundland had protested against the fact that the convention between Newfoundland and the United States had not been sanctioned by the Imperial Government. Baron de Worms added that the documents relating to the French modus vivendi and the Washington convention negotiations would be laid before the House before the vote on the colonial estimates was taken, so as to enable the House to discuss fully the Home Government's action in the matter.

In the House of Commons this evening Morgan's resolution in favor of disestablishment of the church in Wales was rejected 235 to 203. The close vote was greeted with loud Opposition cheers.

Mr. Gladstone made a speech in favor of disestablishment. His argument, that an enormous majority of the Welsh were outside the pale of the church, and that the opinion of the people expressed in a constitutional manner demanded an equitable settlement, met with the heartiest response from his followers.

For the North Pole.

COPENHAGEN, Feb. 20.—Dr. Nansen, the distinguished Greenland explorer, proposes to start on his new Polar exploration about the middle of June. He will endeavor to force his way through Behring Straits to the New Siberia group of islands in the Arctic Ocean. There he hopes to find open waters stretching far to the North Pole. His crew will be composed of only eight men, and his vessel will be provisioned for a five years' cruise, although he hopes to reach the Pole within two. The Danish Government has contributed £2750.

London's New Sensation.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—Society is strongly stirred by stories of a sensation second only to the O'Shea case. The rumors current are those of another divorce among the high ones in the Conservative ranks. The story goes that the co-respondent is no other than Mr. Ashmead Bartlett, and the petitioner is one of the leading members of the House of Commons who sits on the Ministerial benches, and who is the husband of a lovely young wife. The facts have been suppressed, as the friends of both sides are doing their utmost to arrange the matter and keep everything quiet.

Lady Campbell Wanted to Die.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—Lady Lyons Campbell was found by a policeman yesterday evening weeping bitterly upon the embankment and threatening to commit suicide by throwing herself into the river. Lady Campbell was arrested, and this morning was taken to the Bow-street police court, where her husband found a surety for her future conduct.

Excited Belgians.

BRUSSELS, Feb. 20.—The reserves of the civic guard have been called out in the great Charleroi mining and manufacturing district. This action by the Government has created a tremendous excitement throughout the length and breadth of Belgium. The workingmen's committee regard the sudden placing of the troops under arms as not only a menace but as an unmistakable indication that the federal authorities are preparing to maintain, by force of arms if necessary, a refusal to revise the constitution in the direction of universal manhood suffrage.

Anarchists and Police.

PARIS, Feb. 20.—An encounter between a body of Anarchists and a detachment of police took place last evening at St. Denis. A meeting of citizens was held at St. Denis with the object of denouncing the conscription laws. Anarchists predominated and caused a tumult by crying, "Vive la anarchie." The police charged on the crowd, and after a serious struggle arrested twenty of the ringleaders.

The Chilian Revolution.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—A despatch from Buenos Ayres says 1000 Chilian Government troops have been landed at Junin to reinforce the garrison at Iquique. Marines are being sent overland to Buenos Ayres to man the new Chilian gunboats which it is supposed stopped at that port to avoid capture by the insurgents. These vessels were recently built in Europe and were on their way to Chili. They are expected to reinforce the Government forces as soon as their crews are up to full strength.

The Oporto Insurgents.

OPORTO, Feb. 20.—Nine of the prisoners arrested on suspicion of having been concerned in the recent plot to establish a republic have been liberated. Three hundred soldiers and thirty civilians have been committed for trial by court martial. They will be tried in groups of ten.

Tithes Bill Passed by the Lords.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—The House of Lords has passed the Tithes bill to a second reading, without a division.

Will Stand His Trial.

KINGSTON, Feb. 20.—Alfred Laidley, the telegraph operator charged with negligence in connection with the recent railroad collision near Ballantyne, has surrendered to the police and been admitted to bail.

Purify .. importance of keeping the blood in a pure condition is universally known, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. The taint of scrofula, salt rheum, or other foul humor is heredited and transmitted for generations, causing untold suffering, and we also accumulate poison and germs of disease from the air we breathe, the food we eat, or the water we drink. There is nothing more conclusively proven than the positive power of Hood's Sarsaparilla over all diseases of the blood. This medicine, when fairly tried, does expel every trace of scrofula or salt rheum, removes the taint which causes catarrh, neutralizes the acidity and cures rheumatism, drives out the germs of malaria, blood-poisoning, etc. It also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus overcoming that tired feeling, and building up the whole system. Thousands testify to the superiority of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier. Full information and statements of cures sent free.

Your Blood

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1, six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1891.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House. Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

THE MINISTER OF CUSTOMS.

The address delivered at Norwood on Friday evening by Hon. Mackenzie Bowell was an able and convincing defence of the Government's position and a complete exposition of the evils that would follow should Sir Richard Cartwright be returned to office and introduce the Wimanite scheme of unrestricted reciprocity. As Mr. Bowell described the principles upon which the Government's policy was based and the beneficial results it had produced, he was warmly applauded, and as he depicted the disastrous effect unrestricted reciprocity would have upon the trade, the prosperity and the prospects of Canada, and as he made clear to the large audience that by adopting that policy they would be surrendering their rights as free men and that by resisting it they would be preserving their country and their nationality, the cheers were loud and the enthusiasm great. The feeling in East Peterborough is very encouraging. Mr. Burnham's prospects become bright as election day draws near, and there can scarcely be a doubt that he will again worthily represent that constituency in the House of Commons.

The Homeliest Man in Peterborough.

As well as the handsomest, and others are invited to call on any druggist and get free a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, a remedy that is selling entirely upon its merits and is guaranteed to relieve and cure all chronic and Acute Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

SOUTH LINE SMITH.

Correspondence of the Review.

The directors and patrons of the South Smith Factory assembled last evening at the Temperance Hall to hold their annual tea and entertainment. Mr. McEwan was called to occupy the chair and the following programme was arranged for the occasion:

Address	Chairman
Overture	By the Band
Address	Mr. A. Young
Selection	Archer Bros.
Reading	Miss Philps
Solo . " Where did you Get That Hat,"	John E. Hodgson
Address	B. Davie
Selection	Band
Recitation	Miss McEwan
Reading	B. Bell
Solo "I'll Bet you a Dollar you Don't,"	John E. Hodgson
Dialogue	Misses Milburn and McEwan
Address	W. Graham
Selection	Archer Bros.
Recitation	R. McEwan
Selection (Autoharp)	H. Williamson
Recitation	E. Darling
Duet (Autoharp and Harmonica)	John E. Hodgson
Address	Chairman

The remarks were confined chiefly to the art of cheese making in all its branches. The ladies furnished the edibles and a sumptuous repast awaited everybody. The music and vocal solos were rendered in humorous style, especially by Mr. Hodgson who was repeatedly encored. Mr. Hodgson is a young man of musical ability and bids fair to be a grand musician and vocalist. The entertainment came to a close in the usual manner and everybody was well pleased the way in which the evening was spent.

A Short Lived Strike

HANOVER, Feb. 21.—The men employed at the furniture factory of D. Knechtel & Co. went on strike in a body owing to the resignation of the foreman, Mr. Solomon Knechtel, and the appointment of one, John Sandlos, to fill the vacated position, to which appointment the workmen objected, believing him to be a disagreeable man to work under and feeling it was through him that the foreman, who had so long and successfully filled that position, was led to resign. The proprietor agreed not to employ Sandlos, but declined to reinstate Knechtel. To this the men agreed, providing that those men who had received a special discharge as ringleaders of the strike should be taken on again. This being done the strike was declared off and all returned to work.

What it Costs

Must be carefully considered by the great majority of people in buying even necessities of life. Hood's Sarsaparilla commends itself with special force to the great middle classes, because it combines positive economy with great medicinal power. It is the only medicine of which can truly be said "100 Doses One Dollar," and a bottle taken according to directions will average to last month.

PASHA is the name of the popular Pen. Seven styles to suit all hands. Try them. Sold at the REVIEW stationery.

BRILLIANCY ON THE ICE

SECOND GRAND CARNIVAL OF THE FORESTERS.

Despite the Weather There was a Good Attendance—The Costumers—The Prize Costumes—The Races and Prize Winners—The Curling Contests.

It was a pleasant contrast that was presented last evening by the gay pageant of merry masqueraders in the Charlotte-st. rink and the dark, dismal night without. Within all was brilliancy and gayiety with entrancing music filling the very air with harmony, while without the drizzling rain made it disagreeable and the murky clouds shut out any celestial light.

It was the second carnival of the season under the auspices of Court Peterborough Foresters, and, although the attendance of spectators fell several hundreds short of the first event, yet, when the inauspicious weather and the election excitement is considered, the carnival may be said to have been a great success. The number of masqueraders was almost equal to the first carnival. There were several exceptionally good costumes on the ice and the judges had to exercise considerable judgment in awarding the prizes. The rink had been gaily decorated, so that with the vari-colored costumes of the masqueraders and the bright colored flags and bunting the scene withal was an attractive and brilliant one as seen under the dazzling electric light. The Fire Brigade band was in attendance and discoursed a programme of excellent selections during the evening.

There were four prizes given for the guessers on the attendance—two to the nearest lady guessers and a first and second to the gentlemen guessers. The exact number of tickets taken at the door was 585 The lucky lady guessers were Miss Ada Horsefield (575) and Miss Annie Irwin (589). The two nearest gentleman had to draw for first and second prizes being at an equal distance from the correct number. The result was that Mr. Sam Clegg (575) won first and Master Geo. Dredge (595) was awarded second prize.

THOSE IN COSTUME.

The list of costumers as complete as could be procured was as follows:—

LADIES.

Miss Jennie Bunt	Baby
" Lottie Watson	Lady of Ye Olden Time
" Lizzie Watson	Beggar Girl
" Ada Fraser	Venetian Lady
" Eva Thompson	Lady of Athens
" Ethel Moore	Tambourine Girl
" Hettie Bennet	Night
" A. Davis	Rosalind
" Eva Strain	Gypsy Fortune Teller
" Alice Turner	Indian Squaw with papoose
" Carrie Bowman	Merry Zingana
" Alma Cox	Hungarian Lady
" Vina Belleghem	Jewess
" May Armstrong	Crazy Patchwork
" Florence Madden	Persian Lady
" Florence Strain	Doll Seller
" Victoria Kate Elliott	Winter
" Gertie Gray	Mountain Pink
" Alice Barlow	Tissue Paper
" Maude Flemming	Fortune Teller
Mrs. C. W. Bunt	Jeptha's Daughter
Miss Minnie Hay	Cleopatra

GENTLEMEN.

John Turcott	Clown
Webber Turner	Buttons
George Fleming	Barber
Thos. VanEvery	Charles IX of France
Fred Matschke	Comic Clown
E. Burch	Dinner Stealer
Fred Metcalfe	Spring Fashion
W. F. Johnston	16th Century Belle
Holly Bamford	Glengary Clown
Fred Milliken	Umbrella Mender
C. Cavanagh	Sailor Boy
A. Reynolds	De Banjo Coon
Willie Fleming	Indian Brave
[illegible]	Page
Arthur C. Frye	Uncle Sam
Charlie Campbell	Highland Laddie
Achilles Turner	Good Luck
George Jeffrey	Crusader
H. Edmison	Uncle Sam's Cook
Harry Halpin	Pat Micky
Bertie Datcher	Chinaman
F. E. Nesbitt	Retired Farmer
Albert Green	Patent Medicine
Milton Green	Uncle Sam
W. J. Hendron (Lakefield)	Indian Chief
G. Edmison	Camper
A. Jones	Nigger Wench
W. Tully	Jumpless
Albert Milliken	Bill Poster
H. H. Robinson	Fugee Islander
Bertie Belleghem	Highlander
T. C. McGill	Gumption Cute
John Connors	Club Swinger
Chas. Gillespie	Orange Peel
Jerry Flaherty	Forester' Clown
George Halpin	Tramp
Tom Cunningham	Barber
Bert Jones	Baby
R. Brown	Great Cæsar's Ghost
Willie Menzies	Maid of all Work
M. Mulligan	Swinette Player
Chas. Hendricks	Robin Hood
John Cocks	Pontypool Tramp
Reginald Turner	Pastry Cook
Harold Snowden	Queen's Page
Herbie Stenson	Prince
Bruce Chowen	Prince
Jas. Moore	Silver King
Harry Law	Clown
Bruce Ewing	McGinty's Widdy

THE PRIZE COSTUMES.

The judges' stand was occupied by Mr and Mrs W. A. Sanderson and Mr. and Mrs. W. Salisbury, and their selections of prize costumes gave general satisfaction. The prize winners were as follows:—

BEST DRESSED LADY in Fancy Costume—Mrs. Bunt, "Jeptha's Daughter," lady's combined dressing case and manicure set.

BEST DRESSED GENTLEMAN in Fancy Costume—W. J. Hendron, "Indian Chief," leather travelling companion.

BEST DRESSED GIRL in Fancy Costume—Miss Torie Elliott, "Winter," handkerchief and glove sachet.

BEST DRESSED GENTLEMAN in Comic Costume—W. Logan, "Bear," hanging lamp.

BEST DRESSED GIRL under 16 years in Comic Costume—Eva Strain, "Fortune Teller," silver card receiver.

BEST DRESSED BOY under 16 years in Comic Costume—Arthur Fry, "Uncle Sam," set Capt. Marryatt's novels.

THE RACES.

The racing events all had several entries and furnished some exciting sport. The prize winners were:—

BARREL RACE, (six entries)—1st Lionel King, 2nd Jerry Flaherty.

SACK RACE, (seven entries)—1st Lionel King, 2nd Jerry Flaherty.

GO-AS-YOU-PLEASE, gentlemen over 12 years, ten times around the rink, (nine entries)—1st D C. King, 2nd Geo. Stenson.

GO-AS-YOU-PLEASE, lady and gentleman together, (three entries)—1st Lionel King and Miss Jones.

THE CURLING CONTESTS.

On two of the curling rinks, contests were enthusiastically going on for the prizes that had been offered by the Foresters. On one rink a quartette of Foresters were playing "the world." The result was a defeat for the Foresters by 13 shots.

The rinks and result were as follows:—

FORESTERS.	ALL COMERS.
J. Stanger,	J. H. Conneal,
A. McNeil,	N. Clegg,
W. G. Ferguson,	J. B. Pentland,
T. Rutherford, s'p..10	G. McGill, skip 23

Majority for All Comers 13 shots.

This match was for a barrel of flour to go to the Protestant Home.

On the other rink two rinks of juniors were playing for a set of curling brooms with the following result:—

J. T. Tucker,	W. Hall,
R. Rutherford,	V. McGill,
T. Ferguson,	G. Hodge,
H. Wills, skip....18.	T. Conneal, skip .. 9.

Majority for Wills 9 shots.

Mr. Stevenson's Address

TO

THE ELECTORS

OF

WEST PETERBOROUGH.

GENTLEMEN,—The time that will elapse before polling day is so short, and my business demands on my time just now are so great that, though most anxious to do so, I find it altogether impossible to personally call on any considerable number of the electors; and therefore use this medium of placing before you my opinions of the great issue that has been raised by the leaders of the Reform party, viz , Unrestricted Reciprocity with the United States.

The Government of Sir John A. Macdonald many years since placed on the Statute books of the Dominion an Act enabling the Governor-General in Council, whenever the United States declared its readiness to free from duty any named natural products of this country going into that country, to free the same coming into Canada from the United States.

That Statute still remains in force; and, although the Government of Canada has on many occasions called the attention of the authorities at Washington to it, yet they have declined to act on it, but have now signified their willingness to negotiate generally on trade matters.

The present Government has shown its readiness to negotiate for reciprocal trade relations on the basis of the treaty of 1854, which was eminently fair to both countries; and their proposal I will support, but the policy of the Reform party as shown by them and by the politicians and press of the United States, is one which practically hands over to that country the trade of Canada, for the Reform party declare that they are prepared to offer to the United States absolute and unconditional free trade in manufactures, as well as in natural products, and they say such will be accepted by the latter country; and this party, led by Mr. Laurier, urges that such a policy is in our interests, even if we have to discriminate against England and all the rest of the world, and enact and build up a tariff wall equal to that of the United States, and even if we have, in addition, to suffer a loss of revenue, placed by Sir Richard Cartwright in his speech in Toronto, the 13th instant, as reported in the Globe, of $7,000,000 or $8,000,000, but which, it is perfectly certain, would not be less than $12,000,000. I submit for your consideration whether this is really a "free trade" policy or a policy deserving your support. I am convinced that it is not, and that it is opposed to the best interests of Canada The present tariff of the United States is more than double that of Canada. It is, in fact, the most exclusive and excessive tariff known, and the effect of the adoption of it by us would, in my humble opinion, be to make us, commercially, an unknown land—except to our neighbors to the South, for no other nation would or could import its goods to us as heretofore, and as their shipping would come much less to our shores, our trade in cheese, cattle and other produce with Great Britain would be seriously injured, if not wholly ruined. The high freight rates, for want of competition, would alone make these products unprofitable, and I am sure you will hesitate before you destroy or imperil a trade with England and Europe of $22,000,000 yearly, made successful, largely, by reason of the keen competition of shipping from England, which under our moderate tariff, has, out of all proportion to the extent of the United States, come to Halifax and up the St. Lawrence to our great ports for several years past.

The policy of the present Government since its adoption in 1879, has brought into Canada, a tremendous amount of Capital and produced the manufacture of most of our needs of life at prices, through the competition that has grown up, no higher than in the country from which the capital came.

The population of Peterborough has in ten years almost doubled, and I am confident the present moderate revenue tariff will enable the country to construct great public works in our vicinity, and that our town will be not less than 20,000 population within the next ten years. The proposed policy, I am assured, would endanger all the advantages we have gained and almost certainly end in the ruin of our town, as of many other towns and cities in Canada, and also most seriously injure the farming interests by destroying the home market and in other ways and I therefore cannot give my sanction to such a measure.

I cannot believe that with the declarations of high authority we have as to the terms on which we can obtain unrestricted trade relations, with the United States there is any general feeling in favor of the Reform platform, for I find that Mr. Blain, the Secretary of State at Washington, recently in a public speech used these words: "It is their (Canadians) right to choose for themselves, as it is our right to choose for ourselves, but I am opposed, too totally opposed, to giving the Canadians the sentimental satisfaction of waving the British flag, paying British taxes, and enjoying the actual cash remuneration of American markets. They cannot have both at the same time. If they come with us they can have what we have. It is an absolute wrong for Congress to say that they shall have exactly the same share in our markets that we have, and so far as I can help it, I do not mean that they shall be Canadians and Americans at the same time" and Mr. McAdoo, a Democratic member of the House of Representatives, recently used these words in the House: "The United States do not desire to add a single acre to its imperial domain but if the people of Canada, in their Soverign capacity wish to maintain unrestricted relations with the people of the United States, they have but to rise in their sovereignty, spontaneously and unsought for act and ask for annexation, which is the cutting of the Gordion knot, and the ultimate destinity of the Canadian people."

Neither can I support the new policy, because, as reported in the Globe on the 5th day of October, 1889, Mr. Erastus Wiman, of New York, who is the partner of the millionaire, Jay Gould, and the sole father of the scheme originated for personal and selfish ends, says: "My idea is that a uniform tariff should be adopted both by the Congress of the United States and the Dominion Parliament of Canada; that Canada should agree to always have the same tariff as the United States; that this tariff should be administered by a join commission of which the majority should, of course, rest with the United State." and the "Chicago Times confirms this, as do all the leading papers of the United States by declaring that "entire free trade is impossible, unless the Dominion 'is prepared to make a complete and unconditional surrender of all control over its own tariff and to accept whatever tariff our Congress may choose to enact from time to time.'"

I feel that this is a sacrifice and surrender greater than Canada should make for it means the loss of legislative control over our fiscal policy the transference to Washington of the regulation of our tariff and the end of our political existence, and, as said in an American paper "Canadians would be "cure and cade" to entertain the idea."

The end proposed by the Reform leaders I am sure cannot be attained, and, if attained, attainment will bring in its train the incident of direct taxation, with an army of assessors and collectors replacing the Customs Houses and Customs officers along the frontier between the United States and Canada. Mr. Laurier in Quebec a few days ago said that his expectant Finance Minister, Sir Richard Cartwright, would be genius enough to avoid recourse to "so cruel a measure" but in Toronto on the 13th instant, the avoidance the latter found after quoting the words of Mr. Foster, that direct taxation would amount to $20.00 per family, and after entering upon a tirade of abuse of the Government to draw his audience from the question was summed up in these words as given in the Globe's report of his speech, "But it is impossible to deal with these imaginary difficulties, and when I am asked to say what I will do if a possible contingency arises I would respectfully say that we will wait to see the contingency we have to meet."

I am sure the whole electorate will declare with me that this, from a man, posing as a statesman, and seeking the confidence and support of the country was a contemptible and pitiful avoidance of the most vital matter, and an acknowledgement that direct taxation is a necessary incident of the Reform platform.

I would call attention to a matter of local importance, viz., the construction of the Trent Valley Canal, which has been thrown back for two years by the action of prominent members of the Reform party, and the statements in the House that there was good reason for believing that, as a national undertaking, it would prove a failure because of an insufficiency of water. The matter was consequently referred to commissioners to report, and the commissioners having examined the whole of the route and taken a great mass of evidence, have now reported, and the report that has been published is a complete answer to all objections as to its feasibility and the propriety of the undertaking, and, as in the past, I, if elected, shall in the future persistently advocate and insist on the immediate construction of this great work. I am confident it will prove of immense value as a public work, and I know that its importance to this locality will, from various and obvious reasons, be almost inestimable. I am also quite certain that if the Reform party gains power in this election and adopts the policy it is advocating, there will follow such admittedly tremendous deficits in the revenue that even with the aid of direct taxation it will be impossible for the Government, however willing, to undertake the building of this national highway of commerce.

In conclusion, I would ask the electors to accept the above statement as indicating my views of the chief public questions of the hour, and the policy relied on by the leader of the Reform party, and his Wiman allies, as the one by which they hope to gain control of the Government of Canada, and to displace the existing Government, and I would ask all who cannot approve so radical a change as proposed, to rally to the support of the Liberal Conservative party in the present great crisis in our affairs.

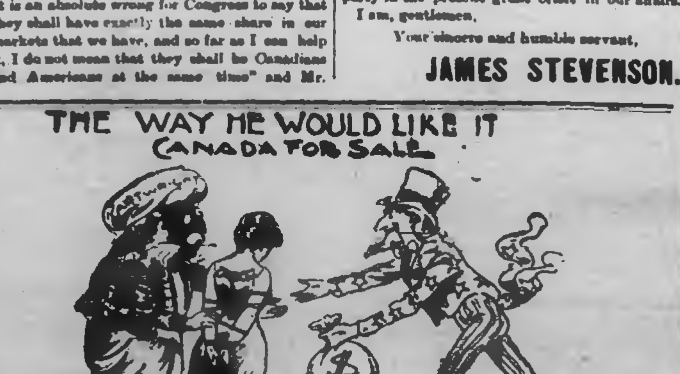
I am, gentlemen,

Your sincere and humble servant,

JAMES STEVENSON.

THE WAY HE WOULD LIKE IT

CANADA FOR SALE



PACKING HOUSE STORE!

For a Choice Selection of

Smoked Sugar Cured Meats and Bacon

LARD, guaranteed pure, in any quantity.

GEORGE MATTHEWS

356 George Street, Peterborough.

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED!

Grand Rally of the People's Party.

THE QUESTION OF THE HOUR!

The Greatest Good to the Largest Number.

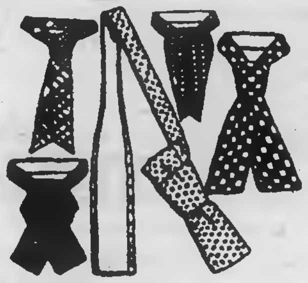
GOUGH BROTHERS are in the field as the Candidates for public approval, basing their claim on the admitted facts that they supply the largest number, the greatest number of times with the largest dollar's worth of the best clothing that money can purchase.

Ask our constituents if this claim is not well grounded?

When you buy, buy from first hands, remembering that we supply Clothing, Furnishings, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes.

GOUGH BROTHERS

The Clothiers, 377 and 379 George-st., Peterborough.



TO-DAY

and the C.P.R. brought us a case of neck wear. Not the only one, more are fast following. The invoices now with us promise many new ideas in this line. The colors range from showy magnificence to the dignified and extremely quiet. The shapes are without number and entirely new. If you are a lover of things rich, if beautiful colors delight your eye—see our neckwear. Many find it profitable to look at goods before buying, why not you?

One thing suggests another. Suits for instance. You may not need one. However it will not hurt to show the goods nor harm you in looking at them. The good impressions made now will bear fruit later on. See the pyramids of goods we have procured for Spring.

T. DOLAN & Co.

Clothiers and Furnishers.

CAKES!

For a Good Cake, leave your orders at

Long Bros.

Also home-made cakes iced and nicely Ornamented. Wedding Breakfasts and Evening Parties Catered for. Oyster Patties made to order. Our stock of Candies is pure and made by ourselves.

No. 256 and 414 George-st.

DR. E. A. SPILSBURY

Throat, Nose and Ear. Lecturer on Diseases of the Throat and Nose, Trinity Medical College Toronto; Surgeon to the Throat and Nose Department, Toronto General Hospital, and late Clinical Assistant, Hospital for the Diseases of the Throat, Nose and Ear, London, England. OFFICE 210 Huron Street, Toronto. wdlyr

Dr. Spilsbury will be at the Oriental Hotel, Peterborough, on Saturday, February 28th, from 9 to 11 30 a.m. for consultation in Throat, Nose and Ear diseases.

Awnings, Tents and Sails

If you want the Best Goods at the Lowest Prices go or send to

J. J. TURNER,

283 and 283½ George-st., Peterborough.

He also manufactures

Waterproof Clothing, Lap Rugs, Horse and Wagon Covers, Aprons, etc., etc.

Telephone day or night.

Bell 180. - - - Ontario 72.

HAGGART & KIDD

TOWN and COUNTY } Auctioneers,

COMMISSION and SHIPPING } Merchants,

REAL ESTATE and INSURANCE } Agents.

☛ Money to Loan.

"Itis the Safest and Fairest Policy I Have Ever Seen,"

Was the remark made by a prominent representative of one of the largest and best American Life Insurance Companies, when he had carefully examined

THE ORDINARY LIFE POLICY OF

—THE—

TEMPERANCE and GENERAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y.

This is the only policy offered to the Canadian public that can neither lapse nor expire as to its paid-up value till death ensues, after three annual premiums have been paid on it.

Our Limited Payment Life Policy, or Instalment Bonds, Our Common Sense Renewable Term Policies, and our Survivors' Endowment Bonds are all possessed of new and excellent features and are all worthy of careful consideration.

Agents Wanted.

H. P. LINDSAY,

Gen. Agent for Peterborough, Northumberland and Durham. Office No. 88 George-st., opposite new market building.

WM. FITZGERALD,

Builder, Contractor and Jobber.

Contracts taken for all work connected with erection of new buildings, repairs or rebuilding. Twenty-five years experience. First-class work according to plans and specifications guaranteed. Estimates furnished for any description of work. Good dry material always on hand. Best of references given as to excellence of work and despatch.

Building Lots For Sale

in different localities. Most desirable sites for houses. This is the time to buy and build Lots sold and houses built thereon on terms to suit buyers. Easy terms of payment. Several good houses and lots for sale. Every one looking for a bargain should see them. WM. FITZGERALD, 124, corner of Dublin and Water-sts.

P.O. Box 276, Peterborough.

2 BRICK HOUSES,

2 FRAME HOUSES,

and THREE LOTS,

to be sold at my office on WEDNESDAY next, the 18th inst., at 2 p m,

The above properties are situated west of Bethune-st. and between the 2 railway stations in the centre of all the principal manufactories in town. A rare chance.

T. HURLEY,

257 George-

PETERBOROUGH

PLANING MILLS!

Dublin-st., Peterborough.

A. RUTHERFORD,

PROPRIETOR.

Having purchased the plant, and business, formerly carried on by J. D. Baptie, in the above premises, I am prepared to execute orders for every description of General Carpenter Work Window and Door Frames, Blinds, Mouldings, etc.

Scroll Work, Band Sawing, Turning executed to order.

Large supply of Dry Lumber of all Kinds always on hand.

Factory and Office,—Dublin-st. Telephone Connection.

LIME—Always kept on hand. Orders left at Mill or at G.T.R. Station promptly attended to.

MR. SHELDRAKE'S Private PREPARATORY SCHOOL,

FOR BOYS,

LAKEFIELD, ONTARIO.

ADVERTISE IN HHE REVIEW

DO YOU LIKE

Biscuits?

Most likely you do. There's a deal of difference in Biscuits. Quality is an important item. A good biscuit should be fresh, crisp and of good flavor. Here's what will suit you. Try the English biscuit, made by Huntley & Pa'mer the famous makers. Imported by us and guaranteed genuine. Ask for Huntley & Palmer's biscuits.

W. J. MASON

420 GEORGE STREET.

No trouble to show Goods.

Blank Books.

—AND—

Office Stationery

Call and get our prices on Ledgers,
Journals,
Day Books,
Stephen's Inks,
Carter's Inks,
Underwood's Inks
Stafford's Inks,
Pens,
Foolscap,
Legal paper,
and all other Office supplies.

See the quality of our Blank Books.

Our Prices are the Lowest.

H. THOMPSON & Co

Office and General Stationers, Booksellers and Wall Paper Dealers,

4?? George-st. — — Peterboroug

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1891.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

Another 'Phone.

Parker's Dye Works have been connected with the Bell Telephone Comany's office. Their number is 2?8.

Fined All Round.

An assault case came up at the Police Court this morning in which three young men were charged with assaulting another. The Magistrate dismissed the case, but fined the complainant and two defendants $2 each for disorderly conduct.

Campaign Notes.

Mr. Stevenson addressed a rousing meeting in the Town Hall, Monaghan, last night. The Government's policy was clearly outlined and its beneficial effects pointed out. Mr. Geo. Hilliard also spoke in support of Mr. Stevenson. The meeting was an encouraging one.

Y.M.C.A. Notes.

The young men's meeting to-night at 8 p. m. will be a praise, prayer and promise service, to which we heartily welcome all young men.

Consecration meeting on Sabbath morning.

Mr. Wm. Wallbrook will give a straight talk to men only at the personal purity meeting Sabbath afternoon at 4.15.

Rev. Mr. Bethune, of Gravenhurst, will give an address at the gospel and song service Sabbath evening at 8.30 p. m.

Bible class Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. All young men invited.

St. John's Notes.

The monthly children's service will be held to-morrow afternoon at 3.30 o'clock All young people are invited.

The 2nd of each of the different special courses of Lent sermons will be delivered to-morrow. In the morning, the Rev. J. C. Davidson's subject will be "Present Sacrifice of Life a Natural Principle." In the evening the Rev. C. B. Kenrick will take up the 2nd of the beatitudes, while at the Mission building, Mr. W. M. Loucks will discuss the 1st "Principle of the Doctrine of Christ."

Next Thursday the clergy of the Deanery of Northumberland will meet in Peterborough for their quarterly meeting. The venerable Archdeacon Allen will be present. In the evening, the annual missionary meeting will be held in the new mission building.

The 3rd of the Wednesday evening lectures will be given on the 25th inst. by the Rev. W. E. Cooper, M.A., Rector of Grafton. His subject will be "Commercial Christianity."

IN THE EAST RIDING

The Minister of Customs at Norwood.

A CONVINCING ADDRESS

AN ENTHUSIASTIC AUDIENCE GREETS HON. M. BOWELL.

The Trade Question Discussed in a Clear and Powerful Manner—The Interests of the Agricultural Community—The Prosperity, the Future and the Allegiance of the Country at Stake—A Rousing Meeting.

Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Minister of Customs, addressed a meeting at Norwood last evening. He arrived in the village on the noon train and was met at the station by Messrs. W. H. Stephenson, President of the Liberal Conservative Association, J. B. Pearce, F. W. Wilkins and H. Spence, and driven to the residence of Mr. Pearce, whose guest he was while in the village. In the evening the Town Hall, where the meeting was held, was filled to overflowing, and when the Minister entered accompanied by Messrs. Stephenson and Pearce he was given an enthusiastic reception. The hall had been handsomely decorated for the occasion. An arch of bunting ornamented the wall at the rear of the platform and under it were suspended portraits of the Queen, the Prince of Wales and Sir John Macdonald. Flags were displayed on the arch, on the walls and over the door, while around the hall were the mottoes "Welcome," "God Save the Queen," "The Old Flag," "The Old Man," "The Old Policy," "No Yankee Tariff for Us," "Canada for the Canadians," "No Annexation," and "Burnham"

Mr. Stephenson presided, and on the platform with him were Hon. Mr. Bowell and Mr. Geo. Read, of Keene.

The CHAIRMAN in opening the meeting said he was pleased that the Hon. Mr. Bowell was present to address them and because, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, there was such a large audience present.

Mr. S. B. ARMSTRONG, of Peterborough, was first called on and said that, as college graduates were said to feel the authority of the professors even to the end of their days, so he, as a graduate of the newspaper office in which Mr. Bowell had been a professor, still felt his authority and had to comply when asked to occupy a few moments. He referred to the financial position of the Dominion, pointing out that the public debt had been increased less rapidly by the present Government than during the time Sir Richard Cartwright was in office notwithstanding the large expenditures on public works, and that, since the heavier undertakings had been completed, their was no increase. He showed that the increased market for farm produce in the town of Peterborough alone, through the increase of population since the present fiscal policy had been adopted, was of as much value to the farmers of this county as the United States market had been, and closed with a reference to the importance of the question to be decided at this time.

THE MINISTER'S ADDRESS.

Hon. Mr. BOWELL was received with loud cheers. He said he could not express his gratification at being present to address an audience so large and obviously so intelligent as he saw present. He spoke of his long standing friendship with the chairman, and, referring to his newspaper connection which had been mentioned, said he had been printer's devil, apprentice, journeyman, foreman, editor, member of Parliament and Minister of Customs, and sometimes his opponents said he was somewhat of a printer's devil yet. (Laughter). In Canada a man could, by industry, sobriety and perseverance rise to the highest positions and this fact was creditable to the country. (Applause). The agriculturists, he said, were the most numerous and important portion of the community, but no country could become great that was confined to the agricultural industry alone, and this he illustrated by referring to several European countries and the United States. His father was an agriculturist an had gone on a farm when not a stick had been cut upon it, and he (Mr. Bowell) knew something of the hardships endured by agriculturists and especially by those who had entered upon uncleared lands. In 1878, he said, the Conservatives had come before the people advocating the "N.P." by which factories would be established, employment given to workmen and, to a large extent, a home market provided for farm produce. In 1882 they again came with the "N.P.," which meant National Progress, and in 1887 they had the same motto, meaning National Prosperity. This time their motto was still "N.P." and meant National Preservation. (Applause). If the country adopted the Liberal panacea of commercial union or unrestricted reciprocity (for they meant the same thing) they would

SURRENDER THEIR RIGHT

as a free people to legislate for themselves and to tax themselves, and would be in the same position as the American colonies when they rebelled because England attempted to tax them without representation. It would be utterly impossible to carry out unrestricted reciprocity without surrendering the right to regulate their own tariff. It was difficult to get an explanation of unrestricted reciprocity from those who advocated it. They had first the theory of commercial union, which was taken hold of by Liberal leaders, but it was soon seen that it was not acceptable to the people and the name was changed to unrestricted reciprocity. There were others who favored universal free trade. That was a proposition that could be argued logically. But when they were asked, in a colony owing allegiance to Great Britain, to put in force a policy which would give the United States control of the markets of the country and shut out Great Britain, they were asked to do something that would not be loyal to the crown or loyal to themselves. (Cheers.) Sir Richard Cartwright had said that the National Policy had reduced the imports from Great Britain in sixteen years from $6,000,000 to $2,000,000. But the National Policy had not been in force sixteen years, and taking the time Sir Richard was in office and comparing it with the period of the National Policy they would find that the imports from Great Britain had been increased from $33,000,000 to $42,000,000. Their exports to Great Britain had also increased. But while their exports to the United States had been increased, their imports from that country had grown less, and they were selling goods to the United States and using the money to buy British goods. Sir Richard had not attempted to controvert his figures, except to say that he was great on averages, and he (Sir Richard) then proceeded to apply averages himself to the population though not to the imports. Sir Richard said that there had been a larger consumption of British goods per head of the population under his Government. If that was so it showed that the present policy had created a market and that home made goods were used. There was scarcely a time that Sir Richard had spoken that he had not said that they had not created a market or labor and that the population had not increased, yet now he had to admit that the population had increased in order to try to meet his (Mr. Bowell's) figures. (Cheers.) Sir Richard had complained that he had applied to the Customs Department for returns that were refused him. He had not applied to the Customs Department for information. He had applied to another department, however, for a number of returns, and his application had been transferred to the Customs and it had been sent the next day so far as it had been prepared and the remainder would be sent as soon as it was prepared. Now, if he (Mr. Bowell) had made his calculation as to the trade with Britain including 1890 he could have made it more emphatic, for the increase last year had been $11,000,000. (Applause.) Sir Richard Cartwright had always avoided a definition of unrestricted reciprocity. Some said it was the knocking down of the barriers between here and the United States, others said it included discrimination and others contended that it would not interfere with them arranging their own tariff. Hon. L. H. Davies, the Liberal leader of Prince Edward Island, had pointed out that the people of the United States, not being "arrant fools," would not accept unrestricted reciprocity unless it included the adoption by Canada of the United States tariff and that unrestricted reciprocity different from commercial union was impracticable. Suppose both countries maintained their tariffs as they were now and had free trade between them, the importations for the United States could all come through Montreal to escape the higher tariff. Were the United States such "arrant fools" as to consent to that? But it was said that the United States would stop foreign goods going across the lines. Suppose they admitted that for the sake of argument, though he did not admit it, there would have to be maintained a cordon of customs police and officers greater than at present. Further, tin was admitted free here while it was taxed in the United States and if that arrangement was made Canada would manufacture all the tin the United States used and all the canned fish and canned fruits. The same was true of wool, and Canada would manufacture all the woollen goods for the other country. The illustrations might be multiplied, but did they not see why the United States would never consent to have free trade between the countries unless Canada adopted the same tariff as they had? The thing was utterly ridiculous. Anyone could see that if they had unrestricted reciprocity they would have to surrender the right to control their tariff. And in surrendering that they would surrender to tax themselves. (Cheers.) Would any other country, unless it was England, permit men to go across the border and urge a foreign country not to do that which as a good neighbor they should in order to force their own country into annexation? Mr. Farrer, who had been editor of the Mail and who was the pet of Sir Richard Cartwright, had been by Sir Richard transferred to the Globe. And this Mr. Farrer had written a pamphlet pointing out to the United States that they should refuse all that Canada had been asking for, should refuse to enter into any arrangements with this country and by that means force them into annexation. An English paper said that in Elizabeth's time such an act would be considered treason, and history taught them that men who tried to sell their country were rewarded with a halter. (Cheers.) It was for them to consider whether they should follow a leader who conspired to force them from their allegiance to Great Britain and to their own country. How did the American people look at this question? There was scarcely a man of them from Mr. Blaine down who had not come to the conclusion that unrestricted reciprocity was the first step to annexation. President Bullock of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce had said that the ready road to reciprocity was "to accept Sir Richard Cartwright as a Senator from the State of Ontario." (Cheers.) Senator Carlisle said that commercial union in his opinion meant ultimate political union. Prof. Goldwin Smith, who was one of the leaders in the movement, had come to the same conclusion. Mr. Chauncey Depew, a probable candidate for the Presidency, said that "commercial union would lead in a few years to political union." and Mr. C. J. Ritchie, of Ohio, said that "every man who was in favor of the annexation of Canada will tell you that unrestricted reciprocity was the way to bring it about." Mr. Blaine and others and prominent newspapers had expressed similar opinions, while the New York Herald said that Sir John Macdonald was trying to keep Canada from joining the union, and the Buffalo News said that with unrestricted reciprocity Canada would soon be knocking at the doors of Uncle Sam. Mr. Blaine, the Premier of the United States, had stated that he was opposed to Canada having the United States markets and the British flag at the same time. If they were to accept annexation let it be plainly put before them. Principal Grant had said that annexation itself would be preferable to such an arrangement as was proposed. And what position would they be in then? They would have eleven Senators to one hundred Yankees—an exceedingly small tail to wag a very large dog. (Applause). Yet they were told that they could have free trade only on those terms. If they lost the revenue they now derived from the customs duties they must obtain it from some other source, and the only resort would be to DIRECT TAXATION.

THEIR RIGHT AS FREE MEN

Sir Richard Cartwright said he looked upon direct taxation with favor, the Globe said it was the best system, and the Young Liberals of Toronto passed a resolution in favor of it. The Liberal candidate in West Hastings said he was in favor of it. Did they know what that meant? By unrestricted reciprocity that would lose at one swoop $6,000,000 collected on United States goods, and he took a number of articles that were now imported from other countries, but that with discrimination would be brought from the States and upon which the duties would be lost, and showed that there would be a deficit of nearly $10,000,000. The only way it could be raised was by direct taxation. Let them apply this principle to the farmers and to the man of means and see how it would work out. Real estate was assessed to its full value, but only the income of the man of means was assessed. If a farmer had property worth $10,000 he would be assessed for it and if the rate was one cent on the dollar he would pay $100. But if a moneyed man, such as Sir Richard Cartwright, had a mortgage on the property of $10,000 he would be assessed six per cent. on that, or $600, and at one cent on the dollar would pay $6.00 while the farmer paid $100. (Applause.) He would ask the farmers how they would like that principle of taxation to be applied. Mr. Mowat said they would retrench and reduce the expenditure so as to avoid direct taxation. That was an absurdity. He did not intend to discuss now the wisdom of the debt, but to point out that it existed and the interest must be paid, and there were other fixed charges. These things must be paid, if not by indirect then by direct taxation. How were the taxes collected now? Some told them that they were ground down by taxes. But no man need pay taxes to any amount if he did not wish to. The taxes were on luxuries, and the man who used champagne, whiskey or tobacco, or dressed his family in satins, silks or velvets or other costly imported goods, paid taxes. If he was content to dress with articles made in this country, which were cheaper to-day than they were twelve years ago—(cheers)—did not pay any taxes. Tea from the country of production was free and sugar was cheaper than it would be under Sir Richard's tariff, while at the same time the refineries built up under the present policy gave employment to a large number of men. Sir Richard's tariff had driven the wholesale tea houses out of the country, and they had since returned but would leave again if unrestricted reciprocity were adopted, and the same was true of other lines. This would enrich people at a distance instead of building up their own country. It was said that the nothing by unrestricted reciprocity, but they would lose a great deal on cattle alone. Cattle disease existed in the United States and that country was scheduled in England while Canadians were permitted to land and sell their cattle. This privilege would be lost by unrestricted reciprocity and with it would be lost from a penny to a penny halfpenny a pound, and there would be other grave disadvantages. Their opponents changed their views rapidly. Previously the Liberals told them that they paid the duty on everything they imported and now they said they paid it on everything they sent out. It was a very strange thing if Canadians paid the duty both ways and the United States did not pay any duty either way. (Cheers.) He referred to the increase in the price of eggs and barley in the States after the increase in the duty as showing that the duty was paid there. This also showed that the tariff did protect the farmers. The maltsters of the United States spend time and money at Washington to have the duty on barley reduced, and would these shrewd business men have done that if the duty was not paid by them? (Applause.) A farmer in Western Ontario who had sold lambs for the United States market was approached by a buyer since the McKinley bill was passed and offered a lower price, but he refused it and obtained as good a price as he had formerly got. This farmer was a Liberal but that transaction convinced him that the producer did not always pay the duty. The market for horses in the United States was not so great as it had been and prices on the other side had fallen. In Great Britain, he might remark, the importation of farm produce was increasing. A great reason why the United States market for horses was overstocked was because electric street railways were supplanting the horse cars, and New York alone had formerly bought thousands of horses for street car purposes. They shipped horses to some extent to Great Britain and there was a large market there for horses of a class suitable for cavalry purposes. Where was their natural market? They would not go to sell an article to a man who had more of it than they had and more than he wanted. The United United States exported $90,000,000 worth of wheat while Great Britain imported wheat. If farms were of less value than they had been it was because so much land had been opened to settlement. If they would compare the position of the farmers of New York, Vermont, Massachusetts and Maine with theirs they would find the Americans in an infinitely worse position. It was the overproduction of the west and the desire of young men to go where they could obtain cheaper and more easily worked land that brought this about. How

FARMERS WOULD LOSE

WAS THIS TO BE MET?

By a judicious policy that will create industries, give employment and provide a market, and they must then do what the Government had been doing—seek new markets in other places. When the industries supplied their own country they would export and bring back money and enrich it. Protection was said to be an exploded policy. Well, there was only one free trade country, England, and it really had not free trade. If he sat down quietly with, say, the gentleman in front of him, to discuss universal free trade no doubt they would, logically, come to the conclusion that it would be the best for the whole world. (Slight applause). "The gentlemen who applauded," said Mr. Bowell, "are no doubt not accustomed to hearing their friends make any admissions, but I desire to discuss these questions fairly and squarely and to withhold nothing." (Applause). But, he continued, it would be free trade with the whole world, not with one country alone, and when they tried to apply it in practice then it would not work. (Applause). England had a very high tariff and even refused to allow some of her colonies to engage in manufactures. If they had free trade with the States the wealth of that country would reflect on their industries just as the wealth of England had on the industries of Ireland. It was not until after England had built up her great industries by protection that they adopted free trade. (Cheers). Agriculture in England under free trade had been more depressed than it was in Canada. Would the people of this country surrender their birthrights, their rights as Britons, and allow others to tax them without them having anything to say in the matter? He believed not, for he believed they were loyal to the British crown and loyal to Canada. He depicted the great natural wealth of Canada, which was capable of producing almost everything they required. Sir Richard Cartwright said they could retrench the expenditure, but even if he could accomplish what he said he might do, he would not save $600,000. But if they would examine Mr. Laurier's promise to Mr. Mercier, as stated by the Quebec Premier, they would find that Quebec was to receive an additional yearly grant of $400,000, and when the additional grants to the other Provinces were considered it would be equal to an addition to the debt of $10,000,000. L'Electeur, the Liberal organ in Quebec, also said that the Liberals would build the Quebec bridge, which meant $4,000,000 more. He referred to promises made in Prince Edward Island and other places, and said these were samples of how they would "retrench." He defended the expenditures of the Government, and said that not a single interest or avocation had been neglected by statistics. He quoted statistics to show how the duties on pork, bacon, hams and other meats had benefitted the Canadian farmers. The had also established which had been of great benefit to agriculture, and had sent an envoy to England and had shown that there was a market there for eggs and poultry. He stated this to show that they had not neglected the interests of the farmers. Why had Mr. Blake retired from public life? There was no doubt that it was because he saw the effect it would have on British connection or that it would lead to direct taxation which he had condemned. Mr. Gordon Brown and other Reformers were opposed to Sir Richard Cartwright on this question. Principal Grant and Archbishop O'Brien, of Halifax, though opposite as the poles theologically, agreed in their opposition to this. Mr. Bork in his address said partial reciprocity would bring "greater competition" to the farmers. If that were so would not unrestricted reciprocity bring greater competition. (Cheers and laughter.) He showed how unrestricted reciprocity would increase the prices of many things. He asked them to reflect on what they would lose directly and indirectly by unrestricted reciprocity. To all who loved their country, all who desired to see it flourish, and all who desired to see Canada remain British he said, in all sincerity, that as true Canadians, loyal to themselves, loyal to their own country and loyal to their own flag they ought to resist the Liberal policy. (Cheers.) They might not all feel confidence in Sir John Macdonald and his colleagues—they could expect always to remain in power—but he hoped to see their successors so far in accord with their principles as to resist the attempts being made to make the Dominion subservient to the United States. He left it with them as loyal Canadians, as he believed they were true to their country. (Cheers.) He said that Mr. Burnham had been a member who was always actively engaged in the interests of his constituents and in the interest of the whole country, and he hoped they would again send him to Parliament to work for his constituency and his country as he had done before. (Loud cheers.)

EXPERIMENTAL FARMS

A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Bowell, on motion of Mr. J. B. Pearce, seconded by Mr. Geo. Read, and was acknowledged by the Minister.

Mr. E. B. STONE then rose in the audience and asked why it would be disloyal, as Mr. Bowell had said, to trade free with the United States?

Mr. BOWELL answered that it was discrimination against Great Britain and in favor of the United States he had said would be disloyal. (Cheers.)

Mr. STONE said that he represented Mr. Kidd and that if he were allowed fifteen minutes he would explain his position. He was given time to do so. and proceeded for about twenty-five minutes to attack the trade policy of the Government. Among other things he said that Mr. Carling, the Minister of Agriculture, was allowed to bring in corn free for his brewery while the farmers had to pay duty on it. This whole question, he said in conclusion, was intended to throw dust in the eyes of the people so they would not consider Equal Rights questions.

Mr. BOWELL in reply showed, in a vigorous and racy manner, that Mr. Stone was wrong on every point. Corn was not used in brewing in Canada, and on all corn brought in by distillers duty was paid. The only corn allowed in free was seed corn for ensilage purposes. As the Minister took up point after point and showed that Mr. Stone was wrong every time the large audience cheered again and again. As to Equal Rights, Mr. Bowell said he believed in equal rights to the fullest extent in the true and proper meaning of the words. (Cheers.) He referred to the New Brunswick School and Orange Bills, which had not been disallowed, and the Jesuit Bill, which had been treated in exactly the same manner—which was equal rights to all parties. Mr. Stone had asked him as to what took place in the Cabinet sessions, but he should know that all Ministers were bound by a solemn oath not to reveal what took place in Council, and he (Mr. Bowell) had respect for a solemn obligation. But the course the Government had followed was before them, and it was one that all must approve of when they considered it. (Cheers.)

The meeting was closed with cheers for the Queen, Sir John Macdonald, Mr. Burnham and Hon. Mr. Bowell.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. d&w4 6mo

Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. John Faberner, of Toronto, formerly of the REVIEW bindery, are in town spending a few days. They are the guests of Mr. Harry Drake.

Sale and Musical At Home.

There will be a sale of useful and fancy articles at the residence of Mrs. Mercer, 3?? Hunter-st., on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 26th, in aid of the "Pointe Aux Tremble" school. A musical At Home will also be given in the evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. All interested in missionary work are cordially invited. Admission in the afternoon free, in the evening 15c. 3d44

Wanted.—A good appetite. You can have it easy enough by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. It tones the digestion and cures sick head ache.

The Children's Annual Entertainment.

The annual tea and entertainment for the children of the St. Paul's church Sunday school was given last evening and proved to be a very enjoyable event for the children and their parents and friends who attended. Tea was served to the children down stairs, and after all had partaken of the abundant and tempting provision made, the children with a large number of parents and friends, assembled in the Sunday school room where an entertaining programme was rendered. Sheriff Hall, Superintendent, presided as chairman. Among the numbers on the programme were a pleasing solo by Miss Lillie Dixon, a vocal duet by Miss Lillie Dixon and Miss Sophy Cameron, an instrumental duet by Marian Hall and Jeanie Cameron, a pianoforte solo by Louie Dumbleton, an instrumental duet by Aggie Hall, Katie Ferguson and Addie Hall and an appropriate, happy address by the pastor, Rev. E. F. Torrance. Perhaps the feature of the evening were the kindergarten songs by the children of the infant class under the direction of Miss Sophy Cameron. The little folks acquitted themselves surprisingly well.

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects up n the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on a trial

VOLTAIC BELT Co., Marshall, Mich.

"PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE"

parties still hold the boards. We have a lot of good playing cards at 25c. a pack, or 5 for $1.00. These are worth 40c. each.

SAILSBURY BROS.

DOMINION

ELECTIONS!

West Peterborough.

HON. JOHN

HAGGART

POSTMASTER GENERAL,

will address a meeting in the Opera House (Peterborough) on the Evening of

TUESDAY, February 24th,

on the public questions of the day.

The gallery will be reserved for Ladies.

THE MEETING will commence at 8 o'clock.

Mr Hall or his representative is invited to be present.

W. H. MOORE,
Pres. Lib.-Con. Ass'n.

W. J. MINORE.
Sec. Lib.-Con. Ass'n.

1891. 1891.

NEW DRESS GOODS!

Very Low in Price.

New Prints,
New Embroideries,
New Check Muslins,
New Wool Tweeds,
New Shirtings,
New Ginghams,
New Table Linens,
New Towelings,
New Flanelettes,
New Shirting Flannels.

Very Low in Price.

—AT—

THOS. KELLY'S.

20 pieces Double Fold Bleached Sheetings, Plain or Twilled, at 20c. per yard.
10 pieces Double Fold Grey Sheetings, Plain, at 15c. per yard.
5 Bales Grey Cotton (soiled) at 3c. per yard.

—AT—

THOS. KELLY'S, CORNER OF GEORGE AND SIMCOE-STS.

WHITE LABEL ALE

On Draught,

10 cts. per qt.

Try our Bottled Ale, White Label, India Pale, etc., etc.

W. J. MORROW.

Opera House Block, George-st.

IN THE MARKET!

1.—I have sold out the City Hotel to Wm. Clancy, in 19 minutes.
2.—I have sold out Faren & Co, Billiard Room etc., to Faren & Co. in 13 minutes.
3.—The Dry Goods Stock is in the Market. If there is any new blood for this offer call and see me. Want to dispose of it inside of 10 days.

I am off for Australia early next month.

I mean business. If the stock is too large can be reduced to $1,000 in 30 days.

JAMES DOLAN,
George Street, Peterborough.

"HARD TIMES COME AGAIN NO MORE."

What glorious news is that which promises no more hard times! We fear there always will be hard times for some people; but one thing is certain—hard times will come again no more on wash-day to those who use that great labor-saver, "Sunlight" Soap.

Millions of women have proved this fact. Are you one of them?

SELLING AT REDUCED PRICES

We are offering our Stock of Manufactured Furs at cost, previous to stock taking. The stock comprises a choice assortment of Ladies' and Gents fine Fur Collars, Cuffs, Capes, Caps, Gauntlets and Coats. Also a few Musk Ox, Bear, Oppossum and Goat Robes.

CALL AND BE CONVINCED.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

Manufacturing Furriers.

SURPRISE
SURPRISE
EVERY-WOMAN
St. Croix Soap M'f'g. Co. St. Stephen, N. B.
SOAP

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1891.

Religious Services.

The following is a list of services in the several churches on Sunday:—

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.—Rev. J.C. Davidson, M. A., Rector. Rev. C. B. Kenrick, M. A., Curate. W. M. Loucks, M.A., Reader. Feb. 15th, 2nd Sunday in Lent. 8 30 a. m., Holy Communion. 11 a. m., Morning Prayer, Litany and Sermon. 3 p. m., Sunday school and Bible Classes. 7 p. m. Evening Prayer and Sermon. Seats provided and a hearty welcome at all services. All seats free in the evening. Ushers on duty. Messrs. Harry Long, E. H. Loucks, F. Perry, R. A. W. Hay.

ST. LUKE'S (Ashburnham).—Holy Communion, at 8 a. m. Morning Prayer and Litany at 11 a. m. Sunday school and Bible classes at 3 o'clock p. m. Evening Prayer and Sermon at 7 p. m. Services conducted by the Rev. J. W. McCleary. All seats free. Strangers are welcome. Temperance Sunday.

ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL.—At St. Peter's Cathedral, Roman Catholic, there will be two masses celebrated the first at 8 a. m., and the second at 10.30, a. m. Vespers at 7 p.m.

ST. PAUL'S.—Rev. E. F. Torrance, M. A., pastor. Services at 11 a. m., and 7 p. m.

GEORGE-ST. METHODIST CHURCH.—Rev. Jos. H. Locke, pastor. Services at 11 a. m. conducted by Rev. S. J. Shorey and 7 p. m. conducted by the pastor. Sunday School at 2 30 p. m. Mr. H. S. Griffin Superintendent. Ushers will welcome strangers and conduct them to seats.

CHARLOTTE-ST. METHODIST CHURCH.—Rev. S. J. Shorey, pastor. Services 11 a. m. conducted by the Rev. James McFarlane and 7 p. m., conducted by the pastor. Sunday school at 2.30 m. Strangers welcome.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.—The Rev. Mr. Bethune, of Gravenhurst, Ont., will occupy the pulpit morning and evening. Services 11 a.m. and 7 p. m. Strangers welcome. He will also conduct the Sabbath school and Bible Classes at 3 p. m.

BAPTIST CHURCH, Murray st.—Usual services at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m., conducted by Rev. J. B Huff. Sunday Prayer meeting at 10 a. m. Sunday school at 3 p. m. Come and welcome. No rented seats.

METHODIST CHURCH, Mark-st. (Ashburnham).—Rev. A. C. Wilson, pastor. Services at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m., conducted by the pastor. 11 a. m. subject, "Harp and Song." 7 p. m. subject, "Catechising and its Permanent Result (Pro. 22-6.) Free pews and hearty welcome to all. Messrs. Brady, Smith and Johnston ushers. Sunday school 2.30 p. m., Mr. H. S. Armstrong superintendent.

ST. JOHN'S MISSION (Corner of Sherbrooke and Rubidge-sts).—2nd Sunday in Lent. 3 p. m. Sunday school. 7 p. m., Evening Prayer and Sermon. All welcome.

BAPTIST MISSION (Corner Dalhousie and Stewart-sts).—On Sunday services will be held as usual. Sabbath school at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Preaching service in the evening at 7 o'clock. A cordial invitation is given. Hymn books provided.

ROYAL TEMPLARS.—Gospel temperance meeting in the Royal Templars hall, Hunter-st., at 4 o'clock p. m.

CHRISTIAN ALLIANCE.—Sabbath morning first, at 9.15, the Christian Alliance and American Divine Healing Association are commencing a meeting to be held every Sabbath morning in the Royal Templars Hall, Hunter-st., entrance west of Nugent's drug store. Come and study God's word and know His will as present Saviour, Sanctifier, Healer and Coming Lord. The sceptical, sick and weary in spirit and body are earnestly invited to these meeting. The weekly meeting is in the Y. M. C. A. Hall on Thursday evening at 7.45 o'clock.

Some Foolish People

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c and $1. Trial size free. At all druggists.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. G. Gumpricht is in town. Orders may be left at Messrs. Taylor & McDonald's drug store. 1yd65

To Rent.

Farms wanted to rent. Tenants supplied this year at half price. Call or write.

T. HURLEY,
d23tf 257 George-st.

Roses and Other Cut Flowers

as well as floral designs, to be had at Mason's Seed and Plant House, corner of Water and Brock-st. d42tf

Personal.

Dr. E. A. Spilsbury, of Toronto, will be at the Oriental Hotel, Peterborough, on Saturday, February 28th, from 9 to 11 30 a. m. for consultation. See card. 2w8 2d44

323 George-st.

Just arrived—a choice lot of Fearman Hams and Bacon, also some fine Neufchatel Cream Cheese and Northern Spy Apples. Stapleton & Elcombe.

Redpath's Cut Loaf Sugar

In 5 lb. boxes, Redpath's Pure Syrup in 2 lb. tins, Fresh Salmon, 2 tins for 25c.; Finest Canadian Cheese, 2 lbs. for 25c.; Pickles equal to bottled, 15c. per quart or 2 quarts for 25c. All goods cheap. W. J. Morrow 349 George-st. d41-w8

Good Breakfast Dishes.

Rolled Bacon, Sausage, Head Cheese, Ham Veal, etc. Best brands of these superior meats always on hand. Bacon sold by actual weight. J. J. Howden, 431 George-st. Telephone connection. d40tf

A Complete Line

of the finest soaps in the world. Sunlight Soap, Dingman's Electric Soap, etc. See the large bar I am selling at 5 cents, also the mammoth bar at 10 cents. A large stock of toilets. The largest stock and best value in Peterborough. Alex. Elliott 380 George-st. Peterborough. d41

J. W. Crosby, 383 George-st.

Has now on exhibition the most expensive upright piano in the Dominion of Canada. The scale is new and original, surpassing anything ever placed before the public. The tone is rich, mellow and powerful. The action is a high grade American make. All critics, lovers of music and intending purchasers are invited to inspect it during the next few days. d42tf

That's Easily Answered.

"My dear," said Mrs. Cupendsaucer, laying down the evening paper, "what is reciprocity?" "Reciprocity, my angel," said the head of the house, "is easily explained. It means a general evening up,—as, say when Smithers asks me in to take a cigar and I ask him to have another." "Exactly," said Mrs. C., "when I go to Hawley Bros. for tea and I hand Mr. Hawley a dollar and he gives me four or five pounds of splendid green or black mixture, I get the money's worth and he the money. Isn't that it?" "Exactly," said the husband as he reached for his hat. d30tf

WILLIAM TO HIS PEOPLE.

Which Evokes Tremendous [illegible] and Shouts of "[illegible]"

BERLIN, Feb. 20.—At a dinner given in his honor this evening by the Brandenburg Diet, Emperor William said he was aware that what he had recently done had changed many of his people and that they hesitated to follow him. It was necessary however for them to confide in him with a view to the welfare of the whole people. Prussia, he said, became great because in 1813 the whole nation confided in and rallied to the support of the King.

"In our time," the Emperor continued, "when disloyalty and other vices steal through the world, when an ocean of printing ink and paper is lavished to embarrass and darken everything lying clear before us, you must hold with me. I remain calm in the hope that you will follow me. May I find enough faithful men to do my bidding. The Emperor's speech evoked tremendous enthusiasm. The magnates besieged the imperial table to express their confidence and the hall resounded with shouts of "Hoch, Hoch."

Tokar Occupied

SUAKIM, Feb. 20.—Tokar has been occupied by the Egyptian troops, who met with but slight resistance.

Colliers' Strike

LONDON, Feb. 20.—The men employed in a dozen collieries at Durham have struck, owing to the evictions of strikers from their residences upon Lord Londonderry's property.

Twenty-two thousand Durham miners have struck.

A False Report.

BERLIN, Feb. 20.—The Bourse was agitated to-day owing to canards announcing Emperor William was ill. These reports, it is said, were circulated for the purpose of influencing subscriptions for the new loan. The authorities are trying to discover the authors of the rumors.

Many Travelers Perish

LONDON, Feb. 20.—Severe gales accompanied by heavy snow are reported throughout Greece, causing interruption of the telegraph service. Sixteen travelers have perished.

A Fight Expected.

SUAKIM, Feb. 20.—Information from El Teb states that the Egyptians will march towards Afafite this morning, expecting to meet Osman Digna's forces there. A deserter from the enemy has reached El Teb and reports that Osman Digna's forces are drawn up in battle array about Afafite. A decisive encounter is expected.

Foreign Notes.

The Bishop of Limerick is seriously ill.

The Earl of Zetland, Viceroy of Ireland, is visiting the west coast to personally investigate the condition of the people of that section, many of whom are represented to be suffering for food.

Mr. Leslie Fraser Duncan, late editor of The Matrimonial News, has paid Miss Gladys Knowles the reduced amount of damages, £500 with costs, awarded to her as a result of her suit against him for breach of promise of marriage.

Fire broke out on Wednesday in the apartments of the Empress in St. Petersburg, but the flames were promptly extinguished and only slight damage was done. The Czar personally directed the operations of the firemen.

THE MAGGIE GEHL CASE.

The Government Authorities Asked to Investigate the Matter.

PORT ARTHUR, Feb. 2[illegible].—The jury in the case of Maggie Gehl, who died suddenly while visiting an acquaintance, met last night. This is the verdict returned: We, the jury empanelled [illegible] as follows: That in the opinion of the jury the said Maggie Gehl came to her death by unnatural means, the cause of which is at present time unknown to the jury. And we are of the opinion that in the interests of justice this case should be investigated by the proper authorities.

Heavy Storm in the West.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—Reports received here show a terrific snow, sleet and rain storm is raging from the Allegheny Mountains as far west as Kansas. In Illinois and Missouri the storm is especially severe. In portions of Illinois and Iowa fruit trees have broken down under the weight of ice and street cars were forced to suspend traffic. In Wisconsin the snow storm was general and caused considerable delay to trains. In South Dakota and at many points in Western and Southern Minnesota the heaviest storm of the winter is raging.

Boys and Firearms

UXBRIDGE, Feb. 20.—A Scott boy, of the 7th con., named Horner, shot himself with a revolver on Sunday. It went off accidentally, the ball passing through his hand in a slanting direction. James Compton, a boy of 17, was shot in the thigh at the shooting gallery. The bullet went in quite a distance, striking a bone and taking a downward course. It could not be extracted.

More Desirable than a Fine Face.

Contentment, good humor and complacency of temper outlive all the charms of a fine face, and make the decays of it invisible. The God-given qualities always follow the use of Paine's Celery Compound. We know of instances in our experience where the ill-tempered, irritable and ugly in disposition, made so from ailments such as overworked and tired brain, nervous debility, a feeling of goneness, sleeplessness, dyspepsia and indigestion, have been completely changed in character and disposition by the use of Paine's Celery Compound. Good humor and complacency of temper afterwards reigned supreme in their lives and actions.

It is these qualities, dear reader, and not the charms and attractions of a fine face, which will make you loveable and popular with your friends during life. The glow of health in the ordinary looking face, which Paine's Celery Compound gives, will outlive the handsome face and features of the subject who never uses this great tonic. If you are ailing in any way, or feel out-of-sorts, keep this valuable Compound near you; and by its use you will soon find health, joyousness, appetite and strength your portion in life.

BABY'S FACE WAS RAW.

Distressing Itching Skin Disease Cured in One Month by the Cuticura Remedies.

When our boy was six weeks old he had a rash on his cheek. It spread on both cheeks and chin. His face was all raw. I doctored with various remedies, but it got no better. My mother advised me to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I used them faithfully, and in one week the boy looked better. In one month he was cured, and now he is three years old and no signs of it returning. The child was so bad I had to tie him in a pillow case, and pin his hands down so that he could not scratch his face. I cannot speak too highly of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I recommend CUTICURA whenever I can. I would be pleased to see anyone and talk to them of the good it has done my boy.

MRS. CYRUS FROSCH, Coytesville, Fort Lee P.O., N.J.

N.B. My husband is president of the Frosch Manufacturing Company, proprietors of the "Duplex" and "Triplex" Photographic Shutters, 80 Broome Street, New York City. He dislikes undesirable notoriety, but is willing to make sacrifices to benefit others, and consents to this testimonial to encourage the use of CUTICURA, and thus bring relief to others.

Cuticura Resolvent

The new Blood and Skin Purifier, internally, and CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, and exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally, instantly relieve and speedily cure every disease and humor of the skin, scalp, and blood, with loss of hair, from infancy to age, from pimples to scrofula.

Sold everywhere. Price, CUTICURA, 75c.; SOAP, 35c.; RESOLVENT, $1.50. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CORPORATION, Boston.

☞ Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases," 64 pages, 50 illustrations, and 100 testimonials.

BABY'S Skin and Scalp purified and beautified by CUTICURA SOAP. Absolutely pure.

RHEUMATIC PAINS. In one minute the Cuticura Anti-Pain Plaster relieves rheumatic, sciatic, hip, kidney, chest and muscular pains and weaknesses. Price 30c.

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. All druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are placing a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have a Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup, or Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

The D & L Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil AND THE Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda.

No other Emulsion is so easy to take.
It does not separate nor spoil.
It is always sweet as cream.
The most sensitive stomach can retain it.

CURES

Scrofulous and Wasting Diseases.
Chronic Cough.
Loss of Appetite.
Mental and Nervous Prostration.
General Debility, &c.

Beware of all imitations. Ask for "the D. & L." Emulsion, and refuse all others.

PRICE 50C. AND $1 PER BOTTLE.

OPEN FOR INSPECTION!

A handsome and very useful line of

CASE GOODS

COMPRISING

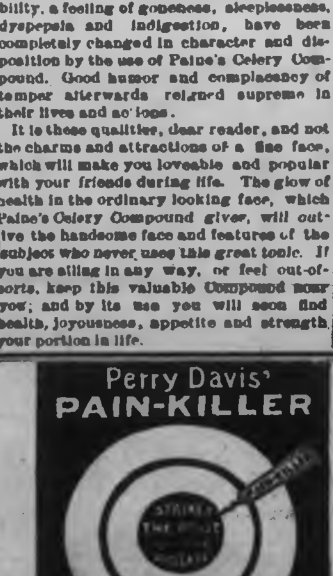
Carver Sets,

Ladies' and Gentlemen's

COMPANIONS

These Goods are the Best English Make.

KINGAN & Co



Perry Davis'
PAIN-KILLER
STRIKES THE RIGHT SPOT
Is used both internally and externally. It acts quickly, affording almost instant relief from the severest pain.

DIRECTLY TO THE SPOT.
INSTANTANEOUS IN ITS ACTION.

For CRAMPS, CHILLS, COLIC, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, CHOLERA MORBUS, and all BOWEL COMPLAINTS,

NO REMEDY EQUALS
THE PAIN-KILLER.

In Canadian Cholera and Bowel Complaints its effect is magical. It cures in a very short time.

THE BEST FAMILY REMEDY FOR BURNS, BRUISES, SPRAINS, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA and TOOTHACHE.

SOLD EVERYWHERE AT 25C. A BOTTLE.

☞ Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations.

DO YOU KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE?
ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM.
NO BETTER REMEDY FOR COUGHS, COLDS, CROUP, CONSUMPTION, &C.

TO THE ELECTORS

OF THE

East Riding

OF THE

COUNTY OF PETERBOROUGH.

GENTLEMEN;—Parliament having been dissolved, the present Government appeal again to the people for a renewal of confidence and an approval of the policy of the administration. I have been chosen to contest the Riding in the interests of the Liberal Conservative Party, and I have accepted the nomination and now solicit your support.

The principal question to be decided is as to our trade relations with the United States, whether, as advocated by the Opposition, we shall adopt such a policy as will practically leave us free to trade only with the United States to the exclusion of Great Britain and other countries, or whether we shall, as advocated by Sir John Macdonald, adopt such a policy, as while dealing with the United States in fair and equitable terms and not to the exclusion of Great Britain, will preserve our nationality and enable us still to remain an integral portion of the British Empire.

I am opposed to the policy of the Opposition, as, in my opinion, it simply means annexation to the United States. As an advocate of the views of the Government I appeal to you. The time is so short before the Polling day that I will not be able to personally see all the electors, but I hope to meet most of you at the several meetings which I shall hold throughout the Riding to discuss the questions at issue.

JOHN BURNHAM.
Ashburnham, February 10th, 1891. w71

Choicest Brands

—OF—

FLOUR!

BAKERS and PASTRY

—AT—

MELDRUM & DAVIDSON'S

Quality Guaranteed.

FEED:

All kinds always on hand. Orders left at Ormond & Walsh's or McDonald's drug stores will be promptly attended to.

Mill Telephone No. 196.

LOWEST PRICES FOR CASH.

MULHOLLAND & ROPER

BANKERS AND INSURANCE AGENTS

Banking Department.

Deposit Accounts opened and Notes discounted at short dates or for twelve months if required. Special attention given to the purchase and collection of Farmers' Sale Notes. Drafts drawn on Merchants' Bank of Canada payable in New York, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and at any of its Branches in the Dominion. Cheques on other Banks cashed.

Four to Five per cent. allowed on deposits repayable on demand.

BANKING HOURS.—9 30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m

Insurance Department.

MR. FELIX BROWNSCOMBE is a partner in and manager of this department.

Careful attention given to Fire, Accident and Plate Glass Insurance.

The following companies are represented:—

London and Lancashire, City of London, Phœnix of Brooklyn, Caledonian, Royal Canadian, Agricultural, Montreal Plate Glass, Mutual Accident and Plate Glass, and Norwich and London Accident.

OFFICE HOURS.—9 a.m. to 6 p.m

—ONTARIO—

Planing Mills!

Planing, Matching, Mouldings, Band Sawing & Turning, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Storm Sash.

JAMES Z. ROGERS.

GEO. B. SPROULE,
ARTIST & PHOTOGRAPHER
GROUND FLOOR.,
170 Charlotte-st. . . . . . Peterborough.

FRAMES & PICTURE MOULDINGS.

UNION CREDIT & PROTECTION ASSOCIATION.

FOR the Collection of Old and Worthless Accounts, in any part of the world, and no charges if not collected. This Association has local offices in Canada and United States. Head and general office, 60½ Adelaide-st. East, Toronto. Rooms, 10, 11, 12 and 13. C. E. COLLINS, General Manager; & H. E. ANDREWS, Sec. Address all communications to Toronto, Ont., office. Telephone No. [illegible]. This is the only Association that settles accounts and advances the money to the creditor if desired.

C. E. COLLINS, Manager.
DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON, Solicitors for the Association at Peterborough.
August [illegible]. 451 w

Travel.

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY OF CANADA.

The direct route between the west and all points on the Lower St. Lawrence and Baie de Chaleur, Province of Quebec, also New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward, Cape Breton and the Magdalene Islands, Newfoundland and St. Pierre.

Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax daily (Sunday excepted) and run through without change between these points in 30 hours.

The through express train cars of the Intercolonial Railway are brilliantly lighted by electricity and heated by steam from the locomotive.

New and elegant Buffet Sleeping and Day Cars are run on all through express trains.

The popular summer sea bathing and fishing resorts of Canada are along the Intercolonial or are reached by that route.

Canadian, European Mail and Passenger Route.

Passengers for Great Britain or the Continent leaving Montreal on Thursday morning will join outward mail steamer at Rimouski the same evening.

The attention of shippers is directed to the superior facilities offered by this route for the transport of flour and general merchandise intended for the Eastern Provinces and Newfoundland, also for shipments of grain and produce intended for the European market.

Tickets may be obtained and all information about the route, also freight and passenger rates on application to

N. WEATHERSTON,
Western Freight and Passenger Agent, 93 Rossin House Block, York street, Toronto,
D. POTTINGER,
Chief Superintendent.
Railway Office, Moncton, N.B., 2nd July, 1890 1y

CANADIAN PACIFIC Ry.

PEOPLE'S POPULAR ONE WAY PARTIES

TO

British Columbia
WASHINGTON
Oregon and California

Leave Toronto 11 p.m. on Fridays, as under:

March 6, 20, 1891.

RUNNING THROUGH TO VANCOUVER WITHOUT CHANGE

For Berths and all information, apply to nearest C.P.R. Agent.

Carbon Gaslight

A RIVAL TO DAYLIGHT!

A new and Brilliant Illuminating Power—Clear, Steady and Mellow. Specially suited for Stores and large Buildings, Machine Shops, &c. A saving of 30 to 40 per cent. on gas can be effected by this new light

See it Burning at the Store of

J. E. NOBLE & Co.

287 George-st. South.
TELEPHONE—Bell No. 181, Ontario No. 136.

JOHN NUGENT,

CHEMIST AND DRUGGIST.

Prescriptions Carefully Compounded.

Try Nugent's Remedies for Colds, Coughs and affections of the chest and throat.

J. NUGENT,

Drug Store, 179 Hunter-st. west.

BANK of TORONTO

Capital $2,000,000 00
Reserve Fund 1,500,000 00

PETERBORO' BRANCH.

SAVINGS BANK

SPECIAL ADVANTAGES are derived by depositing money in our Savings Bank Department.

1. "ONE DOLLAR saved is one dollar earned."
2. DEPOSITS of ONE DOLLAR and upwards are received and interest allowed thereon.
3. INTEREST is added to the principal on the 31st day of May and 30th day of November, in each year
4. MONEY bears interest from the day it is deposited with the Bank until the day of withdrawal.
5. THE DEPOSITOR is subject to no delay whatever.
6. THE SECURITY offered by this Bank is undoubted, as will be seen by the large reserve held and the amount of surplus available for depositors and note holders.

BUSINESS WITH FARMERS.

FARMERS' NOTES discounted at lowest rates

SPECIAL ATTENTION is given to the collection of Farmers' Sale Notes, and advances made thereon.

NOTE FORMS furnished free of charge on application.

DEPOSITS.

DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS opened subject to withdrawal by cheque on demand.

SPECIAL DEPOSITS.—Deposit Receipts issued bearing interest at current rates.

JOHN L. GOWER,
d116-w67 Manager

Bell Telephone Co.,

OF CANADA.

Capital, - $1,500,000.00.

Head Office, MONTREAL.

AND. ROBERTSON, — President.
C. F. SISE, — Vice-Pres. and Man'g. Dir.
C. P. SCLATER, Secy.-Treas.
HUGH C. BAKER, Man., Ont. Dep., Hamilton.

300 EXCHANGES.

Long distance lines give unequalled facilities for talking between cities, towns and villages.

If you wish to speak to Kingston, Belleville Port Hope, Lindsay, Lakefield, Millbrook, Omemee, Toronto, Hamilton, etc., use the wires of the

BELL TELEPHONE Co.

H. W. KENT,
d48-6mo Local Manager

TO THE WORK. Conservative committee rooms open every night. All favorable to Mr. Stevenson's re-election cordially invited and urged to be present. Polling on March 5th.

Medical.

DR. SCOTT.

OFFICE—176 Brock-st. d129wl6

P. D. GOLDSMITH, M. D.

L. R. C. S., L. S. A., L. R. C. P., London, Eng.,

HAS permanently located in Peterborough. Office and residence, 186 Brock-st., formerly occupied by Mr. J. N. McWilliams. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d47-w8-1y

D. N. CARMICHAEL, M. D.,

C. M., L. R. C. P. Ed.

GRADUATE OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY, Fellow of Trinity Medical School, Licentiate of Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh, L. M. of Simpson's Maternity Hospital, Edinburgh. Office in Mr. Alexander's new residence one door north of the late Dr. O'Sullivan's, George-st. d1mlf-wyr36

DR. B. E. McKENZIE, B. A.

Lecturer on Orthopedic Surgery in the Women's Medical College, and in Toronto University; Consulting Orthopedic surgeon to Victoria Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto.

Diseases of the Joints and Deformities Only

Bloor-st. W. (near Yonge-st.) Toronto, Consultation from 10 to 3. On Friday and Saturday by appointment only.

Will be at the Grand Central Hotel, Peterborough, March 14th. next.

DR. MOHER,

HAS removed to 214 Hunter-st., opposite Marble Works. Office upstairs.

Legal.

HATTON & WOOD.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office, corner of George and Hunter-sts., over T. Dolan & Co's. store. MONEY TO LOAN.
E. B. WOOD, B. A. G. W. HATTON.

SAWERS & STONE.

BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyances, &c. Office, Hunter-st., Peterborough.
☞ MONEY TO LOAN.
E. B. STONE, dw4-w65 C. W. SAWERS.

POUSSETTE & JOHNSTON,

BARRISTERS and SOLICITORS, 379 Water-st.
A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C. W. F. JOHNSTON.

EDWARD A. PECK.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, etc., 352 George-st., Peterborough.

Private Funds to loan at 6 per cent.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter-st., Peterborough next English church. Money to loan at lowest rates of interest.
E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN O'MEARA.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, &c. Office 367 George-st. d-w

JOHN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office: No. 415 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont., next door north of new post office.
MONEY TO LOAN. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter-sts., over McClelland's Jewellery store. d115w19

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water-st., Peterborough. d37w

DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES. Money to Loan. Office, 417 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont.
ARTHUR STEVENSON, B. A.
R. M. DENNISTOUN, B. A.

STRATTON & HALL.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, &c., Peterborough, Ont. Office:—Next door to Post Office on Hunter-st.
W. A. STRATTON, LL. B. R. E. HALL.
d138

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block, Peterborough. wed37

J. E. BELCHER

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George-st. d85w6

Builders and Contractors

E. WEBB,

BRICKLAYER AND CONTRACTOR. All work done substantially and expeditiously. Address E. WEBB, Peterborough. Residence, 386 Aylmer-st. 1yd128

J. J. HARTLEY.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P. O. Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer-sts. 1yd150

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north. P. O. address, Box 83. d159

W. E. WHITEHAIR.

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 386, Peterborough P. O. d65-1yr

JAS. R. DONELL.

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash, Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being a practical man, he trusts to be able to give patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.
y48 JAS. R. DONELL.

Cures in 1 TO 5 DAYS. Guaranteed not to cause Stricture. Mf'd only by The Evans Chemical Co. TORONTO, CAN.

Big G is acknowledged the leading remedy for Gonorrhœa & Gleet. The only safe remedy for Leucorrhœa or Whites. I prescribe it and feel safe in recommending it to all sufferers.

A. J. STONER, M. D., DECATUR, ILL.

Sold by Druggists. PRICE $1.00.

G. A. SCHOFIELD, Agt., Peterborough d 59-ly

THE

CENTRAL CANADA Loan and Savings Co.

Authorized Capital	$5,000,000
Subscribed Capital	2,000,000
Paid-up Capital	[illegible]
Reserve Fund	[illegible]
Invested Funds	[illegible]

OFFICE.—No. 437, George-st., Peterborough.

DEPOSITS received at current rates of interest, paid or compounded half-yearly.

DEBENTURES issued in Currency or Sterling, with interest coupons attached, payable in Canada or in England. Executors and Trustees are authorized by law to invest in the Debentures of this Company.

MONEY ADVANCED on Real Estate security at current rates and on favorable conditions as to repayment.

Mortgages and Municipal Debentures purchased.

GEO. A. COX,
d9w8 Managing Director.

BARAVENA MILK FOOD FOR INFANTS is the safest, cheapest and nearest to Mothers' Milk of any Food made. Ask your Druggist. THE IRELAND NATIONAL FOOD CO. LD. TORONTO

For You!

Reduction in prices of all Cloths. Suits and Overcoats to order for less money than ever to clear out the balance of winter stock.

Order now.

D. CAMERON & Co.
Tailors and Clothiers, 434 George-st.

TOOLS!

BUILDING HARDWARE!

NAILS, LOCKS, HINGES,
and all Building Hardware

Edge Tools, Saws, Files, Planes
and all Mechanics' Tools.

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc., etc.
of the Best Quality and
Lower in Price than Elsewhere

GEO. STETHEM.

IF YOU WISH
TO Advertise
Anything
Anywhere
AT Any time
WRITE TO
GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.
No. 10 Spruce Street,
NEW YORK.

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE.

February 1st. 1891.

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
5 30 a m 6 00 p m	Montreal and East, via O. & Q. R.	11 00 a m 9 00 p m
11 30 a m 11 30 p m	Toronto and West, via O. & Q. R.	6 15 p m 9 00 p m
	Grand Trunk, East & West	1 30 p m
	do East	5 30 p m
12 00 a m 8 00 p m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west.	8 00 a m 4 30 p m
8 30 a m 5 15 p m	Millbrook and Port Hope. do do	11 15 a m 5 30 p m
8 35 a m 4 00 p m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings	1 00 p m
	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	11 15 a m
10 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clydale, Paudash and Cheddar, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 30 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays
	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do do	4 00 p m
	British Mails per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	9 00 p m
12 noon	Via New York, Mondays. Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	4 30 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz. by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire, Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Australia, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbadoes, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings Bank, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxemburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey. And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before. Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guiana, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books, &c., 4c for 4 oz. Other Registration fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Payment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 12 cents, papers 4 cents.

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents. H. C. ROGERS, Postmaster

MUNN & CO SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN AGENCY for PATENTS

A pamphlet of information and abstract of the laws, showing How to Obtain Patents, Caveats, Trade Marks, Copyrights, sent free. Address MUNN & CO. 361 Broadway, New York.

WEDDING CARDS.
LATEST STYLES AT THE
Review Stationery Store.

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XXV.—No. 45. PETERBOROUGH, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1891. TEN CENTS A WEEK

Probabilities.
Increasing winds, mostly east and south; cloudy weather followed by sleet or rain; higher temperature.

Carpets!

New arrivals of Carpets speak eloquently in favor of the

Matchless Beauty

and elegance of design thrown into this season's weave.

Our stock will be complete in every way and in placing prices on the different lines we've started out with the determination to give the Best Value to be found. Let this fact mingle with your thoughts on house-cleaning.

17,500 Yards
—OF—
NEW PRINTS and SATEENS
Received already.

Mistress Fashion has prescribed such pretty patterns for the coming season.

Be assured we'll keep up our reputation in these line.

ROBERT FAIR,
Sign of the Golden Lion,
363 George Street, Peterborough.
Ontario (144 and Bell Telephone (145)

KID GLOVES!
KID GLOVES!

W. W. JOHNSTON
has just received a complete assortment of
Black and Colored
Kid Gloves
at 85c. per pair.
The Best in the Market at the Price.

SPECIAL VALUE IN
Bed Room Towels and Kitchen Towelling.
Call and see our
ART MUSLIN
at 15c. per yard.
CRYSTAL BLOCK
410 George-st.

Musical.

ORGAN, PIANOFORTE and SINGING
DR. DAVIES.
Organist of St. John's church, late of Christ Church Cathedral and of St. James's Cathedral, Toronto, receives pupils at his residence, 46 McDonnel-st. At home each day from 9 till 10 a. m. and from 2 till 3 p. m. to make engagements, etc. d8-1m

Wood and Coal.

COAL AND WOOD.
THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.
W. R. FERGUSON,
Telephone Connection. Agent

COAL! COAL!
THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of
COAL AND WOOD,
which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
d&w JAMES STEVENSON.

PETERBOROUGH WATER CO.
OFFICE - - 26 HUNTER-ST.
W. HENDERSON, Superintendent
W. ADAMS, Collector.
All water rates and accounts must be paid at the office. Mr. Adams will be in the office from 2 to 5 p.m., every day

D. BELLECHEM,
Issuer of Mariage Licenses,
PETERBOROUGH.

Awnings.
Tents.
AND Sails.

ALFRED KINGSCOTE has opened out in Dandford's Block, on Water-st. opposite the market, where he is prepared to do all kinds of Awning, Tent and Sail making.
Good Work and Low Prices. Remember the place
A. KINGSCOTE,
d88-1yr No. 344 Water-st.

Wants.

ASSISTANT MILLINER
WANTED IMMEDIATELY. Apply at MISS ARMSTRONG'S 24d5

For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE,
A QUANTITY OF PAPER CUTTINGS and shavings. Apply at REVIEW Office.

TO LET.
Store and Dwelling
No. 281 George-st., now occupied by J.J. Turner. Good stand for grocery and boarding house. STORE and DWELLING No. 287 George-st. DWELLING HOUSES No. 93 Hunter-st., and 18 and 20 Queen-st. JOHN J. LUNDY. dtf

REMOVAL.
DR. CARMICHAEL
has removed to his new office and residence, corner of Water and Brock-sts, (opposite the Court House. d148-w52-3mo

A. CLEGG,
Funeral Director.
Ware rooms, - - 437 George-st.
Residence, - 16 Benson-st.
S. CLEGG, Residence, 285 Stewart street. Telephone.

MONEY TO LOAN.
A LARGE amount of private funds has been placed in my hands for loaning on farm security.
J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM,
d6w2 Solicitor, 136 Hunter-st.

SAWS Filed and Gummed in First Class Style. Knives, Scissors, Tools, &c., ground and sharpened. S. W. ENGLISH, shop, 130 Charlotte-st. d15-w1y

EDWIN ELCOME,
TAXIDERMIST
and Dealer in Eyes, Artificial Leaves and Frostings.
BIRDS, ANIMALS, FISH and SNAKES Stuffed and Mounted in and out of cases in the best lifelike style at lowest prices. DEER'S HEADS a specialty. A stock of foreign and native birds always on hand for sale.
Residence, No. 178 Harvey-st., Peterborough

LADIES' JERSEYS
In all the Leading Styles
at Lowest Prices at
PORT HOPE KNITTING WORKS
382 George-st.

CLARK & GIBSON
have now on view and for sale some
VERY FINE GOODS
—CONSISTING OF—
Gold and Silver Watches, Clocks and Fine Jewellery, etc.

Moderate in Price and Newest Patterns.

Ask to see their
English Oak Goods
AND
SCOTCH PEBBLE JEWELLERY
RARE, CHOICE AND BEAUTIFUL.

WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELLERY carefully repaired.
136 Hunter-st., 2 doors west of the PostOffice.

Choicest Brands
—OF—
FLOUR!
BAKERS and PASTRY
—AT—
MELDRUM & DAVIDSON'S
Quality Guaranteed.
FEED:
All kinds always on hand. Orders left at Ormond & Walsh's or McDonald's drug stores will be promptly attended to.
Bell Telephone No. 196.
LOWEST PRICES FOR CASH.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING
EPPS'S COCOA
BREAKFAST.
"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.
Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins, by grocers, labelled thus:
JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England.

—AT—
TURNBULL'S

Owing to so many covered shapes being worn this season we have a quantity of untrimmed Felt Hats and Bonnets left of all styles for Ladies and Children which we have put together in one lot and are clearing out at

25c. each.

This includes everything. Our friends may know what bargains await them as many of them have been sold during the season at from $1.00 to $1.50. Remember you get the choice of this lot for 25c.

We are showing in one of our windows Spring Prints, which are but an indication of the quantities of handsome patterns we have inside.

Our Spring Flannelettes have arrived. The patterns are new and darker, what so many people want. They are very pretty. Quantities of new goods opened every day. We show a handsome range of new shades in Dress Goods suitable for Wedding Outfits.

Further particulars of what we will offer this Spring as special inducements next week.

J. C. TURNBULL
George & Simcoe-sts., Peterborough.

DOMINION
ELECTIONS!
West Riding of Peterborough.
MR. STEVENSON'S
Committee Rooms
OLD COUNCIL CHAMBER,
OPERA HOUSE BLOCK.
Open Every Evening. All Liberal Conservatives and Citizens wishing to maintain the present Government are invited to meet at the Rooms in the interests of the Conservative Candidate.
W. H. MOORE,
Pres. Lib.-Con. Ass'n
W. J. MINORE,
Sec. Lib.-Con. Ass'n

HALL, INNES
& Co.
See our window of
NEW
EMBROIDERIES
Hall, Innes & Co.
130, 132 and 134 Simcoe-st.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

Do
Do you
Do you buy
Do you buy Dry
Do you buy Dry Goods!
Perhaps
Perhaps you
Perhaps you do.
Look
Look for
Look for our
Look for our Opening.
On
On next
On next Saturday.
New
New Store,
New Store, Stock,
New Store, Stock, Prices.
365
365 George
365 George Street.
O.
O. C.
O. C. ROWSE. d44-w9

The Daily Review.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1891.

OSMAN DIGNA ROUTED.

AND OVER 800 OF HIS FOLLOWERS SLAIN.

A Hand-to-Hand Encounter with Sword and Bayonet—The Egyptians Fight Bravely and Suffer Comparatively Little Loss—Digna Fleeing to Kassala

AFAFITE, Egypt, via Suakim, Feb. 21.—A severe engagement was fought at Tokar on Feb. 19 between the Egyptian troops who recently left El Teb and Osman Digna's forces. Nearly 1000 lives were lost in the battle which followed the appearance of the Egyptians at Tokar.

The Egyptians made their advance during the early dawn of the morning of Thursday. The enemy was sighted near Tokar, and after an exchange of shots between the skirmishers of the enemy and the advance guard of the Egyptians, the latter pushed forward through the brushwood surrounding Tokar and its neighborhood in order to seize the old Government building, now little more than a ruin, but which forms a strategic point where a force of infantry could hold out against heavy odds. The dervishes, seeing the object of the Egyptian advance in that direction, made a rush for the building and surrounded it by a compact mass of Arab riflemen, who poured a hot fire into the ranks of the advancing Egyptians. The latter, however, were not to be checked in their advance, returning the Arabs' fire as they advanced.

The Egyptians fixed bayonets when within easy distance of the enemy, and charged upon the defenders of the ruins. For over an hour a desperate hand-to-hand, bayonet to spear and sword fight followed, during which the Egyptian troops fought with the most determined bravery. Finally the Egyptian cavalry made a brilliant charge upon the dervishes, who retired in disorder, suffering a crushing defeat. The dervishes numbered at least 2000 fighting men. About an equal force of Egyptians succeeded in reaching the shelter of the building before the Arabs surrounded them for the attack.

After the retreat of the dervishes the troops found over 700 dead around the position mentioned, while large numbers of dead were lying in the bushes around the buildings. Nearly every Emir of importance who was present at the battle fell upon the field. Osman Digna did not take part in the fight, but watched its progress from a point near Afafite. After seeing that his faithful followers had suffered a disastrous defeat Osman Digna, accompanied by about 30 horsemen, fled toward Temrin.

The losses upon the part of the Egyptians are Captain Barrow and 13 men killed, and Captain Beech and four Egyptian officers and 42 men wounded.

After leaving a force of troops to garrison Tokar, the Egyptian troops marched direct to Afafite and ascended the hills recently occupied by the enemy. The place they occupied was found to have been abandoned, though there were hundreds of Arabs in the vicinity. These Arabs quietly surrendered to the Egyptians, handing over to their captors a number of banners, spears and rifles and two guns. The Egyptians also captured large quantities of stores and ammunition.

The Egyptians to-night bivouac at Afafite and advance on Temrin to-morrow.

Osman Digna is fleeing to Kassala.

A Tramp Murdered in British Columbia.

VICTORIA, B.C., Feb. 23.—Some three weeks ago the particulars of the finding of a body of an unknown man, floating in the Fraser River, a little distance below Chilliwhack, were published. Two men have now been arrested as perpetrators of the deed. These are a half-breed named Victor and an Indian named Sheol. The murdered man was named Patrick O'Shea. He was a tramp, and claimed to have walked across the continent from Montreal to Westminster. Not finding any employment to suit him there, he turned eastward again, and got as far as Nixomen Slough, where he met with the prisoners, and took up his abode with them. This was in December last, and nothing more is known of him or his doings till the body was recovered from the waters of the Fraser. The body of O'Shea was found floating in the Fraser, below Chilliwhack, on Jan. 23, and the evidence at the coroner's inquest showed that the man had been killed by a violent blow on the head and afterwards dragged to the river with a rope round his neck. The prisoners are held on remand, and will be tried this week.

A TRIO OF ELOPEMENTS

FAITHLESS WOMEN BROUGHT TO BOOK IN MANY PLACES.

Captured and Jailed at Ottawa—Peculiar Sequel to the Flight of a Man with His Sister-in-Law—Courtship and Prison—Man's Inhumanity to Woman.

BRACEBRIDGE, Feb. 22.—A man named Walker, who has been living at Beaverton for a few weeks, was arrested there on a charge of bigamy. His wife and daughter, who live in Toronto, have been separated from him for 17 years. They bear the name of being very respectable, and have desired him to leave this woman (as it seems that this is not the first time this has happened), and return to the family circle, and all would be forgiven. Constable Hill escorted his prisoner to Bracebridge, where he will stand his trial.

Sensational Termination of a Courtship.

EMERSON, Feb. 22.—John Lee is a travelling horse doctor. At Emerson he was smitten by the charms of a Miss Pearce and paid her considerable attention. It was of no result, as the young woman was already plighted to a Dominion City resident. However, Lee determined to ascertain his chances of success, and called at the house to get an answer from the young woman. The mother keeps a boarding-house, and on the table was a copy of The Police Gazette, one of the illustrations in which showed a man shooting at a woman. Picking this paper from the table Lee approached the mother, and pointing to the picture, remarked:

"That scene will be enacted here soon!"

Lee then went into the front room, where Miss Pearce was sitting, and in a serious mood informed her he wanted an answer within five minutes, and if she refused to take him he would shoot her on the spot. While speaking the last of these words Lee put his right hand back, as if to draw something from his hip pocket. Miss Pearce told Lee if he would come back in 10 minutes she would give him an answer. On his leaving the house the constable was sent for and an information sworn out against him for using threatening language. Lee said he had no intention of shooting and that he was only playing a practical joke. However, the justice imposed a fine of $100 or three months' imprisonment and he went to jail.

Sequel to an Elopement.

BELLEVILLE, Feb. 22.—Frances Johnson in June, 1882, deserted his wife and eloped with the wife of her brother, William Thomson of Herschel Township. The two have since lived at Fenelon Falls. Yesterday Johnson was arrested on a charge of assisting in the larceny of goods from the house of Thomson.

Elopers Caught.

OTTAWA, Feb. 22.—The wife of Benjamin Neilson, a German sugar refiner of Montreal, eloped two months ago with a friend of her husband and yesterday Neilson traced the couple to a house in Clarence-street in this city and had them arrested on a charge of stealing $400 and several household articles. The husband agreed to withdraw the charge against his wife if she would go back with him, but this she declined to do.

Another Victory For Capron.

CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—In the Brunswick-Balke Collender billiard tournament Friday night Maggioli defeated McLaughlin. Score: Maggioli, 400; best run, 44; average, 9.4-44. McLaughlin, 364; best run, 36; average, 8.20-43. Catton defeated Hatley, 400 to 226; Carter beat Shaw, 400 to 134.

In to-night's play Ives defeated Catton. The score was: Ives, 400; best runs, 101, 80, 81; average, 18.4-22; Catton, 133; best run, 25; average, 6.7-21. Hatley defeated Maggioli, 400 to 297: Hatley's best run, 68; average, 12.4-33; Maggioli's best run, 35; average, 7.8-38. Capron beat Shaw, 400 to 378; Capron's best run, 39; average, 5.41-71; Shaw's best run, 30; average, 5.23-70.

The World's Skating Championship.

ALBANY, Feb. 21.—Representatives of the National Amateur Skating Association met in this city to-night and completed arrangements for a fancy skating contest for the championship of the world, to be held Monday in the rink of the Empire Curling Club here. The program is a long one. The entries are: Louis Rubenstein, Montreal; George D. Phillips, New York Athletic Club; Embury McLean, New York Athletic Club; J. F. Bacon, Arlington Boat Club, Massachusetts; Herbert F. Evans, Boston. The prize is now held by Rubenstein.

Fullerton Wins Waterloo Cup.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—The coursing match at Altcar, near Liverpool, for the Waterloo Cup closed to-day. In the first run of the first heat to-day Colonel J. T. North's dog Fullerton, by Greentick, out of Bit of Fashion, defeated T. Baxter's dog Button Park, by Jester, out of Brampton. In the second run, G. F. Fawcett's bitch Faster and Faster (late Pride of Oakfield), by Northern Express, out of Pride of Belmont, beat Bovril. This left Fullerton and Faster and Faster to run the deciding heat. Fullerton was the favorite in the betting, starting in the final heat at odds of 5 to 2 on him. He proved the winner, defeating Faster and Faster by two lengths.

Valuable Thoroughbreds Poisoned.

DUBLIN, Feb. 21.—A dispatch from Celbridge, County Kildare, says that nine valuable thoroughbred race horses and hunters at Sherwin's training stable, at Celbridge, have been poisoned by arsenic, which was placed in the oats given to them for food. The thoroughbreds were owned by the Duke of Leinster's steward, Captain Thornton, and other men of the neighborhood.

Foster Gets the Place.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The President has nominated Charles Foster of Ohio Secretary of the Treasury.

Arsenic in Wall Paper.

BOSTON, Feb. 23.—Hon. Samuel C. Cobb died last evening at his residence, No. 298 Boylston-street, aged 64 years. Mr. Cobb had been ill for several months, but his death is attributed to poisoning by arsenic, which he inhaled from the wall paper draperies and bed clothing of his room.

Fatally Scalded.

BEAVERTON, Feb. 21.—A little nine-year-old daughter of Mr. Tucker got very badly scalded a few days ago. She was sitting near the stove lacing her shoes, when the boiler being lifted from the stove was accidentally upset on her. She was terribly scalded, and there is small hope of her recovery.

A Mother and Child Lose Their Lives.

SAGINAW, Feb. 21.—Mrs. John Jones, residing on Astor-street, whose husband is in the employ of Flint & Pere Marquette Railroad, and with her infant child, were fatally burned this evening by her own carelessness in attempting to clean the soot of coals [illegible] [illegible] [illegible].

WHO IS THE LADY?

Aristocratic Wrong-Doing by a Scotch Peer's Daughter.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—The sensational divorce already cabled is the talk of the town.

Adjoining a dining room set aside for the use of barristers' clerks in the House of Lords is a dark passage. One evening lately the husband was surprised to see a lady who resembled his wife entering this passage.

The impression produced on him was so strong that he turned back, entered the dark passage, struck a light and found his wife in the arms of the person implicated. This is the story at the clubs.

Mr. Labouchere, who is personally opposed to the man suspected, is only waiting for the first move in the courts to make the whole affair public.

The Scottish Leader says to-day editorially: "The prospect for a sensational divorce case coming before court is still eagerly discussed in the political clubs. Up till last night no petition had been filed, and, although the case is known to be in the hands of an eminent firm of solicitors, the delay is considered to point to an amicable settlement.

"The gentleman upon whom devolves the responsibility of setting the wheels of the law in motion is disposed, out of consideration for the family, to view a private arrangement with favor.

"On no account, however, will he hold any communication, directly or indirectly, with his wife, who, he alleges, has shamefully betrayed him.

"Not the least interesting aspect of the case is that the political dandy who is said to be concerned has in the most effusive manner possible been posing as an embodiment of injured innocence in society circles. The case is sure to cause a greater sensation than even that of Mr. Parnell and Mrs. O'Shea.

"The lady who has been the cause of all the trouble is a little over 30 years of age, belongs to an historical Scottish family, and has for the last few seasons been one of the foremost leaders of fashion in the West End of London."

Foreign Notes.

Fifty insurgents have been killed in a fight on the frontier of Wuntho, India.

French ships have been shelling the native villages at the Island of Raiteor.

General Silva, a retired army officer, and many others have been arrested for complicity in the Oporto revolutionary riots.

Advices from Chili report desperate fighting at Pisagua resulting in the defeat of the insurgents. A battle is in progress at Iquique.

The Catholic primate of Armagh in a sermon yesterday praised the dissenters in England for having risen as one to mark their abhorrence of the sin of impurity.

The International skating tournament at Christiania was won by Hagen, the Norwegian, who won the 2 and 3-mile contests. Cormack, the Canadian, won the mile race in 2 minutes 34 2-5 seconds. Twelve thousand spectators witnessed the races.

A pastoral letter from the Bishop of Cloyne was read in all the Catholic Churches in the County Cork yesterday, warning the Catholics that the threats of Parnell point to a design to induce the people to ignore the precepts of religion and defy the authority of the church.

An unsuccessful attempt was made to hold an outdoor anti-Parnell meeting at Carrick-on-Shannon, county Leitrim, yesterday. The Parnellsympathizers, who were in large force, charged upon and demolished the platform which had been erected for the speakers' accommodation.

Labor Troubles Abroad.

The strike of plush weavers at Bradford is extending and threatens to involve 3000 workmen.

The Belgian council of industry composed of masters and workmen have sent memorial to the Government asking it to avert a general strike by extending the right of suffrage.

The London dockers committee have issued a manifesto charging the shipping federation with committing breaches of faith. The union men had a demonstration in Victoria Park to-day and were advised by the speakers not to go out on strike until thoroughly organized.

Powder Mills Blown Up.

BERLIN, Feb. 23.—A terrible explosion occurred to-day at the German powder works at Spandau. Twelve cars of powder just loaded for the government arsenal exploded, destroying an immense amount of property and injuring several workmen. Fortunately the accident happened at a moment when most of the employes were absent from the works.

Killed by a Factory Collapse

LONDON, Feb. 23.—A despatch from Morocco states that the arms factory at Fez has collapsed, several persons being killed and many injured.

Twenty-two Drowned.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 22.—The American ship Elizabeth went on the beach at North Heads yesterday and 22 of the vessel's crew were drowned.

Six Unfortunates Cremated.

BROOKLYN, Feb. 21.—A fire broke out last night in the four-story double flat house, Nos. 129 and 131 Sands-street. Before it was extinguished it resulted in the death of six persons. In the two buildings were 33 families. All escape for the inmates were cut off by the staircase. The flames caught the dress of Mrs. Griffin and she was quickly burned to death. Soon afterwards Mrs. Margaret Dorney, aged 35, Daniel Dorney, 8 years, Minnie Dorney, 6 years, were burned to death. Jacob Benedict, 71 years of age, and Edward Benedict, a 17-months-old child, were also burned to death.

Disturbance at a Funeral.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—The remains of Col. Dyott, ex-Member of Parliament, were interred in the family vault at Lichfield, Staffordshire, yesterday evening. The funeral was a remarkable event. Twenty torch-bearers surrounded the coffin as it was borne to the Dyott vault, and a crowd of people, estimated at 15,000, witnessed the ceremonies. The Mayor of Lychfield and the Corporation in their robes of office, preceded by the Town Crier and the Mace-Bearer, met the hearse at the church and escorted the coffin up the centre aisle to the catafalque, upon which it was placed before the altar rails.

While the funeral services were in progress, the church being packed to the doors, thousands of the would-be spectators, being unable to gain admittance, made a rush at the doors of the sacred edifice, causing a scene of wild excitement. During the tumult the police present had a hard fight with the crowd, which was attempting to force an entrance into the church, but the officers finally succeeded in closing the doors. The crowd of people gathered about the church and church-yard and did not disperse until about midnight.

Sir John's Son in Winnipeg.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 21.—Sir Donald Smith declined the Conservative nomination in Winnipeg to-night and Hugh J. Macdonald son of Sir John, was unanimously chosen a standard-bearer. He accepted.

117 LIVES LOST.

FRIGHTFUL DISASTER IN A NOVA SCOTIA MINE.

Vessels Collide in the British Channel—A Family of Six Cremated—Powder Mills Blown Up—An Arms Factory at Fez

SPRING HILL COAL MINES, N.S., Feb. 22.—The greatest calamity that ever befel a Canadian colliery occurred yesterday afternoon, when 120 lives were lost. The full extent of the disaster was not realized until to-day. But to-day the terrible nature of the catastrophe is realized. At the lowest estimate 117 lives are lost, and 60 or 70 heart-broken widows and nearly 200 helpless little children are thrown upon the mercies of the world. The Spring Hill colliery is the largest in Canada. It was opened up about 15 years ago, and is located 6 miles from the main track of the Intercolonial Railway, and on the line of the Spring Hill and Parrsboro Railway. Fully 2000 hands are employed in and about the mines. Its output exceeds half a million tons per annum. The property is owned by Montreal and English capitalists, largely supplies fuel for the Intercolonial Railway, and controls the market along that road as far west as Quebec. It was formerly managed by R. G. Leckie, now manager of Londonderry Iron Works. He was succeeded more than a year ago by J. R. Cowans, a young man from Montreal, son of one of the principal owners of the property. The town comprises some 7000 people, who are solely dependent upon the mines.

The explosion took place at 1 o'clock and was confined to No. 6 and 7 balances, where it did its most deadly work. The balances are in the west side of No. 1 slope, extending from the 1200 feet to 1800 feet level in No. 2 slope. The two pits are connected for purposes of ventilation, and it is owing to this cause that so many were killed in No. 2. The bodies taken out of that pit were not mutilated in any way and there was evidence of having been suffocated by the deadly after-damp. At No. 1 slope there were some ghastly sights. The first exploring party found bodies of two so badly mutilated that they could only be taken to the surface in bags. One body was cut in two across the abdomen, one arm was missing, the face was a mass of blackened, burnt flesh.

The work of recovering the bodies was pushed forward and a searching party entered the mine at 11 o'clock last night. A number of bodies were taken up and to-day the work is going on steadily. The dead are being brought up more rapidly and it is expected that most of the dead will be out of the pits to-day, except those who are buried beneath falls of roof. Two of those wounded died last night.

Sad Cases.

In several families the affliction is very great. Reid Carter and his two sons, Willard and Clarence, are all dead. The Carmichael family, three sons, John, Andrew and William, are dead. Jesse Armishaw went down No. 2 slope yesterday and found his three sons, Jesse and Herbert and John Brainbridge, an adopted son all lying together. The sight sickened and unnerved him, and he had to return to the surface without them, frantic with grief. Two sons of Robert McVey, both under 14 years, were laid out side by side. Hugh Bust loses two boys, Andrew and Alexander. These sorrowful households are only a few of the large numbers from whom the bread winners have been snatched. To-day one meets everywhere women and children weeping piteously. The deepest gloom has settled over the whole community. During the night the people were astir, and little knots of men eagerly discussed the situation. A special train arrived from Westville and other mining centres in Pictou county with relations of the dead and others. A steady stream of curious people has been pouring into the town from all quarters, and the visitors are numerous. Some of the bodies taken out were fearfully mutilated. Those who were beyond recognition were identified by their clothing or marks on the body. The carpenter shop has been temporarily converted into a deadhouse to which all corpses are taken, washed and prepared for their coffins. It is a most gruesome sight. The shop is continually crowded by sorrowing relatives looking for their dead.

94 Bodies Recovered.

Up to 11 o'clock to-night 94 bodies had been recovered. Arrangements have been completed for a public funeral.

This morning Chief Inspector Gilpin arrived by special train, and accompanied by Mr. Maddox, went down the mine. Mr. Gilpin says so far as the evidence shows the explosion occurred on either No. 6 or 7 balances, and that the force of the explosion in these balances was very great. Most of the timber was knocked out, allowing the roof to fall, breaking the bones and mutilating men and horses. Two small fires were smoldering in the debris, but were extinguished at once without any difficulty by the searching party. The explosion, Gilpin says, did very little damage to property in No. 2 slope, having extended but a short distance beyond the tunnel, and all the deaths in that slope are from suffocation by afterdamp. The explosion may have been caused by an outbreak of gas which had taken place while the men were away taking their dinner a short time previously. Another theory of the cause of the explosion which is generally accepted is that it was due to a blown-out shot.

Mayor Hall has issued an appeal to the public for assistance in which he states that 117 lives are known to be lost, 51 widows have been left behind and 187 children made fatherless. The first subscription of $500 was received from J. W. Clendennan, president of the Acadian Coal Company, New York. The public funeral of the 94 dead recovered will take place Tuesday. Over 20 bodies are yet to be recovered, including that of Manager Swift.

Run Down in the English Channel—Seven of Her Crew Drowned.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—One of the Great Eastern Railway Company's channel mail steamers came into collision this morning with the steamship Queen of the North Sea. The latter sank soon after the collision. Seven of the crew of the Queen of the North Sea were drowned.

Another Colliery Disaster.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—A colliery at Mislowitz, Hungary, caved in to-day, burying a large number of miners. Four dead bodies have been taken out and there is no hope of rescuing any of the men alive as the work of excavating the mines will be very slow and the victims have undoubtedly been suffocated.

A Railway Agent's Sudden Death.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Feb. 23.—Frank D. Swan, agent of the Michigan Central Railway at this point, died suddenly at his residence this morning. He has not enjoyed the best of health.

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes

That Tired Feeling

creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

"I derived very much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took for general debility. It built me right up, and gave me an excellent appetite." Ed. Jenkins, Mt. Savage, Md.

Fagged Out

"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. Begole, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

Worn Out

"Hood's Sarsaparilla restored me to good health. Indeed, I might say truthfully it saved my life. To one feeling tired and worn out I would earnestly recommend a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla." Mrs. Phebe Moshier, 39 Brooks Street, East Boston, Mass.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy anything else instead. Insist upon having

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

The Daily Review.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1891.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

AN OLD SONG RE-SUNG.

The old worn-out story that did duty years ago, that when a man gets up in the morning he washes in a washbasin that is taxed, etc., etc., has again been resurrected from the oblivion to which was relegated in 1887, when for a few weeks the Liberals were protectionists. It is simply a bundle of falsehoods. Take the article first mentioned as an example, the washbasin. Tin is admitted free into Canada, and is made up in shops like those of Messrs. Bain & Co. or Mr. Adam Hall, and they certainly pay no duty to the Government for making it up. Take the table for another example. There is no tax on the wood of which it is composed, and everybody knows that our cabinetmakers pay no tax to the Government for making it. And take coal as another example. Hard coal is produced in Canada now, in the Northwest. If it is answered that the coal used in Peterborough is brought from the United States, we have only this to say, that there is no duty on such coal coming from the United States or any place else. How does anyone think that such rubbish can be palmed off on an intelligent people? Further, if the present tariff is too high, how would matters be improved by adopting unrestricted reciprocity and the higher tariff of the United States?

THE VALUE OF FARM PROPERTY.

The Liberal speakers who look through Sir Richard Cartwright's blue ruin spectacles are never tired of asserting that the value of farm property has decreased. Surely that will not charge the Mowat Government with manipulating statistics in the interest of Sir John Macdonald, for if there is any manipulation in the Ontario returns it would be the other way. Yet the report of the Ontario Bureau of Industries says that farm land in Ontario has increased $8,000,000 in value since 1884, and that the value of all farm property has increased in value $60,000,000 since 1882. It would not be surprising if, with the opening up of large tracts of new lands the value of land did not increase, but the Bureau report referred to shows a steady increase in the value of farm buildings and the increase of nearly $100,000,000 in all farm property, land included.

THE GLOBE CARTOON.

On Saturday the Globe published a cartoon to illustrate the old story referred to in another place in this paper. In it there are several ridiculous features, and one is especially ludicrous. It is a picture of a number of "untaxed" immigrants arriving, carrying bundles and dejected looking, to take the place of other workmen, but over their heads is the legend "Castle Gar"—the name of the immigrant landing place at New York city "Castle Garden." Castle Garden is in the United States, and that is the country, where all this immigration pictured by the Globe is said to flow in, that the Liberals want to have unrestricted reciprocity with! If the cartoon contains any lesson to the workingmen of Canada to whom it is addressed, it is that they should beware of the Liberal scheme of unrestricted reciprocity with the United States, including "Castle Garden."

Sugar is an article quoted as being heavily taxed. The duties collected on sugar in 1878, under Sir Richard Cartwright's tariff, averaged over two cents a pound, and under the present tariff it averaged a little over a cent and a half. Sugar is cheaper now than it was when Sir Richard's tariff prevailed, and a large number of men are given employment in refineries and out of them by the sugar being refined in Canada. With unrestricted reciprocity, the revenue from sugar would be lost, and the amount thus lost, and millions besides, would have to be made up by direct taxation.

Don't Feel Well,

And yet you are not sick enough to consult a doctor, or you refrain from so doing for fear you will alarm yourself and friends—we will tell you just what you need. It is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which will lift you out of that uncertain, uncomfortable, dangerous condition, into a state of good health, confidence and cheerfulness. You've no idea how potent this peculiar medicine is in cases like yours.

"There are Canadians in Dakota," say Liberal speakers. And there would have been many more there if the Conservative Government had not secured the building of the Canadian Pacific and opened the Northwest.

At the Opera House on Saturday evening Mr. Jury said that the increasing foreign trade of England proved that that country was prosperous. Very well. Canada's aggregate foreign trade under the present fiscal policy has averaged $22,000,000 a year more than during the period of Reform rule. The increase last year was $14,000,000.

Liberal papers are publishing a list of names of men who are said to have turned against the Government for the present Liberal policy. The lists are wonderful compilations. Among the names is that of Col. Domville, who was opposed to the Government in 1887, Mr. Alonzo Wright, who has carried out a desire expressed years ago to retire from public life but who has not said anything indicating a change in his views, and such names as that of Mr. R. C. Clute, who has been a Liberal of the deepest dye since he was anything. The St. Catherines Journal is quoted, but that paper has been practically owned by a Liberal for some time and professedly independent, and the present was thought to be a good time to flop entirely. On the other hand prominent Liberals in large numbers have refused to accept Sir Richard Cartwright's scheme, and among them Mr. Blake.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Toronto, Feb. 23.—David Brown, who was missing from his home, 299 Dovercourt-road, since Thursday of last week, was found drowned in the lake near the Dufferin-street wharf by Park Commissioner Chambers on Saturday afternoon. There was no indication of violence on the body and it is supposed the unfortunate man fell into the water accidentally.

At the fifth annual meeting of the Canadian A.O.U.W. Relief Fund held on the close of the meetings of the Grand Lodge, J. R. Miller, the president, was in the chair and H. M. Wilkinson was secretary.

Following are the chief points of the reports presented:

In 1890, out of $18,385.51 paid for benefits, six full, four half-death claims of members have been paid, and five death claims have had instalments paid on account of benefits due, seven bereavement benefits on death of wife, one bereavement benefit on death of husband, two total disability claims, and 198 members have received relief for sickness and accidents.

Benefits for disability from accident were paid to 14 members in 14 different payments for a total of 96 weeks, amounting to $667, of which 11 male members received $510, and 3 female members $157.

The average benefit per week for the full term of disability by accident was $6.95, and the average benefit paid to each member was $47.64.

The average benefit per week for full term of sickness was $6.51, and the average benefit to each sick member was $76.66.

This is the Board of Directors for the present year: J. R. Miller, Toronto; John Milne, Grand Master, Essex; W. J. Rowe, M. D., Georgetown; James B. Nixon, Toronto; James Watt, Toronto; W. M. Wilkinson, Toronto; M. A. James, Bowmanville; J. C. Walker, P. G. Guide, Guelph; W. J. Graham, Toronto; Robert Alexander, P.M.W., Galt; J. J. Patterson, R. M. Flint, Thomas Riley, Toronto; W. P. Appleby Georgetown, and George Hanna, Thorold.

These are the officers: J. R. Miller of Miller & Duncan, barrister-at-law, etc., Toronto, president; Robert Alexander, Galt, 1st vice-president; M. A. James, Bowmanville, 2nd vice-president; J. J. Patterson, Toronto 3rd vice-president; H. M. Wilkinson, 44 Maitland-street, Toronto, secretary; James Watt, Toronto, treasurer; W. J. Rowe Georgetown, medical director. Auditors Thomas Bell, William Hutchenson, Toronto General agent and lecturer, J. B. Nixon, late D.G.M., 14 Lakeview-avenue, Toronto.

FROM THE JAWS OF DEATH.

Seven Starving Men Rescued From an Uninhabited Island.

San Diego, Cal., Feb. 23.—The schooner Elisa has arrived here, bringing several men who, since Nov. 20, have been living on the Guadalupe Island, off the coast of Lower California. The men are reduced to mere skeletons, having subsisted on such fish, wild goats, etc., as they could catch by hand or with primitive traps. The men's wretched condition is due to the heartlessness of a companion named Bartell, who sailed away and left them on the island almost without provisions and ammunition. They had been engaged in killing wild goats and had disposed of one load of skins which netted about $700, and went after another. Bartell was left in charge of the sloop while the men went ashore. The whereabouts of Bartell is unknown.

Misery Among Pearl Workers.

Vienna, Feb. 23.—The committee of citizens appointed to investigate and relieve the wretchedness of the poor in Vienna, and especially the workers in pearl, have met some harrowing incidents. In one family the father, mother and three children had not tasted food in three days and an infant was on the point of death from hunger. Women came to the doors wrapped in ragged bed clothing, having no garments to cover them, and begged with weak voices, not for themselves, but for their children. Men were found who could not seek work or relief because their feet were frozen and crarred by going without shoes. And yet the Imperial Court at Vienna is having a very brilliant season, and the balls held are splendid in the display of toilets.

THE DEATH RECORD.

Death of the Member of the Local for South Grey.

Signor Magliani, formerly Italian Minister of Finance is dead at Rome.

Count Bylandt-Rheydt formerly Austro-Hungarian Minister of War, died of heart disease.

Admiral L. H. Pouson Alvarez, commander-in chief of the Spanish navy, is dead at Madrid.

The death is announced in Ireland, at the age of 85, of Alice Bronte, a sister of the Rev. Patrick Bronte and aunt of Charlotte Bronte.

James Hill Hunter, M.P.P. for South Grey, died at Durham yesterday, after only one day's illness. He leaves a widow and five children. Deceased had represented South Grey for two terms in the Legislature. He was defeated in 1883 by John Blythe, whom he in turn defeated at the general elections last June.

W. A. Stephens, ex-collector of customs died at his home in Owen Sound in Water-street, Saturday afternoon. The deceased was born in Belfast, Ireland, March 15, 1809, and emigrated to Canada in 1832. He wrote and published the first book of poems ever published in Ontario. He removed to Owen Sound in 1850 and was appointed collector of customs in 1859, but his health failed and he was forced to retire.

A cable despatch announces the death of the Earl of Albemarle. The deceased Earl was the oldest English peer. He was born in 1799 and succeeded to the title in 1851. He was the sixth earl, the peerage having been conferred by William III. in 1696. He is succeeded by his son, William Coutts Keppel, who was born in 1832 and called to the House of Lords in 1876 for his special services in the promotion of the volunteer movement.

The Handsomest Lady in Peterborough

Remarked to a friend the other day that she knew Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs was a superior remedy, as it stopped her cough instantly when other remedies had no effect whatever. So to prove this and convince you of its merit any druggist will give you a Sample bottle Free. Large size 50c and $1.

Mr. Stevenson's Address
TO
THE ELECTORS
OF
WEST PETERBOROUGH.

Gentlemen,—The time that will elapse before polling day is so short, and my business demands on my time just now are so great that, though most anxious to do so, I find it altogether impossible to personally call on any considerable number of the electors; and therefore use this medium of placing before you my opinions of the great issue that has been raised by the leaders of the Reform party, viz., Unrestricted Reciprocity with the United States.

The Government of Sir John A. Macdonald many years since placed on the Statute books of the Dominion an Act enabling the Governor-General in Council, whenever the United States declared its readiness to free from duty any named natural products of this country going into that country, to free the same coming into Canada from the United States.

That Statute still remains in force; and, although the Government of Canada has on many occasions called the attention of the authorities at Washington to it, yet they have declined to act on it, but have now signified their willingness to negotiate generally on trade matters.

The present Government has shown its readiness to negotiate for reciprocal trade relations on the basis of the treaty of 1854, which was eminently fair to both countries; and their proposal I will support, but the policy of the Reform party as shown by them and by the politicians and press of the United States, is one which practically hands over to that country the trade of Canada, for the Reform party declare that they are prepared to offer to the United States absolute and unconditional free trade in manufactures, as well as in natural products, and they say such will be accepted by the latter country; and this party, led by Mr. Laurier, urges that such a policy is in our interests, even if we have to discriminate against England and all the rest of the world, and enact and build up a tariff wall equal to that of the United States, and even if we have, in addition, to suffer a loss of revenue, placed by Sir Richard Cartwright in his speech in Toronto, the 13th instant, as reported in the Globe, of $7,000,000 or $8,000,000, but which, it is perfectly certain, would not be less than $12,000,000. I submit for your consideration whether this is really a "free trade" policy or a policy deserving your support. I am convinced that it is not, and that it is opposed to the best interests of Canada. The present tariff of the United States is more than double that of Canada. It is, in fact, the most exclusive and excessive tariff known, and the effect of the adoption of it by us would, in my humble opinion, be to make us, commercially, an unknown land—except to our neighbors to the South, for no other nation would or could import its goods to us as heretofore, and as their shipping would come much less to our shores, our trade in cheese, cattle and other products with Great Britain would be seriously injured, if not wholly ruined. The high freight rates, for want of competition, would alone make these products unprofitable, and I am sure you will hesitate before you destroy or imperil a trade with England and Europe of $82,000,000 yearly, made successful, largely, by reason of the keen competition of shipping from England, which, under our moderate tariff, has, out of all proportion to the extent of the United States, come to Halifax and up the St. Lawrence to our great ports for several years past.

The policy of the present Government since its adoption in 1879, has brought into Canada, a tremendous amount of Capital and produced the manufacture of most of our needs of life at prices, through the competition that has grown up, no higher than in the country from which the capital came.

The population of Peterborough has in ten years almost doubled, and I am confident the present moderate revenue tariff will enable the country to construct great public works in our vicinity, and that our town will be not less than 20,000 population within the next ten years. The proposed policy, I am assured, would endanger all the advantages we have gained and almost certainly end in the ruin of our town, as of many other towns and cities in Canada, and also most seriously injure the farming interests by destroying the home market and in other ways and I therefore cannot give my sanction to such a measure.

I cannot believe that with the declarations of high authority we have as to the terms on which we can obtain unrestricted trade relations, with the United States there is any general feeling in favor of the Reform platform, for I find that Mr. Blain, the Secretary of State at Washington, recently in a public speech used these words: "It is their (Canadians) right to choose for themselves, as it is our right to choose for ourselves, but I am opposed, teetotally opposed, to giving the Canadians the sentimental satisfaction of waving the British flag, paying British taxes, and enjoying the actual cash remuneration of American markets. They cannot have both at the same time. If they come with us they can have what we have. It is an absolute wrong for Congress to say that they shall have exactly the same share in our markets that we have, and so far as I can help it, I do not mean that they shall be Canadians and Americans at the same time" and Mr. McAdoo, a Democratic member of the House of Representatives, recently used these words in the House: "The United States do not desire to add a single acre to its imperial domain but if the people of Canada, in their Soverign capacity wish to maintain unrestricted relations with the people of the United States, they have but to rise in their sovereignity, spontaneously and unsought for act and ask for annexation, which is the cutting of the Gordion knot, and the ultimate destinity of the Canadian people."

Neither can I support the new policy, because, as reported in the Globe on the 5th day of October, 1889, Mr. Erastus Wiman, of New York, who is the partner of the millionaire, Jay Gould, and the sole father of the scheme originated for personal and selfish ends, says: "My idea is that a uniform tariff should be adopted both by the Congress of the United States and the Dominion Parliament of Canada; that Canada should agree to always have the same tariff as the United States; that this tariff should be administered by a join commission of which the majority should, of course, rest with the United State." and the Chicago Times confirms this, as do all the leading papers of the United States by declaring that "entire free trade is impossible, unless the Dominion is prepared to make a complete and unconditional surrender of all control over its own tariff and to accept whatever tariff our Congress may choose to enact from time to time."

I feel that this is a sacrifice and surrender greater than Canada should make for it means the loss of legislative control over our fiscal policy the transference to Washington of the regulation of our tariff and the end of our political existence, and, as said in an American paper "Canadians would be "curs and cads" to entertain the idea."

The end proposed by the Reform leaders I am sure cannot be attained, and, if attained, attainment will bring in its train the incident of direct taxation, with an army of assessors and collectors replacing the Customs Houses and Customs officers along the frontier between the United States and Canada. Mr. Laurier in Quebec a few days ago said that his expectant Finance Minister, Sir Richard Cartwright, would be genius enough to avoid recourse to "so cruel a measure" but in Toronto on the 13th instant, the avoidance the latter found after quoting the words of Mr. Foster, that direct taxation would amount to $30.00 per family, and after entering upon a tirade of abuse of the Government to draw his audience from the question was summed up in these words as given in the Globe's report of his speech, "But it is impossible to deal with these imaginary difficulties, and when I am asked to say what I will do if a possible contingency arises I would respectfully say that we will wait to see the contingency we have to meet."

I am sure the whole electorate will declare with me that this, from a man, posing as a statesman, and seeking the confidence and support of the country was a contemptible and pitiful avoidance of the most vital matter, and an acknowledgement that direct taxation is a necessary incident of the Reform platform.

I would call attention to a matter of local importance, viz., the construction of the Trent Valley Canal, which has been thrown back for two years by the action of prominent members of the Reform party, and the statements in the House that there was good reason for believing that, as a national undertaking, it would prove a failure because of an insufficiency of water. The matter was consequently referred to commissioners to report, and the commissioners having examined the whole of the route and taken a great mass of evidence, have now reported, and the report that has been published is a complete answer to all objections as to its feasibility and the propriety of the undertaking, and, as in the past, I, if elected, shall in the future persistently advocate and insist on the immediate construction of this great work. I am confident it will prove of immense value as a public work, and I know that its importance to this locality will, from various and obvious reasons, be almost inestimable. I am also quite certain that if the Reform party gains power in this election and adopts the policy it is advocating, there will follow such admittedly tremendous deficits in the revenue that even with the aid of direct taxation it will be impossible for the Government, however willing, to undertake the building of this national highway of commerce.

In conclusion, I would ask the electors to accept the above statement as indicating my views of the chief public questions of the hour, and the policy relied on by the leader of the Reform party, and his Wiman allies, as the one by which they hope to gain control of the Government of Canada, and to displace the existing Government, and I would ask all who cannot approve so radical a change as proposed, to rally to the support of the Liberal Conservative party in the present great crisis in our affairs.

I am, gentlemen,

Your sincere and humble servant,

JAMES STEVENSON.

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED!

Grand Rally of the People's Party.

THE QUESTION OF THE HOUR!

The Greatest Good to the Largest Number.

GOUGH BROTHERS are in the field as the Candidates for public approval, basing their claim on the admitted facts that they supply the largest number, the greatest number of times with the largest dollar's worth of the best clothing that money can purchase.

Ask our constituents if this claim is not well grounded?

When you buy, buy from first hands, remembering that we supply Clothing, Furnishings, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes.

GOUGH BROTHERS

The Clothiers, 377 and 379 George-st., Peterborough.

THE STANDARD LIFE Assurance Company,

ESTABLISHED 1832

Subsisting Assurances	$101,[illegible],000.	The Funds Invested in Canada amount to nearly	$6,000,000.
Invested Funds	34,000,000.	Deposited with Dominion Government at Ottawa	1,100,000
Annual Income	4,500,000.
Bonuses Distributed	22,000,000.

All plans of Assurance. Non Forfeitable Policies. Absolutely unconditional policy from date of issue without extra charge. Absolute security. Rates compare favorable with any first-class Company}

W. M. RAMSAY, {Manager, Montreal.}

A.V.R. YOUNG, General Agent, and Inspector for Midland District, 373 Water-st.

C. CAMERON, MULLHOLLAND & ROPER. | Special Agent

PACKING HOUSE STORE!

For a Choice Selection of

Smoked Sugar Cured Meats and Bacon

LARD, guaranteed pure, in any quantity.

GEORGE MATTHEWS

356 George Street, Peterborough.

OPEN FOR INSPECTION!

A handsome and very useful line of

CASE GOODS

COMPRISING

Carver Sets,

Ladies' and Gentlemen's

COMPANIONS

These Goods are the Best English Make.

KINGAN & Co

CAKES!

For a Good Cake, leave your orders at

Long Bros.

Also home-made cakes Iced and nicely Ornamented. Wedding Breakfasts and Evening Parties Catered for. Oyster Patties made to order. Our stock of Candies is pure and made by ourselves.

No. 266 and 414 George-st.

DR. E. A. SPILSBURY

Throat, Nose and Ear. Lecturer on Diseases of the Throat and Nose, Trinity Medical College, Toronto; Surgeon to the Throat and Nose Department, Toronto General Hospital, and late Clinical Assistant, Hospital for the Diseases of the Throat, Nose and Ear, London, England. OFFICE 210 Huron Street, Toronto. wdly

Dr. Spilsbury will be at the Oriental Hotel, Peterborough, on Saturday, February 28th, from 9 to 11 30 a.m. for consultation in Throat, Nose and Ear diseases.

Workingmen. Mr. Stevenson has given time and work and money to build up industries in the town which give employment to large numbers. Send him again to Parliament to continue the good work.

COME, SEE AND BUY ONE OF THE PATENT

BAKING CABINETS

on exhibition at J. J. Turner's Sail, Tent and Awning Factory. This is one of the most complete and useful articles for any and every house as it holds your flour, spices, raisins, meal, sugar, etc., and when you are through baking you can lock it up and it makes a nice piece of furniture.

Having bought the right for Peterborough and Ashburnham to manufacture this I want some good live agents to sell it.

J. J. TURNER,

[illegible] and [illegible] George-st., Peterborough. Telephone day or night. Bell 180, Ontario 73.

HAGGART & KIDD

TOWN and COUNTY } Auctioneers,
COMMISSION and SHIPPING } Merchants,
REAL ESTATE and INSURANCE } Agents.

☞ Money to Loan.

"It is the Safest and Fairest Policy I Have Ever Seen,"

Was the remark made by a prominent representative of one of the largest and best American Life Insurance Companies, when he had carefully examined THE ORDINARY LIFE POLICY OF

—THE—

TEMPERANCE and GENERAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y.

This is the only policy offered to the Canadian public that can neither lapse nor expire as to its paid-up value till death ensues, after three annual premiums have been paid on it.

Our Limited Payment Life Policy, or Instalment Bonds, Our [illegible] Renewable Term Policies, and our Survivors' Endowment Bonds are all possessed of new and excellent features and are all worthy of careful consideration.

Agents Wanted.

H. P. LINDSAY,

Gen. Agent for Peterborough, Northumberland and Durham. Office No. [illegible] George-st., opposite new market building.

WM. FITZGERALD,

Builder, Contractor and Jobber.

Contracts taken for all work connected with erection of new buildings, repairs or rebuilding. Twenty-five years experience. First-class work according to plans and specifications guaranteed. Estimates furnished for any description of work. Good dry material always on hand. Best of references given as to excellence of work and despatch.

Building Lots For Sale

in different localities. Most desirable sites for houses. This is the time to buy and build. Lots sold and houses built thereon on terms to suit buyers. Easy terms of payment. Several good houses and lots for sale. Every one looking for a bargain should see these. WM. FITZGERALD, 124, corner of Dublin and Water-sts.

P.O. Box 576, Peterborough. sep w52-ly

2 BRICK HOUSES,
2 FRAME HOUSES,
and THREE LOTS,

to be sold at my office on WEDNESDAY next, the 25th inst., at 2 p.m.

The above properties are situated west of Bethune-st. and between the 2 railway stations in the centre of all the principal manufactories in town. A rare chance.

T. HURLEY,
157 George-

PETERBOROUGH

PLANING MILLS!

Dublin-st., Peterborough.

A. RUTHERFORD,

PROPRIETOR.

Having purchased the plant and business formerly carried on by J. D. Baptie, in the above premises, I am prepared to execute orders for every description of General Carpenter Work Window and Door Frames, Blinds, Mouldings, etc.

Scroll Work, Band Sawing, Turning executed to order.

Large supply of Dry Lumber of all Kinds always on hand.

Factory and Office,—Dublin-st. Telephone Connection.

LIME—Always kept on hand. Orders left at Mill or at G.T.R. Station promptly attended to. d45-w25f

MR. SHELDRAKE'S Private PREPARATORY SCHOOL,

FOR BOYS,

LAKEFIELD, ONTARIO.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

DO YOU LIKE Biscuits?

Most likely you do.
There's a deal of difference in Biscuits. Quality is an important item. A good biscuit should be fresh, crisp and of good flavor.
Here's what will suit you.
Try the English biscuit, made by Huntley & Palmer the famous makers. Imported by us and guaranteed genuine.

Ask for Huntley & Palmer's biscuits.

W. J. MASON

426 GEORGE STREET.
No trouble to show Goods.

Blank Books.
—AND—
Office Stationery

See the quality of our Blank Books.

Call and get our prices on Ledgers,
Journals,
Day Books,
Stephen's Inks,
Carter's Inks,
Underwood's Inks
Stafford's Inks,
Pens,
Foolscap,
Legal paper,
and all other Office supplies.

Our Prices are the Lowest.

H. THOMPSON & Co

Office and General Stationers, Booksellers and Wall Paper Dealers,
[illegible] George-st. — — Peterborough

The Daily Review.
MONDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1891.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Parties indebted to this firm for a year or over, are requested to settle their accounts at once, otherwise the same will be given in for collection without further notice. The liberality with which we treat those buying on credit, in not charging interest on overdue accounts, is too often abused, whereby all the advantages of purchasing early in the European market are to a great extent lost. As Mr. Lech (Sr.) leaves again next month for Europe to buy, parties will therefore please take notice to the above. W. LECH & SONS. 1d46

One of the Regulars.

Adam Dobbin, one of the regulars at the gaol, appeared at the police court this morning in search of another ticket for free board at the castle on the hill. He was accommodated, the magistrate giving him two months at hard labor.

Attended From Peterborough.

A fashionable society event took place at Bowmanville on Wednesday last when Miss Anna Kate, daughter of Mr. J. B. Fairbairn, of that place, was united in matrimony to Mr. W. O. Cubitt, of Minneapolis. Among the guests were the following from Peterborough:—Mr. and Mrs. Walton, Miss Walton, Mrs. T. M. Fairbairn, Miss Bella Fairbairn, Mr. J. F. R. Fairbairn, Mr. Jack Fairbairn.

An Incorrigible Son.

A father was forced to go into the police court this morning and ask the magistrate to send his twelve year old son to the Industrial school at Mimico. The boy has become incorrigible and his mother being an invalid the father is entitled to much sympathy with his mischievious and badly-inclined son. The magistrate granted the request and sent the boy to the Industrial school until he was 16 years of age.

Death of Mr. F. Hall.

His many friends in town will read with regret of the death which occurred yesterday after a short illness of Mr. Frederick Hall, confectioner. The deceased gentleman was born in Newport, Isle of Wight, Eng., and came to Canada in 1857, settling in Peterborough. Here he has resided ever since, with the exception of a short time that he resided in Bobcaygeon. He was 58 years of age at the time of his demise, and leaves a wife and four children to mourn the loss of a fond husband and an indulgent and loving father. He was a member of the local battalion and was one of the crack shots in the Rifle Association. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at three o'clock.

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on a trial!

VOLTAIC BELT Co., Marshall, Mich.

THE TOWN'S INDUSTRIES.

THERE are and will be very many who, like Mr. Arthur Rutherford, will refuse to permit party feelings or personal friendship to influence them into voting for a policy that would destroy the industries of the town and with them the town's prosperity.

Under the present fiscal policy Peterborough has grown steadily and its population has largely increased. No one will dispute that this is owing to the additions to the manufacturing industries of the town. And it was the policy of the present Government that led to the establishment of the new industries and that developed them and older ones.

The lock works would not be here to-day but for the present fiscal policy. Those who took part in establishing it know that, and Mr. Brooks states that but for that policy he would not have come here and could not have succeeded if he had. Further, he states that a reversal of that policy, such as the Liberal leaders propose, would drive him and this important industry out of the town. The bridge works has been established and developed under the National Policy and without its aid that industry would not be here to-day, and instead of the hive of industry with its busy workmen that now stands upon the river's bank there would still be a deserted building. The carbon works is another industry brought here by the same policy, and although it is of more recent origin it is rapidly extending its trade and growing in importance to the town. Other industries, such as the Auburn mills, have grown under the present system, and it is plain to anyone that but for that system and the policy of the Government in building the Canadian Pacific railway the Wm. Hamilton Company's works would not and could not have been what they are to-day.

It was the same fiscal policy that brought the Edison Works to Peterborough, which will employ hundreds of hands and increase the town's population by thousands. We know that this has been denied and that the coming of this industry has been attributed to the patent laws of the country. Now, even if it had been the patent laws that made it to the interest of this company to establish such works here, as the Liberals would have the people believe, the part of the patent law quoted is a purely protective measure and in giving it credit for accomplishing good the Liberals are taking the position of favoring protection to home industries. But before deciding to come to Peterborough the Edison Company had a shop at Sherbrooke where they, with comparatively few men, held their patents good, but at the same time they were importing products of their United States shops and paying duty upon them, and they found it would be to their interest to supply all their trade in Canada from Canadian shops and thus escape the duty and be in a position to sell cheaper. This led them to look for a suitable location for the immense shops they are building and purpose erecting, and it is to the present fiscal policy that Peterborough owes the establishment of these works here. Further, the Liberals advocate "full and unrestricted trade" with the United States. That could not be carried out if trade was restricted by the protective clause of the patent law, and it, too, would have to go—with the protective tariff. So that even if that was the cause of the Edison Company coming here it would be removed by the Liberal policy. But it was the fiscal policy that brought these works, as was the case with the other industries.

With the adoption of unrestricted reciprocity all prospects of the immense growth and prosperity of the town by the addition of manufacturing establishments would be lost. Nor would that be the worst, for the industries now here would be seriously injured, and men would lose employment and the town would go back instead of progressing. This is a serious matter for the workmen and people of this town, for all trades, all merchants and all the people of the town would be affected.

Mr. Rutherford has looked upon this question, quite naturally, from the point of view of a citizen of the town and one engaged largely in the building trade, and he sees clearly how unrestricted reciprocity would injure him and all engaged in that and in similar trades, and the town generally. But it would also injure seriously the farming community. As the merchants are benefitted by an increase of population, which gives them more customers, so the farmers are also benefitted by having more customers for their produce. This market is known as one of the best in the country. With the growth of the town the market will be larger and the demand for farmer's produce greater, but if the Liberal policy were adopted by the people, instead of improving, as it will rapidly under the present conditions, it would become less valuable with the loss of population in the town. And, apart from endangering British trade and apart from direct United States competition, unrestricted reciprocity would seriously injure the farmers of this county and district by decreasing the demand for their produce in their market town.

It is to the interest of all classes of the community—the manufacturers, the mechanics in the factories, all tradesmen, the merchants, and those who have farm produce to sell—to resist the Liberal policy which, by checking the growth of the town, crippling its industries and destroying its prosperity, would seriously injure every one of them.

Who Pays the Duty.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—I would like Mr. Hall or Mr. Stratton to answer the following question:—Who pays the duty, the exporter, the importer or the producer? Will one of these gentlemen please answer and oblige

AN UNSETTLED ELECTOR.

Thin and impure blood is made rich and healthful by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. It cures scrofula, salt rheum, all blood disorders.

On Exhibition.

The beautiful upright piano now on exhibition at Crosby's Music store, 426 George-st., Peterborough, is admired by scores of visitors. The rich, full, mellow tone pleases the most fastidious critic. d44

They Advanced Civilization.

An interesting debate took place Friday afternoon at Mr. F. J. Lynch's private school on Rubidge-st. The subject of the wordy war was "Resolved that the Crusaders did good towards civilization." The affirmative was upheld by Messrs. T. J. Kelly and M. J. O'Brien, while the negative was championed by two other students of the school. After able arguments had been submitted by both sides the debate was given to the affirmative.

The Population of Peterborough

is about 10,000, and we would say at least one-half are troubled with some affection of the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all our readers not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Trial size free. Large bottle 50c and $1. Sold by all druggists.

APPEAL FOR ASSISTANCE

51 WIDOWS AND 157 FATHERLESS CHILDREN.

The Springhill Mine Disaster Makes Sorrowing and Helpless Widows and Children Fitting Objects for the Generosity and Liberality of the Prosperous.

The following despatch has been received from Springhill, where a mining disaster has caused a great loss of life and made a large number of persons dependent upon charity:—

To Mayors and Newspapers:—

SPRING HILL MINES, N.S., 23 Feb., 1891.—A mining disaster attended with fearful results unparalled in the history of Canadian mining has fallen upon the town and the people of Spring Hill, N. S. The loss of life is probably as great as the combined appaling loss at the Drummond and Foords pit explosions. About 117 lives are lost. Fifty one widows have been left behind and 157 children made fatherless. The widows and the fatherless will require abundant assistance and that promptly from a public shocked and horrified by this terrible calamity. Seventy thousand dollars will be required to meet the demand and to alleviate the suffering of the bereaved and distressed during the most pressing period of their direful misfortune. The residents of Spring Hill in meeting assembled have appointed a committee consisting of the Mayor, town council and all the resident clergy to solicit and acknowledge subscriptions to the Spring Hill relief fund and they confidently and earnestly ask for an immediate response from all persons of all denominations, societies, guilds, trades and nationalities.

Sgd.
A. C. McLEOD, Secretary.
WILLIAM HALL, Mayor.

ANOTHER OPEN LETTER.

From Mr. Arthur Rutherford to Mr. Hall, the Liberal Candidate.

DEAR SIR,—Having at the beginning of the present contest given you to understand that you should have my support as a candidate for the House of Commons, I find on consultation with one or two principal manufacturers of this town that it would not be to my interests or to the interest of my fellow ratepayers to support a policy that would be detrimental to the vital interests and prosperity of our fast rising town.

Such being the case, I wish to withdraw my support from a party that if once in power would overthrow the present encouraging prospects of our town. It might be well enough for the farming community to support such a policy, but never for a town or city that depends largely on its manufacturing interests for support.

Now, I should like to ask you what would be the condition of this town if you should take away such industries as, for instance, the Central Iron Works, the Carbon Works, the Lock Works, the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co., the Auburn Woollen Manufactory, or to put a stop to the erection of the Edison Works, which is considered the greatest boon that has ever struck our town.

These, sir, are facts which it is hard to get over and such as should seriously be thought over by every ratepayer of this town.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for the space in your paper,

I am, your most obedient servant,
ARTHUR RUTHERFORD.

Ontario Telephone Co.'s New Connections

Since the publication of their latest list the Ontario Telephone Co. have placed instruments as follows:—No. 284 Sherwood Bros. office, 386 Water st., No. 171 D. H. Burritt, Esq., residence, 296 Rubidge-st. No. 64 Carew House, J. Carew proprietor, 201 Hunter-st. Other connections are being made as rapidly as possible and on their completion will be announced in the daily papers.

Y.M.C.A. Notes.

The young men's meeting on Saturday evening was well attended and much interest was taken by those present, whose bright, brief testimonies did us all good. The orchestra led the singing.

A new departure was made at our consecration service yesterday morning. The Sabbath school lesson for the day is reviewed, followed by personal consecration. We believe it is going to bear good fruit.

The personal purity meeting yesterday afternoon was not largely attended, but those present enjoyed the earnest, pointed talk given by Mr. Wallbrooke. The orchestra led the singing very acceptably.

Last evening the hall would not hold the number desirous of attending the gospel and song service, and many had to go away unable to obtain admittance. Rev. Mr. Bethune, of Gravenhurst, gave a very impressive gospel address, which made a marked impression on the audience and we are believing for results.

Bible class on Tuesday evening at 8 p.m.

Among the Churches.

The young son of Prof. Ardlidge, organist of St. Paul's church, rendered a solo at the evening service yesterday. His singing of "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" was sweet and pathetic. The boy has a remarkable voice.

Rev. J. R. Huff, former pastor of Smith, occupied the pulpit at both services at the Baptist church yesterday. Rev. Mr. Trotter, of Clairmont, the new pastor of the congregation will be here and occupy his pulpit next Sunday.

The Charlotte-st. Methodist Sunday school anniversary will be held on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, 22nd, 23rd and 24th of March. On Sunday sermons will be preached by Rev. C. O. Johnston, a very popular Methodist divine. An open session of the school will be held in the afternoon. On Monday evening, 23rd, Rev. Mr. Johnston will deliver one of his eloquent and entertaining lectures. On Sunday evening next the children of the Sunday school will render choruses, glees, solos, recitations, &c. Further particulars will be given in another issue of this paper.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. G. Gumpricht is in town. Orders may be left at Messrs. Taylor & McDonald's drug store. 1yd66

To Rent.

Farms wanted to rent. Tenants supplied this year at half price. Call or write.

T. HURLEY.
d38tf 387 George-st.

Roses and Other Cut Flowers

as well as floral designs, to be had at Mason's Seed and Plant House, corner of Water and Brock-st. d42tf

Personal.

Dr. E. A. Spilsbury, of Toronto, will be at the Oriental Hotel, Peterborough, on Saturday, February 28th, from 9 to 11.30 a. m. for consultation. See card. 2w8 2d44

Good Breakfast Dishes.

Rolled Bacon, Sausage, Head Cheese, Ham Veal, etc. Best brands of these superior meats always on hand. Bacon sold by actual weight. J. J. Howden, 441 George-st. Telephone connection. d40tf

Pure Teas.

The attention of the ladies of Peterborough is drawn to the fact that Ram Lal's and Monsoon brand of Indian Teas are the best in the world. They are celebrated for their strength, purity and richness of flavor. We have also received a shipment of fine Japan Tea which we will sell at 25 cents per lb., the best value for the money to be had in Peterborough. Stapleton & Mecombe, 385 George-st. (Rush Bros.' old stand). d45-w9

THE CAMPAIGN.

Tuesday Night's Opera House Meeting—Other Notes of the Campaign.

In entering upon another week—the last clear week before election day—the ranks must be rapidly closed up. Much has been done, and there is much still to be done in the short time remaining. All who favor the re-election of Mr. Stevenson to maintain the standard of National Preservation, are invited to the committee rooms to assist in perfecting the work of organization. Remember the extreme gravity of the issues at stake, and carry on the work with a will. Let the motto from now until 5 o'clock on March 5th be "Work night and day." Success is within reach, work will secure it.

Mr. Jury's Address.

There was a fair attendance at the meeting in the Opera House on Saturday evening held in Mr. Hall's interest. Mr. R. McGregor presided and Mr. J. Hogan made a short opening address. Mr. A. F. Jury, of Toronto, attacked the National Policy in the old familiar way and reverted to the appeals of 1878 and 1882, which were laid aside and repudiated by the Liberals in the last campaign. His address was a free trade one, but he said very little of the effect free trade with the United States alone and a high tariff against the rest of the world would have. He asserted that stoves were cheaper in the States than here, and Mr. Minore's pertinent question pointing out that, if that was the case, unrestricted reciprocity would injure stove moulders, was received with applause. Mr. Arthur Stevenson announced that, owing to the very short notice received of the meeting, his father had no representative there, but that Mr. John Armstrong, the well-known labor advocate of Toronto, would address a meeting in the same place next Saturday night. The meeting closed with the usual cheers.

To-morrow Night's Meeting.

To-morrow evening Hon. John Haggart, Postmaster General, will address a meeting in the Opera House. Mr. Haggart is a valued colleague of Sir John Macdonald, a good speaker and a gentleman of long experience in public affairs. The gallery will be reserved for ladies. Mr. Haggart will deal with the important questions the electors are called upon to decided, and all should be present at the Opera House on Tuesday evening.

Ennismore.

Mr. Stevenson held a rousing meeting at O'Reilly's school house on Saturday night which was largely attended and full of enthusiasm. Mr. Stevenson made a telling speech, thoroughly setting forth the Government's policy and dispelling all misstatements which were being retailed by his opponents. Dr. McGrath supported Mr. Stevenson in an able speech.

North Monaghan.

Mr. Hall held a meeting at the Grange hall, Monaghan, on Saturday night. The attendance was small, but those present were evidently interested and were not misled by any of the tactics of the Reform speakers. Mr. Peter Hamilton, Mr. Hall and Mr. J. R. Stratton addressed the meeting in the Grit interest, and Mr. J. H. Burnham spoke in defence of Mr. Stevenson and the Government and was accorded a good hearing.

Bridgenorth.

Mr. Stevenson will address a meeting at Bridgenorth this evening.

Lakefield.

A meeting in the interest of Mr. Burke, the Reform candidate in the East riding, was held on Saturday night at Lakefield. Dr. Bell led off with one of his characteristic political speeches, and then Mr. R. M. Dennistoun followed in support of Mr. Burnham and the Government. Mr. Jos. Tate, M.P.P., of Toronto, who had been brought down for the occasion, closed the meeting. He devoted his time to amusing the audience by his well-known line of attack on Mr. Dennistoun by personalities, and by telling old-time "chestnutty" campaign stories and crying blue ruin. He made the people laugh, but his avoidance of the points at issue did not escape the observation of the intelligent people of Lakefield and vicinity and he might just as well have remained in Toronto for all the good he accomplished.

In the North Country.

Mr. John Burnham returned on Saturday from a trip to the northern part of the East Riding, where he held a number of very successful meetings. The feeling in that part of the riding, as in other portions, is strongly against the Liberal scheme of trade restriction to one country alone, and favorable to Mr. Burnham.

Otonabee.

On Saturday evening Mr. John Burnham addressed a largely attended meeting in the Foresters' Hall, Otonabee, and his explanations of his platform and principles were well received by the people.

To-Night's Meeting.

Mr. Crerar, Q.C., of Hamilton, and Mr. Hugh O'Leary, Q.C., of Lindsay, are to address a mass meeting in the Opera House this evening in the interests of Mr. Hall's candidature and unrestricted reciprocity with the States. An opportunity is to be given Mr. Stevenson's representative to speak and Mr. Cowan, of Galt, one of the most able exponents of the Government's policy, will be present and take advantage of the opportunity to address the meeting.

A Meeting for French Canadians.

A meeting of the French speaking people of the town will be held this evening in the Conservative committee rooms, Opera House block, when Mr. L. P. L. Gaillardet, a mechanic, of Montreal, will address the meeting in French. Mr. Gaillardet is an eloquent speaker and all French Canadians should hear the questions of the day discussed in their own tongue.

Redpath's Cut Loaf Sugar

In 5 lb. boxes, Redpath's Pure Syrup in 2 lb. tins, Fresh Salmon, 2 tins for 25c.; Finest Canadian Cheese, 2 lbs. for 25c.; Pickles equal to bottled, 15c. per quart or 2 quarts for 25c. All goods cheap. W. J. Morrow 340 George-st. d41-w8

A Complete Line

of the finest soaps in the world. Sunlight Soap, Dingman's Electric Soap, etc. See the large bar I am selling at 5 cents, also the mammoth bar at 10 cents. A large stock of toilets. The largest stock and best value in Peterborough. Alex. Elliott 380 George-st. Peterborough. d41

That's Easily Answered.

"My dear," said Mrs. Cupendsaucer, laying down the evening paper, "what is reciprocity?" "Reciprocity, my angel," said the head of the house, "is easily explained. It means a general evening up,—as, say when Smithers asks me in to take a-er-cigar and I ask him to have another." "Exactly," said Mrs. C., "when I go to Hawley Bros. for tea and I hand Mr. Hawley a dollar and he gives me four or five pounds of splendid green or black mixture, I get the money's worth and he the money. Isn't that it?" "Exactly," said the husband as he reached for his hat. d30tf

Brevities.

—Another new Bell telephone No. 238, has been placed in Parker's dye works, Charlotte-st.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. d16w1 6mo

Sale and Musical At Home.

There will be a sale of useful and fancy articles at the residence of Mrs. Mercer, 289 Hunter-st., on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 26th, in aid of the "Pointe Aux Tremble" school. A musical At Home will also be given in the evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. All interested in missionary work are cordially invited. Admission in the afternoon free, in the evening 15c. 3d44

DIED

HALL.—At Peterborough, on Sunday, Feb. 22nd, 1891, Mr. FREDERICK HALL, aged 58 years. The funeral will take place from the family residence, 385 George-st., at 3 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, and proceed to Little Lake cemetery.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Free trade with the States would destroy Canadian industries, cities and towns and the home market for farm produce. Support Moore, Burnham and Stevenson.

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. All druggists are authorised to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are placing a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have a Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup, or Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

DO YOU

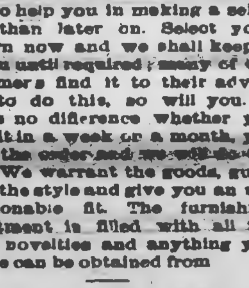
know that now is the time to select your suit for Spring? Never again will you have such an opportunity. The stock is new, the assortment complete, and we can devote more time to help you in making a selection, than later on. Select your pattern now and we shall keep it for you until required; many of our customers find it to their advantage to do this, so will you. It makes no difference whether you want it in a week or a month, you leave the order and we will do the rest. We warrant the goods, guarantee the style and give you an unquestionable fit. The furnishing department is filled with all the latest novelties and anything you require can be obtained from

T. DOLAN & Co.
Clothiers and Furnishers.

"PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE"

parties still hold the boards. We have a lot of good playing cards at 25c. a pack, or 5 for $1.00. These are worth 40c. each.

SAILSBURY BROS.



DOMINION
ELECTIONS!
West Peterborough.

HON. JOHN
HAGGART
POSTMASTER GENERAL,
will address a meeting in the Opera House (Peterborough) on the Evening of TUESDAY, February 24th,
on the public questions of the day.

The gallery will be reserved for Ladies.

THE MEETING will commence at 8 o'clock.
Mr Hall or his representative is invited to be present.

W. H. MOORE,
Pres. Lib.-Con. Ass'n.
W. J. MINORE.
Sec. Lib.-Con. Ass'n.

1891. 1891.

NEW DRESS GOODS!

Very Low in Price.

New Prints,
New Embroideries,
New Check Muslins,
New Wool Tweeds,
New Shirtings,
New Ginghams,
New Table Linens,
New Towelings,
New Flanelettes,
New Shirting Flannels,

Very Low in Price.

—AT—

THOS. KELLY'S.

20 pieces Double Fold Bleached Sheetings, Plain or Twilled, at 20c. per yard.
10 pieces Double Fold Grey Sheetings, Plain, at 15c. per yard.
5 Bales Grey Cotton (soiled) at 3c. per yard.

—AT—

THOS. KELLY'S, CORNER OF GEORGE AND SIMCOE-STS.

Persons who have had difficulty in obtaining Spectacles or Eyeglasses to suit them and who are troubled with imperfect vision, either by night or day should call on W. A. SANDERSON and have a free examination of their eyes made. Oculists Prescriptions Carefully Filled.

W. A. SANDERSON, Jeweller and Optician, Peterborough, Ont.
EYESIGHT TESTED.

WHITE LABEL ALE
On Draught.
10 cts. per qt.

Try our Bottled Ale, White Label, India Pale, etc., etc.

W. J. MORROW.
Opera House Block, George-st.

IN THE MARKET!

1.—I have sold out the City Hotel to Wm. Clancy, in 19 minutes.
2.—I have sold out Faren & Co. Billiard Room etc., to Faren & Co. in 18 minutes.
3.—The Dry Goods Stock is in the Market. If there is any new blood for this offer call and see me. Want to dispose of it inside of 10 days.

I am off for Australia early next month.

I mean business. If the stock is too large can be reduced to $1,000 in 30 days.

JAMES DOLAN,
George Street, Peterborough.

SELLING AT REDUCED PRICES

We are offering our Stock of Manufactured Furs at cost, previous to stock taking. The stock comprises a choice assortment of Ladies' and Gents fine Fur Collars, Cuffs, Capes, Caps, Gauntlets and Coats. Also a few Musk Ox, Bear, Oppossum and Goat Robes.

CALL AND BE CONVINCED.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.
Manufacturing Furriers.

Best on Earth
SURPRISE on Washday
SURPRISE
EVERY·WOMAN
St. Croix Soap M'f'g. Co. St. Stephen, N.B.
SOAP

The Daily Review.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1891.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

CANADA V. THE U.S.

The M'Kinley Bill And Imperial Federation Discussed.

Why Canada Has No Use For Union With Uncle Sam.

The Attitude of Great Britain Towards Her Colonies—Her Trade with the United States, and Their Trade with Her.

(From Belford's Magazine of February.)

When in 1864 Congress gave notice of the abrogation of the reciprocity treaty made with Canada in 1854, the reply of the scattered provinces was the confederation of 1867. It was thus the Dominion of Canada was formed. It would be useless to deny that Canadians saw with regret the opportunity of doing business with their neighbors, on favorable terms, taken from them. Possibly Congress saw with surprise the spirit of self-reliance shown by the Canadian people, who, it had been urged by prominent politicians, would be so disturbed by the loss of reciprocal trade as to be likely to clamor for political union with the United States. Since Confederation the whole tendency of the Dominion of Canada has been to protect herself by such a fiscal policy as will make her people less dependent upon the commercial caprices of her neighbor, and there is not the slightest doubt that much trade has been lost by the United States because of the self reliant attitude of the Dominion. In the year of grace just past Congress passed the McKinley Bill, and many of its provisions, ostensibly to protect the United States farmers are evidently so framed that the Canadian farmer shall be made feel as severely as possible his misfortune in not participating in the glorious privileges of his republican competitor. Hitherto the efforts of Congress to make Canada feel the misery of not belonging to the family of States have not been successful. Canadians are a northern people, somewhat slow and unenterprising perhaps, but very sure and steadfast, as has been proven by their allegiance to the British Crown and by the wonderful public works they have originated and completed. They are certainly not the sort of men who are prone to kiss the hand which smites them, either in matters of trade or sentiment; and as they made reply to the repeal of reciprocity by declaring for Canadian confederation, so I believe they will reply to the McKinley Bill by an agitation which will result in Imperial Federation.

As Imperial Federation, as advocated by Canadians, may have a very important bearing on the United States exporter, it is worth while considering the probable result of the present policy of the Republican party—a party whose spirited "foreign policy" has embroiled the nation in more than one dispute out of which it has not emerged with dignity or profit.

I admit that, in Great Britain and her colonies, Imperial Federation has had a more or less indefinite meaning, and has been scoffed at by the uninformed as a chimera, the idle vision of patriotic dreamers and impractical imperialists; but it must not be forgotten that it has for years been espoused by the strongest men both in the United Kingdom and in the colonies. The Imperial Federationists in Great Britain have long been led by Lord Rosebery, who is next to Gladstone in the affections of the British Liberals. In South Africa, Australasia and Canada the movement has been yearly gaining new adherents, and its progress has been interrupted by nothing except the Australian desire to unite the Australasian provinces into a Dominion similar to Canada—a desire which is likely to be consummated early this year. In Canada the dominant party in Federal affairs is distinctly in favor of Imperial Federation, and the organization is one sufficiently great in numbers, influence and aggressiveness to begin a campaign. All that was needed was an occasion to bring the question into practical politics, and that opportunity has been afforded by the McKinley Bill, and by what seems to Canadians to be its unconcealed discrimination against them and their products.

How the Canadian and British people feel with regard to the action of Congress may matter little to the United States; how they may act in self-defence or in reprisal may mean a great deal. It is generally held that Great Britain is so wedded to Free Trade that no reprisals need be feared. Nations before now have regretted feeling too certain that a policy long adhered to will never be changed. If the business men of the United States were to understand how much Canada has submitted to in the past, owing to her allegiance to Great Britain on one hand, and her proximity to the United States on the other, they would observe as a sign of the times, that in recent years, the commercial policy of their northern neighbor has been arranged with little consideration for outsiders, and that Canada's future, once held to be of so little importance by Great Britain, is now regarded as being absolutely necessary to the Empire. By being a trifle independent with the Mother Land the Canadians have enhanced their importance, and demands made now will be listened to which would have been laughed at twenty-five years ago. Not only Canadians, but commercial people everywhere, have been made to feel that the policy of the United States, whereby that nation hopes to gain everything and give up nothing, must be met by a check of some sort. Canada and portions of Australia have built up high tariffs of their own; and in South Africa a scheme has been evolved [illegible] Hofmeyer which has found many [illegible] supporters among the leading politicians of both political parties in Great Britain. It is a simple plan, whereby reprisals may be had by the British Empire without disturbing the free trade attitude of the United Kingdom, or interfering with the diverse tariffs of the colonies.

The scheme to which I refer proposes that an entry tax, variously fixed at from two to ten per cent., be levied throughout the empire upon all imports from foreign countries, i. e., on goods brought from all countries not within the Imperial Federation. Ostensibly at least, this tariff would be not a discrimination against the United States or any other country, but for the purpose of raising a naval defence fund. Lord Salisbury has said that he would not consider such a tax as infringing on the principle of free trade, and many liberal peers and statesmen have spoken in a similar strain. Great Britain is a free trade country, but she is forced to tax tobacco, spirits, tea, etc. to raise a revenue. Why should not a portion of this revenue be raised by a tax on wheat or beef or cheese coming from Russia, the United States, or other foreign countries? It would make the burden so much lighter on tea and tobacco, and cause a scarcely appreciable difference in the price of breadstuffs, for similar articles imported from her colonies would enter free, and it would not be more than two or three years before the competition between them would be sufficient to regulate the price. What an enormous advantage it would give Canada if her wheat, beef and cheese, for instance, were to enter England without paying duty, while similar articles imported from the United States would have to pay a tax of from five to ten per cent. Now, why should not Great Britain give Canada this advantage? Sentimentally she owes the United States nothing. It is quite possible that the latter country may misunderstand John Bull's position. England is never forgetful of her trade, and though she was unable to retain possession of the United States, she was always glad to trade with her, and to accept a good deal of very loud talk rather than lose business. Canadians think their interests have often been overlooked in negotiations between Great Britain and the United States, and have wondered how the Mother Country was so willing to forget the hostile tariff, the encouragement of Fenian filibustering, and other evidences that the most popular politician in the republic is the man who twists the British lion's tail with greatest frequency and severity. The United States is yearly becoming of less value to Great Britain as a consumer of British goods, and this anxiety to conciliate her may perhaps decrease accordingly. The colonies, on the other hand, are becoming more necessary and valuable to her; and so much impressed has Great Britain become by the aspect of her colonial trade that I am convinced are this favorable terms would have been given such colonies as desired them, but for the "most-favored-nation" clause in some of her treaties, which actually prevents her from treating one of her colonies better, commercially, than the nations with whom she has treaties containing this clause. These treaties will expire within a year or so, and will not be renewed. I believe there are only two which specify that the maker of the treaty shall be as well treated as any British colony, but these stipulations are held by other nations to be included inferentially in the "most-favored-nation" clause of their treaties. This explains why some evidence of this tendency on the part of Great Britain to more greatly favor her colonies has not been shown, though I may point out that the trifling discrimination in favor of Canadian cattle, which permits them to be landed and fed in Great Britain, while United States cattle must be killed immediately on landing, has given the most profitable section of this trade to the Canadians. This discrimination is made, ostensibly at least, because Canadian cattle are freer from disease than United States cattle are. Both the plea and the result are but slight indications of what Great Britain can do for her colonies if she tries.

At one time Great Britain, had she lost the trade of the United States, would have lost her best customer. It is not so now. But if the United States were to lose the markets of the United Kingdom it would mean the loss of by far her best customer. Great Britain takes the largest share of the whole exports of the United States; in 1860 the proportion was 52.50 per cent; in 1888, 52.58 per cent., a very trifling decrease indeed. The United States, in return for this, in 1860 took only 39.17 per cent., which in 1888 had diminished to 24.38 per cent. It is true that the United States imports from the colonies have slightly increased since 1866, yet the imports from the United Kingdom have decreased 14.59 per cent. since 1860. While Great Britain is warned by the statistics of her trade with the United States that her forbearance is fruitless, the same unsympathetic proof shows that while Canada took in 1867 $45,167,009 of her goods, and $67,726,196 from other countries, in 1888 Canada took but $39,483,617 from her, and $71,461,013 from foreign countries. In these figures Great Britain finds little comfort. She is gradually losing her Canadian trade; and it is also true that New South Wales and Victoria, Britain's two best colonial customers outside of India are taking a greater proportion of foreign goods than heretofore; and this is also true of India itself. Then, look for a moment at the proportion of the colonial trade with the United Kingdom to the total foreign trade of British possessions. In 1871 it was 51.41 per cent.; in 1875, 53.33 per cent. Since then it has been almost continuously decreasing, till in 1887 it got down to 44.14 per cent. Is it not natural that Great Britain should try to remedy this by Imperial Federation? Could she not well afford to give the colonies an advantage in her markets in order to enter the ports of her self-governing possessions with the tariffs ten per cent. [illegible] favor?

If the United States could now claim to be doing the chief business of the world, it might be reasonable for her to attempt to control and bulldoze that business without thought of reprisals being attempted; but this is not so. The total trade of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland is the greatest in the world, Germany and France taking second and third places.

United Kingdom	$ 3,602,512,811
Germany	2,412,988,409
France	1,646,413,609
United States	1,612,137,668

The Netherlands, doing the greatest per capita trade, come fifth with $966,040,150, while Canada, herself, though not high up in the list of traders, stands the fifth among merchant marines of the world.

But it must be remembered that, in 1888, the total trade of the British Empire, such as would come within the proposed federation, was $3,440,888,905. What would it mean to the United States if the United Kingdom, now taking the largest share of their exports, were to charge a duty of ten per cent. upon them, and the rest of the British possessions were to do likewise! Congressmen and partisan editors may argue that Great Britain will do no such thing. Why not? Is protection such a fraud and humbug that the British people cannot be swindled by it? or are the United States so wise and the British people such fools, that one may use it to the fullest extent, and the other, in spite of statistics and the necessities of her colonies, cannot be brought to see the wisdom of an impost intended for an imperial naval defence fund, and to guide the trade into colonial channels!

I do not believe in protective tariffs, except as expedients forced upon nations who are obliged to shelter themselves in productive infancy or from commercial piracy. Canada, which follows England in her commercial instincts, was forced into protection to prevent her being made the slaughter-market of the United States. I am convinced that England, in order to consolidate and encourage her colonies, will join with them in a general impost on foreign importations, not because she believes in a protective tariff, but to protect herself and her colonies from what is little better than the commercial piracy of the United States. If the United States endeavors to take everything and give nothing in return, she is trying not to trade fairly, but to take an unfair advantage. A gypsy may successfully follow the business of trading bad horses for better ones; but he is the only one who can. He moves continually from one place to another, and establishes no personal reputation, though even the bad odor of his tribe makes it hard for him to do business. The United States, it seems to me, is following a similar line of conduct; but itinerancy is impossible and the other nations are becoming weary of being victimized. The result is apparent. If an Imperial Federation is formed and a common tariff established, or added to existing tariffs, the United States will suffer, and will receive no sympathy. Of course the politicians will not be poorer, but the people will be—especially the agriculturists. How will the Western farmer like to see his wheat taxed ten cents a bushel in the English market, to which every year he consigns his surplus yield? The poor toiler who, in spite of blizzard, drought and vermin, is struggling in Dakota, will not be made more content if across the Manitoba line he sees, in the field, wheat which—because of the imperial impost on foreign production—is worth ten cents a bushel more than his. The tide of emigration which for years bore the best and most enterprising farmers of Ontario into the Northwestern States has already been turned back again by the superior crops of Manitoba, and should Imperial Federation and the tariff which is an inseparable part of it be established, the imaginary line between the Northwestern States and the Northwestern Provinces of Canada, will be furrowed deep by the wheel-tracks of a hundred thousand settlers' wagons, as they seek better wheat fields and free access to a better wheat market.

Then in Wyoming, Montana and Washington the cattle-raisers, already barred out of the British market by the law enforcing their stock to be immediately killed on being unloaded from the ocean steamer, while Canadian stock can be stored and fattened, will move to the mountain-sheltered Canadian plains, where they can pursue their business with equal safety and success, and have their preferred market. In the cattle business the movement so caused would be so great that the top rail of the imaginary line-fence between Canada and the United States would be worn smooth by the men and cattle jumping over it.

What would become of the United States export trade if Great Britian by a motherly policy, were to divert her wheat and cattle business to Canada? Our Manitoba wheat fields, without being forced, and tilled only by the emigrants directed to us by our superior advantages in the market now mostly occupied by the United States, would in three years produce enough wheat to feed England, now, according to George R. Parkin—whose assertion made in the Crystal Palace remains uncontradicted—never more than six weeks from starvation in her food supply. While such a policy would give us emigrants till it added millions to our population, the business of the great railways running through the United States from west to east would be depleted, and their great trade as wheat-carriers destroyed; for who but England will buy your grain? Where will you find a market? and, not having a place to sell to advantage, will the United States farmer be able to ship?

The far-reaching consequences to American producers need not be further dwelt upon. Through their politicians they have said they do not care for the market of Canada, which in 1889 took $56,368,000 of United States products, and sold in return but $43,522,404. By means of the McKinley Bill they have taxed at an almost prohibitory rate all such articles as, by reason of contiguity, we would sell them on easier conditions than to other nations.

I write as a Canadian, and under such circumstances I must feel as one, and express myself accordingly. I have as many ties which bind me socially and by consanguinity to the United States as the average Canadian has. My mother's father was born in Rhode Island, and the first-born of my babies came into this world of tariffs and tears in Ohio. I speak of this to show that I am not one of [illegible] sympathy with Americans; that I cannot discern your impulses nor appreciate your enterprise. My college life and journalistic experience in your midst should have, if they have not, educated me; and I believe in the greatness and goodness of the heart of the American people. But I do not believe in the majority of your politicians. President Cleveland, in whom the Canadian people had great confidence, antagonized them by threats of retaliation—retaliation which had no excuse except that the United States Senate rejected a treaty in which he and his diplomatists heartily concurred. But since then the United States have, through the Republican party, entered upon a commercial campaign against Canada, ignoble in conception, and one which, I am sure, will be disastrous in results.

All parts of the British Empire have been moved together by the Behring Sea controversy and the selfish and unstatesmanlike provisions of the McKinley Bill. Every nation feels the sting of your commercial contempt as expressed in that enactment, born in the brain of a village politician, and enacted by a party of opportunists who are but the agents of manufacturers and the engineers of a machine.

Those who admire Mr. Blaine as the throbbing brain of the Republican party, the apostle of a spirited foreign policy, and the American on horseback, may congratulate themselves that the McKinley Bill, and what may be intended to follow it, will eventually bring about the political union of Canada and the United States. Nothing further from the possibilities of this century. We are like you in origin, language, and trade, but our history for the past hundred and odd years has been antagonistic to yours, and were we joined to you, it would wound us to have you glory in victories which we have been taught to regard as disasters. Those things in which we take pride you view with alarm or contempt. The questions you must solve in the near future—the negro, the [illegible] foreign element, the [illegible] criminals, etc.—we think will [illegible] strength. If we came in we could bring you a racial and religious problem, an unappeasable class of British partisans, and more localism and suspicion than you have anywhere else. We are both best the way we are, and if ever we draw closer it will be when, by free-trade, you may succeed in moving the earth's commercial centre from London to New York. Should the United States adopt free-trade as a policy, I am convinced that, with but a momentary disturbance, that section of British manufacturers and shippers who have to do with the trade of North and South America would flit from the tight little islands westward. Much as I love the old land, and firmly as I believe in the supremacy of our people, I, and many others whose opinion is more valued than mine, believe that the genuine contest will come when the United States declares for free trade. If ever Macaulay's New Zealander sits on the ruins of London Bridge, if ever Britain ceases to be an empire and is again but an island, it will be free trade as the policy of America, and not hosts of armed men, or troops of horse, or fleets of iron-clad ships, which will remove the crown from Westminster.

EDMUND E. SHEPPARD,
Editor of Saturday Night.
Toronto, Canada.

Wheeling, W. Va., has been terribly damaged by a flood, and there is much suffering. Hundreds of houses are under water. Railroad traffic is impossible and business is suspended.

FOR MEN ONLY!
VIGOR STRENGTH [illegible]
ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N.Y.

SCOTT'S EMULSION
Of Pure Cod Liver Oil and HYPOPHOSPHITES of Lime and Soda

Scott's Emulsion is a perfect Emulsion. It is a wonderful Flesh Producer. It is the Best Remedy for CONSUMPTION, Scrofula, Bronchitis, Wasting Diseases, Chronic Coughs and Colds.
PALATABLE AS MILK.
Scott's Emulsion is only put up in salmon color wrapper. Avoid all imitations or substitutions. Sold by all Druggists at 50c. and $1.00.
SCOTT & BOWNE, Belleville.

"HARVARD"
"In twenty years experience as a druggist, I have never handled a remedy giving such satisfaction as does Harvard Bronchial Syrup." J. J. Perry, Napanee, Ont. "Have used it myself with the happiest results [illegible]" J. G. [illegible], Montreal.

TURKISH DYES
EASY TO USE.
They are Fast.
They are Beautiful.
They are Brilliant.
SOAP WON'T FADE THEM.
Have YOU used them; if not, try and be convinced.
One Package equal to two of any other make.
Canada Branch: 481 St. Paul Street, Montreal.
Send postal for Sample Card and Book of Instructions.

"HARVARD"
We have used Harvard Bronchial Syrup in our family and find it an excellent remedy." T. C. Kelly, President of the Council, House of Commons, Ottawa. "I have used it myself for Throat Irritations and find it very efficacious." Rev. A. B. Chambers, Napanee.

—ONTARIO—
Planing Mills!
Planing, Matching, Mouldings, Band Sawing & Turning, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Storm Sash.
JAMES Z. ROGERS.

"HARVARD"
Harvard Bronchial Syrup emanates from the Medical Faculty of Harvard University, the best medical skill in America, and has proved to be the most wonderful remedy for all Throat Troubles and Coughs, [illegible]
A. J. [illegible], Montreal, Prop. for Canada.
By all druggists.

MULHOLLAND & ROPER
BANKERS AND INSURANCE AGENTS
Banking Department.
Deposit Accounts opened and Notes discounted at short dates or for twelve months if required. Special attention given to the purchase and collection of Farmers' Sale Notes. Drafts drawn on Merchants Bank of Canada payable in New York, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and at any of its Branches in the Dominion. Cheques on other Banks cashed.
Four to Five per cent. allowed on deposits repayable on demand.
BANKING HOURS.—9.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m.
Insurance Department.
MR. FELIX BROWNSCOMBE is a partner in and manager of this department.
Careful attention given to Fire, Accident and Plate Glass Insurance.
The following companies are represented:—
London and Lancashire, City of London, Phoenix of Brooklyn, Caledonian, Royal Canadian, Agricultural, Montreal Plate Glass, Mutual Accident and Plate Glass, and Norwich and London Accident.
OFFICE HOURS.—9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

"Harvard"
"Harvard Bronchial Syrup has been used in my family with very great success [illegible]" Thos. Harris, Ormstown, Que.

GEO. B. SPROULE,
ARTIST & PHOTOGRAPHER
GROUND FLOOR,
370 Charlotte-st. - - - - - Peterborough.
FRAMES & PICTURE MOULDINGS.

HARVARD
"Harvard Bronchial Syrup has been used in my family [illegible]" Rev. J. [illegible]

UNION CREDIT & PROTECTION ASSOCIATION.
FOR the Collection of Old and Worthless Accounts, in any part of the world, and [illegible]
C. B. COLLINS, [illegible] Manager
August 20th, 1890.

Travel.

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY OF CANADA.
The direct route between the west and all points on the Lower St. Lawrence and Baie de Chaleur, Province of Quebec, also New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward, Cape Breton and the Magdalene Islands, Newfoundland and St. Pierre.
Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax daily (Sunday excepted) and run through without change between these points in [illegible] hours.
The through express train cars of the Intercolonial Railway are brilliantly lighted by electricity and heated by steam from the locomotive.
New and elegant Buffet Sleeping and Day Cars are run on all through express trains.
The popular summer sea bathing and fishing resorts of Canada are along the Intercolonial or are reached by that route.
Canadian-European Mail and Passenger Route.
Passengers for Great Britain or the Continent leaving Montreal on Thursday morning will join outward mail steamer at Rimouski the same evening.
The attention of shippers is directed to the superior facilities offered by this route for the transport of flour and general merchandise intended for the Eastern Provinces and Newfoundland; also for shipments of grain and produce intended for the European market.
Tickets may be obtained and all information about the route, also freight and passenger rates on application to
N. WEATHERSTON,
Western Freight and Passenger Agent, 93 Rossin House Block, York street, Toronto.
D. POTTINGER,
Chief Superintendent.
Railway Office, Moncton, N.B., 2nd July, 1890. ly

CANADIAN PACIFIC RY.
SETTLERS' TRAINS
WILL LEAVE ON FEBRUARY 24th, 1891
AT 9.00 P.M.
AND EVERY TUESDAY THEREAFTER
DURING MARCH AND APRIL
WITH COLONIST SLEEPER ATTACHED
FOR
MANITOBA AND THE CANADIAN NORTH-WEST
For full information and descriptive pamphlets of Manitoba, the North West Territories and British Columbia. Apply to any C. P. R. Agent.

Carbon Gaslight
A RIVAL TO DAYLIGHT!
A new and Brilliant Illuminating Power—Clear, Steady and Mellow. Specially suited for Stores and large Buildings, Machine Shops, &c. A saving of 30 to 40 per cent. on gas can be effected by this new light.
See it Burning at the Store of
J. E. NOBLE & Co.
287 George-st. South.
Telephone—Bell No. 124, Ontario No. 125.

JOHN NUGENT,
CHEMIST AND DRUGGIST.
Prescriptions Carefully Compounded.
Try Nugent's Remedies for Colds, Coughs and affections of the chest and throat.
J. NUGENT,
Drug Store, 170 Hunter-st. west.

BANK of TORONTO
Capital $2,000,000 00
Reserve Fund 1,500,000 00
PETERBORO' BRANCH.
SAVINGS BANK
SPECIAL ADVANTAGES are derived by depositing money in our Savings Bank Department.
1. "ONE DOLLAR saved is one dollar earned."
2. DEPOSITS of ONE DOLLAR and upwards are received and interest allowed thereon.
3. INTEREST is added to the principal on the 31st day of May and 30th day of November, in each year.
4. MONEY bearing interest from the day it is deposited with the Bank until the day of withdrawal.
5. THE DEPOSITOR is subject to no delay whatever.
6. THE SECURITY offered by this Bank is undoubted, as will be seen by the large reserve held and the amount of surplus available for depositors and note holders.
BUSINESS WITH FARMERS.
FARMERS' NOTES discounted at lowest rates.
SPECIAL ATTENTION is given to the collection of Farmers' Sale Notes, and advances made thereon.
NOTE FORMS furnished free of charge on application.
DEPOSITS.
DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS opened subject to withdrawal by cheque on demand.
SPECIAL DEPOSITS.—Deposit Receipts issued bearing interest at current rates.
JOHN L. GOWER, Manager
d116-w7

Bell Telephone Co.,
OF CANADA.
Capital, - $1,500,000.00.
Head Office, MONTREAL.
AND. ROBERTSON, — President.
C. F. SISE, — Vice-Pres. and Man'g. Dir.
C. P. SCLATER, Secy-Treas.
HUGH C. BAKER, Man., Ont. Dep., Hamilton.
300 EXCHANGES.
Long distance lines give unequalled facilities for talking between cities, towns and villages.
If you wish to speak to Kingston, Belleville, Port Hope, Lindsay, Lakefield, Millbrook, Cobourg, Toronto, Hamilton, etc., use the wires of the
BELL TELEPHONE Co.
H. W. KENT, Local Manager
d46-6mo

ADVERTISE IN HHE REVIEW

Medical.

DR. SCOTT.
OFFICE—176 Brock-st. d139wdie

F. D. GOLDSMITH, M. D.
L.R.C.S., L.S.A., L.R.C.P., London, Eng.,
HAS permanently located in Peterborough. Office and residence, 192 Brock-st., formerly occupied by Mr. J. R. McWilliams. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d47-w39-ly

D. N. CARMICHAEL, M. D.,
C.M., L.R.C.P. Ed.
GRADUATE OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY, Fellow of Trinity Medical School, Licentiate of Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh, L.M. of [illegible] Hospital, Edinburgh. Office in Mr. Alexander's new residence one door north of the late Dr. O'Sullivan's, George-st.

DR. R. B. McKENZIE, B. A.
Lecturer on Orthopedic Surgery in the Women's Medical College, and in Toronto University; Consulting Orthopedic surgeon to Victoria Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto.
Diseases of the Joints and Deformities Only.
Bloor-st. W. (near Yonge-st.) Toronto, Consultation from 10 to 3. On Friday and Saturday by appointment only.
Will be at the Grand Central Hotel, Peterborough, March 14th, 1891.

DR. MOHER.
HAS removed to 214 Hunter-st., opposite Marble Works. Office upstairs.

Legal.

HATTON & WOOD.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office, corner of George and Hunter-sts., over T. Dolan & Co's. store. MONEY TO LOAN.
E. B. WOOD, B.A. G. W. HATTON.

SAWERS & STONE.
BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyancers, &c. Office, Hunter-st., Peterborough.
MONEY TO LOAN.
E. B. STONE, d165-w46 C. W. SAWERS.

POUSSETTE & JOHNSTON,
BARRISTERS and SOLICITORS, 370 Water-st.
A. P. POUSSETTE, Q.C. W. F. JOHNSTON.

EDWARD A. PECK.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, etc., 352 George-st., Peterborough.
Private Funds to loan at 6 per cent.

HALL & HAYES.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter-st., Peterborough next English church. Money to loan at lowest rates of interest.
E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN O'MEARA.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, &c. Office 367 George-st. d-w

JOHN BURNHAM.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office: No. 415 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont., next door north of new post office. MONEY TO LOAN. d&w

W. H. MOORE,
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter-sts., over McClelland's Jewellery store. d118w18

G. M. ROGER.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water-st., Peterborough. d37w

DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES. Money to Loan. Office, 417 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont.
ARTHUR STEVENSON, B.A.
R. M. DENNISTOUN, B.A.

STRATTON & HALL.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, &c., Peterborough, Ont. Office—Next door to Post Office on Water-st.
W. A. STRATTON, LL.B. R. R. HALL. d138

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.
SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block, Peterborough. wd627

J. E. BELCHER.
ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George-st. d20w44

Builders and Contractors.

R. WEBB.
BRICKLAYER AND CONTRACTOR. All work done substantially and expeditiously. Address R. WEBB, Peterborough. Residence, 286 Aylmer-st. lyd128

J. J. HARTLEY.
BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P. O. Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer-sts. lyd169

WM. H. McELWAIN.
CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 52. d160

W. R. WHITEHAIR.
PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER, CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 251, Peterborough P. O. d&lyr

JAS. R. DONELL.
RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash, Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Band Sawing, Wood Turning, &c. Being a practical man, he trusts to be able to give everyone the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.
JAS. R. DONELL.

Cures in 1 to 5 DAYS. [illegible]
Big G is acknowledged the leading remedy for [illegible]
A. J. STONER, M.D., Decatur, Ill.
Sold by Druggists.
G. A. SCHOFIELD, Agt., Peterborough d 43-ly

THE
CENTRAL CANADA
Loan and Savings Co.
Authorized Capital $5,000,000
Subscribed Capital 2,000,000
Paid-up Capital 300,000
Reserve Fund 100,000
Invested Funds 2,370,180.57
OFFICE—No. 437, George-st., Peterborough.
DEPOSITS received at current rates of interest, paid or compounded half-yearly.
DEBENTURES issued in Currency or Sterling, with interest coupons attached, payable in Canada or in England. Executors and Trustees are authorized by law to invest in the Debentures of this Company.
MONEY ADVANCED on Real Estate security at current rates and on favorable conditions as to repayment.
Mortgages and Municipal Debentures purchased.
GEO. A. COX, Managing Director.

BARAVENA
MILK FOOD
[illegible]

For You!
Reduction in prices of all Cloths. Suits and Overcoats to order for less money than ever to clear out the balance of winter stock.
Order now.
D. CAMERON & Co.
Tailors and Clothiers, 424 George-st.

TOOLS!
BUILDING HARDWARE!
NAILS, LOCKS, HINGES,
and all Building Hardware.
Edge Tools, Saws, Files, Planes
and all Mechanics' Tools.
Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc., etc.
of the Best Quality and Lower in Price than Elsewhere
GEO. STETHEM.

If YOU WISH
to Advertise
Anything
Anywhere
at Any time
WRITE TO
GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.
No. 10 Spruce Street,
NEW YORK.

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE.

February 1st, 1891.

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
8 00 a m 6 00 p m	Montreal and East, via O. & Q. R.	11 00 a m 9 00 p m
[illegible]	[illegible] West, via O. & Q. R.	[illegible]
	Grand Trunk, East & [illegible]	[illegible]
	do East	[illegible]
12 00 a m 5 30 p m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west.	8 00 a m 4 30 p m
8 00 a m 5 15 p m	Millbrook and Port Hope. do do	11 15 a m 6 00 p m
6 35 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings.	1 00 p m
6 00 p m	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	11 35 a m
10 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clydesdale, Paudash and Cheddar, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 00 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays
	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do do	4 00 p m
	British Mails per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	9 00 p m
	Via New York, Mondays.
12 noon	Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	4 30 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire, Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Australia, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings Bank, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxemburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherlands, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey, And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahama Islands, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before.) Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guiana, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, [illegible] Africa, Oceanica and America, except [illegible] and Port Rico, Straits Settlements in [illegible] Letters 10 cents, [illegible] Other [illegible]

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 7c., papers 4c. New Zealand, via San Francisco: Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents. H. C. ROGERS, Post-Master.

MUNN & CO. SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN PATENTS
[illegible]

WEDDING CARDS.
LATEST STYLES AT THE
Review Stationery Store.

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XXV.—No. 46. PETERBOROUGH, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1891. TEN CENTS A WEEK

Probabilities.
South-east to south-west winds; cloudy to fair, milder weather, with some local rain.

Carpets!

New arrivals of Carpets speak eloquently in favor of the

Matchless Beauty

and elegance of design thrown into this season's weave.

Our stock will be complete in every way and in placing prices on the different lines we've started out with the determination to give the Best Value to be found. Let this fact mingle with your thoughts on house-cleaning.

17,500 Yards
—OF—
NEW PRINTS and SATEENS
Received already.

Mistress Fashion has prescribed such pretty patterns for the coming season.

Be assured we'll keep up our reputation in these line.

ROBERT FAIR,
Sign of the Golden Lion,
263 George Street, Peterborough.
Ontario (144 and Bell Telephone (145)

KID GLOVES!
KID GLOVES!

W. W. JOHNSTON
has just received a complete assortment of
Black and Colored
Kid Gloves
at 85c. per pair.
The Best in the Market at the Price.

SPECIAL VALUE IN
Bed Room Towels and Kitchen Towelling.
Call and see our
ART MUSLIN
at 15c. per yard.
CRYSTAL BLOCK
410 George st.

Musical.

ORGAN, PIANOFORTE and SINGING
DR. DAVIES,
Organist of St. John's church, late of Christ Church Cathedral and of St. James's Cathedral, Toronto, receives pupils at his residence, 46 McDonnel-st. At home each day from 9 till 10 a. m., and from 2 till 3 p. m. to make engagements, etc. d8-1m

Wood and Coal.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.
W. B. FERGUSON,
Telephone Connection. Agent

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of
COAL AND WOOD,
which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
d&w JAMES STEVENSON.

PETERBOROUGH WATER CO.
OFFICE - - 26 HUNTER-ST.
W. HENDERSON, Superintendent.
(F. ADAMS, Collector.
All water rates and accounts must be paid at the office. Mr. Adams will be in the office from 2 to 3 p.m. every day

D. BELLEGHEM,
Issuer of Mariage Licenses,
PETERBOROUGH.

Awnings.
Tents.
AND Sails.

ALFRED KINGSCOTE has opened out in Dumbell's block, on Water-st., opposite the market, where he is prepared to do all kinds of Awning, Tent and Sail making.
Good Work and Low Prices. Remember the place
A. KINGSCOTE,
No. 344 Water-st.
d88-1yr

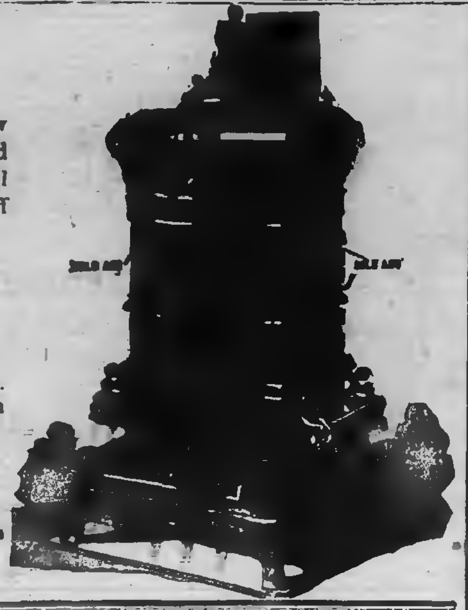
STOVES.

We have a few New and Second Hand Coal Heaters left and are running them off cheap.

LAMPS.

Beautiful designs, all styles, reduced in price.

W. G. BAIN & CO.
George-st.



Wants.

ASSISTANT MILLINER
WANTED IMMEDIATELY. Apply at MISS ARMSTRONG'S 246

For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE,
A QUANTITY OF PAPER CUTTINGS and shavings. Apply at REVIEW Office.

TO LET.

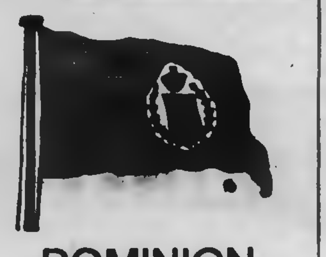
Store and Dwelling
No. 281 George-st., now occupied by J.J. Turner. Good stand for grocery and boarding house. STORE and DWELLING No. 282 George-st. DWELLING HOUSES No. 86 Hunter-st., and 18 and 20 Queen-st. JOHN J. LUNDY. d if

REMOVAL.

DR. CARMICHAEL
has removed to his new office and residence, corner of Water and Brock sts., (opposite the Court House. d142-w13-3mo

A. CLEGG,
Funeral Director.
Ware rooms, - - 437 George-st.
Residence, - 14 Benson-st.
S. CLEGG, Residence, 225 Stewart street. Telephone.

EDWIN ELCOME,
TAXIDERMIST
and Dealer in Eyes, Artificial Leave and Frostings.
BIRDS, ANIMALS, FISH and SNAKES Stuffed and Mounted in and out of cases in the best lifelike style at lowest prices. DEERS HEADS a specialty. A stock of foreign and native birds always on hand for sale. Residence, No. 176 Harvey-st., Peterborough d114-w26-ly



DOMINION
ELECTIONS!

West Riding of Peterborough.

MR. STEVENSON'S
Committee Rooms
OLD COUNCIL CHAMBER,
OPERA HOUSE BLOCK.

Open Every Evening. All Liberal Conservatives and Citizens wishing to maintain the present Government are invited to meet at the Rooms in the interests of the Conservative Candidate.

W. H. MOORE,
Pres. Lib.-Con. Ass'n
W. J. MINORE,
Sec. Lib.-Con. Ass'n

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING
EPPS'S COCOA
BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins, by grocers, labelled thus:
JAMES EPPS & CO. Homoeopathic Chemists, London, England. w8-d&ly-ho

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

—AT—
TURNBULL'S

Owing to so many covered shapes being worn this season we have a quantity of untrimmed Felt Hats and Bonnets left of all styles for Ladies and Children which we have put together in one lot and are clearing out at

25c. each.

This includes everything. Our friends may know what bargains await them as many of them have been sold during the season at from $1.00 to $1.50. Remember you get the choice of this lot for 25c.

We are showing in one of our windows Spring Prints, which are but an indication of the quantities of handsome patterns we have inside.

Our Spring Flanneletts have arrived. The patterns are new and darker, what so many people want. They are very pretty. Quantities of new goods opened every day. We show a handsome range of new shades in Dress Goods suitable for Wedding Outfits.

Further particulars of what we will offer this Spring as special inducements next week.

J. C. TURNBULL
George & Simcoe-sts., Peterborough.

HALL, INNES & Co.
See our window of
NEW
EMBROIDERIES
Hall, Innes & Co.
130, 132 and 134 Simcoe-st.

LADIES' JERSEYS
In all the Leading Styles
at Lowest Prices at
PORT HOPE KNITTING WORKS
382 George-st.

MONEY TO LOAN.

A LARGE amount of private funds has been placed in my hands for loaning on farm security.
J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM,
Solicitor, 123 Hunter-st.
d6w2

Do
Do you.
Do you buy
Do you buy Dry
Do you buy Dry Goods!
Perhaps
Perhaps you
Perhaps you do.
Look
Look for
Look for our
Look for our Opening.
On
On next
On next Saturday.
New
New Store,
New Store, Stock,
New Store, Stock, Prices,
365
365 George
365 George Street.
O.
O. C.
O. C. ROWSE.
d44-w9

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 24 1891

THE STORY OF A MONSTER

CANNIBAL FEASTS OF A BRAZILIAN MULATTO.

Driven by Hunger the Man and His Companions Live on Human Flesh—Anthropophagic Experiences Coolly Described by a Fellow Who Rivals One of Gilbert's Queer Creations

RIO JANEIRO, Feb. 23.—There is in prison at Itajuba, State of Minas Geraes, a monster in human form. In a degree he is a living personification of one of W. S. Gilbert's very queer characters—the jack tar who sang:

> I am the cook, and the captain bold,
> And the mate of the Nancy brig,
> And the midship mite and the bo's'n tight
> And the crew of the captain's gig.

The following from the journal Cidade de Leopoldina tells his strange story:

Learning that there had been confined in the jail of this town by the energetic police delegate an individual who for months had been living on human flesh a desire arose for seeing him, notwithstanding the horror that as regards him is inspired in every heart. His name is Clemente Villas. He is a mulatto, about 28 years old, medium height and of a slight body; a flat forehead, oblique eyes, with black pupils; deformed feet, with concave soles; a native of this district.

Without the slightest disturbance of manner he replied to my question as to whether it were true that he had been living on human flesh, and not only he, but Basilio, Leandro and others for a long time had been living on this food.

To Kill Hunger.

"What purpose led you to practise such acts, barbarous before God and man?"

"To kill my hunger, master."

"How did you make your first victim?"

"I was at Leandro's house when he invited me to eat a piece of a boy that he had killed in a thicket, where the lad was gathering fruit, and as I was very hungry and had no other resource I accepted the invitation for the first time. On the next day returning home I found a woman asleep by the roadside and was at once tempted to kill her. I took a stone and made my first victim and carried her home to satisfy my hunger.

"Some days after I killed Simplicio, and invited Francisca and Severa, who were dying from starvation, to help me eat him.

Children Eaten.

"When Simplicio's flesh was finished and I being without any means of satisfying my hunger Francisca told me to kill her two children for us to eat, which I did. Two weeks after, in the same straits, Basilio and I killed Francisca for the same purpose. Afterward I found that Basilio had stolen a shirt from me and I killed him when he was unsuspiciously gathering roots for supper. I only ate a little of him, for I was arrested two days after killing him. This was the last I killed."

The police found a part of Basilio salted down and the cannibal eating the calves of the victim's legs with a good appetite.

Taste of Human Flesh.

"Does human flesh have an agreeable taste?"

"No, it is rather sweetish. The best things I found in those I killed were the brains, tongue and marrow; I suffered slightly from diarrhoea while I was eating people's flesh."

"How did you prepare the flesh for eating?"

"We ate it roast or boiled with a good deal of pepper."

"Did not the remains of your victims inspire you with fear?"

"When I looked at them I felt a slight tremor."

"Did you sleep well?"

"Perfectly quiet."

"Have you no remorse for having practised such abominable and wicked crimes?"

"I no longer remember having done such acts."

HAUNTED BY A DEAD MOTHER.

Edward Fegley Brooded Over a Promise and Cut His Throat.

TREMONT, Pa., Feb. 23.—"At the dead hours of night I will come back to you," were the dying words which Edward Fegley's mother addressed to him at their home in the western part of Schuylkill county a short time since. He appears to have been haunted by that promise. He has just committed suicide by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a razor. He was 35 years old, and had been twice a widower, and left six children.

Blank Deeds, Blank Mortgages, Blank Transfers, Leases and Land Leases, etc., on hand at the Review Stationery.

MURDER IN TORONTO.

A FARM HAND BRUTALLY DONE TO DEATH.

The Tragedy the Result of Whisky and a Talk Over the Old Times—The Victim Presents a Terrible Sight

TORONTO, Feb. 23.—On Saturday evening last James Chapman, carpenter, Baxter and James Morrison, jr., left Little York about 7 and proceeded to Chapman's house. In the estimation of the rustic mind Morrison was pretty drunk, Chapman comfortably so and Baxter, according to the evidence, was sober. On arriving at the house, which is situated in what is commonly known as "Chapman's Hollow," Morrison succumbed to the influence of the liquor and fell asleep. In the meantime the deceased, John Wright, who had been spending the day in Little York, came into the house. He was an old friend of Chapman's and producing a bottle of liquor they partook pretty freely, and then followed a long, and according to the evidence, a friendly chat about the "good old times."

At 10 o'clock Morrison and Baxter bade their host and his friend good night, and proceeded home. Between this hour and 12.30 Wright met his death, and exactly how he met it may never be told. The details connected with the tragedy and its announcement will be found in the subjoined evidence taken at the inquest.

A Revolting Sight.

The body was removed from Chapman's house early on Sunday morning, and taken to Hunter's undertaking establishment in the village. When The World's young man arrived he pushed his way through crowds of gaping rustics who swarmed around the building and spoke in subdued whispers. Up two flights of stairs and over piles of lumber the scribe at last found himself in a small apartment, where, stretched on a rough bench and covered with a blood-stained sheet, lay the body of the unfortunate victim. It presented a most revolting appearance. On the forehead were two ugly bruises, swollen and livid, and at the back of the head a gaping wound, about three inches long, told of the terrible violence which the deceased had met with. The thin white lips, tightly compressed, the sunken eye, the pallor and emaciation of death, and the blood-spattered body, all contributed to render the sight revolting and sickening.

The post mortem had been performed by Drs. Shaw and Walters, and the necessary incisions added to the awful disfiguration.

Arrested for Murder.

Yesterday morning at 11 Constable Burns arrested James Chapman on a warrant charging him "that on or about the 21st day of February, at the township of York, he did feloniously kill and slay one John Wright."

The accused was seen in the hotel dining-room. He voluntarily told The World he was very drunk at and the time, denies having had anything whatever to do with Wright's death. He appeared very dejected and seems to feel his position keenly.

Chapman is a man of about 50 years of age and has hitherto borne an irreproachable character. He was never known to be quarrelsome, whether drunk or sober, and those who know him do not entertain the slightest suspicion as regards his innocence.

The inquest was opened before Coroner Britton at Esperingham's Hotel yesterday. The inquest will be continued to-day at 4, and in the meantime the jury will inspect the surroundings of the house and yard.

The evidence given thus far, though material in a sense, will have but little effect in dissipating the cloud of mystery that envelopes this unfortunate occurrence.

The question as to whether Wright met his death through foul play or whether it was accidental hinges upon the probability or improbability of death resulting from a fall upon the sharp edge of the scantling mentioned in the evidence. That he should be killed by a mere fall upon the ice is highly improbable if not impossible. The scantling rises from the ground for about two inches and is about two feet from the door. By falling in a very peculiar manner Wright might have struck this piece of timber. There is no blood or hair on the stick, but there is a patch of blood about six inches from it. It was rumored that Chapman and Wright had been discussing politics and that the discussion waxed pretty hot, but the witnesses do not remember having heard anything but a friendly chat. It is expected that considerable medical testimony will be given to-day, and the exact nature of the wounds made known.

10 Seamen Went Down with the Ship Elizabeth Near 'Frisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 23.—The loss of lives by the wrecking of the clipper ship Elizabeth off North Head Saturday night is now estimated at 19, including Capt. Henry of the local life-saving service. Eleven persons were saved.

First Mate Barclay, who, with 4 others floated ashore, says that after the captain's family (who were rescued) had been placed aboard the tug Reliance, efforts were redoubled to save the ship. Capt. Colcord, who was badly hurt during the afternoon by being thrown against a capstan, protested that he desired to stay by the ship. Told it was certain death to remain, he replied: "Save yourself, Barclay; I'm crippled and will only hamper you." Barclay took the captain by the arm and started to lead him forward, when a heavy sea struck them, and on looking at the captain's face he saw that he was dead. Barclay and eight men remained on the vessel until she struck the rocks, and five were washed ashore, the other three perishing. The boat containing 13 seamen which left the vessel before she broke up overturned and only four were saved.

The list of survivors so far as known comprises Mrs. Colcord, the captain's wife; their son and daughter, Chief Mate Barclay, James Fahon, wheelsman and six seamen. Captain Colcord, Second Officer Pendleton, William Raimond and Edward Miles, Boatswain's Carpenter Smith, 13 seamen and the Chinese cook were drowned. The body of Captain Henry of the life-saving service, who was washed overboard from the lifeboat, has been found, and a body believed to be that of Captain Colcord has been picked up.

The Ripper as a Writer

LONDON, Feb. 23.—At the coroner's inquest to-day a statement by Sadler, charged with murdering "Carroty Nell" in the Whitechapel district, was read. It gives a coherent account of his doings between the time of his leaving the woman in a lodging house and the time of his arrest. As far as his drunken condition that night permits to recollect, at the moment of the murder he was going to a hospital to get wounds dressed that he had received in a row at the docks. He denies selling a knife on the day following the murder. A seaman identified Sadler as the man who came to the sailor's home on the morning the crime was committed and sold him a two-bladed clasp knife, saying he had cut many a [illegible] with the knife.

PARNELL AT ROSCOMMON.

He Will "Adopt an Attitude of Armed Observation

DUBLIN, Feb. 23.—Mr. Parnell made a number of short speeches on his way to Roscommon. The general burden of his remarks was that not even the Healyites dare say that Mr. Gladstone's assurances are satisfactory. The men to whom Ireland had looked in confidence had now sunk low enough to accept English gold in payment for their subservience to the English parties.

No opposition to Mr. Parnell was manifested along the route. At Knockcroghery a man who was standing in the throng about the window of Parnell's railway carriage was dragged along the platform by the moving train and was only saved from death by the prompt action of Messrs. Parnell and Redmond, who seized him by the shoulders and held him safely on the footboard until the train reached Roscommon.

Upon arriving at Roscommon Mr. Parnell was escorted to his hotel by a torchlight procession. From a window of the hotel he made a speech, in the course of which he declared he would adopt an attitude of armed observation until he saw what solution was offered on the police and land questions.

Parnell at Roscommon.

DUBLIN, Feb. 23.—Mr. Parnell, during the course of his speech in the town hall at Roscommon yesterday, said he did not believe the police could be got rid of in five years by the stoppage of the recruiting, etc., as proposed by Mr. McCarthy. He had assurances that the plan he himself proposed was very simple. These men are armed soldiers. I sympathize with the opinions that it would not be proper to hand them over to us in an armed condition, but I proposed to disarm them, and to diminish them if you like, and then to transfer them in a civilized condition to the control of the Irish Executive responsible to an Irish Parliament.

Unfurl a New Banner.

A procession of several thousand persons met Parnell upon his arrival in Strokestown to-day. Parnell made a speech, which was a virtual repetition of remarks made yesterday. This evening he went to Longford. He met with a cordial reception en route and at the town where he delivered an address. Parnell will speak in Irishtown April 19, the anniversary of the meeting which he addressed there in 1879. On this occasion he will unfurl a National League banner. He will continue his tour in June, visiting Mayo and Sligo. The McCarthyites at Londonderry to-day dissolved the Parnell branch of the National League and reconstructed as a branch of National federation. Resolutions were passed condemning the actions of Parnell and Harrington.

Mr. Dillon and Mr. O'Brien have been steadily failing since their imprisonment began and both are now in the prison infirmary. Dillon is much broken in health. O'Brien is also suffering considerably, but is 14 pounds heavier than when he was last in Galway jail.

Mr. Healy's Speech.

DUBLIN, Feb. 23.—Healy and Kenny met with a mixed reception upon their arrival at Carrick-on-Shannon Saturday night. A large contingent of Parnellites arrived in the town yesterday and occupied the platform which had been erected for the speakers. The priests made futile attempts to pacify the people. When the procession of McCarthyites arrived on the ground they were assaulted with stones and sticks and 40 policemen were unable to control the opposing factions. Healy thereupon adjourned the meeting to a chapel. There he said their opponents were unable to meet them in a fair argument and resorted to violence. If Parnell did not yield to the Irish majority in the English Parliament, what would he do in the Irish Parliament? At this point the Parnellites outside began hooting and groaning, but the noise was not sufficient to drown the voices of the speakers. Healy, continuing, asked why Parnell did not resign his seat and found a new party. Parnell told them to beware of the Saxon smile. Why did he not beware of it himself and also of Mrs. O'Shea's smile? When, at Boulogne, they were willing to accept Mr. Dillon as leader, Parnell had another proposition to make with reference to representation at Westminster. After the general election the brotherhood of the two countries would be restored. Other speakers followed. In the course of the day's rioting several persons received scalp wounds and were otherwise bruised.

Will Not Accept Liberal Funds.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—At a meeting of the McCarthyites to-day a further protest was issued declaring they would never accept funds from the English Liberals. Several Parnellites have informed the chairman of the National League in Great Britain that they cannot take part in St. Patrick's Day celebrations because of the decision of the executive leaving speakers free to deal with the party disputes.

Extraordinary Charge of Murder.

BIRMINGHAM, Feb. 23.—Harry Oldcroft, a lad of 18, was committed for trial by the coroner, charged with the murder of a girl named Mansell, only 14 years old, who, some time ago, rejected him as a sweetheart. Oldcroft passed the girl talking to her sweetheart in a passage in Russell-street, and wished them good night. Soon afterwards a pistol shot was heard, and the girl was struck in the head. She died next day. Oldcroft was found with a revolver in his hand. When apprehended, Oldcroft said he fired for a lark to frighten the girl and her sweetheart.

A Servian Pretender.

BELGRADE, Feb. 23.—A manifesto has been issued by the party of the Pretender Karageorgevic, who aspires to the Servian throne. This manifesto calls upon the people to rise and declare a revolution to overturn the Obrenovitch dynasty and incidentally to place Karageorgevic upon the throne. The people, however, have not responded to the appeal. The troops forming the garrison of Belgrade are confined to the barracks in readiness for an emergency.

Foreign Notes.

The French steamer Bordeaux, from Antwerp for New Orleans, is ashore at Zudergat on the Scheldt. Her back is broken and her forepart has sunk.

An official decree published at Lisbon suppresses all the republican clubs in Portugal.

The "Harbor," the second of the "Darkest England" food and shelter depots, was opened to-day under the auspices of Gen. Booth, in the heart of the Drury Lane slums.

The Italie announces that the Pope has summoned Cardinal Gibbons to the Vatican for a conference on church questions in the United States.

Death Caused by a Cat's Bite.

ROCKVILLE, Conn., Feb. 23.—Mrs. Annette Leach, 49 years old, of Ellington, died this morning of hydrophobia, the result of the bite of a cat on the forefinger of the right hand last November. She was taken with spasms on Feb. 16, and suffered terribly until her death.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

THE FIGHTING AT TOKAR SUBJECT OF AN ENQUIRY.

The Government Announce That They Have No Intention of Attempting the Re-Acquisition of the Soudan.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—In the House of Commons to-day Mr. Morley asked whether the operations now being conducted by the Egyptian army around Tokar meant the eventual re-acquisition of the Soudan. Sir James Fergusson, political secretary of the Foreign Office, said the occupation of Tokar was found necessary in order to prevent Suakim from being harassed and its trade interrupted. No further advance would be made in the interior.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—Advices from Suakim say that Osman Digna does not accept his defeat tamely and that he is already rallying the dervishes to give the Egyptian troops another challenge. On the other hand the sheik of the Beni Amer tribe, one of the most powerful chiefs in that part of Africa, has made friendly overtures to the Anglo-Egyptian forces and may come to the assistance of the Khedive's troops. Colonel Holled Smith, the commander of the Egyptians, is confident of being able to hold his own against the enemy.

After leaving a force of troops to garrison Tokar, the Egyptian troops marched direct to Afafite and ascended the hills recently occupied by the enemy. Afafite was found to have been vacated, though there were hundreds of Arabs in the vicinity. These Arabs quietly surrendered to the Egyptians, handing over to their captors a number of banners, spears and rifles and two guns. The Egyptians also captured large quantities of stores and ammunition.

A despatch from Afafite says the cavalry overtook many dervishes who escaped in the recent fight and the latter surrendered. Numbers of wounded dropped by the roadside.

LABOR TROUBLES.

Threatened Strike on the Pennsylvania Railway Lines—The Troubles in Cardiff Strikes in Rio Janeiro.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 23.—A general conference of the employes of the Pennsylvania lines, east and west of Pittsburg, is being held to-day to consider the wage troubles. The members of the Eastern Grievance Committee arrived this afternoon. They have just concluded a lengthy conference in the east and came here to confer with the western men. An advance has been demanded in the east also, and in event of trouble it is claimed by members of the Grievance Committee that the employes of the two systems will work together. Chiefs Arthur and Sargent are holding a private meeting in Cleveland to-day. The division superintendents of the Pennsylvania are holding a consultation to-day with General Manager Wood. They will prepare a schedule of wages which will be submitted to the Grievance Committee. If it does not prove satisfactory to the latter, more conferences between the officials and the men will be held. Every effort to avert a strike will be made by both sides.

Large Meeting in East End Park Addressed by Michael Davitt.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—The meeting in East End Park yesterday, in support of the Cardiff strikers, was attended by about 7000 members of the trades unions. The gathering was orderly and respectable, and both speakers and audience avoided any expression of disorder. Michael Davitt, who has just returned from a 10 days' illness in Ireland, was the principal speaker. He urged that all the workers in Great Britain should be joined in a universal union for the support of each other's interests. The employers, he said, had shown the example, in the shipping federation, of vast combination for a mutual object, and it was only by a general and binding pledge to support each other in their just claims that the rights of the workingman could be upheld.

Mr. Tillet and the others earnestly urged that the workingmen of all trades should come to the support of the Cardiff strikers. It was, Tillet said, not a local contest, but one in which the principles of trades-unionism were at stake. A victory for the dock company would affect more than the dockers' union.

Twenty bands of music were present and played at intervals during the meeting.

The new hands engaged for the Bute docks at Cardiff are not permitted to live on shore, but are kept on shore steamers, laid up and stationed in the middle of the docks. The transit to and from their work is by boat. They receive 30 shillings a week.

The Military Under Arms.

RIO JANEIRO, Feb. 23.—The strikes caused in this city and neighborhood by reason of labor disputes are extending and are paralyzing business. The laborers who have been at work on the Central Railroad have now gone out on strike. Traffic has been stopped on the railroad and the supplies of beef which come in from the country have been cut off owing to the fact that no trains are running. The military forces are under arms and are being employed in keeping order.

Collapse of the Durham Mining Strike

DURHAM, Feb. 23.—The Durham coal mine owners have refused to accept the compromise terms offered by the men who are out on strike.

A Strike at Aberdeen.

ABERDEEN, Feb. 23.—A strike among the men employed in the shipping trade has been declared here.

She Wedded a Witness.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Feb. 23.—Ernest Forbes, a young colored man, is now in jail here under sentence of death for a brutal assault on Nov. 6 last on Bertha Phipps, then not quite 16 years of age. Bertha is now said to have married Benjamin Franklin Griffith, a thrifty young farmer.

Griffith was summoned as a witness. The case was removed to Baltimore and Griffith accompanied the young lady to the court room.

Fell Dead in Court.

HAMBURG, Feb. 23.—The Socialist publisher Berenson fell dead in court to-day. He had been summoned to appear in court in spite of the fact that he was ill with influenza.

A Switch Rod Pierced Her Brain.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Feb. 23.—While coasting down Howard-street last night, a traverse with 10 persons ran into a snowbank near the railroad track, throwing the coasters in all directions. A projecting rod of a switch pierced Mrs. John Fennell's left eye, and, entering the brain, caused instant death.

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—Sir Knight Dickerson, upon whose body a foot square of skin taken from the arms of his brother knights of St. Bernard Commandery, Knights Templar, was grafted three weeks ago, died to-day. All the grafted skin became properly attached, but the patient's vitality was exhausted.

King of Medicines

A Cure "Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered had to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 6 years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well.

"Early in 1886 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Circus,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A. LEHR, 9 N. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.

HAVE NOT LOST A SINGLE DAY

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1891.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House. Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

THE QUESTION OF LOYALTY.

IT is asserted that Sir John Macdonald charged half of the Canadian population with being disloyal. That is entirely untrue, for Sir John never made such a charge. But every Canadian should, before voting, ask himself—

Would it be safe to follow the advice of such men as Mr. Farrer, then and now a Globe editor, who wrote and printed a pamphlet pointing out to the United States how Canada might be coerced into annexation, and defended himself by saying that he believed annexation is the manifest destiny of Canada?

Would it be loyal to Great Britain to tax her goods and admit United States goods free?

Would it be loyal to Canada to surrender the right to regulate the tariff, the right to tax the people of this country, to the United States Congress?

Would it be loyal to Canada or to the Empire to enter into a commercial combination with the United States against all other parts of the Empire?

Would it be just to expect Great Britain to give Canada and Canadian merchant vessels the protection of her army and navy while we shut out her goods to admit the goods of a foreign country and commercial rival?

And if Canada adopted such an unjust policy would it not lead to the severance of British connection?

Would it not lead to political union with the States to give that country control of our customs and excise laws?

Would it be loyal to Canada—apart from the political result—to adopt a policy that would destroy its industries, deprive its people of employment and its agriculturists of their most profitable market?

Would it be wise for loyal Canadians to follow a leader like Sir Richard Cartwright, who has recently visited the United States capital to consult with United States politicians?

Or to accept the policy of a man like Mr. Wiman, who, in evidence before a Congressional committee said that unrestricted reciprocity would lead to "another Boston tea party" and that "nothing could contribute so much to bring about annexation?"

These matters should receive serious consideration from every elector before he performs one of the highest duties of citizenship on March 5th, and they are of such grave importance that they should be considered free from any influence of mere party allegiance.

Do Housekeepers Know

That a basin of cold water placed in an oven will soon lower the temperature?

That a little powdered borax added to cold starch stiffens linen beautifully?

That in baking cake with granulated sugar you should use a little less than the recipe calls for?

That clothes-pins are too cheap to stand out of doors in cold weather pinning two garments together with one?

That a teaspoonful of pulverized sugar sifted through a sieve over the top crust of pie will add greatly to its appearance?

That if fruit jars are filled with nice apple sauce as soon as emptied it will be very acceptable for sauce, pies, puddings, etc., next spring?

That when soot falls upon a carpet or rug, if covered thoroughly with salt, it can be swept up without leaving a trace? If one trial is not sufficient, give it another?

That if a little soft (not melted) lard or butter is rubbed over the top of bread dough when in a mass, and after being molded into loaves, a hard crust will be avoided?

That if a teacupful of cold water is added to a well-beaten egg, and enough of the mixture used to moisten the ground coffee before it is made, it will be quite a saving of eggs over the old method?

The Homeliest Man in Peterborough.

As well as the handsomest, and others are invited to call on any druggist and get free a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, a remedy that is selling entirely upon its merits and is guaranteed to relieve and cure all Chronic and Acute Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

Free trade with the States would destroy Canadian industries, cities and towns and the home market for farm produce. Support Messrs. Burnham and Stevenson.

THE TOWN'S INDUSTRIES.

HOW THEY WOULD BE EFFECTED BY UNRESTRICTED RECIPROCITY.

A Few Samples Given by the Manufacturers Themselves—The Hog Industry, one that Especially Effects Farmers.

Yesterday a representative of the REVIEW met four of the town's manufacturers and obtained their views regarding the trade policies at issue of this campaign. Their industries are illustrative also of other industries in the town, and their remarks should be read and carefully considered by all electors.

The Central Bridge Works.

Mr. LAW of the Central Iron Bridge Works was the first gentleman seen. "What," asked the reporter, "was it that brought your industry here, Mr. Law?"

"The National Policy or protection has brought it here, for had there been no protection I could not have manufactured here and competed with the United States. With a protection tariff I would have remained in the States where I was."

"What would be the result of the adoption of unrestricted reciprocity?" asked the reporter.

"I would get out," said Mr. Law, "as soon as I could. This business could not be carried on and compete with the American companies. I would have to go into Pennsylvania, the place from which I would get my supplies, and compete with the United States from there. As to the industry eight years ago, it was nothing and has doubled in the last three years."

The Lock Works.

Mr. BROOKS, the manager of the Lock Works, was seen and asked the same question "What made you bring the lock works into Canada?"

"The National Policy," replied Mr. Brooks.

"How long were you in lock manufacturing in the States?" quired the reporter.

Mr. BROOKS—"Twenty years."

"Do you consider the 35 per cent duty which you have too high?" asked the scribe.

"No" said Mr. Brooks, "while there is 35 per cent. duty we do not consider that we have any more than 10 per cent. protection, as it is the custom with manufacturers in the States to pay nearly if not quite the duty and make the slaughter house of this country."

"How do the present prices of locks compare with those charged before you started here."

"Mr. BROOKS—"The prices of locks are to-day 25 per cent. lower than when we started business."

In reply to a question as to what would follow unrestricted reciprocity Mr. Brooks said:—"It would compel us to get nearer the base of our supply, that is into the United States, for our competition would be with the American companies and we would have to meet them on equal terms to do business profitably." "I might state" added Mr. Brooks, "that last year we paid over $55,000 in wages, almost all of which came out of our trade from Halifax to Vancouver."

The Carbon Works.

Mr. TAYLOR, Manager of the Carbon works was also interviewed and in reply to the reporter's questions said:—"If it had not been for the protective tariff we certainly would never have been here. There is a duty of 25 per cent. on carbons and it costs 10 per cent. more to manufacture here than in the United States, and we are giving the trade the full benefit of that duty and are selling at the same price that the Americans were when we started. It would be impossible for us to manufacture here and compete with the United States so that in the event of unrestricted reciprocity we would have to move to the other side, probably to Cleveland."

The Pork Packing Industry.

Mr. F. MATTHEWS, of the firm of Geo. Matthews, pork packers, was seen and gave some valuable figures in regard to their trade in hogs.

"In the last eight years your firm has increased and extended its business to considerable proportions?" asked the reporter.

"Yes," said Mr. Matthews, "in the last two years it has almost doubled itself and, in fact, after we came from Lindsay here the trade increased so that we could not do it all from here and have opened another branch in Ottawa."

"To what, principally, outside of your own business enterprise and energy, can you attribute this great increase?" again asked the reporter.

"To protection," said Mr. Matthews, "for by the duties placed on hogs the farmers have been enabled to raise them profitably. There has been a most noticeable increase since the last rise in the tariff last spring. For instance as proof of this, in the four months in the winter season of 1889 and 1890 we bought 2,720 hogs, a total of 509 344 lbs, at an average of $5.60 per hundred or a total of $28,523.26. In the corresponding four months in 1890-91 we bought 5,006 hogs or 845,050 lbs. at a cost of a little over $5 75 per hundred, a total of $48,615.12, and an increase of nearly 100 per cent., viz., 2,286 hogs, 335,706 lbs. and $20,091.86. While the prices in Chicago were 25 cents lower than the same six months last year we paid 15 cents per hundred more than last year. These figures do not include the hogs bought outside, but only those purchased in this immediate vicinity."

"In event of Unrestricted Reciprocity becoming the trade policy of Canada how would your business be affected?" was the last question the reporter asked.

"The farmers" replied Mr. Matthews "could not raise the hogs and sell them with profit at $3.75 to $4 25, the Chicago prices, and we would have to move our business to where we could get hogs, to or near Chicago."

The Cash System in Trade.

To the Editor of the Review

DEAR SIR,—We desire to call your own and readers attention to our announcement in another column, as we are of the opinion that the plan there outlined will meet with general approval.

We have decided to give it a trial and are confident we will be supported.

Yours truly.

HILLIARD & PEPLOW.

London and Paris Differences.

There is as marked a contrast between the fads and fancies of London and Paris as though the vast expanse of an ocean divided them. The average hats of London are small, while those of Paris are large, and the contrast is especially noticeable in the manner of hairdressing. In London the hair frequently has such a "wiggy" appearance, and looks like a hayrick, and often is of much larger proportions than the head itself, while in Paris the hair is arranged smoothly, and gracefully. M. Auguste, one of the best coiffeurs in Paris has a new manner of arranging the frizettes, which is very generally becoming. The hair is first pressed with a soft sort of ointment, the comb is passed through a few times, and the frizettes are so firm that damp air cannot injure nor rain destroy the crimps for two weeks at least. The rage for high collars is carried to such an extent over here that with low-necked bodices a frill of wired lace is made to stand up like a ruff above the [illegible]

Mr. Stevenson's Address

TO

THE ELECTORS

OF

WEST PETERBOROUGH.

GENTLEMEN,—The time that will elapse before polling day is so short, and my business demands on my time just now are so great that, though most anxious to do so, I find it altogether impossible to personally call on any considerable number of the electors; and therefore use this medium of placing before you my opinions of the great issue that has been raised by the leaders of the Reform party, viz., Unrestricted Reciprocity with the United States.

The Government of Sir John A. Macdonald many years since placed on the Statute books of the Dominion an Act enabling the Governor-General in Council, whenever the United States declared its readiness to free from duty any named natural products of this country going into that country, to free the same coming into Canada from the United States.

That Statute still remains in force; and, although the Government of Canada has on many occasions called the attention of the authorities at Washington to it, yet they have declined to act on it, but have now signified their willingness to negotiate generally on trade matters.

The present Government has shown its readiness to negotiate for reciprocal trade relations on the basis of the treaty of 1854, which was eminently fair to both countries; and their proposal I will support, but the policy of the Reform party as shown by them and by the politicians and press of the United States, is one which practically hands over to that country the trade of Canada, for the Reform party declare that they are prepared to offer to the United States absolute and unconditional free trade in manufactures, as well as in natural products, and they say such will be accepted by the latter country; and this party, led by Mr. Laurier, urges that such a policy is in our interests, even if we have to discriminate against England and all the rest of the world, and enact and build up a tariff wall equal to that of the United States, and even if we have, in addition, to suffer a loss of revenue, placed by Sir Richard Cartwright in his speech in Toronto, the 13th instant, as reported in the Globe, of $7,000,000 or $8,000,000, but which, it is perfectly certain, would not be less than $12,000,000. I submit for your consideration whether this is really a "free trade" policy or a policy deserving your support. I am convinced that it is not, and that it is opposed to the best interests of Canada. The present tariff of the United States is more than double that of Canada. It is, in fact, the most exclusive and excessive tariff known, and the effect of the adoption of it by us would, in my humble opinion, be to make us, commercially, an unknown land—except to our neighbors to the South, for no other nation would or could import its goods to us as heretofore, and as their shipping would come much less to our shores, our trade in cheese, cattle and other products with Great Britain would be seriously injured, if not wholly ruined. The high freight rates, for want of competition, would alone make these products unprofitable, and I am sure you will hesitate before you destroy or imperil a trade with England and Europe of $22,000,000 yearly, made successful, largely, by reason of the keen competition of shipping from England, which, under our moderate tariff, has, out of all proportion to the extent of the United States, come to Halifax and up the St. Lawrence to our great ports for several years past.

The policy of the present Government since its adoption in 1879, has brought into Canada, a tremendous amount of Capital and produced the manufacture of most of our needs of life at prices, through the competition that has grown up, no higher than in the country from which the capital came.

The population of Peterborough has in ten years almost doubled, and I am confident the present moderate revenue tariff will enable the country to construct great public works in our vicinity, and that our town will be not less than 20,000 population within the next ten years. The proposed policy, I am assured, would endanger all the advantages we have gained and almost certainly end in the ruin of our town, as of many other towns and cities in Canada, and also most seriously injure the farming interests by destroying the home market and in other ways and I therefore cannot give my sanction to such a measure.

I cannot believe that with the declarations of high authority we have as to the terms on which we can obtain unrestricted trade relations, with the United States there is any general feeling in favor of the Reform platform, for I find that Mr. Blain, the Secretary of State at Washington, recently in a public speech used these words: "It is their (Canadians) right to choose for themselves, as it is our right to choose for ourselves, but I am opposed, teetotally opposed, to giving the Canadians the sentimental satisfaction of waving the British flag, paying British taxes, and enjoying the actual cash remuneration of American markets. They cannot have both at the same time. If they come with us they can have what we have. It is an absolute wrong for Congress to say that they shall have exactly the same share in our markets that we have, and so far as I can help it, I do not mean that they shall be Canadians and Americans at the same time" and Mr. McAdoo, a Democratic member of the House of Representatives, recently used these words in the House: "The United States do not desire to add a single acre to its imperial domain but if the people of Canada, in their Soverign capacity wish to maintain unrestricted relations with the people of the United States, they have but to rise in their sovereignity, spontaneously and unsought for act and ask for annexation, which is the cutting of the Gordion knot, and the ultimate destinity of the Canadian people."

Neither can I support the new policy, because, as reported in the Globe on the 5th day of October, 1889, Mr. Erastus Wiman, of New York, who is the partner of the millionaire, Jay Gould, and the sole father of the scheme originated for personal and selfish ends, says: "My idea is that a uniform tariff should be adopted both by the Congress of the United States and the Dominion Parliament of Canada; that Canada should agree to always have the same tariff as the United States; that this tariff should be administered by a join commission of which the majority should, of course, rest with the United State." and the Chicago Times confirms this, as do all the leading papers of the United States by declaring that "entire free trade is impossible, unless the Dominion 'is prepared to make a complete and unconditional surrender of all control over its own tariff and to accept whatever tariff our Congress may choose to enact from time to time.'"

I feel that this is a sacrifice and surrender greater than Canada should make for it means the loss of legislative control over our fiscal policy the transference to Washington of the regulation of our tariff and the end of our political existence, and, as said in an American paper "Canadians would be "curs and cads" to entertain the idea."

The end proposed by the Reform leaders I am sure cannot be attained, and, if attained, attainment will bring in its train the incident of direct taxation, with an army of assessors and collectors replacing the Customs Houses and Customs officers along the frontier between the United States and Canada. Mr. Laurier in Quebec a few days ago said that his expectant Finance Minister, Sir Richard Cartwright, would be genius enough to avoid recourse to "so cruel a measure" but in Toronto on the 13th instant, the avoidance the latter found after quoting the words of Mr. Foster, that direct taxation would amount to $30.00 per family, and after entering upon a tirade of abuse of the Government to draw his audience from the question was summed up in these words as given in the Globe's report of his speech, "But it is impossible to deal with these imaginary difficulties, and when I am asked to say what I will do if a possible contingency arises I would respectfully say that we will wait to see the contingency we have to meet."

I am sure the whole electorate will declare with me that this, from a man, posing as a statesman, and seeking the confidence and support of the country was a contemptible and pitiful avoidance of the most vital matter, and an acknowledgement that direct taxation is a necessary incident of the Reform platform.

I would call attention to a matter of local importance, viz., the construction of the Trent Valley Canal, which has been thrown back for two years by the action of prominent members of the Reform party, and the statements in the House that there was good reason for believing that, as a national undertaking, it would prove a failure because of an insufficiency of water. The matter was consequently referred to commissioners to report, and the commissioners having examined the whole of the route and taken a great mass of evidence, have now reported, and the report that has been published is a complete answer to all objections as to its feasibility and the propriety of the undertaking, and, as in the past, I, if elected, shall in the future persistently advocate and insist on the immediate construction of this great work. I am confident it will prove of immense value as a public work, and I know that its importance to this locality will, from various and obvious reasons, be almost inestimable. I am also quite certain that if the Reform party gains power in this election and adopts the policy it is advocating, there will follow such admittedly tremendous deficits in the revenue that even with the aid of direct taxation it will be impossible for the Government, however willing, to undertake the building of this national highway of commerce.

In conclusion, I would ask the electors to accept the above statement as indicating my views of the chief public questions of the hour, and the policy relied on by the leader of the Reform party, and his Wiman allies, as the one by which they hope to gain control of the Government of Canada, and to displace the existing Government, and I would ask all who cannot approve so radical a change as proposed, to rally to the support of the Liberal-Conservative party in the present great crisis in our affairs.

I am, gentlemen,

Your sincere and humble servant,

JAMES STEVENSON.

PETERBOROUGH

PLANING MILLS!

Dublin-st., Peterborough.

A. RUTHERFORD,

PROPRIETOR.

Having purchased the plant, and business, formerly carried on by J. D. Baptie, in the above premises, I am prepared to execute orders for every description of General Carpenter Work Window and Door Frames, Blinds, Mouldings, etc.

Scroll Work, Band Sawing, Turning executed to order.

Large supply of Dry Lumber of all Kinds always on hand.

Factory and Office,—Dublin-st. Telephone Connection.

LIME—Always kept on hand. Orders left at Mill or at G.T.R. Station promptly attended to. d48-w51f

DR. R. A. SPILSBURY

Throat, Nose and Ear. Lecturer on Diseases of the Throat and Nose, Trinity Medical College Toronto; Surgeon to the Throat and Nose Department, Toronto General Hospital, and late Clinical Assistant, Hospital for the Diseases of the Throat, Nose and Ear, London, England. OFFICE 210 Church Street, Toronto. wd6yr

Dr. Spilsbury will be at the Oriental Hotel, Peterborough, on Saturday, February 28th, from 9 to 11 30 a.m. for consultation in Throat, Nose and Ear diseases.

COME, SEE AND BUY

ONE OF THE PATENT

BAKING CABINETS

on exhibition at J. J. Turner's Sail, Tent and Awning Factory. This is one of the most complete and useful articles for any and every house as it holds your flour, spices, raisins, meal, sugar, etc., and when you are through baking you can lock it up and it makes a nice piece of furniture.

Having bought the right for Peterborough and Ashburnham to manufacture this I want some good live agents to sell it.

J. J. TURNER,

283 and 285½ George-st., Peterborough.

Telephone day or night. Bell 139, Ontario 73.

HAGGART & KIDD

TOWN and COUNTY } Auctioneers,

COMMISSION and SHIPPING } Merchants,

REAL ESTATE and INSURANCE } Agents.

☛ Money to Loan.

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED!

Grand Rally of the People's Party.

THE QUESTION OF THE HOUR!

The Greatest Good to the Largest Number.

GOUGH BROTHERS are in the field as the Candidates for public approval, basing their claim on the admitted facts that they supply the largest number, the greatest number of times with the largest dollar's worth of the best clothing that money can purchase.

Ask our constituents if this claim is not well grounded?

When you buy, buy from first hands, remembering that we supply Clothing, Furnishings, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes.

GOUGH BROTHERS

The Clothiers, 377 and 379 George-st., Peterborough.

OPEN FOR INSPECTION!

A handsome and very useful line of

CASE GOODS

COMPRISING

Carver Sets,

Ladies' and Gentlemen's

COMPANIONS

These Goods are the Best English Make.

KINGAN & Co

"It is the Safest and Fairest Policy I Have Ever Seen,"

Was the remark made by a prominent representative of one of the largest and best American Life insurance Companies, when he had carefully examined

THE ORDINARY LIFE POLICY OF

—THE—

TEMPERANCE and GENERAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y.

This is the only policy offered to the Canadian public that can neither lapse nor expire as to its paid-up value till death ensues, after three annual premiums have been paid on it.

Our Limited Payment Life Policy, or Instalment Bonds, Our Common Sense Renewable Term Policies, and our Survivors' Endowment Bonds are all possessed of new and excellent features and are all worthy of careful consideration.

Agents Wanted.

H. P. LINDSAY,

Gen. Agent for Peterborough, Northumberland and Durham. Office No. 382 George-st., opposite new market building.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

SELLING AT REDUCED PRICES

We are offering our Stock of Manufactured Furs at cost, previous to stock taking. The stock comprises a choice assortment of Ladies' and Gents fine Fur Collars, Cuffs, Capes, Caps, Gauntlets and Coats. Also a few Musk Ox, Bear, Opposum and Goat Robes.

CALL AND BE CONVINCED.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

Manufacturing Furriers.

THE STANDARD LIFE Assurance Company,

ESTABLISHED 1832

Subsisting Assurances	$101,250,000.	The Funds Invested in Canada amount to nearly	$5,000,000.
Invested Funds	34,000,000.	Deposited with Dominion Government at Ottawa ..	1,100,000
Annual Income	4,500,000.
Bonuses Distributed	23,000,000.

All plans of Assurance. Non Forfeitable Policies. Absolutely unconditional policy from date of issue without extra charge. Absolute security. Rates compare favourable with any first-class Company.

W. M. RAMSAY, { Manager, Montreal. }

A.V.R. YOUNG, General Agent, and Inspector for Midland District, 379 Water-st.

C. CAMERON, MULLHOLLAND & ROPER, | Special Agent

WM. FITZGERALD,

Builder, Contractor and Jobber.

Contracts taken for all work connected with erection of new buildings, repairs or rebuilding. Twenty-five years experience. First-class work according to plans and specifications guaranteed. Estimates furnished for any description of work. Good dry material always on hand. Best of references given as to excellence of work and despatch.

Building Lots For Sale

in different localities. Most desirable sites for houses. This is the time to buy and build. Lots sold and houses built thereon on terms to suit buyers. Easy terms of payment. Several good houses and lots for sale. Every one looking for a bargain should see these. WM. FITZGERALD, 134, corner of Dublin and Water-sts.

P.O. Box 578, Peterborough. gp w 22-1y

WORKINGMEN. Mr. Stevenson has given time and work and money to build up industries in the town which give employment to large numbers. Send him again to Parliament to continue the good work.

MR. SHELDRAKE'S

Private

PREPARATORY SCHOOL.

FOR BOYS,

LAKEFIELD, ONTARIO.

2 BRICK HOUSES,

2 FRAME HOUSES,

and THREE LOTS,

to be sold at my office on WEDNESDAY next, the 18th inst., at 3 p m,

The above properties are situated west of Bethune-st. and between the 2 railway stations in the centre of all the principal manufactories in town. A rare chance.

T. HURLEY,

357 George-

DO YOU LIKE
Biscuits?

Most likely you do.
There's a deal of difference
in Biscuits. Quality is an important item. A good
biscuit should be fresh,
crisp and of good flavor.
Here's what will suit you.
Try the English biscuit, made
by Huntley & Palmer the famous makers. Imported
by us and guaranteed genuine.
Ask for Huntley & Palmer's biscuits.

W. J. MASON
426 GEORGE STREET.
No trouble to show Goods.

Reduction Sale
—OF—
WALL PAPER
—AT—
Cost Price.

During the month of February we are receiving large shipments of Wall Paper, and to make room for the New Goods, we will sell all our Remnants

At or Below Cost Price.

This is a genuine offer and should be taken advantage of, as the season for papering is so near at hand it will pay you to buy now.

H. THOMPSON & Co
Office and General Stationers, Booksellers, and Wall Paper Dealers, 406 George-st. — — Peterborough

The Daily Review.
TUESDAY. FEBRUARY 23, 1891.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Parties indebted to this firm for a year or over, are requested to settle their accounts at once, otherwise the same will be given in for collection without further notice. The liberality with which we treat those buying on credit, in not charging interest on overdue accounts, is too often abused, whereby all the advantages of purchasing early in the European market are to a great extent lost. As Mr. Lech (Sr.) leaves again next month for Europe to buy, parties will therefore please take notice to the above. W. LECH & SONS. 1d16

Notice.

Members of the Fire Brigade band are requested to meet at band hall this evening at 7.30. Special business. W. H. Crowe.

The Winter Races.

The winter meeting of the Peterborough Driving Association will open here tomorrow. Several flyers are here and two good days' sport are looked forward to.

Charlotte-st. Sunday School.

An obvious error occurred in yesterday's notice of the coming anniversary of this school. The evening meeting of choruses, glees, solos and recitations will be held on Tuesday evening, March 24th.

St. John's Lecture.

To-morrow evening the third of the Wednesday evening series of Lenten lectures will be given at St. John's church. Rev. E. W. Cooper, an eloquent and able speaker, is to give the address on "Commercial Christianity."

A Midnight Alarm.

Shortly after twelve o'clock last night the fire brigade was called out to extinguish an incipient blaze that was discovered in the house at the corner of Louis and King-sts. occupied by Mr. Harry Freeman. The blaze had ignited around a stove pipe hole, but was extinguished with the Babcocks before much damage was done.

New Work Going On.

Work is being pushed by Mr. Shaffer of the Bell Telephone Co., on new wires about town to afford connection for 200 new phones to be connected up. Following are the names of new connections made this week:—F. B. Yokome, 249; T. H. Graham, 212; Wm. Manson, 261; Convent de Notre Dame, 255. The Lefton board will accommodate 300 'phones. A new card of subscribers will be issued shortly, and the Manager expects to make an average of 20 connections per week.

Everybody Knows

That at this season the blood is filled with impurities, the accumulation of months of close confinement in poorly ventilated stores, workshops and tenements. All these impurities and every trace of scorfula, salt rheum, or other diseases may be expelled by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier ever produced. It is the only medicine of which "100 doses one dollar" is true.

THE REFORMERS' RALLY

THE AUDIENCE LARGELY OF CONSERVATIVE COMPLEXION.

Speeches by Messrs. Hall, Hugh O'Leary of Lindsay, and John Crerar, of Hamilton, in the Interests of Mr. Hall—The Government's Policy Upheld by Mr. Cowan, of Galt.

The mass meeting held in the Opera House last evening in the interests of Mr. Hall attracted an immense crowd to the building, but, saying the least, the audience was equally divided as far as political complexion was concerned. Mr. Cowan's reception was an evidence of this, as well as the frequent storms of applause that he evoked during his address and the enthusiastic cheers given for the old man, Sir John, at the close. The gallery was occupied by a large representation of the fair sex, who were evidently interested auditors. The Opera House had been decorated with flags and mottoes.

Mr. Peter Hamilton was chairman. The speakers for the occasion were Mr. Hugh O'Leary, Q.C., of Lindsay, and Mr. John Crerar, Q.C., of Hamilton, while Mr. Thos. Cowan, of Galt, spoke in support of Mr. Stevenson.

THE OPENING SPEECHES.

Mr. RICHARD HALL was the first speaker introduced. He was received with some applause. He confined his remarks to a few sentences in which he said he had not sought the office but had entered the fight because he felt it was a duty he owed his country.

Mr. HUGH O'LEARY followed in a short address. As he said he only generalized and did not go into detail. He questioned the Government's honesty in their efforts to gain partial reciprocity and claimed that they should outline a definite line upon which their negotiations were to be based. He brought up the years of reciprocity in the 60's and expressed his shame for the Canadian who feared commercial union with the United States. He unearthed some figures to show the increased trade which was enjoyed with the Americans under the old treaty and held that our trade with Great Britain had decreased during the last three years while it had increased with the United States notwithstanding the tariff wall. He complained bitterly because his party were not given access to "the year book" and spent some time criticising some of the campaign literature. In referring to the effect of unrestricted reciprocity upon this Province he acknowledge that Peterborough had prospered under the N.P., but painted the blue ruin that he alleged existed in Oshawa and other places. He also referred to the voters lists and the large number of young men who were disfranchised, evidently wishing his hearers to believe that these young men were all Reformers. He closed with a reference to the combines which to his mind were fostered by the National Policy.

THE GOVERNMENT'S SUPPORTER.

Mr. COWAN, of Galt, upon rising was tendered a great reception, and it certainly was hard to believe, listening to the ovation he received, that he was the opposition speaker on the occasion. His first effort to speak made it evident to the assemblage that Mr. Cowan was suffering from a severe cold. His voice was so hoarse that it was with difficulty that he made himself heard at all. However, as he progressed the trouble grew less noticeable, and from his finish it is safe to say he would have made a masterly address had his voice been with him. In opening he regretted the loss of his voice and craved the indulgence of the audience. In the first place he entered into and dealt with the statements of the preceding speaker. He spoke first of the inconsistency shown by that gentleman who had made a statement that the people of Oshawa, once a manufacturing centre, were destitute, that the factories were next to being closed and the workmen and mechanics helpless and idle. On the other hand he had said the National Policy was the cause, the influence, the cursed influence that had made for the Redpaths more money than all the farmers were worth put together. That is, it had injured manufacturers and at the same time had made them wealthy. As to the charge that Reformers could not obtain access to public documents Mr. Cowan said they all knew that every member, no matter of what political complexion he was, had a full right to any documents and could get copies and send them to any friend he wished. (Cheers.) The next burden of the previous speaker's song was that the Government should not have dissolved the House at this time. The speaker said had been explained so frequently on the platform and in the press that it was almost unnecessary to go into them. However, he did, giving the circumstances which led up to the invitation extended by the United States to negotiate in regard to the trade relations. Sir John had said that before he would ask representatives to sit upon a commission upon which depended so many questions of great importance, he would appeal to the country and ask the people to pass judgment upon the negotiations and who were to make them. This course was constitutional, and he believed that after the 5th of March Sir John would be sent to appoint that commission as the Crowned King of this Dominion. (Loud and prolonged cheering.) As to the cry against the voters' list, he said that the Tories had to submit to the same list as the Reformers and had no advantage. Again Mr. Cowan reverted to the blue ruin cry which Mr. O'Leary had raised. He said this was a favorite one with the Reformers and he had brought figures with him to meet it. He said he knew the ways of both parties, for he had some years ago been with Mr. Mackenzie, but when that gentleman became too stubborn he had left him. He had noticed a difference between the two parties. When they pointed to the tall chimneys, the prosperous factories and country, the Tories cheered. When the Reformers, following Sir Richard Calamity, talked of the country going down, of ruin and destruction, the extreme Reformers cheered. One party was the party of hope and confidence and saw a great future before us, and the other had no hope, no knowledge of our resources and hung their hands by their sides and accomplished nothing. One was hopeful, the other despondent; one active, the other inactive. The names were complete misnomers. (Cheers). The Conservative party were the Johns driving the country ahead while the Reformers were wagging their heads and lamenting. Why, from Mr. O'Leary's remarks they would suppose that the shingles of the houses were drifting down the streets of Oshawa, that the clapboards were falling off the houses and that, if they saw a man there at all, he would be a poor desolate creature singing "The Deserted Village." But

THE REASONS FOR THE DISSOLUTION

WHAT WERE THE FACTS?

He had the figures showing the condition of the concerns of Oshawa. There they had the Oshawa Malleable Iron Company with a paid up capital of $200,000 and a surplus of $150,000; the A. S. Whitney Company with a paid up capital of $250,000 and a surplus of $24,000; Robson & Laughland with $50,000; the Western Bank with a capital paid in of $350,000 and a rest of $60,000, this principally subscribed by the people of the town; the Ontario Loan and Savings Company with a paid up capital of $300,000 and a surplus of $75,000, this also from the people of Oshawa, the McLaughlin carriage works with a capital of $10,000 or $12,000, the Supe Bros.' furniture factory with $8,000 or $10,000; R. Woon, furniture, with $18,000 to $20,000, and J. Craig's factory with a capital of from $8,000 to $10,000. These industries were paying $1,000 per day in wages, which was being spent right in the town. If his learned friend knew as much about manufactures as he was supposed to know about law he would not have painted Oshawa in such gloomy colors. Then Mr. Cowan asked them to look at the two parties on the question of reciprocity. Mr. O'Leary had stated that the Government were not honest in advocating partial reciprocity. He proceeded to show that there was a fallacy by quoting Sir John's resolutions when in opposition, and by reading the statutory offer which had been standing for twelve years. That offer, had, he said, stood on the statute books for twelve years and yet they said it was not an honest offer. The offer had been there but the Americans had not made any offer to accept it. On the face of that no man could stand up and say that the Dominion Government was insincere or dishonest in their professions of wanting a measure of reciprocity. They knew the difference between the two offers. The Reformers were going up and down the cross roads telling the farmers that they were so poor and depressed that they would GRASP AT THE SHADOW.

of free trade. (Cheers.) It took two to make a bargain. The Reformers asked what is your policy? He would say that their chief who managed the Government was not so simple as to go to Washington and show his whole hand. The American's had seen Sir Richard's hand, they had seen Wiman's hand, they had seen Farrer's hand—(cheers)—but Sir John would go go down and not show his whole hand but would ask what they would offer. The speaker said he was warranted by the hand they had shown in saying that the Reformers would pull down the tariff wall between this country and the States, and lose a revenue of between fifteen and eighteen millions, the would give the Americans the right to arrange our tariff, and rush from the small tariff of 30 or 35 per cent. to the other extreme and pile up a tariff of 60 to 65 per cent. against Great Britain, and as the Americans said, make a ready road to annexation. Mr. Cowan quoted from Sir Richard's Oshawa speech where he had said that there would be discrimination against Great Britain. The McKinley tariff would be placed against Great Britain, and to further prove this he asked if the Americans would allow us to have a lower tariff against Great Britain than they had and let Canada be made a back door to bring English goods into the United States? This was a business view of it, and they could take the loyalty view and would see that it was looked upon as annexation. To this point he quoted Erastus Wiman, Goldwin Smith, Mr. Blaine and American Senators and newspapers all of whom spoke of unrestricted reciprocity as the way to political union and annexation. In regard to combines he asked them to be consistent in this also. In Canada

THERE WERE NO COMBINES

he knew of. (Interruption.) He was a manufacturer and Galt was a manufacturing centre and he knew there were no combines there. Hespeler, Guelph and other western towns were manufacturing centres and he knew there were no combines there. (Cheers). Mr. Clarke Wallace had been urging resolutions to prevent combines, and yet the Liberals wanted to launch Canada over into the United States, the peculiar garden of combinations. (Laughter and applause.) He asked them to be consistent. Mr. Cowan then quoted figures to show that Great Britain was our natural and better market for the greater portion of our natural products. He was a manufacturer and he made his goods to suit the market, and the farmer could govern himself, and in barley grow the two-rowed for the English market and get a better, more permanent market with no fear of a tariff. The Dominion Government had done their best to preserve the cattle trade and the speaker pictured the state of affairs that would follow the opening of the doors to the American cattle. They would cut off the local trade, the butchers buying the Taxes fed cattle shipped here in cold-storage, and would cause their cattle to be scheduled and placed on the same footing in the English market as the American cattle and in this way have from ten to twelve dollars per head taken off. Then the speaker referred to the large increase of the inter-provincial trade under the National Policy. He said Mr. Wm. Hamilton, of town, was a rival of his, but he was told that that gentleman was also rallying to the old flag. (Loud and long cheers.) The Canadian Pacific had opened up a vast country and enabled him in Galt and the Hamilton company here to pay promptly wages gathered from their trade from British Columbia. Sir John had built the C.P.R. in the face of the opposition of his opponents but he had carried it to a grand and rapid completion. In closing he referred to the vast resources of the country which were being opened up and concluded by thanking the audience for their patient hearing. He resumed his seat amidst great applause.

MR. CRERAR'S ADDRESS.

Mr. J. CRERAR, Q.C., of Hamilton, was then introduced to the audience and well received. After preliminary remarks, he said that during the elections of 1882 and 1887 he had taken no part in the contests because the Liberals then said the National Policy was a dead issue, and he did not believe in shouting about corruption in high places. He further informed his audience that he would vote for a walking stick if it could vote in the house with Sir Richard Cartwright. He repeated the old story about the distress all over the world during Mackenzie's time, and said that Mr. Mackenzie, when the manufacturers asked him to raise the tariff and protect Canada from being the United States slaughter market, had to refuse because the Maritime Provinces members refused to agree to it. He rehearsed some of the arguments of the discussions in 1878, and made the usual blue ruin assertions, claiming, however, that rich men, with over $100,000, had lost their money in manufacture, whereas Mr. O'Leary had claimed that the National Policy had made the manufacturers rich. Of course, he said, Peterborough had prospered, but the ruin was some place else. He referred to England's adoption of free trade, and denounced the National Policy as un British while he was advocating free trade with the States and the exclusion of British goods. He admitted that the States made Canada a slaughter market for their goods previous to 1879, but said that with free trade between the two countries this country would be as the home market to the United States manufacturers. He gave an illustration from a statement made by a woollen manufacturer in Montreal, who, he was informed, had one of the largest establishments in the country.

Mr. JAS. KENDRY said he did not wish to disturb the meeting, but the manufacturer mentioned had one of the smallest mills in the country. (Cheers).

Mr. CRERAR said he had been so informed, but he was only giving the statements on the authority of the Montreal man—he could not vouch for them himself—and he proceeded to retail the statements he could not vouch for. He claimed that there were combines in Canada, and said there was in cotton mills—again giving the same Montreal authority—by which they made money, although he had before said that the National Policy had destroyed cotton mills. He took up sugar, and said that in the United States and Canada sugar was dearer than in England owing to duties, again neglecting to point out that it was free trade with the United States and not with England that was advocating. He depicted the farmers of Ontario as being degenerate sons of sturdy sires. He stated that a treaty with the United States would not be concluded until the Queen signed it, and there was no danger of the Empire being endangered—but he probably had not read Mr. Wiman's cheerful prophecy that the Queen would refuse and that the refusal would lead to "another Boston tea party." He quoted the returns of exports from Ontario to the United States and to England, trying to impose on the audience the idea that Ontario only sent $3,000,000 worth of goods to England by leaving out all Ontario goods exported at Montreal and Quebec and entered as exported from those ports. He again referred to combines, while asking them to form a commercial alliance with a country of combines, the United States.

The meeting closed with cheers for the Queen, Mr. Hall and Sir John Macdonald.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

To-night's Grand Rally in the Opera House—Other Meetings.

To-night Hon. John Haggart, Postmaster General, will address a mass meeting of the electors in the Opera House in the interest of Mr. Stevenson. Hon. Mr. Haggart is a gentleman whose unlimited knowledge of public affairs and the leading questions of the day combined with an eloquence of speech will ensure for all who attend an address which will be statesmanlike and instructive. Let there be a grand rally to here the questions at issue in this campaign discussed by such an able exponent. It is probable that Mr. Hall will be represented, an invitation having been extended to him or his representative to be present.

The French-Canadians' Meeting.

Nearly one hundred French speaking electors gathered last evening in the committee rooms in the Opera House block to listen to Mr. Gaillardet who addressed them in French in Mr. Stevenson's behalf. The speaker is an eloquent one and as he went into the questions at issue he was frequently applauded. Mr. H. LeBrun presided as chairman.

Warsaw.

A meeting in Mr. Rorke's interest was held last evening at Warsaw. Dr. Goldsmith was the first speaker. Mr. J. Hampden Burnham made a spirited speech on behalf of Mr. Burnham, and was followed by Mr. A. E. Kidd, the Equal Rights candidate, and Mr. Pedley, of Toronto.

Bridgenorth.

Mr. Stevenson held an enthusiastic meeting at Bridgenorth last night. He made an able address and was supported by Mr. W. H. Moore. The speakers were well received and attentively listened to.

CAMPBELLFORD CONQUERED.

Two Local Rinks Defeated Them by 14 Shots.

Two rinks from Campbellford came here this morning and were defeated by two local rinks by a majority of 14 shots. The rinks and scores were as follows:—

CAMPBELLFORD.	PETERBOROUGH
Rink No. One.
G. Waters,	A. E. Thomson.
Dr. Macoun.	R. B. McKee,
C. Smith.	W. Sailsbury,
E. Gaudrie, s'p. 13	W. G. Ferguson, s'p 16
Rink No. Two.
R. Dinwoodie,	J. McClelland,
D. Kerr,	J. H. Burnham,
C. L. Owen,	T. P. Attrill,
W. Cummings, s'p. 8	W. H. Budden, skip 19
Total 21	Total 35

Majority for Peterborough 14 shots.

A telegram was received this morning from Lindsay saying there was no ice there, and therefore no match was played to-day.

Brevities.

—There was a blank at the police court this morning.

—According to the mortuary statistics the death rate for Peterborough in the month of January was 1.07, there having been 16 deaths.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Who Pays the Duty.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—I would like Mr. Hall or Mr. Stratton to answer the following question:—Who pays the duty, the exporter, the importer or the consumer? Will one of these gentlemen please answer and oblige

AN UNSETTLED ELECTOR.

In advanced age the declining powers are wonderfully refreshed by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It really does "make the weak strong."

Under Sir Richard Cartwright the debt of the Dominion was increased at the rate of $6,100,000 a year. Last year there was only a nominal increase of $3,000. Support economical government by voting for Messrs Stevenson and Burnham.

ELECTORS. Protect home and country by voting for Mr. Stevenson. Come to the Committee rooms, Opera House block, open every night.

CAKES!

For a Good Cake, leave your orders at

Long Bros.

Also home-made cakes iced and nicely Ornamented. Wedding Breakfasts and Evening Parties Catered for. Oyster Patties made to order. Our stock of Candies is pure and made by ourselves.

No. 286 and 414 George-st.

A BUSINESS VIEW OF IT.

THE LIBERAL POLICY A COMMERCIAL AND NATIONAL MISTAKE.

The Views of Mr. W. C. VanHorne—It Would be Greatly Injurious to Canadian Industries and to Canadian Trade.

MONTREAL, Feb. 23.—Senator Drummond has made the following letter public—Montreal, Feburary 21st, 1891. Mr. Dear Mr. Drummond,—You are quite right in assuming that the statement in the letter enclosed in your note of to-day is untrue. I am not in favor of unrestricted reciprocity or anything of the kind. I am well enough acquainted with the trade and industries of Canada to know that unrestricted reciprocity would bring prostration or ruin. I realise that for saying this I may be accused of meddling in politics. But with me this is a business question and not a political one and it so vividly effects the interests that have been entrusted to me that I feel justified in expressing my opinions plainly. Indeed since opposite views have been attributed to me I feel bound to do so. No one can follow the proceedings in Congress at Washington and the utterances of the leading newspapers of the United States without being struck with the extraordinary jealously that prevails there concerning Canada, jealously growing out of the wonderful development of her trade and manufactures within the past twelve years. It was this jealousy that prompted the anti-Canadian features of the McKinley bill. It was represented at Washington, that the Canadian farmers largely depended upon the United States for a market for many of their chief products and that their loyalty could be touched through their pockets and that it was only necessary to put on the screws to bring about a political upheaval in Canada and such a reversal of the trade policy of the country as would inevitably lead to annexation. I have found it necessary to keep well informed as to the drift of matters at Washington because the interests of the Canadian Pacific Railway have been threatened by all sorts of restrictive measures and from my knowledge of the feeling there I do not hesitate to say that if the result of the pending elections in Canada is what the author of the McKinley bill expected it would be another turn of the screw will follow. No comfort is to be found in the recent disavowal of the republican party in the United States, but it was not the anti Canadian features of the McKinley bill that caused this, but too heavily increased duties on many articles, the manufacture of which at home was intended to be forced. This increase of duties came at a time of general depression among the farmers and working classes and it was resented by them. Trade relations with Canada had nothing to do with it. They were not thinking of us. Putting aside all patriotic considerations and looking at the question of unrestricted reciprocity from a strictly business standpoint, what in the name of common sense has Canada to gain by it at this time? Thousands of farms in the New England states are abandoned, the farmers of the Middle States are all complaining, and those of some of the Western States are suffering to such extent that organized relief is necessary. The manufacturers everywhere are alarmed as to their future and most of them are reducing their output, working on short time and seeking orders at absolute cost so that they may keep their best workingmen together. We are infinitely better off in Canada. We have not abandoned farms and no distress, anywhere, and there is work for everybody who is willing to work. Our neighbors big mill pond is very low just now, but our smaller one is full enough to keep us going comfortably. His pond requires twelve times as much as ours to fill. It is not necessary that a small boy should be a school boy to know what the result would be if we were to cut our dam, our pond would at once fall to the level of the other. Even if we were suffering from hard times we could gain nothing by unrestricted reciprocity. No man of sense would seek partnership with one worse off than himself because he happened to be hard up. You can't make a good egg out of two bad ones. The Canadian Pacific Railway is far away the largest buyer of manufactured articles in Canada. It buys dry goods and groceries as well as locomotives and cars; it buys pins and needles and millinery goods as well as rails and spikes and spikes; it buys drugs and medicines and clothing as well as bolts and wheels and axles; it buys almost every conceivable thing and it is necessarily in close touch with the markets at home and abroad. It has built up or been instrumental in building up hundreds of new industries in the country and it is the chief support of many of them, and its experience with these markets and these industries justifies my belief that unrestricted reciprocity with the United States and a joint protective tariff against the rest of the world would make New York the chief distributing point for the Dominion, instead of Montreal and Toronto, would localize the business of the ports of Montreal and Quebec, and destroy all hope of the future of the ports of Halifax and St. John, would ruin three-fourts of our manufacuries, would fill our streets with the unemployed, would make Eastern Canada the dumping ground for the grain and flour of the Western States, to the injury of our own north-west, and would make Canada generally the slaughter market for the manufacturers of the United States, all of which would be bad for the Canadian Pacific railway, as well as for the country at large, and this is my excuse for saying so much. I am not speaking for the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, nor as a Liberal or a Conservative, but only as an individual much concerned in the business prospects of the country, and full of anxiety lest a great commercial, if not a national mistake should be made.

Yours truly,
W. C. VANHORNE.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. d16-w1 6mo

CHANGE OF BUSINESS

I beg to announce to my late customers that I have sold out my business to Messrs. Hilliard & Peplow, and would bespeak for them the same support as you have accorded me.

C. N. BROWN.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

For some time past we have thought that a strictly cash business in Flour, Feed and Provisions could be successfully carried on in Peterborough, and to test this question we have purchased the above business from Mr. C. N. Brown, who will still continue as manager, in Flavelle's Old Stand, Simcoe st.

In order to be successful we intend to make it the interest of every one to pay cash with order by selling at wholesale prices.

We will positively give no credit and cash customers will not have to keep up the losses made by others on the credit system.

We will keep a full supply of

FLOUR, FEED, CHOP, Etc.,

and our customers need not fear that the quality of the goods will be lowered to make up for the reduction in prices.

We are simply giving them the benefit o the margin necessary to cover losses and interest charges incurred in the credit system.

Goods delivered to any part of the town or Ashburnham.

Hilliard & Peplow.

Telephones.—Bell 25, Ontario 112. d46-tf.

"PROGRESSIVE
EUCHRE"

parties still hold the boards. We have a lot of good playing cards at 25c. a pack, or 5 for $1.00. These are worth 40c. each.

SAILSBURY BROS.

DO YOU know that now is the time to select your suit for Spring? Never again will you have such an opportunity. The stock is new, the assortment complete, and we can devote more time to help you in making a selection than later on. Select your pattern now and we shall keep it for you until required; many of our customers find it to their advantage to do this, so will you. It makes no difference whether you want it in a week or a month, you leave the order and we will do the rest. We warrant the goods, guarantee the style and give you an unquestionable fit. The furnishing department is filled with all the latest novelties and anything you require can be obtained from

T. DOLAN & Co.
Clothiers and Furnishers.

DOMINION
ELECTIONS!

West Peterborough.

HON. JOHN
HAGGART
POSTMASTER GENERAL,

will address a meeting in the Opera House (Peterborough) on the Evening of

TUESDAY, February 24th,

on the public questions of the day.

The gallery will be reserved for Ladies.

THE MEETING will commence at 8 o'clock.

Mr Hall or his representative is invited to be present.

W. H. MOORE,
Pres. Lib.-Con. Ass'n.

W. J. MINORE.
Sec. Lib.-Con. Ass'n.

1891. 1891.

NEW DRESS GOODS!

Very Low in Price.

New Prints,
New Embroideries,
New Check Muslins,
New Wool Tweeds,
New Shirtings,
New Ginghams,
New Table Linens,
New Towelings,
New Flanelettes,
New Shirting Flannels,

Very Low in Price.

—AT—

THOS. KELLY'S.

20 pieces Double Fold Bleached Sheetings, Plain or Twilled, at 20c. per yard.
10 pieces Double Fold Grey Sheetings, Plain, at 15c. per yard.
5 Bales Grey Cotton (soiled) at 3c. per yard.

—AT—

THOS. KELLY'S, CORNER OF GEORGE AND SIMCOE-STS.

WHITE LABEL ALE
On Draught.
10 cts. per qt.

Try our Bottled Ale, White Label, India Pale, etc., etc.

W. J. MORROW.
Opera House Block, George-st.

IN THE MARKET!

1.—I have sold out the City Hotel to Wm. Clancy, in 19 minutes.
2.—I have sold out Faren & Co, Billiard Room etc., to Faren & Co. in 13 minutes.
3.—The Dry Goods Stock is in the Market. If there is any new blood for this offer call and see me. Want to dispose of it inside of 10 days.

I am off for Australia early next month.

I mean business. If the stock is too large can be reduced to $1,000 in 30 days.

JAMES DOLAN,
George Street, Peterborough.

SURPRISE
EVERY-WOMAN
St. Croix Soap M'f'g. Co.
St. Stephen, N.B.
SOAP

The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1891.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

THE DEATH ROLL 120.

Funerals of Many of the Victims of the Springhill Mine Disaster.

SPRINGHILL MINES, N.S., Feb. 23.—The list of dead now numbers 120. Twelve of the dead were buried this afternoon. This afternoon a broken-hearted Frenchman named Olive Dagire took from the morgue the body of his son James, who was killed in No. 1 slope. His other little boy ran out to meet the sorrowful father, slipped on the ice and struck his head with such force that he was instantly killed. This affair added another to the death roll.

Last night one of the orphans of a family of eight was in a restaurant begging for enough bread for her little brothers and sisters for this morning. Other cases of extreme destitution are cropping up continually and must be promptly met.

The subscriptions to the relief fund received to-day are $2755.

The workmen, when urged to resume work as quickly as possible to dispel to some extent the prevailing gloom, stated that it is utterly impossible to get the men to enter the mine before all the bodies are recovered. It is also known to-night that, owing to the number of grief-stricken persons in the town, considerable difficulty has been experienced in getting men to dig graves for those who were killed. A meeting was held Sunday, when a number volunteered for that purpose, but another is being held to-night to take steps to have graves dug to-morrow.

The miners claim that the death rate will reach 150 when all the bodies are recovered, but the owners say 120 covers all. So far 105 bodies have been recovered.

The whole surrounding country has been telegraphed to for coffins. One carload has been received from Amherst and another is expected to-night.

There were touching scenes at the funeral services, especially at the English church, where 10 members of three families were buried. Mr. Arimshaw buried his two sons and adopted son, Reid Carter, and his two sons, aged 21 and 13, were carried out of the house. The eldest was to have been married next week to Phoebe Brown. Every arrangement had been made for the wedding. Tottersall, the well-known cricketer, who came out from England to coach the Wanderers' Club in Halifax, is among the dead. He sent his wife away a few weeks ago, and when saying good bye gave her his ring and watch in case he never saw her again.

HAZELTON, Pa., Feb. 23.—"Alive, alive!" was the joyful tidings to-night at 11.30 from the ill-fated slope No. 1 at Jeansville. After being for 18 days entombed in the darkness of a mine five victims of the terrible disaster of Feb. 4 were found alive. They are John Tomaskusky, Joseph Mastochowich, John Berno, Bosco Frinko and an unknown Hungarian. These with the 13 bodies already found make 18 men, the exact number given in these despatches the day of the accident. How they survived is a miracle. Nothing like it has been known or heard of in the anthracite coal fields of Pennsylvania. When Superintendent McMariane and Caleb Williams were making a search to-night in a breast of the east gangway of the north pitch they were startled to come across the bodies of the 5 men lying in various positions, all huddled together in their efforts to keep warm. Careful examination revealed the fact that although weakened by the awful torture of hunger and thirst were still alive. They were so weak that with one exception they could not be moved. Doctors were summoned to the mine. Many blankets were secured and the men wrapped in them. One named Tomaskusky was just strong enough to raise his head and look around. When spoken to he raised his eyes mournfully, a look of despair passed over his face and he muttered, "John much sick." The men will not be brought to the surface for several days. Careful nursing will be given them and every effort put forth to save their lives.

LORD LORNE ON CANADA.

So Long as Britain Remains True Annexation Will Never Take Place.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—The first of a series of articles published in The Daily Graphic upon "The Canadian Crisis," and written by the Marquis of Lorne, appeared to-day. Among other things the marquis says: "The annexationist scare is a useful lesson, bringing home to our minds the fact that the colonies are practically independent nations. This is a wholesome thing for the public to be reminded of. No comparison is possible between the colonies and Ireland." The marquis ridicules the idea that Canada desires to barter her political independence "for the government of the stars and stripes."

The Daily Graphic to-morrow will publish the Marquis of Lorne's second article on Canada. In this article the Marquis will say: "Free trade, whatever the result of the coming election in Canada may be, is impossible. All possible change of Government, so far as Great Britain is concerned, will mean either a few per cent. decrease in the tariff, or, if Canada joins the United States in a zollverein, an increase of tariff in conjunction with the United States against Great Britain."

A Prolific Patriarch.

RUTLAND, Vt., Feb. 23.—Charles Tebo of Barre, Washington county, who is of French descent, is 85 years of age. He has 20 children, all living, 37 of them being girls. The youngest is 3 years old. Mr. Tebo has 300 living descendants, including children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Tebo is a good violinist and clog dancer.

PASHA is the name of the popular Pen. Seven styles to suit all hands. Try them. Sold at the REVIEW Stationery.

PLUNGED TO DEATH.

A Hamilton Fireman Tumbles From a Hose Tower.

HAMILTON, Feb. 23.—Jeremiah Thomas, a fireman located at the central fire station, fell from the tower in which the department dry the hose, a distance of 60 feet to the ground, this afternoon. The ambulance was called and Thomas was removed to his home, but before reaching the house he died from his injuries. He leaves a widow and small family.

A Petrified Body.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Feb. 23.—The body of the person found in the river at Lockport Wednesday proved to be a woman instead of a man. An examination of the remains by the authorities and physicians at Lockport revealed the fact that it was completely petrified, having been turned to stone by the action of the water. It was properly cared for, coffined and sent to Johnstown on the train Thursday evening, where it is thought it will be identified, as she was doubtless one of the victims of the big flood of '89.

The Cashier of the Ayer National Bank Returns From Montreal.

BOSTON, Feb. 23.—Harry G. Spalding, the absconding cashier of the Ayer National Bank, arrived here to-day and surrendered to the authorities. He was bound over to appear to-morrow under $20,000 bonds. Spalding's return is due to the counsel and advice of Rev. J. T. Johnson, the well-known evangelist. He found Spalding living in Montreal.

IN "A. MINER" KEY.

A lone exhibition—an old maid.

In times of financial panic even words fail.

Toupee-h—part in a blonde woman's hair.

To succeed in his art, the skater must get off his foot frequently.

The punster is cruel when he makes some poor, weak word carry double.

New beginners in equestrianism realize the painful meaning of saddlery hard wear.

Distraction is her name,
There's ardor in each action;
Love for her lad's not tame—
He loves her too, Distraction.

Beds that are music boxes are made in Switzerland. They play sheet music, I suppose.

Critics of the Chicago air ship say it can never soar, and the projectors are sore over it.

Men are natural scoffers. Even where idolatry prevails there's many an idol word said in jest.

There is no difference between a dead miner and a live one, for in either case his dream of life is ore.

The only certain way to judge a man's position in society by his dress is when you see him in the penitentiary garb.

A veteran of the war studied for a horse doctor, but his practice showed that though a veteran—nary surgeon was he.

General Washington may have been very truthful, but that is more than can be said of General Washington dispatches.

The luckiest newspaper employees in the country are those who work for Geo. W. Childs. He distributed $20,000 among his in presents last Christmas.

A Western society journal says, "Two distinguished burglars went through our town last night. They didn't remain long enough to give them a reception such as their position merited."—Texas Siftings.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. G. Gumpricht is in town. Orders may be left at Messrs. Taylor & McDonald's drug store. 1yd66

To Rent.

Farms wanted to rent. Tenants supplied this year at half price. Call or write.

T. HURLEY,
d29tf 357 George-st.

Roses and Other Cut Flowers

as well as floral designs, to be had at Mason's Seed and Plant House, corner of Water and Brock-st. d40tf

Personal.

Dr. E. A. Spilsbury, of Toronto, will be at the Oriental Hotel, Peterborough, on Saturday, February 28th, from 9 to 11 30 a. m. for consultation. See card. 2w8 2d44

Good Breakfast Dishes.

Rolled Bacon, Sausage, Head Cheese, Ham Veal, etc. Best brands of these superior meats always on hand. Bacon sold by actual weight. J. J. Howden, 461 George-st. Telephone connection. d40tf

On Exhibition.

The beautiful upright piano now on exhibition at Crosby's Music store, 423 George-st., Peterborough, is admired by scores of visitors. The rich, full, mellow tone pleases the most fastidious critic d44

Redpath's Cut Leaf Sugar

In 5 lb. boxes, Redpath's Pure Syrup in 2 lb. tins, Fresh Salmon, 2 tins for 25c.; Finest Canadian Cheese, 3 lbs. for 25c.; Pickles equal to bottled, 15c. per quart or 2 quarts for 25c. All goods cheap. W. J. Morrow 349 George-st. d41-w8

A Complete Line

of the finest soaps in the world. Sunlight Soap, Dingman's Electric Soap, etc. See the large bar I am selling at 5 cents, also the mammoth bar at 10 cents. A large stock of toilets. The largest stock and best value in Peterborough. Alex. Elliott 250 George-st. Peterborough. d41

Some Foolish People

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c and $1. Trial size free. At all druggists.

Sale and Musical At Home.

There will be a sale of useful and fancy articles at the residence of Mrs. Mercer, 369 Hunter-st., on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 26th, in aid of the "Pointe Aux Trembles" school. A musical At Home will also be given in the evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. All interested in missionary work are cordially invited. Admission in the afternoon free, in the evening 15c. 2d44

Pure Teas.

The attention of the ladies of Peterborough is drawn to the fact that Ram Lal's and Monsoon brand of Indian Teas are the best in the world. They are celebrated for their strength, purity and richness of flavor. We have also received a shipment of fine Japan Tea which we will sell at 25 cents per lb., the best value for the money to be had in Peterborough. Stapleton & Elcombe, 365 George-st. (Rush Bros.' old stand). d48-w9

That's Easily Answered.

"My dear," said Mrs. Copandsaucer, laying down the evening paper, "what is reciprocity?" "Reciprocity, my angel," said the head of the house, "is easily explained. It means a general evening up,—as, say when Smithers asks me in to take a cigar and I ask him to have another." "Exactly," said Mrs. C., "when I go to Hawley Bros. for tea and I hand Mr. Hawley a dollar and he gives me four or five pounds of splendid green or black mixture, I get the money's worth and he the money. Isn't that it?" "Exactly," said the husband as he reached for his hat. d82tf

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on a trial.

VOLTAIC BELT CO., Marshall, Mich.

Let us Secure These Things.

The pleasantest things in the world are pleasant thoughts, and the great art in life is to have as many of them as possible.

In order to secure this condition in life, it is necessary that we be healthy mentally and physically, and cast out all selfishness and jealousy, and cultivate from day to day a cheerful temper.

It is almost impossible for the nervous, irritable, morose, sleepless and used up man or woman to cultivate pleasant thoughts. The dyspeptic subject cannot refrain from growling and grumbling, and his stomach is to him a perpetual text for darksome thoughts. A gentleman recently declared that he wished "the world knew more about Paine's Celery Compound."

"If more of this grand and healthful restorer were used," he said, "we would see more complete and perfect contentment, less discontentment with one's lot in life, more charity and forbearance, and a unity which is necessary not only in families, but in communities as well."

Paine's Celery Compound can restore strength and vigor to the nervous and weak; it gives a vim and energy to the morose and despondent; it gives sweet sleep and rest to the sleepless and wakeful, and builds up a new body, after which naturally come pleasant thought and a cheerful and happy disposition.

A Strong Attraction.

"Where are you going, my pretty fair maid?"
"I'm going to church, kind sir!" she said.
"Why go you so often, my pretty maid?"
"The minister's young and unmarried," she said.

Caught Before He Knew It.

He (struggling hard to entertain her)—What month would you prefer to be married in?

She—Oh, any month you wish. Which shall it be?

She can skate her name in letters,
And her smiles are iron fetters
To the dudes who follow after her in line;
But it is when her mother wishes
Her to help to wash the dishes—
That is where the skating girl don't come to time.

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. All druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are placing a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have a Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup, or Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

TO THE ELECTORS
OF THE
East Riding
OF THE
COUNTY OF PETERBOROUGH.

GENTLEMEN:—Parliament having been dissolved, the present Government appeal again to the people for a renewal of confidence and an approval of the policy of the administration. I have been chosen to contest the Riding in the interests of the Liberal Conservative Party, and I have accepted the nomination and now solicit your support.

The principal question to be decided is as to our trade relations with the United States, whether, as advocated by the Opposition, we shall adopt such a policy as will practically leave us free to trade only with the United States to the exclusion of Great Britain and other countries, or whether we shall, as advocated by Sir John Macdonald, adopt such a policy, as while dealing with the United States in fair and equitable terms and not to the exclusion of Great Britain, will preserve our nationality and enable us still to remain an integral portion of the British Empire.

I am opposed to the policy of the Opposition, as, in my opinion, it simply means annexation to the United States. As an advocate of the views of the Government I appeal to you. The time is so short before the Polling day that I will not be able to personally see all the electors, but I hope to meet most of you at the several meetings which I shall hold throughout the Riding to discuss the questions at issue.

JOHN BURNHAM.
Ashburnham, February 16th, 1891. w7t

Choicest Brands
—OF—
FLOUR!
BAKERS and PASTRY
—AT—
MELDRUM & DAVIDSON'S
Quality Guaranteed.
FEED:

All kinds always on hand. Orders left at Ormond & Walsh's or McDonald's drug stores will be promptly attended to.

Mill Telephone No. 100.

LOWEST PRICES FOR CASH.

CLARK & GIBSON

have now on view and for sale some

VERY FINE GOODS
—CONSISTING OF—
Gold and Silver Watches, Clocks and Fine Jewellery, etc.

Moderate in Price and Newest Patterns.

Ask to see their

English Oak Goods
AND
SCOTCH PEBBLE JEWELLERY
RARE, CHOICE AND BEAUTIFUL.

WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELLERY carefully repaired.

136 Hunter-st., 2 doors west of the Postoffice.

SAWS Filed and Gummed in First Class Style. Knives, Scissors, Tools, &c., ground and sharpened. E. W. ENGLISH, shop 158 Charlotte-st. dlu-wly

TURKISH DYES

EASY TO USE.

They are Fast.
They are Beautiful.
They are Brilliant.

SOAP WON'T FADE THEM.

Have YOU used them; if not, try and be convinced.

One Package equal to two of any other make.

Canada Branch: 481 St. Paul Street, Montreal.
Send postal for Sample Card and Book of Instructions.

FOR MEN ONLY!

VIGOR STRENGTH [illegible] LOST or FAILING MANHOOD; General and NERVOUS DEBILITY; Weakness of Body and Mind, Effects of Errors or Excesses in Old or Young. [illegible] ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N.Y.

—ONTARIO—
Planing Mills!

Planing, Matching, Mouldings, Band Sawing & Turning, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Storm Sash.

JAMES Z. ROGERS.

"HARVARD"

Harvard Bronchial Syrup emanates from the Medical Faculty of Harvard University, the best medical school in America, and has proved to be the most wonderful cure for all Throat Troubles and Coughs, resulting from sudden Colds. Pleasant to the taste. Absolutely free from injurious ingredients. Large bottles 50c, half the price of inferior remedies.
A. J. LAURANCE, Montreal, Prop. for Canada.
By all dealers.

MULHOLLAND & ROPER
BANKERS AND INSURANCE AGENTS

Banking Department.

Deposit Accounts opened and Notes discounted at short dates or for twelve months if required. Special attention given to the purchase and collection of Farmers' Sale Notes. Drafts drawn on Merchants' Bank of Canada payable in New York, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and at any of its Branches in the Dominion. Cheques on other Banks cashed.

Four to Five per cent. allowed on deposits repayable on demand.

BANKING HOURS.—9 30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m.

Insurance Department.

MR. FELIX BROWNSCOMBE is a partner in and manager of this department.

Careful attention given to Fire, Accident and Plate Glass Insurance.

The following companies are represented:—London and Lancashire, City of London, Phoenix of Brooklyn, Caledonian, Royal Canadian, Agricultural, Montreal Plate Glass, Mutual Accident and Plate Glass, and Norwich and London Accident.

OFFICE HOURS.—9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

"Harvard"

"Harvard Bronchial Syrup has been used in my family with very great success and I have pleasure in recommending it to those who suffer from coughs as one of the best and most efficacious remedies." Rev. Thos. Harris, Ormstown, Que.

GEO. B. SPROULE,
ARTIST & PHOTOGRAPHER
GROUND FLOOR,
370 Charlotte-st. - - - - - Peterborough.

FRAMES & PICTURE MOULDINGS.

HARVARD

"Harvard Bronchial Syrup has been much used in our family, and we unhesitatingly say it is the best Cough Remedy we have ever used." Rev. J. Tallman Pitcher, Montreal. "It is the most satisfactory Cough Remedy I have ever tried." Ross Mackenzie, C.P.R. Offices, Montreal.

UNION CREDIT & PROTECTION
ASSOCIATION.

FOR the Collection of Old and Worthless Accounts in any part of the world, and no charge if not collected. This Association has [illegible] in Canada and United States. [illegible] Toronto. Rooms, M[illegible] 11 and 12. O. E. COLLINS, General Manager; & H. B. ANDREWS, Sec. Address all communications to Toronto, Ont., office. Telephone No. 2[illegible]. This is the only Association that settles accounts and advances the money to the creditor if desired.

O. E. COLLINS,
Manager
DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON,
Solicitors for the Association at Peterborough.
August 28th, 18[illegible] d41 w

Travel.

INTERCOLONIAL
RAILWAY OF CANADA.

The direct route between the west and all points on the Lower St. Lawrence and Baie de Chaleur, Province of Quebec, also New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward, Cape Breton and the Magdalene Islands, Newfoundland and St. Pierre.

Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax daily (Sunday excepted) and run through without change between these points in 30 hours.

The through express train cars of the Intercolonial Railway are brilliantly lighted by electricity and heated by steam from the locomotive.

New and elegant Buffet Sleeping and Day Cars are run on all through express trains.

The popular summer sea bathing and fishing resorts of Canada are along the Intercolonial or are reached by that route.

Canadian European Mail and Passenger Route.

Passengers for Great Britain or the Continent leaving Montreal on Thursday morning will join outward mail steamer at Rimouski the same evening.

The attention of shippers is directed to the superior facilities offered by this route for the transport of flour and general merchandise intended for the Eastern Provinces and Newfoundland, also for shipments of grain and produce intended for the European market.

Tickets may be obtained and all information about the route, also freight and passenger rates on application to

N. WEATHERSTON,
Western Freight and Passenger Agent, 93 Rossin House Block, York street, Toronto,
D. POTTINGER,
Chief Superintendent.
Railway Office, Moncton, N.B., 2nd July, 18[illegible] ly

CANADIAN PACIFIC Ry

PEOPLE'S POPULAR ONE WAY PARTIES
TO British Columbia
WASHINGTON
Oregon and California

Leave Toronto 11 p.m. on Fridays, as under:

March 6, 20, 1891.

[illegible] TOURIST [illegible] TO VANCOUVER WITHOUT CHANGE

For Berths and all information, apply to nearest C.P.R. Agent.

Carbon Gaslight
A RIVAL TO DAYLIGHT!

A new and Brilliant Illuminating Power—Clear, Steady and Mellow. Specially suited for Stores and large Buildings, Machine Shops, &c. A saving of 30 to 40 per cent. on gas can be effected by this new light

See it Burning at the Store of

J. E. NOBLE & Co.
287 George-st, South.
TELEPHONE.—Bell No. 181, Ontario No. 158.

JOHN NUGENT,
CHEMIST AND DRUGGIST.

Prescriptions Carefully Compounded

Try Nugent's Remedies for Colds, Coughs and affections of the chest and throat.

J. NUGENT,
Drug Store, 179 Hunter-st. west.

BANK of TORONTO

Capital $2,000,000 00
Reserve Fund .... 1,[illegible],000 00

PETERBORO' BRANCH.

SAVINGS BANK

SPECIAL ADVANTAGES are derived by depositing money in our Savings Bank Department.

1. "ONE DOLLAR saved is one dollar earned."
2. DEPOSITS of ONE DOLLAR and upwards are received and interest allowed thereon.
3. INTEREST is added to the principal on the 31st day of May and 30th day of November, in each year.
4. MONEY bears interest from the day it is deposited with the Bank until the day of withdrawal.
5. THE DEPOSITOR is subject to no delay whatever.
6. THE SECURITY offered by this Bank is undoubted, as will be seen by the large reserve held and the amount of surplus available for depositors and note holders.

BUSINESS WITH FARMERS.

FARMERS' NOTES discounted at lowest rates. SPECIAL ATTENTION is given to the collection of Farmers' Sale Notes, and advances made thereon.

NOTE FORMS furnished free of charge on application.

DEPOSITS.

DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS opened subject to withdrawal by cheque on demand.

SPECIAL DEPOSITS.—Deposit Receipts issued bearing interest at current rates.

JOHN L. GOWER,
d116-w67 Manager

Bell Telephone Co.,
OF CANADA.

Capital, - $1,500,000.00.

Head Office, MONTREAL.
AND. ROBERTSON, — President.
C. F. SISE, — Vice-Pres. and Man'g. Dir.
C. P. SCLATER, Secy.-Treas.
HUGH C. BAKER, Man., Ont. Dep., Hamilton.

300 EXCHANGES.

Long distance lines give unequalled facilities for talking between cities, towns and villages.

If you wish to speak to Kingston, Belleville Port Hope, Lindsay, Lakefield, Millbrook, Cobourg, Toronto, Hamilton, etc., use the wires of the

BELL TELEPHONE Co,
H. W. KENT,
d41-6mo Local Manager

"HARVARD"

"We have used Harvard Bronchial Syrup in our family and find it an excellent remedy." G. C. Colby, President of the Council, House of Commons, Ottawa. "I have used it myself for Throat Irritations and find it very efficacious." Rev. A. B. Chambers, Napanee.

Medical.

DR. SCOTT.

OFFICE—175 Brock-st. d120w24

F. D. GOLDSMITH, M. D.

L. R. C. S., L. S. A., L. R. C. P., London, Eng.

HAS permanently located in Peterborough. Office and residence, 193 Brock-st., formerly occupied by Mr. J. H. McWilliams. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d47-w15-ly

D. N. CARMICHAEL, M. D.,

C. M., L. R. C. P. Ed.

GRADUATE OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY, Fellow of Trinity Medical School, Licentiate of Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh, L. M. of Simpson's Maternity Hospital, Edinburgh. Office in Mr. Alexander's new residence one door north of the late Dr. O'Sullivan's, George-st. d[illegible]-wyr[illegible]

DR. B. E. McKENZIE, B. A.

Lecturer on Orthopedic Surgery in the Women's Medical College, and in Toronto University; Consulting Orthopedic surgeon to Victoria Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto. Diseases of the Joints and Deformities Only. Bloor-st. W. (near Yonge-st.) Toronto, Consultation from 10 to 3. On Friday and Saturday by appointment only. Will be at the Grand Central Hotel, Peterborough, March 14th. next.

DR. MOHER.

HAS removed to 214 Hunter-st., opposite Marble Works. Office upstairs.

Legal.

HATTON & WOOD.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office, corner of George and Hunter-sts., over T. Dolan & Co's. store. MONEY TO LOAN.

E. B. WOOD, B. A. G. W. HATTON,

SAWERS & STONE.

BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyancers, &c. Office, Hunter-st., Peterborough.

MONEY TO LOAN.
E. B. STONE, d165-w28 C. W. SAWERS.

POUSSETTE & JOHNSTON.

BARRISTERS and SOLICITORS, 379 Water-st.

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C. W. F. JOHNSTON.

EDWARD A. PECK.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, etc., 352 George-st., Peterborough.

Private Funds to loan at 6 per cent.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter-st., Peterborough next English church. Money to loan at lowest rates of interest.

E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN O'MEARA.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, &c. Office 387 George-st. d-w

JOHN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office: No. 415 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont., next door north of new post office. MONEY TO LOAN. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter-sts., over McClelland's Jewellery store. d118w18

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water-st., Peterborough. d57w

DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES. Money to Loan. Office, 417 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont.

ARTHUR STEVENSON, B. A.
R. M. DENNISTOUN, B. A.

STRATTON & HALL.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, &c., Peterborough, Ont. Office:—Next door to Post Office on Hunter-St.

W. A. STRATTON, LL. B. R. R. HALL.
d129

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS. Office Post Office Block, Peterborough. wd217

J. E. BELCHER

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George-st. d&w

Builders and Contractors

E. WEBB,

BRICKLAYER AND CONTRACTOR. All work done substantially and expeditiously. Address E. WEBB, Peterborough. Residence, 336 Aylmer-st. 1yd128

J. J. HARTLEY.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P. O. Box 667; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer-sts. 1yd169

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 82. d[illegible]

W. R. WHITEHAIR.

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 500, Peterborough P. O. d46-ly

JAS. R. DONELL.

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash, Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being a practical man, he trusts to be able to give patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.

y[illegible] JAS. R. DONELL.

Cures in 1 to 5 DAYS. Guaranteed not to cause Stricture. Mf'd only by The Evans Chemical Co. TORONTO, CAN.

Big G is acknowledged the leading remedy for Gonorrhoea & Gleet. The only safe remedy for Leucorrhoea or Whites. I prescribe it and feel safe in recommending it to all sufferers. A. J. STONER, M. D., DECATUR, ILL. Sold by Druggists.

G. A. SCHOFIELD, Agt, Peterborough d 30-ly

THE
CENTRAL CANADA
Loan and Savings Co,

Authorized Capital	$5,000,000
Subscribed Capital	2,000,000
Paid-up Capital	300,000
Reserve Fund	150,000
Invested Funds	2,[illegible]

OFFICE—No. 437, George-st., Peterborough.

DEPOSITS received at current rates of interest, paid or compounded half-yearly.

DEBENTURES issued in Currency or Sterling, with interest coupons attached, payable in Canada or in England. Executors and Trustees are authorized by law to invest in the Debentures of this Company.

MONEY ADVANCED on Real Estate security at current rates and on favorable conditions as to repayment.

Mortgages and Municipal Debentures purchased.

GEO. A. COX,
d&w8 Managing Director

BARAVENA
MILK FOOD

FOR INFANTS is the safest, cheapest and easiest to digest and most nourishing of any food made. Ask your Druggist. THE IRELAND NATIONAL FOOD CO. Ld., TORONTO

For You!

Reduction in prices of all Cloths. Suits and Overcoats to order for less money than ever to clear out the balance of winter stock.

Order now.

D. CAMERON & Co.
Tailors and Clothiers, 434 George-st.

TOOLS!
BUILDING HARDWARE!

NAILS, LOCKS, HINGES,
and all Building Hardware

Edge Tools, Saws, Files, Planes
and all Mechanics' Tools.

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc., etc.
of the Best Quality and Lower in Price than Elsewhere

GEO. STETHEM.

If YOU WISH to Advertise Anything Anywhere at Any time

WRITE TO
GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.
No. 10 Spruce Street,
NEW YORK.

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE.
February 1st. 1891.

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
8 30 a m 6 00 p m	Montreal and East, via O. & Q. R.	1 00 a m [illegible]
[illegible] 11 15 p m	[illegible] and North, via O. & Q. R.	[illegible] 5 00 p m
	Grand Trunk, East & West	1 15 p m
	do East	6 30 p m
12 00 a m 8 30 p m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (mps)	8 00 a m 4 30 p m
8 30 a m 8 15 p m	Millbrook and Port Hope do do	11 15 a m 8 30 p m
8 35 a m 4 00 p m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings	1 00 p m
	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	11 15 a m
10 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clydale, Paudash and Cheddar, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 30 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Graystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays
	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do do	4 00 p m
	British Mails for Canadian line, every Wednesday at	9 00 p m
12 noon	Via New York, Mondays. Winnipeg, North West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	4 00 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, German Empire Sweden, Norway, Denmark (also Iceland), The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Australia, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings' Bank, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxemburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey. And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before. Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil British Guinea, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Port Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books, &c., 4c for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Payment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents.

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents. H. C. ROGERS, Post-Master

MUNN & CO
SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN AGENCY
PATENTS

WEDDING CARDS.
LATEST STYLES AT THE
Review Stationery Store.

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XXV.—No. 47. PETERBOROUGH, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1891. TEN CENTS A WEEK

Probabilities.

Strong winds and gales, south-west and north-west; clearing weather, turning gradually colder, with a few snow flurries.

Carpets!

New arrivals of Carpets speak eloquently in favor of the

Matchless Beauty

and elegance of design thrown into this season's weave.

Our stock will be complete in every way and in placing prices on the different lines we've started out with the determination to give the Best Value to be found. Let this fact mingle with your thoughts on house-cleaning.

17,500 Yards

—OF—

NEW PRINTS and SATEENS

Received already.

Mistress Fashion has prescribed such pretty patterns for the coming season.

Be assured we'll keep up our reputation in these line.

ROBERT FAIR,

Sign of the Golden Lion,
383 George Street, Peterborough.
Ontario (144 and Bell Telephone (145)

KID GLOVES!
KID GLOVES!

W. W. JOHNSTON

has just received a complete assortment of

Black and Colored
Kid Gloves

at 85c. per pair.
The Best in the Market at the Price.

SPECIAL VALUE IN
Bed Room Towels and Kitchen Towelling.
Call and see our
ART MUSLIN
at 15c. per yard.
CRYSTAL BLOCK
410 George st.

Musical.

ORGAN, PIANOFORTE and SINGING
DR. DAVIES,

Organist of St. John's church, late of Christ Church Cathedral and of St. James's Cathedral, Toronto, receives pupils at his residence, 46 McDonnel-st. At home each day from 9 till 10 a. m. and from 2 till 3 p. m. to make engagements, etc. d8-1m

Wood and Coal.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.
W. B. FERGUSON,
Telephone Connection. Agent

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of
COAL AND WOOD,
which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
d&w JAMES STEVENSON.

PETERBOROUGH WATER CO.
OFFICE - - 24 HUNTER-ST.
W. HENDERSON, Superintendent.
F. ADAMS, Collector.

All water rates and accounts must be paid at the office. Mr. Adams will be in the office from 2 to 5 p.m. every day

Awnings. Tents. and Sails.

ALFRED KINGSCOTE has opened out in Dunsford's Block, on Water-st, opposite the market, where he is prepared to do all kinds of Awning, Tent and Sail making. Good Work and Low Prices. Remember the place
A. KINGSCOTE,
d88-1yr No. 344 Water-st.

SAWS Filed and Gummed in First Class Style. Knives, Scissors, Tools, &c., ground and sharpened. S. W. McLEAN, shop, 12 Charlotte-st. d11 wly

STOVES.

We have a few New and Second Hand Coal Heaters left and are running them off cheap.

LAMPS.

Beautiful designs all styles, reduced in price.

W. G. BAIN & CO.
George-st.

Wants.

ASSISTANT MILLINER
WANTED IMMEDIATELY. Apply at MISS ARMSTRONG'S 2d5

For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE,
A QUANTITY OF PAPER CUTTINGS and shavings. Apply at REVIEW Office.

TO LET.
Store and Dwelling
No. 281 George-st., now occupied by J. J. Turner. Good stand for grocery and boarding house. STORE and DWELLING No. 283 George-st. DWELLING HOUSES No. 93 Hunter-st., and 18 and 20 Queen-st. JOHN J. LUNDY. dtf

MONEY TO LOAN.
A LARGE amount of private funds has been placed in my hands for loaning on farm security.
J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM,
d4w2 Solicitor, 136 Hunter-st.

REMOVAL.
DR. CARMICHAEL
has removed to his new office and residence, corner of Water and Brock-sts, (opposite the Court House. d148-w52-3mo

A. CLEGG,
Funeral Director.
Ware rooms, - - 421 George-st.
Residence, - - 14 Simcoe-st.
S. CLEGG, Residence, 235 Stewart street. Telephone.

EDWIN ELCOME,
TAXIDERMIST
and Dealer in Eyes, Artificial Leaves and Frostings.
BIRDS, ANIMALS, FISH and SNAKES Stuffed and Mounted in and out of cases in the best lifelike style at lowest prices. DEER'S HEADS a specialty. A stock of foreign and native birds always on hand for sale.
Residence, No. 178 Harvey-st., Peterborough d114-w46-1y

WM. FITZGERALD,
Builder, Contractor and Jobber.
Contracts taken for all work connected with erection of new buildings, repairs or rebuilding. Twenty-five years experience. First-class work according to plans and specifications guaranteed. Estimates furnished for any description of work. Good dry material always on hand. Best of references given as to excellence of work and despatch.

Building Lots For Sale
in different localities. Most desirable sites for houses. This is the time to buy and build Lots sold and houses built thereon on terms to suit buyers. Easy terms of payment. Several good houses and lots for sale. Every one looking for a bargain should see these. WM. FITZGERALD, 124, corner of Dublin and Water-sts.
P.O. Box 676, Peterborough. d3p w11-ly

DOMINION ELECTIONS!

West Riding of Peterborough.

MR. STEVENSON'S
Committee Rooms
OLD COUNCIL CHAMBER,
OPERA HOUSE BLOCK.

Open Every Evening. All Liberal Conservatives and Citizens wishing to maintain the present Government are invited to meet at the Rooms in the interests of the Conservative Candidate.

W. H. MOORE,
Pres. Lib.-Con. Ass'n
W. J. MINORE,
Sec. Lib.-Con. Ass'n

—AT—

TURNBULL'S

Owing to so many covered shapes being worn this season we have a quantity of untrimmed Felt Hats and Bonnets left of all styles for Ladies and Children which we have put together in one lot and are clearing out at

25c. each.

This includes everything. Our friends may know what bargains await them as many of them have been sold during the season at from $1.00 to $1.50. Remember you get the choice of this lot for 25c.

We are showing in one of our windows Spring Prints, which are but an indication of the quantities of handsome patterns we have inside.

Our Spring Flanneletts have arrived. The patterns are new and darker, what so many people want. They are very pretty. Quantities of new goods opened every day. We show a handsome range of new shades in Dress Goods suitable for Wedding Outfits.

Further particulars of what we will offer this Spring as special inducements next week.

J. C. TURNBULL
George & Simcoe-sts., Peterborough.

"HARVARD"

Harvard Bronchial Syrup emanates from the Medical Faculty of Harvard University, the best medical skill in America, and has proved to be the most wonderful cure for all Throat Troubles and Coughs, resulting from sudden Colds. Pleasant to the taste. Absolutely free from injurious ingredients. Large bottles 25c, half the price of inferior remedies. A. J. Lawrence, Montreal, Prop. for Canada. By all dealers.

LADIES' JERSEYS

In all the Leading Styles
at Lowest Prices at
PORT HOPE KNITTING WORKS
382 George-st.

"HARVARD"

"We have used Harvard Bronchial Syrup in our family and find it an excellent remedy." C. C. Colby, President of the Council, House of Commons, Ottawa.—"I have used it myself for Throat irritations and find it very efficacious." Rev. A. B. Chambers, Napanee.

COME, SEE AND BUY
ONE OF THE PATENT
BAKING CABINETS

on exhibition at J. J. Turner's Sail, Tent and Awning Factory. This is one of the most complete and useful articles for any and every house as it holds your flour, spices, raisins, meal, sugar, etc., and when you are through baking you can lock it up and it makes a nice piece of furniture.

Having bought the right for Peterborough and Ashburnham to manufacture this I want some good live agents to sell it.

J. J. TURNER,
[illegible] George-st., Peterborough.
Telephone day or night. Bell [illegible], Ontario 73.

Do
Do you
Do you buy
Do you buy Dry
Do you buy Dry Goods!

Perhaps
Perhaps you
Perhaps you do.

Look
Look for
Look for our
Look for our Opening.

On
On next
On next Saturday.

New
New Store,
New Store, Stock,
New Store, Stock, Prices,

365
365 George
365 George Street.

O.
O. C.
O. C. ROWSE. d44-w9

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1891

GIBSON'S BIG MAJORITY

HE DEFEATS STINSON BY 679 VOTES.

The Provincial Secretary Naturally Elated at His Success—the Unusually Large Vote Polled Shows the Interest Taken in the Fight.

HAMILTON, Feb. 24.—In June last Thomas Stinson was elected member of the Legislature for Hamilton by a majority of 78 votes, but was unseated some few weeks ago on account of corrupt practices by his agents. To-day's election was to fill the vacant seat, and never before has there been such interest taken in a local contest in this city. Scores of rigs from all over the county were brought to the city to work in the interest of either Gibson or Stinson, and from 8 o'clock this morning until the poll closed this evening both parties worked like Trojans. The result of this is seen by the tremendous vote brought out. In only one ward out of the seven, and that the banner Conservative ward, did Stinson have a majority and in this ward, No. 7, his majority was only three votes. The Conservative party claim that to-day's election was won by unfair means and say they will be able to unseat Mr. Gibson on this account. The Reform party are very jubilant over the result and are having a torchlight procession with fire-works to-night in honor of their victory.

It is hardly likely Mr. Gibson's election will have much if any influence on the result of the contest for the big Parliament. The total figures in to-day's election are: Gibson, 4389, Stinson, 3710. Majority for Gibson, 679.

The Provincial Secretary, Hon. J. M. Gibson, is deluged with messages of congratulation to-night from all parts of the country, and naturally feels much elated over his victory.

THE GOVERNOR JOINS ISSUE.

Newfoundland's Governor on the Reference to Reciprocity in the Address.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Feb. 24.—The governor received the address of the House of Assembly to-day. In his reply he took exception to the reference in the address to the trade convention with the United States, and said that when Lord Knutsford's dispatches, which were coming by mail, were before the Legislature the House of Assembly would find that their conclusions and deductions had been erroneous.

5 Cents Would Have Saved a Life.

DENVER, Col., Feb. 24.—H. F. Beninete this evening committed suicide. Beninete was a barber and recently came to Denver from Cincinnati on account of his health. For weeks he endeavored to secure employment, but without success. In order to economize he roomed with W. G. White, another barber in search of work. This morning a local paper published an advertisement calling for a barber. Both White and Beninete were anxious to respond. White had a nickel to take a horse car, Beninete was compelled to walk. When he arrived at the shop the first thing that attracted his attention was White shaving a customer. This proved too much for Beninete, who shortly afterward went home and blew his brains out.

"No Court Martial For Me."

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Feb. 24.—William J. Handran, a marine at the Naval Academy, committed suicide last night at the barracks. Yesterday morning he started for Philadelphia, but missed the train. In the evening he was found very drunk and was locked up. He had never before been known to touch liquor. As he entered the cell he said: "No court martial for me to-morrow." This morning he was found dead with a chain wrapped about his neck and one end of which was still clinched in his stiff fingers. He had knelt down to cause death by strangulation.

A Shoe Button in Her Nose.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 24.—Mary McKiernan, 9 years old, has been suffering from violent nasal hemorrhages for three weeks. While the doctor was bathing her face yesterday he discovered a black shoe button in her nose. The child's mother said the girl got the button in her nostrils four years ago, after which her health began to fail, though it was supposed the button had been blown out. She is feeble, but it is hoped that she will recover.

Blank Deeds, Blank Mortgages, Blank Transfers, Bonds and Land Leases, etc., on hand at the REVIEW Stationery.

ENGLAND IN EGYPT.

LIVELY DISCUSSION IN THE IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

A Motion for the Reduction of the Army by Labouchere Defeated by a Vote of 134 to 53—Balfour Says That the State of O'Brien and Dillon's Health is Satisfactory.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—In the House of Commons Lord Hartington asked what the intentions of the Government were in regard to complying with the recommendations of the Royal Commission on the Army and Navy. Mr. Stanhope, Secretary for War, in the course of his reply indicated that the Government had resolved not to disturb the Duke of Cambridge so long as he desired to retain his position as Commander-in-Chief of the army. Neither would they discuss any changes that might be needful on a vacancy presenting itself.

Mr. Labouchere moved a reduction of the army, embodying in the motion a provision for the evacuation of Egypt.

Sir James Fergusson, Under Foreign Secretary, repeated in detail the statement he made in reply to Mr. Morley's question earlier in the day. He declined to fix a date for the evacuation of Egypt. He would only say that the English would withdraw as soon as a good government was assured and no danger of foreign occupation remained. The fixture of a date for evacuation would undo all the good that had already been achieved.

Mr. Morley said that he feared the Government were relapsing into their old policy. The advance into the Soudan would necessitate another advance of the British troops. He ventured to predict that this warning would be justified before long. He had no desire to hamper Lord Salisbury's policy, as he was aware of its difficulty, but England was playing a bad part before Europe by breaking her pledges. Difficulties in Newfoundland might arise similar to those which had arisen from the anomalous position in Egypt, which gave Germany power over England and compelled her to do what she did in respect to Zanzibar.

Mr. Stanhope, in a brief rejoinder, said he thought the fact that there were only three thousand troops now in Egypt, against ten thousand when the Government came into office, was sufficient proof of England's intentions.

Mr. Labouchere's motion was rejected—134 to 53.

Secretary Balfour stated he had received a detailed medical report regarding the condition of prisoners Dillon and O'Brien, and according to this report their health was becoming satisfactory.

Nickel Money in France.

PARIS, Feb. 24.—The Governor of the French Mint has just sent the Minister of Finance a sample of the new nickel money which is to comprise five, ten and twenty centime pieces. It is announced that the Government intend to put seventy thousand francs worth of this coinage in circulation. The new money bears on one side the effigy of the Republic and on the other the value in figures surrounded by the words "Liberte, Egalite, Fraternite"; and, in order that there may be no confusion with the silver coinage, the rim bears twenty notches, which the newspapers point out will play havoc with the pockets of those who are not in the habit of carrying purses. Some dissatisfaction is felt because 25-centime pieces have not been coined instead of 20-centime pieces.

They Won't Gag the Press.

PARIS, Feb. 24.—The annoyance to which the Empress Frederick is subjected on account of the espionage of reporters is attributed to the meagreness of the information furnished by the German embassy as to the movements of the empress. The German ambassador has been informed by the prefect of the Seine in response to a communication on the subject, that the authorities are unable to interfere with the exercise by the members of the press of their legitimate activities.

Crazy Otto Unconscious.

BERLIN, Feb. 24.—The crazy King of Bavaria went into a torpor 24 hours since from which he has not yet recovered consciousness.

King Otto I. succeeded his brother, Ludwig II., who drowned himself in Lake Starnberg in 1886. As he is insane his uncle Prince Luitpold, was appointed regent. Some time ago it was announced that Prince Luitpold would be proclaimed King of Bavaria on March 12, his seventieth birthday.

Two Socialists Die in Court.

HAMBURG, Feb. 24.—A very tragic incident occurred in the court here to-day. Two Socialists, Sigismund and Berenson, were ordered to appear before the magistrate to answer charges of blasphemy preferred by the public prosecutor. Although suffering from acute influenza, they obeyed the summons, and while listening to the evidence against them they both suddenly expired.

Foreign Notes.

The subscriptions to the new German loan reached 45 times the amount of the loan.

The Prime Minister Di Rudini of Italy expresses desperated feeling of friendship for England.

It is reported that Lord Randolph Churchill will soon start on a four or five months' tour of Mashonaland, Africa.

Parnell addressed a gathering of Costumed Gaelics yesterday and said Ireland would not repeat the mistake of Grattan when he surrendered the volunteers.

General Booth has met with a cool reception at Berlin, where the police will not allow the Salvation Army to hold a procession. He intends to build a Salvation Hall in Berlin.

At a meeting held in Bombay yesterday, about 4000 Hindoos of various castes being present, it was resolved that it was necessary to have a law which would enable the authorities to interfere in the protection of child-wives. The resolution was adopted amid much enthusiasm.

Further particulars regarding the fire Feb. 12 in the apartments by the Empress, at Anitchkoff Palace, show that the Czar first detected the fire. The fire originated from the fusing of electric wires in the bathroom. Considerable damage was done to the Empress' study and costly paintings. Tapestry and statuary were destroyed.

Kochine kept for sale by German chemists must be returned to the laboratory where it is made if unsold six months after the date of purchase, when the chemists will receive fresh lymph in exchange. The legal price of the lymph is fixed at six marks per cubic centimetre, or five cubic centimetres for 25 marks.

During a speech by Herr Szilagyi, Minister of Justice, in the Lower House of the Hungarian Diet, a tumult arose which the President was unable to quell. The uproar continued until Herr Wekerle, Minister of Finance, arose and stated that unless order was maintained the Cabinet would resign. Afterwards the Cabinet and the President of the Lower House conferred together and the House was convoked for a private session.

A Former Guelphite Drowned.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Feb. 24.—Maxwell Hall, son of the late J. Watson Hall, master in chancery in Guelph, was accidentally drowned in the Gulf of Georgia Saturday. The body is not yet recovered. The family removed from Guelph to this Island about a year ago. Maxwell was employed on a C.P.R. boat.

A RARE DISEASE.

An Inquest That Promises Revelations For the Medical Profession.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 24.—An inquest of great interest to the medical profession is being conducted by Coroner Ashbridge in the case of Miss Catharine Robbins, an aged spinster, who died suddenly in this city. The disease which caused her death is one of rare occurrence, known as acute pancreatitis, and one of the peculiarities of its symptoms is their resemblance to those of poisoning. Stout persons only are attacked—Miss Robbins weighs 300 pounds and the fatty tissue becomes spotted with a gristly substance, white as snow, which slowly and painfully poisons the victim's blood. Gradually the pancreas becomes inflamed, the heart and stomach are attacked and death ensues from heart failure. Sufferers have a morbid fear of poison and reject medical attendance. Only one other case is known to have occurred in this country.

THE QUEEN'S SYMPATHY.

Her Majesty Sends a Despatch to the Mayor of Springhill Mines.

SPRINGHILL MINES, Feb. 24.—Queen Victoria has just cabled as follows through Lord Stanley of Preston to Mayor Hall. The cable reads:

Her Majesty commands me to inform you that Her Majesty has heard with much regret of the Springhill colliery disaster, and desires me to convey an expression of her sympathy with the injured and with relatives of those who have lost heir lives. Be good enough to send for Queen's information. (Signed), KNUTSFORD.
Secretary of State for the Colonies.

The total subscriptions for relief now reach $560,600.

The Governor-General has already sent a contribution of $500. The Town of Moncton telegraphs $1000, and John McDougall & Son of Montreal have subscribed $1000 to-day.

There are eleven bodies still in No. 1 slope. Searching parties are under ground. The bodies that will be recovered hereafter will be badly mutilated, as all in the pits are covered with tons of stone.

HE WAS TOO FLY.

Alfred Hines of Toronto Committed to Jail at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Feb. 24.—Alfred Hines of Toronto was making a few calls on the business men of Seneca-street yesterday afternoon when detectives took him, silk hat, fur collared overcoat and all, to the police station. When searched the dapper young Canuck's effects consisted only of a bogus check on the Third National Bank of this city for $25 and signed "Manager Toronto Bank." He was endeavoring to get some one to cash it for him when arrested. When questioned concerning it he said that on the way from Toronto yesterday afternoon he engaged in a game of cards with some gentlemen on the train. One of them got broke and he obligingly gave him $35 for the check. Hines was bagged for 30 days in the police court this morning. On the way to jail he told Special Holmlund that he was a Methodist revivalist while in Toronto.

Fatal Accident at Thamesville.

THAMESVILLE, Feb. 24.—A shocking accident occurred yesterday at the sawmill at Wabash postoffice, about six miles west of here. Mr. Henry Traxler, a highly-respected man, aged about 24, a blacksmith, at that place, was standing just inside the mill talking to Mr. Elgie, the proprietor, when a plank was thrown from the saw, striking him on the back of the head, crushing the skull and killing him instantly. Mr. Elgie was also knocked down, but received no serious injuries. The deceased leaves a wife and child and a large number of relatives and intimate friends to mourn his untimely end.

Driving Out World's Fair Workmen.

CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—The contractors for grading Jackson Park in preparation for the World's Fair resumed work this morning. About 100 men were set to digging in the trenches, when a mob of about 3000 idlers gathered about and ordered them out. The workmen obeyed at once. The contractors called for police protection and a squad of bluecoats soon appeared on the scene and dispersed the mob. Work was then resumed

Durham and Northumberland.

MILLBROOK, Feb. 24.—A meeting of the reeves and deputy reeves of Durham was held here to-day to consider the advisability of separating the united counties of Durham and Northumberland. As there was not a sufficient number of members on hand to form a quorum nothing could be done on the subject. It was, however, the unanimous opinion of those present that the separation would be for the best interests of the county.

Horse Thief Caught.

PETROLEA, Feb. 24.—Chief Jackson received a telegram to-day from a livery man in Dutton, Ont., requesting him to arrest a young man named Campbell, for stealing a horse and buggy and harness. Chief Jackson soon spotted his man on the main street, and jailed him, and afterwards secured the horse and buggy in Oil Springs.

An Inventor's Death.

RAHWAY, N.J., Feb. 24.—Thomas Hall, inventor of the turbine water wheel, was killed by a train here to-day. He was 70 years old and was walking on the railroad track.

North Bruce Election.

SOUTHAMPTON, Feb. 24.—The nomination of candidates for North Bruce for the Local Legislature was held here to-day. John George of Port Elgin was again chosen to represent the Conservatives and David Porter of Amabel to represent the Reformers.

Soudanese Routed.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—A despatch from Massowah says a body of Italian friendlies under Capt. Pinelli in revenge for a raid on the Italian frontier surprised and attacked 600 Soudanese natives near Buri and routed them in two battles, killing 200 including the leading chiefs.

Bonsecours Market Damaged.

MONTREAL, Feb. 24.—Bonsecours market caught fire to-day and was badly damaged.

Taps from the Telegraph.

The Windsor, Vt., National Bank has gone into liquidation.

The five miners rescued alive from the Hazelton, Pa., mine, after being entombed 18 days, are improving and it is believed they will recover.

Two men were fatally injured and 200 thrown out of employment by the destruction by fire of the Burlington, Vt., spinning mills last night.

The death is announced of Rev. James Caughey, the well-known Methodist Evangelist. He died at New Brunswick, N. J., in the 80th year of his age.

The French budget estimates have been completed for 1892. The revenue is estimated at 3,212,904,123 francs and the expenditure at 3,207,[illegible] francs.

Mary Anderson's Lover.

BROOKLYN, Feb. 24.—James Dougherty, the insane lover of Mary Anderson, who shot had killed Dr. Lloyd, the physician at the Flatbush Insane Asylum, was to-day sentenced to Sing Sing prison for life.

THE NEWS OF EUROPE

DEATH OF A SOLDIER HERO IN INDIA.

Resignation of the Norwegian Cabinet—Uproar in a Legislature Hall—The Fire in the Palace of the Czarina.

WARSAW, Feb. 24.—Prince Bestinieff wa to-day found guilty of the murder of the actress Wisnowska in July last. He was sentenced to eight years imprisonment at hard labor. Jealousy was the cause of his deed. When Bestinieff was examined by the justices in January he produced letters showing that the dead actress had asked him to kill her. There were other scraps of letters in the murdered woman's handwriting, which were portions of letters written her mother, and saying that Bestinieff would not allow her to leave him, under constant threat of death, and she expressed in these writings the belief that Bestinieff would eventually be her executioner. At the time of her death Wisnowska was busily studying English, with the view of going to the United States in order to try her luck on the American stage.

The Hero of Rorke's Drift.

CALCUTTA, Feb. 24.—Major Bromhead of the 2nd South Wales Borderers, whose name is inseparably connected with the defence of Rorke's Drift in 1879, died at Allahabad on Tuesday of typhoid fever. Gonville Bromhead served with his regiment in the Zulu War of 1879, and took part (as second in command to Lieut. Chard of the Royal Engineers) in the gallant and successful defence of Rorke's Drift on Jan. 22 and 23.

The death of Major Bromhead takes us back to January, 1879, when England was stirred with excitement by news of the disaster to the British arms at Isandlana, where infuriated and warlike Zulus all but annihilated a British force left to guard the camp while Lord Chelmsford was fighting at Dartnell to clear the way for further advance. Much irritation was caused in the public mind by this disaster, when news came of another fight in which British heroism appeared in such glowing colors as to cause a feeling of elation to prevail. This was the gallant defence of Rorke's Drift by Lieut. Chard, R.E., and Lieut. Gonville Bromhead, with 80 of the 24th Regiment. Through some of the fugitives who had escaped from the slaughter these officers heard of the disaster at Isandlana. Believing that the victorious Zulus would attempt to cross into Natal, they prepared, if possible, to defend the Drift till help should come. Defences had to be improvised. They had barely finished a hasty barricade of bags and biscuit tins when the Zulus, gathering round, began to pour in their fire. They numbered in all about 4000. The attack lasted the greater part of the night. Six times the enemy got within the barricade, but were driven out at the point of the bayonet. Creeping to the rear, they set fire to the hospital. At dawn the assailants withdrew. But afterwards looking towards Isandlana, the defenders descried a fresh host advancing. However soon they saw, to their relief, that it was Lord Chelmsford's jaded men, and these latter, too, were glad to find that Englishmen still held the Drift. Around the entrenchment 351 Zulus lay dead.

Threatened Famine in India.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—In reply to an inquiry the India office has received the following from the Governor of Madras: "The tract most affected by drought, about 2000 square miles in extent, chiefly Zemindary, lies between the Madras Railway and Pennar River. Reports by the settlement member of the Revenue Board, after personal inspection show serious failure of crops. All that is necessary at present, however, is to afford sufficient employment for the poorer classes on ordinary public works in convenient centres. This is being done. Large remissions will be required, but I do not anticipate that relief measures will be needed.

England's Richest Peer Sued.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—The Duke of Westminster, the wealthiest of English noblemen is engaged in a squabble in the courts with a surgeon named Burell over the cost of embalming the Duke's son, Lord Robert Grosvenor, who died at Constantinople. The claim, which includes professional attendance before the death, amounts to £280 6s. The Duke is only willing to pay £43. There is something behind the dispute which has not yet come to the surface. The plaintiff was anxious to give evidence taken at Constantinople, but this the Duke strenuously resisted, and the court decided the point against the plaintiff. There has always been some mystery about Lord Robert Grosvenor's death.

Mysterious Crime at Zanzibar.

ZANZIBAR, Feb. 24.—Intense excitement has been caused among the native population by a tragic discovery, which, according to popular rumour, involves grave charges against a European resident. The body of a girl was found on the beach this morning in a terribly mutilated condition, being, in fact, according to the description of eye-witnesses, almost cut to pieces. There is no doubt that the girl was the victim of foul play, and it is asserted that the perpetrator of the crime is a German resident, who is accused of having decoyed away and outraged the girl two days ago. Report adds that he himself buried the body last night on the sea shore, where it was discovered to-day. Speculation is rife as to the course which will be adopted by the German Consulate.

In Aid of the Hebrews.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—The Earl of Aberdeen presided this afternoon at a meeting of the Society for the Relief of Persecuted Hebrews. In the course of his address he explained that the object of the meeting was not to express any opinion on the course of the Czar in returning the Lord Mayor's memorial, but to provide means to enable the exiled Hebrews to form colonies in Palestine.

The following resolution was ultimately passed:

That it is the duty of all Christians to give practical aid to the persecuted and suffering Hebrews, especially in the Holy Land, in the manner suggested by the late Lord Shaftesbury.

The Priests and the Fund.

DUBLIN, Feb. 24.—Archbishop Walsh has written a letter, published in the newspapers in this city, in which he says six priests, responding to an official invitation to assist in the administration of the Zetland-Balfour fund, attended a meeting of the Belmullet Relief Committee at Belmullet, county Mayo, but upon learning that they would not be allowed to have effective control of the distribution they withdrew. The archbishop says that similar action will be taken by other priests in other districts.

The Heslop Murder.

ANCASTER, Feb. 24.—The Heslop murder inquest was re-opened before Coroner Bradock at Ancaster to-night. No further evidence was offered by Government Detective Greer, who thinks that the testimony of Mrs. Heslop and Miss Heslop will be sufficient for his purpose. The jury brought in an open verdict.

Dyspepsia

Intense Suffering for 8 years—Restored to Perfect Health.

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Staunton, Va. He says: "Before 1878 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 162 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, nausea, and indigestion. I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and for days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it had cured his wife of dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to tone up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

Intense Suffering 8 Years

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1891

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House. Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

FARM LANDS IN THE STATES.

The value of farm lands in the Eastern States have depreciated greatly in value and even in New York, the premier state, the decline has been great. The farmers of Canada should study the words of the Governor, who says:—

"It seems to be conceded that farming lands during recent years have largely decreased in value, and that the occupation of farming is gradually becoming less profitable than formerly; that the prices for farm products have been greatly and ruinously reduced; that wider and better markets, although much needed, are not forthcoming; that taxes are burdensome and oppressive as well as unequally distributed, and that a general depression seems to pervade nearly every agricultural interest."

The State assessors make the following statement regarding the state of affairs in the same State:—

"Everywhere we are confronted with the statement that farm lands are depreciating, that sales are infrequent and the industry continually growing less profitable. In many instances mortgage liens upon farms represent their full value, and unencumbered farms are unusual and exceptional. In one of the first agricultural counties we noted 46 mortgages resting upon farms in five of its principal farming towns. The assessed value of the farms was 75 per cent. of their full value, and the encumbrance aggregated nearly their assessments for purposes of taxation."

And the Liberals propose by unrestricted reciprocity to place the farmers of Canada on the same level as the forsaken farms and lands of decreasing value in the States.

WHO IS HENRY HORNING?

Fictitious Correspondence Intended to Influence the Electors.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—I read in yesterday's Examiner two letters purporting to have been written by two members of the Horning family, viz: father and son.

Of course one would not suspect the editor of the Examiner to have written them himself. We all known that Reform tactics will descend very low during election times, but did not think that they would require the presenting of bogus correspondence with the intention of deceiving the intelligent electors, but upon looking over the voters' lists I fail to find the name of Horning, neither is the name to be found in the county directory, so the only conclusion one can come to is that the letters are very shallow humbugs. Who played a practical joke upon the innocent and unsuspecting Examiner?

Yours,
VOTER.

[NOTE.—The letters purported to have been written by farmers, and were not, and therefore will have no more weight than if a man, not a magistrate, should take the Police Magistrate's chair and attempt to give legal decisions. One of the letters was dated Smith, but the name attached to the letter is not on either the Dominion or Provincial voters lists of that township. These letters will take a position with the celebrated tales of Baron Munchausen.]

To-night.

Grand rally of voters No. Two Ward in Mr. Stevenson's committee room to-night. GEO. STEVENSON, Chairman.

Clerical Meeting.

The clergy of the Rural Deanery of Northumberland, of which Rev. J. Canon Davidson, of Colborne, is Rural Dean, meet in Peterborough to-morrow. They will attend the afternoon service at 5 p.m. (when the Brotherhood choir will be present) and will finish the day by a public missionary meeting in the new mission building, Sherbrooke-st.

Death of Mr. M. Sullivan.

Last evening Mr. Michael Sullivan, for sixteen or seventeen years a resident of the town and for twelve years past one of its George-st. business men, died at his family residence here after a prolonged illness. The deceased was 35 years of age, and the son of the late Michael Sullivan, of Douro. His many friends will regret to read of his demise and will extend their sincere sympathy to his bereaved wife and children.

Personal.

Many friends will regret to hear of the sudden illness of Mr. W. English who has been taken with an attack of pleurecy developing during last night into inflammation of the lungs. It is hoped under careful treatment that the attack may be warded off and that Mr. English be speedily restored to health.

Mr. J. H. Long, formerly principal of the Collegiate Institute here, is in town.

To Rent.

Farms wanted to rent. Tenants supplied this year at half price. Call or write.

T. HURLEY,
d23tf 357 George-st.

Good Breakfast Dishes.

Rolled Bacon, Sausage, Head Cheese, Ham Veal, etc. Best brands of these superior meats always on hand. Bacon sold by actual weight. J. J. Howden, 441 George-st. Telephone connection. d46tf

On Exhibition.

The beautiful upright piano now on exhibition at Crosby's Music store, 433 George-st., Peterborough, is admired by scores of visitors. The rich, full, mellow tone pleases the most fastidious critic. d44

Redpath's Cut Loaf Sugar

In 5 lb. boxes, Redpath's Pure Syrup in 2 lb. tins, Fresh Salmon, 2 tins for 25c.; Finest Canadian Cheese, 2 lbs. for 25c.; Pickles equal to bottled, 15c. per quart or 2 quarts for 25c. All goods cheap. W. J. Morrow 349 George-st. d41-w8

A Complete Line

of the finest soaps in the world. Sunlight Soap, Diagman's Electric Soap, etc. See the large bar I am selling at 5 cents, also the mammoth bar at 10 cents. A large stock of toilets. The largest stock and best value in Peterborough. Alex. Elliott 380 George-st. Peterborough. d41

Sale and Musical At Home.

There will be a sale of useful and fancy articles at the residence of Mrs. Mercer, 363 Hunter-st., on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 26th, in aid of the "Pointe Aux Tremble" school. A musical At Home will also be given in the evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. All interested in missionary work are cordially invited. Admission in the afternoon free, in the evening 15c. 3d44

Pure Teas.

The attention of the ladies of Peterborough is drawn to the fact that Ram Lal's and Monsoon brand of Indian Teas are the best in the world. They are celebrated for their strength, purity and richness of flavor. We have also received a shipment of fine Japan Tea which we will sell at 25 cents per lb., the best value for the money to be had in Peterborough. Stapleton & & Elcombe, 385 George-st. (Rush Bros.' old stand). d45-w9

That's Easily Answered.

"My dear," said Mrs. Cupandsaucer, laying down the evening paper, "what is reciprocity?" "Reciprocity, my angel," said the head of the house, "is easily explained. It means a general evening up,—as, say when Smithers asks me in to take a-er-cigar and I ask him to have another." "Exactly," said Mrs. C., "when I go to Hawley Bros. for tea and I hand Mr. Hawley a dollar and he gives me four or five pounds of splendid green or black mixture, I get the money's worth and he the money. Isn't that it?" "Exactly," said the husband as he reached for his hat. d38tf

There is danger in impure blood. There is safety in taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier. 100 doses one dollar.

Brevities.

—There was a blank at the police court this morning.

—Dr. Brennan's horse took fright this morning and ran away, upsetting the cutter. The animal was stopped before any damage was done.

DIED

ENSWORTH.—In Ashburnham, on Wednesday, Feb. 25, FRANK ENSWORTH, aged 21 years.

Funeral from the residence of his sister, Mrs. Gregor McGregor, Elizabeth Street, Ashburnham, at 2.30 o'clock on Friday afternoon, 27th inst. Interment at Little Lake Cemetery.

WORK WINS.

A meeting of all the members of Mr. Stevenson's committees will be held to-night in the Committee rooms, Opera House block. All favorable to Mr. Stevenson's election are invited to attend. Work wins. "Work night and day.

WORKINGMEN

ATTENTION!

Mass Meeting

—OF—

WORKINGMEN

ON

FRIDAY Ev'g. Next,

FEB. 27th,

IN THE OPERA HOUSE,

to hear an address in the interest of Mr. Stevenson, the Conservative Candidate, by

MR. J. ARMSTRONG,

OF TORONTO,

who will discuss matters connected with the present issue now before the electors and which are of vital interest to every Workingmen.

Those who heard the address by Mr. Jury are particularly requested to be present.

Mr. Hall or his representative and Mr. Jury are invited to be present. Time will be allowed for discussion.

Reserved seats for Ladies.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN. 3d47

Mr. Stevenson's Address

TO

THE ELECTORS

OF

WEST PETERBOROUGH.

GENTLEMEN,—The time that will elapse before polling day is so short, and my business demands on my time just now are so great that, though most anxious to do so, I find it altogether impossible to personally call on any considerable number of the electors; and therefore use this medium of placing before you my opinions of the great issue that has been raised by the leaders of the Reform party, viz., Unrestricted Reciprocity with the United States.

The Government of Sir John A. Macdonald many years since placed on the Statute books of the Dominion an Act enabling the Governor-General in Council, whenever the United States declared its readiness to free from duty any named natural products of this country going into that country, to free the same coming into Canada from the United States.

That Statute still remains in force; and, although the Government of Canada has on many occasions called the attention of the authorities at Washington to it, yet they have declined to act on it, but have now signified their willingness to negotiate generally on trade matters.

The present Government has shown its readiness to negotiate for reciprocal trade relations on the basis of the treaty of 1854, which was eminently fair to both countries; and their proposal I will support, but the policy of the Reform party as shown by them and by the politicians and press of the United States, is one which practically hands over to that country the trade of Canada, for the Reform party declare that they are prepared to offer to the United States absolute and unconditional free trade in manufactures, as well as in natural products, and they say such will be accepted by the latter country; and this party, led by Mr. Laurier, urges that such a policy is in our interests, even if we have to discriminate against England and all the rest of the world, and enact and build up a tariff wall equal to that of the United States, and even if we have, in addition, to suffer a loss of revenue, placed by Sir Richard Cartwright in his speech in Toronto, the 13th instant, as reported in the Globe, of $7,000,000 or $8,000,000, but which, it is perfectly certain, would not be less than $12,000,000. I submit for your consideration whether this is really a "free trade" policy or a policy deserving your support. I am convinced that it is not, and that it is opposed to the best interests of Canada. The present tariff of the United States is more than double that of Canada. It is, in fact, the most exclusive and excessive tariff known, and the effect of the adoption of it by us would, in my humble opinion, be to make us, commercially, an unknown land—except to our neighbors to the South, for no other nation would or could import its goods to us as heretofore, and as their shipping would come much less to our shores, our trade in cheese, cattle and other products with Great Britain would be seriously injured, if not wholly ruined. The high freight rates, for want of competition, would alone make these products unprofitable, and I think you will hesitate before you destroy or imperil a trade with England and Europe of $32,000,000 yearly, made successful, largely, by reason of the keen competition of shipping from England, which, under our moderate tariff, has, out of all proportion to the extent of the United States, come to Halifax and up the St. Lawrence to our great ports for several years past.

The policy of the present Government since its adoption in 1879, has brought into Canada, a tremendous amount of Capital and produced the manufacture of most of our needs of life at prices, through the competition that has grown up, no higher than in the country from which the capital came.

The population of Peterborough has in ten years almost doubled, and I am confident the present moderate revenue tariff will enable the country to construct great public works in our vicinity, and that our town will be not less than 20,000 population within the next ten years. The proposed policy, I am assured, would endanger all the advantages we have gained and almost certainly end in the ruin of our town, as of many other towns and cities in Canada, and also most seriously injure the farming interests by destroying the home market and in other ways and I therefore cannot give my sanction to such a measure.

I cannot believe that with the declarations of high authority we have as to the terms on which we can obtain unrestricted trade relations, with the United States there is any general feeling in favor of the Reform platform, for I find that Mr. Blain, the Secretary of State at Washington, recently in a public speech used these words: "It is their (Canadians) right to choose for themselves, as it is our right to choose for ourselves, but I am opposed, teetotally opposed, to giving the Canadians the sentimental satisfaction of waving the British flag, paying British taxes, and enjoying the actual cash remuneration of American markets. They cannot have both at the same time. If they come with us they can have what we have. It is an absolute wrong for Congress to say that they shall have exactly the same share in our markets that we have, and so far as I can help it, I do not mean that they shall be Canadians and Americans at the same time" and Mr. McAdoo, a Democratic member of the House of Representatives, recently used these words in the House: "The United States do not desire to add a single acre to its imperial domain but if the people of Canada, in their Soverign capacity wish to maintain unrestricted relations with the people of the United States, they have but to rise in their sovereignity, spontaneously and unsought for act and ask for annexation, which is the cutting of the Gordion knot, and the ultimate destinity of the Canadian people."

Neither can I support the new policy, because, as reported in the Globe on the 5th day of October, 1889, Mr. Erastus Wiman, of New York, who is the partner of the millionaire, Jay Gould, and the sole father of the scheme originated for personal and selfish ends, says: "My idea is that a uniform tariff should be adopted both by the Congress of the United States and the Dominion Parliament of Canada; that Canada should agree to always have the same tariff as the United States; that this tariff should be administered by a join commission of which the majority should, of course, rest with the United State." and the Chicago Times confirms this, as do all the leading papers of the United States by declaring that "entire free trade is impossible, unless the Dominion 'is prepared to make a complete and unconditional surrender of all control over its own tariff and to accept whatever tariff our Congress may choose to enact from time to time.'"

I feel that this is a sacrifice and surrender greater than Canada should make for it means the loss of legislative control over our fiscal policy the transference to Washington of the regulation of our tariff and the end of our political existence, and, as said in an American paper "Canadians would be "curs and cads" to entertain the idea."

The end proposed by the Reform leaders I am sure cannot be attained, and, if attained, attainment will bring in its train the incident of direct taxation, with an army of assessors and collectors replacing the Customs Houses and Customs officers along the frontier between the United States and Canada. Mr. Laurier in Quebec a few days ago said that his expectant Finance Minister, Sir Richard Cartwright, would be genius enough to avoid recourse to "so cruel a measure" but in Toronto on the 13th instant, the avoidance the latter found after quoting the words of Mr. Foster, that direct taxation would amount to $20.00 per family, and after entering upon a tirade of abuse of the Government to draw his audience from the question was summed up in these words as given in the Globe's report of his speech, "But it is impossible to deal with these imaginary difficulties, and when I am asked to say what I will do if a possible contingency arises I would respectfully say that we will wait to see the contingency we have to meet."

I am sure the whole electorate will declare with me that this, from a man, posing as a statesman, and seeking the confidence and support of the country was a contemptible and pitiful avoidance of the most vital matter, and an acknowledgement that direct taxation is a necessary incident of the Reform platform.

I would call attention to a matter of local importance, viz., the construction of the Trent Valley Canal, which has been thrown back for two years by the action of prominent members of the Reform party, and the statements in the House that there was good reason for believing that, as a national undertaking, it would prove a failure because of an insufficiency of water. The matter was consequently referred to commissioners to report, and the commissioners having examined the whole of the route and taken a great mass of evidence, have now reported, and the report that has been published is a complete answer to all objections as to its feasibility and the propriety of the undertaking, and, as in the past, I, if elected, shall in the future persistently advocate and insist on the immediate construction of this great work. I am confident it will prove of immense value as a public work, and I know that its importance to this locality will, from various and obvious reasons, be almost inestimable. I am also quite certain that if the Reform party gains power in this election and adopts the policy it is advocating, there will follow such admittedly tremendous deficits in the revenue that even with the aid of direct taxation it will be impossible for the Government, however willing, to undertake the building of this national highway of commerce.

In conclusion, I would ask the electors to accept the above statement as indicating my views of the chief public questions of the hour, and the policy relied on by the leader of the Reform party, and his Wiman allies, as the one by which they hope to gain control of the Government of Canada, and to displace the existing Government, and I would ask all who cannot approve so radical a change as proposed, to rally to the support of the Liberal-Conservative party in the present great crisis in our affairs.

I am, gentlemen,

Your sincere and humble servant,

JAMES STEVENSON.

CLARK & GIBSON

have now on view and for sale some

VERY FINE GOODS

—CONSISTING OF—

Gold and Silver Watches, Clocks and Fine Jewellery, etc.

Moderate in Price and Newest Patterns.

Ask to see their

English Oak Goods

AND

SCOTCH PEBBLE JEWELLERY

RARE, CHOICE AND BEAUTIFUL.

WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELLERY carefully repaired.

186 Hunter-st., 2 doors west of the Postoffice.

The United States sells farm produce Great Britain buys it in large quantities. Retain the British markets by voting for Messrs. Stevenson and Burnham.

PETERBOROUGH

PLANING MILLS!

Dublin-st., Peterborough.

A. RUTHERFORD,
PROPRIETOR.

Having purchased the plant, and business, formerly carried on by J. D. Baptie, in the above premises, I am prepared to execute orders for every description of General Carpenter Work Window and Door Frames, Blinds, Mouldings, etc.

Scroll Work, Band Sawing, Turning executed to order.

Large supply of Dry Lumber of all Kinds always on hand.

Factory and Office,—Dublin-st. Telephone Connection.

LIME—Always kept on hand. Orders left at Mill or at G.T.R. Station promptly attended to. d5-wtf

DR. E. A. SPILSBURY

Throat, Nose and Ear. Lecturer on Diseases of the Throat and Nose, Trinity Medical College Toronto; Surgeon to the Throat and Nose Department, Toronto General Hospital, and late Clinical Assistant, Hospital for the Diseases of the Throat, Nose and Ear, London, England. OFFICE 210 Huron Street, Toronto.

Dr. Spilsbury will be at the Oriental Hotel, Peterborough, on Saturday, February 28th, from 9 to 11 30 a.m. for consultation in Throat, Nose and Ear diseases.

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED!

Grand Rally of the People's Party.

THE QUESTION OF THE HOUR!

The Greatest Good to the Largest Number.

GOUGH BROTHERS are in the field as the Candidates for public approval, basing their claim on the admitted facts that they supply the largest number, the greatest number of times with the largest dollar's worth of the best clothing that money can purchase.

Ask our constituents if this claim is not well grounded?

When you buy, buy from first hands, remembering that we supply Clothing, Furnishings, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes.

GOUCH BROTHERS

The Clothiers, 377 and 379 George-st., Peterborough.

OPEN FOR INSPECTION!

A handsome and very useful line of

CASE GOODS

COMPRISING

Carver Sets,

Ladies' and Gentlemen's

COMPANIONS

These Goods are the Best English Make.

KINGAN & Co

"Itis the Safest and Fairest Policy I Have Ever Seen,"

Was the remark made by a prominent representative of one of the largest and best American Life Insurance Companies, when he had carefully examined

THE ORDINARY LIFE POLICY OF

—THE—

TEMPERANCE and GENERAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y.

This is the only policy offered to the Canadian public that can neither lapse nor expire as to its paid-up value till death ensues, after three annual premiums have been paid on it.

Our Limited Payment Life Policy, or Instalment Bonds, Our Common Sense Renewable Term Policies, and our Survivors' Endowment Bonds are all possessed of new and excellent features and are all worthy of careful consideration.

Agents Wanted.

H. P. LINDSAY,

Gen. Agent for Peterborough, Northumberland and Durham. Office No. [illegible] George-st., opposite new market building.

ADVERTISE IN THE REVIEW

SELLING AT REDUCED PRICES

We are offering our Stock of Manufactured Furs at cost, previous to stock taking. The stock comprises a choice assortment of Ladies' and Gents fine Fur Collars, Cuffs, Capes, Caps, Gauntlets and Coats. Also a few Musk Ox, Bear, Oppossum and Goat Robes.

CALL AND BE CONVINCED.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

Manufacturing Furriers.

"CAN A BOY FORGET HIS MOTHER."

So asks the beautiful song. Too many boys do forget their mother; but the mother who once uses "Sunlight" Soap will never forget how delighted she was with its great lathering and labor-saving properties; nor will she ever forget to use it for the future.

MR. SHELDRAKE'S
Private
PREPARATORY SCHOOL,
FOR BOYS,
LAKEFIELD, ONTARIO.

2 BRICK HOUSES,
2 FRAME HOUSES,
and THREE LOTS,

to be sold at my office on WEDNESDAY next, the 18th inst., at 3 p.m.

The above properties are situated west of Bethune-st., and between the 2 railway stations in the centre of all the principal manufactories in town. A rare chance.

T. HURLEY,
357 George-

DO YOU LIKE

Biscuits?

Most likely you do.
There's a deal of difference in Biscuits. Quality is an important item. A good biscuit should be fresh, crisp and of good flavor. Here's what will suit you. Try the English biscuit, made by Huntley & Palmer the famous makers. Imported by us and guaranteed genuine.
Ask for Huntley & Palmer's biscuits.

W. J. MASON

426 GEORGE STREET.
☞No trouble to show Goods.

Reduction Sale

—OF—

WALL PAPER

—AT—

Cost Price.

During the month of February we are receiving large shipments of Wall Paper, and to make room for the New Goods, we will sell all our Remnants

At or Below Cost Price.

This is a genuine offer and should be taken advantage of, as the season for papering is so near at hand it will pay you to buy now.

H. THOMPSON & Co

Office and General Stationers, Booksellers and Wall Paper Dealers,
426 George-st., — — Peterborough

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1891.

FRIENDSHIP'S OFFERING.

Mr. John Fraser the Recipient of an Address and Presentation from the F. B. B.

Last evening when the members of the Fire Brigade Band assembled for their regular weekly practice a pleasant event disturbed the usual order of things. Mr. Wm. H. Crowe, the secretary, stepped forward and read a very flattering address to Mr. John Fraser, a member of the band since its organization, expressing the feelings of regard and appreciation which is felt by his fellow musicians towards one who has done so much for the band. Mr. E. McCabe, President, made the presentation. The address, which speaks the sentiments of the band, read as follows:—

Mr. John Fraser:

SIR,—The members of the Peterborough Fire Brigade Band, of which you have been a permanent member since its organization, wishing, in a measure, to show their appreciation of your numerous voluntary acts of kindness in endeavoring in every way to best advance the interests of the band, have decided to do so.

Your efficient services as secretary for a long term of years, and your wise counsel on many important occasions have done much good to the organization, and the members feel that they are under a heavy debt of gratitude to you.

As a slight token of the high esteem in which you are held by your brother bandsmen your acceptance of this gold ring is asked, and the hope expressed that for many years to come you may continue amongst us and give us the benefit of your lengthened experience as you have always been ready and willing to do in the past.

In closing we would ask you to carry to Mrs. Fraser and the members of your family our best wishes for their futurr happiness and prosperity.

Signed on behalf of the band,

W. A. SANDERSON,
Hon. President.
ERNEST MCCABE,
President.
HILLIARD JONES,
Treasurer.
WM. H. CROWE,
Secretary.

Mr. Fraser made a suitable reply although the event was a complete surprise.

The ring was a handsome one, of Oddfellow design and made an excellent friendship offering.

Postponed.

The trotting races are postponed on account of unfavorable weather until Thursday and Friday, Feb. 26th and 27th.

Adjourned Meeting of C. M. B. A.

Will be held in their hall to-night at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to be present. Business of importance to be transacted. By order, J. J. Lynch, Rec. Sect. 1d47

On a Sad Mission.

A telegram received last evening announced the death at his home in St. Catharines of Mr. David Thomas, a gentleman known here and a brother of Mrs Adam Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Hall left for St. Catharines this morning.

Stand Your Ground.

When you make up your mind to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to buy some other preparation instead. Clerks claim that "ours is as good as Hood's" and all that, but the peculiar merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla cannot be equalled. Therefore have nothing to do with substitutes and insist upon having Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier and building-up medicine.

A MONSTER MEETING

Enthusiastic Rally of Conservatives.

THE POSTMASTER GENERAL.

MR. STEVENSON GIVEN A ROUSING RECEPTION.

The Government Candidate Speaks—Speeches by our Local Manufacturers: Messrs. Law, Brooks and Kendry—Hon John Haggart Delivers a Forcible and Statesmanlike Address—The Enthusiasm Unbounded—An Anticipated Visit of the Old Man Causes Wild Enthusiasm.

The monster mass meeting that was held in the Opera House last evening was a magnificent assemblage and a grand and enthusiastic success. It was a thoroughly Conservative gathering and the Government candidate, Mr. Stevenson, must have felt it a proud moment when he walked upon the stage, followed by Hon. Mr. Haggart, the speaker of the evening, and faced over one thousand of the solid electors of the riding who were enthusiastically manifesting their sentiments by the wildest cheering, united and long prolonged. The enthusiasm and interest was intense and continued until the last word had fallen from the Postmaster General's lips and even then the applause and cries of "more! more!" were continued for several minutes. Not an inch of space in the large building was unoccupied. Every chair was filled and the approaches were packed. In the gallery the representation of the fair sex filled that reserved portion to overflowing. The ladies were interested auditors throughout but modestly withheld their enthusiasm within bounds.

The hall never before looked as it did for the occasion. The grand old flag was everywhere draped in artistic festoons, while small flags were stretched in stringers from corner to corner of the building. Over the platform two immense Union Jacks were arched and across them and above the heads of the speakers was the motto "Vote for Sir John and James Stevenson." Stretched above this in patriotic pre-eminence was the motto "God Save the Queen." Hanging from the ceiling in the centre of the hall were two transparencies, with cartoons resplendent representing "The Old Man, the Old Flag and the Old Policy," "The Grits in Search of a Policy," etc. The stage itself was a thing of beauty. Besides the profusion of flags and bunting, choice plants decorated its front and there in the centre of a beautiful cluster of fragrant green foliage was a handsome steel engraving of the Old Man himself, Sir John Macdonald. Among the other Conservative sentiments emblazoned on the walls were the following:—

"Protect our Farmers and Manufacturers Alike."
"We Have no use for U.S. Senators."
"The Whole World our Market."
"No Discrimination against Great Britain."
"Ottawa not Washington our Capital."
"Canada for the Canadians."

THOSE ON THE PLATFORM.

On the platform, among a large number of others, were the following gentlemen:—Rev. J. C. Davidson, Rev. G. H. Davis, Messrs. Jas. Kendry, Col. H. C. Rogers, John A. Davidson, of Smith, D. M. Burritt, A. St. A. Smith, W. H. Law, Thos. Brooks, J. W. Taylor, A. V. R. Young, Elias Thompson, Thos. Kelly, Wm. Croft, John Bennett, Monaghan, John Moloney, Reeve of Douro, T. Cavanagh, L. P. L. Gaillardet, of Montreal, R. W. Muncaster, Arthur Rutherford, Thomas Rutherford, A. Sawers, Geo. Stevenson, Thos. Bradburn, T. E. Bradburn, G. H. Giroux, Geo. Read, of Keene, Robert English, of Keene, and Wm. Campbell, of Keene, Thomas Telford, Robt. Fair, Wm. Van Every, James McKibbon, of Smith, Samuel Bennett, of Monaghan, John Foster of Monaghan, Councillor A. Dawson, Councillor W. Langford, John Green, B. Shortly, W. E. Sherwood and Ed. Sanderson, Smith.

THE MEETING OPENS.

When Mr. Stevenson, Hon. Mr. Haggart and Mr. W. H. Moore appeared on the platform they were tendered a royal reception, the vast audience giving vent to their feelings in loud and prolonged cheers.

Mr. MOORE, who presided as chairman, opened the meeting, when the enthusiasm had subsided, with a very neat speech. He referred to the importance of the present campaign, and spoke of the change of front that had been made by their opponents. At a meeting in the Opera House four years ago Hon. Oliver Mowat, speaking for Mr. Cox, had said that the National Policy had become the fixed policy of the Dominion just as Free Trade had become the fixed policy of England. Mr. Geo. A. Cox had said at the same time that Peterborough did not want a change of tariff as it would injure our industries and artisans. Now the Reformers had changed and wanted free trade. He said he felt confident from the encouraging canvas that Mr. Stevenson would be returned as their member on the 5th of March. (Loud cheering). Mr. Stevenson had been made Mayor of the town forty years ago when many of those present were boys, and no man had done as much for the town as Mr. Stevenson, and Mr. Moore felt confident that Peterborough would do its duty on the 5th. (Loud cheers) Mr. Moore then extended an invitation to Mr. Hall or his representative to come upon the platform and promised every courtesy. But no one responded and he called upon Mr. Stevenson.

The Conservative Candidate.

Mr. STEVENSON, on rising, received an ovation. He expressed his pleasure at meeting so many of his fellow citizens on this occasion. He had been speaking every night since the campaign commenced, and would take up little of their time, especially as they wished to hear Hon. Mr. Haggart. He had told them four years ago, after the election, that he believed the construction of the

TRENT VALLEY CANAL

would be undertaken at once. He believed it firmly. But after he went to the House a member of the Liberal Opposition, fortified by engineering opinion, said there would not be a sufficient water supply for the canal. Owing to these objections, and the doubts thrown upon the practicability of the canal, a commission was appointed to inquire into the whole matter. The report of the commission, which they had seen, dispelled these doubts and with this report there would be no difficulty in getting a grant from Parliament. The Government had constructed a portion of the canal and they would go on with the work, and he expected to see Peterborough extend in the direction of Lakefield, and even include that village. [Loud cheers.] He felt a

DEEP INTEREST IN PETERBOROUGH, and he could tell them that there was no town that Sir Richard Cartwright's policy if adopted would do more injury to. They had endeavored to bring manufacturing industries here and to develop them, and this would be lost with free trade with the States. If they had such free trade, where would they find a man who would take a dollar of stock in an industry? The Edison works, after deciding to enlarge their shops to supply their Canadian trade, looked over the Province and decided upon Peterborough for a location. They would have in these works one of the most magnificent establishments in the country. A representative of the company, Mr. Francis, told him while here the other day, that they hoped to employ 1,400 to 1,500 hands within two years. Mr. Francis told him that they decided to build these large shops to avoid paying $5,000 a month in duties. They had a shop at Sherbrooke where, so far as patents were concerned, they held them, but it was the tariff policy that brought them here. He felt that he deserved some credit for the coming of these works, which would add 2,000 to 3,000 to the population of the town. He had also assisted, so far as he was able, to bring the other industries here and had

INVESTED HIS MEANS

in them so far as his ability to do so went, but if Sir Richard Cartwright's policy were adopted the result of these efforts would be wiped out in less than twelve months. There were manufacturers on the platform, who had come here with their industries from the States, and they would confirm what he said. Four years ago Mr. Cox, who was then the Liberal candidate, announced himself from that platform in favor of protection, and Hon. Oliver Mowat had approved of his attitude. Since then Liberals had taken up commercial union—something which they would not or did not explain—and they had named it and turned it over several times. What had it developed into? They would see by reading Mr. Farrer's letter to the United States Congressman regarding annexation. (Applause.) He referred to the excellent financial position of the town. He thanked them for the hearing they had given and hoped they would see their way to support him. [Cheers.] He had hoped to be able to retire from politics, but the circumstances now, the danger menacing the town, had led him to again be a candidate. [Cheers.] He was firmly convinced, from his study of the matter, that unrestricted reciprocity would lead to annexation, and he did not believe that ten persons in Peterborough would desire that and he believed they would not approve of the Liberal policy. [Loud cheers during which Mr. Stevenson resumed his seat.]

Mr. W. H. Law.

The CHAIRMAN, in introducing Mr. W. H. Law, of the Central Bridge Works, recalled the time when Mr. Bertram pointed to the tall but smokeless chimney on the river bank, but that chimney was now smoking night and day. [Cheers.]

Mr. LAW was warmly received. He pointed out that there was fully $250,000 a year paid out in wages by the principal factories in Peterborough. All classes of the community received a benefit from this and although a speaker on the previous evening had tried to show that the interests of the farmrrs and manufacturers were opposed, the farmers shared largely in the benefit by receiving a large part of the wages for their produce. He quoted statistics showing the importance of iron industries to a country, and showing that the manufacture of iron in the United States had grown until it was larger than in England, which had enriched that country as it had England. England had had a monopoly of the markets of the world for half a century. It was also a small country, and if every acre of it was devoted to raising grain there would not be enough grown to feed the people there. For these reasons England wanted free trade. Wages were lower in England and Germany than here, and unless they reduced wages here. As to free trade with the States alone, he would be compelled to leave here under the system, because when he had to complete with them he wanted to be in the centre and not in the outskirts. It was said they should compete with the United States from here but how could they bring their iron and coal from Pennsylvania and send the product back, paying freight both ways, and yet compete with iron works there? (Applause.) The New England States were not progressive, and had thousands of abandoned farms; yet they had all the benefit of the United States market. He quoted prices of iron and steel in the United States and in England, which he had received, and showed that he could buy iron in England, bring it here and pay the present duty at a considerably less cost than he could buy it for in Pittsburg. England was their best market to buy from, as well as the best market to sell in. [Applause.

PROTECTION WAS NECESSARY

Mr. Jas. Kendry.

Mr. JAS. KENDRY was called on and was received with cheers. He said that before 1878 he was connected with a woollen mill in Hon. Mr. Haggart's county, but which had to close down before they had the National Policy. He soon after came here and since the National Policy went into force the Auburn mills had run steadily and would, he believed, do so so long as the present policy continued, but they could not do so if the policy was reversed. They were paying more wages to-day than they ever did. [Cheers.] The people of the town had by giving a bonus to bring the Edison Works here shown their belief in protection and he believed that they would not abandon the policy that had so greatly benefitted the town. [Cheers.]

Mr. Thos. Brooks.

Mr. T. BROOKS, of the Lock Works, was received with loud cheers. He said that it was the protective tariff that brought him here. If the Liberal policy of unrestricted reciprocity were adopted he would have to leave Peterborough and go to the base of supplies and the centre of the market. Owing to the United States manufacturers selling their goods lower here than at home they really had protection of only 10 per cent. and they sold their products as low as they were sold in the United States. [Cheers.]

The CHAIRMAN again invited any representative of the Liberal candidate to come upon the platform, but there was no response, and he appropriately introduced the speaker of the evening, the Postmaster General of Canada.

Hon. John Haggart.

Hon. Mr. HAGGART was treated to a grand reception as he came forward. When the cheering had ceased he opened by expressing the gratification it afforded him to see such a magnificent audience assembled to greet him. It also gave him pleasure and gratification to be present to assist his friend Mr. Stevenson and if anything he might say would benefit that gentleman in his canvass it would be a source of great gratification to him. Mr. Stevenson was one of the representatives of the Conservative party who was enshrined in the hearts of all his colleagues, than whom there was none more dear, there was none with more influence or no one whom Sir John and his colleagues would more like to see returned than honest Mr. Stevenson. [Loud and continued cheers.] Coming up on the train he had come across some Liberal campaign sheets and he proposed to take these as a sort of text for his speech. The first was Mr. Laurier's reply to Sir John's reasons for the dissolution and in which Mr. Laurier found fault with Sir John for going to the country before the time of the House had expired. Mr. Haggart said he thought they had given sufficient reasons for the dissolution and it was certain that they had given sufficient reasons to satisfy the Governor-General. The speaker gave the history of the negotiations which had led to the extending of the invitation by the United States to Canada to negotiate in regard to trade relations. The Imperial Government had suggested "Go on with those negotiations but there is one thing which must be understood, your tariff law must not discriminate against British goods." They had acted upon that suggestion of the Imperial Government and had formulated the grounds of a treaty the nature of which they had all read and knew. There the matter stood, it being understood that the American Government was so engaged that the negotiations could not be taken up until March 4th. They had seen the extent of

THAT PROPOSED RECIPROCITY.

It was to be on the lines of the treaty of 1854, and the suggestion of the Imperial Government that in the trade negotiations there should be no discrimination against British goods, or in other words it was without their power to negotiate for unrestricted reciprocity. That was their principal reason given to His Excellency in asking for dissolution, but any way it had always been the custom of all Ministries to go to the people at any time, provided the appeals were not too frequent or too expensive. No British Government sat out its term unless it was thought to be a moribund Government. He did not think Sir John's was a moribund Government, but rather that it was in touch with people and had, he thought, the confidence of the people [Cheers.] Thinking they had the confidence of the people they had no fear in appealing to them for a renewal of that confidence and he was certain that they would receive from the electorate throughout the whole of Canada a renewal of that confidence. [Loud and long cheers.] As to the assertion that the Government had never tried to negotiate for reciprocity he had brought documents along with him to disprove this, but he would not tire them by reading. He would say, however, that every effort since 1866, except that of the late George Brown, to obtain reciprocity had been made by a Conservative Government. They had heard nothing for the purpose of urging unrestricted reciprocity until two or three years ago when it had become the policy of the Opposition, and, he said, they would see how it differed from what was laid down in Mr. Laurier's letter. It was to be a policy of unrestricted interchange of all commodities, manufactured or otherwise, between the two countries. This, Mr. Laurier said, did not necessarily mean a discrimination against Great Britain, or direct taxation. But all the public men of the United States said, "If it is to be an interchange of all commodities, it must necessarily mean an adoption of our tariff and our internal revenue or excise duties." This was reasonable enough, for how could one have a prohibitive tariff and the other a lesser duty allowing outside goods to come in? Mr. Haggart illustrated this with the instance of iron, showing that if the United States had a 68 per cent tariff against England, and Canada had only a 10 per cent duty, that English iron could be brought in by way of Canada cheaper than it could be sold in the United States. Where, he asked, would the advantage be to the United States? Would any intelligent people like the Americans allow us to have the framing of our duties against foreign countries and yet have a free interchange with them? No. The United States would insist on ours being against the rest of the world if we would have free interchange with them. Messrs. Wiman, Charlton and others admitted this, but Mr. Laurier said it was possible that such a thing might not occur. [Laughter and applause]. Unrestricted reciprocity meant one thing, as Prof. Goldwin Smith had said, it meant commercial union, the adoption of the American tariff against the rest of the world and a free interchange of commodities between Canada and the United States. What would be the results? It would be just as the local manufacturers had stated. If the manufactures of the United States were admitted here, the first result would be the closing out of the whole, or nearly the whole of our manufactures. Any person who was acquainted with or had travelled on the other side, knew the large amount of the investments there and the combines that existed, and knew that for the purpose of obtaining possession of the market and closing out our manufactures in this country, they would make it impossible for Canadians to compete with them. Any manufacturer knew the result of any such treaty or arrangement. Places like Peterborough, which had been built up by their manufactories, would be

AN AMERICAN TARIFF

BLASTED AND STRIPPED of everything that went to make a town. This gentleman, Mr. Crerar, who had been referred to as speaking the night before, he would judge had said, "Why would that be so? Why can't we manufacture as cheap? Why, are not our mechanics as skilful and as intelligent as those of the United States. Have we not capital? Are not our facilities as good?" He would tell them why it would be impossible for factories to spring up. It would be impossible to get people with capital to invest, for the first thing a man would look at would be whether there was a probability of a continuance of the tariff arrangements between Canada and the United States. Even if manufacturers were flurishing the Democrats might come into power among the people to our south and say "we want no such tariff" and restore the old order of things and have a high protective tariff against all outside manufactures. What manufacturers would insist on would be a guarantee of the continuance of the trade relations. They would therefore go where there was the large population and more of their customers and avoid this danger of fiscal change, and the result would be that every manufactory would be started among the people to our south and we would be no longer a manufacturing people. As the previous speaker had said a community to be a wealthy and prosperous one must be more than an agricultural community, it must have industries and all that constituted the country as it is. We would not only get rid of our manufactories, he said, but another result would be that we would get rid of our entity and the fixing of our tariff would be in the hands of the Americans and the result must ultimately be simply political union. And then he pointed out that there were between fifteen and eighteen millions, variously estimated, of revenue which would be swept away with the protective tariff and the lowering of our English imports and how, he asked, was this to be provided for? Mr. Laurier had said this was a mere myth, something which could be considered afterwards. No, the speaker said, it and they should be prepared to show how they were going to raise this sixteen millions. There was no other way but by direct taxation. Were they prepared to submit to that? No. They claimed that there would be no extravagance of expenditure to necessitate this expenditure. Mr. Haggart then went into the public debt and amount by amount showed that it had been assumed without opposition and that every person in the country was as responsible for it as was Sir John's government. The true test of the national debt, he said, was not the nominal amount, as they knew that in England consols never fell due, the interest only came due. The true test was therefore not the nominal amount, but the amount paid every year in interest. There had been large sums expended in railway extension, in our canal systems, but all had been done at only an increase of interest payment of one per cent. per capita over what was paid in 1878. He had never heard any gentleman finding fault with the management of affairs by the Government; but they were giving all their thought and consideration to unrestricted reciprocity. Down east where he came from he did not hear a word of attack on the N. P., and he was astonished to hear a gentleman the night before had attacked the N. P. and cried for free trade. They heard none of this down east. The argument would be ridiculous in the light of what they proposed. The panacea for all their troubles in this country they said was to get rid of a 30 per cent duty and get united with a country to our south with a 60 per cent tariff. (Cheers and laughter.) If a thirty per cent tariff was bad how much worse would a 60 per cent one be. They would find in this country as in all others that were protecting their industries that the competition arising would give them a supply as cheap as in any other country. They could get cotton goods here as cheap as in any country and they were being sent to the eastern markets in Japan and China and competing and being preferred to those of other countries. It was the same in woollen goods. We manufactured for its kind as excellent and as cheap an article as could be got in any other country. Who, he asked, could look upon this country in 1891 and compare it with what it was in 1878 but must say that the protective tariff had done something, that the country had expanded, was a richer and greater country then then. He could give figures showing this, the savings had increased, the banking interests had increased, the amount invested in manufactures, in railroads, and in every other undertaking all said that this was a richer and greater country than in 1878. And he would take the farmers all over the Province of Ontario. He would go from one end of the Province to the other and let another man go to New York or any other State in the Union and it will be found that the farmers in Ontario were happier, more contented and more prosperous than in any part of the United States. (Cheers.) There they would see along the railroads the cold storages, and see the butchers going there to buy the meat they formerly bought from the farmers. In their storages they were also keeping vegetables and it was this that had caused land to depreciate in value to a far greater extent than in any portion of Ontario. The farmers here were better off, but still they would ask them to ally themselves with those in a worse condition and deprive themselves of the home market. Unrestricted reciprocity would wipe out our manufactories and cause the shipping and commerce of Halifax, St. John's and Montreal to be transferred to Boston and New York. Every gentleman who thought over the matter came to the same conclusion and he pointed to Mr. VanHorn's letter which has been published, in which he said, not as a Reformer or as a Conservative, but as a presiding officer of the largest business corporation, that he spoke because he felt it was his duty to try and prevent the perpetration of

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED FIRST

THEIR OWN MANUFACTURES

AN IRREPARABLE WRONG.

What, he asked, did Mr. Farrer care if he could sell his country into annexation, and he read that gentleman's letter to Mr. Wiman in which he said they "had better make for annexation at once, instead of making two bites of a cherry," and in which Mr. Farrer also said to Mr. Wiman:—"The truth is that every man who preaches C. U. would prefer annexation, so that party is virtually wearing a mask." Every intelligent Reformer, said Mr. Haggart, must know what the result of unrestricted reciprocity would be. What was Mr. Blake saying? Where was Hon. Wm. Macdougall? Where was Mr. Osler, of Toronto? Why was he not contesting a constituency now? Why was he not advocating the policy? It was because all intelligent men must know that the adoption of unrestricted reciprocity could have no logical sequence but political union. The speaker then spoke of what Britain was doing to make Canada impregnable to foreign nations. She was jealous of her colonies, for the day might come when she would have to form a union with her colonies and discriminate in favor of her colonies and the colonies in turn discriminate in favor of her against all foreign nations. The might of her mighty power was ever exercising its influence and he asked if Canadians would dare to assert their rights if it was not for the mighty power behind them. (Cheers.) Were they going to insult the people of that country by discriminating against her in favor of foreign goods, which ultimately they knew must be annexation. Mr. Haggart's peroration was a magnificent burst of eloquence. He held up in beautiful rotation the vast and unbounded resources of each Province and as he proceeded he was frequently interrupted by loud and long bursts of patriotic enthusiasm. In closing he referred to other countries and said "but we are descendants of a people first in science, arts and arms and I ask you, will you part with their magnificent heritage and the motherland if even they offer you a cent or two more on barley—(laughter and cheers)—or a cent or two more on a dead turkey? (Renewed cheers.) I know you are people too British. I know the training you have received from British parents. I know, you have been trained to loyalty and your hearts keep time and tune to the achievements of your countrymen. (Cheers.) I know I have only to put this before you and show you what it means and what it might be. Under these circumstances I can let the matter rest with you with the utmost confidence that you will do your duty on the 5th of March."

The speaker sat down amidst the greatest cheering and cries of "Go on" "More! More!" which were continued several minutes.

The chairman explained that Mr. Haggart had been speaking for several nights in succession and was fatigued or he would have spoken longer. However, they might hope to hear him again and perhaps "the Old Man" as well.

This announcement was received with tumultuous cheering. A resolution of thanks was then tendered Mr. Haggart and in replying he said in letter to him Sir John had stated that he intended visiting Peterborough probably on Thursday or Friday or Saturday, which announcement was carried with great cheering.

Cheers were then given for Mr. Stevenson, the Queen and Sir John and the immense concourse dispersed.

NOTES OF THE MEETING.

To Messrs. R. W. Muncaster and H. Stapleton great credit is due for the handsome decorations which were never before equalled. These two gentlemen had the work in hand, with the able and experienced assistance of Mr. J. J. Turner and others, and cannot be too highly praised.

Mr. F. Umpleby presided at the piano and gave several excellent selections at the opening of the meeting which were greatly appreciated. The introduction of the musical feature was a decidedly good one.

To-night's Lecture at St. John's.

As noticed yesterday, Rev. W. E. Cooper, B.D., will speak to-night at St. John's on the subject of "Commercial Christianity." We are informed that his subject has no special reference to any one class in the community, but that it will deal with matters of interest and importance to all alike. Mr. Cooper is a man of wide reading and clear powers of thought, and his utterances to-night will be looked forward to with interest. All seats in the church will be entirely free and all are invited.

The Handsomest Man in Peterborough.

As well as the handsomest, and others are invited to call on any druggist and get free a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, a remedy that is selling entirely upon its merits and is guaranteed to relieve and cure all Chronic and Acute Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

WORK WINS.

A meeting of all the members of Mr. Stevenson's committees will be held to-night in the Committee rooms, Opera House block. All favorable to Mr. Stevenson's election are invited to attend. Work wins. "Work night and day."

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. d16w4 6mo

CHANGE OF BUSINESS

I beg to announce to my late customers that I have sold out my business to Messrs. Hilliard & Peplow, and would bespeak for them the same support as you have accorded me.

C. N. BROWN.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

For some time past we have thought that a strictly cash business in Flour, Feed and Provisions could be successfully carried on in Peterborough, and to test this question we have purchased the above business from Mr. C. N. Brown, who will still continue as manager, in Flavelle's Old Stand, Simcoe st.

In order to be successful we intend to make it the interest of every one to pay cash with order by selling at wholesale prices.

We will positively give no credit and cash customers will not have to keep up the losses made by others on the credit system.

We will keep a full supply of

FLOUR, FEED, CHOP, Etc.,

and our customers need not fear that the quality of the goods will be lowered to make up for the reduction in prices.

We are simply giving them the benefit o the margin necessary to cover losses and interest charges incurred in the credit system.

Goods delivered to any part of the town or Ashburnham.

Hilliard & Peplow.

Telephones,—Bell 26, Ontario 112. d46 tf.

"PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE"

parties still hold the boards. We have a lot of good playing cards at 25c. a pack, or 5 for $1.00. These are worth 40c. each.

SAILSBURY BROS.

DO YOU

know that now is the time to select your suit for Spring? Never again will you have such an opportunity. The stock is new, the assortment complete, and we can devote more time to help you in making a selection, than later on. Select your pattern now and we shall keep it for you until required; many of our customers find it to their advantage to do this, so will you. It makes no difference whether you want it in a week or a month, you leave the order and we will do the rest. We warrant the goods, guarantee the style and give you an unquestionable fit. The furnishing department is filled with all the latest novelties and anything you require can be obtained from

T. DOLAN & Co.

Clothiers and Furnishers.

1891. 1891.

NEW DRESS GOODS!

Very Low in Price.

New Prints,
New Embroideries,
New Check Muslins,
New Wool Tweeds,
New Shirtings,
New Ginghams,
New Table Linens,
New Towelings,
New Flanelettes,
New Shirting Flannels,

Very Low in Price.

—AT—

THOS. KELLY'S.

20 pieces Double Fold Bleached Sheetings, Plain or Twilled, at 20c. per yard.
10 pieces Double Fold Grey Sheetings, Plain, at 15c. per yard.
5 Bales Grey Cotton (soiled) at 3c. per yard.

—AT—

THOS. KELLY'S, CORNER OF GEORGE AND SIMCOE-STS.

WHITE LABEL ALE

On Draught,

10 cts. per qt.

☞Try our Bottled Ale, White Label, India Pale, etc., etc.

W. J. MORROW.

Opera House Block, George-st.

IN THE MARKET!

1.—I have sold out the City Hotel to Wm Clancy, in 19 minutes.
2.—I have sold out Faren & Co. Billiard Room etc., to Faren & Co. in 13 minutes.
3.—The Dry Goods Stock is in the Market. If there is any new blood for this offer call and see me. Want to dispose of it inside of 10 days.

I am off for Australia early next month.

I mean business. If the stock is too large can be reduced to $1,000 in 30 days.

JAMES DOLAN,
George Street, Peterborough.

BABY'S FACE WAS RAW.

Distressing Itching Skin Disease Cured in One Month by the Cuticura Remedies.

When our boy was six weeks old he had a rash on his cheek. It spread on both cheeks and chin. His face was all raw. I doctored with various remedies, but it got no better. My mother advised me to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I used them faithfully, and in one week the boy looked better. In one month he was cured, and now he is three years old and no signs of it returning. The child was so bad I had to tie him in a pillow-case, and pin his hands down so that he could not scratch his face. I cannot speak too highly of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I recommend CUTICURA whenever I can. I would be pleased to see anyone and talk to them of the good it has done my boy. MRS. CYRUS PROSCH, Oceanville, Fort Lee P.O., N.J.

N.B. My husband is president of the Prosch Manufacturing Company, proprietors of the "Duplex" and "Triplex" Photographic Shutters, 389 Broome Street, New York City. He dislikes undesirable notoriety, but is willing to make sacrifices to benefit others, and assents to this testimonial to encourage the use of CUTICURA, and thus bring relief to others.

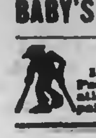
Cuticura Resolvent

The new Blood and Skin Purifier, internally, and CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally, instantly relieve and speedily cure every disease and humor of the skin, scalp, and blood, with loss of hair, from infancy to age, from pimples to scrofula.

Sold everywhere. Price, CUTICURA, 75c.; SOAP, 35c.; RESOLVENT, $1.50. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CORPORATION, Boston.

Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases," 64 pages, 50 illustrations, and 100 testimonials.

BABY'S Skin and Scalp purified and beautified by CUTICURA SOAP. Absolutely pure.



RHEUMATIC PAINS.

In one minute the Cuticura Anti-Pain Plaster relieves rheumatic, sciatic, hip, kidney, chest and muscular pains and weaknesses. Price 30c.

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1891.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

TORONTO TOPICS.

TORONTO, Feb. 25.—In a fight in the ward last night Patrick Elwood was stabbed in the thigh.

The excitement at Little York over the mysterious death of John Wright on Saturday night continues to increase. It was thought that the medical testimony given yesterday would throw some light upon the mystery, but it has simply served to render it darker than ever.

Empringham's Hotel was again crowded when the adjourned inquest was opened at 4 p.m. before Coroner Button.

At 7 p.m. the jury retired and at 3 this morning they were still out.

The Dominion Shorthorn Breeders' Association held its fifth annual meeting yesterday afternoon. There was a large attendance, the president, Hon. John Dryden, being in the chair.

The executive committee's report showed that in 1890 the association was paid for 3191 registrations, 2423 certificates and 330 changes of ownership. From these, 29 registrations, 21 certificates and 2 changes of ownership were rejected, leaving 3162 registrations, 2402 certificates and 328 transfers against 2789 registrations, 2132 certificates and 267 transfers in 1889. The registration fees have increased from $2838.80 in 1889 to $3412.75 in 1890, an increase of $573.95. The financial sheet is satisfactory, showing $466.00 to the credit of the association.

The association is anxious that the display made at the Chicago World's Fair in 1893 should be worthy the resources of Canada. Accordingly this resolution was adopted: That the Provincial Government take into consideration the object of the above, as no better opportunity of advertising Ontario and her productions could possibly occur than to have them properly represented at Chicago in 1893. It is therefore recommended that a deputation be named to wait on the Government with a view of carrying out suggestions and conclusions arrived at.

On the suggestion of Mr. Simmons the deputation were also empowered to communicate with or wait upon, the Dominion Government in order to get their co-operation.

The election of officers resulted as follows:

President—Richard Gibson, Delaware, Ont.

Vice-Presidents—Ontario, James I. Davidson, Balsam; Quebec, J. C. Stockwell, Danville; Nova Scotia, Prof. George Lawson; Prince Edward Island, Hon. D. Ferguson, M.L.A., Charlottetown; British Columbia, J. H. Ladner, Ladner's Landing; New Brunswick, J. E. Fairweather; North-west Territory, James Geddes, Calgary; Manitoba, John E. Smith.

Executive Committee—A list—David Rea, Fergus; J. L. Cowan, Galt; James Tolton, Walkerton; William Linton, Aurora; Dr. Patton. B list—Edward Jeffs, Bondhead; Francis Green, Innerkip; James Hunter, Alma; T. Russell, Exeter; John I. Hobson, Mosborough; C list—Arthur Johnston, Greenwood; James Russell, Richmond Hill; C. M. Simmons, Ivan; W. G. Pettit, Burlington; John Isaacs, Markham. Agriculture and arts list—R. Vance, Ida; A. Rawlings, Forest; James Rowand, M.P., Dunblane; William Dawson, Vittoria; J. C. Snell, Edmonton.

Auditors—F. W. Shore, London; Francis Green, jr., Innerkip.

Delegates to Toronto Industrial Fair—Messrs. Dryden and Johnston.

Delegate to the Central Farmers' Institute—Mr. Simmons.

AN INSANE AGITATOR.

He Struck Lord Inglis and Was Committed to an Asylum.

EDINBURGH, Feb. 24.—A sensation was caused in labor circles here by the committal to an insane asylum of a noted Scotch land-agitator named Alexander Robertson. Robertson, who is popularly known under the name of "Dundomachale," committed an apparently unprovoked assault upon Lord Inglis, president of the Court of Sessions. Robertson struck Lord Inglis over the head with a stick in Princes-street, inflicting, however, slight injury. The land-agitator was promptly arrested, and it was obvious he was of unsound mind. He was sent to an asylum by the magistrate before he was taken before the court.

What Lord Randolph Wants.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—Lord Randolph Churchill, addressing his constituents at South Paddington, urged the adoption by the Government of a more sympathetic policy toward labor. He favored the founding by the state of boards of arbitration, to facilitate the settlement of differences between workmen and their employers.

Sewing Machine Operatives Strike.

GLASGOW, Feb. 24.—About 2000 men employed at the Singer Sewing Machine Works here struck because of the dismissal of unionist workmen. The strike interferes with the labor of 5000 other workmen.

Shearers to Be Shorn.

BRISBANE, Queensland, Feb. 24.—Four hundred troops [illegible] who threatened to attack non-union shearers at [illegible]. The union men have been [illegible] to surrender their weapons.

SWORE TO AVENGE HIS DEATH.

Murdered by His Fellow Countrymen, who Followed Him from Italy.

BUFFALO, Feb. 24.—Coroner Kenney received a letter this morning from Dr. J. Haven Ross informing him that he had been called upon to visit Sebastian Pecci, at No. 17 Water-street, who had been assaulted and was about to die. Coroner Kenney found Pecci on the third floor of a tumble-down rookery in a dying condition. Pecci died without regaining consciousness. His body was a mass of bruises and cuts. Very little could be learned of Pecci or how he was injured beyond the fact that five days ago he was set upon by three brothers who had come from his native province in Italy and cut and beaten into unconsciousness.

This is apparently an ordinary murder, but behind it there is a romantic story of the vendetta which is being told in the Italian quarter to-night. Pecci came from Naples a year ago. Before his departure he quarreled with a member of the Luigi family, and in the fight which followed Luigi was so badly injured that he died. This Luigi who was killed was a brother of the three brothers who murdered Pecci. The oath of the vendetta was sworn and the brothers came to America a few months ago and located in Buffalo. Pecci was afraid of them and tried to avoid meeting them. He knew their oath would be kept.

A week ago Pecci quietly made arrangements to leave Buffalo and on the day set for his departure the oath of the vendetta was kept and Pecci was murdered. The police have sent descriptions of the murderers to all the principal cities.

A Colored Woman's Albinos.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Feb. 24.—A colored woman named Woodruff, living at St. Elmo, a suburb of Chattanooga, has two albino children. Their hair is perfectly white and their eyes shine like two diamonds. Both are exactly alike and cannot be told apart. The mother was offered, several days ago, $2500 by a dime museum man for the absolute possession of the children, but she refused the offer.

Perished from Fatigue.

OTTAWA, Feb. 24.—An old man named Amedee Laporte of Lange Gardens, accompanied by a 13-year-old grandson, started on Friday night from Ottawa to tramp home. After going some distance the old man sank from fatigue. The boy who accompanied him secured shelter further on, but was unable to direct those who sheltered him to the spot where the old man lay, having lost his bearings. The old man was found yesterday dead on the roadway.

Cremated at 105.

DORCHESTER, N.B., Feb. 24.—Last evening the house of Mrs. Rose Walker (colored) in Water-street was discovered to be on fire. The old lady was found unconscious by the bed, which was all in a blaze. She was carried out, but was so badly burned that she died in about ten minutes. The fire is supposed to have originated from a spark from a pipe. Mrs. Walker was over 105 years of age.

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. All druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are placing a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have a Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup or Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

TURKISH DYES

EASY TO USE.

They are Fast.
They are Beautiful.
They are Brilliant.

SOAP WON'T FADE THEM.

Have YOU used them; if not, try and be convinced.

One Package equal to two of any other make.

Canada Branch: 481 St. Paul Street, Montreal.
Send postal for Sample Card and Book of Instructions.

"Harvard"

"Harvard Bronchial Syrup has been used in my family with very great success and I have pleasure in recommending it to those who suffer from coughs as one of the best and most efficacious remedies." Rev. Thos. Harris, Gananoque, Que.

FOR MEN ONLY!

VIGOR AND STRENGTH. For LOST or FAILING MANHOOD; General and NERVOUS DEBILITY; Weakness of Body and Mind, Effects of Errors or Excesses in Old or Young. [illegible] ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N.Y.

"HARVARD"

"Harvard Bronchial Syrup has been much used in our family, and we conscientiously say it is the best Cough Remedy we have ever used." Rev. J. Tallman Pitcher, Montreal. —"It is the most satisfactory Cough Medicine I have ever tried." Ross Mackenzie, C.P.R. Offices, Montreal.

SURPRISE
SURPRISE
EVERY-WOMAN
St. Croix Soap M'f'g. Co.
St. Stephen, N.B.
SOAP
Send us 25 SURPRISE wrappers and get one of our beautiful engravings.

The D & L Emulsion OF Cod Liver Oil

AND THE

Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda.

No other Emulsion is so easy to take.
It does not separate nor spoil.
It is always sweet as cream.
The most sensitive stomach can retain it.

CURES
Scrofulous and Wasting Diseases.
Chronic Cough.
Loss of Appetite.
Mental and Nervous Prostration.
General Debility, &c.

Beware of all imitations. Ask for "the D. & L." Emulsion, and refuse all others.

PRICE 50C. AND $1 PER BOTTLE.

"HARVARD"

"In twenty years experience as a druggist, I have never handled a remedy giving such satisfaction as does Harvard Bronchial Syrup." J. J. Perry, Napanee, Ont. —"Have used it myself with the grandest results, and know many sufferers from Bronchial Trouble, who have been completely cured by it." J. C. McLaren, Montreal.

TO THE ELECTORS

OF THE

East Riding

OF THE

COUNTY OF PETERBOROUGH.

GENTLEMEN;—Parliament having been dissolved, the present Government appeal again to the people for a renewal of confidence and an approval of the policy of the administration. I have been chosen to contest the Riding in the interests of the Liberal Conservative Party, and I have accepted the nomination and now solicit your support.

The principal question to be decided is as to our trade relations with the United States, whether, as advocated by the Opposition, we shall adopt such a policy as will practically leave us free to trade only with the United States to the exclusion of Great Britain and other countries, or whether we shall, as advocated by Sir John Macdonald, adopt such a policy, as while dealing with the United States in fair and equitable terms and not to the exclusion of Great Britain will preserve our nationality and enable us still to remain an integral portion of the British Empire.

I am opposed to the policy of the Opposition, as, in my opinion, it simply means annexation to the United States. As an advocate of the views of the Government I appeal to you. The time is so short before the Polling day that I will not be able to personally see all the electors, but I hope to meet most of you at the several meetings which I shall hold throughout the Riding to discuss the questions at issue.

JOHN BURNHAM.

Ashburnham, February 16th, 1891. w71

DO YOU KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE?

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM.

NO BETTER REMEDY FOR COUGHS, COLDS, CROUP, CONSUMPTION, &C.

Perry Davis'
PAIN-KILLER
STRIKES THE SPOT

DIRECTLY TO THE SPOT.
INSTANTANEOUS IN ITS ACTION.

For CRAMPS, CHILLS, COLIC, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY,
CHOLERA MORBUS,
and all BOWEL COMPLAINTS,

NO REMEDY EQUALS
THE PAIN-KILLER.

In Canadian Cholera and Bowel Complaints its effect is magical. It cures in a very short time.

THE BEST FAMILY REMEDY FOR BURNS, BRUISES, SPRAINS, RHEUMATISM,
NEURALGIA and TOOTHACHE.

SOLD EVERYWHERE AT 25c. A BOTTLE.

Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations.

—ONTARIO—

Planing Mills!

Planing, Matching, Mouldings, Band Sawing & Turning, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Storm Sash.

JAMES Z. ROGERS.

Choicest Brands

—OF—

FLOUR!

BAKERS and PASTRY

—AT—

MELDRUM & DAVIDSON'S

Quality Guaranteed.

FEED:

All kinds always on hand. Orders left at Ormond & Walsh's or McDonald's drug stores will be promptly attended to.

Mill Telephone No. 196.

LOWEST PRICES FOR CASH.

D. BELLEGHEM,
Issuer of Mariage Licenses,
PETERBOROUGH.

CAKES!

For a Good Cake, leave your orders at

Long Bros.

Also home-made cakes Iced and nicely Ornamented. Wedding Breakfasts and Evening Parties Catered for. Oyster Patties made to order. Our stock of Candies is pure and made by ourselves.

No. 286 and 414 George-st.

HAGGART & KIDD,

TOWN and COUNTY } Auctioneers,
COMMISSION and SHIPPING } Merchants,
REAL ESTATE and INSURANCE } Agents.

☞ Money to Loan.

GEO. B. SPROULE,
ARTIST & PHOTOGRAPHER
GROUND FLOOR,
170 Charlotte-st. - - - - - - Peterborough.
FRAMES & PICTURE MOULDINGS.

UNION CREDIT & PROTECTION ASSOCIATION.

FOR the Collection of Old and Worthless Accounts, in any part of the world, and no charges if not collected. This Association has local offices in Canada and United States. Head and general office, 6½ Adelaide-st. East, Toronto. Rooms, 10, 11, 12 and 13. O. E. COLLINS, General Manager; & H. B. ANDREWS, Sec. Address all communications to Toronto, Ont., office. Telephone No. 2463. This is the only Association that settles accounts and advances the money to the creditor if desired.

O. E. COLLINS,
DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON, Manager
Solicitors for the Association at Peterborough.
August 29th, 1890 451 w

TOOLS!

BUILDING HARDWARE!

NAILS, LOCKS, HINGES,
and all Building Hardware

Edge Tools, Saws, Files, Planes
and all Mechanics' Tools.

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc., etc.
of the Best Quality and
Lower in Price than Elsewhere

GEO. STETHEM.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half-pound tins, by Grocers, labelled thus: JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England. w1-8m

Travel.

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY OF CANADA.

The direct route between the west and all points on the Lower St. Lawrence and Baie de Chaleur, Province of Quebec, also New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward, Cape Breton and the Magdalene Islands, Newfoundland and St. Pierre.

Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax daily (Sunday excepted) and run through without change between these points in 30 hours.

The through express train cars of the Intercolonial Railway are brilliantly lighted by electricity and heated by steam from the locomotive.

New and elegant Buffet Sleeping and Day Cars are run on all through express trains.

The popular summer sea bathing and fishing resorts of Canada are along the Intercolonial or are reached by that route.

Canadian, European Mail and Passenger Route.

Passengers for Great Britain or the Continent leaving Montreal on Thursday morning will join outward mail steamer at Rimouski the same evening.

The attention of shippers is directed to the superior facilities offered by this route for the transport of flour and general merchandise intended for the Eastern Provinces and New Foundland, also for shipments of grain and produce intended for the European market.

Tickets may be obtained and all information about the route, also freight and passenger rates on application to

N. WEATHERSTON,
Western Freight and Passenger Agent, 93 Rossin House Block, York street, Toronto.
D. POTTINGER,
Chief Superintendent.
Railway Office, Moncton, N.B., 2nd July, 1890 1y

CANADIAN PACIFIC Ry

PEOPLE'S POPULAR ONE WAY PARTIES

TO

British Columbia
WASHINGTON
Oregon and California,

Leave Toronto 11 p.m. on Fridays, as under:
March 6, 20, 1891.

RUNNING THROUGH TO VANCOUVER WITHOUT CHANGE

For Berths and all information, apply to nearest C.P.R. Agent.

Carbon Gaslight

A RIVAL TO DAYLIGHT!

A new and Brilliant Illuminating Power—Clear, Steady and Mellow. Specially suited for Stores and large Buildings, Machine Shops, &c. A saving of 30 to 40 per cent. on gas can be effected by this new light

See it Burning at the Store of

J. E. NOBLE & Co.

287 George-st. South.
TELEPHONES.—Bell No. 181, Ontario No. 156.

BANK of TORONTO

Capital $2,000,000 00
Reserve Fund 1,500,000 00

PETERBORO' BRANCH.

SAVINGS BANK

SPECIAL ADVANTAGES are derived by depositing money in our Savings Bank Department.

1. "ONE DOLLAR saved is one dollar earned."
2. DEPOSITS of ONE DOLLAR and upwards are received and interest allowed thereon.
3. INTEREST is added to the principal on the 31st day of May and 30th day of November, in each year.
4. MONEY bears interest from the day it is deposited with the Bank until the day of withdrawal.
5. THE DEPOSITOR is subject to no delay whatever.
6. THE SECURITY offered by this Bank is undoubted, as will be seen by the large reserve held and the amount of surplus available for depositors and note holders.

BUSINESS WITH FARMERS.

FARMERS' NOTES discounted at lowest rates. SPECIAL ATTENTION is given to the collection of Farmers' Sale Notes, and advances made thereon.

NOTE FORMS furnished free of charge on application.

DEPOSITS.

DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS opened subject to withdrawal by cheque on demand.

SPECIAL DEPOSITS.—Deposit Receipts issued bearing interest at current rates.

JOHN L. GOWER,
d116-wf. Manager

MULHOLLAND & ROPER

BANKERS AND INSURANCE AGENTS

Banking Department.

Deposit Accounts opened and Notes discounted at short dates or for twelve months if required. Special attention given to the purchase and collection of Farmers' Sale Notes. Drafts drawn on Merchants Bank of Canada payable in New York, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and at any of its Branches in the Dominion. Cheques on other Banks cashed.

Four to Five per cent. allowed on deposits repayable on demand.

BANKING HOURS.—9 30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m

Insurance Department.

MR. FELIX BROWNSCOMBE is a partner in and manager of this department.

Careful attention given to Fire, Accident and Plate Glass Insurance.

The following companies are represented:—London and Lancashire, City of London, Phoenix of Brooklyn, Caledonian, Royal Canadian, Agricultural, Montreal Plate Glass, Mutual Accident and Plate Glass, and Norwich and London Accident.

OFFICE HOURS.—9 a.m. to 6 p.m

JOHN NUGENT,

CHEMIST AND DRUGGIST.

Prescriptions Carefully Compounded.

Try Nugent's Remedies for Colds, Coughs and affections of the chest and throat.

J. NUGENT,

Drug Store, 176 Hunter-st. west.

Medical.

DR. SCOTT.
OFFICE—176 Brock-st. d150w21

P. D. GOLDSMITH, M. D.
L. R. C. S., L. S. A., L. R. C. P., London, Eng.,
HAS permanently located in Peterborough. Office and residence, 128 Brock-st., formerly occupied by Mr. J. B. McWilliams. TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d47-w23-1y

D. M. CARMICHAEL, M. D.,
C. M., F. R. C. P. Ed.
GRADUATE OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY, Fellow of Trinity Medical School, Licentiate of Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh, L. M. of Simpson's Maternity Hospital, Edinburgh. Office in Mr. Alexander's new residence one door north of the late Dr. O'Sullivan's, George-st. d3m36-wyr36

DR. B. E. McKENZIE, B. A.
Lecturer on Orthopedic Surgery in the Women's Medical College, and in Toronto University; Consulting Orthopedic surgeon to Victoria Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto.
Diseases of the Joints and Deformities Only
Bloor-st. W. (near Yonge-st.) Toronto. Consultation from 10 to 3. On Friday and Saturday by appointment only.
Will be at the Grand Central Hotel, Peterborough, March 14th. next.

DR. MOHER,
HAS removed to 214 Hunter-st., opposite Marble Works. Office upstairs.

Legal.

HATTON & WOOD.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office, corner of George and Hunter-sts., over T. Dolan & Co's. store. MONEY TO LOAN.
E. B. WOOD, B. A. G. W. HATTON.

SAWERS & STONE.
BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyances, &c. Office, Hunter-st., Peterborough.
☞MONEY TO LOAN.
E. B. STONE, d163-w41 C. W. SAWERS.

POUSSETTE & JOHNSTON.
BARRISTERS and SOLICITORS, 379 Water-st.
A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C. W. F. JOHNSTON.

EDWARD A. PECK.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, etc., 352 George-st., Peterborough.
Private Funds to loan at 6 per cent.

HALL & HAYES.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter-st., Peterborough next English church. Money to loan at lowest rates of interest.
E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN O'MEARA.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, &c. Office 367 George-st. d-w

JOHN BURNHAM
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office: No. 415 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont., next door north of new post office. MONEY TO LOAN. d&w

W. H. MOORE,
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter-sts., over McClelland's Jewellery store. d11&w23

G. M. ROGER.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water-st., Peterborough. d3&w

DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES. Money to Loan. Office, 417 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont.
ARTHUR STEVENSON, B. A.
R. M. DENNISTOUN, B. A.

STRATTON & HALL.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, &c., Peterborough, Ont. Office:—Next door to Post Office on Hunter-St.
W. A. STRATTON, LL. B. E. B. HALL.
d120

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.
SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS, Office Post Office Block, Peterborough. wed27

J. E. BELCHER
ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George-st. d&wtf

Builders and Contractors

E. WEBB,
BRICKLAYER AND CONTRACTOR. All work done substantially and expeditiously. Address E. WEBB, Peterborough. Residence, 236 Aylmer-st. 1yd135

J. J. HARTLEY.
BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P. O. Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer-sts. 1yd135

WM. H. McELWAIN.
CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 22. d150

W. E. WHITEHAIR.
PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 366, Peterborough P. O. d&1yr

JAS. R. DONELL.
RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being a practical man, he trusts to be able to give patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.
JAS. R. DONELL.

Big G Cures in 1 to 5 DAYS. Guaranteed not to cause Stricture. Mf'd only by The Evans Chemical Co. TORONTO, CAN.

Big G is acknowledged the leading remedy for Gonorrhœa & Gleet. The only safe remedy for Leucorrhœa or Whites. I prescribe it and feel safe in recommending it to all sufferers. A. J. STONER, M. D., Decatur, Ill. Sold by Druggists. PRICE $1.00.

G. A. SCHOFIELD, Agt., Peterborough d 89-1y

THE

CENTRAL CANADA Loan and Savings Co.

Authorized Capital	[illegible]
Subscribed Capital	2,000,000
Paid-up Capital	600,000
Reserve Fund	130,000
Invested Funds	2,272,183.57

OFFICE.—No. 437, George-st., Peterborough.

DEPOSITS received at current rates of interest, paid or compounded half-yearly.

DEBENTURES issued in Currency or Sterling, with interest coupons attached, payable in Canada or in England. Executors and Trustees are authorized by law to invest in the Debentures of this Company.

MONEY ADVANCED on Real Estate security at current rates and on favorable conditions as to repayment.

Mortgages and Municipal Debentures purchased.

GEO. A. COX,
Managing Director.

ARAVENA MILK FOOD

[illegible]

For You!

Reduction in prices of all Cloths. Suits and Overcoats to order for less money than ever to clear out the balance of winter stock.

Order now.

D. CAMERON & Co.
Tailors and Clothiers, 434 George-st.

If YOU WISH
to Advertise
Anything
Anywhere
at Any time
WRITE TO
GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.
No. 10 Spruce Street,
NEW YORK.

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE.

February 1st, 1891.

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
5 30 a m 6 00 p m	Montreal and East, via O. & Q. R.	11 00 a m 5 00 p m
11 30 a m 11 30 p m	Toronto and West, via O. & Q. R.	[illegible]
	Grand Trunk, East & West	[illegible]
12 00 a m 6 00 p m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west)	[illegible]
5 30 a m 5 15 p m	Millbrook and Port Hope	[illegible]
8 25 a m 4 30 p m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings	[illegible]
	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	[illegible]
10 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore	[illegible]
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Apsley, Chandos, Clydesdale, Paudash and Cheddar, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	[illegible]
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	[illegible]
11 00 a m	Graystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays	[illegible]
	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	[illegible]
	Street Letter Boxes	[illegible]
	British Mails per Canadian line, every Wednesday	[illegible]
	Via New York, Mondays	[illegible]
12 noon	Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia	[illegible]

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz. by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, Germany, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

Deposits received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings Bank, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a.m. to 6.30 p.m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxemburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey. And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before.) Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil, British Guiana, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica, Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books, &c., 4 cents for 4 oz. Other Registration fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rates as formerly. Prepayment by stamp in all cases.

Australia (except New South Wales, Victoria and Queensland) Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents.

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents.

H. C. ROGERS, Postmaster.

Bell Telephone Co.,

OF CANADA.

Capital, $1,500,000.00.

Head Office, MONTREAL.

AND. ROBERTSON, — President.
C. F. SISE, — Vice-Pres. and Man'g. Dir.
C. P. SCLATER, Secy.-Treas.
HUGH C. BAKER, Man. Ont. Dep., Hamilton.

300 EXCHANGES.

Long distance lines give unequalled facilities for talking between cities, towns and villages.

If you wish to speak to Kingston, Belleville, Port Hope, Lindsay, Lakefield, Millbrook, Cobourg, Toronto, Hamilton, etc., Ont.

BELL TELEPHONE Co.
H. W. KENT,
445-6mo Local Manager

MUNN & CO.
SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN AGENCY
PATENTS

WEDDING CARDS.
LATEST STYLES AT THE
Review Stationery Store.

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XXV.—No. 48. PETERBOROUGH, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1891. TEN CENTS A WEEK

Probabilities.

■ Fresh to strong west to north-west winds; fair and colder.

Carpets!

New arrivals of Carpets speak eloquently in favor of the

Matchless Beauty

and elegance of design thrown into this season's weave.

Our stock will be complete in every way and in placing prices on the different lines we've started out with the determination to give the Best Value to be found. Let this fact mingle with your thoughts on house-cleaning.

17,500 Yards

—OF—

NEW PRINTS and SATEENS

Received already.

Mistress Fashion has prescribed such pretty patterns for the coming season.

Be assured we'll keep up our reputation in these line.

ROBERT FAIR,

Sign of the Golden Lion,
383 George Street, Peterborough.
Ontario (144 and Bell Telephone (145)

KID GLOVES!
KID GLOVES!

W. W. JOHNSTON

has just received a complete assortment of

Black and Colored

Kid Gloves

at 85c. per pair.

The Best in the Market at the Price.

SPECIAL VALUE IN

Bed Room Towels and Kitchen Towelling.

Call and see our

ART MUSLIN

at 15c. per yard.

CRYSTAL BLOCK

410 George-st.

Musical.

ORGAN, PIANOFORTE and SINGING

DR. DAVIES,

Organist of St. John's church, late of Christ Church Cathedral and of St. James's Cathedral, Toronto, receives pupils at his residence, at McDonnel-st. At home each day from 9 till 10 a. m. and from 2 till 3 p. m. to make engagements, etc. d8-1m

Wood and Coal.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes, also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.

W. R. FERGUSON, Agent

Telephone Connection.

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of

COAL AND WOOD,

which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.

d&w JAMES STEVENSON.

PETERBOROUGH WATER CO.

OFFICE - - 22 HUNTER-ST.

W. HENDERSON, Superintendent

(F. ADAMS, Collector.

All water rates and accounts must be paid at the office. Mr. Adams will be in the office from 2 to 5 p.m. every day

Awnings.
Tents.
AND Sails.

ALFRED KINGSCOTE has opened out in Dandford's Block, on Water-st., opposite the market, where he is prepared to do all kinds of Awning, Tent and Sail making.

Good Work and Low Prices. Remember the place

A. KINGSCOTE,
No. 244 Water-st.

d83-1yr

SAWS Filed and Gummed in First Class Style. Knives, Scissors, Tools, &c., ground and sharpened. S. W. ENGLISH, shop, 1½ Charlotte-st. dls-w1y

STOVES.

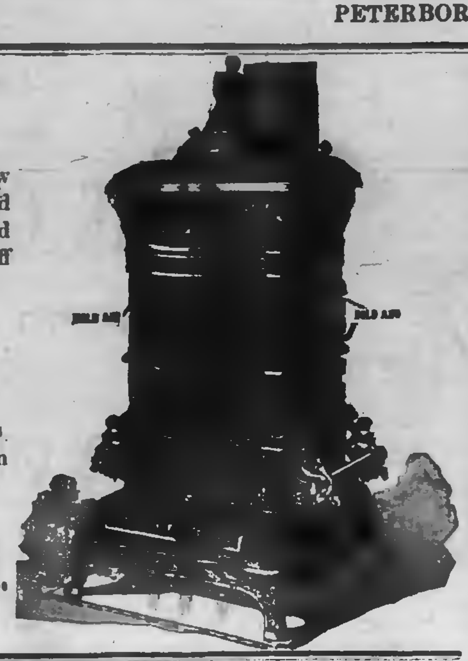
We have a few New and Second Hand Coal Heaters left and are running them off cheap.

LAMPS.

Beautiful designs all styles, reduced in price.

W. G. BAIN & CO.

George-st.



For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE,

A QUANTITY OF PAPER CUTTINGS and shavings. Apply at REVIEW Office.

HOUSE AND LOT FOR SALE

LOT No. 8 on the south side of Weller-st. in the Town of Peterborough. Brick cottage on west half of the lot, (No. 119 Weller st.) Good building site on the east half. Apply to E. B. EDWARDS, Solicitor for Executor. 4d46

TO LET.

Store and Dwelling

No. 281 George-st., now occupied by J.J. Turner. Good stand for grocery and boarding house. STORE and DWELLING No. 284 George-st. DWELLING HOUSES No. 83 Hunter-st., and 18 and 20 Queen-st. JOHN J. LUNDY. dtf

MONEY TO LOAN.

A LARGE amount of private funds has been placed in my hands for loaning on farm security.

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM,
d6w2 Solicitor, 126 Hunter-st.

REMOVAL.

DR. CARMICHAEL

has removed to his new office and residence, corner of Water and Brock sts, (opposite the Court House. d146-w32-1mo

A. CLEGG,
Funeral Director.

Ware rooms, - - 427 George-st.
Residence, - 14 Benson-st.
S. CLEGG, Residence, 205 Stewart street. Telephone.

EDWIN ELCOME,

TAXIDERMIST

and Dealer in Eyes, Artificial Leave and Frostings.

BIRDS, ANIMALS, FISH and SNAKES Stuffed and Mounted in and out of cases in the best lifelike style at lowest prices. DEER'S HEADS a specialty. A stock of foreign and native birds always on hand for sale.

Residence, No. 176 Harvey-st., Peterborough 41'-wd1-1y

LADIES' JERSEYS

In all the Leading Styles

at Lowest Prices at

PORT HOPE KNITTING WORKS

382 George-st.

DOMINION

ELECTIONS!

West Riding of Peterborough.

MR. STEVENSON'S

Committee Rooms

OLD COUNCIL CHAMBER,

OPERA HOUSE BLOCK.

Open Every Evening. All Liberal Conservatives and Citizens wishing to maintain the present Government are invited to meet at the Rooms in the interests of the Conservative Candidate.

W. H. MOORE,
Pres. Lib.-Con. Ass'n

W. J. MINORE,
Sec. Lib.-Con. Ass'n

ATTENTION!

is wanted drawn to the

FACT

that the following

PLUMS

are for a few days offered at

J. C. Turnbull's

A Splendid
	Ladies Jacket at $3.00	worth $4.50
	" " " 3.50	" 5.00
	" " " 4.00	" 6.00
	" Newmarket 10.00	" 17.00
	Line of Gossamers at Cost.
	Line of Felt Hats at 25c	worth $1.00

We have also received and passed into stock the following New Goods marked down at

PANIC PRICES:

New Boys Sailor Caps at 45 and 50c
New Boys Spring Felt Hats at 35, 40 and 75c.
White and Colored Embroideries,
Ladies Spring Jackets and Mantles

A Magnificent Range of New Black Dress Goods in Sebastapool, Crepe, Cashmere and Henrietta Cloths. The finest range of Prints, Drillets and Sateens in the market, in about 400 different patterns.

NEW GLOVES,
NEW HOSIERY,
NEW CORSETS,
NEW RIBBONS.

No trouble to show goods. Call, examine, learn prices and be convinced that is the place for bargains in all that is New and Fashionable.

TURNBULL'S

CHANGE OF BUSINESS

I beg to announce to my late customers that I have sold out my business to Messrs. Hilliard & Peplow, and would bespeak for them the same support as you have accorded me.

C. N. BROWN.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

For some time past we have thought that a strictly cash business in Flour, Feed and Provisions could be successfully carried on in Peterborough, and to test this question we have purchased the above business from Mr. C. N. Brown, who will still continue as manager, in Flavelle's Old Stand, Simcoe st.

In order to be successful we intend to make it the interest of every one to pay cash with order by selling at wholesale prices.

We will positively give no credit and cash customers will not have to keep up the losses made by others on the credit system.

We will keep a full supply of

FLOUR, FEED, CHOP, Etc.,

and our customers need not fear that the quality of the goods will be lowered to make up for the reduction in prices.

We are simply giving them the benefit of the margin necessary to cover losses and interest charges incurred in the credit system.

Goods delivered to any part of the town or Ashburnham.

Hilliard & Peplow.

Telephones,—Bell 28, Ontario 112. d46-tf.

MR. SHELDRAKE'S
Private
PREPARATORY SCHOOL,
FOR BOYS,
LAKEFIELD, ONTARIO.

Do
Do you
Do you buy
Do you buy Dry
Do you buy Dry Goods!

Perhaps
Perhaps you
Perhaps you do.

Look
Look for
Look for our
Look for our Opening.

On
On next
On next Saturday.

New
New Store,
New Store, Stock,
New Store, Stock, Prices,

365
365 George
365 George Street.

O.
O. C.
O. C. ROWSE. d44-w9

The Daily Review.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1891.

THE TAKING TO TOKAR.

DETAILS OF THE SLAUGHTER OF DIGNA'S DERVISHES.

A Battle With Horsemen—A Chieftain's Palace Looted and Burned and Many of its Defenders Killed—Over 100 Rebels Executed.

SUAKIN, Feb. 25.—Further particulars of the recent fight at Tokar have just been received. Colonel Smith, on learning that Osman Digna was preparing an attack on the flank while the Egyptians were marching from El Teb, hastened his advance to Tokar. The cavalry drove in the enemy's mounted scouts, but the enemy advanced rapidly in a semicircle through the thick brushwood. Their presence was made known only by occasional glimpses above the bush of moving men and banners. The hills, a mile distant, were covered with reserves.

Both sides tried to seize outlying houses for protection. The Egyptian infantry rushed to and occupied some ruins and then raced with the dervishes to seize the houses outside of the general line of defence. One company, succeeding in occupying a house, poured a withering fire upon the dervishes, over one hundred of whom fell within a yard of the building. This checked their advance. The semicircle of the enemy was now shifted and was extended until it enveloped the entire line, gradually outflanking the Egyptians.

Horsemen led by Osman Digna and Naib dashed around the right flank and threatened the rear, where the transports had been placed with weak protection. A reserve battalion of Egyptians, however, advancing rapidly, checked the horsemen. The situation was critical for a moment, but the front battalions advancing ran five hundred yards and cleared the ground, carried all the houses and swept off the enemy, who did not stop until they took a position on rising ground.

At the height of the fight the transport camels and mules stampeded and the enemy's horsemen got among them. The Egyptian cavalry immediately charged and drove the dervishes out by hard fighting, which ended in a rout. The enemy having re-formed on rising ground, the Egyptians advanced again, but the enemy's reserves fled without waiting for them. On reaching the second position held by Osman Digna, a hilly place, the Egyptians saw an Arab town stretching in a crescent below them, with rows of tents backed by thousands of straw huts extending for miles. Marching to the village, a host of Arabs poured out begging for pardon. A number of bodies of sheiks were found whom Osman Digna had executed, suspecting them of treachery.

MARSEILLES, Feb. 25.—The captain of a steamship which has arrived here from Madagascar reports that as a result of a revolt upon the part of the natives, the Governor of Nossi-Be, an island and French colony off the northwest coast of Madagascar, has caused the execution of over a hundred rebels and killed their wives and children.

CALCUTTA, Feb. 25.—The British forces under Major Smythe have captured the stockades of the Tsawbwa of Wuntho in Upper Burmah, killing 37 of the defenders. The Tsawbwa palace was set on fire, looted and finally destroyed. The British loss was 13 killed or wounded. The Tsawbwa escaped.

A FAMOUS MANAGER.

Harry Wright Again at the Head of the Philadelphia Club.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 25.—Harry Wright, the famous baseball manager, who last week tendered his resignation as manager of the Philadelphia league club, has been induced by President Reach and Secretary Rodgers to withdraw his resignation. All differences between Mr. Wright and the officials of the club have been adjusted to the mutual satisfaction of all concerned, and the veteran manager yesterday signed a contract to continue as sole manager of the club for the next three years.

An Old Man Burned to Death.

WYOMING, Feb. 25.—About 9 o'clock last evening residents on the 6th line of Plympton saw fire issuing from a log house occupied by Charles McGinnis, aged 68. It was impossible to enter, as the high wind had fanned the flames so that the whole interior was in a blaze. The old man was seen to be lying on the floor near one of the windows, from which he had evidently been trying to escape. This morning his remains were found burned to a crisp.

EVICTED MINERS ASSAILED

FIERCE BATTLE WITH POLICE IN DURHAM.

The Miners Use Sticks and Stones and Many on Both Sides are Wounded and are Found Weltering in Gore on the Roadside.

DURHAM, Feb. 25.—The eviction of families of striking coal miners from the houses they occupied on the Marquis of Londonderry's and other property near here was continued to-day. The occupants of eight houses returned to the scene, pelted the police with stones and hooted and yelled at the officers. The latter charged upon the strikers and a furious fight followed. The police used batons freely and the strikers retaliated with sticks and stones. Many persons were injured on both sides after the battle, in which the police were victorous, numbers of wounded men were found lying by the wayside fainting and covered with blood.

Electrotypers Strike.

BOSTON, Feb. 25.—All the electrotypers of this city struck to-day for a uniform minimum rate of pay. Nearly 300 men came out. The strike will seriously interfere with the work of 2000 others in the printing trade. The strikers have a strong union and are backed up by compositors, pressmen, paper-rulers, bookbinders and stereotypers.

Particulars of the Destruction of the Parliament Buildings.

TOKIO, Feb. 24.—On the night of Jan. 19 the houses of the Japanese Diet were completely destroyed by fire, which is supposed to have originated from a defect in the wires supplying the electric light. Following so close upon the exciting events connected with the banishment of the Soshi the week before there are many who believe that the fire was only the outcome of that political transaction.

Within sixteen years there has been no fire in Tokio which has been compared with this one, and the burning of the great Shiba Temple 22 years ago is the only other one within a century which has attracted such widespread attention throughout the Empire.

Because the idea of a representative legislative body was new to a great majority of the masses as well as to the press of the country the meeting of the Japanese Diet has given rise at times to feverish excitement, and to many of those who watched the burning of the Parliament buildings it appeared that the Parliament itself was at an end. Its proceedings, however, were only temporarily interrupted, as the House of Peers has found quarters in the immense ballroom of the Imperial Hotel and the House of Representatives in the Engineering College, a half mile away.

The loss of the buildings was complete and will cost the Government 250,000 yen. (A yen is about one dollar.) The crowd of spectators at the fire was immense, even for a Japanese crowd, and for squares there was nothing but the mass of human faces. Almost every available rickshaw in town was pressed into service carrying people to the fire.

The California Storm.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Feb. 25.—The present storm has caused a great flood. All the bridges over the Santa Anna River have been swept away excepting the Santa Fe bridge on the Redland branch and the Southern Pacific bridge. The latter is partially destroyed. The Santa Fe bridge and the railroad bridge on the road to Riverside are all gone. All the bridges over Little Creek are washed away. The storm appears to be over.

At least six persons have lost their lives in the floods. Many houses have been swept away and a number of families are missing.

A Balloon in His Throat.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 25.—Charles Snyder, 4 years of age, of 128 Arlington-avenue, died at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He choked to death on a balloon. The family were seated in the parlor when a cry of pain from another part of the house alarmed them. Charlie was found struggling on the floor. The boy's face was purple from lack of breath and his eyes were bulged out in painful effort. Charlie's respiration lessened fast, and before the doctor arrived he expired. The balloon was later extracted from the boy's throat.

Victim of a Fallacy.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 25.—Mrs. Norton, the aged mother of Della W. Norton, the Christian Scientist, died last evening of pneumonia. Mrs. Norton was taken ill several days ago. The sick woman's daughter applied Christian science treatment and of course the woman died.

Blind, But Won Two Husbands.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Among the immigrants landed to-day were Johann Heider, aged 29 years, his wife Catharina, aged 44 years, and three children. Mrs. Heider became blind in her childhood, but has won the affection of two husbands.

House of Commons.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—In the House of Commons Hon. William Henry Smith announced the appointment of a commission on labor disputes, including the question of hours.

A Candidate Breaks His Leg.

PAISLEY, Feb. 25.—Word has just been received here to the effect that Alexander McNeill, Conservative candidate for North Bruce, has broken his leg.

The Quebec Disaster.

QUEBEC, Feb. 25.—The inquest on the victims of the Harepoint disaster ended to-day and a verdict that the boiler burst from over pressure but attaching blame to no person was rendered.

Died on a Theatre Stage.

NORFOLK, Va., Feb. 25.—James Hatch was found dead on the stage of the Academy of Music this morning, having fallen from the flies some time during the night.

A Train Robber Gets 99 Years.

TEXARKANA, Ark., Feb. 25.—Ninety-nine years in the penitentiary was the sentence on Saturday night imposed upon John A Williams, leader in the notorious Cotton Belt train robbery at Spur Switch in June last.

Taps From the Telegraph.

The King of Italy has conferred the order of knighthood on Police Inspector Thomas F Byrnes of New York, in recognition of the assistance the inspector has rendered many Italians.

Gen. DaFonseca, who was chosen provisional president of Brazil at the time of the overthrow of the empire, has been formally elected president of the republic.

The U.S. treasury department has approved the action of the collector of customs at Buffalo exacting duty on natural gas imported into the district in pipes under Niagara River from Canada.

Frozen to Death

GREAT FALLS, Montana, Feb. 25.—Five laborers from Chicago traveling through the northern part of the state in search of work were caught in a severe storm in Two Medicine Mountains and four were frozen to death.

BERHING SEA WATERS.

Lord Salisbury is Ready to Arbitrate, so it is Said.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 25.—It is stated that Lord Salisbury's reply to Secretary Blaine's last letter on the Behring Sea question is on its way to Washington, Lord Salisbury not considering it necessary to await the decision of the Supreme Court in April in the Sayward case. It is also stated that there is reason to believe that Lord Salisbury agrees in his letter to submit the Behring Sea questions to arbitration as suggested by Secretary Blaine. Blaine expects the outcome of the matter to be a convention between the United States, Great Britain and Russia for the preservation of the seals not only in Behring Sea, but in the North Pacific.

FIRES IN ONTARIO.

Several Buildings Destroyed at Parry Sound—Loss $10,000.

PARRY SOUND, Feb. 25.—Last night fire destroyed the premises occupied by Gribbin & Co., George Raymond, baker, and H. W. Wolton, furniture dealer. Gribbin's loss on stock is $8000, Raymond and Wolton's loss on stock will be slight; insurance unknown.

Arnprior's Costly Blaze.

ARNPRIOR, Feb. 25.—Fisher's block and adjoining buildings were destroyed by fire last night. The total loss is $9350, as follows: John T. Wait, owner of the block, loss $1000, no insurance; Alexander Kellough, loss $2000, insurance $1100, Western and City of London; E. C. Armand, loss $3500, insurance $2300; Misses Dromond and Pattison, dressmakers, $150, no insurance, R. G. Moles, damage by removal, water and fire $900, fully insured; J. E. Thomson, lawyer' office, $300, no insurance; Oddfellows' Hall insured, $800; Foresters' Hall, insured $300; J. S. Moir, damage $200 in removing; Alf. C. Pye, $500.

Incendiarism at Sarnia.

SARNIA, Feb. 25.—A determined attempt was made to fire the outbuildings of the middle ward school. A large quantity of coal oil had been used to saturate the boards of the shed and the building was burning furiously before the firemen succeeded in quenching the flames. A reward of $100 is offered by the Town Council for the detection of the incendiary.

FIGHTING IN CHILI.

A Series of Battles in Which the Insurgents are Successful.

IQUIQUE, Feb. 25.—On the 15th inst. a battle was fought on the pampa at Dolores. The Government was defeated with the loss of about 500 men. On the 16th Iquique surrendered to the fleet. A riot the same night, caused by an incendiary mob, was quelled by the fleet and the foreign residents. One hundred and seventy-five of the mob were killed and wounded. On the 17th the opposition party suffered a check on the pampa near Huara. On the 19th Iquique was surprised by the remnant of the Government troops defeated on the pampa. There was hard fighting from morning till evening in the town, the opposition holding the intendencia, and firing from the fleet to protect the intendencia and to cover the landing of the marines. The business part of the town was fired by incendiaries the same evening. Capt. Lambton of the Warspite landed under fire to arrange an armistice and to take on board any of the remaining women and children from the town. An armistice was declared till noon of the 20th and was arranged by the mediation of Admiral Hotham. On the afternoon of the 20th the government troops were surrendered to the fleet by Col. Soto, who had fought gallantly. The town is now in possession of the fleet. No foreign residents were killed.

The women and children are mostly living in the ships in the harbor, all the men remaining at their offices. The hospital is full. It is probable there will be a decisive battle north of Pisagua soon. Much loss of life and damage to property has been avoided by the action taken by the English admiral on the 21st. All is quiet to-day.

The Springhill Disaster.

SPRINGHILL MINES, N.S., Feb. 25.—Four bodies, those of Henry Livingstone, John Francis, Neil McLeod and W. E. Hyde, were recovered late last night, and two others, those of Donald McKay and Richard Murphy, were taken out this morning. They were all buried beneath a great heap of stone. There are still five bodies to come out, and searching parties are now looking for them. Another of the wounded, Henry Nash, died at midnight. Yesterday afternoon, shortly after the body of her husband was taken home, Mrs. John Connexton gave birth to a child. The mother is now in a critical condition. Daniel McDonald, who was taken out unconscious from the effects of after-damp, is in a bad way and may die.

Bricklayers at War.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—At the recent international convention of bricklayers' unions in Toronto, Canada, Union No. 7, New York consisting of 2300 members, was called upon to pay a strike assessment which it thought unfair and it refused to do so. The result has been an attempt on the part of the other international unions to discipline No. 7. On Saturday night a secret meeting of these antagonistic unions was held, at which resolutions were passed to the effect that unless the members of Bricklayers' Union No. 7 complied with the demands of the International Union by March 1 they would be considered non-union men and the other unions would refuse to work with them.

The Dead.

George Sylvain, Crown lands agent, and for some years M.P. for Rimouski county, Quebec, died at Rimouski yesterday.

Rev. J. O. Simard, parish priest of Rimouski, died yesterday at the presbytery.

Senator E. K. Wilson of Maryland died suddenly at Washington yesterday.

James Scott Hutton, for a third of a century principal of the Halifax institution for the deaf and dumb, died last night. He was the most successful and one of the most noted teachers of deaf mutes on the continent.

Leffler's Novel Death.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Otto Leffler, an elderly fresco painter, out of work and despondent, committed suicide in his furnished room at No. 311 East Thirteenth-street yesterday forenoon by asphyxiating himself with illuminating gas. Leffler was a German, a widower, 65 years old. He did not respond to repeated knocks on his door yesterday noon and finally the door was forced. Then it was found that he was dead. He lay on his back on the bed with his eyes staring at the ceiling, holding a piece of new rubber pipe in his right hand. One end of this pipe was thrust into his mouth and the other was placed over the gas jet, the cock of which was wide open.

Carried a Local Option Bylaw.

ONONDAGA, Feb. 24.—Voting on local option took place in Onondaga Township yesterday and resulted in a majority of 15 for the act.

A COMMISSION ON LABOR

APPOINTED BY THE BRITISH HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Wedding Ceremonies Without the Presence of the Registrar—The Recent Robbery of Bank Funds—Military Outrage in Nuremburg.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—Sir G. S. Baden-Powell (Conservative), member of Parliament for Kirkdale, Liverpool, who recently made an extensive tour of Canada, in a letter to The Times says he has perfect confidence in the loyalty of both parties in Canada. The Canadians, he says, are fully alive to the value of independence and will soon dispose of the few annexationists who are to be found in their country. The probable outcome of the present agitation will be a system of modified reciprocity between the United States and Canada. Canada, he says, would not consent to lose her foreign markets.

Mrs. O'Shea's Legacy.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—The will of Mrs. Wood, aunt of Mrs. O'Shea, bequeathed to Mrs. O'Shea a large fortune, of which the divorcee expected to obtain possession, but frequent public allusions to Mr. Parnell's probable interest in the fortune have induced her brothers to bring an action to have the will declared invalid on the ground that undue influence was used and that the deceased was incapable of making a will. The suit, which is brought in the names of Charles and Sir Evelyn Wood, is being tried before Justice Jeune.

Military Outrage in Nuremburg.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—Great excitement prevails in Nuremburg, Germany, over a military outrage. A sergeant of the German army named Brunfeldt compelled a private soldier, whom he accused of neglecting to keep himself clean, to stand in a semi-nude condition under a pump. The man was not in robust health, and the exposure to the chilly torrent of water caused his death almost immediately. The people who witnessed the outrage loudly denounced it, and a riot for some time appeared imminent. The affair is being investigated by Brunfeldt's superiors.

Attributed to American Experts.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—Some of the £1200 in Bank of England notes stolen by sneak thieves on the 16th instant from a bank messenger in the office of the National Provincial Bank, this city, have been traced to Queenstown, from which fact it is inferred that the two men who accomplished the robbery have sailed for America. The police believed at the time of the theft that the criminals were American experts.

The New Remedy.

BERLIN, Feb. 25.—Prof. Liebrich's new method of treating tuberculosis was described by him before the Berlin Medical Society to-day. The substance used is cantharidate of potash, which is administered in solution of systematic injections under the skin. Chemical experiments made by Drs. Fraenkel and Hermann seem to prove that the substance is remedial in tuberculosis and other diseases.

[illegible]

LONDON, Feb. 25.—A bill has been introduced in parliament to enable ministers of the Wesleyan Methodist Society to celebrate marriage on the same terms as the ministers of the established churches, that is without the presence of a registrar or his representative. Some surprise is expressed that the bill does not propose to extend the privilege to all the non-conformist clergy.

Admiral Hornby Fatally Injured.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—First Admiral Sir Geoffrey Thomas Phipps Hornby, K.C.B., was thrown from his trap to-day at Havant, near Portsmouth, and sustained concussion of the brain. He has been insensible since the accident and doubts are entertained of his recovery. He is 66 years of age.

The New McCarthyite Paper.

DUBLIN, Feb. 25.—Preparations have been completed for publishing in Dublin a daily paper devoted to the interests of the McCarthy faction. The paper will be entitled The National Press. The first number will be issued March 7. The McCarthyites will begin a vigorous campaign in Ireland March 8.

Foreign Notes.

Large numbers of dervishes are pushing forward from Kassala to assist Osman Digna.

Prior, Wooten & Co., timber merchants, London, have failed. Liabilities $100,000.

The heirs of Meissonier have decided to sell the contents of the great painter's studio at auction.

Mr. Parnell, because the McCarthyites are sending a subscription deputation to the United States to collect funds, will send one too.

A banker in the Place Boieldieu, Paris, has absconded. The police found his safe empty. His deficit amounts to 600,000 francs.

The League of Patriots in Paris has violently denounced the visit of Empress Frederick of Germany to the Palace of Versailles.

A debtor summons to recover the sum of £1768, the amount of costs awarded against William O'Brien in his suit against Lord Salisbury for libel, has been issued.

Two clergymen, while sleighing at Temesvar, in Austria, Monday, were attacked and devoured by wolves. Two night watchmen of that city were also devoured by wolves.

M. De Freycinet is privately pressing Deroulede and other deputies to refrain from carrying out their intentions with regard to asking questions in the Chamber in connection with ex-Empress Frederick's visit.

In the Court of Sessions at Edinburgh yesterday Alexander Laing Brown, Liberal member of Parliament for Hawick district, Scotland, asked for a divorce from his wife on the ground of her adultery with a commercial traveler named McNeil.

The steamer City of New York, which arrived at Glasgow from New York yesterday, reports that on Feb. 21 she sighted immense ice fields lying across her course. The ice was too heavy for the steamer to pass through and she was compelled to steer in a southerly direction.

Herr Forckenbeck, the Burgomaster of Berlin, was knocked down, run over and seriously injured by coming into collision with a rapidly driven public carriage to-day. The driver was arrested and the Burgomaster is in the hands of his physicians.

Advices have been received in London to the effect that Sultan Sebock, the ruler of Witu, has been dethroned by his brother, Fumo Omari, who is said to be insane. Sebock only recently succeeded his elder brother, Fumo Bakari, whose death was announced in the latter part of January.

Prof. Liebrich's remedy for tuberculosis is described as a salt which is one of the strongest of poisons, but it is injected only in such minute doses and with such precautions that it is quite harmless, causing neither fever nor any other inconvenience. It is said to be efficacious not merely against laryngeal tuberculosis but against tuberculosis in general, and has already been applied against lupus as well as laryngeal phthisis.

He Mourned Ten Days.

YANKTON, S.D., Feb. 25.—Yankton was excited to-day over the marriage of William Munroe, County Auditor, on Saturday night to Mrs. C. K. Bartlett, a widow. Munroe's first wife died less than 10 days ago.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is a concentrated extract of Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock, Pipsissewa, Juniper Berries, Mandrake, Dandelion, and other valuable vegetable remedies, every ingredient being strictly pure, and the best of its kind it is possible to buy.

It is prepared by thoroughly competent pharmacists, in the most careful manner, by a peculiar Combination, Proportion and Process, giving to it curative power

Peculiar To Itself

It will cure, when in the power of medicine, Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Blood Poisoning, Cancerous and all other Humors, Malaria, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Sick Headache, Catarrh, Rheumatism, and all difficulties with the Liver and Kidneys.

It overcomes That Tired Feeling, Creates an Appetite, and gives mental, nerve, bodily, and digestive strength. The value of

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is certified to by thousands of voluntary witnesses all over the country whom it has cured of disease more or less severe. It is sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other.

100 Doses One Dollar

The Daily Review.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1891.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House. Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

THE LIBERAL POLICY AND AGRICULTURE.

THERE are two especial points in Sir Richard Cartwright's scheme of unrestricted reciprocity that should be borne in mind, namely, that he and his party propose free trade with the United States but a high tariff on goods coming from any other country. Sir Richard Cartwright has stated this in his speeches and did so in a speech at Oshawa on Feb. 9th last which was reported in the Toronto Globe of the following day. The most important industry in this country is that of agriculture and the effect that such a policy would have upon that industry must be carefully considered.

The advocates of unrestricted reciprocity claim that the United States is the farmers' best market. Now, the official reports of the United States show that of wheat, flour and other breadstuffs that country exported or sold to other countries last year $154,000,000 worth—more than was grown in the whole of Ontario. Of cattle they exported $31,000,000 worth and of other animals $2,000,000 worth. The value of their exports of fruits was $4,000,000, of meats $120,000,000, of dairy products $12,000,000, of seeds $2,000,000, and of vegetables $1,300,000. All these make a total of $332,000,000. How, then, can it be expected that a market could be found there for such produce from Canada, when they supply themselves and sell that immense quantity to other countries?

With the duties that then existed on farm produce coming from the United States into Canada, there was brought into Canada from that country last year $5,300,000 worth of agricultural produce. With free trade between the two countries that would be greatly increased, and the United States cheaper products—for with few exceptions prices are cheaper on that side, and in some articles, such as hogs, considerably cheaper—would take from the farmers here more of their market than they would get on the other side. Last year the Republic exported 90,000,000 pounds of oleomargarine (imitation butter and oil for making such compounds). This is entirely excluded from Canada now, but would come in under unrestricted trade.

Last year Canada exported of all agricultural produce $8,700,000 worth more to Great Britain than to the United States. The speakers at Farmers' Institutes, the professors sent to speak by the Ontario Government and other speakers, have pointed out that Ontario should pay increasing attention to stock raising and dairying. Well, last year of all animals and their products there was exported from Canada $16,000,000 to Great Britain and $5,000,000 worth to the United States. This shows that for all agricultural produce, and especially for animals and dairy produce, Britain is and has been our best market. Further, for horses, the animals sold in the States, the market is decreasing, owing to electric cars taking the place of the horse street cars, and the sale of horses to the States was $225,967 less in 1890 than in 1889. But the market in Britain for all kinds of agricultural produce is unlimited, and the trade in that direction may be greatly expanded. Besides, even articles that Canada has been sending to the States may be sent to England, as was shown by the shipments of eggs there last fall. With these facts known, would it be wise to endanger the trade with Britain, to obtain free trade with the States? With such free trade, and discrimination against Britain, we would import far less goods from across the sea, and with less trade for vessels coming this way, the export trade would be injured. The cattle trade would receive a serious blow at once, for cattle from the United States have to be slaughtered on going to Great Britain and with unrestricted reciprocity Canada would be in the same position. This would mean a loss of $10 to $12 a head on Canadian cattle.

The argument in favor of unrestricted reciprocity is that the Canadian producer pays the duty on all he sends to the States. But the same men say that the Canadian consumer pays the duty on importations from the States. Is not this an absurdity that must be apparent to anyone?

It is a habit with Sir Richard Cartwright's followers to sneer at the home market. But of the $111,168,872 worth of field products grown in Ontario in 1889—the last year for which those statistics have been issued—$7,872,449 worth was exported to the States, leaving over $104,000,000. It is estimated that the value of all farm produce grown in Canada was over $700,000,000, yet only about $40,000,000 was exported. This demonstrates the importance of the home market. And does not everyone know the value of a good market town? Yet unrestricted reciprocity, by driving out manufacturing industries, would injure the market towns. How would the industries be driven out? In more ways than one. When they would have to compete with the Americans they would get nearer the centre of the market and the place where they would then have to get their supplies. Besides, Mr. Crerar, the Liberal speaker, the other evening said that United States manufacturers would not slaughter their goods here under free trade, for if they did the goods would be sent back and lower their combine prices. But these combines he referred to exist for the very purpose of crushing out opposition and controlling the market, and with the tariff gone our manufacturers would feel the weight of those powerful combinations. Thus the industries would be injured and with them the market towns.

There are other points that farmers especially should consider, such as the loss of revenue and direct taxation and how it would effect them, and the decreasing value of farm lands and the abandoned farms in the States. There are also the dangers to this country in allowing the United States to control our tariff and in discriminating against Great Britain, which protects our country, our rights and our merchant vessels, which all Canadians should carefully consider. With the whole matter reviewed, seriously, candidly and without prejudice, the people, we firmly believe, cannot fail to come to the conclusion that unrestricted reciprocity would seriously injure this country as a whole and every class of the community.

THE IRON MINES.

An effort is made by a letter in the Examiner to make the people of Belmont believe that if the Liberals were placed in office the iron mines in that township would be opened and men given employment in them. That chaff will not take. The people remember well that from 1867 until 1878 the mines at Blairton were being worked. In 1878 the Liberals came into office and in two years the mines were closed. If the Liberals could not keep the work going then they can scarcely be trusted to revive it now.

There is, however, a paragraph in this letter so highly commended by the Examiner that is worth noting. It is:—

"The wages paid to 300 or 400 men, and spent in the country, would help the farmers, the merchants, the mechanic, and especially the laboring men."

Now, the fiscal policy of the present Government has given employment to hundreds of men in Peterborough, and one industry coming here, the Edison works, is expected to exceed that number by 200 or 300 men. And in the east part of the county, in the township of Belmont, the railway policy of the Government has built up a village of 600 or 700 people, besides bringing shipping facilities much nearer to the farmers east and west.

OTONABEE.

Correspondence of the Review.

WOOD SAWING.—Mr. James France in company with Mr. W. Cleghorn, sawed 40 cords of double wood for Mr. Patrick Hallahan in nine hours one day last week, with a Little Joker Mowry machine. It was all principally green straight, about two feet through and clear of knots. It kept three men busy with a stone boat drawing the wood away, while the fourth man stood at the machine keeping the timber clear of the saw as it was cut. Their machine was well attended to, as soon as one log was sawn another was on, and the horses did not have to stop.

Roses an[illegible] Cut Flowers as well as flor[illegible] designs, to be had at Mason's Seed an[illegible] Plant House, corner of Water and Brock-[illegible]. d42tf

Piano T[illegible]ng.

Mr. G. Gumpricht is in town. Orders may be left at Messrs. Taylor & McDonald's drug store. 1yd6

To Rent.

Farms wanted to rent. Tenants supplied this year at half price. Call or write.

T. HURLEY,
d23tf 357 George-st.

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on a trial.

VOLTAIC BELT Co., Marshall, Mich.

Good Breakfast Dishes.

Rolled Bacon, Sausage, Head Cheese, Ham Veal, etc. Best brands of these superior meats always on hand. Bacon sold by actual weight. J. J. Howden, 461 George-st. Telephone connection. d40tf

On Exhibition.

The beautiful upright piano now on exhibition at Crosby's Music store, 420 George-st., Peterborough, is admired by scores of visitors. The rich, full, mellow tone pleases the most fastidious critic. d44

Redpath's Cut Loaf Sugar

In 5 lb. boxes, Redpath's Pure Syrup in 2 lb. tins, Fresh Salmon, 2 tins for 25c.; Finest Canadian Cheese, 2 lbs. for 25c.; Pickles equal to bottled, 15c. per quart or 2 quarts for 25c. All goods cheap. W. J. Morrow 340 George-st. d41-w8

A Complete Line

of the finest soaps in the world. Sunlight Soap, Dingman's Electric Soap, etc. See the large bar I am selling at 5 cents, also the mammoth bar at 10 cents. A large stock of toilets. The largest stock and best value in Peterborough. Alex. Elliott 350 George-st. Peterborough. d41

Some Foolish People

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediatey see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c and $1. Trial size free. At all druggists.

Pure Teas.

The attention of the ladies of Peterborough is drawn to the fact that Ram Lal's and Monsoon brand of Indian Teas are the best in the world. They are celebrated for their strength, purity and richness of flavor. We have also received a shipment of fine Japan Tea which we will sell at 25 cents per lb., the best value for the money to be had in Peterborough. Stapleton & Elcombe, 365 George-st. (Bush Bros.' old stand). d45-w9

There is danger in impure blood. There is safety in taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier. 100 doses one dollar.

Under the present fiscal policy the aggregate trade of Canada has shown an average increase of $22,600,000 a year. Support Messrs. Burnham and Stevenson.

Mr. Stevenson's Address

TO

THE ELECTORS

OF

WEST PETERBOROUGH.

GENTLEMEN,—The time that will elapse before polling day is so short, and my business demands on my time just now are so great that, though most anxious to do so, I find it altogether impossible to personally call on any considerable number of the electors; and therefore use this medium of placing before you my opinions of the great issue that has been raised by the leaders of the Reform party, viz., Unrestricted Reciprocity with the United States.

The Government of Sir John A. Macdonald many years since placed on the Statute books of the Dominion an Act enabling the Governor-General in Council, whenever the United States declared its readiness to free from duty any named natural products of this country going into that country, to free the same coming into Canada from the United States.

That Statute still remains in force; and, although the Government of Canada has on many occasions called the attention of the authorities at Washington to it, yet they have declined to act on it, but have now signified their willingness to negotiate generally on trade matters.

The present Government has shown its readiness to negotiate for reciprocal trade relations on the basis of the treaty of 1854, which was eminently fair to both countries; and their proposal I will support, but the policy of the Reform party as shown by them and by the politicians and press of the United States, is one which practically hands over to that country the trade of Canada, for the Reform party declare that they are prepared to offer to the United States absolute and unconditional free trade in manufactures, as well as in natural products, and they say such will be accepted by the latter country; and this party, led by Mr. Laurier, urges that such a policy is in our interests, even if we have to discriminate against England and all the rest of the world, and enact and build up a tariff wall equal to that of the United States, and even if we have in addition, to suffer a loss of revenue, placed by Sir Richard Cartwright in his speech in Toronto, the 13th instant, as reported in the Globe, of $7,000,000 or $8,000,000, but which, it is perfectly certain, would not be less than $12,000,000. I submit for your consideration whether this is really a "free trade" policy or a policy deserving your support. I am convinced that it is not, and that it is opposed to the best interests of Canada. The present tariff of the United States is more than double that of Canada. It is, in fact, the most exclusive and excessive tariff known, and the effect of the adoption of it by us would, in my humble opinion, be to make us, commercially, an unknown land—except to our neighbors to the South, for no other nation would or could import its goods to us as heretofore, and as their shipping would come much less to our shores, our trade in cheese, cattle and other products with Great Britain would be seriously injured, if not wholly ruined. The high freight rates, for want of competition, would alone make these products unprofitable, and I am sure you will hesitate before you destroy or imperil a trade with England, and Europe of $92,000,000 yearly, made successful, largely, by reason of the keen competition of shipping from England, which, under our moderate tariff, has, out of all proportion to the extent of the United States, come to Halifax and up the St. Lawrence to our great ports for several years past.

The policy of the present Government since its adoption in 1879, has brought into Canada, a tremendous amount of Capital and produced the manufacture of most of our needs of life at prices, through the competition that has grown up, no higher than in the country from which the capital came.

The population of Peterborough has in ten years almost doubled, and I am confident the present moderate revenue tariff will enable the country to construct great public works in our vicinity, and that our town will be not less than 20,000 population within the next ten years. The proposed policy, I am assured, would endanger all the advantages we have gained and almost certainly end in the ruin of our town, as of many other towns and cities in Canada, and also most seriously injure the farming interests by destroying the home market and in other ways and I therefore cannot give my sanction to such a measure.

I cannot believe that with the declarations of high authority we have as to the terms on which we can obtain unrestricted trade relations, with the United States there is any general feeling in favor of the Reform platform, for I find that Mr. Blain, the Secretary of State at Washington, recently in a public speech used these words: "It is their (Canadians) right to choose for themselves, as it is our right to choose for ourselves, but I am opposed, teetotally opposed, to giving the Canadians the sentimental satisfaction of waving the British flag, paying British taxes, and enjoying the actual cash remuneration of American markets. They cannot have both at the same time. If they come with us they can have what we have. It is an absolute wrong for Congress to say that they shall have exactly the same share in our markets that we have, and so far as I can help it, I do not mean that they shall be Canadians and Americans at the same time" and Mr. McAdoo, a Democratic member of the House of Representatives, recently used these words in the House: "The United States do not desire to add a single acre to its imperial domain but if the people of Canada, in their Soverign capacity wish to maintain unrestricted relations with the people of the United States, they have but to rise in their sovereignity, spontaneously and unsought for act and ask for annexation, which is the cutting of the Gordion knot, and the ultimate destinity of the Canadian people."

Neither can I support the new policy, because, as reported in the Globe on the 5th day of October, 1889, Mr. Erastus Wiman, of New York, who is the partner of the millionaire, Jay Gould, and the sole father of the scheme originated for personal and selfish ends, says: "My idea is that a uniform tariff should be adopted both by the Congress of the United States and the Dominion Parliament of Canada; that Canada should agree to always have the same tariff as the United States; that this tariff should be administered by a join commission of which the majority should, of course, rest with the United State." and the Chicago Times confirms this, as do all the leading papers of the United States by declaring that "entire free trade is impossible, unless the Dominion 'is prepared to make a complete and unconditional surrender of all control over its own tariff and to accept whatever tariff our Congress may choose to enact from time to time.'"

I feel that this is a sacrifice and surrender greater than Canada should make for it means the loss of legislative control over our fiscal policy the transference to Washington of the regulation of our tariff and the end of our political existence, and, as said in an American paper "Canadians would be "curs and cads" to entertain the idea."

The end proposed by the Reform leaders I am sure cannot be attained, and, if attained, attainment will bring in its train the incident of direct taxation, with an army of assessors and collectors replacing the Customs Houses and Customs officers along the frontier between the United States and Canada. Mr. Laurier in Quebec a few days ago said that his expectant Finance Minister, Sir Richard Cartwright, would be genius enough to avoid recourse to "so cruel a measure" but in Toronto on the 13th instant, the avoidance the latter found after quoting the words of Mr. Foster, that direct taxation would amount to $20.00 per family, and after entering upon a tirade of abuse of the Government to draw his audience from the question was summed up in these words as given in the Globe's report of his speech, "But it is impossible to deal with these imaginary difficulties, and when I am asked to say what I will do if a possible contingency arises I would respectfully say that we will wait to see the contingency we have to meet."

I am sure the whole electorate will declare with me that this, from a man, posing as a statesman, and seeking the confidence and support of the country was a contemptible and pitiful avoidance of the most vital matter, and an acknowledgement that direct taxation is a necessary incident of the Reform platform.

I would call attention to a matter of local importance, viz., the construction of the Trent Valley Canal, which has been thrown back for two years by the action of prominent members of the Reform party, and the statements in the House that there was good reason for believing that, as a national undertaking, it would prove a failure because of an insufficiency of water. The matter was consequently referred to commissioners to report, and the commissioners having examined the whole of the route and taken a great mass of evidence, have now reported, and the report that has been published is a complete answer to all objections as to its feasibility and the propriety of the undertaking, and, as in the past, I, if elected, shall in the future persistently advocate and insist on the immediate construction of this great work. I am confident it will prove of immense value as a public work, and I know that its importance to this locality will, from various and obvious reasons, be almost inestimable. I am also quite certain that if the Reform party gains power in this election and adopts the policy it is advocating, there will follow such admittedly tremendous deficits in the revenue that even with the aid of direct taxation it will be impossible for the Government, however willing, to undertake the building of this national highway of commerce.

In conclusion, I would ask the electors to accept the above statement as indicating my views of the chief public questions of the hour, and the policy relied on by the leader of the Reform party, and his Wiman allies, as the one by which they hope to gain control of the Government of Canada, and to displace the existing Government, and I would ask all who cannot approve so radical a change as proposed, to rally to the support of the Liberal-Conservative party in the present great crisis in our affairs.

I am, gentlemen,

Your sincere and humble servant,

JAMES STEVENSON.

A Great Spelling Match.

The greatest spelling match on record is that offered by Our Home Publishing Co., in which they will award the following magnificent CASH PRIZES:—One prize of $300; one prize of $200; two prizes of $100; four prizes of $50; eight prizes of $25; twenty prizes of $10; forty prizes of $5; one hundred prizes of $2; and two hundred of $1. These prizes will be awarded to the persons sending in the largest number of correctly spelled words found in the advertising pages of the Feburary number of Our Homes, in which no letters occur but those found in the sentence: "Our Homes is Unrivalled as a Home Magazine." Special cash prizes will be given away each day and each week during this competition, which closes April 25th, 1891. Send 10 cents in stamps or silver, for a sample copy of the Feburary number, with rules and regulations governing the competition. Address, OUR HOMES PUB. Co., Brockville, Ont. 41d48-7w9

That's Easily Answered.

"My dear," said Mrs. Cupandsaucer, laying down the evening paper, "what is reciprocity?" "Reciprocity, my angel," said the head of the house, "is easily explained. It means a general evening up,—as, say when Smithers asks me in to take a-er-cigar and I ask him to have another.' "Exactly," said Mrs. C., "when I go to Hawley Bros. for tea and I hand Mr. Hawley a dollar and he gives me four or five pounds of splendid green or black mixture, I get the money's worth and he the money. Isn't that it?" "Exactly," said the husband as he reached for his hat. d20tf

The United States sells farm produce Great Britain buys it in large quantities. Retain the British markets by voting for Messrs. Stevenson and Burnham.

PETERBOROUGH
PLANING MILLS!
Dublin-st., Peterborough.

A. RUTHERFORD,
PROPRIETOR.

Having purchased the plant, and business, formerly carried on by J. D. Baptie, in the above premises, I am prepared to execute orders for every description of General Carpenter Work Window and Door Frames, Blinds, Mouldings, etc.

Scroll Work, Band Sawing, Turning executed to order.

Large supply of Dry Lumber of all Kinds always on hand.

Factory and Office,—Dublin-st. Telephone Connection.

LIME—Always kept on hand. Orders left at Mill or at G.T.R. Station promptly attended to. d48-w6f

2 BRICK HOUSES,
2 FRAME HOUSES,
and THREE LOTS,
to be sold at my office on ~~WEDNESDAY~~ next, the 18th inst., at 2 p m,

The above properties are situated west of Bethune-st. and between the 2 railway stations in the centre of all the principal manufactories in town. A rare chance.

T. HURLEY,
357 George-

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED!

Grand Rally of the People's Party.

THE QUESTION OF THE HOUR!

The Greatest Good to the Largest Number.

GOUGH BROTHERS are in the field as the Candidates for public approval, basing their claim on the admitted facts that they supply the largest number, the greatest number of times with the largest dollar's worth of the best clothing that money can purchase.

Ask our constituents if this claim is not well grounded?

When you buy, buy from first hands, remembering that we supply Clothing, Furnishings, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes.

GOUGH BROTHERS

The Clothiers, 377 and 379 George-st., Peterborough.

WM. FITZGERALD,
Builder, Contractor and Jobber.

Contracts taken for all work connected with erection of new buildings, repairs or rebuilding. Twenty-five years experience. First-class work according to plans and specifications guaranteed. Estimates furnished for any description of work. Good dry material always on hand. Best of references given as to excellence of work and despatch.

Building Lots For Sale

in different localities. Most desirable sites for houses. This is the time to buy and build Lots sold and houses built thereon on terms to suit buyers. Easy terms of payment. Several good houses and lots for sale. Every one looking for a bargain should see these. WM. FITZGERALD, 124, corner of Dublin and Water-sts.
P.O. Box 476, Peterborough. 65p w31-1y

"It is the Safest and Fairest Policy I Have Ever Seen,"

Was the remark made by a prominent representative of one of the largest and best American Life Insurance Companies, when he had carefully examined

THE ORDINARY LIFE POLICY OF
—THE—
TEMPERANCE and GENERAL
LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y.

This is the only policy offered to the Canadian public that can neither lapse nor expire as to its paid-up value till death ensues, after three annual premiums have been paid on it.

Our Limited Payment Life Policy, or Instalment Bonds, Our Common Sense Renewable Term Policies, and our Survivors' Endowment Bonds are all possessed of new and excellent features and are all worthy of careful consideration.

Agents Wanted.

H. P. LINDSAY,
Gen. Agent for Peterborough, Northumberland and Durham. Office No. 383 George-st., opposite new market building.

COME, SEE AND BUY
ONE OF THE PATENT
BAKING CABINETS

on exhibition at J. J. Turner's Sail, Tent and Awning Factory. This is one of the most complete and useful articles for any and every house as it holds your flour, spices, raisins, meal, sugar, etc., and when you are through baking you can lock it up and it makes a nice piece of furniture.

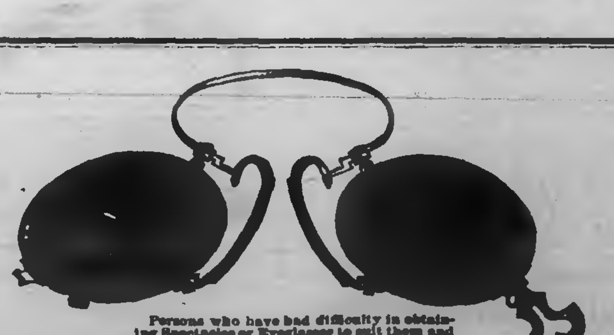
Having bought the right for Peterborough and Ashburnham to manufacture this I want some good live agents to sell it.

J. J. TURNER,
238 and 239½ George-st., Peterborough.
Telephone day or night. Bell 189, Ontario 72.

WHITE LABEL ALE
On Draught,
10 cts. per qt.

Try our Bottled Ale, White Label, India Pale, etc., etc.

W. J. MORROW.
Opera House Block, George-st.



Persons who have had difficulty in obtaining Spectacles or Eyeglasses to suit them and who are troubled with imperfect vision, either by night or day should call on W. A. SANDERSON and have a free examination of their eyes made. Oculists Prescriptions Carefully Filled.

W. A. SANDERSON, Jeweller and Optician, Peterborough, Ont.

EYESIGHT TESTED.

THE STANDARD LIFE Assurance Company,
ESTABLISHED 1832

Subsisting Assurances	$101,250,000.	The Funds Invested in Canada amount to nearly	$6,000,000.
Invested Funds	34,000,000.	Deposited with Dominion
Annual Income	4,500,000.	Government at Ottawa	1,150,000
Bonuses Distributed	23,000,000.

All plans of Assurance. Non Forfeitable Policies. Absolutely unconditional policy from date of issue without extra charge. Absolute security. Rates compare favourably with any first-class Company.

W. M. RAMSAY, Manager, Montreal.

A.V.R. YOUNG, General Agent, and Inspector for Midland District, 379 Water-st.

C. CAMERON,
MULLHOLLAND & ROPER. | Special Agent.

DO YOU LIKE
Biscuits?

Most likely you do. There's a deal of difference in Biscuits. Quality is an important item. A good biscuit should be fresh, crisp and of good flavor. Here's what will suit you. Try the English biscuit, made by Huntley & Palmer the famous makers. Imported by us and guaranteed genuine.

Ask for Huntley & Palmer's biscuits.

W. J. MASON
426 GEORGE STREET.
☞ No trouble to show Goods.

Reduction Sale
—OF—
WALL PAPER
—AT—
Cost Price.

During the month of February we are receiving large shipments of Wall Paper, and to make room for the New Goods, we will sell all our Remnants

At or Below Cost Price.

This is a genuine offer and should be taken advantage of, as the season for papering is so near at hand it will pay you to buy now.

H. THOMPSON & Co
Office and General Stationers, Booksellers and Wall Paper Dealers, 406 George-st. — Peterborough.

The Daily Review.
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1891.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

His Tongue Cost Him Money.

Wm. Thoradyke was charged by A. S Payton at the Police Court this morning with having used insulting and abusive language towards Phoebe Losey. The young man pleaded guilty and was find $5 and costs or ten days in gaol.

A School House Burned.

A telegram received here this morning states that a school house in Blairton, Belmont township, was burned last night. The building was a clapboard one and was erected about the year 1867. No particulars were received.

A George Washington Act.

A gentleman on George-st. at the south end cut down some shade trees that had been planted in front of his place of business by his landlord. The act was a thoughtless one but the landlord very naturally prized the trees which had been planted some ten years. The case was brought into the Police Court this morning. The Magistrate spoke strongly in giving judgment, saying he intended to punish any man who even put a pen-knife in a shade tree if he was brought before him. The landlord being satisfied if the man replaced the trees, the Magistrate said he would let him off lightly and fined him $5 and costs.

Hymeneal.

A pleasant event took place yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. G. A. Mitchell, 459 Water-st., being the marriage of his daughter, Miss Sophronia Mitchell, and Mr. Benjamin Jinks, of Peterborough. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a number of friends by Rev. J. Locke. Miss Clara Mitchell was bridesmaid for her sister and Mr. R. T. Hounsell assisted the groom. After a sumptuous wedding dinner had been served the happy couple went to their new home on Smith-st. The bride received a large number of unusually handsome and valuable presents, a strong testimony of the high esteem of her friends, and the young couple begin life with many hearty good wishes for their happiness.

A Frightened Team.

Mr. Shannon, of Monaghan, had just unloaded a load of hay into Dr. Halliday's stables on Water-st. yesterday afternoon, when the collapse of a load of wood in the yard frightened the horses and they dashed down the driveway, the heavy hay rack in its rush down the lane tearing the shutters off the windows of Mr. C. H. Clementi's residence. The horses made straight across the street, over the wire fence into the Court House Park and demolished the artistic arch which stood at the centre walk. They then turned and were stopped. Mr. Shannon had his arms injured and his head cut, but his injuries were not serious. The horses were also slightly cut by the wire fence.

Stand Your Ground.

When you make up your mind to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to buy some other preparation instead. Clerks claim that "ours is as good as Hood's" and all that, but the peculiar merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla cannot be equalled. Therefore have nothing to do with substitutes and insist upon having Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier and building-up medicine.

COMMERCE IN CHRISTIANITY.

Rev. E. W. Cooper, B.D., Delivers a Lecture at St. John's

The third of the Lenten series of Wednesday evening lectures at St. John's church was delivered last evening by Rev. E. W. Cooper, B.D., an eloquent divine and very fluent speaker. There was a fair congregation present, the lecture being given as is usual after a short service.

In opening the rev. gentleman said his subject was "Commercial Christianity," and he was afraid some might imagine that he would speak of Christianity in commerce, that was, the way the business world should be managed in the fear of God. This was not the case. He would not speak of Christianity in commerce, but of commerce in Christianity. He wanted to draw a parallel between two ideas of Christianity and to show how they differed. The rev. speaker went on to say that some people had their idea of Christianity for what they were going to get, what they thought it would bring them. This idea was abroad in the world, many people thinking that Christianity was to be pursued because of the good it was to bring them in the next world—to take them to heaven, or others, of a lower standard, to receive a forgiveness of sins and escape punishment. This Christianity, he said, was followed selfishly, and it was this selfish religion that was commercial Christianity. The lecurer impressed upon his hearers the low standard of this Christianity, referring to its selfishness and its effect upon the daily life. The man following this idea looked upon sin as a commercial debt and looked upon the atoning merit of Christ as accounting for that debt. Under this idea there would be no church, no association of individuals, or no ministry or sacramental ordinances, the Holy Ghost working in them each separately and individually. After dwelling upon this commercial Christianity which looked after one's own good and advantage, he spoke of the other view of Christianity, that which the Bible rested upon and which was found in Paul's words, "Ye are called of one body." The speaker dwelt upon the beautiful thought of the unity of Christ and His church, setting forth Christ as the Head of the body and pointing out the sympathy that existed between Christ, the Head, and the church or Christians, the body, saying that when the body suffered the Head suffered. They were not only to save their own soul, but do self-sacrificing work for love and work's sake, not for the good it was to bring them. He made a comparison of the selfish, commercial Christianity and that true religion that imitated Christ's self-sacrificing life for others. In closing, he referred to the spiritual good which was supplied the body, and closed by expressing the hope that they would work for work's sake and they would be surprised how the self-sacrificing spirit would extend in different lines to usefulness.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

A Meeting for the Workingmen—Other Meetings in the Riding.

To-morrow evening there should be a grand rally of workingmen at the Opera House to hear Mr. John Armstrong, a well-known labor man of Toronto, who will deliver an address on the questions at issue in this campaign with special interest to workingmen. Mr. Armstrong, who will speak in Mr. Stevenson's behalf, is a thorough labor man, and being conversant with all current matters and a good speaker, he will be well worth hearing to all workingmen of either side of politics. An invitation has been extended to Mr. Jury to be present.

Farmers' Mass Meeting.

On Saturday afternoon next at 2.30 o'clock Mr. C. H. Mackintosh, M.P., ex-Mayor of Ottawa, will address a meeting of farmers in the Opera House on the questions at issue in this contest as it effects their interests. There should be a large attendance to hear these questions discussed.

Selwyn.

Mr. Stevenson held an enthusiastic meeting last night at Selwyn, in Smith. The speakers were Messrs. Stevenson, R. Max. Denniston and F. Henry. The addresses, which were ably delivered were received with interest.

Smith.

A meeting was held by Mr. Hall at Montgomery's school house in Smith last night at which the policy of unrestricted reciprocity was upheld by Messrs. Hall, E. B. Edwards and Dr. Goldsmith. Mr. W. H. Moore appeared for Mr. Stevenson and was accorded a good hearing.

Brevities.

—The Omemee winter races will be held on the ice course on Pigeon river on Monday and Tuesday, March 2nd and 3rd.

A Two Dollar Quarrel.

Harry McGill and Wm. Brown, a young man employed in Halpin's hotel, got into an altercation at the corner of Hunter and Aylmer-sts., on Tuesday night last over something upon which neither seemed to be very clear. Brown pulled McGill's whiskers and some emphatic language was used according to several witnesses. The Magistrate fined them each $2 and costs.

Methodist Mission.

The quarterly public meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society was held in the lecture room of the George-st. church Wednesday evening. The attendance was very good considering the state of the weather and contra attractions. The President, Mrs. Kendry, occupied the chair. After the opening hymn and Scripture lesson by Mrs. Lock, Rev. D. S. Houck offered prayer. An excellent programme of readings and music was then well rendered. Rev. Mr. Houck gave an admirable address on mission work, to which all listened with deep interest. It was to be regretted that there were not more present to hear it. A good collection was realized.

Fruit Growers Association.

Interest in the Association is growing. The general secretary for Ontario, Mr. Woolverton, has written to Mr. E. B. Edwards, the local secretary, that Mr. Allen, of Toronto, a well known authority on apples, and probably Mr. Woolverton himself, will be present at the meeting to be held here about the 16th of March. Every fruit grower in the district should at once send in his name to Mr. Edwards, so as to make sure of getting notice of the meeting. It is intended to have a full discussion on the best kinds of fruit suited to this climate and the best methods of cultivation. Another point that will be considered will be the best method of shipping apples to outside markets, and possibly some such plan as that adopted by the cheese makers may be devised, viz., to secure information as to the stock to be disposed of and appoint a seller to negotiate with the buyers for the Montreal or English markets.

The Handsomest Man in Peterborough.

As well as the handsomest, and others are invited to call on any druggist and get free a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, a remedy that is selling entirely upon its merits and is guaranteed to relieve and cure all Chronic and Acute Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

OFFICIAL NOMINATIONS.

TWO CANDIDATES IN THE WEST AND EAST RIDINGS.

Mr Jas. Stevenson, Conservative, and Mr. Richard Hall, Liberal, in the West—Mr. John Burnham, Conservative, and Mr. T. Kork, Liberal, in the East—No Third Candidate.

The formal nomination of candidates for the Dominion House to represent the West Riding of Peterborough took place at noon to-day at the Court House, Mr. J. A. Hall being the Returning Officer. The required nomination papers were filed and declarations made and the necessary deposit of two hundred dollars laid down by the two candidates—Mr. James Stevenson, Conservative, and Mr. Richard Hall, Reformer. There was no speaking or excitement, the nominations being entirely formal.

Mr. Stevenson named Mr. Peter Henry as his agent, and Mr. G. M. Roger was named as Mr. Hall's agent.

The East Riding.

At Norwood at the same hour the nominations for the East Riding were held by Mr. B. Morrow, Returning Officer.

Mr. John Burnham, Reeve of Ashburnham, was nominated as the Conservative candidate, and Mr. T. Kork, of Norwood, as the Liberal candidate.

After the nominations speeches were delivered.

THE PORK QUESTION.

How Unrestricted Reciprocity Would Effect That Trade.

To the Farmers of the County of Victoria:

GENTLEMEN,—As the pork question is prominently before the country, I will give you some information about the business.

I purchased this season for my packing houses about 20,000 hogs from Canadian farmers, at an average cost of $5.75 per 100 pounds; the average dressed weight was 160 pounds each. With dressed hogs at $5.75 per cwt., the long clear bacon (which is the heaviest part of the hog) costs me $7.50 per 100 pounds when cured, and the other cuts of the hog in proportion to that.

There is a duty of 3 cents per pound on all cured meats coming into this country, except barrel pork, which is 1½ cents per pound.

To-day I can buy long clear bacon fully cured, in Chicago, at $4 50 per 100 pounds, which is three dollars less than mine cost made from Canadian hogs, so that if we had unrestricted reciprocity with the States, I could bring here from Chicago, freight paid, the same quantity of bacon, hams, lard, etc., that I made from the 20,000 hogs, for $80,000 less money than I have actually paid Canadian farmers for these hogs.

To be able to make long clear bacon and cure it for $4 80 per 100 pounds (which is $4 50 cost and 30 cents freight added), we could not pay over $3.25 per cwt., for dressed hogs here, that would be $2 50 per cwt. less than I paid this season, and on 20,000 hogs weighing 3,200,000 pounds, a total of $80,000 less than our farmers received for those hogs.

So much in regard to my own business; as I am only one of the pork packers of Ontario the others are in the same position as myself.

Now, although I cannot think that Canadians are going to support Unrestricted Reciprocity, (which certainly means annexation), still, as that question is before the country it is just as well to consider it in regard to the hog trade of Ontario.

I take it for granted that whichever party is in power, about the same quantity of pork will be consumed.

I would state as a fact, that, although the hog crop marketed this season has been the largest on record, still there are not enough hogs raised in Canada, even now, to supply our markets, as witness the number of cars of barrel pork that are arriving from Chicago every week in the eastern part of Ontario and province of Quebec; and one dealer there informed me the begining of this month, that at least 30,000 barrels of pork would go up the Ottawa river between that time and 1st April, and nearly all that would be Chicago pork.

The Ontario Bureau of Industries in November 1890, gives us 1,140,559 as the number of hogs in Ontario, being an increase of 305,090 hogs over 1889, and still there are not enough for our requirements. I see the value of the 1,140,559 hogs put at $[illegible] each, or a total of $[illegible],472.

Now, the question for the farmers of Ontario is, shall we continue to raise peas, corn, etc., and keep on feeding hogs and improving our land by making it richer, with the present duty on pork to keep our market from being flooded with cheap pork from the west, and keep the large amount of money that it would take to pay for all the pork that is required in Canada—some nine or ten millions of dollars—circulating in this country among ourselves; or shall we have free trade with the States and let them raise our pork for us, and send that much money every year over there to pay for it, instead of keeping it in this country? You may rest assured that the pork will still be wanted, whether made from Canadian or American hogs, and the packers in the country where the hogs are raised will use the capital and employ the labor of that country, and expect to be able to add something to the prosperity of that country by employing labor and capital.

There is another item our farmers will to consider seriously, the cattle trade with Great Britain, and the immense advantages we have over the American farmers in being able to ship our cattle to the inland markets of the old country, which means at least $10 per head more for our cattle than American; and if our cattle exports increase at the same rate as they did last year, when 123,136 were shipped from Montreal to England—an increase of 50,000 head over the previous year—in two years the amount our farmers would receive by having the old country markets as they are now would more than pay the duty on all the barley exported to the United States even under the McKinley act.

There is not the slightest doubt but with unrestricted reciprocity these privileges would be taken away, as we have been very near losing them several times (as the English farmers are opposed to them) and but for the prompt action of Sir Charles Tupper, being on the spot, and acting quickly when they said our cattle were diseased, we should have lost them.

And last but not least, the advantage every good farmer knows it is to his land to raise more stock and less grain.

GEO. MATTHEWS.

Lindsay, Feb. 25, 1891.

Effect of the U. R. on the Butter Trade.

To the Editor of the Empire.

DEAR SIR,—The impression seems to commonly prevail that butter is one of the products of the farm which cannot possibly suffer if the duties are removed between Canada and the United States. We think the following contract, which we made with a Chicago firm last June, is of value on this point, and will prove conclusively the incorrectness of the above impression:—

June 2, 1890.

A. A. Kennard & Co., of Chicago, sell, and D. Gunn, Flavelle & Co., of Toronto, buy, 300 packages of full grass June Creamery butter at a price of 12½ cents per pound, Chicago, packages to weigh, say, 55 to 60 pounds each; butter to be subject to approval of buyer, who agrees to go to Chicago inside of 10 days' time to inspect. If quality is not satisfactory buyer's option to refuse goods. Seller agrees to secure proper cold storage for butter at cost of ⅛ cent per pound to buyer to Jan 1st, 1891.

(Sgd.) A. A. KENNARD & CO.,
D. GUNN, FLAVELLE & CO.

It will be noticed that the contract bears date of June 2nd. We have before us invoices for creamery butter from Isaac Wenger, of Ayton, Ontario, bearing date June 4th, 1890, at 19 cents per pound, and from A. Wark, Wanstead, at 17½ cents and 18 cents per pound—all at point shipment. The difference in prices between Chicago and Ontario thus ranged from 5 to 6½ cents per pound, enabling us to pay 4 cents per pound duty and compete with Canada butter.

As to quality, a member of our firm went to Chicago to examine the goods, and notwithstanding his impression before leaving our city that creamery butter could not be fine at such a price, was compelled against his own prejudice to acknowledge that in body and flavor it was right, and the contract was completed.

To satisfy ourselves as to the keeping quality of this butter, as compared to Ontario goods, we shipped a quantity of it to Toronto, paying a duty of 4 cents per pound upon it, stored it in our refrigerator, and with it placed a line of Mr. Wenger's June creamery. We examined the goods at stated periods until October, and neither at that date, nor during the interval, could we detect any difference in the quality of the Chicago and Ayton butter. We sold both of them to our best customers in the city at the same price.

Yours, etc.,
D. GUNN, FLAVELLE & CO.

Toronto, Feb. 21, 1891.

ENNISMORE.

Address and Presentation to Rev. Father Scollard.

Correspondence of the Review.

On Sunday, the 8th inst., the Rev. Father Scollard celebrated mass and preached in St. Martin's church, Ennismore, his native parish. This being the first opportunity the people had of giving outward expressions to their feelings of respect which they entertained for him, Mr. J. F. Sullivan stepped forward after the sermon and read the following address in behalf of the people of the parish, accompanied by a liberal offer of $100:

DEAR REV. FATHER,—It is with feelings of heartfelt gladness that we embrace this, the first opportune occasion afforded us, to express in the first place the respect and esteem which we have for you; and secondly, the gratitude we feel to God for the honor He has conferred on our parish.

We are here to bear to you the respect due you from the people of this parish, for we know full well the piety and zeal which actuated you to pursue your studies for so many years, so that you might be worthy to imitate the Saviour of mankind on earth and perform his work; and at the same time we wish to express our gratitude to that Saviour for endowing you with those rare qualities so necessary to a member of the holy priesthood, and for elevating you to the dignity of a priest of the Holy Catholic Church.

Words fail to express the devotion and gratitude we feel, when we think that this little parish of Ennismore has sent forth one of its sons to do battle for the faith of our fathers, and try to win souls from the demon of darkness and bring them to the abode of light and peace. More especially do we feel this when we know of the temptations to which the members of our church are exposed in this age of impiety, and of the necessity there is for men, zealous, eager and true, to qualify themselves, that they may be able to keep their children in the narrow way, and teach them to shun the broad road which leads to destruction.

And well we know, dear father, that through you Ennismore will do its part in this great church work; well we know that in you the Church of St. Patrick will find a valiant champion, one who will be fearless and unwavering in his duty, and who will never flinch to obey the call and perform the work of the Divine Master.

In years to come the fathers and mothers of Ennismore will point you out as a model to their sons and to them will say, "Go thou and do likewise." And we hope and trust that their words may bear fruit, that you may soon have worthy companions from the same little place; that the fathers and mothers of this parish may follow the example set by your worthy parents and send forth their sons to up hold the banner of Christianity.

In conclusion, we beg of you to accept this testimonial as a slight token of the reverence and homage we have in our hearts for you, hoping that God may shower his choicest blessings on your path to enable you to fulfil the divine mission you have undertaken, and that he may finally lead you to your reward in the bosom of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Signed on behalf of the congregation,
Richard Cosgrove, Michael Gannon,
Daniel Crough, John Conway,
James Twomey, John F. Sullivan.

REV. FATHER SCOLLARD said in reply that words failed to express his feelings of surprise and gratitude for the beautiful address and magnificent gift which they had given him. He assured them that he was greatly surprised when a short time ago he learned from their reverend pastor the reason why they had invited him to be present among them that day. We are always surprised, he said, when anything occurs for which we cannot render adequate and cogent reasons. Now, he said, he could find no reason why the people of Ennismore should pay him the flattering tribute they did on that occasion. Had he served among them as their pastor for a number of years, perhaps he would then have some claims on them; had he been the extraordinary person which they had pictured in their address perhaps also there would be a reason why they should do such things for him. He said he did not recognize himself in their address; that they knew him not, otherwise they would have so written; that, however, "by the grace of God he was what he was," and that by the grace of God he would endeavor to be the true, zealous and devoted priest whom they had spoken of in the address. He therefore was at a loss to discover a reason for what they had done.

He assured them also that it was a pleasure for him to come amongst them; he had spent his vacations always amongst them since he entered St. Michael's College in [illegible]; he made this church, at the instance of their pastor, the scene of his ordination, and consequently there were many reasons why it would be always a pleasure to him to come and visit them and their church.

He took this opportunity to thank those who had been instrumental in having everything so well arranged for his ordination. He thanked the young men for spending so much of their time and labor in decorating the church and its surroundings so beautifully; he thanked the members of the choir who had come so often at great personal inconvenience, to practise the necessary pieces; he thanked their reverend pastor, Father O'Connell, who had spared no pains in carrying out everything so perfectly. Their acquaintance had been short, and he consequently could not say why Father O'Connell should sacrifice so much for his sake. He felt, however, that their reverend pastor was actuated by a spirit of faith, and therefore considered not the speaker but the divine character of the Christian priesthood; which he (the speaker) so unworthily received, and hence too much honor could not be given to the occasion. The Rev. Father concluded by saying he should try and repay the people in some way, and, therefore, he would willingly come, whenever he could leave his post of duty in Peterborough, to assist their pastor in preaching and hearing their confessions. He then asked God's blessing upon them in the words of the Psalmist: "May God add upon you and you children."

THE CATTLE TRADE.

Practical Reasons Given Why Unrestricted Reciprocity Would Ruin It.

To the Editor of the Empire.

SIR,—I desire to call farmers attention to the following items in connection with the cattle trade. I have been all my life a feeder of cattle, and am interested in everything which affects the trade. From a farmer's standpoint I look with concern upon the effect which unrestricted reciprocity will have upon the industry.

I find that the general run of prices for stock cattle weighing from 875 to 950 pounds in Buffalo during the fall of 1890 showed a difference in favor of Toronto of from 85 cents to $1 per 100.

I have before me the prices for Chicago and Toronto, under date Feb. 19, 1891:

CHICAGO.

Stockers, 875 to 925 lbs. $2.85 to $3.15 per 100 lbs
Feeders, 1,050 to 1,100 lbs. 3.25 to 3.90 per 100 lbs

TORONTO.

Stockers, 875 to 925 lbs. $3 to $3 50 per 100 lbs
Feeders, 1,050 to 1,100 lbs. 4 to 4.50 per 100 lbs

I know personally of a buyer who, to day, is willing to take 500 to 1,000 steers, weighing from 1,000 to 1,100 pounds at $4 to $4 25 per hundred, to put on grass. With Chicago as above, would this price be possible if American cattle could come in free of duty?

Fat cows, 1,000 to 1,075, are quoted in Chicago, Feb. 19th, at $2 65 to $3 per hundred. If we had free trade now our farmers would be crowded out with these low prices. With present protection they have a better market than they possibly could have under Unrestricted Reciprocity.

Correspondence from Messrs. Baker & Williamson, Liverpool; Knott & Coonan, Liverpool; and John Swan & Sons, Glasgo, informs me that our Canadian cattle excel all others from any country for feeding purposes, and will be in greater demand. If, however, American cattle come into Canada freely in a short time, our country will be scheduled—this trade will have to cease altogether—then our fat cattle will have to be killed on arrival in any English or Scottish port as American cattle are at present, causing a loss of from $10 to $12 per head.

I have long believed that the Government ought to allow corn to be entered free of duty to feeders of cattle for export. I recognize there would be some difficulty in aranging the details of such a measure to prevent fraud, as there are farmers who do not feed a bullock who require protection for their oats and coarse grain against cheap corn. Still I am convinced it is the true policy and that some plan can be arranged to protect all parties.

I have been a Liberal in politics all my life—I am still a Liberal, but in the present contest I will support the Government in their trade policy, as I believe that Unrestricted Reciprocity would not be beneficial to our country.

Yours, etc.,
D. GUNN
(Of D. Gunn, Flavelle & Co).

A Symbol.

To the Editor of the Review

SIR,—In yesterday's Examiner's report of Hon. John Haggart's meeting in the Opera House, is this little bit of sarcasm, "One characteristic piece of symbolism was the hot house flower that adorned the stage—a symbol of infant industries that after thirteen years of protection cannot stand the sunshine of competition for three months." Well, Mr. Editor, in the first place there was no hot house flowers there at all, it must have been a mistake of the vision or brain, probably both. What I suppose led to this mistake was a fine collection of greenhouse plants that were used in the way of decoration.

But, sir, my reason for intruding on your valuable space is not a little trifling affair of this kind, but one of the greatest moment to every Canadian who would see his country grow and prosper. It is a question indeed that will allow of no trifling. When a neighboring Republic is desirous of getting its grip on the pulse of trade, searching like death for its heart strings, this, I say, is the time for every loyal, honest Canadian to stand his ground and say thus far and no farther shalt thou come. The writer of the above article in speaking of competition for "three months" is giving a fling at one of the speakers who said that if the free trade policy was ushered in the business he represented would be compelled to cease manufacturing inside of three months. This was certainly a very proper and business way to look at such a disaster to the trade of the country as would take place if we had free trade. Of course before this crash would come, if ever it does, the present orders would be about filled. Better a great deal cease manufacturing, discharge every man, close the doors and hold on to whatever capital they may possess until men again with reason and sound judgment fill our legislative halls.

Now, Mr. Editor, the Reformers were in the seats of power from the year 1873 until 1878. During all those years the country was in great distress. Business was prostrate and demoralized. Those who possessed a little ready cash could easily get all the way from ten to forty per cent. for the use of it. Now, why did not those Reformers, as they are self-styled, reform things a little? Did they do it? Nay, verily. History says nothing of reform in all those years until the great and wise National Policy was ushered in by Sir John Macdonald's Government. We hear a great deal of talk about hard times and difficulty of making collections and so on, comparing the present with the times that intervened between above years. Well, sure enough comparisons are odious, for on the right and left business men were failing. Some of the industries still here, at that time were tottering. The Auburn Woollen Mills had to close their doors. Our population was becoming depleted, and a complete state of despondency was coming over our people. And no doubt the N. P. has been a great factor in sending prosperity and new life into existing manufactories and creating new industries. So that our population has nearly doubled itself since the advent of the N. P. Your humble servant remembers with bitterest pangs the distress in those days. Being in need of two hundred dollars, and having a first-class name on my paper, I went into one of the banks here to have it discounted, but was told they were sorry but could not do it. Now, how is it today? With the same man's name I could obtain, if I wanted it, a thousand dollars or more.

This shows money can be had to day and that business is in a healthy condition, and that as a whole the country throughout is prosperous. Well, Mr. Editor, take it for granted that my business is an "infant." Still it is a healthy child, looks well, like as if it yet might pull through, can walk a little with the aid of a chair, can say a number of words such as "National Policy," "Canada Forever," "Canada for the Canadians," and such like. I believe if that child grows up it may be a credit to its birthplace. Well, well, let the infant alone, give it half a chance, and when full grown it will defy competition.

Yours truly,
FRANCIS MASON,
Father of the "Infant."

A Merited Retort.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—Your uptown contemporary, with his customary malignity, gives a partial list of those who were on the platform to hear the Hon. John Haggart on Tuesday night, and brings into special prominence three or four government officials. In the first place, who has better right to hear a member of the Government than its own servants? In the second place, how many of these officials, whose position the Examiner makes so prominent, are lifting a finger to help the Government in this fight? Contrast the action of the Conservative officials in this town with that of the Mowat Government officials. The latter, with two or three honorable exceptions, are to be found doing every kind of dirty work—going through the country after dark, mesmerizing voters with their—eloquence!

Nearly all the speakers the party has brought here to date draw pay from the Mowat Government; but the ostrich-like stupidity of the Examiner prevents it from seeing things one inch beyond its own columns.

Yours,
LAYMAN.

WORKINGMEN
ATTENTION!

Mass Meeting
—OF—WORKINGMEN
ON FRIDAY Ev'g. Next,
FEB. 27th,
IN THE OPERA HOUSE,
to hear an address in the interest of Mr. Stevenson, the Conservative Candidate, by MR. J. ARMSTRONG,
OF TORONTO,
who will discuss matters connected with the present issue now before the electors and which are of vital interest to every Workingman.

Those who heard the address by Mr. Jury are particularly requested to be present

Mr. Hall or his representative and Mr. Jury are invited to be present. Time will be allowed for discussion.

Reserved seats for Ladies.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN. 2447

MARRIED.

JINKS—MITCHELL—On Wednesday, Feb. 25th, at the residence of the bride's parents, by the Rev. Mr. Locke, Mr. BENJAMIN JINKS, to Miss SOPHRONIA MITCHELL.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. d16w4 6mo

"PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE"

parties still hold the boards. We have a lot of good playing cards at 25c. a pack, or 5 for $1.00. These are worth 40c. each.

SAILSBURY BROS.

DO YOU know that now is the time to select your suit for Spring? Never again will you have such an opportunity. The stock is new, the assortment complete, and we can devote more time to help you in making a selection, than later on. Select your pattern now and we shall keep it for you until required; many of our customers find it to their advantage to do this, so will you. It makes no difference whether you want it in a week or a month, you leave the order and we will do the rest. We warrant the goods, guarantee the style and give you an unquestionable fit. The furnishing department is filled with all the latest novelties and anything you require can be obtained from

T. DOLAN & Co.
Clothiers and Furnishers.

1891. 1891.

NEW DRESS GOODS!

Very Low in Price.

New Prints,
New Embroideries,
New Check Muslins,
New Wool Tweeds,
New Shirtings,
New Ginghams,
New Table Linens,
New Towelings,
New Flanelettes,
New Shirting Flannels,

Very Low in Price.

—AT—

THOS. KELLY'S.

20 pieces Double Fold Bleached Sheetings, Plain or Twilled, at 20c. per yard.
10 pieces Double Fold Grey Sheetings, Plain, at 15c. per yard.
5 Bales Grey Cotton (soiled) at 3c. per yard.

—AT—

THOS. KELLY'S, CORNER OF GEORGE AND SIMCOE-STS.

LeBRUN & Co's
Spring Announcement.

MR. LEBRUN has just returned home after a personal inspection in the best markets for Cloths and Clothing: We are satisfied you will be pleased to take a look through our New Stock of Spring Goods for 1891, and learn the splendid values we can offer you.

In Foreign and Canadian Cloths, we make a display of very fine goods, in the leading styles for the season.

We have also provided a large assortment of Spring and Summer Clothing of the newest styles, and best of all, at prices which will be found extremely moderate.

By a Special Purchase of West of England and Scotch Tweeds, we are in a position to make up pants, worth from $6.00 to $7.00 in the regular way, for the very low price of $4.50. We say it, and say it confidentially, that our range of Tweeds, Worsteds and Pantings can hardly be excelled.

The magnitude of our stock and lowness of prices gives us a great advantage. We carry in stock, all the fast selling lines, styles and patterns, and can fit all ages and sizes.

Special lines in Fine Spring Overcoats, and Fine, Spring and Summer Suits. Don't fail to see them. The superb styles, workmanship and the beautiful fabrics and patterns that we offer will surprise you.

Gentlemen of Peterborough seeking the latest styles and best values for their money as well as an opportunity of selecting from the largest stock of Furnishing Goods, should not fail to visit the

CITY CLOTHING STORE.

IN THE MARKET!

1.—I have sold out the City Hotel to Wm Clancy, in 19 minutes.
2.—I have sold out Faren & Co. Billiard Room etc., to Faren & Co. in 13 minutes.
3.—The Dry Goods Stock is in the Market. If there is any new blood for this offer call and see me. Want to dispose of it inside of 10 days.

I am off for Australia early next month.

I mean business. If the stock is too large can be reduced to $1,000 in 30 days.

JAMES DOLAN,
George Street, Peterborough.

HALL, INNES
& Co.
See our window of
NEW
EMBROIDERIES
Hall, Innes & Co.
100, 102 and 134 Simcoe-st.

The Daily Review.
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1891

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

BEER BETTER THEN GIN.

Gen. Booth Says it is More Strengthening and Less Heating.

BERLIN, Feb. 25.—Gen. Booth of the Salvation Army held a rousing meeting here this afternoon. Afterwards in conversation he remarked that from what he had seen of the lowest order of the German populace they were less utterly degraded than the English of the like class. The poorest people in Germany make some show of keeping up appearances, at least. The General thinks that beer is a better beverage for the poor than gin, being more strengthening and less heating. He gave great praise to German workmen's and women's colonies, which he intends to investigate by a special Salvation Army Commission.

THE BRITISH NAVY.

Lord Hamilton Asks for More Money to Build Vessels.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—The First Lord of the Admiralty, Lord George Francis Hamilton, in the annual statement of the naval estimates, issued to-day, calls for an increase of £398,000. He also gives a satisfactory account of the progress made with the new vessels, and of the large saving effected by the admiralty's insistance on the rapid building of warships instead of putting up with the old delays, which it was claimed were necessary to take advantage of the new ideas and fads of the time. Lord Hamilton, on the other hand, complains of the vagueness of the progress of the armaments for the new men-of-war and the inadequate provisions for mobilizing the reserves.

DOWN AN EMBANKMENT.

Wreck on the Pan Handle Railroad—Four Persons Killed and Several Others Fatally Injured.

RICHMOND, Ind., Feb. 25.—On the Richmond division of the Pan Handle Railway at Hagerstown this afternoon, a train was coming down a steep grade when the framework of the engine in charge of W. W. Bartlett, engineer, and Noah Dunn, fireman, broke and derailed every car. The cars caught fire, but the fire was quickly extinguished. The day coach and parlor car rolled over twice down a 16-foot embankment. The engine held the rails. The accident resulted in the death of four persons, two more being probably fatally injured and twenty more others more or less severely hurt. The killed are Conductor Case, O. F. Deal, maintenance engineer, Claim Agent Needham and A. M. Reeves, banker of this city. Fatally hurt: Mrs. G. McCrow and Mrs. J. C. Busim.

SWALLOWED A PIECE OF GLASS.

Death of a Woman Under Peculiar Circumstances.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Feb. 25.—Mrs. Sarah Weinert, wife of Conrad Weinert, the ex-Councilman of the Second Ward, died yesterday afternoon under peculiar circumstances. Two or three weeks ago Mrs. Weinert accidentally swallowed a piece of glass. In opening a jar of canned grapes a piece of the top, about an inch long and 1-16th of an inch wide, broke off at the top and was lost in the fruit and later formed part of a pie which Mrs. Weinert baked. Later she ate a piece of the pie and swallowed the glass, which lodged in her throat. A pus sac formed and produced blood-poisoning, from which Mrs. Weinert died.

Had His Coffin Measurement.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—James Owens, a traveling salesman, 60 years old, was found dead in his room in the Coleman House today, and his death was supposed to have been caused by apoplexy. Two days ago he showed to the hotel clerks a card on which was written his name and address and his measurement for a coffin. Owens lived in Milwaukee.

Burglars Foiled.

HENSALL, Feb. 25.—Burglars effected an entrance in McArthur & Co.'s private bank last night, endeavoring to drill the combination of the vault, but apparently the drill was broken before the drilling was completed. They then resorted to the smashing of the hinges and combination of the vault, but were unsuccessful in opening the same, although severely damaging the vault.

Fatal Hunger.

CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—"Gimme a cup of coffee and some steak; be lively, too." This was the order which a middle-aged man, dressed very plainly and having a hungry look in his eye, gave to a drowsy waiter in the Climax restaurant, No. 302 State-street, yesterday morning at 1 o'clock. A few moments later his meal was set steaming hot before him. Like a ravenous wolf he began to bolt the meal. At the second bite he slid from his chair to the floor, his eyes bulging from their sockets. He was unconscious before any assistance could be given him and a minute later was dead. Investigation disclosed the fact that the man had died from strangulation, a large piece of the steak being found in his throat. He was about 40 years of age, had a brown beard and wore dark, plain clothes.

Blank Deeds, Blank Mortgages, Blank Transfers, House and Land Leases, etc., on hand at the REVIEW Stationery.

The Two Toronto Murders.

TORONTO, Feb. 26.—The coroner's jury in the case of Christopher McGrain charged with the murder of Jane Harding returned a verdict of wilful murder against the accused at 2.30 this morning.

How John Wright met his death at Little York on Saturday is still as great a mystery as ever. The coroner's jury did not return a verdict until 3.30 yesterday morning and it is to the effect that Wright died from a fracture of the skull, but how the fracture was caused cannot be determined from the evidence. James Chapman, who was arrested on Monday, is still in custody.

A man named Watkins, employed by Ice Dealer John Graham to cut ice from Small's pond, met with a painful accident yesterday afternoon. He fell in front of the ice-roller and was badly crushed, his right leg being snapped in two places. Dr. Burgess was called in and relieved the sufferer, after which he was conveyed to his residence in Queen street east.

A meeting of the creditors of Boyd Bros. & Co., the insolvent wholesale drygoods merchants, was held yesterday afternoon in the office of Assignee Ferguson. Mr. Tilden, president of the Canadian Cotton Company, occupied the chair, and there were about 100 creditors present. The meeting was harmonious throughout.

Mr. Alexander Boyd explained the position of the firm. He had worked hard for 23 years endeavoring to build up the business. They had been moderately successful, but owing to the great losses sustained through bad debts their capital had disappeared. The statement showed a deficiency of $30,000.

Mr. Lash, Q.C., representing the insolvents, stated that in view of the large number of creditors, it would be practically impossible to make an offer of composition which would secure the debtors their discharge.

There were then appointed inspectors, under whose direction the assignee will wind up the estate: Messrs. Angus, Macintosh, Tilden, Cassels, Lockhart.

Men Must Have Some Occupation.

Take away the occupation of men, and what a wretched world we will have. Half of it would commit suicide in less than ten days. Man must continually keep the physical, moral and intellectual currents going. A stream that does not move soon begins to stagnate. Hence the secret for happiness for man is work—some congenial occupation. The man who is incapacitated for work through illness, soon wearies and frets, and he longs for restored health that he may resume his daily toils. Honest healthful toil will certainly prove conducive to true pleasure, vitality and long life. In some callings of life, it is not always the amount of labor done that over-taxed a man and unfits him to enjoy life and health; it is, in the majority of cases, mental worry and brain work; the continued strain of mind and nerves; the ambition for wealth, power, position and fame, which breaks down the constitution. It is to this class our remarks are especially directed; to those who suffer from nervousness, tired brain, insomnia, irritability, headaches, dyspepsia, mental depression, weak muscles and bad digestion. These troubles result from overwork, worry, hurry and bustle and improper physical exercise. For such victims Paine's Celery Compound is the great renovator and restorer. If new power, force and life are to be found, it must come through the use of this valuable Compound, prepared especially for these ailments. Medical skill has never attempted or achieved results that Paine's Celery Compound can give. It works safely, surely and quickly in the restoration of perfect health and strength.

Anson for Cincinnati.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 25.—John I. Rogers returned from Chicago Tuesday full of the doings of the National Board of Control, and still much disgusted at the American Association people for withdrawing from the National agreement. He says he feels confident that there will be a grand scramble of the Association clubs to get in out of the wet before the March meetings, but in case it proves otherwise the National League will carry on the war with great vigor. He declares that there will be a League club in Cincinnati managed by A. C. Anson in case the Association people succeed in holding the present Cincinnati team. But he doubts very much Al Johnson's ability to carry out his Cincinnati threats. Mr. Rogers says League men have $21,500 in the Cincinnati team, and since the club cost but $40,000 he considers that a controlling interest.

SHILOH'S
CONSUMPTION
CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. All druggists are authorised to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are placing a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have a Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup, or Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

SURPRISE
SURPRISE
EVERY-WOMAN
St. Croix Soap M'f'g. Co.
St. Stephen, N. B.
SOAP

TURKISH
DYES
EASY TO USE.
They are Fast.
They are Beautiful.
They are Brilliant.

SOAP WON'T FADE THEM.

Have YOU used them; if not, try and be convinced.

One Package equal to two of any other make.

Canada Branch: 481 St. Paul Street, Montreal.
Send postal for Sample Card and Book of Instructions.

TO THE ELECTORS

OF THE

East Riding

OF THE

COUNTY OF PETERBOROUGH.

GENTLEMEN;—Parliament having been dissolved, the present Government appeal again to the people for a renewal of confidence and an approval of the policy of the administration. I have been chosen to contest the Riding in the interests of the Liberal Conservative Party, and I have accepted the nomination and now solicit your support.

The principal question to be decided is as to our trade relations with the United States, whether, as advocated by the Opposition, we shall adopt such a policy as will practically leave us free to trade only with the United States to the exclusion of Great Britain and other countries, or whether we shall, as advocated by Sir John Macdonald, adopt such a policy, as while dealing with the United States in fair and equitable terms and not to the exclusion of Great Britain, will preserve our nationality and enable us still to remain an integral portion of the British Empire.

I am opposed to the policy of the Opposition, as, in my opinion, it simply means annexation to the United States. As an advocate of the views of the Government I appeal to you. The time is so short before the Polling day that I will not be able to personally see all the electors, but I hope to meet most of you at the several meetings which I shall hold throughout the Riding to discuss the questions at issue.

JOHN BURNHAM.

Ashburnham, February 18th, 1891. w7t

FOR MEN ONLY!
VIGOR STRENGTH
For LOST or FAILING MANHOOD; General and NERVOUS DEBILITY; Weakness of Body and Mind, Effects of Errors or Excesses in Old or Young. Robust, Noble MANHOOD fully Restored. How to enlarge and strengthen WEAK, UNDEVELOPED ORGANS & PARTS OF BODY. Absolutely unfailing HOME TREATMENT—Benefits in a day. Men testify from 50 States and Foreign Countries. Write them. Descriptive Book, explanation and proofs mailed (sealed) free. Address ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N. Y.

SELLING AT REDUCED PRICES

We are offering our Stock of Manufactured Furs at cost, previous to stock taking. The stock comprises a choice assortment of Ladies' and Gents fine Fur Collars, Cuffs, Capes, Caps, Gauntlets and Coats. Also a few Musk Ox, Bear, Oppossum and Goat Robes.

CALL AND BE CONVINCED.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.
Manufacturing Furriers.

PACKING HOUSE STORE!

For a Choice Selection of
Smoked Sugar Cured Meats and Bacon
LARD, guaranteed pure, in any quantity.
GEORGE MATTHEWS
356 George Street, Peterborough.

—ONTARIO—
Planing Mills!

Planing, Matching, Mouldings, Band Sawing & Turning, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Storm Sash.

JAMES Z. ROGERS.

Choicest Brands
—OF—
FLOUR!
BAKERS and PASTRY
—AT—
MELDRUM & DAVIDSON'S
Quality Guaranteed.
FEED:
All kinds always on hand. Orders left at Ormond & Walsh's or McDonald's drug stores will be promptly attended to.
Mill Telephone No. 196.
LOWEST PRICES FOR CASH.

D. BELLEGHEM,
Issuer of Mariage Licenses,
PETERBOROUGH.

CAKES!
For a Good Cake, leave your orders at
Long Bros.
Also home-made cakes iced and nicely Ornamented. Wedding Breakfasts and Evening Parties Catered for. Oyster Patties made to order. Our stock of Candies is pure and made by ourselves.
No. 286 and 414 George-st.

HAGGART & KIDD,
TOWN and COUNTY } Auctioneers,
COMMISSION and SHIPPING } Merchants,
REAL ESTATE and INSURANCE } Agents.

☞ Money to Loan.

GEO. B. SPROULE,
ARTIST & PHOTOGRAPHER
GROUND FLOOR,
170 Charlotte-st. . . . . . Peterborough.
FRAMES & PICTURE MOULDINGS.

UNION CREDIT & PROTECTION
ASSOCIATION.
FOR the Collection of Old and Worthless Accounts, in any part of the world, and no charges if not collected. This Association has local offices in Canada and United States. Head and general office, 84 Adelaide-st. East, Toronto. Rooms, 10, 11, 12 and 13. O. E. COLLINS, General Manager; & H. B. ANDREWS, Sec. Address all communications to Toronto, Ont., office. Telephone No. 2463. This is the only Association that settles accounts and advances the money to the creditor if desired.
O. E. COLLINS,
DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON, Manager
Solicitors for the Association at Peterborough.
August 29th, 1890. 451 w

TOOLS!
BUILDING HARDWARE!
NAILS, LOCKS, HINGES,
and all Building Hardware
Edge Tools, Saws, Files, Planes
and all Mechanics' Tools.
Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc., etc.
of the Best Quality and Lower in Price than Elsewhere
GEO. STETHEM.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING
EPPS'S COCOA
BREAKFAST.
"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.
Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins, by grocers, labelled thus:
JAMES EPPS & CO. Homœopathic Chemists, London, England. w26-664-6m

Travel.

INTERCOLONIAL
RAILWAY OF CANADA.

The direct route between the west and all points on the Lower St. Lawrence and Baie de Chaleur, Province of Quebec, also New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward, Cape Breton and the Magdalene Islands, Newfoundland and St. Pierre.

Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax daily (Sunday excepted) and run through without change between these points in 30 hours.

The through express train cars of the Intercolonial Railway are brilliantly lighted by electricity and heated by steam from the locomotive.

New and elegant Buffet Sleeping and Day Cars are run on all through express trains.

The popular summer sea bathing and fishing resorts of Canada are along the Intercolonial or are reached by that route.

Canadian, European Mail and Passenger Route.

Passengers for Great Britain or the Continent leaving Montreal on Thursday morning will join outward mail steamer at Rimouski the same evening.

The attention of shippers is directed to the superior facilities offered by this route for the transport of flour and general merchandise intended for the Eastern Provinces and New Foundland, also for shipments of grain and produce intended for the European market.

Tickets may be obtained and all information about the route, also freight and passenger rates on application to

N. WEATHERSTON,
Western Freight and Passenger Agent, 93 Rossin House Block, York street, Toronto.
D. POTTINGER,
Chief Superintendent.
Railway Office, Moncton, N.B., 2nd July, 1890 ly

CANADIAN PACIFIC RY.
SETTLERS' TRAINS
WILL LEAVE ON FEBRUARY 24th, 1891
AT 9.00 P.M.
AND EVERY TUESDAY THEREAFTER
DURING MARCH AND APRIL
WITH COLONIST SLEEPER ATTACHED
FOR
MANITOBA AND THE
CANADIAN NORTH-WEST

For full information and descriptive pamphlets of Manitoba, the North West Territories and British Columbia. Apply to any C. P. R. Agent.

Carbon Gaslight
A RIVAL TO DAYLIGHT!
A new and Brilliant Illuminating Power—Clear, Steady and Mellow. Specially suited for Stores and large Buildings, Machine Shops, &c.
A saving of 30 to 40 per cent. on gas can be effected by this new light
See it Burning at the Store of
J. E. NOBLE & Co.
287 George-st. South.
TELEPHONES.—Bell No. 181, Ontario No. 156.

BANK of TORONTO
Capital $2,000,000 00
Reserve Fund 1,500,000 00
PETERBORO' BRANCH.
SAVINGS BANK
SPECIAL ADVANTAGES are derived by depositing money in our Savings Bank Department.
1. "ONE DOLLAR saved is one dollar earned."
2. DEPOSITS of ONE DOLLAR and upwards are received and interest allowed thereon.
3. INTEREST is added to the principal on the 31st day of May and 30th day of November, in each year.
4. MONEY bears interest from the day it is deposited with the Bank until the day of withdrawal.
5. THE DEPOSITOR is subject to no delay whatever.
6. THE SECURITY offered by this Bank is undoubted, as will be seen by the large reserve held and the amount of surplus available for depositors and note holders.
BUSINESS WITH FARMERS.
FARMERS' NOTES discounted at lowest rates.
SPECIAL ATTENTION is given to the collection of Farmers' Sale Notes, and advances made thereon.
NOTE FORMS furnished free of charge on application.
DEPOSITS.
DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS opened subject to withdrawal by cheque on demand.
SPECIAL DEPOSITS.—Deposit Receipts issued bearing interest at current rates.
JOHN L. GOWER,
d118-w17 Manager

MULHOLLAND & ROPER
BANKERS AND INSURANCE AGENTS
Banking Department.
Deposit Accounts opened and Notes discounted at short dates or for twelve months if required. Special attention given to the purchase and collection of Farmers' Sale Notes. Drafts drawn on Merchants Bank of Canada payable in New York, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and at any of its Branches in the Dominion. Cheques on other Banks cashed.
Four to Five per cent. allowed on deposits repayable on demand.
BANKING HOURS.—9 30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m
Insurance Department.
MR. FELIX BROWNSCOMBE is a partner in and manager of this department.
Careful attention given to Fire, Accident and Plate Glass Insurance.
The following companies are represented:—
London and Lancashire, City of London, Phoenix of Brooklyn, Caledonian, Royal Canadian, Agricultural, Montreal Plate Glass, Mutual Accident and Plate Glass, and Norwich and London Accident.
OFFICE HOURS.—9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

JOHN NUGENT,
CHEMIST AND DRUGGIST.
Prescriptions Carefully Compounded.
Try Nugent's Remedies for Colds, Coughs and affections of the chest and throat.
J. NUGENT,
Drug Store, 170 Hunter-st. west.

Medical.

DR. SCOTT.
OFFICE—176 Brock-st. d130w21

P. D. GOLDSMITH, M. D.
L. R. C., L. S. A., L. R. C. P., London, Eng.
HAS permanently located in Peterborough. Office and residence, 136 Brock-st., formerly occupied by Mr. J. B. McWilliams.
TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d47-w35-ly

D. M. CARMICHAEL, M. D.,
C. M., L. R. C. P. Ed.
GRADUATE OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY, Fellow of Trinity Medical School, Licentiate of Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh, L. M. of Simpson's Maternity Hospital, Edinburgh. Office in Mr. Alexander's new residence one door north of the late Dr. O'Sullivan's, George-st. d2m25-wyr26

DR. B. E. McKENZIE, B. A.
Lecturer on Orthopedic Surgery in the Women's Medical College, and in Toronto University; Consulting Orthopedic surgeon to Victoria Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto.
Diseases of the Joints and Deformities Only
Bloor-st. W. (near Yonge-st.) Toronto, Consultation from 10 to 3. On Friday and Saturday by appointment only.
Will be at the Grand Central Hotel, Peterborough, March 14th, next.

DR. MOHER,
HAS removed to 214 Hunter-st., opposite Marble Works. Office upstairs.

Legal.

HATTON & WOOD.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office, corner of George and Hunter-sts., over T. Dolan & Co's. store. MONEY TO LOAN.
E. B. WOOD, B. A. G. W. HATTON.

SAWERS & STONE.
BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyances, &c. Office, Hunter-st., Peterborough.
☞MONEY TO LOAN.
E. B. STONE, d168-w31 C. W. SAWERS.

POUSSETTE & JOHNSTON,
BARRISTERS and SOLICITORS, 379 Water-st.
A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C. W. F. JOHNSTON.

EDWARD A. PECK.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, etc., 332 George-st., Peterborough.
Private Funds to loan at 6 per cent.

HALL & HAYES.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter-st., Peterborough next English church. Money to loan at lowest rates of interest.
E. H. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN O'MEARA.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, &c. Office 383 George-st. d-w

JOHN BURNHAM.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office: No. 413 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont., next door north of new post office.
MONEY TO LOAN. d&w

W. H. MOORE,
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter-sts., over McClelland's Jewellery store. d115w18

G. M. ROGER.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water-st., Peterborough. d37w

DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES. Money to Loan. Office, 417 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont.
ARTHUR STEVENSON, B. A.
R. M. DENNISTOUN, M. A.

STRATTON & HALL.
BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, &c., Peterborough, Ont. Office:—Next door to Post Office on Hunter-st.
W. A. STRATTON, LL. B. R. R. HALL.
d128

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS.
SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS, Office Post Office Block, Peterborough. wd37

J. E. BELCHER.
ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George-st. d76w41

Builders and Contractors

E. WEBB,
BRICKLAYER AND CONTRACTOR. All work done substantially and expeditiously. Address E. WEBB, Peterborough. Residence, 286 Aylmer-st. lyd128

J. J. HARTLEY.
BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale, Materials furnished. P. O. Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer-sts. lyd169

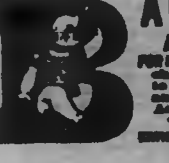
WM. H. McELWAIN.
CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 82. d109

W. R. WHITEHAIR.
PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 586, Peterborough P.O. d85-lyr

JAS. R. DONELL.
RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being a practical man, he trusts to be able to give patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.
yd23 JAS. R. DONELL.

Big G is acknowledged the leading remedy for Gonorrhœa & Gleet. The only safe remedy for Leucorrhœa or Whites. I prescribe it and feel safe in recommending it to all sufferers.
A. J. STONER, M. D., Decatur, Ill.
Cures in 1 to 5 DAYS. Guaranteed not to cause Stricture. Mf'd only by The Evans Chemical Co. TORONTO, CAN.
Sold by Druggists. PRICE $1.00.
G. A. SCHOFIELD, Agt., Peterborough d 20-ly

THE
CENTRAL CANADA
Loan and Savings Co.
Authorized Capital $5,000,000
Subscribed Capital 2,000,000
Paid-up Capital 300,000
Reserve Fund 150,000
Invested Funds 2,373,133.37
OFFICE—No. 437, George-st., Peterborough.
DEPOSITS received at current rates of interest, paid or compounded half-yearly.
DEBENTURES issued in Currency or Sterling, with interest coupons attached, payable in Canada or in England. Executors and Trustees are authorized by law to invest in the Debentures of this Company.
MONEY ADVANCED on Real Estate security at current rates and on favorable conditions as to repayment.
Mortgages and Municipal Debentures purchased.
GEO. A. COX,
d36w8 Managing Director.



ARAVENA
MILK FOOD
FOR INFANTS is the safest, cheapest and nearest to Mothers' Milk of any Food made. Ask your Druggist.
THE IMPERIAL FOOD CO. L'D. TORONTO

For You!
Reduction in prices of all Cloths. Suits and Overcoats to order for less money than ever to clear out the balance of winter stock.
Order now.
D. CAMERON & Co.
Tailors and Clothiers, 434 George-st.

If YOU WISH
TO Advertise
Anything
Anywhere
AT Any time
WRITE TO
GEO. P. ROWELL & CO.
No. 10 Spruce Street,
NEW YORK.

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE.

February 1st. 1891.

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
5 30 a m 6 00 p m	Montreal and East, via O. & Q. R.	11 00 a m 6 00 p m
11 30 a m 11 30 p m	Toronto and West, via O. & Q. R.	5 15 p m 9 00 p m
	Grand Trunk, East & West	1 00 p m
	do East	1 30 p m
12 00 a m 5 00 p m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west.	6 00 a m 4 30 p m
8 20 a m 5 15 p m	Millbrook and Port Hope. do do	11 15 a m 5 30 p m
8 35 a m 4 00 p m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings	1 00 p m
	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	11 15 a m
10 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Bouitain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clydale, Paudash and Chedder, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.	7 30 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily.	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Greystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays
	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do do	4 00 p m
	British Mails per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	9 00 p m
	Per New York, Mondays.
	Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia
12 noon	[illegible] C. P. R.	4 30 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, Germany, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Iceland, the Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Australia, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbados, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings Bank, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxemburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania, Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey. And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before. Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil British Guinea, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Porto Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books, &c., 4c for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.

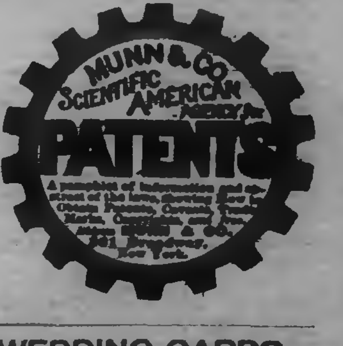
West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Payment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents.

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents. H. C. ROGERS, Post-Master

Bell Telephone Co.,
OF CANADA.
Capital, - - $1,500,000.00.
Head Office, MONTREAL.
AND. ROBERTSON, — President.
C. F. SISE, — Vice-Pres. and Man'g. Dir.
C. P. SCLATER, Secy.-Treas.
HUGH C. BAKER, Man., Ont. Dep., Hamilton.
300 EXCHANGES.
Long distance lines give unequalled facilities for talking between cities, towns and villages.
If you wish to speak to Kingston, Belleville, Port Hope, Lindsay, Lakefield, Millbrook, Omemee, Toronto, Hamilton, etc., use the Wires of the
BELL TELEPHONE Co.
H. W. KENT,
dd-6mo Local Manager



MUNN & CO.
SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN AGENCY for
PATENTS
A pamphlet of information and abstract of the laws, showing How to Obtain Patents, Caveats, Trade Marks, Copyrights, sent free.
Address MUNN & CO.
361 Broadway,
New York.

WEDDING CARDS.
LATEST STYLES AT THE
Review Stationery Store.

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XXV.—No. 49. PETERBOROUGH, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1891. TEN CENTS A WEEK

Probabilities.
Fresh to strong west to north winds; fair weather; lower temperature.

Carpets!

New arrivals of Carpets speak eloquently in favor of the

Matchless Beauty

and elegance of design thrown into this season's weave.

Our stock will be complete in every way and in placing prices on the different lines we've started out with the determination to give the Best Value to be found. Let this fact mingle with your thoughts on house-cleaning.

17,500 Yards
—OF—
NEW PRINTS and SATEENS
Received already.

Mistress Fashion has prescribed such pretty patterns for the coming season.

Be assured we'll keep up our reputation in these line.

ROBERT FAIR,
Sign of the Golden Lion,
383 George Street, Peterborough.
Ontario (144 and Bell Telephone (145)

KID GLOVES! KID GLOVES!

W. W. JOHNSTON
has just received a complete assortment of Black and Colored Kid Gloves
at 50c. per pair.
The [illegible] market at the Price.

SPECIAL VALUE IN
Bed Room Towels and Kitchen Towelling.
Call and see our
ART MUSLIN
at 15c. per yard.
CRYSTAL BLOCK
410 George-st.

Musical.

ORGAN, PIANOFORTE and SINGING
DR. DAVIES,
Organist of St. John's church, late of Christ Church Cathedral and of St. James's Cathedral, Toronto, receives pupils at his residence, 46 McDonnel-st. At home each day from 9 till 10 a. m. and from 2 till 3 p. m. to make engagements, etc. d69-1m

---

Wood and Coal.

COAL AND WOOD.

THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.
W. B. FERGUSON,
Telephone Connection. Agent

COAL! COAL!

THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of
COAL AND WOOD,
which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
d&w JAMES STEVENSON.

PETERBOROUGH WATER CO.
Office - - 24 Hunter-st.
W. HENDERSON, Superintendent
F. ADAMS, Collector.
All water rates and accounts must be paid at the office. Mr. Adams will be in the office from 2 to 5 p.m., every day

Awnings. Tents. and Sails.

ALFRED KINGSCOTE has opened out in Dumbell's Block, on Water-st, opposite the market, where he is prepared to do all kinds of Awning, Tent and Sail making. Good Work and Low Prices. Remember the place
A. KINGSCOTE,
No. 344 Water-st.
d88-1yr

SAWS Filed and Gummed in First Class Style. Knives, Scissors, Tools, &c., ground and sharpened. E. W. ENGLISH, shop, [illegible] Charlotte-st. d1s-wly

---

For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE,
A QUANTITY OF PAPER CUTTINGS and shavings. Apply at REVIEW Office.

TO LET.
Store and Dwelling
No. 281 George-st., now occupied by J.J. Turner. Good stand for grocery and boarding house. STORE and DWELLING No. 285 George-st. DWELLING HOUSES No. 18 Hunter-st., and 18 and 20 Queen-st. JOHN J. LUNDY. dif

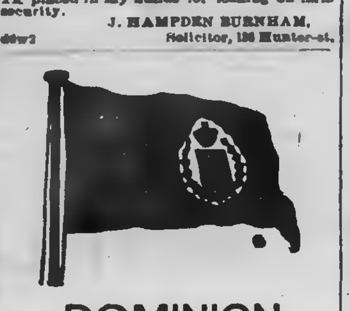
REMOVAL.
DR. CARMICHAEL
has removed to his new office and residence, corner of Water and Brock sts., (opposite the Court House. d168-w52-3mo

A. CLEGG,
Funeral Director.
Ware rooms, - - 427 George-st.
Residence, - 16 Benson-st.
S. CLEGG, Residence, 285 Stewart street. Telephone.

EDWIN ELCOME,
TAXIDERMIST
and Dealer in Eyes, Artificial Leave and Frostings.
BIRDS, ANIMALS, FISH and SNAKES Stuffed and Mounted in and out of cases in the best lifelike style at lowest prices. DEER'S HEADS a specialty. A stock of foreign and native birds always on hand for sale.
Residence, No. 176 Harvey-st., Peterborough d17-wea-ly

CLARK & GIBSON
have now on view and for sale some
VERY FINE GOODS
—CONSISTING OF—
Gold and Silver Watches, Clocks and Fine Jewellery, etc.
Moderate in Price and Newest Patterns.
Ask to see their
English Oak Goods
AND
SCOTCH PEBBLE JEWELLERY
RARE, CHOICE AND BEAUTIFUL.
WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELLERY carefully repaired.
136 Hunter-st., 2 doors west of the PostOffice.

MONEY TO LOAN.
A LARGE amount of private funds has been placed in my hands for loaning on farm security.
J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM,
d&w2 Solicitor, 136 Hunter-st.



DOMINION ELECTIONS!
West Riding of Peterborough.
MR. STEVENSON'S
Committee Rooms
OLD COUNCIL CHAMBER,
OPERA HOUSE BLOCK.
Open Every Evening. All Liberal Conservatives and Citizens wishing to maintain the present Government are invited to meet at the Rooms in the interests of the Conservative Candidate.
W. H. MOORE,
Pres. Lib.-Con. Ass'n
W. J. MINORE,
Sec. Lib.-Con. Ass'n

LADIES' JERSEYS
In all the Leading Styles at Lowest Prices at
PORT HOPE KNITTING WORKS
382 George-st.

"Harvard"
"Harvard Bronchial Syrup has been used in my family with very great success and I have pleasure in recommending it to those who suffer from coughs as one of the best and most efficacious remedies." Rev. Thos. Harris, Ormstown, Que.

ATTENTION! is wanted drawn to the FACT that the following
PLUMS
are for a few days offered at
J. C. Turnbull's

A Splendid
Ladies Jacket at $3 00 worth $4.50
" " " 3.50 " 5.00
" " " 4 00 " 6.00
" Newmarket 10.00 " 17.00
Line of Gossamers at Cost.
Line of Felt Hats at 25c. worth $1.00

We have also received and passed into stock the following New Goods marked down at
PANIC PRICES:
New Boys Sailor Caps at 45 and 50c
New Boys Spring Felt Hats at 35, 40 and 75c.
White and Colored Embroideries.
Ladies Spring Jackets and Mantles

A Magnificent Range of New Black Dress Goods in Sebastapool, Crepe, Cashmere and Henrietta Cloths. The finest range of Prints, Drillets and Sateens in the market, in about 400 different patterns.

NEW GLOVES,
NEW HOSIERY,
NEW CORSETS,
NEW RIBBONS.

No trouble to show goods. Call, examine, learn prices and be convinced that is the place for bargains in all that is New and Fashionable.
TURNBULL'S

HALL, INNES & Co.
See our window of
NEW EMBROIDERIES
Hall, Innes & Co.
130, 132 and 134 Simcoe-st.

CHANGE OF BUSINESS
I beg to announce to my late customers that I have sold out my business to Messrs. Hilliard & Peplow, and would bespeak for them the same support as you have accorded me.
C. N. BROWN.

ANNOUNCEMENT.
For some time past we have thought that a strictly cash business in Flour, Feed and Provisions could be successfully carried on in Peterborough, and to test this question we have purchased the above business from Mr C. N. Brown, who will still continue as manager, in Flavelle's Old Stand, Simcoe st.

In order to be successful we intend to make it the interest of every one to pay cash with order by selling at wholesale prices.

We will positively give no credit and cash customers will not have to keep up the losses made by others on the credit system.

We will keep a full supply of
FLOUR, FEED, CHOP, Etc.,
and our customers need not fear that the quality of the goods will be lowered to make up for the reduction in prices.

We are simply giving them the benefit of the margin necessary to cover losses and interest charges incurred in the credit system.

Goods delivered to any part of the town or Ashburnham.

Hilliard & Peplow.
Telephones,—Bell 36, Ontario 112. d46-tf.

MR. SHELDRAKE'S
Private
PREPARATORY SCHOOL,
FOR BOYS,
LAKEFIELD, ONTARIO.

Do
Do you
Do you buy
Do you buy Dry
Do you buy Dry Goods!

Perhaps
Perhaps you
Perhaps you do.

Look
Look for
Look for our
Look for our Opening.

On
On next
On next Saturday.

New
New Store,
New Store, Stock,
New Store, Stock, Prices,

365
365 George
365 George Street.

O.
O. C.
O. C. ROWSE. d44-w9

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1891.

A SCENE AT A HANGING.

THE MURDERER STABBED HIMSELF SHORTLY BEFORE.

And He Had to be Carried to the Scaffold Strapped to a Board—Horrible Scene of Torture—The Dying Man Fought Like a Maniac.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—West, who was hanged to-day, made an attempt at suicide this morning while the death watch were changing. After stabbing himself he became [illegible]. Physicians were unable to restore consciousness [illegible] to 2.31 p.m. when he was hanged his condition had not greatly changed. He was strapped to a board and carried to the scaffold. At 2.33 the trap was sprung and the rope broke. The murderer was in terrible distress and it took five men to hold him, though manacled.

At 2.40 the rope was strung up again, and this time it was successful. At 2.48 West was pronounced dead. The hanging and the horrible occurrences connected with it created great excitement.

TORONTO TOPICS.

TORONTO, Feb. 27.—County Constable Tidsbury of Little York made an important arrest yesterday afternoon, in connection with the mystery surrounding the death of James Wright, whose body was found on such suspicious circumstances in the village on Sunday morning last.

The man under arrest is John Martin, 48 years old.

On the afternoon previous to the murder Martin and deceased were seen knocking around the village drinking freely.

The annual meeting of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario was held in the office of Mr. Moor, Colborne and Yonge-streets, yesterday afternoon. Mr. W. H. Cross, 1st vice-president, occupied the chair.

These officers were elected: H. W. Eddis, Toronto, president; J. W. Johnson, Belleville, 1st vice-president; Hugh Scott, Toronto, 2nd vice-president; council, Henry Lye, J. H. Menzies, E. R. C. Clarkson, J. M. Martin, George Edwards, A. C. Neff, W. McCabe, J. T. Moore, W. H. Cross, R. T. Coady, John Hague, W. H. Barber, R. H. Tomlinson, Toronto; G. F. Jewell, London; W. F. Findlay, J. J. Mason, A. G. Ramsay, Hamilton; F. S. Sharpe, St. John, N.B. Messrs. P. Corrido and S. G. Beatty were appointed auditors.

These were elected members: Messrs. G. W. Johnson, Hamilton; D. Eagleson, Lindsay; Walter and W. B. Galbraith, Glasgow, Scotland; W. S. Andrews, J. T. Williams, A. M. Campbell, A. Tephcott, A. E. C. May.

The Accident to Mr. McNeill.

TARA, Feb. 26.—The Conservative candidate for North Bruce, Mr. Alexander McNeill of Wiarton, was unable to be present at the nomination to-day. Yesterday the sleigh in which Mr. McNeill was driving slewed around and Mr. McNeill was thrown out, fracturing his leg. He now lies in a farmhouse some seven miles from here.

Carroty Nell's Funeral.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—The city to-day was the scene of a most remarkable spectacle in the funeral of the Coles woman, otherwise known as "Carroty Nell," whose murder created such excitement. The woman, who could not have mustered half a dozen friends before the tragedy, was followed to the grave by an enormous multitude of mourners. The woman's coffin was deluged with flowers.

Sir John is Unwell.

KINGSTON, Feb. 26.—Sir John Macdonald spoke twice in Lennox yesterday. He returned to the city during the night. Hon. Dr. Sullivan was called this morning and found the Premier quite unwell. His voice has entirely left him. The senator ordered absolute rest and positively declined to be responsible should he leave the hotel to-day. The labors of the past two weeks are said to have fatigued him very much.

Taps From the Telegraph.

Col. Smith Russell's five story brick block at Minneapolis was destroyed by fire yesterday morning together with the brick building adjoining. Russell's building was valued at $65,000.

H. H. Hurd of New York has been appointed consul at Clifton, Ont.

The death is announced at Warsaw of the Baroness de Kronenberg, who, under the name of Mlle. Josephine de Reszke, is so well known on the operatic stage.

William M. Fullerton, Q.C., of Amherst, N.S., brother-in-law of Sir Charles Tupper, died at St. John, N.B., yesterday.

THE NOMINATIONS.

EIGHT CANDIDATES ELECTED BY ACCLAMATION.

The Tories Claim Six of the Number—Hon. Wilfred Laurier Elected in Quebec East—Sir Donald Smith Opposed in Montreal West ELECTED BY ACCLAMATION.

Ministerialists.

JONCAS (Gaspe, Que.)
VAILLANCOURT (Dorchester, Que.)
GORDON (Vancouver, B.C.)
MARA (Yale, B.C.)
LARIVIERE (Provencher, Man.)
TYRWHITT (S. Simcoe, Ont.)

Opposition.

LAURIER (Quebec, East.)
RINFRET (Lotbiniere, Que.)

Ontario.

Constituency.	Ministerial.	Opposition.
Addington	Bell	Dawson
Algoma	Macdonell	Burk
Bothwell	Langford	Mills. McLarty (P.)
Brant, North	Hamilton	Summerville
Brant, South	Cox	Paterson
Brockville	Wood	Derbyshire
Bruce, North	McNeill	Bonnar
Bruce, East	Cargill	Truax
Bruce, West	Morrison	Rowand
Cardwell	White. Stubbs (Ind)	Myers
Carleton	G. L. Dickinson Hodgins (Ind)
Cornwall and Stormont	Bergin	Snetsinger
Dundas	Ross	Johnston
Durham, East	Craig	Grandy (E. R.)
Durham, West	Blackstock	Beith
Elgin, East	Ingham	Wilson
Elgin, West	McLean	Casey
Essex, North	Patterson	McGregor
Essex, South	Wigle	Allen
Frontenac	Kirkpatrick	Clyde
Glengarry	McLennan	Scholl
Grenville, South	Reid	Carruthers
Grey, East	Sproule	Clark
Grey, South	Blythe	Landerkin
Grey, North	Masson	Horsey
Haldimand	Montague	Colter
Halton	Henderson	Waldie
Hamilton	McKay Ryckman	Doran Laidlaw
Hastings, East	Northrup	Burdett
Hastings, North	Bowell	Vankleek
Hastings, West	Corby	Clute
Huron, East	Holmes	Macdonald
Huron, South		McMillan Beith (I R.) Weismiller (IF)
Huron, West	Porter	Cameron
Kent	Killackey	Campbell
Kingston	Macdonald	Gunn
Lambton, East	Moncrieff	Stull
Lambton, West	Smith	Lister
Lanark, North	Jamieson	Fraser
Lanark, South	Haggart	McGarry
Leeds, South	Taylor	Turner
Leeds, North	Ferguson	Frost
Lennox	Wilson	Allison
Lincoln	Neelon	Gibson
London	Carling	Hyman
Middlesex, West	Roome	McFarlane
Middlesex, North	Hutchins	Taylor (Ind.)
Middlesex, South	Chisholm	Armstrong
Middlesex, East	Marshall	Taylor (E R.)
Monck	Boyle	Brown
Muskoka and Parry Sound	O'Brien	Fitzgerald
Norfolk, South	Tisdale	Ellis
Norfolk, North	Sinclair	Charlton
Northumberland, East	Cochrane	Ketchum
Northumberland, West	Guillet	Hargraft
Ontario, South	Smith	Davidson
Ontario, West		Edgar. White.
Ontario, North	Madill	Cockburn
Ottawa	Mackintosh Robillard	Belcourt Patterson
Oxford, North	Karn	Sutherland
Oxford, South	Walsh	Cartwright
Peel	McCulla	Featherstone
Perth, North	Hesson	Grieve
Perth, South	Sharp	Trow
Peterboro, West	Stevenson	Hall
Peterboro, East	Burnham	Rork
Prescott	Routhier	Proulx
Prince Edward	Miller	Platt
Renfrew, North	White	Barr
Renfrew, South	Ferguson	Barr
Russell	M. K. Dickinson	Edwards
Simcoe, East	Bennett	Spohn
Simcoe, North	McCarthy	Cook
Toronto, Centre	Cockburn	Kerr
Toronto, East	Coatsworth	Wheeler
Toronto, West	Denison	Mowat
Victoria, North	Hughes	Barron
Victoria, South	Fairbairn	Walters
Waterloo, North	Kranz	Bowman
Waterloo, South	Clare	Livingston
Welland	Ferguson	German
Wellington, N.	Clarke	McMullen
Wellington, S.	Goldie	Innes
Wellington, C.	Hunter	Semple
Wentworth, S.	Carpenter	Middleton
Wentworth, N.	Wardell	Bain
York, West	Wallace	Clement
York, East	Maclean	Mackenzie
York, North	Pegg	Mulock
Quebec.
Argenteuil	Owens
Bagot	Dupont	Pilon
Beauharnois	Bergeron	Feers
Beauce	Morency	Godbout
Bellechasse	Faucher	Amyot
Berthier	Allard	Beausoleil
Bonaventure	LaFerriere	Fauvel
Brome	Dyer	Fisher
Chambly	Lamarre	Prefontaine
Champlain	Carnigan	Trudel
Charlevoix	Cimon	Simard
Chateauguay	Walsh	Brown
Chicoutimi & Sag	Caron	Savard
Compton	Pope
Drummond & Arthabaska	Crepeau	Lavergne
Hochelaga	Desjardins	Lanctot
Huntingdon	McCormick	Scriver
Iberville		Bechard
Jacques Cartier	Girouard	Madore
Joliette	Lippe	Neveu
Kamouraska	Chapais	Carroll
Laprairie	Pelletier	Doyon
L'Assomption	Rocher	Gauthier
Laval	Ouimet	Ladouceur
Levis	Paquet	Guay
L'Islet	Desjardins	Casgrain
Lotbiniere		Rinfret
Maskinonge	Coulombe	Legris
Megantic	Frechette	Turcot
Missisquoi	Baker	Meigs Jamieson (P.)
Montcalm	Therien	Dugas
Montmagny	Bender	Choquette
Montmorency	Turcot Valin (Ind.)	Tarte
Montreal, Centre	Curran	Guerin
Montreal, East	Lepine	David
Montreal, West	Smith (Con.)	Cochrane (Ref.)
Napierville	Paradis	Monet
Nicolet	Prince	Leduc
Ottawa County	McDougall	Devlin
Pontiac	Bryson McLean (Ind)	Murray
Portneuf	Vallee	Delisle
Quebec County	Flynn	Fremont
Quebec, Centre	Chateauvert	Langelier
Quebec, West	McGreevy	Hearn
Richelieu	Langevin	Bruneau
Richmond and Wolfe	Cleveland	Laurier
Rimouski	Caron	Fiset
Rouville	Gigault	Brodeur
St. Hyacinthe		Bernier
St. Johns	Black	Bourassa
St. Maurice	Desaulniers	Loranger
Shefford	Savage	Sanborn
Sherbrooke	Ives	Mellier
Soulanges	Bain	Mousseau
Stanstead	Colby	Rider
Temiscouata	Grandbois	Deschenes
Terrebonne	Chapleau	Limoge
Three Rivers	Langevin	Polette
Two Mountains	Daoust	Fortier
Vaudreuil	McMillan	Harwood
Vercheres	Archambault	Geoffrion
Yamaska	Vanasse	Mignault
Nova Scotia.
Annapolis	Mills	Chipman
Antigonish	Thompson	McGillivray
Cape Breton	McKeen McDougall	McPherson Murray
Colchester	Patterson	Archibald Fletcher (I.R.)
Cumberland	Dickey	Casey (I.R.) Howard
Digby	Jones	Bowers
Guysboro'	Ogden	Fraser
Halifax	Stairs Kenny	Jones Farrell
Hants	Putnam	Haley
Inverness	Cameron	McDonnell
King's	Bill	Borden
Lunenburg	Kaulbach	Eisenhauer
Pictou	Tupper McDougald	Yorston Fraser
Queen's	Freeman	Forbes
Richmond	Gillies	Flynn
Shelburne	White	Robertson
Victoria	McDonald	Ross
Yarmouth	Kinney	Flint
New Brunswick.
Albert	[illegible]	Emmerson
Carleton	Vince	Colter
Charlotte	Clarke	Gillmor
Gloucester	Burns	Landry
Kent	Legere	Leblanc
King's	Foster	Domville
Northumberland	Adams	Mitchell
Queen's	Baird	King
Restigouche	Moffatt	McAlister (L.)
St. John City	McLeod	Ellis
St. John City & Co.	Skinner Hazen	Weldon [illegible]
Sunbury	Wilmot	Day
Victoria	Costigan	Lawson
Westmoreland	Wood	George
York	Temple	Thompson
Prince Edward Island.
King's	McLean McDonald	McIntyre Robertson
Prince	Hunt Howlan	Yeo Perry
Queen's	Blake Ferguson	Davies Welsh
Manitoba.
Lisgar	Ross	Taylor
Marquette	Boyd	Watson
Selkirk	Daly	Martin
Winnipeg	Macdonald	Campbell
Northwest Territories.
East Assiniboia	Dewdney	Turiff
West Assiniboia	Davis	Tweed (Ind.)
Alberta	Davis Reilly
Saskatchewan	McDowall	Montgomery
British Columbia.
Cariboo	Barnard	Ferguson
New Westminster	Corbould	Scoullar (Ind.)
Victoria City and County	Prior Earle	Templeton Marchant

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Then Her Father Followed His Example When He Saw the Girl's Grief.

BERLIN, Feb. 26.—A singular tragedy is reported from Rogasen, in the province of Posen. A young man named Rosenblatt of Hebrew origin desired to marry the daughter of a Lutheran named Ensenberg. The father objected, although Rosenblatt offered to join the Christian faith and the daughter was willing to marry him. Rosenblatt in despair killed himself with poison and Ensenberg, upon hearing of the suicide and seeing his daughter's grief, was stricken with remorse and also took his own life, leaving the girl without father or lover.

SUBSIDY REFUSED.

The Action of the Colonial Office Regarding the Proposed Steamship Line Between Canada and the West Indies.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—The projectors of the proposed steamship line to run between the West Indies and Canada have received somewhat of a set-back. It was expected that the Colonial Office would have given material assistance to the project, both pecuniary and otherwise, as the line would foster trade relations between different colonies of the Empire, and also bring together the peoples of the several countries at which the vessels stopped. The Colonial Office, however, has intimated that the British Government cannot consider the proposal to subsidize the line, though it is quite willing to sanction any action the different colonial governments may take regarding the granting of subsidies similar to that granted by the Government of the Leeward Islands. The reason for the refusal is stated to be that were the British Government to grant a subsidy to this line other colonies would expect like treatment, and there is no telling where the matter would end. From opinions expressed by prominent gentlemen interested in the colonies, it is expected that the line will be pushed forward with vigor, notwithstanding this refusal on the part of the Colonial Office.

LONG SHOT AT GLOUCESTER

Favorites Beaten in Four Out of Six Races—Bargain's Victory.

GLOUCESTER, Feb. 26.—The track was a sea of mud. Salute, split favorite at 5 to 2 in the first race, ran unplaced, as did Fitzlee, a 4 to 5 favorite in the third race, and Friar, favorite in the fourth. Long Island, even money choice in the fifth, ran third. Summary:

First race, 1 mile—Edward F. 1, King Idler 2, Bonnie King 3. Time 1.58.

Second race, ¾ mile—Sir Rae 1, Glenmoyne 2, Alice Ward gelding 3. Time 1.29½.

Third race, 4½ furlongs—Genevieve 1, Thorns 2, Lomax 3. Time 1.05.

Fourth race, 1⅛ miles—Ralph Black 1, Repudiator 2, Harseburg 3. Time 2.18.

Fifth race, 6½ furlongs, special weights—Bargain 1, India Rubber 2, Long Island 3. Time 1.34½.

Sixth race, ⅝ mile—Whitenose 1, Rustic 2, St. Alban's 3. Time 1.13½.

Cape Colony Boundaries.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—The Commissioner-in-Chief of the Cape Colony, Sir Henry Brighton Loch, and the Premier of Cape Colony, Hon. Cecil John Rhodes, are guests of Queen Victoria at Windsor Castle. The negotiations as to the boundary settlement, which has been going on for some time in regard to the claims made by Portugal and the counter-claims made by the Government of Cape Colony, have been concluded to the satisfaction of the chief commissioner and Premier. The only practical modification of the convention of August last in Portugal's favor is the allotment of a large extension of territory north of Tete, which Portugal proved she had already occupied. It is doubtful if the Portuguese Cortes will ratify the proposals but Portugal will be warned that if she leaves the boundary question much longer unsettled she is likely to fare still worse owing to the impossibility of restraining the South African Company from completing the occupation of the territory in dispute.

Took the Oath as President.

RIO JANEIRO, Feb. 26.—General Da Fonseca took the oath of office as president of Brazil to-day in the presence of the two houses of Congress. The President received the individual congratulations of the members and afterward reviewed the troops.

A Fatal Snowslide.

CRESTED BUTTE, Col., Feb. 26.—A snowslide swept over Bullion King mine at Irwin yesterday carrying the boarding house and Superintendent Rippell's dwelling house. Mrs. Rippell, Mrs. Clarke and child at the boarding house and B. F. Smiley, engineer, are still buried in the slide.

Fire at Hamilton.

HAMILTON, Feb. 26.—A fire broke out at 7.30 last evening in the upper flat of Black & Whitwam's hardware store in Copp's block. It started in a closet below the stairs where some carpets and paper were stored and spread rapidly. The loss will be about $400.

Owen Sound Visited.

OWEN SOUND, Feb. 26.—Early this morning fire broke out in Bushby's grocery store. The entire block was destroyed. Bushby's loss will be between $4000 and $5000, insured for $3000, as follows: $1000 in the Queen's, $1000 in Caledonian, $500 in Commercial Union, $500 in Wellington Mutual. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Mrs. Jameson's New Evidence.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—Mrs. Jameson claims to have discovered evidence in Zanzibar throwing an entirely new light on the quarrel between Jameson and Stanley.

Losers Seekers, Finders Keepers.

ORILLIA, Feb. 26.—Mrs. Hugh Lee has been committed for trial for retaining money found on the street.

122 Bodies Recovered.

SPRINGFIELD MINES, N.S., Feb. 26.—The last body to come out of the mines has been recovered. This makes the total death list 122, including three who died from injuries. There are 56 widows, 163 fatherless children, and seven widowed mothers deprived of the support of their sons.

Killed by a Tree.

SPRINGFIELD, Feb. 26.—While John Kirkland of South Dorchester was felling timber a lodged tree suddenly descended upon him, crushing his head and mutilating his body in a horrible manner. He leaves a wife and large family to mourn his loss.

THE LABOR COMMISSION,

TO DEAL WITH STRIKES AND HOURS OF LABOR.

Mr. Morley to be a Member of the Commission—Funeral of Carroty Nell—The Massacre in Brazil—General Foreign News of Interest.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—The period has not been fixed for the completion of the labors of the commission of inquiry which will investigate the labor question and disputes which grow out of it. It is hoped, however, that the commission's work will be concluded in 1891. The two main questions which will be considered are the best method of averting strikes and the regulation of hours of labor. The Conservatives warmly approve of the appointment of the commission, and the Liberals do not intend to obstruct the progress of this new plan to find a cure for labor troubles. The Liberals intended to introduce a similar action. John Morley, who has made a special study of the labor question, considered that immediate legislation was necessary. The Conservatives, according to report, heard of the Liberals' intentions and forestalled them. However, the Conservatives are prepared to give Mr. Morley a prominent place in the coming work. The labor members of Parliament are strongly in favor of the idea.

The Irish members of Parliament intend to move that the commission should take special cognizance of the interest of Ireland. The appointment of the commission will have the effect of removing several motions now before Parliament which refer to the labor controversy, including Earl Spencer's resolutions in favor of appointing a Minister of Industry.

The cabinet to-day discussed the personnel and scope of the commission. The scope, it is understood, will include almost every branch of the labor question, the causes and remedies for strikes and the condition also of the agricultural interests. As to the personnel, the Prince of Wales, Lords Churchill and Derby and Sir John Gorst are mentioned for the chairmanship. The commission will almost certainly include Morley, and the peers will not be numerous. All parties seem to be fairly satisfied.

ORDERS TO BISMARCK.

Emperor William to Call the Prince Before a Court Martial.

BERLIN, Feb. 26.—The latest report is that the Emperor has decided to bring Prince Bismarck before a court martial to which, as he holds an army rank, the Prince is amenable. He will be asked on his honor to state whether he is the author of certain articles attacking the Government. Prince Bismarck has declined an offer of the town of Harburg to nominate him for the Reichstag. His refusal is based upon the ground that domestic circumstances would prevent a conscientious performance of his duties as a member.

Terrible Slaughter of Women and Children by Insurgents.

BUENOS AYRES, Feb. 26.—Additional advices from Chili state that the bombardment of Iquique by the insurgents was productive of great loss of life and heavy damage to property. When the rebels entered the city they attacked the stores and residences on six of the principal squares and completely wrecked them. The buildings had afforded shelter to a large number of women and children, but the insurgents, heedless of the rules governing civilized warfare, gave them no chance to escape and pursued their work of destruction regardless of the frantic endeavors of the helpless occupants to seek a place of safety. It is known that 200 women and children perished in the ruins of the smoked buildings. The insurgents seized the custom house and then pillaged all the principal houses in the city. After Gen. Sotto, the commander of the Government forces, had surrendered the city, the rebel leaders landed more troops from their vessels for the purpose of holding the place and despatched a force into the country with the object of meeting and engaging the Government troops.

Earl Dudley's Big Income.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—It is authoritatively announced that William Humble Ward, the youthful Earl Dudley, is about to sell the family mines and iron works to a joint stock company and sever his connection with the commercial world. It is also stated that his Lordship will marry one of the daughters of the Prince of Wales, although his Royal Highness has hitherto opposed the match on account of the young nobleman's eccentric habits. Lord Dudley's income is now stated at $2,000,000 per annum.

Irish Matters of Interest.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—Parnell is considering, on the advice of friends, the proposition to send a Parnellite delegation to the United States. They will represent Parnell's policy and will collect funds for its furtherance.

In his speech at Dublin yesterday, Parnell declared that all English Governments had used a standing army in the guise of constabulary to oppress Ireland. There was nothing to choose between them.

"If Gladstone," he said, "bids us remember Mitchelstown, Lord Salisbury can bid us remember Belmullet. Unless you secure the desired concessions, you will certainly again see a Liberal Government employing coercion. Let McCarthy go back and get better assurances."

The Land Purchase Bill.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—The Radicals in Parliament, led by Mr. Labouchere, have resolved to oppose by every method in their power the final passage of the Balfour Land Purchase Bill, on the ground that it means a large gift of money to the landlords, at the expense of the British treasury. Parnell, on the other hand, approves the bill in its general outlines, and wishes to see the land question settled by making every farmer an owner.

The Earl of Northbrook, formerly Governor-General of India, addressed the Yorkshire Liberal Unionist Federation at Leeds last evening. The Earl pictured in strong language the evils that he said would result should the Irish Home Rule movement succeed. He urged the wisdom of continuing the Conservative and Liberal Unionist Alliance, and expressed confidence of victory at the next general election.

Rioting Resumed at Durham.

DURHAM, Feb. 26.—Rioting at the scenes of the evictions of the families of the striking miners from the houses which they occupied on the property belonging to Lord Londonderry and others was continued to-day. The strikers again stoned the police, who charged on the crowds who assaulted them. The strikers wrecked a number of houses occupied by the new men.

Manitoba Legislature.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 26.—The fourth session of the Legislature, commenced to-day, selected S. J. Jackson as Speaker to succeed Wiriam, deceased. After the Speech from the Throne the House adjourned till March 10.

Purify The importance of keeping the blood in a pure condition is universally known, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. The taint of scrofula, salt rheum, or other foul humor is heredited and transmitted for generations, causing untold suffering, and we also accumulate poison and germs of disease from the air we breathe, the food we eat, or the water we drink. There is nothing more conclusively proven than the positive power of Hood's Sarsaparilla over all diseases of the blood. This medicine, when fairly tried, does expel every trace of scrofula or salt rheum, removes the taint which causes catarrh, neutralizes the acidity and cures rheumatism, drives out the germs of malaria, blood poisoning, etc. It also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus overcoming that tired feeling, and building up the whole system. Thousands testify to the superiority of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier. Full information and statements of cures sent free.

Your Blood

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1891.

Mr. Stevenson's Committee Rooms, old Council Chamber, Opera House. Block, open every evening. All supporters of the present Government and those who are ready to support the Liberal-Conservative Candidate are invited to the rooms to take part in the work of the Campaign.

UNITED STATES COMBINES.

THAT the United States has combines, and that these combines control the market there, is admitted even by Liberal speakers. Mr. J. Crerar, Q.C., speaking at the Liberal meeting in the Opera House, thus referred to United States manufacturers:—"He cannot go against the combine on his own side of the line; prices must be kept up there at all hazards. So he dumps his goods into Canada." These combines exist there for the purpose of keeping up prices and controlling the market by forcing out competitors. With unrestricted reciprocity a large addition would be made to their market by the removal of the tariff, and the combines would "at all hazards" then control the market in Canada, which would be commercially at any rate a part of the United States. Then our manufacturers would feel the full weight of these powerful combinations. The lever of resistance to them, the duties, would be gone, and they would succumb. The iron industries would be at an especial disadvantage, because while now they get cheaper supplies from England, they would then, owing to the adoption of the United States tariff, have to obtain their supplies from the States. Their only chance of life would be to move nearer to what would then be the base of supplies and to the centre of the market to be supplied. The powerful combinations there, that are determined "at all hazards" to control the market, would soon control the markets of Canada and then they could make their own prices. The result of unrestricted reciprocity would be that our industries would be lost, and with them the employment, the population and the business that depends upon them, and our markets would be under the thumb of the United States combines.

THEN AND NOW.

IN 1887 the Liberals said they would maintain protection to the industries of the country. Mr. Geo. A. Cox said in the Opera House (see Examiner of Feb. 3rd, 1887):—

"I hold it to be the duty of the Government to afford such protection to all our manufacturing industries as will enable them to sell their products at a price that will give them a substantial advantage over foreign competition, and will at the same time afford such returns as will enable them to pay their operatives and employees the highest wages for that class of labor current in either Canada or the United States."

That was the position of the Liberal party then. That principle of protection was endorsed by those who voted for Mr. Cox. That is the principle that the Conservatives, then as now, asked the people to endorse, and those who voted Liberal in 1887 must either vote the opposite of what they did four years ago or support Mr. Stevenson. A party that shifts its ground so rapidly as the Liberal leaders have done should not be trusted with the administration of the affairs of this Dominion, and many Liberals, we are glad to know, will refuse to be led into first one position and then into an entirely opposite one by the unstable and fickle men who control the policy of the present Liberal party.

THE THUNDERER'S VIEW.

The London, Eng., Times says:—"In the reign of Victoria the proper description of such conduct as that of Edward Farrer may be doubtful; but in the reign of Elizabeth, Sir John Macdonald's description would have been held to be accurate, and appropriate penalties would not have been wanting. The ultimate issue of the struggle is whether Canada will enter the American Union. The pending election will not decide it, because if the Liberals are victorious they will find it only the beginning of their task. If the weaker American States are systematically driven to the wall, what chance of fair play would Canada get in commercial union with America? Without representation in Congress her position would be intolerable, and she would be compelled to abandon commercial union or accept political union. Americans know this and are frank enough to make it the basis of all their dissertations. Canadians must also know it, but those desiring annexation pretend that it has no necessary connection with unlimited reciprocity. Without expecting Canada to forego any advantages in order to gratify her sentiments, the Canadian people ought to be fairly treated by politicians and not jockeyed into annexation by false pretences."

THE PLOT.

The Schemes of the Commercial Unionists Exposed.

IN his Toronto speech Sir John Macdonald exposed the plot of the Globe editor, Mr. E. Farrer, and his friends by reading from a pamphlet written and printed by him in which he pointed out the to United States ways in which Canada might be squeezed in order to coerce Canada into annexation. Sir Charles Tupper at Windsor read two letters further exposing the plot. One was from Mr. Farrer to Mr. Erastus Wiman, as follows:—

TORONTO, April 22nd, 1889.

"My Dear Mr. Wiman:

"Our Ottawa man will send a good summary of your speech, so that on our account you need not go to the trouble of preparation. At present the C.U. movement is at a standstill. First of all, the Jesuit agitation, which is here to stay, has to some extent supplanted it. Secondly, the general belief is that the Republicans would not listen to any such scheme. Thirdly, a very large number of people are inclined to think that we had better MAKE FOR ANNEXATION AT ONCE INSTEAD OF WASTING TWO BITES ON THE CHERRY. Lastly, the old parties here are rapidly breaking up, and WHEN SIR JOHN GOES we shall be adrift without a port in sight, SAVE ANNEXATION. Moreover, although the Liberals have taken up C.U., they are not pushing it with any vigor. For these reasons the Mail has, in the slang of the day, given the subject a rest. There is really no use talking it up to a people whose politics are in a state of flux, and whose future is wrapped in doubt. I saw Mr. Hoar while at Washington, and told him just what he says I did, namely, that THE SMALLER FORCES FAVOR ANNEXATION AND WILL FAVOR IT ALL THE MORE IF C. U. BE WITHHELD. It seems to me, and I have talked the thing over lately with Maritime members as well as with Manitobians, that C. U. would only delay the coming of the event those people most desire. Hence, in the provinces referred to, C. U. does not take hold, whereas annexation will always demand a hearing. In Ontario the Jesuit campaign has brought that aspect of things home to thousands who would not look at C. U. The littleness and half-heartedness of the Liberals is also very disheartening. Then, again, THE TRUTH IS THAT EVERY MAN WHO PREACHES C. U. WOULD PREFER ANNEXATION, SO THAT THE PARTY IS VIRTUALLY WEARING A MASK. Can't you come round this way and have a talk?

"Yours very truly,

"Signed, E. FARRER."

The other letter was from Congressman Hitt, the mover of the unrestricted reciprocity resolution in Congress, to Mr. Wiman, in which he said "there is some logic in what F. says of not making two bites of a cherry, but going for annexation at once," and showed that he, too, was in the plot. Who else are in it? How many leaders in the movement are wearing a mask? This exposure should be looked into and the effect of the adoption of the scheme promoted by such men carefully considered.

The Spring Medicine.

The popularity which Hood's Sarsaparilla has gained as a spring medicine is wonderful. It possesses just those elements of health-giving, blood-purifying and appetite-restoring which everybody seems to need at this season. Do not continue in a dull, tired, unsatisfactory condition when you may be so much benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood and makes the weak strong.

AUBURN.

Correspondence of the Review.

AN EXCELLENT ENTERTAINMENT.—A very successful entertainment was held at Auburn on the evening of Thursday, Feb. 19th, under the auspices of the Band of Hope. Mr. F. Peck presided and the house was crowded. The principal feature of the entertainment was a number of lantern views shown by Mr. F. Umpleby assisted by Mr. J. T. Umpleby. Mr. F. Umpleby's explanations and the beautiful views shown delighted the audience. The programme, which was excellent throughout, was as follows:—

Instrumental solo, piano ....F. Umpleby
Recitation........................Miss Spencely
Views from Scripture, Magic Lantern ....F. Umpleby
Song .."Wonderful House," Children of the Band of Hope
Dialogue .."The Flower of the Family," Miss Ellis, Mrs. Pratt, Mr. Freeburn
Views .."The Drunkard's Progress and the Bottle," Magic Lantern
Song .."Don't go near the Bar-room Brother," Band of Hope
Recitation ..'A kiss in School'...Miss Maggie Pratt
Views.."A Flying Trip from New York to California,"..Magic Lantern
Song ...."Canticons".........Miss Lewis
Views ..."A good time for the little ones," Magic Lantern
"God Save the Queen."
"Good Night."

WORKINGMEN. Mr. Stevenson has given time and work and money to build up industries in the town which give employment to large numbers. Send him again to Parliament to continue the good work.

A Great Spelling Match.

The greatest spelling match on record is that offered by Our Home Publishing Co., in which they will award the following magnificent CASH PRIZES:—One prize of $500; one prize of $200; two prizes of $100; four prizes of $50; eight prizes of $25; twenty prizes of $10; forty prizes of $5; one hundred prizes of $2; and two hundred of $1. These prizes will be awarded to the persons sending in the largest number of correctly spelled words found in the advertising pages of the Feburary number of Our Homes, in which no letters occur but those found in the sentence: "Our Homes is Unrivalled as a Home Magazine." Special cash prizes will be given away each day and each week during this competition, which closes April 25th, 1891. Send 10 cents in stamps or silver, for a sample copy of the Feburary number, with rules and regulations governing the competition. Address, OUR HOMES PUB. CO., Brockville, Ont.
41d48-7w9

Worth Seeing.

The beautiful Upright Piano on exhibition at Crosby's music store was purchased by Mr. Bell, Auburn, and was pronounced by all visitors to be a very excellent instrument. Yours, J. W. Crosby.
1d49

Good Breakfast Dishes.

Rolled Bacon, Sausage, Head Cheese, Ham, Veal, etc. Best brands of these superior meats always on hand. Bacon sold by actual weight. J. J. Howden, 461 George-st. Telephone connection.
d49

A Complete Line

of the finest soaps in the World. Sunlight Soap, Dingman's Electric Soap, etc. See the large bar I am selling at 5 cents, also the mammoth bar at 15 cents. A large stock of toilets. The largest stock and best value in Peterborough. Alex. Elliott 390 George-st. Peterborough.
d41

ELECTORS. The prosperity and very existence of your country is in danger. Rally to Mr. Stevenson's support.

Pure Teas.

The attention of the ladies of Peterborough is drawn to the fact that Sam Lai's and Monsoon brand of Indian Teas are the best in the world. They are celebrated for their strength, purity and richness of flavor. We have also received a shipment of fine Japan Tea which we will sell at 25 cents per lb., the best value for the money to be had in Peterborough. Stapleton & [illegible], [illegible] George-st. (Rush Bros.' old stand).
d45-w9

The Population of Peterborough

is about 12,000, and we would say at least one-half are troubled with some affection of the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all our readers not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Trial size free. Large bottle 50c and $1. Sold by all druggists.

Mr. Stevenson's Address
TO
THE ELECTORS
OF
WEST PETERBOROUGH.

GENTLEMEN,—The time that will elapse before polling day is so short, and my business demands on my time just now are so great that, though most anxious to do so, I find it altogether impossible to personally call on any considerable number of the electors; and therefore use this medium of placing before you my opinions of the great issue that has been raised by the leaders of the Reform party, viz., Unrestricted Reciprocity with the United States.

The Government of Sir John A. Macdonald many years since placed on the Statute books of the Dominion an Act enabling the Governor-General in Council, whenever the United States declared its readiness to free from duty any named natural products of this country going into that country, to free the same coming into Canada from the United States.

That Statute still remains in force; and, although the Government of Canada has on many occasions called the attention of the authorities at Washington to it, yet they have declined to act on it, but have now signified their willingness to negotiate generally on trade matters.

The present Government has shown its readiness to negotiate for reciprocal trade relations on the basis of the treaty of 1854, which was eminently fair to both countries; and their proposal I will support, but the policy of the Reform party as shown by them and by the politicians and press of the United States, is one which practically hands over to that country the trade of Canada, for the Reform party declare that they are prepared to offer to the United States absolute and unconditional free trade in manufactures, as well as in natural products, and they say such will be accepted by the latter country; and this party, led by Mr. Laurier, urges that such a policy is in our interests, even if we have to discriminate against England and all the rest of the world, and enact and build up a tariff wall equal to that of the United States, and even if we have in addition, to suffer a loss of revenue, placed by Sir Richard Cartwright in his speech in Toronto, the 13th instant, as reported in the Globe, of $7,000,000 or $8,000,000, but which, it is perfectly certain, would not be less than $12,000,000. I submit for your consideration whether this is really a "free trade" policy or a policy deserving your support. I am convinced that it is not, and that it is opposed to the best interests of Canada. The present tariff of the United States is more than double that of Canada. It is, in fact, the most exclusive and excessive tariff known, and the effect of the adoption of it by us would, in my humble opinion, be to make us, commercially, an unknown land—except to our neighbors to the South, for no other nation would or could import its goods to us as heretofore, and as their shipping would come much less to our shores, our trade in cheese, cattle and other products with Great Britain would be seriously injured, if not wholly ruined. The high freight rates, for want of competition, would alone make these products unprofitable, and I am sure you will hesitate before you destroy or imperil a trade with England and Europe of $[illegible] yearly, made successful, largely, by reason of the keen competition of shipping from England, which, under our moderate tariff, has, out of all proportion to the extent of the United States, come to Halifax and up the St. Lawrence to our great ports for several years past.

The policy of the present Government since its adoption in 1879, has brought into Canada, a tremendous amount of Capital and produced the manufacture of most of our needs of life at prices, through the competition that has grown up, no higher than in the country from which the capital came.

The population of Peterborough has in ten years almost doubled, and I am confident the present moderate revenue tariff will enable the country to construct great public works in our vicinity, and that our town will be not less than 20,000 population within the next ten years. The proposed policy, I am assured, would endanger all the advantages we have gained and almost certainly end in the ruin of our town, as of many other towns and cities in Canada, and also most seriously injure the farming interests by destroying the home market and in other ways and I therefore cannot give my sanction to such a measure.

I cannot believe that with the declarations of high authority we have as to the terms on which we can obtain unrestricted trade relations, with the United States there is any general feeling in favor of the Reform platform, for I find that Mr. Blain, the Secretary of State at Washington, recently in a pub'ic [illegible] used these words: "It is their (Canad[illegible]) right to choose for themselves, as it is our right to choose for ourselves, but I am opposed, totally opposed, to giving [illegible] Canadians the sentimental satisfaction [illegible] waving the British flag, paying British [illegible], and enjoying the actual cash remunerati[illegible] of American markets. They cannot have b[illegible]th at the same time. If they come with us they can have what we have. It is an absolute wrong for Congress to say that they shall have exactly the same share in our markets that we have, and so far as I can help it, I do not mean that they shall be Canadians and Am[illegible]ricans at the same time" and Mr. McAdoo, a Democratic member of the House of Representatives, recently used these words in the House: "The United States do not desire to add a single acre to its imperial domain but if the people of Canada, in their Soverign capacity wish to maintain unrestricted relations with the people of the United States, they have but to rise in their sovereignity, spontaneously and unsought for act and ask for annexation, which is the cutting of the Gordian knot, and the ultimate destinity of the Canadian people."

Neither can I support the new policy, because, as reported in the Globe on the 5th day of October, 1889, Mr. Erastus Wiman, of New York, who is the partner of the millionaire, Jay Gould, and the sole father of the scheme originated for personal and selfish ends, says: "My idea is that a uniform tariff should be adopted both by the Congress of the United States and the Dominion Parliament of Canada; that Canada should agree to always have the same tariff as the United States; that this tariff should be administered by a join commission of which the majority should, of course, rest with the United State." and the Chicago Times confirms this, as do all the leading papers of the United States by declaring that "entire free trade is impossible, unless the Dominion is prepared to make a complete and unconditional surrender of all control over its own tariff and to accept whatever tariff our Congress may choose to enact from time to time.'"

I feel that this is a sacrifice and surrender greater than Canada should make for it means the loss of legislative control over our fiscal policy the transference to Washington of the regulation of our tariff and the end of our political existence, and, as said in an American paper "Canadians would be "curs and cads" to entertain the idea."

The end proposed by the Reform leaders I am sure cannot be attained, and, if attained, attainment will bring in its train the incident of direct taxation, with an army of assessors and collectors replacing the Customs Houses and Customs officers along the frontier between the United States and Canada. Mr. Laurier in Quebec a few days ago said that his expectant Finance Minister, Sir Richard Cartwright, would be genius enough to avoid recourse to "so cruel a measure" but in Toronto on the 13th instant, the avoidance the latter found after quoting the words of Mr. Foster, that direct taxation would amount to $30.00 per family, and after entering upon a tirade of abuse of the Government to draw his audience from the question was summed up in these words as given in the Globe's report of his speech, "But it is impossible to deal with these imaginary difficulties, and when I am asked to say what I will do if a possible contingency arises I would respectfully say that we will wait to see the contingency we have to meet."

I am sure the whole electorate will declare with me that this, from a man, posing as a statesman, and seeking the confidence and support of the country was a contemptible, and [illegible] of the most vital matter, and an acknowledgement that direct taxation is a necessary incident of the Reform platform.

I would call attention to a matter of local importance, viz., the construction of the Trent Valley Canal, which has been thrown back for two years by the action of prominent members of the Reform party, and the statements in the House that there was good reason for believing that, as a national undertaking, it would prove a failure because of an insufficiency of water. The matter was consequently referred to commissioners to report, and the commissioners having examined the whole of the route and taken a great mass of evidence, have now reported, and the report that has been published is a complete answer to all objections as to its feasibility and the propriety of the undertaking, and, as in the past, I, if elected, shall in the future persistently advocate and insist on the immediate construction of this great work. I am confident it will prove of immense value as a public work, and I know that its importance to this locality will, from various and obvious reasons, be almost inestimable. I am also quite certain that if the Reform party gains power in this election and adopts the policy it is advocating, there will follow such admittedly tremendous deficits in the revenue that even with the aid of direct taxation it will be impossible for the Government, however willing, to undertake the building of this national highway of commerce.

In conclusion, I would ask the electors to accept the above statement as indicating my views of the chief public questions of the hour, and the policy relied on by the leader of the Reform party, and his Wiman allies, as the one by which they hope to gain control of the Government of Canada, and to displace the existing Government, and I would ask all who cannot approve so radical a change as proposed, to rally to the support of the Liberal-Conservative party in the present great crisis in our affairs.

I am, gentlemen,

Your sincere and humble servant,

JAMES STEVENSON.

Best on Earth
SURPRISE
SURPRISE
EVERY WOMAN
SOAP

HARVARD

"Harvard [illegible] has been much used in our family, and [illegible] say it is the best Cough Remedy we have ever used." Rev. J. Tallman Pitcher, Montreal. "[illegible] It is the most satisfactory Cough Medicine I have ever tried." Ross Mackenzie, C.P.R. Office, Montreal.

To [illegible] the best markets, the home market and the British market, by voting for Stevenson and Burnham.

PETERBOROUGH

PLANING MILLS!

Dublin-st., Peterborough.

A. RUTHERFORD,

PROPRIETOR.

Having purchased the plant, and business, formerly carried on by J. D. Baptie, in the above premises, I am prepared to execute orders for every description of General Carpenter Work, Window and Door Frames, Blinds, Mouldings, etc.

Scroll Work, Band Sawing, Turning executed to order.

Large supply of Dry Lumber of all Kinds always on hand.

Factory and Office,—Dublin-st. Telephone Connection.

LIME—Always kept on hand. Orders left at Mill or at G.T.R. Station promptly attended to. d48-w6m

2 BRICK HOUSES,
2 FRAME HOUSES,
and THREE LOTS,
to be sold at my office on WEDNESDAY next, the 18th inst., at 3 p.m.

The above properties are situated west of Bethune-st. and between the 2 railway stations in the centre of all the principal manufactories in town. A rare chance.

T. HURLEY,
157 George-

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED!

Grand Rally of the People's Party.

THE QUESTION OF THE HOUR!

The Greatest Good to the Largest Number.

GOUGH BROTHERS are in the field as the Candidates for public approval, basing their claim on the admitted facts that they supply the largest number, the greatest number of times with the largest dollar's worth of the best clothing that money can purchase.

Ask our constituents if this claim is not well grounded?

When you buy, buy from first hands, remembering that we supply Clothing, Furnishings, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes.

GOUGH BROTHERS

The Clothiers, 377 and 379 George-st., Peterborough.

WM. FITZGERALD,

Builder, Contractor and Jobber.

Contracts taken for all work connected with erection of new buildings, repairs or rebuilding. Twenty-five years experience. First-class work according to plans and specifications guaranteed. Estimates furnished for any description of work. Good dry material always on hand. Best of references given as to excellence of work and despatch.

Building Lots For Sale

in different localities. Most desirable sites for houses. This is the time to buy and build Lots sold and houses built thereon on terms to suit buyers. Easy terms of payment. Several good houses and lots for sale. Every one looking for a bargain should see these. WM. FITZGERALD, 134, corner of Dublin and Water-sts.
P.O. Box 476, Peterborough. 22p w11-1y

IT SHINES FOR ALL.

What?

The New and Unequalled.

CARBON GASLIGHT

The softest and most brilliant gaslight yet produced. Gives a saving of 25 to 40 per cent. Having secured the SOLE AGENCY for Peterborough we will keep full lines of LAMPS and FIXTURES always in stock.

J. E. NOBLE & Co.

287 George-st. South.

TELEPHONES.—Bell No. 181, Ontario No. 156.

"HARVARD"

"We have used Harvard Bronchial Syrup in our family and find it an excellent remedy." C. C. Colby, President of the Council, House of Commons, Ottawa.—"I have used it myself for Throat irritations and find it very efficacious." Rev. A. B. Chambers, Napanee.

DR. E. A. SPILSBURY

Throat, Nose and Ear. Lecturer on Diseases of the Throat and Nose, Trinity Medical College Toronto; Surgeon to the Throat and Nose Department, Toronto General Hospital, and late Clinical Assistant, Hospital for the Diseases of the Throat, Nose and Ear, London, England. OFFICE 210 Huron Street, Toronto. wtdlyr

COME, SEE AND BUY

ONE OF THE PATENT

BAKING CABINETS

on exhibition at J. J. Turner's Sail, Tent and Awning Factory. This is one of the most complete and useful articles for any and every house as it holds your flour, spices, raisins, meal, sugar, etc., and when you are through baking you can lock it up and it makes a nice piece of furniture.

Having bought the right for Peterborough and Ashburnham to manufacture this I want some good live agents to sell it.

J. J. TURNER,
[illegible] George-st., Peterborough.
Telephone day or night. Bell 122, Ontario 72.

WHITE LABEL ALE

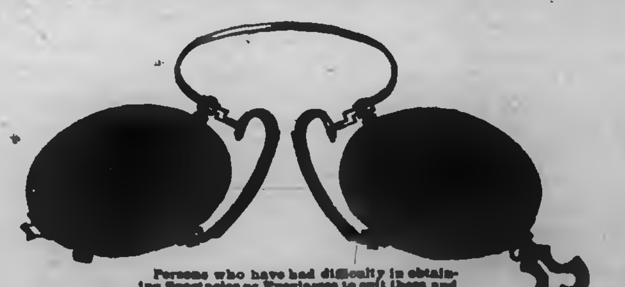
On Draught.

10 cts. per qt.

Try our Bottled Ale, White Label, India Pale, etc., etc.

W. J. MORROW.

Opera House Block, George-st.



Persons who have had difficulty in obtaining Spectacles or Eyeglasses to suit them and who are troubled with imperfect vision, either by night or day should call on W. A. SANDERSON and have a free examination of their eyes made. Oculists Prescriptions Carefully Filled.

W. A. SANDERSON, Jeweller and Optician, Peterborough, Ont.

EYESIGHT TESTED.

THE STANDARD LIFE Assurance Company,

ESTABLISHED 1832

Subsisting Assurances ......$[illegible]
Invested Funds ...... 34,000,000.
Annual Income ...... 4,500,000.
Bonuses Distributed ...... [illegible]
The Funds Invested in Canada amount to nearly.... [illegible]
Deposited with Dominion Government at Ottawa.. [illegible]

All plans of Assurance. Non Forfeitable Policies. Absolutely unconditional policies from date of issue without extra charge. Absolute security. Rates compare favourably with any first-class Company.

W. M. RAMSAY, [illegible]

A.V.R. YOUNG, General Agent, and Inspector for Midland District, 379 Water-st.

C. CAMERON,
MULLHOLLAND & ROPER, Special Agents.

DO YOU LIKE
Biscuits?

Most likely you do.
There's a deal of difference
in Biscuits. Quality is an important item. A good
biscuit should be fresh,
crisp and of good flavor.
Here's what will suit you.
Try the English biscuit, made by Huntley & Pa'mer the famous makers. Imported
by us and guaranteed genuine.
Ask for Huntley & Palmer's biscuits.

W. J. MASON
426 GEORGE STREET.
No trouble to show Goods.

Reduction Sale
—OF—
WALL PAPER
—AT—
Cost Price.

During the month of February we are receiving large shipments of Wall Paper, and to make room for the New Goods, we will sell all our Remnants

At or Below Cost Price.

This is a genuine offer and should be taken advantage of, as the season for papering is so near at hand it will pay you to buy now.

H. THOMPSON & Co
Office and General Stationers, Booksellers and Wall Paper Dealers,
4?? George-st. — — Peterborough

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1891.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

They are Waiting for It.

The carpenters, bricklayers and painters have been very busy for the last month getting everything in readiness for the opening to-morrow of Rowse's new dry goods store. It is needless to state that with new goods, new styles, new store and new prices there will be a big rush.

Card of Thanks.

The committee of the Peterborough Protestant Home beg to tender their grateful thanks to those who have recently so readily and kindly contributed to the funds of the Home, relieving their present necessities. Also to the ladies who kindly volunteered at the sacrifice of their time in soliciting subscriptions.

Napanee to be in Class A.

The Bell Telephone Co. will complete their contract next week at Napanee where they are putting in a complete fire alarm system. The town is fitted out with a striker on the town bell and 1 eight inch gong placed at each of the engineers' houses The same boxes are used there as in Peterborough only that we have not the striker The Company has put in several of these plants and all are proving satisfactory.

Around Went the Wheel.

Down at the races on the ice yesterday a young man made himself prominent among the crowd by calling loudly for a buyer of "the next pair" of paddles for a wheel of fortune he was running. The dimes came in slowly, but the fellow made enough to come up town and get drunk. At one o'clock this morning he was found asleep near the fire hall, his nose cut, his eyes blackened, his collar and necktie gone and his "wheel of fortune" gone. Constable Adams locked him up and at the Police Court he said his name was Pat Smith and that he was from Cobourg. The Magistrate ordered the police to put him on the train and see him leave town.

Success of Mission Workers

The residence of Mrs. Wm. Mercer on Brock-st. was the scene of a pleasant and exceedingly successful social last evening. The event had been arranged by Miss Mercer and the members of her class in the St. Andrew's church Sunday school and the funds were to go towards home mission work in Quebec. In the afternoon a bazaar or sale of fancy articles, useful and ornamental, was held and well patronized. In the evening there was a large attendance at the social and a most enjoyable evening was spent. During the evening the following programme was rendered:—

PART 1.

Piano-forte Solo	Miss B. Lech
Vocal Solo	Mr. Drope
Vocal Solo	Master H. King
Vocal Solo	Mrs. Daly

PART 2.

Vocal Solo	Miss Fawcett
Piano-forte Duet	Miss Wrighton and Mr. Clark
Vocal Solo	Mr. Knowles
Vocal Solo	Ketcham

The financial success of the sale and social was beyond all expectations, $64 being netted.

In advanced age the declining powers are wonderfully refreshed by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It really does "make the weak strong."

FAST FLYING FEET.

The First Day of the Winter Meeting on the Little Lake a Great Success—Some Exciting Events.

The weather prophet smiled on the local horsemen yesterday and the first day of the winter meeting on the Little Lake was a grand success. A fine half mile track had been thrown out upon the frozen lake, every event had several entries, every winner of a heat had warm company, and under such conditions it will readily be seen that there was an effusion of good sport.

Several hundred people were on the ice to enjoy the fun, which was unmarred by the slightest unpleasantness. The judges' stand was occupied by three gentlemen who performed their duties in the most efficient and happy manner. They understood what they were doing, and by their impartial rulings prevented any of that usually expected feature, "kicking."

THE NAMED RACE.

Purse $80 divided as follows:—1st, $45; 2nd, $ 5; 3rd, $10.

This event had four starters—Johnny Newall's "Gladstone," R. Croft's "Billy C," G. Mitchell's "Livery Maid" and J. E. McIntyre's "Clan Alpine." Although "Gladstone" won in three straights, yet he had warm company in every heat, and a length or half a length only gave him first place. "Billy C" followed Newall close in the three heats and the finish was exciting. "Clan Alpine" was drawn after the second heat. Newall's driving of "Gladstone" was good and won him first money.

The summary of the race is as follows:—

J. Newall's Gladstone	1	1	1
R. Croft's Billy C (Cobourg)	2	2	2
G. Mitchell's Livery Maid (Cobourg)	3	3	3
J. E. McIntyre's Clan Alpine	4	4	dr

Time—2.51½; 2.57; 2.5?.

THE FOUR-YEAR-OLDS.

Open to all colts four-year-old and under; purse $80; 1st $35; 2nd, $15; 3rd, $10.

There were five horses came up to the scratch in this race, and the fight that followed for first running shows how close and exciting the heats were. It looked after the first heat as though Connor's Bros' "Fred S" was going to win a sure thing, and even after he had lost the second heat it was thought that she would still have an easy thing. The third heat he won again, although pushed hard by "John D." In the fourth heat "Johnny H." came to the front and after an exciting race finished first by a neck. In the fifth heat Elmhirst's youthful again proved the swiftest and the finish had to be postponed until this afternoon.

The summary of the race was as follows:—

Connors' Bros' Fred S	1	2	1	3	2
Jas Elmhirst's Johnny H.	2	3	4	1	1
Ed. Daly's John D. (Lindsay)	3	1	2	2	4
W. Clancy's Lady Clancy	4	4	3	4	3
P. J. Galvin's Sleepy Dan (Ennismore)	5	5	dr.

Time—3.17; 3.16; 3.14; 3.2?; 3.16.
Unfinished.

THE 2.40 TROT.

The flyers entered for the 2.40 trot and this event furnished as good an exhibition of trotting as has been seen on the ice. Geo. Cooks' Jimmy, Geo. May's Paddy and D. Lake's Roddy Boy were the trio and they kept each other close company. Paddy was the favorite at the start, but, though he was staying close to the winner, he never got a first place. The three horses went round the track neck and neck, making a pretty sight for the spectators and affording some exciting sport. It was anybody's race from the start to the finish of each heat. Darkness came on before this event was finished and it also was postponed until to-day.

The summary of yesterday's heats is as follows:—

Geo. Curtis' Jimmy (Lindsay)	1	2	1
D. Lake's Roddy Boy (Belleville)	3	1	2
Geo. May's Paddy (St. Catherines)	2	3	3

Time 2.49; 2.46; 2.45. Unfinished.

With the two close events to be finished and the three minute, named stallion and 2.30 trots on the programme an exciting afternoon may be expected to-day.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. G. Gumpricht is in town. Orders may be left at Messrs. Taylor & McDonald's drug store. 1yd6

To Rent.

Farms wanted to rent. Tenants supplied this year at half price. Call or write.
T. HURLEY,
d23tf 357 George-st.

Re-Opening.

Our Dress and Mantle order department will open on Monday, March 2nd, 1891. Robert Fair, sign of the Golden Lion, George-st., Peterborough. 2d49

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on trial.

VOLTAIC BELT CO., Marshall, Mich.

That's Easily Answered.

"My dear," said Mrs. Cupandsaucer, laying down the evening paper, "what is reciprocity?" "Reciprocity, my angel," said the head of the house, "is easily explained. It means a general evening up,—as, say when Smitters asks me in to take a-er-cigar and I ask him to have another." "Exactly," said Mrs. C., "when I go to Hawley Bros. for tea and I hand Mr. Hawley a dollar and he gives me four or five pounds of splendid green or black mixture, I get the money's worth and he the money. Isn't that it?" "Exactly," said the husband as he reached for his hat. d38tf

The Boys Entertained.

Last evening the Y.W.C.T.U. tendered a reception to the junior branch of the Y.M.C.A. in their hall, which was attended by almost all the members of the branch. Those present entered heartily into all the games and amusements so generously provided by the young ladies of the "Y," the lads making themselves at home. After a time spent in the enjoyments of the hour, an impromptu programme of music was given by Messrs. Seward, Williams, Hudson and Hendricks. Short addresses were given by Miss Sanderson on behalf of the "Y," and Messrs. G. J. Early, President of the Y. M. C. A., R. J. Kidd, chairman of the boy's branch, Rev. Mr. Halstead, of Portage La Prairie, who was passing through our town gave a delightful and helpful address, after which an abundant supply of cake and coffee was passed around by the ladies. The lads greatly relished and enjoyed the treat. A hearty vote of thanks to the Y.W.C.T.U. for their kindness was moved by Master A. Thompson, seconded by Master W. Roadhouse, and carried unanimously amid great applause by the boys. General Secretary Colville tendered the same in a few words, to which Miss L. Sanderson replied briefly. After devotional exercises, led by Rev. Mr. Halstead, the meeting closed, all realizing a pleasant and profitable evening had been spent. During the evening Miss Hall and others delighted all by their instrumental music.

The Handsomest Lady in Peterborough

Remarked to a friend the other day that she knew Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs was a superior remedy, as it stopped her cough instantly when other remedies had no effect whatever. So to prove this and convince you of its merit any druggist will give you a Sample bottle Free. Large size 50c and $1.

THE DEANERY OF PETERBOROUGH

Quarterly Meeting of Clergymen—A Successful Missionary Meeting.

The quarterly meeting of the clergymen of the Rural Deanery of Peterborough was held here yesterday. The following were the clergy present:—Archdeacon Allen, of Millbrook; Rev. Canon Hardy, of Apsley; Rev. Canon Davidson, of Colborne; Rev. J. E. Cooper, of Hastings; Rev. W. E. Cooper, of Grafton; Rev. W. C. Allen, of Millbrook; Rev. Geo. Warran, of Lakefield; Rev. J. W. McCleary, of St. Luke's; Rev. J. C. Davidson and Rev. C. B. Kenrick, of St. John's.

Holy Communion was celebrated at St. John's at 8.30, after which the programme of the meeting was proceeded with. A resolution was passed congratulating the Archdeacon upon his elevation and welcoming him to Peterborough.

The morning service was taken up with a study of the Greek Testament and liturgy. In the afternoon reports were presented, the Rural Dean of the different parishes setting forth the work done during the year. A discussion followed on the apportionment of the large missionary bequest of the late Archdeacon Wilson, and it was recommended that the money be devoted to aggressive church work in new centres.

At five o'clock the members attended the afternoon service at St. John's church, at which Rev. Mr. Kenrick's full surplice choir was present.

A MISSIONARY MEETING.

In the evening a public missionary meeting was held in the new South Ward Mission building. There was a good attendance and the meeting was interesting. Addresses were delivered by Archdeacon Allen, Rev. W. C. Allen, Rev. Canon Harding, Rev. John Gibson, Rev. W. E. Cooper and Rev. Canon Davidson. These addresses were principally of the different branches of the missionary work of the church and the whole tone of the meeting was of a most hopeful character. From the energetic reports made and the warm words spoken the supporters of the church may feel encouraged and inspired for the work of the coming year. It was stated that the St. John's church subscription towards missionary purposes for the present year had increased $60.

Archdeacon Allen in his address spoke of the missionary work that had been done in the South Ward and congratulated St. John's on the handsome building, a result of the work. He recalled days spent in Peterborough some years ago and expressed the hope that the earnestness and zeal that had characterized them in the past could still be evinced in the future.

Rev. W. C. Allen said there was a small comprehension of the magnitude of the missionary work of the church of England, because it had been their policy to say little about it. Even in the Canadian branch, so comparatively small, large sums were apportioned to the care of missions and in the Canadian church they had now four men in the foreign field. In closing he appealed to members to work, not for the narrow extension of the church, but for the extension of the kingdom of Christ and the principles thereof.

Canon Harding gave an account of missionary work in the back woods where he had spent his whole life. While it had its discouragements it also had its encouragements.

Rev. John Gibson reported that Norwood had been divided into two centres. Havelock constituted a parish with a clergyman and lay reader in charge. He said it was different in a city and in a town like Peterborough, and the people here with the great privileges they enjoyed, might well extend a helping hand to their less fortunate brethren.

Rev. W. E. Cooper gave an exhaustive address on "The Position and Work of the Church." This address was an exceptionally able one and very interesting.

Rev. Canon Davidson in concluding the meeting, said it was a pleasant thing to see them working and progressing so encouragingly. There was a spirit of aggressiveness and zeal making itself felt throughout the church in Canada as had been experienced in England. Active and enterprising clergymen were going into the field and the laity was coming forward to active aid in the advancement of the church.

At the close of the meeting a liberal offertory was taken up.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

The Workingmen's Meeting To-night—Other Notes of the Political Battle.

There will undoubtedly be a grand rally of workingmen at the Opera House to-night to hear Mr. John Armstrong, the well-known labor man who is to speak in Mr. Stevenson's behalf on the issues of the present campaign. Mr. Jury will also probably be present. Mr. Armstrong is an able speaker and all labor men should hear him.

Smith

A good meeting was held by Mr. Stevenson at Montgomery's school house in Smith, last night. Mr. Stevenson and Mr. J. H. Burnham addressed the meeting and were well received.

To-morrow Afternoon.

To-morrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock a meeting especially for farmers will be held in the Opera House. Mr. C. H. Mackintosh, of Ottawa, will give an address on the questions at issue in this contest as they effect agriculture. There should be a large attendance, as the questions to be decided are of the first importance.

The Spring Hill Disaster.

To the Editor of the Review.

DEAR SIR,—Has anything been done here to help the sufferers by the Spring Hill disaster or has excitement about the elections driven everything else from our minds? If no one has anything to suggest, I shall be very happy to act as Treasurer and forward donations free of charge. At this distance we hardly realize the amount of distress involved in the sudden taking away of the bread winners for 60 women and 160 children. Whatever is to be done should be done at once.

Yours truly,
F. J. LEWIS.
Bank of Montreal.

Peterborough, Feb. 27, 1891.

Roses and Other Cut Flowers

as well as floral designs, to be had at Mason's Seed and Plant House, corner of Water and Brock-st. d4gtf

HERE ARE FACTS.

A Letter from a Former Reformer of Peterborough.

The following letter was written by Mr. Robert McCallum, formerly of Peterborough and who was a strong Reformer, to his brother in Colborne. It contains facts and advice that should be read by everyone at this time:—

WELLS & MCCALLUM, DRY GOODS.
GIBBON, NEB., Feb. 20, 1891.

MY DEAR CHARLEY,—Your letter received this morning and I hasten to answer it. I was very glad to hear from you and to hear that you were well. We are having a hard time here to pull through this winter. We lost our corn crop and our farmers are in a bad state, so trade is terribly bad; none at all in fact. I hope you will win this election, as some day I intend to go back to Canada to live, if I ever get money enough to get back. I wish you had written me sooner about your election, as I could have given you some pointers that would open the eyes of Canada's farmers. However, I would just say that I have been in the United States for seven years, five years in Indiana and two years in Nebraska, and my own observations have gone to show that the farmers of the United States are no no better off than the farmers of Canada, and, in my estimation, far worse off, and are year by year becoming poorer and poorer, and all the great monopolies and railroad syndicates are getting richer and richer, and it is certainly on account of the legislation being in favor of these millionaire corporations, to whom bow down every statesman and office holder from the President, who resides in the White House, down to the petty politician or chronic office holder from away back. It would take more time than I have to spare or that I could crowd into one short letter to name one hundredth part of the legislation in favor of these combines and against the farmers, and in proof of my statement I would call your attention to the Farmers' Alliance that sprung up all over the land last November and captured lots of the legislatures of the different states, and in our state they are very strong; in fact, in all the western states the farmers have risen to try and better their condition, and annexation would be a sorry day for Canada. Unrestricted reciprocity must certainly lead to either trouble or annexation. Canada must certainly have her tariff arranged for her at Washington to correspondent with the American. This the Canadian would not stand, so there comes the trouble; or else Washington statesmen must dictate what your tariff shall be to protect themselves against imports through Canada under lower duties than theirs. Then naturally comes annexation, and the question is, will you be Canadians and run your own affairs, or will you be a lot of hangers on incapable of running your own Government, and ask the United States to run it for you and fix your import duties and dictate what you shall do and what you shall not do? Reciprocity is a delusion and a snare. What better off are the Canadian farmers if they do get the markets of the United States? None. They will have other markets closed against them, as the United States have. Do they not now sell all they can raise at a fair market price, and is not their price better, or fully as good, as that of the farmers of the United States? The American farmer can and does more than supply the American markets and the prices of their products are ruled largely by combines and corners, and if Canada's people want to be ruled in their prices by these bloodhounds and have a taste of Blaine's reciprocity, by all mean's don't allow supply and demand to cut any figure at all. Then all they have to export has to stand in competition with the world's products the same as other countries. Where would the advantage be? Canada would not sell one pound more stuff from the farm to this country than she does at present, and if she did the price would not be as good as it is now, for the Americans could control it and the price as they do the farmers of the west to-day. As for cattle and hogs, why, the western farmer does not know what to do with what he has to-day. The more he has of them the poorer he is, as three or four firms control the whole output. Anyone who is desirous may satisfy himself of the truth of this statement by looking at the market of Omaha, Kansas City, St. Joseph, Sioux City, etc. Yesterday in Omaha corn fed steers sold for $4 40, and this was the top of the market and the pick of 1,500 head. Hogs sold for $3.40 for tops, the pick of 77 carloads. I do not know but I do not think Canadian farmers would sell their hogs and cattle for so small a price. We have always had butter and eggs at 12½ and 10c. respectively; in fact, everything from the farm is smaller in price to the farmer and costs more money to the consumers in the cities. I enclose you the reports of sales made in Omaha of hogs and cattle so you can compare prices. I also send you the Omaha Stockman, so you can see the prices farm stuff sells for out west, and I maintain, after seven years in business in the United States, that the Canadians are better off under their Government than they would be under any agreement they could make with the United States. No, no, look out for unrestricted reciprocity, and beware how you vote. To show you the deplorable state of things in this country, I wish to say in conclusion that Nebraska has had a wonderfully abundant harvest for 13 successive seasons and this year we had a failure. There are 86 counties in this state and on account of the failure of one crop 42 counties have been compelled to ask the state legislature for aid to keep them from starving and 37 have asked for aid to purchase seed for that much talked of in Canada rich and prosperous farmer in the western states, and this after 13 years of good crops. And what is true of Nebraska is true of Kansas, Iowa, Dakota and all the western states whenever they happened to lose a crop. There is a screw loose somewhere and it does not lie with the farmer, for he generally works hard and tries to get along, but he is not so well off as his Canuck neighbor. Where in the whole scope of Canada's broad land from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the lakes to the ice-bound regions of the north, would a failure of one crop, after an abundant harvest for 13 years, compel the people to seek aid to keep them from starving and furnish them with seed for the next year's crop? No, sir; the markets of the United States are not worth the body and soul of Canada, for the American farmer can and does supply them with an overwhelming extent, but their prices are all controlled by combines, as I said before, and you never can get any satisfactory treaty with the United States only by giving over yourselves body and soul to them. They are afraid of Canadian statesmen on any other terms, and Canada always got the big end of the stick in a bargain with Uncle Sam, smart as he is supposed to be. So if there is any treaty to be made let the same old part make it, and then you will find that Canada is all right, and will come out on top, and you will find that it won't last long, for as soon as the Yankees find they have not got all the advantages on their side they will do as they always have done, either violate or annul it the first opportunity. But my candid opinion is, the less you have to do with the United States the better. Yours in haste.

ROBERT.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Under the present fiscal policy the aggregate trade of Canada has shown an average increase of $22,000,000 a year. Support Messrs. Burnham and Stevenson.

THE HORSE TRADE.

Another Campaign Roorback Exposed—Facts Regarding the Trade.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—My attention has just been drawn to a paragraph which appeared in last evening's Examiner to the effect that the stallion "Farmers' Profit" and the mare "Anderson Maid" which I am now shipping to Brandon, I would have purchased for the United States market, but that 30 per cent. McKinley duty levied on horses worth over $150, amounted to $160.80 on the price paid.

Now, sir, I wish to say that this is utterly untrue, and is evidently fastened on to me for a purpose. I would never have thought of buying these animals for the United States market and I will tell you why: The market over there for horses don't amount to a hill o' beans now, and instead of improving, it is getting worse all the time, independent of any McKinley bill. My best market is where I am shipping my horses to now, and the Americans themselves knows there is no better market for horses now than in Manitoba, and it is no fault of theirs if they don't make the most of it.

Yours, etc.,
W. M. GREER.

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. All druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are placing a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have a Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup, or Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

WORKINGMEN
ATTENTION!

Mass Meeting
—OF—WORKINGMEN
ON THIS FRIDAY Ev'g.
FEB. 27th,
IN THE OPERA HOUSE,

to hear an address in the interest of Mr. Stevenson, the Conservative Candidate, by

MR. J. ARMSTRONG,
OF TORONTO,

who will discuss matters connected with the present issue now before the electors and which are of vital interest to every Workingman.

Those who heard the address by Mr. Jury are particularly requested to be present

Mr. Hall or his representative and Mr. Jury are invited to be present. Time will be allowed for discussion.

Reserved seats for Ladies.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN. 2d47

Stop that
CHRONIC COUGH NOW!

For if you do not it may become consumptive. For Consumption, Scrofula, General Debility and Wasting Diseases, there is nothing like

SCOTT'S EMULSION
Of Pure Cod Liver Oil and HYPOPHOSPHITES
Of Lime and Soda.

It is almost as palatable as milk. Far better than other so-called Emulsions. A wonderful flesh producer.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

is put up in a salmon color wrapper. Be sure and get the genuine. Sold by all Dealers at 50c. and $1.00.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Belleville.

ELECTORAL DISTRICT
OF THE
WEST RIDING
OF THE
County of Peterborough.

The names and addresses of the agents appointed by the Candidates at this Election in pursuance of Section 118 of the Dominion Elections Act are,

For RICHARD HALL, a candidate, GEORGE M. ROGER of the Town of Peterborough, Barrister at Law.

For JAMES STEVENSON, a candidate, PETER HENRY of the Town of Peterborough, Book Keeper.

JAS. A. HALL,
1d26 Returning Officer.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask you self if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. d16w4 time

Redpath's Cut Loaf Sugar

In 5 lb. boxes, Redpath's Pure Syrup in 2 lb. tins, Fresh Salmon, 2 tins for 25c.; Finest Canadian Cheese, 2 lbs. for 25c.; Pickles equal to bottled, 15c. per quart or 2 quarts for 25c. All goods cheap. W. J. Morrow 349 George-st. d41-w8

New Music
AT SAILSBURY'S.

DO YOU

know that now is the time to select your suit for Spring? Never again will you have such an opportunity. The stock is new, the assortment complete, and we can devote more time to help you in making a selection, than later on. Select your pattern now and we shall keep it for you until required; many of our customers find it to their advantage to do this, so will you. It makes no difference whether you want it in a week or a month, you leave the order and we will do the rest. We warrant the goods, guarantee the style and give you an unquestionable fit. The furnishing department is filled with all the latest novelties and anything you require can be obtained from

T. DOLAN & Co.
Clothiers and Furnishers.

1891. 1891.

NEW DRESS GOODS!

Very Low in Price.

New Prints,
New Embroideries,
New Check Muslins,
New Wool Tweeds,
New Shirtings,
New Ginghams,
New Table Linens,
New Towelings,
New Flanelettes,
New Shirting Flannels,

Very Low in Price.

—AT—

THOS. KELLY'S.

20 pieces Double Fold Bleached Sheetings, Plain or Twilled, at 20c. per yard.
10 pieces Double Fold Grey Sheetings, Plain, at 15c. per yard.
5 Bales Grey Cotton (soiled) at 3c. per yard.

—AT—

THOS. KELLY'S, CORNER OF GEORGE AND SIMCOE-STS.

LeBRUN & Co's
Spring Announcement.

MR. LEBRUN has just returned home after a personal inspection in the best markets for Cloths and Clothing: We are satisfied you will be pleased to take a look through our New Stock of Spring Goods for 1891, and learn the splendid values we can offer you.

In Foreign and Canadian Cloths, we make a display of very fine goods, in the leading styles for the season.

We have also provided a large assortment of Spring and Summer Clothing of the newest styles, and best of all, at prices which will be found extremely moderate

By a Special Purchase of West of England and Scotch Tweeds, we are in a position to make up pants, worth from $6.00 to $7.00 in the regular way, for the very low price of $4.50. We say it, and say it confidentially, that our range of Tweeds, Worsteds and Pantings can hardly be excelled.

The magnitude of our stock and lowness of prices gives us a great advantage. We carry in stock, all the fast selling lines, styles and patterns, and can fit all ages and sizes.

Special lines in Fine Spring Overcoats, and Fine, Spring and Summer Suits. Don't fail to see them. The superb styles, workmanship and the beautiful fabrics and patterns that we offer will surprise you.

Gentlemen of Peterborough seeking the latest styles and best values for their money as well as an opportunity of selecting from the largest stock of Furnishing Goods, should not fail to visit the

CITY CLOTHING STORE.

IN THE MARKET!

1.—I have sold out the City Hotel to Wm Clancy, in 19 minutes.
2.—I have sold out Faren & Co. Billiard Room etc., to Faren & Co. in 13 minutes.
3.—The Dry Goods Stock is in the Market. If there is any new blood for this offer call and see me. Want to dispose of it inside of 10 days.

I am off for Australia early next month.

I mean business. If the stock is too large can be reduced to $1,000 in 30 days.

JAMES DOLAN,
George Street, Peterborough.

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1891.

HE IS ALL RIGHT.

Got a Nest Egg and is Ready to Jump the Country.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.—Advices from Guatemala say President Barillas has made all arrangements for leaving the country. He has sold his coffee crops for the next three years for $1,800,000 cash, besides which he has mortgaged his entire estates for $2,200,000 to a German syndicate, so that in case he is forced to leave the country his property can not be touched. Barillas is said to fear an outburst of popular resentment against his rule, and to be prepared for flight at any moment. He has a "nest egg" of $20,000,000 deposited in the Bank of England.

PROMISE OF A ROW.

German Papers Resent the French Insult to the Emperor

BERLIN, Feb. 27.—The Cologne Gazette commenting on the conciliatory overtures which Emperor William has made to France of which the visit of ex-Empress Frederick is regarded as proof says: The French have a right to think of revenge, but they have no right to injure the feeling of the head of the Empire and his mother by insults that could be expected only of scoundrels. The German people feel deeply the outrage upon the person of their Emperor, and they have a right to expect the French people and Government to give ample satisfaction and to wipe out the stain upon the honor of France by energetically calling upon the French Government to make reparation.

Fails to Have Much Effect.

PARIS, Feb. 26.—Ex-Empress Frederick and daughter visited the cathedral of Notre Dame, the Cluny Museum and Luxemburg Gardens to-day. Excited groups gathered in the lobbies of the Chamber of Deputies this evening discussing The Cologne Gazette's article to-day, and the effect of the rebuff on the imperious nature of the Emperor. In view of The Cologne Gazette's reputation for such angry ebullitions, the article fails to have the effect it might have had if produced by a more sober journal. The Paris evening papers reprint the article, but none makes any comment excepting Liberte, which says the article will enlighten the Boulangists as to the imprudence of their eccentricities. This reflects the general opinion among moderate men.

GERMANS WANT A NAVY

To Shut Up Russia in the Baltic While Britain Looks After France.

BERLIN, Feb. 26.—The Secretary of the Admiralty made an unreserved statement before the Reichstag Committee on naval estimates yesterday. He declared it was imperative that Germany should have a first class navy or none. The money asked for in the estimates was necessary. He alarmed the committee by pointing out the possibility of a joint attack by France and Russia on Germany. He also made a number of statements which he asked the committee to keep secret, but which it is believed related to a method of locking up the Russian navy in the Baltic Sea while England or Italy held the French navy in check in the Mediterranean.

A STORMY PASSAGE.

The Steamer France Encounters Terrific Gales at Sea.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—The steamer France cleared the English coast and then ran into a hurricane. The France met an unusually terrific gale on the 13th inst. Several big seas came aboard washing away cattle pens on the main deck. The 55 steerage passengers were locked below. The storm with a high cross sea continued with all its violence throughout the night and 6 o'clock on the 14th an extra heavy struck on the starboard side just abaft the engine rooms and tore away the solid iron rails for 38 feet, rolled forward smashing the companionway and breaking the strong iron bridge as if it were pipe clay. Second Officer Baines, aged 33, was descending the bridge ladder, when he was caught up, by the sea, swept overboard and lost. Part of the sea rushed forward and caught half a dozen sailors. Four men were so badly injured that they had to be taken to the ship's hospital. The vessel's coal supply was nearly exhausted when she reached Sandy Hook.

His Body Eaten by Dogs.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—About noon to-day the body of an unknown man about 25 years old was found in a lot at the corner of Boston and Sedgwick-avenues. Near by lay a pistol with one chamber discharged. The body had a bullet hole in the head. In one of the pockets of the dead man an envelope, postmarked, "Jacksonville, Florida Dec. 9, 1890," on which the name William Flint, general delivery, Savannah, Georgia, was found. This was the only clue to the identity of the supposed suicide. A horrible feature of the case was the discovery that one side of the body had been eaten away, it was presumed by dogs of the neighborhood.

To Graft White Skin on Blacks.

READING, Pa., Feb. 26.—Encouraged by his successful experiment in grafting a negro's skin on a white man's body and having it become white, Dr. John Ege, of this city, has requested colored subjects on whose bodies he may graft white men's skin to see if it will turn black.

Took Rat Poison.

HAMILTON, Feb. 26.—Mrs. Smith, wife of John Smith, tailor, 84 Aberdeen-avenue tried to commit suicide last evening. She and her husband have not lived happily together for several years. About 8 o'clock last night Mrs. Smith was despondent and she took a dose of rat poison. Shortly afterwards she repented her rash act and took an emetic. She will recover.

Floods in N.Y. State.

WATERTOWN, N.Y., Feb. 26.—The streams in St. Lawrence and Lewis counties are dangerously high. Canton's waterworks are temporarily useless. The Racquette is higher than it has been in many years. Raymondsville, six miles north of Norwood, is submerged. Several houses have been carried away. At Norfolk a dam and sawmill have been swept away. Copenhagen, Lewis county, has half its streets submerged in water.

Blackburn Mills Close.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—The weaving branch of the cotton trade is undergoing the most serious depression that it has experienced for many years.

The situation at Blackburn and in the surrounding manufacturing towns is becoming alarming. In Blackburn 10 mills have closed, which means the stoppage of 10,000 looms and the enforced idleness of 3000 operatives.

The manufacturers declare that it is impossible for them to obtain orders.

State Line Steamship Company.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—The directors of the State line of steamers plying between Glasgow and New York announced that £30,000 are now required to meet their liabilities. As the directors are of opinion that the share owners will be unwilling to advance so large a sum, they recommend that the company be placed in liquidation.

The Dockers' Strike.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—The situation of the dockers' strike is less serious to-day. Hostilities seem to be suspended. The stevedores are at work.

COPYRIGHT 1890

WHAT YOUR GREAT GRANDMOTHER DID.

She hetcheled the flax and carded the wool, and wove the linen, and spun the tow, and made the clothes for her husband and ten children. She made butter and cheese, she dipped tallow candles, to light the house at night, and she cooked all the food for her household by an open fireplace and a brick oven. Yes; and when she was forty years of age, she was already an old lady whose best days were over. Her shoulders were bent and her joints enlarged by hard work, and she wore spectacles and a cap.

Her great grand-daughter, with all the modern conveniences for comfort, refinement and luxury, may be as charming and attractive at forty-five as at twenty. Especially is this true if she preserves her health and beauty by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which wards off all female ailments and irregularities, cures them if they already exist, keeps the life current healthful and vigorous, and enables the woman of middle age to retain the freshness of girlhood upon brow and cheek, the light of youth in her eyes, and its elasticity in her step.

Go to your drug store, pay a dollar, get a bottle and try it—try a second, a third if necessary. Before the third one's been taken you'll know that there's a remedy to help you. Then you'll keep on and a cure'll come.

But if you shouldn't feel the help, should be disappointed in the results—you'll find a guarantee printed on the bottle-wrapper that'll get your money back for you.

How many women are there who'd rather have the money than health? And "Favorite Prescription" produces health. Wonder is that there's a woman willing to suffer when there's a guaranteed remedy to be had in the nearest drug store.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Mrs. Bond—"Did you tell Mrs. Jawsmith that I was out, Norah?" Norah—"I did, mum." Mrs. Bond—"Did she say anything?" Norah—"She said 'Thank goodness,' mum."

"Going a fishing?" inquired his wife. "Yes; catch about a dozen or so." "Why so few? Fish are so cheap now you might as well catch a couple of dozen while about it."

"Yes," said old Aunt Wisdom, "I cut out every good thing that I see in the papers; but what puzzles me is that the best articles end by mentioning some cure. One of the new literary fads, I suppose."

Foreman—"That article about the McCoy murder has all pied. What shall I do?" Editor—"Shove the type together, head it 'The Political Situation,' and place it in the editorial column."

Editor (to office boy)—"How do you spell 'tautology?'" Office boy (promptly)—"I don't spell it at all." Editor (angrily)—"What did you go to school for?" Office boy (sadly)—"Because I had to."

Editor of Religious Department (pausing a moment in his work)—"How does that quotation go—'A prophet is not without honor—except——'" Railroad Editor (busily scratching away)—"Except among thieves."

Patiently (wofully)—"Oh, doctor! I'm all twisted up with the rheumatism and neuralgia. Oh, do you think, doctor, you can get all the pain out of me?" Doctor (kindly)—"Well, I will try to get all out of you I can."

"I wonder you don't enter the prize ring," said Mrs. Wings to Scales, her grocer. "Me, mum! Lord, what would I be doing that for?" "It only occurred to me that you might compete for the light weight championship."

Sano—"Women nowadays are not the tender creatures they are popularly supposed to be. They can stand a great deal." Mrs. Sano—"Yes, and I presume that is why you men let us stand so much in the elevated cars."

Aunt Rachel—"Yes, I like him well enough, Jerusha; but how did you ever happen to marry a man a head shorter than you are?" Niece—"I had to choose, auntie, between a little man with a big salary and a big man with a little salary."

It may be charged against the men folk that they are not so prompt as they should be in relinquishing their seats in the street cars to the fair sex: but then the men should be credited as an offset with a very general willingness, practically expressed, to leave to the ladies plenty of seats in the churches on Sundays.

TURKISH DYES

EASY TO USE.

They are Fast.

They are Beautiful.

They are Brilliant.

SOAP WON'T FADE THEM.

Have YOU used them; if not, try and be convinced.

One Package equal to two of any other make.

Canada Branch: 481 St. Paul Street, Montreal. Send postal for Sample Card and Book of Instructions.

"HARVARD"

"In twenty years experience as a druggist, I have never handled a remedy giving such satisfaction as does Harvard Bronchial Syrup." J. J. Perry, Napanee, Ont. —"Have used it myself with the grandest results, and know many sufferers from Bronchial Trouble, who have been completely cured by it." J. G. Melaren, Montreal.

FOR MEN ONLY!

VIGOR STRENGTH

For LOST or FAILING MANHOOD; General and NERVOUS DEBILITY; Weakness of Body and Mind, Effects of Errors or Excesses in Old or Young. Robust, Noble MANHOOD fully Restored. How to enlarge and strengthen WEAK, UNDEVELOPED ORGANS & PARTS OF BODY. Absolutely unfailing HOME TREATMENT—Benefits in a day. Men testify from 50 States and Foreign Countries. Write them. Descriptive Book, explanation and proofs mailed (sealed) free. Address ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N. Y.

"HARVARD"

Harvard Bronchial Syrup emanates from the Medical Faculty of Harvard University, the best medical skill in America, and has proved to be the most wonderful cure for all Throat Troubles and Coughs resulting from sudden Colds. Pleasing to the taste. Absolutely free from injurious ingredients. Large bottles 25c, half the price of inferior remedies.

A. J. Lawrence, Montreal, Prop. for Canada. By all dealers.

SELLING AT REDUCED PRICES

We are offering our Stock of Manufactured Furs at cost, previous to stock taking. The stock comprises a choice assortment of Ladies' and Gents fine Fur Collars, Cuffs, Capes, Caps, Gauntlets and Coats. Also a few Musk Ox, Bear, Opposum and Goat Robes.

CALL AND BE CONVINCED.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.

Manufacturing Furriers.

PACKING HOUSE STORE!

For a Choice Selection of

Smoked Sugar Cured Meats and Bacon

LARD, guaranteed pure, in any quantity.

GEORGE MATTHEWS

356 George Street, Peterborough.

—ONTARIO—

Planing Mills!

Planing, Matching, Mouldings, Band Sawing & Turning, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Storm Sash.

JAMES Z. ROGERS.

Choicest Brands —OF— FLOUR!

BAKERS and PASTRY —AT— MELDRUM & DAVIDSON'S

Quality Guaranteed.

FEED:

All kinds always on hand. Orders left at Ormond & Walsh's or McDonald's drug stores will be promptly attended to.

Mill Telephone No. 106.

LOWEST PRICES FOR CASH.

HAGGART & KIDD,

TOWN and COUNTY } Auctioneers,

COMMISSION and SHIPPING } Merchants,

REAL ESTATE and INSURANCE } Agents.

☞ Money to Loan.

CAKES!

For a Good Cake, leave your orders at

Long Bros.

Also home-made cakes iced and nicely Ornamented. Wedding Breakfasts and Evening Parties Catered for. Oyster Patties made to order. Our stock of Candies is pure and made by ourselves.

No. 286 and 414 George-st.

D. BELLEGHEM,

Issuer of Mariage Licenses,

PETERBOROUGH.

UNION CREDIT & PROTECTION ASSOCIATION.

FOR the Collection of Old and Worthless Accounts, in any part of the world, and no charges if not collected. This Association has local officers in Canada and United States. Head and general office, 60½ Adelaide-st. East, Toronto. Rooms 10, 11, 12 and 13. O. E. COLLINS, General Manager; & H. B. ANDREWS, Sec. Address all communications to Toronto, Ont., office. Telphone No. 2466. This is the only Association that settles accounts and advances the money to the creditor if desired.

O. E. COLLINS, Manager

DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON, Solicitors for the Association at Peterborough.

August 28th, 1890. d51-w

GEO. B. SPROULE,

ARTIST & PHOTOGRAPHER

GROUND FLOOR,

170 Charlotte-st. - - - - - Peterborough.

FRAMES & PICTURE MOULDINGS.

TOOLS!

BUILDING HARDWARE!

NAILS, LOCKS, HINGES,

and all Building Hardware

Edge Tools, Saws, Files, Planes

and all Mechanics' Tools.

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc., etc.

of the Best Quality and Lower in Price than Elsewhere

GEO. STETHEM.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins, by grocers, labelled thus:

JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England.

Travel.

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY OF CANADA.

The direct route between the west and all points on the Lower St. Lawrence and Baie de Chaleur, Province of Quebec, also New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward, Cape Breton and the Magdalene Islands, Newfoundland and St. Pierre.

Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax daily (Sunday excepted) and run through without change between these points in 30 hours.

The through express train cars of the Intercolonial Railway are brilliantly lighted by electricity and heated by steam from the locomotive.

New and elegant Buffet Sleeping and Day Cars are run on all through express trains.

The popular summer sea bathing and fishing resorts of Canada are along the Intercolonial or are reached by that route.

Canadian, European Mail and Passenger Route.

Passengers for Great Britain or the Continent leaving Montreal on Thursday morning will join outward mail steamer at Rimouski the same evening.

The attention of shippers is directed to the superior facilities offered by this route for the transport of flour and general merchandise intended for the Eastern Provinces and New Foundland, also for shipments of grain and produce intended for the European market.

Tickets may be obtained and all information about the route, also freight and passenger rates on application to

N. WEATHERSTON,

Western Freight and Passenger Agent, 93 Rossin House Block, York street, Toronto.

D. POTTINGER, Chief Superintendent.

Railway Office, Moncton, N.B., 2nd July, 1890. ly

CANADIAN PACIFIC RY.

SETTLERS' TRAINS

WILL LEAVE ON FEBRUARY 24th, 1891 AT 9.00 P.M.

AND EVERY TUESDAY THEREAFTER DURING MARCH AND APRIL

WITH COLONIST SLEEPER ATTACHED FOR

MANITOBA AND THE CANADIAN NORTH-WEST

For full information and descriptive pamphlets of Manitoba, the North West Territories and British Columbia. Apply to any C. P. R. Agent.

BLANK FORMS

Deeds,

Mortgages,

Home Leases,

etc., etc.,

Printed on good paper and correct forms.

AT THE REVIEW STATIONERY.

BANK of TORONTO

Capital $2,000,000 00

Reserve Fund........ 1,500,000 00

PETERBORO' BRANCH.

SAVINGS BANK

SPECIAL ADVANTAGES are derived by depositing money in our Savings Bank Department.

1. "ONE DOLLAR saved is one dollar earned."
2. DEPOSITS of ONE DOLLAR and upwards are received and interest allowed thereon.
3. INTEREST is added to the principal on the 31st day of May and 30th day of November, in each year
4. MONEY bears interest from the day it is deposited with the Bank until the day of withdrawal.
5. THE DEPOSITOR is subject to no delay whatever.
6. THE SECURITY offered by this Bank is undoubted, as will be seen by the large reserve held and the amount of surplus available for depositors and note holders.

BUSINESS WITH FARMERS.

FARMERS' NOTES discounted at lowest rates. SPECIAL ATTENTION is given to the collection of Farmers' Sale Notes, and advances made thereon.

NOTE FORMS furnished free of charge on application.

DEPOSITS.

DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS opened subject to withdrawal by cheque on demand.

SPECIAL DEPOSITS.—Deposit Receipts issued bearing interest at current rates.

JOHN L. GOWER, Manager

d18-w7

MULHOLLAND & ROPER

BANKERS AND INSURANCE AGENTS

Banking Department.

Deposit Accounts opened and Notes discounted at short dates or for twelve months if required. Special attention given to the purchase and collection of Farmers' Sale Notes. Drafts drawn on Merchants Bank of Canada payable in New York, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and at any of its Branches in the Dominion. Cheques on other Banks cashed.

Four to Five per cent. allowed on deposits repayable on demand.

BANKING HOURS.—9.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m.

Insurance Department.

MR. FELIX BROWNSCOMBE is a partner in and manager of this department.

Careful attention given to Fire, Accident and Plate Glass Insurance.

The following companies are represented:—London and Lancashire, City of London, Phœnix of Brooklyn, Caledonian, Royal Canadian, Agricultural, Montreal Plate Glass, Mutual Accident and Plate Glass, and Norwich and London Accident.

OFFICE HOURS.—9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

JOHN NUGENT,

CHEMIST AND DRUGGIST.

Prescriptions Carefully Compounded.

Try Nugent's Remedies for Colds, Coughs and affections of the chest and throat.

J. NUGENT,

Drug Store, 379 Hunter-st. west.

Medical.

DR. SCOTT.

OFFICE—176 Brock-st. d116w24

P. D. GOLDSMITH, M. D.

L. R. C. S., L. S. A., L. R. C. P., London, Eng.,

HAS permanently located in Peterborough. Office and residence, 128 Brock-st., formerly occupied by Mr. J. E. McWilliams.

TELEPHONE CONNECTION. d47-w35-1y

D. N. CARMICHAEL, M. D.,

C. M., L. R. C. P. Ed.

GRADUATE OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY, Fellow of Trinity Medical School, Licentiate of Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh, L. M. of Simpson's Maternity Hospital, Edinburgh. Office in Mr. Alexander's new residence one door north of the late Dr. O'Sullivan's, George-st. d3m28-wy78

DR. B. E. McKENZIE, B. A.

Lecturer on Orthopedic Surgery in the Women's Medical College, and in Toronto University; Consulting Orthopedic surgeon to Victoria Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto.

Diseases of the Joints and Deformities Only

Bloor-st. W. (near Yonge-st.) Toronto, Consultation from 10 to 2. On Friday and Saturday by appointment only.

Will be at the Grand Central Hotel, Peterborough, March 14th. next.

DR. MOHER,

HAS removed to 214 Hunter-st., opposite Marble Works. Office upstairs.

Legal.

HATTON & WOOD.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, NOTARIES, &c. Office, corner of George and Hunter-sts., over T. Dolan & Co's. store. MONEY TO LOAN.

E. E. WOOD, B. A., G. W. HATTON.

SAWERS & STONE.

BARRISTERS, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyances, &c. Office, Hunter-st., Peterborough.

☞ MONEY TO LOAN.

E. B. STONE, d108-w52 C. W. SAWERS.

POUSSETTE & JOHNSTON,

BARRISTERS and SOLICITORS, 370 Water-st.

A. P. POUSSETTE, Q. C. W. F. JOHNSTON.

EDWARD A. PECK.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, etc., 363 George-st., Peterborough,

Private Funds to loan at 6 per cent.

HALL & HAYES.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES PUBLIC, Hunter-st., Peterborough next English church. Money to loan at lowest rates of interest.

R. E. D. HALL, LOUIS M. HAYES.

JOHN O'MEARA.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, &c. Office 383 George-st. d-w

JOHN BURNHAM

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office: No. 415 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont., next door north of new post office.

MONEY TO LOAN. d&w

W. H. MOORE,

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR in the Supreme Court, etc. Office:—Corner of George and Hunter-sts., over McClelland's Jewellery store. d115w15

G. M. ROGER.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, &c. Office of the Peterborough Real Estate Investment Company, Water-st., Peterborough. d37w

DENNISTOUN & STEVENSON.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS and NOTARIES. Money to Loan. Office, 417 Water-st., Peterborough, Ont.

ARTHUR STEVENSON, B. A.

R. M. DENNISTOUN, M. A.

STRATTON & HALL.

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, &c., Peterborough, Ont. Office—Next door to Post Office on Hunter-st.

W. A. STRATTON, LL. B. R. E. HALL. d155

C. E. and Land Surveyors.

RICHARD B. ROGERS,

SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER, TRENT NAVIGATION WORKS, Office Post Office Block, Peterborough. wd27

J. E. BELCHER

ARCHITECT AND CIVIL ENGINEER, Town and County Engineer. Office over Bank of Commerce, George-st. d80w16

Builders and Contractors

E. WEBB,

BRICKLAYER AND CONTRACTOR. All work done substantially and expeditiously. Address E. WEBB, Peterborough. Residence, 536 Aylmer-st. 1yd135

J. J. HARTLEY.

BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR. Contracts taken—first class work done. Houses and lots for sale. Materials furnished. P. O. Box 647; residence, corner of Antrim and Aylmer-sts. 1yd130

WM. H. McELWAIN.

CONTRACTOR. All work guaranteed to be first class. The best of town references given. Residence, George street, north P. O. address, Box 81. d150

W. E. WHITEHAIR.

PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL PLASTERER CALCIMINING and REPAIRING done in first class style. Residence, Sherbrooke-st., near South Ward School. Orders by post, Box 386, Peterborough P.O. d45-1y7

JAS. R. DONELL.

RIVERSIDE PLANING MILLS, Peterborough, manufacturers of Doors and Sash Office Fittings, Planing and Matching, Turning, Band and Scroll Sawing, &c. Being a practical man, he trusts to be able to give patrons the best of satisfaction, both in workmanship and prices. Patronage respectfully solicited.

JAS. R. DONELL.

Big G is acknowledged the leading remedy for Gonorrhœa & Gleet. The only safe remedy in Leucorrhœa or Whites. I prescribe it and feel safe in recommending it to all sufferers.

A. J. STONER, M. D., DECATUR, ILL.

Cures in 1 to 5 DAYS. Guaranteed not to cause Stricture. Mf'd only by The Evans Chemical Co. Toronto, Can.

Sold by Druggists. PRICE $1.00.

G. A. SCHOFIELD, Agt., Peterborough d 39-ly

THE CENTRAL CANADA Loan and Savings Co.

Authorized Capital	$5,000,000
Subscribed Capital	2,000,000
Paid-up Capital	900,000
Reserve Fund	100,000
Invested Funds	2,079,183.67

OFFICE.—No. 437, George-st., Peterborough.

DEPOSITS received at current rates of interest, paid or compounded half-yearly.

DEBENTURES issued in Currency or Sterling, with interest coupons attached, payable in Canada or in England. Executors and Trustees are authorized by law to invest in the Debentures of this Company.

MONEY ADVANCED on Real Estate security at current rates and on favorable conditions as to repayment.

Mortgages and Municipal Debentures purchased.

GEO. A. COX, Managing Director.

d3w9

BARAVENA MILK FOOD

FOR INFANTS is the safest, cheapest and nearest to Mothers' Milk of any Food made. Ask your Druggist.

THE ENGLAND NATIONAL FOOD CO. LD. TORONTO

For You!

Reduction in prices of all Cloths. Suits and Overcoats to order for less money than ever to clear out the balance of winter stock.

Order now.

D. CAMERON & Co.

Tailors and Clothiers, 434 George-st.

If YOU WISH to Advertise Anything Anywhere AT Any time

WRITE TO

GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.

No. 10 Spruce Street,

NEW YORK.

PETERBOROUGH POST OFFICE.

February 1st. 1891.

DUE.	MAILS.	CLOSE.
5 30 a m 6 00 p m	Montreal and East, via O. & Q. R.	11 30 a m 9 00 p m
11 30 a m 11 30 p m	Toronto and West, via O. & Q. R.	5 15 p m 9 00 p m
	Grand Trunk, East & West	1 15 p m
	do East	5 30 p m
12 00 a m 6 30 p m	Midland, including all Post Offices on the line of the Midland Railway (west.	6 00 a m 4 30 p m
8 30 a m 5 15 p m	Millbrook and Port Hope.	11 15 a m
	do do	5 30 p m
8 35 a m	Grand Junction, including Keene, Westwood, Villiers, Norwood & Hastings	1 00 p m
4 00 p m	Lakefield, including Selwyn, Hall's Bridge and Lakehurst	11 15 a m
10 30 p m	Bobcaygeon, including Bridgenorth & Ennismore	1 30 p m
6 00 p m previous night	Burleigh, including Young's Point, Burleigh Falls, Haultain, Burleigh, Apsley, Chandos, Clydesdale, Paudash and Cheddar, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays	7 30 a m
11 00 a m	Warsaw, including South Douro, Hall's Glen and Stoney Lake, daily	1 30 p m
11 00 a m	Graystock and Hiawatha, Wednesdays and Saturdays
	Fowler's Corners, Wednesdays and Saturdays	1 30 p m
	Street Letter Boxes	7 00 a m
	do do do	4 00 p m
	British Mails per Canadian line, every Wednesday at	9 00 p m
	Via New York, Mondays.
12 noon	Winnipeg, North-West Territories, British Columbia, and stations on C. P. R.	4 30 p m

Postage to Great Britain 5c. per ½ oz by each route. Registration fee, 5c.

MONEY ORDERS granted from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. on all Money Order Offices in Canada, United States, Great Britain, Germany, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Iceland, The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Australia, Hungary, Roumania, Jamaica, Barbadoes, Newfoundland, British India, Victoria (Australia), New South Wales, Tasmania and New Zealand.

DEPOSITS received under the regulations of the Post Office Savings Bank, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Registered Letters must be posted 15 minutes before the close of each mail.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Foreign Postage.

For Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Iceland, Egypt, France, Algeria, Germany, Gibraltar, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxemburg, Malta, Montenegro, Netherland, Norway, Persia, Portugal, Azores, Roumania Russia, St. Pierre, Servia, Spain, the Canary Islands, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey. And via United States:—Bermuda, Bahamas, Cuba, Danish Colonies of St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix, Jamaica, Japan and Porto Rico. (Newfoundland is now in the Postal Union but the postal rates remain as before. Letters 5 cents per ½ oz. Postal cards 2 cents each. Newspapers 2 cents for 4 oz. Registration fee 5 cents.

For Aden, Argentine Confederation, Brazil British Guinea, Ceylon, Greenland, French Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica and America, except St. Pierre and Miquelon, Persia, via Persian Gulf, Portuguese Colonies in Asia, Africa, Oceanica Trinidad, Spanish Colonies in Africa, Oceanica and America, except Cuba and Port Rico, Straits Settlements in Singapore, Penang and Malacca:—Letters 10 cents per ½ oz. Books, &c., 4c for 4 oz. Other Registrations fees 10 cents.

West India Islands, via Halifax, same rate as formerly. Payment by stamp in all cases.

Australia, (except New South Wales, Victoria) and Queensland:—Letters 7 cents, papers 4 cents.

Australia, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents.

New Zealand, via San Francisco:—Letters 15 cents, papers 4 cents. H. C. ROGERS, Post-Master.

Bell Telephone Co.,

OF CANADA.

Capital, - $1,500,000.00.

Head Office, MONTREAL.

AND. ROBERTSON, — President.

C. F. SISE, — Vice-Pres. and Man'g. Dir.

C. P. SCLATER, Secy.-Treas.

HUGH C. BAKER, Man., Ont. Dep., Hamilton.

300 EXCHANGES.

Long distance lines give unequalled facilities for talking between cities, towns and villages.

If you wish to speak to Kingston, Belleville Port Hope, Lindsay, Lakefield, Millbrook, Omemee, Toronto, Hamilton, etc., use the wires of the

BELL TELEPHONE Co.

H. W. KENT, Local Manager

d41-6mo

MUNN & CO. SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN AGENCY PATENTS

A pamphlet of information and abstract of the laws, showing How to Obtain Patents, Caveats, Trade Marks, Copyrights, sent free. Address MUNN & CO. 361 Broadway, New York.

WEDDING CARDS.

LATEST STYLES AT THE

Review Stationery Store.

DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. XXV.—No. 50. PETERBOROUGH, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1891. TEN CENTS A WEEK

Probabilities.
Winds mostly north-west and north east; generally fair and cold weather, with a little snow in some localities.

Carpets!

New arrivals of Carpets speak eloquently in favor of the

Matchless Beauty

and elegance of design thrown into this season's weave.

Our stock will be complete in every way and in placing prices on the different lines we've started out with the determination to give the Best Value to be found. Let this fact mingle with your thoughts on house-cleaning.

17,500 Yards
—OF—
NEW PRINTS and SATEENS
Received already.

Mistress Fashion has prescribed such pretty patterns for the coming season.

Be assured we'll keep up our reputation in these line.

ROBERT FAIR,
Sign of the Golden Lion,
383 George Street, Peterborough.
Ontario (144 and Bell Telephone (145)

KID GLOVES!
KID GLOVES!

W. W. JOHNSTON
has just received a complete assortment of
Black and Colored
Kid Gloves
at 85c. per pair.
The Best in the Market at the Price.

SPECIAL VALUE IN
Bed Room Towels and Kitchen Towelling.
Call and see our
ART MUSLIN
at 15c. per yard.
CRYSTAL BLOCK
410 George st.

Musical.

ORGAN, PIANOFORTE and SINGING
DR. DAVIES,
Organist of St. John's church, late of Christ Church Cathedral and of St. James' Cathedral, Toronto, receives pupils at his residence, 45 McDonnel-st. At home each day from 9 till 10 a. m. and from 2 till 3 p. m. to make engagements, etc. d46-1m

Wood and Coal.

COAL AND WOOD.
THE RATHBUN COMPANY keeps on hand Screened Hard Coal of all sizes also Smith Coal and Hard and Soft Wood delivered to any part of the town.
W. B. FERGUSON,
Telephone Connection. Agent.

COAL! COAL!
THE UNDERSIGNED KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND at his coal yard, all kinds of
COAL AND WOOD,
which will be delivered (free of charge for cartage) to any part of the town. Terms Cash.
d4w JAMES STEVENSON.

PETERBOROUGH WATER CO.
OFFICE - - 26 HUNTER-ST.
W. HENDERSON, Superintendent.
F. ADAMS, Collector.
All water rates and accounts must be paid at the office. Mr. Adams will be in the office from 2 to 5 p.m. every day

Awnings.
Tents.
AND Sails.

ALFRED KINGSCOTE has opened out in Dunsford's Block, on Water-st, opposite the market, where he is prepared to do all kinds of Awning, Tent and Sail making.
Good Work and Low Prices. Remember the place
A. KINGSCOTE,
d62-1yr No. 344 Water-st.

SAWS Filed and Gummed in First Class Style. Knives, Scissors, Tools, &c., ground and sharpened. E. W. ENGLISH, shop, 120 Charlotte-st. 318-wly

STOVES.

We have a few New and Second Hand Coal Heaters left and are running them off cheap.

LAMPS.

Beautiful designs, all styles, reduced in price.

W. G. BAIN & CO.
George-st.

For Sale or to Rent.

FOR SALE,
A QUANTITY OF PAPER CUTTINGS and shavings. Apply at REVIEW Office.

HOUSE AND LOT FOR SALE
LOT No. 8 on the south side of Weller-st. in the Town of Peterborough. Brick cottage on west half of the lot. (No. 119 Weller st.) Good building site on the east half. Apply to E. B. EDWARDS, Solicitor for Executor. 4d48

TO LET.
Store and Dwelling
No. 381 George-st., now occupied by J.J. Turner. Good stand for grocery and boarding house. STORE and DWELLING No. 381 George-st. DWELLING HOUSES No. 81 Hunter-st., and 18 and 20 Queen-st, JOHN J. LUNDY. dtf

REMOVAL.
DR. CARMICHAEL
has removed to his new office and residence, corner of Water and Brook sts, (opposite the Court House. d148-w52-3mo

A. CLEGG,
Funeral Director.
Ware rooms, - - 427 George-st.
Residence, - 16 Benson-st.
A. CLEGG, Residence, 225 Stewart street, Telephone.

EDWIN ELCOME,
TAXIDERMIST
and Dealer in Eyes, Artificial Leaves and Frostings.
BIRDS, ANIMALS, FISH and SNAKES Stuffed and Mounted in and out of cases in the best lifelike style at lowest prices. DEER'S HEADS a specialty. A stock of foreign and native birds always on hand for sale.
Residence, No. 176 Harvey-st., Peterborough d114-wd-ly

MONEY TO LOAN.
A LARGE amount of private funds has been placed in my hands for loaning on farm security.
J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM,
d4w2 Solicitor, 136 Hunter-st.

DOMINION
ELECTIONS!
West Riding of Peterborough.
MR. STEVENSON'S
Committee Rooms
OLD COUNCIL CHAMBER,
OPERA HOUSE BLOCK.
Open Every Evening. All Liberal Conservatives and Citizens wishing to maintain the present Government are invited to meet at the Rooms in the interests of the Conservative Candidate.
W. H. MOORE,
Pres. Lib.-Con. Ass'n
W. J. MINORE,
Sec. Lib.-Con. Ass'n

LADIES' JERSEYS
In all the Leading Styles
at Lowest Prices at
PORT HOPE KNITTING WORKS
382 George-st.

ATTENTION! is wanted drawn to the FACT that the following
PLUMS
are for a few days offered at
J. C. Turnbull's

A Splendid
Ladies Jacket at $3 00 worth $4.50
" " " 3.50 " 5.00
" " " 4 00 " 6.00
" Newmarket 10.00 " 17.00
Line of Gossamers at Cost.
Line of Felt Hats at 25c worth $1.00

We have also received and passed into stock the following New Goods marked down at
PANIC PRICES:
New Boys Sailor Caps at 45 and 50c
New Boys Spring Felt Hats at 35, 40 and 75c.
White and Colored Embroideries
Ladies Spring Jackets and Mantles

A Magnificent Range of New Black Dress Goods in Sebastapool, Crepe, Cashmere and Henrietta Cloths. The finest range of Prints, Drillets and Sateens in the market, in about 400 different patterns.

NEW GLOVES,
NEW HOSIERY,
NEW CORSETS,
NEW RIBBONS.

No trouble to show goods. Call, examine, learn prices and be convinced that is the place for bargains in all that is New and Fashionable.
TURNBULL'S

CHANGE OF BUSINESS

I beg to announce to my late customers that I have sold out my business to Messrs. Hilliard & Peplow, and would bespeak for them the same support as you have accorded me.
C. N. BROWN.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

For some time past we have thought that a strictly cash business in Flour, Feed and Provisions could be successfully carried on in Peterborough, and to test this question we have purchased the above business from Mr C. N. Brown, who will still continue as manager, in Flavelle's Old Stand, Simcoe st.

In order to be successful we intend to make it the interest of every one to pay cash with order by selling at wholesale prices.

We will positively give no credit and cash customers will not have to keep up the losses made by others on the credit system.

We will keep a full supply of
FLOUR, FEED, CHOP, Etc.,
and our customers need not fear that the quality of the goods will be lowered to make up for the reduction in prices.

We are simply giving them the benefit of the margin necessary to cover losses and interest charges incurred in the credit system.

Goods delivered to any part of the town or Ashburnham.

Hilliard & Peplow.
Telephones,—Bell 28, Ontario 112. d46-tf.

MR. SHELDRAKE'S
Private
PREPARATORY SCHOOL,
FOR BOYS,
LAKEFIELD, ONTARIO.

Do
Do you
Do you buy
Do you buy Dry
Do you buy Dry Goods!
Perhaps
Perhaps you
Perhaps you do.
Look
Look for
Look for our
Look for our Opening.
On
On next,
On next Saturday.
New
New Store,
New Store, Stock,
New Store, Stock, Prices,
365
365 George
365 George Street.
O.
O. C.
O. C. ROWSE. d44-w9

The Daily Review.
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1891.

FLOODS WEST AND SOUTH.

GREAT DAMAGE DONE ON THE PACIFIC SLOPE.

Railways the Principal Sufferers—An Arizona Town Drowned Out—Twenty Days' Rain Along the Tombigree

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—The latest reports show that the storm is about over. Heavy damage has been done to all railway property, especially in the southern portion of the state. Soledad Canon, on the line entering Los Angeles from this city, is in almost as bad a condition as last year. Much of the new and costly work, which required 10 months to complete, has suffered from the storm. Two hundred feet of the bridge west of Los Angeles has been carried away, the track washed out, the pile work broken and the tunnel at the entrance to the canyon damaged. On Yuma division much of the big bridge was destroyed and the track is six feet out of line in many places. The bridge near Monte was also swept away. Three washouts of a serious nature have occurred between Pomona and Cuyamauge and east of Colton 250 feet of the track, roundhouse sidings and everything movable has been carried away by the waters. Between Colton and Fanning several bridges have been weakened.

On Santa Ana branch the track is under water for long stretches and in some places has been swept away. South of Downey Station the new railroad bridge was destroyed and the town itself flooded. Between Seven Palms and Yuma the track is in a bad condition; over three miles have been swept away. For 150 miles between Seven Palms and Yuma the wires are down and nothing definite is known of the condition of the track. The Sunset route will probably be inoperative for a week, and no tickets to New Orleans will be sold at present. Atlantic and Pacific has had washouts near Borstow and has suspended the sale of overland tickets via. Mojave for one week. The passengers will be sent east over the Central Pacific. The latter route is in good condition, as is the Shasta line.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 27.—The late storm was one of the worst in the history of this section. But little damage resulted in the city proper. On the river front all the railway bridges were damaged and in some cases swept out. News from the surrounding country was meagre, owing to the telegraph wires being down, but so far as received the outlook is not encouraging. There are many rumors and reports of loss of life, but the only cases so far authenticated are the drowning of a man named Wells, with his wife and child, near Wilmington. Undoubtedly great damage was done to orchards and ranches south of the city, where the floods were the worst in years. Many houses were damaged, live stock drowned and fences and outbuildings destroyed.

Up to noon to-day reports showed at least six persons who had lost their lives in the floods. The family of Charles Watts is also missing from near Downey, and is supposed to have been drowned. The Wells family, consisting of man, wife and babe, were drowned at Duart, and the bodies of two Mexicans were found in the same neighborhood. S. Laurens was drowned at Wilmington while trying to rescue some cattle. The worst of the flood was probably at Downey and vicinity. Old and New San Gabriel Rivers broke from their banks and ran together and made a great inland sea, 6 to 10 miles wide and 17 miles long. Many houses were swept away, and a number of families occupying the territory inundated have not been heard from. Shots were heard in Downey Monday morning, fired at Watts' ranch. They are supposed to have been a signal of distress. The house was soon swept away, and it is feared that the whole family perished in the torrent.

Foreign Notes.

The King of Sweden has accepted the resignation of the Norwegian Cabinet.

An advance post of dervishes stationed at Abutena has surrendered to the Egyptian forces.

Empress Frederick left Paris yesterday. No unpleasant incident marked her departure.

Vienna papers attribute the agitation in Paris to Russian designs, carried on through Boulanger and his followers.

Sir James Fergusson in the House of Commons yesterday said an Egyptian garrison would be maintained at Tokar.

Mr Balfour, in reply to a question in the House yesterday, said the bail of Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien had been forfeited to the crown.

The friendly tribes have sent word to the Egyptian headquarters that they will not allow Osman Digna to take refuge in their country.

THE BRITISH ELECTIONS.

'TIS THOUGHT THEY WILL TAKE PLACE THIS YEAR.

The New Labor Commission to Be Made A Prominent Factor in the Campaign—Tokar to Be Garrisoned By British Troops.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—Information touching the Cabinet's discussion of a program leading up to dissolution of Parliament has reached the ministerial ranks, arousing increased expectancy of an appeal to the country in the autumn. Efforts to get a definite assurance from members of the Cabinet have been met simply by advice to be ready. William Henry Smith, First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer Goschen, President Hicks-Beach of the Board of Trade and President Chaplin of the Board of Agriculture believe the time opportune to test the fortunes of the party in a general election. Secretary Balfour and President Ritchie of the Local Government Board oppose the idea, the former desiring first to force the passage of an Irish Local Government measure. Lord Salisbury is believed to favor the autumn as the fitting time to go to the country if he can settle the Behring Sea dispute with the United States. In the opinion of the Foreign Office critical times are impending through troubles in Newfoundland, and the Egyptian occupation reaching a climax which Lord Salisbury's fabian tactics have hitherto averted. It is deemed impossible to protract negotiations with France. Another year must see a settlement injurious to the Government's reputation or a grave diplomatic collision with France. The Liberals have already completed their preparations for the coming contest. The local candidates have been selected and their central election fund is ample. The Conservatives are not so well organized. The intention of the Conservatives to make the labor question a prominent plank in their platform is indicated in various movements. The Prince of Wales will be the nominal president of the proposed labor commission. In response to the Parnellite request for Irish representation on the commission Michael Davitt will be nominated, which will displease the Parnellites. Mr. Parnell has stated in an interview with members of the Irish laborers union that he would aid in the organization of trades, and would support the 8 hours bill for every trade not likely to suffer from foreign competition by restricted hours. He would also support a reduction of the franchise to enable the election of workmen to Parliament.

The Parnellite campaign in Ireland progresses apace. The McCarthyites' delay in taking the field is a bad augury for their future. Ted Harrington, Mr. Redmond and other Parnellites warn the clergy that they will no further tolerate their hostility tamely.

The McCarthyites are confident of success after the campaign has been fairly opened. The Parnellites maintain that even if they obtain only 20 members of the House of Commons Gladstone will be compelled to buy their support before carrying Home Rule. Intimates of Parnell say worry is killing him. His former ghastly aspect and ill-health have returned. He speaks hurriedly, sometimes being confused and at a loss for a word. Dillon and O'Brien are still in the prison infirmary, but not confined to bed.

A social sensation has been caused by reports of a verbal fracas between the Queen and the Prince of Wales at Portsmouth yesterday. Before going to the launch the Prince heard alarming accounts of the position of Ex-Empress Frederick in Paris. He decided to go to bring her away, believing his popularity would prevent the threatened demonstration. He wired the Queen his intention. On arriving at the dockyard the Queen was heard accosting him with: "What did you say!—Turn my daughter out of Paris!—Nonsense, it's impossible!" The Prince, in an undertone, replied that he was so impressed with the gravity of the situation that he had wired his sister to leave immediately if she could not await him. The Queen visibly enraged repeated that it was impossible to believe any insult could be offered to her daughter. She then excitedly played her fingers on an electric battery to the alarm of the dock yard officials who dreaded a premature launching of the ship. She blamed the Prince for his injudicious course and threatened to countermand his telegrams. The Prince in moderate tones protested that a countermand would be unwise and urged his mother to send a telegram enforcing his advice. The Queen was soon appeased, and the Prince before leaving Portsmouth sent a cipher telegram to Ex-Empress Frederick backing his own wishes with the Queen's.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—The latest advices from Suakim are to the effect that the Anglo-Egyptian force is for the present resting at Tokar, where the battery of artillery is stationed, while the squadron of cavalry is scouring the country around in search of any remnants of the army.

General Grenfell has arrived from Cairo, to be near the scene of operations. Among the captives rescued at Tokar were three Egyptian women, who were taken by the Mahdi's forces at the time of the capture of Khartoum. They had ever since been in the household of Osman Digna. Hearing of the Egyptian advance they concealed themselves when the dervises abandoned Tokar.

COLLISION AT BUFFALO.

Several Trainmen Injured, One of Them Fatally.

BUFFALO, Feb. 27.—The Lehigh Valley fast passenger train from New York collided with an Erie freight at East Buffalo to-night. Both trains were derailed, two engineers, one fireman badly hurt and Brakeman Bottomley mortally injured. No passengers are said to have been hurt.

Dropped Dead on the Highway.

MOUNT FOREST, Feb. 27.—Peter Leslie, an old and respected farmer of Egremont, residing near Holstein, dropped dead on the roadway. Heart disease was the cause.

New Quarantine Station.

MONTREAL, Feb. 27.—On the application of Mr. Seargeant, general manager of the Grand Trunk Company, the Secretary of the Treasury at Washington has determined upon making Island Point, Vt., a quarantine station for cattle from Canada destined to points in or through Vermont, and shipments may now be made to Portland and other places in that district.

Powderly Will Not Resign.

SCRANTON, Pa., Feb. 27.—Mr. Powderly has arrived home from Philadelphia. He says there is no foundation for the report that he intends to resign from the office of General Master Workman of the Knights of Labor.

$200 for the Sufferers.

HAMILTON, Feb. 27.—The City Council has granted $200 to the Springhill sufferers.

RUSSIA AND ABYSSINIA.

An Expedition of Exploration Which Is Backed by the Czar

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 27.—The Russian expedition which is to penetrate into the interior of Abyssinia has obtained a semi-official stamp from the fact that the Czar has given Lieutenant Maschkoff, who commands the expedition, his autograph together with presents from the Czar to Negus Johannes of Abyssinia. The Russian foreign department will pay the expenses of the expedition.

M. de Giers, the Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, has been in communication with the Egyptian an Italian governments in order that the expedition may receive assistance in transit through Egyptian and Italian territory.

Unknown Schooner Sunk

SAVANNAH, Feb. 27.—An unknown schooner sank off Tugbee, North Breaks Thursday. It is supposed her crew of five negroes were all lost

Made Him Uneasy

PARIS, Feb. 27.—M. Ribot, Minister of Foreign Affairs, declared to-day that he never felt able to breathe freely during the past few days, until he knew Empress Frederick had retired for the night.

Arrived in England

LONDON, Feb. 27.—The Empress Frederick landed at Dover this afternoon and was enthusiastically received by crowds of people. Great throngs of people also welcomed the Empress on her arrival here.

Perished in the Flames.

PARIS, Feb. 27.—The Peiravaca pine forest near Mentone is on fire. An Alpine battalion made unsuccessful attempts to extinguish the flames. A sergeant and two privates were suffocated.

Sir Charles Dilke's Vindication.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—Sir Charles Dilke has assented to the proposal of the Liberal electors of the Forest Dean Division of Gloucestershire that he be their candidate for Parliament at the coming general election, and has supplied them with a statement for private circulation vindicating himself against the charges made against him in connection with the celebrated divorce case of some years ago.

Harrington Awarded £5.

DUBLIN, Feb. 27.—The suit of Timothy Harrington against the publisher of the anti Parnell paper, Insuppressible, was decided to-day. Harrington obtained a verdict of £5 damages

The Firm Aided by Baron Hirsch.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—The house which yesterday was reported to be in financial difficulties, and the condition of which was the cause of some alarm on the Stock Exchange, is now said to have tided over its troubles. The relief of the firm is said to be due to the fact that Baron Hirsch extended financial assistance. The tightness of money is attributed to the plans of the banks, which are quietly making an increase to their reserve funds.

Alsace-Lorraine.

BERLIN, Feb. 27.—Chancellor Von Caprivi has notified the Governor of Alsace-Lorraine to refrain from mitigating the passport regulations as proposed in Alsace-Lorraine in order to enable Frenchmen to cross the frontier and attend the fairs and markets in Upper Alsace. The Chancellor desires the Governor not to extend in any way additional facilities to the inhabitants of French frontier communes. The instructions in regard to passports in Alsace-Lorraine are universally regarded as Emperor William's answer to the decision of the French artists. The announcement of the passport instructions caused depression on the Berlin and Paris bourses. In Vienna this evening the bourse was much agitated.

THE GENESTA'S OWNER DEAD.

Sir Richard Sutton, Whose Yacht the Puritan Outsailed.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—The death is announced of Sir Richard Sutton, the owner of the English cutter-yacht Genesta, which raced with the Boston centreboard sloop Puritan in 1885 for the American Cup. Sir Richard Francis Sutton, fifth baronet, was born Dec. 23, 1853, and succeeded his father, Sir Richard, in 1878. He was High Sheriff in Berkshire in 1887. In 1888 he married Constance Edith, daughter of Sir Richard Rowland Corbet, third baronet. The Genesta arrived in New York harbor on July 16, 1885 having sailed from England just 30 days before. The great races between the Puritan and Genesta were sailed on Sept. 14 and 16 following. Both having been won by the Puritan, the third race was unnecessary to decide the contest. Three days the Genesta captured the Commodore's Cup of the New York Yacht Club. A banquet was tendered Sir Richard by the New York Club on Sept 24, and two days later he sailed for home. Much attention was shown the affable English yachtsman during his stay in this country which he appeared fully to appreciate.

Gave a Married Man $1000 to Elope with Her.

AMHERSTBURG, Feb. 26.—It is rumored that Adolphus Baker, a former resident of the 10th con. Mersea, has absconded and eloped. First he is said to have absconded with the proceeds of his sales and delivery of fruit trees, which he sold during the past autumn for a firm in Rochester, N.Y., and that he eloped with a woman from Sandusky Ohio. He is reported to have told a man in Mersea or Leamington that the Sandusky woman offered him $1000 if he would go with her to Florida and start an orange grove and he was met by a Mersea man between Detroit and Chicago. He left a wife and 4 or 5 children in Mersea not very well provided for.

The Thief Repented

REGINA, Feb. 27.—A man broke into Mr. A. Daykin's jewelry establishment. The noise caused by the breaking of a large pane of glass awoke Mr. Daykin, who fired a revolver at the burglar. The shot took no effect, however, and the robber escaped with about $50 worth of jewelry. The thief evidently had a fit of repentance soon afterwards, for the whole of the jewelry was brought back next morning and laid on the windowsill.

High Prices for Arctic Whalebone.

NEW BEDFORD, Feb. 27.—A sale was made to-day in New York of Arctic whalebone at $5.10 per pound the highest price ever paid at first hands. Holders are now asking $5.25.

Died After His Speech.

PLANKINTON, S.D., Feb. 27.—Hon. R. C. Ayres, a prominent member of the Board of Trustees of the University of South Dakota, fell dead yesterday after delivering a speech

Local Option Carried.

BEACHBURG, Feb. 27.—Voting on local prohibition in the Township of Westmeath took place to-day. Majority for prohibition 92.

Committed Suicide.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 27.—Word has been received that Reuben Irwin, formerly private secretary to the late C.P.R. Land Commissioner McTavish, committed suicide by drowning at Los Angeles, California.

BACK TO LIFE AND HOPE.

THE FOUR JEANESVILLE MINERS GRADUALLY RECOVERING.

"Big Joe" Metuskowitz Tells How They Suffered—Theirs Was a Terrible Struggle in the Pit of Death—The Shock May Prove Too Much for One of Them. All the Men Now Accounted For.

HAZLETON, Pa., Feb. 27.—Jeanesville to-day is crowded with sightseers, drawn in the hope of seeing the four men who for 19 days were shut in the mine. But in this they were disappointed. Coal and iron policemen guard the hall in which the men are still lying and none but physicians and attendants are admitted.

Dr. Esty of South Bethlehem, arrived this morning and has taken charge. He is assisted by two trained nurses from the Bethlehem Hospital. The hall was surrounded all day by a crowd of people, swelling into the hundreds, who had come from all the towns and villages round about. Unable to obtain admittance, they wandered over the town. Many went down the mine, and one party succeeded in getting into the breast where the men were found and bringing away a number of articles—a mining lamp, the lid of a dinner pail, some half chewed sticks of wood and other things to be treasured and exhibited as souvenirs. The couches occupied by the men have been improved since yesterday, making their surroundings as comfortable as possible. The patients rested well during the night, and when big Joe Metuskowitz awoke this morning he sat up in his bed and called for something to eat. The weakest one of the party is Wassel Frinko, though his condition has improved considerably since yesterday. All have improved, and Dr. Esty stated to-day that in all probability they would be strong enough by Saturday to bear removal to the hospital.

"Will they ever recover entirely?"

"I think they will, except, perhaps this man," replied the doctor, pointing to Frinko. "His system has sustained a terrible shock, and am afraid he will not fully recover for years, if at all. The others, I have no doubt, will, in the course of a month or so, be able to go about as usual, though they may not be able to resume work for some time longer. Joe Metuskowitz has a phenomenal constitution, and I should not be surprised to see him as well as ever within a month."

When The World correspondent called this morning the doctor and his assistants were preparing to give the four men a thorough wash and change of clothing. Up to that time they had remained just as taken from the mine. Mrs. J. C. Hayden, the wife of the mine operator, was in the room many times during the day lending her assistance in catering to the wants of the sick men, and seemed to be deeply interested in their recovery. She said the men were very fervent and spent most of their time in thanking their Divine Maker for his mercy in bringing them to safety. Later in the day the correspondent visited the hospital again. The faces of the sick men were all ghastly pale, and those of Frinko and John Tositer extremely emaciated and sunken. They all felt much better and were asleep, except "Big Joe," who, with his head propped high with pillows, was taking some beef tea. His appetite is insatiable, and he is constantly begging for some stronger food, but the doctors refuse to satisfy his cravings as yet. When he had taken his cup of beef tea he was ready to talk.

"Well, Joe, how do you feel to-day?" was asked.

"Much better; all right again soon, I guess," he replied. "I want to see my wife, but I can't. She is sick at home. Have you seen her?" He asked this very anxiously. The doctor had not yet told him that he had a little son born to him while he was shut up in the mine. He was assured that his wife, though a little sick, would be all right in a few days and that she had been wild with joy when she heard of his recovery. The poor fellow's eyes sparkled when she was told this.

"You had a wonderful escape, Joe."

"Yes, I had. It was God who saved me. I am very thankful to Him to Big Boss Dave, Supt. Macfarlane and all the men that helped. They were brave, good men, and I want to thank them all."

"Did you catch any rats while you were shut in?"

"Rats? We saw no rats at all. We scratched the bark of timbers when our bread was gone and chewed it, but it was no good at all."

"Did you try to eat your boots?"

"No, no. We didn't try that at all. We ate nothing but the bits of bread and bark."

"How long did the bread last?"

